Caucuses Held In City Wards

Att'y D. L. Wilson Supervisor Candidate from the Third.

The republican ward caucuses held in the various precincts Wednesday evening were rather spirited in the second and third wards, two or more candidates being in the field for Supervisor.

FIRST WARD.

Wm. F. Bashaw, who has served his precinct in an able manner for several years, had no opposition and was placed in nomination by unanimous ballot.

George Pringle was nominated constable.

Ward Committee:—A. E. Cross, Dan E. Goodman and C. A. Brabant.

SECOND WARD.

Franklin L. Smith, who has represented this ward as supervisor for several years, won the nomination Wednesday day evening, by the close margin of five votes over his opponent.

Robert Barnett was nominated constable.

Ward Committee:—Robert Barnett, Josiah St. John, Wm. Aldrich.

THIRD WARD.

Three candidates were in the field for Supervisor honors and this ward being the largest voting precinct in Charlevoix County, it brought out a large number of electors. No choice was made on the first ballot, but on the second Att'y D. L. Wilson won the nomination. Mr. Wilson is a capable young man and will undoubtedly be of valuable service to the county in the Supervisor Board's deliberations.

Henry C. Cook was nominated for constable.

Ward Committee:—Walter Cook, Att'y D. L. Fitch, H. C. Blount.

Swat the Dandelion.

Taking time by the forelock, let's swat the dandelion. It is none to early to begin, for great vigilance is necessary in war upon this pretty but too numerous pest.

Feeling sure all readers will be interested in anything that will help to eradicate the plant, I have been watching for different "remedies" suggested and will use this column this week and next to pass them along to you.

Here is what one well known citizen prescribes: Last year we cleared our lawn of dandelions in a very easy way. And we are even now after those that are again springing up, apparently from nowhere. To each gallon of water we put one or two pounds of sulphate of iron, stir thoroughly and let stand for six hours. A cheap sulphate of iron is good enough for this purpose can be bought for about one cent a lb. If the dandelions are not too numerous they can be killed by spraying with the mixture. If the yard is well filled with them, give them a good soaking. The mixture will not injure the grass, but every dandelion so touched will immediately wither and die.

Writing a special article for a magazine, a park custodian gave his experience, and it was not at all encouraging. He declared the only remedy that had proved successful with him was to dig up each plant as it appeared in the early spring. He said that by beginning early he was able to keep several acres almost free from the pest, but that it required eternal vigilance to do so. Next week we will give remedies suggested by the Department of Agriculture, Washington, D. C., and by the superintendent of parks, Grand Forks, N. D.

The Office Devil

The editor was busy when he was asked: "How are the markets?" The man was referred to the office devil, who looked wise and said: "Young men unsteady; girls lively and in demand; papa firm, but declining; mamas, unsettled, waiting for higher bids; coffee, considerably mixed; fresh fish, active and slippery; eggs quiet, but expected to open soon; whiskey, still going down; onions, strong; yeast, rising; breadstuffs, heavy; boots and shoes, those on the market are sold and constantly going up and down; hats and caps, not so high as last year, excepting foolscap, which is stationary; tobacco, very low and has a downward tendency; silver close but not close enough to get hold of."—Ex.

If death loves a shining mark it's up to some men to wear wigs. Man is made of dust—which may account for his wanting the earth. It's easier for a man to shut up a 100-ton safe than a 100-pound wife.

TAFT ISSUES SECOND LETTER ON SPRAYING

State Inspector of Orchards Takes Up Subject of the San Jose Scale.

East Lansing, March 22.—L. R. Taft, state inspector of orchards, issued today his second letter this spring on spraying. Treating of the San Jose scale Mr. Taft says:

"The San Jose scale has now become distributed over most of the counties in the southern half of the lower peninsula and has destroyed thousands of trees which the owners had not taken the precaution to spray. On the other hand, where the proper remedies had been, thoroughly applied, the insects have been held in check and in many cases have been practically exterminated. Where spraying has failed to control them it is due to using too weak sprays, or from lack of thoroughness in spraying.

Lime-sulphur solution, either home-made or the commercial brands, is the most effectual remedy for this insect but it must be used at the rate of not less than one part of a 24 per cent commercial solution to nine parts of water; or one part of home-made solution (with the formula 100 pounds sulphur, sixty pounds lime and fifty gallons of water) in six parts of water.

Although the application may be made in the fall, or in the spring after freezing weather is over, the best results will be obtained when the treatment is given just as the buds are opening.

Scalecide and some of the other soluble oils are often used with good results but care should be taken not to apply them to peaches, plums and cherries; and upon other fruits a very fine spray only should be used.

Soluble sulphur is sometimes recommended for the San Jose scale. It is not a lime-sulphur preparation but is sulphide of soda, while lime-sulphur is sulphide of lime. We cannot recommend this material unless used about twice as strong as is advised by the manufacturers.

Before spraying for the San Jose scale the trees should be thoroughly pruned, all dead and surplus branches removed and the others headed back."

Of Interest To Women

Ruffles of various widths will decorate the new full skirts. One of dotted muslin has four ruffles, finished in the old-time pinking. A bodice of plain material or of silk is crost in surplice fashion in front and tied in a loose knot in the back.

A full skirt is finished in scallops outlined by a contrasting material. Above this is a high girde of the skirt material topped by a blouse of net or chiffon. The sleeves are long and full, finishing in a frill by a band of the material.

Combinations of plain and figured materials are liked for cotton goods as well as for silks and cloths. For instance, a flowered muslin or crepe skirt may have as many ruffles as the fancy dictates, combined with a prim little basque of plain crepe or taffeta buttoned straight down the front.

ONE SPOONFUL GIVES ASTONISHING RESULTS.

East Jordan residents are astonished at the QUICK results from the simple mixture of buckthorn bark, glycerine, etc., known as Adler-i-ka. This remedy acts on BOTH upper and lower bowel and is so THOROUGH a bowel cleanser that it is used successfully in appendicitis. ONE SPOONFUL of Adler-i-ka relieves almost ANY CASE of constipation, sour or gassy stomach. ONE MINUTE after you take it, the gasses rumble and pass out. Druggist.—JAMES GIDLEY.

Gidley Has A Walk-a-way

Now Has Clear Field for City Commissionership.

That the primary system is a 'gamble' was never better evidenced than the one held last Monday for City Commissioner. Three candidates were in the field, all business-men of our city, all members of one of our popular fraternal organizations, and all rattling good fellows. Each voter had his favorite, but all agreed that the vote would be pretty close among the three candidates.

When the votes were counted, however, James Gidley was in for one of the biggest surprises of his life. He not only led in the choice of candidates but had a majority of over a hundred over his two competitors.

In another column J. A. Lancaster, who received the next highest number of votes cast, announces that he will not be a candidate at the April election and will support Mr. Gidley. This gives the latter a clear field and insures his election.

To the Electors of the City of East Jordan.

It is evident from the vote cast Mar. 22nd, that Mr. Gidley is your choice for City Commissioner. I therefore will not be a candidate at the Election to be held April 5th and will heartily support James Gidley for above office.
J. A. LANCASTER.

Primary Election Canvass.

