Local Boy Wins State Honors

Albert Robert A. Winner in State Boy's and Girls Garden Clubs.

Today news was received from East Lansing as to the winners of the State Championship for the Boys' and Girls' Garden Clubs. Albert Robert, a twelve-year old sixth grade pupil, was one of the four champions of the State.

Last spring Albert joined the ranks of "Sammy Supplies," one of East Jordan's Garden Clubs, and judging from the results, he must have gone home and set to work like a real soldier.

This fall at the Fair the garden clubs of East Jordan were awarded first place in the county for having the best exhibit of garden products.

This spring the boys and girls of East Jordan are planning, again, to produce a champion. The fifth, sixth, and seventh grades will be given special instruction in gardening. It is hoped that we may again have the splendid co-operation of the parents for the coming summer.

WHY I AM A REPUBLICAN

Reasons Given By Mrs. Terry Collins, of Lansing, Who is Active in the Work of the Woman's Relief Corps of Michigan.

I am a Republican. Because, from the birth of the Republican party under the Oaks at Jackson, up to this very moment, that party has stood for the principles which have contributed most to the wonderful development and prosperity of our country, and the party that can attract and hold the support and services of such men as Lincoln, Grant, Sherman, Blaine, Garfield, Harrison, McKinley, and Roosevelt is a good enough party for me.

I am a Republican. Because the Republican party has always stood for a Protective Tariff, which means protection to American industry and American labor. Every time the government has deviated from this policy it has meant disaster to our industries and idleness for our laboring classes.

I am a Republican. Because the Republican party has always stood for a free and honest popular ballot, the just and equal representation of all the people. Too, it has stood for the down trodden and oppressed, and when the iron heel of the Spanish oppression was crushing the life out of Cuba, it was the Republican party made war on Spain, drove the Spanish from the Western Hemisphere, and made Cuba free.

I am a Republican. Because the Republican party has welcomed equal suffrage. In our own state every measure introduced in the Legislature promising suffrage to women was offered by a Republican, and when suffrage for women became a reality in Michigan, the Republican party welcomed the women of the state to its councils. Started a bill on its way through the present session of the Legislature which provides a place on its state Central Committee for one woman from each Congressional district, and nominated at its recent State Convention a woman for member of the State Board of Agriculture.

And lastly— I am a Republican. Because when the United States became embroiled in the great world conflict, Republicans in Congress to a man, placed patriotism above partisanship and voted always to uphold the President and support any measure the passage of which he thought necessary in the prosecution of the war, when members of his own party refused him the support and co-operation he deserved.

There are many persons who do not seem to be able to distinguish between their own ideas and the truth.

So long as marriage is not regarded as the most serious thing in life it is in danger of becoming a failure.

Sometimes a woman asks her husband's advice so that she'll be in a position to take the opposite course.

There is always a little hope for a man so long as he is ashamed to look his bad reputation in the face.

Our idea of a hypocrite is a man who really admires his mother-in-law, but is too contrary to admit the fact.

The average man is not a singer. Neither is the average woman, but sometimes you can't make her believe it.

Final Number Lecture Course

At Temple Theatre Next Tuesday Evening, April 1st.

PROF. HILTON IRA JONES. Dr. Hilton I. Jones brings to the Lyceum a rare combination of talents. As a scientist he has gained a place of recognized standing among the men of his profession and has been honored at home and abroad.

He is a Fellow of the Academy of Science, of the American Association for the Advancement of Science, Fellow of the Chemical Society (London), a member of many learned societies in this country and abroad and a research worker of marked ability whose articles have frequently appeared in the great scientific publications of the world.

In spite of all these attainments, and unlike many of our great scientists, he has the ability to present complex scientific subjects in terms that make them readily understood by the average popular audience. Although Dr. Jones carries a complete electrical equipment to illustrate scientific truths it must not be inferred that he is merely a demonstrator of scientific phenomena. The demonstrations accompany his lecture as music accompanies the singer. As a public speaker he upholds the best traditions of the Lyceum and is a man whose addresses are fascinating without the use of the scientific apparatus.

His appeal is to people of all ages. The little folks in the front rows never bother the audience or the speaker during Dr. Jones' lecture. They are fascinated by the wonders displayed by this man of science and the lecture and demonstration hold their attention as close as the "movies." They flock to the platform at the close of the address and deluge the scientist with a flood of eager, intelligent questions.

The skeptic is disarmed and troubling doubts leave the mind of the believer as this man of science shows that there never has been a conflict between true science and true religion. The faith of all is renewed and strengthened as they are shown how the basic laws of science conform to the basic principles of true religion. His lecture has come to be regarded as one of the most helpful, entertaining and educational addresses which the platform has produced in recent years.

Women Urged To Do Duty

Fight Beer and Wine Amendment to Bitter End.

