Grandparents Section

Thanks to generous donations made in memory of Helen

Sturgell, (pictured here with great grandchild), a new Grandparents Section has been created in the children's area of the library. Two rocking chairs are available in this section for grandparents to read to their grandchildren. Many books will be available to check out with themes of families, sharing and love. People inspired to donate money in memory of Helen can drop off checks to the library. The money will purchase books for this area.

Adult Books

The Rooster Bar by John Grisham

Mark, Todd, and Zola came to law school to change the world, to make it a better place. But now, as third-year students, these close friends realize they have been duped. They all borrowed heavily to attend a third-tier, for-profit law school so mediocre that its graduates rarely pass the bar exam, let alone get good jobs. And when they learn that their school is one of a chain owned by a shady New York hedge-fund operator who also happens to own a bank specializing in student loans, the three know they have been caught up in The Great Law School Scam.

Lost Connections by Johann Hari

What really causes depression and anxiety - and how can we really solve them? Award-winning journalist Johann Hari suffered from depression since he was a child and started taking anti-depressants when he was a teenager. He was told that his problems were caused by a chemical imbalance in his brain. As an adult, trained in the social sciences, he began to investigate whether this was true - and he learned that almost everything we have been told about depression and anxiety is wrong.