I hereby certify that I have canvassed the returns of the city primary election of March 22, 1915, as given by the several boards of election inspectors, and find the result to be as follows:

And Along Came Ruth

"Where are you, Auntie?" Ruth's merry voice rang through the house.

"In the kitchen, dear, looking for some lost rice."

"What in the world do you mean?" Ruth asked, appearing at the kitchen door just as her aunt closed the refrigerator and said in a discouraged tone: "Well, someone has eaten up that cup of cooked rice I had meant to put in the chicken soup. What in the world am I to do?"

"Easy," said Ruth. "Stick a shredded wheat biscuit in the oven for a minute, then crumble it into the soup. It will taste just like noodles."

And along went Ruth.

WARNING

All persons having rubbish to dump are hereby notified to place same at the city dump and nowhere else within the city limits.

All dead animals and putrid flesh must be buried. Persons placing such matter on the city dump are liable to arrest and fine.

Heard on the Street.

The other day a group of men were discussing the dry weather. One man remarked:—

It is so dry up my way that all the creeks are dried up and the fish are standing on their noses and you can pull them up like radishes.

That's nothing like it out my way, said another man. I was walking along the road and I saw a man pull up a 395 foot well and run it through a clothes wringer to get the baby a drink.

THE CHILDREN'S STORY TELLING CLUB

Essilyn Dale Nichols, Editor

1527-35 St., Rock Island, Ill.

Send Manuscript and Letters for this Department Direct to the Editor of this Department.

Well, little folks, here we are again—ready to enjoy our little visit together. It's lots of fun, isn't it, having a splendid club like ours, where we can talk together every week? It pleases me very much to know that you are all enjoying the Missing Word Contest and taking such an interest in it. INTEREST, dears, is what makes things worth while; and it is YOUR interest in our club that is making it so well worth while. I hope you will always enjoy it as well as you are enjoying it now, and I hope and believe that it will grow bigger and finer all the time until it is one of the finest clubs in the United States. What do YOU think about it? Now I must quit talking or we won't have room for all the letters I want to print. Our first letter is from a little boy who lives in Copemish, Michigan.

Dear Editor:—I like to read the letters in the Children's Story Telling Club. I would like to join. Will you please send me a membership card? I am a little boy seven years old and go to school every day. I have one brother and two sisters. Their names are Howard, Violet and Lucille. I am sending an answer to the Missing Word Contest: 1, Years; 2, Biddy; 3, Small; 4, Roof; 5, Legs; 6, Show; 7, Said; 8, See; 9, Squack; 10, Head; 11, Frightened; 12, Pull. If I guessed right I would like a story book. Now I must close. I shall watch for my letter in the paper. Good-bye, from your little friend, Wilbert Adams.

Wilbert, you wrote a fine letter and I was very glad to send you a membership card. I hope you will write again and often. Our next letter is from Rosa Pinkler, Conklin, Mich.

Dear Editor:—I am going to write you a letter in which I am going to send the Missing Words in the contest. Here they are: 1, Years; 2, Biddy; 3, Stick; 4, Board; 5, Nest; 6, Hide; 7, Said; 8, See; 9, Spring; 10, Head; 11, Doubtful; 12, Pull. I hope I will win the first prize. I am a girl twelve years old. I am in the eighth grade. I have two brothers named Ward and William and one sister, Florence. My father's and mother's wedding day was on Lincoln's birthday. They have been married fourteen years. Please have my other letter in print if you think it fit. I will write a story about my pets next time. From Rosa Pinkler.

Rosa, I am as pleased to print your second letter as I was to print your first one; and I am sure we will ALL be pleased to hear about your pets. Our next letter is from Chester Bromley, Nashville, Michigan.

Dear Editor:—I have been reading the stories in the Children's Story Telling Club, and thought I would write and see if I can be a member. I am nine years old and in the third grade. I go to school every day and I have never been tardy since I commenced going to school. I live on a farm. I have no brothers or sisters. I have a little black dog and I call it Rags, and a big black cat and its name is Nig. So I'll try and not make my letter too long and hope to see it in the paper and I will try and guess the Missing Words in the poem. I will try and do better next time. Yours truly, Chester Bromley, Nashville, Michigan. 1, Years; 2, Biddy; 3, Ruff; 4, Roof; 5, Feet; 6, Fix; 7, Said; 8, Make; 9, Cackle; 10, Head; 11, Scornful; 12, Pull.

Chester, your letter wasn't a bit too long and I enjoyed printing it very much. I think your school record is a good one and you should be proud of it. Write again. Our next letter follows:

Dear Editor:—I have been reading the letters and like them very well. I have not written before. That contest you are going to have will be a very nice one. I have tried it. Enclosed are the Missing Words. I hope they are right. I go to school every day. I have three brothers and three sisters. We had Valentines at school; I got six. I hope to see this in print. Yours truly, Marjorie Sprague, Kent City, Mich. 1, Years; 2, Biddy; 3, Little; 4, Floor; 5, Legs; 6, Show; 7, Said; 8, See; 9, Look; 10, Head; 11, Injured; 12, Comb.

Marjorie, thank you for a nice letter. I hope you received your membership card all right. I am glad you like the contest.

Dear Editor:—I received my membership card and I think it is very nice. I am sending in the Missing Words for the contest: 1, Years; 2, Biddy; 3, Hand; 4, Door; 5, Legs; 6, Show; 7, Said; 8, See; 9, Look; 10, Head; 11, Wounded; 12, Comb. Here are some riddles for the members to guess: 1—What is the difference between a church steeple and a pin and the earth? 2—What do you take from six to leave nine? Yours truly, Mary E. Blosser, Caledonia, Michigan.

I am glad you liked your membership card, Mary. Who can send in the correct answers to Mary's riddles? Write again, Mary.

Dear Editor:—I am trying to get the prize. 1, Years; 2, Biddy; 3, Small; 4, Corner; 5, Legs; 6, Hide; 7, Said; 8, See; 9, Glance; 10, Head; 11, Graceful; 12, Comb. From Ida Fuller, Prosser, Washington.

You will certainly receive a prize, Ida, some time in April. Thank you for trying.

Dear Editor:—I saw that most all of the children were joining the Story Telling Club so I thought I would join. I am thirteen years old and am in the sixth and seventh grades. I have one brother and one sister. My sister's name is Elsie; she is nine years old. My brother's name is Everett; he is eighteen years old. I go to school and a half to school. I will be glad when I receive my membership card. I have no pets. I live two miles from town. I like the stories in the Children's Story Telling Club. I thought I would join before the contest was over. Missing Words: 1, Years; 2, Biddy; 3, Snarled; 4, Floor; 5, Legs; 6, Break; 7, Said; 8, See; 9, Look; 10, Head; 11, Frightened; 12, Comb. I think those are the correct words and I hope I will win the prize. I will not write a story this time as my letter will be long enough without. We had our Valentine box yesterday at the school house. Had a fine Christmas; hope you all did. There are about eighteen or twenty scholars in our school. One of them is in camp. I will have to close because this letter is too long now. From your little friend, Edna Viola Van Tapp, Moorestown, Michigan.

Edna, dear, I liked your letter fine, and I hope you have received your membership card before this. We will look for a story from you some of these days. Every one receives a prize in this contest, girlie, so you will not be disappointed.