A Message to the Women of Charlevoix County:

We fear there are those who do not understand the significance of the Light Wine and Beer Amendment, and that many are being deceived into thinking that the drinks referred to are innocent drinks.

The drunkenness that characterized Rome in her declining days was wine drunkenness. The drunkenness against which Israel's prophets thundered was wine drunkenness. The drunkenness which called forth restrictive legislation in early Egypt was wine and beer drunkenness. The drunkenness which caused an emperor of China centuries ago to order all the grape vines uprooted, was wine drunkenness.

Wine and beer contain the same alcohol as spirits in a smaller proportion, but the consumption of a larger amount of wine and beer can easily make up for the difference. Science in recent years has dragged out into the open the mischief done by wine and beer quantities of alcohol. We shall never end our alcoholic evils by letting wine and beer continue. They waste foodstuffs, they despoil men, they have ruined nations.

If the wine and beer amendment carries on April 7th, it will open the saloons all over the state, and give the liquor traffic a strong foothold in Michigan again. The saloon as of old will be the rendezvous of the element that defies law; the Bolshevik and anarchist will find headquarters in which to mobilize their forces to fight war prohibition, the federal amendment, law and order.

If this amendment carries it will repeal every liquor law in the state, and leave us at the mercy of an element that knows no mercy and respects no law.

If this amendment carries, the county local option law will be repealed and the legislature cannot pass a new one because the amendment makes the city, village or township the local option unit.

If this amendment carries, Michigan will have no law, no authority, behind its officials to enforce national prohibition.

If this amendment carries it will go into effect May 7th, 1919. The state legislature will be adjourned before that time. There will be no opportunity to pass laws regulating the traffic for nearly two years, unless a special session is called. During that time Michigan would be absolutely without any restriction or regulation on the sale and use of wine and beer. A reign of lawlessness would prevail worse than that with which the wets have the audacity to threaten us in case we do not permit the saloon to come back.

We urge the women to make this the all absorbing topic of conversation from now on until election time. Talk about it in your clubs and lodges, church societies and social functions. If you failed to register in time to vote at the primaries, you may do so before Mar. 29th and vote at the April election. We must not let the amendment carry. Do your duty on April 7th and vote "NO."

Signed: Women's Christian Temperance Union by Mrs. Jennie Alcox, County President.

Declarations of the Republican Party At the State Convention Held at Lansing, February 18, 1919.

The Republican party will never compromise with the I. W. W. nor Bolsheviks. The party is the friend of labor. The present Legislature will remedy these defects in the Workmen's Compensation Law. Labor in this country must receive full representation in the Councils of the Nation. We must have remedial legislation for the uplifting and betterment of the great mass of our population. We must have industrial peace, an industrial peace, which will insure that every effort of brain and brawn is extended in the right direction and will ultimately help the great common cause and add to the happiness and prosperity of the country. In order to achieve this end we must not only seek economical distribution of labor but we must see that there is no profiteering. We must not assume an antagonistic attitude and make business the football of political expediency. The best friend of both business and labor is a properly adjusted protective tariff.

School Commissioner's Notes

May L. Stewart, Commissioner

Word comes from the state committee that the Normals have this year 1000 less graduates.

Of the 25 requests for teachers received from school directors of the county, only three offer less than $60 per month. All have asked for experienced teachers. So far only three teachers have applied to the office for positions, but the Com'r hopes inside of ten days to recommend someone at least for each school desiring a change. And yet the supply is not equal to the demand. What is the solution?

The Health Crusade has been started in the Robinson, Johnson, Bay Shore, and Phelps School.

With the schools: Rock Elm is feeling happy over the new sanitary provisions of building—fumigation, sweeping compound, and plans for standardization in May.

Evangeline township has no eighth grade, and the two schools have no classes in common. In order to still be in the game, they are planning an oratorical contest of the township to be held in May when Wildwood School is ready for standard Plate. The teachers will have Educational Hall Social in April.

The Johnson and Marion Center Schools held joint Educational Hall Social and turned money in to the People's Bank in East Jordan for county fund.

Boyer Valley township have not as a whole raised any Educational fund, but two schools, the Cramer and Boyer Falls, have a joint fund, which will be deposited to their credit in county fund.

Undine School, under Miss Kerry, raised $17.50 toward new drinking fountain. This is another school coming in the May Standard School class, and will make a fine soldier memorial building.

Boyer Falls is surely busy. Two informal meetings of the district have been held and plans are well under way. On Tuesday, Mar. 25th, a special meeting of the district has been called by the Board of Education to vote on the question of bonding the district for new school building, to establish site for same, to elect a building committee, and to vote on consolidation with such outlying districts as may later wish to join with them. At a previous meeting the Com'r met with them to explain the difference between consolidation and township unit and to show legal proceedings in both cases.

Letters from High Island indicate that the school was closed for two months with almost all the Israelite House ill, and with the teacher unable to teach for even a third month. There are but few Indians on the Island this year, but the influenza seems to have used all alike, and the history of the Magic Isle does not seem to have protected them.