Dear Editor:—I am eleven years old. I have guessed the words but I do not know if they are right. 1, Years; 2, Biddy; 3, Hand; 4, Roof; 5, Head; 6, Said; 7, Have; 8, Peck; 9, Head; 10, Fearful; 11, Pull. I do not know if they are right or not. If they are, I will take the doll. Will you please send me a membership card? Good-bye. Margaret Brink, Grand Rapids, Mich.

Of course, I will send you a membership card, Margaret; I hope you have received it before this. You will receive your prize in April.

Dear Editor:—I will try and fill in the words of the Missing Word verses. 1, Years; 2, Biddy; 3, Tail; 4, Roof; 5, Legs; 6, Lay; 7, Said; 8, Make; 9, Pick; 10, Head; 11, Ruffled; 12, Pull. I received your membership card. I will thank you for it. Your friend, Ruthie Schwartz, Conklin, Michigan.

I am glad you received your membership, Ruthie. I always like to have the little folks write and tell me about receiving their cards, for then I know they are not disappointed. I hope you will write often for our club, Ruthie.

Dear Editor:—I haven't been writing to the club for quite a while; but just as soon as I heard that you were going to have a big contest I will start writing again. I didn't get a chance to send in a name for the first contest, did I? Well, I will write the Missing Words in your contest: 1, Years; 2, Biddy; 3, Tiny; 4, Window; 5, Nest; 6, Lay; 7, Said; 8, Fix; 9, Quack; 10, Head; 11, Saucy; 12, Tangle. I hope I will win a nice doll for I haven't got one myself. I hope to be a faithful member of your club. Mary E. Bridges, Paris, Michigan.

Didn't you get a chance to try our first contest, Mary? That was rather disappointing, wasn't it? But then, we are both glad that you are trying in THIS contest, aren't we? And of course you'll get a prize because this is the contest where every boy and girl that takes part wins a prize. I am certain that you will be a faithful member, Mary, because you have already proven that you know how to be one.

Dear Editor:—I would like to join your club. I have been reading the stories and letters and I think they are very nice. I am ten years old and am in the fifth grade at school. I like to go to school. Enclosed please find the Missing Words verses... The best stories I like are Hans and Gretel and the Robby Twins in the Country. I have a few pets; they are a dog named Buster Brown and a cat named Snowball; I have one sister; her name is Violet. I will close now, hoping that I will win in the contest. I get in the wood every night and feed the chickens in the morning and at night. From Raymond Wright, White Cloud, Michigan.

Missing Words: 1, Years; 2, Biddy; 3, Small; 4, Sills; 5, Legs; 6, Hatch; 7, Said; 8, See; 9, Plunge; 10, Head; 11, Serious; 12, Pull.

Raymond, you are a smart little boy and I am very glad to welcome you as a member of our club. I think it is fun to feed the chickens, don't you? I used to live in the country when I was a little girl, and I used to feed the chickens sometimes, too. I don't believe I ever read "The Robby Twins in the Country, Raymond; but I've read Hans and Gretel and think it is a fine story. Write again.

Dear Editor:—I received my membership card—many thanks. I read your letters and stories every week and am much interested. We had a Valentine box up to our school Friday. We all exchanged Valentines and had a short program in memory of Lincoln's birthday. We scholars gave our teacher, Miss Louise Leming, a surprise last Tuesday evening at her boarding place; played games, sang and had a dandy time. We were treated to popcorn and a lovely midnight lunch. We went in sleigh loads, which made it jolly. Our teacher's home is at Freeport, where the paper is printed, and my parents go there to do most of their trading. I also take my music lessons there. Guess this will be long enough for this time and I will close enclosing the Missing Words for the contest in which I hope I will win a prize: 1, Years; 2, Biddy; 3, Hand; 4, Roof; 5, Nest; 6, Lay; 7,

Said; 8, See; 9, Cackle; 10, Head; 11, Another; 12, Comb. I will close now and hope to see it in print if not to win. But you know I should surely like the doll. Your little friend, Cecile Mae Vester, Hastings, Michigan.

You wrote a lovely, lovely letter, Cecile; and your description of your surprise party on your teacher was fine indeed. I think most little girls like dolls, Cecile. I used to love dolls when I was little and now I love little boys and girls. That's the reason I enjoy talking to our little club members so well. You will surely win a prize, dearie, and you may look for it some time in April. And now for our last letter, which will be all we have room for this week.

Dear Editor:—I have been reading the stories in the Children's Story Telling Club and I saw, too, the Missing Word contest and I thought I would try to answer it if I could: 1, Years; 2, Biddy; 3, Mussed; 4, Roof; 5, Legs; 6, See; 7, Said; 8, See; 9, Cluck; 10, Head; 11, Graceful; 12, Comb. Grace Church, Howard City, Michigan.

Thank you, Grace, for joining our contest. We are also pleased to welcome you to our club and hope you will write many nice letters for it. Now, good-bye. Next week we will publish many other letters.

Steamed Cranberry Pudding.

Steam in a covered buttered mold for three hours and serve with sweetened cream.

INSTRUCTIONS

M. ELIZABETH HARPER, Editor and Designer
248 Lexington Ave., N. W., Grand Rapids, Mich.

Cut out the outline drawing and place on a regular drawing table, fastening the paper by inserting thumb tacks at each corner. If you have not a drawing table the design may be fastened to a large pasteboard, or soft, smooth board. Water colors, or crayons may be used for the work. Each section you will note is marked with a letter from the alphabet. Now begin with letter A, all sections marked A, color red; B, blue; C, brown; D, yellow; E, green; F, black.

The drawings, when completed, may be pasted on pasteboard, or in a scrap book for keeping. Parents should encourage and help their children to start. The little one will find pleasure and enjoyment in coloring the drawings. It is a good pastime, and educates the child. The Editor of the department invites correspondence and will gladly answer questions on drawing, review work and offer suggestions when stamp is enclosed for a reply.

WHY THERE IS THE "THE STATE OF MIND"

TO WHICH PRESIDENT WILSON RECENTLY REFERRED.

NATION IS HOMESICK

A Large Majority of the American People Are Longing to Return to National Policies That Have Always Been Successful—Treasury Deficiencies and Emergency Taxes Are Strange Experiences.

President Wilson recently declared to a group of business men whom he had summoned to the White House to advise with touching some phase of the present depressed industrial situation that he was greatly puzzled by the continued stagnation in the realm of business movements and that in his opinion the existing unfortunate condition of affairs was in great part psychological, that it was due to a state of mind rather than to any actual causes that could be remedied or removed.

And even from the viewpoint of orthodox republicans it will be admitted that there is a great deal of truth in President Wilson's statement. If President Wilson has ever been homesick; if he has ever been so far away from familiar scenes and friendly faces as to wish himself back again with the old home conditions; if he has ever worried through the days and spent the nights awake because of unhappiness over his strange surroundings, and through his longing to be again with those he better knew,—if the President has ever undergone this experience he can realize something of the force and effect of a "state of mind," and he can sympathize with a very large majority of the people of the United States over their present homesickness.

President Wilson knows it to be true, of course, that he was not the choice of a majority of the voters of this country for the office he now holds.

He knows it to be true that only through an unfortunate division of a great body of voters, who were actually united in sympathy and in purpose on the more important policies of national management and national legislation, was it made possible for him to become the nation's chief executive.

It is therefore true that almost every political action taken by President Wilson has been in opposition to the sympathies and the wishes of a large majority of the people of this country.

They respect him as a well equipped scholar and as a high minded gentleman, and they recognize the deference and the loyalty due to him as the honored occupant of our country's first official position.

But most of the people of the United States believe that Mr. Wilson's political theories are not capable of successful demonstration.

They know that all efforts in the past to apply the policies and principles of President Wilson's party to the business and governmental affairs of our nation have resulted in failures and disasters.

The great body of the American people are homesick as far as the important affairs of our government are concerned.

Perhaps it is true that those now in control are honest and earnest, and it will not be questioned that they are hoping for success. But their ways are different; their methods are peculiar and the policies they are insisting upon are not those which through years gone by have been accompanied by national prosperity and national happiness.

They want to go back to the better American ways and the happier American days.

They are disturbed through days and nights by national treasury deficiencies and emergency forms of taxation. They are distressed by idle factories and silent mills; by hearing the appeals of the needy for employment and by observing the increasingly long bread lines.

They remember, the great body of the American people do, that at other times in the history of our country there have been treasury deficiencies and emergency taxes and idle working men and long lines of the hungry and the distressed.

And they recall that these were times when President Wilson's party was experimenting on a nation, as he has been doing, with its peculiar policies and its political theories. And in these other days as in the present days these experiments created the nation-wide "state of mind" to which he recently referred, the condition of national homesickness.

Is it to be wondered at that the people of the United States are anxious to vote again?

That they are eager to return with their country as a whole to the surroundings they better know; to policies more familiar and more fortunate and more in harmony with the genius and the spirit of American life?

President Wilson is insisting upon subjecting the people of the United States to the results of political policies they have always opposed and have found to be undesirable.

They are away from home, and most of them are very anxious to have our country retrace the steps of its last unfortunate political pilgrimage and to begin again along a pathway not so troubled with discontent and with lack of confidence and with all the ills and worries that accompany individual and national travelers in wrong directions.

But many a fair woman is unfair.

You cannot buy experience on credit.

It's a shame what bad little boys think of good little boys.

Temperance

(Conducted by the National Woman's Christian Temperance Union.)

WILL GET THEIR EYES OPENED.

"When liquor is put out of America I believe it will be by the men who drink," says Hon. Seaborn Wright of Georgia. "If they could realize how they are being deceived there would be ten thousand Boston tea parties today."

"Do you know," he continued, "that it costs less than twenty cents to make one gallon of whiskey? Then why is it that the man who drinks pays two or three dollars for an article which costs less than twenty cents to produce? I wonder how many men who drink stop to ask, 'Why do I pay twelve hundred per cent above the cost to produce it, twelve hundred per cent more than my father paid before the Civil war?' The answer is simple. The federal government has placed a revenue of one dollar and ten cents on each gallon of liquor. If it ended there then a revenue of two billion dollars would be paid. But the manufacturer turns to his clerk and says, 'Add the cost of production to the price.' Never on earth has the liquor trust paid one dollar to the federal government and it never will."

NORTH CAROLINA CONDITIONS.

Speaking of the conditions in North Carolina, Mr. M. L. Shipman, state commissioner of labor, says:

"Whisky distilleries have been displaced with industrial plants and over the remains of the saloon have been erected splendid school buildings and magnificent church edifices. In Gaston county alone 26 distilleries were in operation under former conditions. It now boasts of 47 textile plants, employing more than 7,000 people, and makes the further claim of having one of the finest systems of public schools in the state. This condition prevails generally throughout the commonwealth. Instead of spending their weekly earnings in saloons, and frequently in police stations, the wage-earners of North Carolina are now providing an abundance of wholesome food and adequate clothing for their families."

EFFECT OF A GLASS OF BEER.

It has been scientifically demonstrated by experiments made in the Swedish army that even a small quantity of alcohol decreases the marksmanship of the man behind the gun. Under Lieutenant Bengt Boy a squad of soldiers were put through a test after having gone without beer for a certain period of time. Out of a total of 30 targets their average was 23 shots.

Later these same soldiers were allowed a glass of beer apiece one evening and another glass the following morning, and the average number of hits that afternoon was three. To check up this result which seemed out of reason, another test without beer was made some days later, when these same soldiers averaged 26 hits.

BREWERIES REPLACED.

From Spokane, Wash., comes word that the Dollar Brewery building, located on the fort grounds, is being torn down to make way for a paper mill. The North Yakima brewery is to be connected with a fruit preserving and fruit canning factory, and will also make grape juice, vinegar and other fruit extracts. The manager of this brewery is not only reconciled to but is enthusiastic over the change. Thousands of tons of fruit go to waste every year in Washington and Oregon, and, he says, a great industry can be built up in the packing and canning business which will bring great prosperity to these states.

SENTIMENT AGAINST LIQUOR.

In England, as in other warring countries, there is a very rapidly growing sentiment against the drink traffic. Mrs. Parker, sister of Earl Kitchener, declares that between 30 and 40 per cent of the new soldiers are being rendered inefficient through drink and attendant evils, and she states that the prime minister admits the percent to be from 10 to 15. Mrs. Parker says, "Russia has done away with intoxicants. Why not Britain?"

PANAMA CANAL DRY.

Under an order signed by the governor of the Panama Canal zone, Col. George W. Goethals, all canal transportation employees are forbidden to use liquor. This includes pilots taking ships through the canal, captains of tugboats, mates and others.

THE SAME IN EVERY CITY.

The Associated Charities of Columbus, O., says the organization gave aid to one in every forty people in the city last year. It gives fifteen causes for the necessity of such assistance, and intemperance heads the list.

LIQUOR IS BARRED.

The contest board of the American Automobile Association now prohibits not only the use of liquors by drivers, mechanics and officials of races, but refuses to sanction any race at which liquor is sold on the grounds.

Contests in Oratory were held Friday.

The first annual declamation and oratorical contest of the high school was held yesterday afternoon at the high school building. Six students were entered for the declamation contest which was open to the members of the Freshman and Sophomore classes and six entered the oratorical contest which was for the Juniors and Seniors. These contests were held to give students practice in public speaking and to select representatives to be sent to the sub-district contest.

In declamation first place was given to Oscar Bennett with the subject, "Regullus to the Carthaginians," second to Walter Hockstad on "The Southern Negro" and third to Charles Danto who gave "Toussaint L Overture."

In the oratorical contest the productions were original and showed much preparation on the part of all contestants. First place was won by Grace Howard with the oration, "Women and War," second place by Grace Malpass on the subject, "The Miner" and third by Helen Hilliard on "Florence Nightingale."

The judges of the contests were Mrs. D. H. Fitch, W. L. Peck and D. L. Wilson.

STRAWBERRIES

Story and History
Of the Strawberry and
How to Grow them.
And my Success as a Grower.

W. F. Tindall, Boyne City, Mich.

SELECTING THE STRAWBERRY PLANTS.

The best kind of strawberry plants are those grown from parent plants that have not fruited, but I think the most important thing is to have the plants strong and vigorous and as free from disease as possible.

Some people who claim to be high up in strawberry culture will tell you to get Thoroughbred Pedigree plants, and, of course, this sounds nice, but who ever saw a strawberry plant that was not a thoroughbred? The strawberry plant does not mix; as is the old plant, so will be the young; the only way to get new varieties is through seed propagation.

So far as the Pedigree of a strawberry plant goes, I don't think there is much to it. You can take the so-called thoroughbred Pedigree plants and they will be an absolute failure if not cared for. On the other hand, you can take plants out of an old run-out bed and set them on good soil and with proper spraying and good care they will produce a good crop of nice berries, providing they are properly mated.

A very common mistake is to go to an old bed and take up plants. Not knowing the varieties one is apt to get only imperfect flowered kinds and if so, your time and the use of your ground for the two years it takes to grow your first crop is gone for naught.

A neighbor of mine did almost this very thing, only he had previously ordered his plants from a nursery to set a small propagating bed, but the perfect flowered kind either died or did not do well, or perhaps he did not order any in the first place; anyway, he set out about one-half acre and the consequence was he did not get one quart of marketable berries and was thoroughly disgusted and discouraged in attempting to grow strawberries.

The strawberry blossom has sex, like animals, and varieties having a combination of the two sexes must be planted beside those varieties that have but one sex to their blossoms.

The strawberry plants produce two kinds of blossoms; the "perfect" and the "imperfect." The perfect blossoms have all the four parts of a flower stamens, pistils, calyx and corolla; the varieties that have imperfect blossoms lack stamens. Stamens are the male organs and pistils the female organs of the blooms. Thus a berry that has stamens is often called a "staminate," or perfect flowered, and one that lacks stamens but has pistils is called a "pistillate," or imperfect flowered variety. Perfect flowered varieties can be planted alone and will bear good crops of berries, but imperfect flowered varieties will not bear good berries when planted alone. They must have the companionship of a perfect flowered variety in order to produce perfect fruit.

It is best to not have the two varieties too far apart; not over one rod at farthest, and care should be taken to have the two varieties bloom at the same time; a late variety would not fertilize an early variety properly, or vice versa.

My method is to grow my own plants, always sending to some reliable nurseryman for new stock or any new variety I wish to try, getting only one or two hundred plants and fruiting them in a small way two or three seasons before setting very extensively of them.

This method could not always be followed; as a matter of fact, I don't think it would be practicable in a majority of cases. The nurseryman is more apt to keep his stock free from disease, for they are carefully cared for and sprayed and must be passed upon by the state inspector before he can offer them to the public. Not so with your home patch; it is scarcely ever sprayed and does not always receive the best of care.

It is claimed that the pistillate, or imperfect flowered kind, will yield larger crops of berries if properly mated; also, they are claimed to be more immune to frost; with me, the Senator Dunlap and Brandywine, both perfect flowered varieties, have been the best yielders.

I think the perfect flowered varieties are more dependable; they may be a little more tender in blossom, during the frosts of spring, but they fertilize much more readily from the stamens of their own flowers and will bear crops of fruit during a rainy season that would cause the imperfect flowered varieties to fail.

ophthalmia, or moonblindness, and roaring (thick wind.)

The introduction of Percheron horses into the United States dates back many years. One of the early stallions brought to this country which exerted considerable influence on our draft stock was Louis Napoleon, imported in 1851 by an Ohio firm. Other Percherons were imported about this time and during succeeding years. During the early seventies pounds, and there are many which weigh considerably over 2,000 pounds. In height good, mature stallions will measure 16 to 17 hands, with a general average of about 16 1/2 hands, but of course there are some under and a few over these heights, although the rangy, tall Percheron is not in demand in this country. The popular Percheron is rather short-legged, compact, and blocky in form, less so than the Belgian, but more so than the Clydesthey were imported in quite large numbers, and these importations have continued to date.

The head of the Percheron is clean-cut, of medium size, and more refinement is noticed about the head and neck of the Percheron than of any other draft breed. The neck is rather short and well crested. The chest is deep and broad, the back is short, the loins smooth and well muscled. The croup is wide, and on the average is somewhat more sloping than is considered desirable, but great improvement in this respect has been made in recent years. The legs, feet and bone are on the average good. The legs are free from the long hair or feather characteristic of the Clydesdale and Shire. In action the Percheron is good at both the trot and the walk, and the trot is characterized by a snap and boldness not ordinarily displayed by the other draft breeds. This breed may be regarded as one of the best movers and is surpassed in style of action only by the Clydesdale.

The Percheron is not so large a horse as either the Belgian or the Shire, but as a class will probably outweigh the Clydesdale slightly. Good, mature stallions in fair condition will usually weigh from 1,800 to 2,000 dale or even the Shire. The colors common to the Percheron are black and gray, although bays, browns, chestnuts, and roans are occasionally seen. It may be safely stated, however, that 90 per cent of our Percherons are either black or gray.

While occasionally difficulty may be experienced in deciding whether an animal is a Percheron or a Belgian, the two types are quite distinct. The Belgian is heavier bodied, more compact, shorter legged, and his head is more square in outline; the neck is shorter, more heavily muscled, and more heavily crested. Moreover, the colors common to the Belgian—namely, bay, chestnut and roan—are uncommon to the Percheron, while the gray and black colors common to the latter are uncommon in the Belgian.

Some Percherons are criticized as having croups too sloping or steep, with tail set too low. Others are criticized as being too fine—not sufficiently drafty—having a lack of depth and fullness of body. Other faults which are sometimes seen are cannon bones which are rather round, lacking in breadth and flatness, lack of bone for the size of the body, and pasterns which are too short and straight.

to west winds and possibly some cloudiness in the forenoon with drier and generally fair for the rest of the day.

Ohio Valley—Generally fair and windy. Changeable in afternoon to late evening.

Western States—Windy, cooler and partly cloudy.

April 4th to 10th.

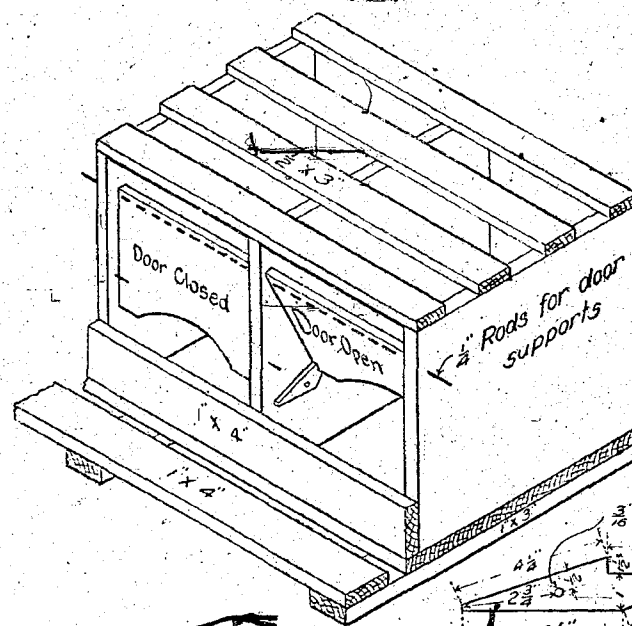

While the weather is expected to be generally fair, with westerly to northerly winds over most of the United States east of the Rocky Mountains as the week opens, the western states will begin feeling the effects of another storm. Much warmer temperatures with southeast and southerly winds increasing in force over the western coast region during the first of the week will bring falling barometer and storms of heavy rain to Tennessee, Alabama, Mississippi, Louisiana and Eastern Texas.

Electrical manifestations and showers will visit many other sections of the United States during the next three or four days. These conditions should reach the Mississippi valley about Tuesday, the 6th, and eastern states on or about the 8th. A sudden change to much colder, with frosts far to the south, will follow closely after this storm.

About Tuesday, the 6th, storm conditions will gather in the west, moving into the Plain states on Wednesday, Mississippi valley, about Thursday, the 8th, reaching the Atlantic coast at the end of the week. This storm wave will bring foggy conditions to sections of the Great Lakes region and moderate the cold of the eastern states about Friday, the 9th. Cooler weather and northwest winds will bring up in the rear with a possibility of killing frosts as far south as North Carolina, Tennessee and Arkansas, and light frosts still farther south.

The "Connecticut" Trap Nest

THE TRAP NEST.

The ingenuity of man invented the trap nest several years ago, that he might trap the laying hen and by so doing cull the unprofitable hens from his flock and determine the number of eggs each individual hen would lay in one year.

There are a number of such nests upon the market at the present time, some that are reliable, more so than others.

We offer a nest, illustrated with dimensions, so plain that a person who is at all handy with tools may construct. This nest is called the "Connecticut," used at the Connecticut Agricultural College.

The trap nest permits pedigree breeding and to the one who has never trap nested, he will find it a great educator and a helper in obtaining knowledge of poultry raising.

The hens soon learn the trap nest and the attention of caring for a pen of trap-nested fowls does not require much more time than does a pen not trap nested. The attendant visits the coops at 9, 10 a. m. and 3 p. m. This is about the right time and if you are particular about the time each day the hens will soon learn this and will be ready to be liberated at those hours.

POULTRY POINTERS.

Quality of eggs is governed by the food the hens eat.

It is not so much the matter of breed as it is the strain.

To keep the yards clean and healthy there is nothing better than frequent stirring of the soil.

To purchase eggs is the least expensive way to get a start in good poultry, but it will take longer.

Often we have said, "Feed is as important as breed," and sometimes, "The way it is fed is more important than the feed."

Eggs shipped any distance, or that have been subjected to sudden jars, should rest at least twenty-four hours before starting to incubate.

If you have no shade in your runs, plant trees. Shade is necessary for poultry and fruit yields better, as a rule, where poultry have the benefit of the trees in their runs.

Do not feed sloppy food to little chicks; this alone is the cause of as much bowel trouble as any one thing. Water becoming warm, and stale will give you trouble.

Galvanized iron feed and water troughs are better than wood and more easily kept clean and in a sanitary condition. A good feed trough is made of galvanized iron, something of the plan of an eave trough, only make them from two to three feet long and have your tinner solder on the ends at an angle, then they will nest.

Rolled oats, or steel cut oats, is one of the most valuable feeds we can feed to growing stock, as it is a muscle and bone builder. The writer has fed it a number of times as an experiment to whole hatches, with no other food, with the best of results. However, this we would not advise doing, but it should be on your bill of fare and there can be no mistake made.

The incubator and brooder lamp wicks should be trimmed once a day; morning is preferred for this work, and again in the evening supply each lamp with a fresh supply of oil and just before retiring for the night a look at each lamp, then if running smoothly it will generally continue for the balance of the night. With this system there will be but few times and a mere chance if a lamp goes wrong during the night.

One of the ideal colony houses for little chicks after feathered and ready to leave the brooder house, is built like the latter. A with a window at one end and a door at the other, seven feet high to center and six feet wide, built on runners. This is a cheaply constructed house and is a good one. Many place the brooder in the colony house and when the chicks do not need the brooder it is removed to another house for a new batch of chicks.

PERCHERON.

The Percheron originated in France and has been developed in a small district in the northwestern part of that country known as Perche. This district is about one-fifteenth the size of the State of Iowa, and only Percherons born within its boundaries are eligible to registry in the Percheron Studbook of France. Percheron foals, to be accepted for registry in the French book, must be registered dur-

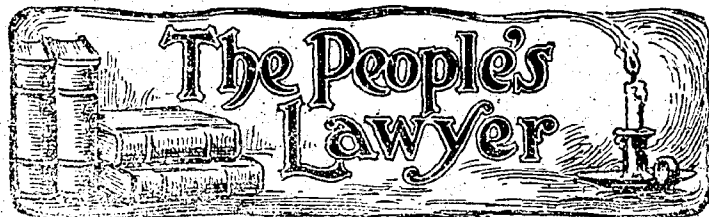

The Percheron Horse Society of France was organized in 1883, and in addition to looking after the registration of Percherons it holds an annual summer show in the Percheron district. The society also offers prizes at other shows. The improvement of the Percheron and other breeds in France is due to both public and private efforts. The government has for a number of years maintained studs in which selected animals have been kept for breeding purposes. In addition, subsidies are granted to private individuals in order to keep high-class horses in the stud. Stallions intended to stand for public service in France must be examined by officials appointed by the government and certified as being free from periodic

CONTRACTS.

If a lawyer were asked what one department of law figured most often in law suits he would unhesitatingly answer, contracts. Day after day in every court in the land, excepting criminal courts, contests over contracts are fought out. If the total amount of money lost in any single year through faulty contracts was computed the sum would appear of startling proportions.

A contract is a bringing together of two minds to a common intent.

Broadly speaking, very nearly everything in law outside of crimes are contracts. The subject is so broad and complex that hardly two lawyers or two judges agree on the exact limitations of contracts. More books have been written on the subject than any other in law.

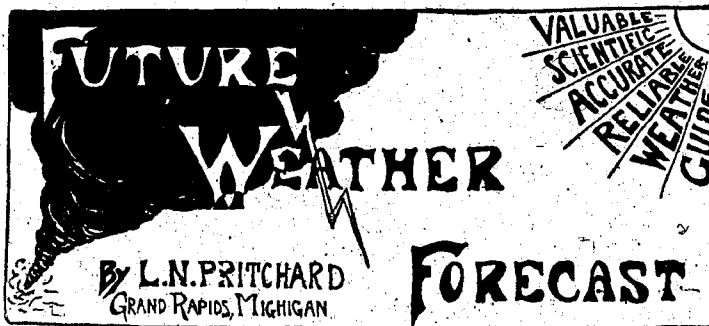

Generally speaking, no one should enter into an important contract without insisting that the paper be drawn by a lawyer. The law is so arranged that a contract can be declared invalid for the mere reason that it does not clearly express itself.

Concisely, a contract must concur in three general particulars to become valid and binding. It must be entered into by competent parties, have subject matter and be entered into for a valuable consideration. These three things are absolutely essentials.

Contracts should always be in writing. An oral contract, if proven by witnesses is valid but trouble is avoided by having a writing as evidence of the agreement made. Witnesses should sign the contract to further avoid trouble. The promise in the contract should be clearly expressed in simple language.

The popular belief that a contract made on Sunday is not valid is without foundation.

Predicting local atmospheric changes is the most difficult part of weather prognostication since so much depends upon the topography of the section in question. Even then, a long period should be devoted to a constant study of the ever-varying wind currents and other local phenomena peculiar to the section. Also, there are certain meteoric laws not yet perfectly understood.

All combine to make local predictions by the method used in this department more or less uncertain.

However, Easter Sunday is always questioned as to its weather probabilities and a forecast is here given that stands good chances of being fairly correct.

UNIQUE MONUMENT ERECTED IN MEMORY OF DR. DOUGLASS HOUGHTON

Keweenaw Historical Society Erect Same At Keweenaw Point In Honor Of Michigan's First State Geologist

By John D. Black.

Houghton—At the extremity of Keweenaw Point jutting out into Lake Superior at the end of the copper-bearing range, stands a unique and most appropriate monument to the memory of Dr. Douglass Houghton, Michigan's first state geologist. It is built up of 175 blocks and pieces of typical Copper Country and Iron Country rocks and ores. Dr. Houghton was drowned at Eagle River in 1845, at a point about a mile from where the monument now stands. He was a man of genius and foresight, was one of the early mayors of Detroit and was once proposed for governor, although still in his early 30's. The early exploration and development of the Copper Country was entirely due to his suggestion and initiative.

The monument was erected by the

CHOPPED THUMB

Some Michigan people know what to do when they get a cut or a bruise. Others are panicky when external hurts which could be healed by a simple liniment, as in the case of Mr. L. H. Carpenter of Dryden, N. Y., who says: "Recently I cut my thumb with an axe so that it hung by only a little skin. I used nothing except Hanford's Balsam of Myrrh and saved my thumb. It is the best remedy I ever saw for cuts and wounds of any kind." Certainly, no family should be without this liniment of many uses. Your dealer has it.

Ann Arbor—The University of Michigan Union has recently extended its usefulness in two directions. For the purpose of bringing faculty men and students into closer social contact it has established regular "Faculty Nights," at which times special groups of the faculty are invited to spend an evening in an informal "get together meeting" at the Union. Though many faculty men are members of the Union, they do not frequent the club house, except for an occasional dinner or as the guests of students' organizations. The new plan enables the entire faculty of the various university departments to assemble in a body, thus affording students an opportunity of coming into personal contact with the men whom they wish to know. As the faculty list is published before the meeting, students find it easy to extend their acquaintances among the men in departments other than their own.

Women Oratorical Honors. Miss Frances L. Hikok, '15, of Plainwell, Mich., won the first contest to be awarded to a woman in the history of the University Oratorical Association, which covers a period of 25 years. First honors carry an award of the Chicago Alumni medal and the Kauffman Testimonial of $100. Miss Hikok has the distinction of being the only woman orator ever selected as Michigan's representative in the Northern Oratorical League, which will hold its next contest in Iowa City.

May 7. The title of her oration is "The Mission of New Womanhood." The second Kauffman Testimonial of $50 was awarded to J. R. Cotton, '16, whose subject was "The Passing of Parties."

A program, comprising sixty numbers to be given for the most part free to students in the next summer session of the University, has just been issued by Prof. Edward H. Kraus, acting dean of the Summer School. This program includes forty lectures, five open air performances by the Ben Greet players, several visits to the university observatory, two receptions, seven concerts, dramatic readings, etc. While most of the lectures will be given by members of the University faculties, a number of prominent speakers in the public life of this and other states are on the program. Among the lecturers from outside the state are: Dr. Abram Simon of Washington, D. C., and Prof. F. L. Paxson of the University of Wisconsin. The other speakers outside the University are Regent L. L. Hubbard, who will speak on "Copper Mining in Michigan;" Regent W. H. Sawyer, on the "Limiting Factors in Human Life;" Dr. T. C. Blaisdell, president of Alma College; the Hon. Fred L. Keeler, State Superintendent of Public Instruction; Mr. D. W. Springer, Secretary of the National Educational Association; Supt. S. O. Hartwell, of Kalamazoo, and Supt. F. A. Jeffers of Painesville, Mich.

Palmyra, Pa.—"Three years ago my little girl had black measles which left her with a chronic cough and so awfully thin you could count all her ribs, and she coughed so much she had no appetite. "Nothing we gave her seemed to help her at all until one day Mrs. Neibert told me how much good Vinol had done her little girl, so I decided to try it for my little one, and it has done her so much good she is hungry all the time, her cough is gone, she is stouter and more healthy in color and this is the first winter she has been able to play out in the snow, coasting and snow-balling without any ill effects."—Mrs. ALFRED SLACK, Palmyra, Pa.

We know Vinol will build up your little ones and make them healthy, strong and robust, therefore we ask parents of every frail and sickly child in this vicinity to try a bottle of Vinol; our delicious cod liver and iron tonic without oil.

Election Notice

TO THE ELECTORS OF THE CITY OF EAST JORDAN. TAKE NOTICE:

That at the election to be held in said city on the fifth day of April, A. D. 1915, there will be submitted to the electors of said city for their approval certain amendments to sections four, ten and thirteen of Chapter III, of the City Charter, relating to the registration of electors and the nomination and election of candidates of city officers, said sections as amended to be made to read as follows:

Sec. 4. Each ward, unless otherwise subdivided, shall be an election district. The several boards of registration shall be in session at such times as are required by the laws of the State of Michigan and this Charter, from eight o'clock in the forenoon until eight o'clock in the afternoon, at such places as shall be designated by the city commission, for the purpose of completing the lists of the qualified voters. Provided, however, that any qualified elector may be registered and be eligible to vote at any primary election if he shall appear in person before the city clerk and take the oath required as to qualification for registration and request that his name be registered in the registration book of the proper ward. The inspectors of election shall register any person who shall, on any primary day, appear before said board and make oath or affirmation to the effect that he is a qualified elector in such voting precinct, or when the board of election inspectors know him to be such. Any person registered by the clerk, or by said board of election inspectors as herein provided, shall be entitled to vote at such primary election and all succeeding primary, general and special election elections without further registration. Whenever none other than city officers are to be elected at any election the registration shall be held on the second Saturday preceding such election. No registration day shall be required before any primary election.

Sec. 10. Upon said ballots the names of the candidates shall be arranged for the several offices in accordance with the provisions of the general primary laws governing the arrangement of names of candidates on primary ballots for state and county officers. The names of the candidates for mayor shall first be placed on the primary ballot, with a square at the left of each name and immediately above the word "vote for one." Following these names, likewise arranged, shall appear the names of the candidates for commissioner, with the square at the left of each name and immediately above the words "vote for one." Following these names, likewise arranged, shall appear the names of the candidates for justice of the peace, with a square at the left of each name and immediately above the words "vote for one." Provided, however, that in case there be but two candidates for any of said offices said candidates shall be deemed to have been duly nominated and their names shall not be made to appear upon said primary ballot, and it shall be the duty of the clerk to issue to such candidates certificates of nomination. Provided further, that in case there shall be but two candidates for each and all of said offices to be nominated at said primary election then it shall not be necessary to hold said primary election for the nomination of said candidates, and it shall be the duty of the clerk to issue to each and all of said candidates certificates of nomination and said primary election shall not be held except when necessary to nominate state and county officers pursuant to the laws of the State of Michigan.

Sec. 13. Having caused said ballots to be printed the said city clerk shall cause to be delivered at each polling place a number of said ballots equal to at least twice the number of votes cast in such polling precinct at the last general election for the office of mayor. The persons who are qualified to vote at the general municipal election shall be qualified to vote at such primary elections, and challenges can be made by not more than two persons, to be appointed at the time of the opening of the polls by the inspectors of election; and the laws applicable to challenges at a general municipal election shall be applicable to challenges made at such primary election. The board of election inspectors shall, immediately upon the closing of the polls, count the ballots and ascertain the number of votes cast in such precinct for each of the candidates, and make return thereof to the city clerk upon proper blanks to be furnished by said clerk within twenty-four hours of the closing of the polls. On the day following the primary election the said clerk shall canvass said returns, so received from all the polling precincts, and shall make and publish in all the newspapers of said city, at least once, the result thereof. Said canvass by the city clerk shall be publicly made. The two candidates receiving the highest number of votes for mayor shall be the candidates and the only candidates whose names shall be placed upon the ballot for mayor at the next municipal election, and the two candidates receiving the highest number of votes for commissioner and no others shall be placed upon the ballot for commissioner at such municipal election. Provided, that when two commissioners are to be elected the names of the four candidates, or all such candidates if less than four, receiving the largest number of votes, and their names only, shall be placed on the ballots as candidates for commissioners for such municipal election. The two candidates receiving the highest number of votes for justice of the peace, and no others, shall be placed upon the ballot as candidates for justice of the peace at such municipal election. Provided, however, that in case there shall have been only two candidates for any of said offices and their names shall not have appeared on the primary ballot, and also in case such primary shall for like reason not have been held, the names of such persons whose nominations shall have been certified to by the clerk shall be placed on the ballot for such office at such municipal election.

The form in which the proposed amendment will appear upon the ballot will be as follows:

For the amendment of sections four, ten and thirteen, of Chapter III, of the City Charter of the City of East Jordan, relating to the registration of electors and the nomination and election of candidates. Yes [ ]

For the amendment of sections four, ten and thirteen, of Chapter III, of the City Charter of the City of East Jordan, relating to the registration of electors, and the nomination and election of candidates. No [ ]

Those in favor of the proposed amendments will place a cross (X) in the square at the right of the word Yes. Those opposed to the proposed amendment will place a cross (X) in the square at the right of the word No.

Election Notice

TO THE ELECTORS OF THE CITY OF EAST JORDAN. TAKE NOTICE:

That at the election to be held in said city on the fifth day of April, A. D. 1915, there will be submitted to the electors of said city for their approval certain amendments to sections twenty-four, twenty-seven, twenty-eight, thirty, thirty-one, thirty-two and thirty-three, of Chapter XI, of the City Charter, relating to taxation, said sections as amended to be made to read as follows:

Sec. 24. The city assessor and the three supervisors of said city shall constitute a board of equalization and review the assessment roll of the city, a majority of whom shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business but a less number may adjourn from day to day. They shall have power and it shall be their duty to examine said assessment roll and they shall have authority to and shall correct any errors or deficiencies found therein, either as to names, valuations, or descriptions; and of their own motions, or on cause shown, may reduce or increase the valuation of property found on said roll, subject to the laws of the State of Michigan, and shall add thereto any taxable property in said city that may have been omitted and shall value the same, and to strike from said roll any property wrongfully thereon, and generally to perfect said roll in any respect by said board deemed necessary, and proper, and for such services each member of said board of review shall receive three dollars per day, while actually employed.

Sec. 27. The taxes assessed in the general city tax roll for each fiscal year shall be due and payable on the first day of July of each year. A charge of one per cent as a collection fee shall be made for all taxes paid during the month of July. From and after the first day of August the collection fee shall be four per cent upon all unpaid city taxes. The city tax roll shall remain in the hands of the city treasurer for collection until the first day of October of each year, provided, however, the city commission may extend the time for the collection of said roll for not to exceed thirty days. Immediately upon the closing of said roll for collection the city treasurer shall make and file with the city assessor a statement of all unpaid city taxes appearing on said roll. At the first regular meeting of the city commission held thereafter the said city treasurer and city assessor shall meet with the city commission, bringing with them the assessment roll, tax roll and said statement of unpaid city taxes, and said city commission shall then and there audit said tax roll and settle with said city treasurer.

Sec. 28. The city treasurer shall give notice that the tax roll is in his hands for collection by publishing said notice in one or more newspapers published and circulating in said city, for at least six secular days preceding the first day of July, which notice shall be sufficient demand for the payment of all taxes on said rolls. Said notice shall state that said taxes may be paid during the month of July with the addition of one per cent as a collection fee and that thereafter the collection fee will be four per cent and that all taxes not paid before the first day of October will be returned as uncollected. Provided, however, that the failure to give the notice specified in this section for the payment of such tax shall not invalidate the said tax, nor release the persons assessed from the penalty herein specified.

Sec. 30. The city assessor shall keep the original rolls in his office until the meeting of the board of supervisors of Charlevoix County in the month of October, and shall present said rolls to said board of supervisors for their certificate of the amount of state, county, school and other taxes.

Sec. 31. The assessor shall, upon the return of said tax roll from the said board of supervisors, make a copy of said assessment roll, and shall apportion and spread on such copy all state, county, school and other taxes certified by the said board of supervisors, or otherwise, and shall also enter thereon all city taxes as shall appear to remain unpaid from the said return of said city treasurer for the same year, and omitting therefrom all city taxes at that time paid.

Sec. 32. On or before the first day of December the city assessor shall make and deliver a certified copy of said new assessment roll to the city treasurer, which copy shall contain the state, county, school and other taxes as certified by the said board of supervisors, or otherwise, and the unpaid city taxes of that year as returned to him by the city treasurer, and the four per cent penalty fee shall be added to said unpaid taxes and carried out in an appropriate column. To said copy or tax roll there shall be annexed a warrant signed by the city assessor and directed to the city treasurer which said warrant shall conform as near as may be to warrants issued to township treasurers for the collection of taxes.

Sec. 33. Upon receiving said tax roll as herein provided, the city treasurer shall give notice thereof, which notice shall state that the taxes therein levied may be paid to him at his office at any time from the tenth day of December to the tenth day of January with the addition of one per cent to be added thereto as a collection fee, but that four per cent collection fee will be charged and collected upon all taxes remaining unpaid on said tenth day of January. Said notice shall be given by publishing the same in one or more newspapers published and circulating in said county, and one publication of said notice shall appear not later than six secular days before said tenth day of December, and said notice shall be continued until the tenth day of January. But any defect in said notice or any omission to comply with the provisions of this section in regard thereto shall not invalidate said tax or any measure thereafter to be taken to enforce the collection of the same or the penalty herein provided for.

The form in which the proposed amendments will appear upon the ballot will be as follows:

For the amendment of sections twenty-four, twenty-seven, twenty-eight, thirty, thirty-one, thirty-two and thirty-three, of Chapter XI, of the City Charter of the City of East Jordan, relating to taxation. Yes [ ]

For the amendment of sections twenty-four, twenty-seven, twenty-eight, thirty, thirty-one, thirty-two and thirty-three, of Chapter XI, of the City Charter of the City of East Jordan, relating to taxation. No [ ]