An Appeal to the Women of the Republican Party.

Bina M. West of Port Huron, Supreme Commander, Woman's Benefit Association of the Maccabees.

The Republican party has always stood for progress, protection and prosperity. It is the party of action. It has expressed a desire to work with the women of Michigan towards attaining the highest ideals of administration on questions of the day. It not only stood for suffrage, but was largely instrumental in securing for women in Michigan the right to vote.

Some women take the position that women should hold themselves aloof from the organized political parties of the day. I do not think this is practicable. We must work with the instruments at hand and public affairs are managed through the instrumentality of parties. Every woman should avail herself of every opportunity presented to become familiar in a practical way with the manner in which the Republican party is managed and the principles for which it stands.

It will be interesting as well as instructive and an important civic duty to attend political conventions and familiarize ourselves with all questions of public interest. Let us show our Republican brethren that we are going to take an interest in questions of administration of state and nation and that we are going to do it in a sane, sensible and practical way.

UNCLE SAM'S BILLS MUST BE PAID

Up to America to Show World That it Does What it Promises to Do.

The argument, sometimes heard, that there should be no need of another Liberty loan, because the war is over, indicates there are some persons so short-sighted and unpatriotic that they are forgetting the grave dangers that not so long ago threatened civilization.

One of the terrors of the past struggle was the frightful havoc created by the enemy on the high seas, which may be illustrated by an incident, one of ten thousand similar ones. It was told by a stranded sailor, a lone survivor of a torpedoed ship. He related how a German submarine, after sinking the ship without warning, came to the surface and helped to "rescue" the few who were swimming or drifting about in the water. They were permitted to cling to the submarine—in fact, to find refuge on its deck. An empty rowboat floated by, and the commander of the "sub" ordered the survivors to avail themselves of it, because in five minutes the U-boat would submerge.

The rowboat had no oars. There were no provisions aboard, no shelter against storms in this unseaworthy shell. It was half-filled with water—salt water—which the survivors had to scoop out with their bare hands. The captain and his men descended into the interior of the "sub." The hatches were closed and gradually the instrument of destruction sank out of sight, leaving the craft with its human cargo at the mercy of the waves. This happened in the middle of the Atlantic ocean.

There is only one thing that can save the world from an upheaval far more disastrous than that which we have gone through. That is for America and the American people to hold to law and order, to abide by free institutions, to rebuild, to succor and comfort those who have been bowed down by the terrors of organized intolerance. It is for us to give more, pay more, do more. It is for us to prove that a wrong acknowledged becomes an obligation and that America does whatever it promises to do.

This can be accomplished only by patriotically getting back of the Victory Liberty loan and backing it up to the very limit of our financial ability. Uncle Sam's bills must be paid and the boys brought home. Until then the job won't be finished.

—HELP "FINISH THE JOB."

ALTON'S HORN BLOWER ROUTED BY BUSY BUGS

Tuba Player Mistakes 'Em for Notes—His Blasts Make Leader's Hair Rise.

Alton, Ill.—An army of bugs, which have been unwelcome guests at the concerts of the White Hussar Band in Seminary Park, finally become so unappreciative of the efforts of the musicians they literally pestered the band into silence. As a result, the bugs now have the park to themselves—the band has reformed its bitten remnants in Riverside Park.

The band has been playing in a temporary stand on which the lights were barely above the heads of the musicians. Thousands of bugs, with ears for light music, were attracted to the stand and soon broke up the harmony.

About the only instrument the bugs didn't attempt to explore was the interior of the bass drum and the band master was much mortified whenever the French horn exuded a cloud of insects, instead of sharps and flats.

The climax was reached at the last concert when the tuba player explained his inability to keep time or in the right key by saying he mistook the bugs, sitting on the music, for notes. Some notes that he belched forth are said to have made the conductor's hair stand straight up like quills on an angry porcupine.

A man had been hired to keep the bugs off the musicians, but the bugs made a counter-attack with reinforcements—and the White Hussars nauded down their colors, wrapped up bugs and notes and executed a strategic retreat to Riverside Park, where the future concerts will be given.

ENGINE TOOTS OFF ITS OWN SCREECHER

Engineer Finally Makes Startling Discovery—Then It's "Whoa! Back Up!"

St. Louis, Mo.—When a Bluff line engine tooted for the first time in an hour at Hettick the other day, it tooted its whistle off. The engineer discovered the tooter was missing at the next station, five miles away, and had to back up to get it. The train was southbound and was spinning along at a pretty fair clip. When the engineer pulled the string for the Hettick crossing the engine tooted so nicely he had to smile. It proved to him that he had plenty of steam. Nearly five miles further on the engineer pulled the string for another crossing. The whistle only sized but didn't whistle. It was not, for lack of steam. Bluff line trains always carry enough steam to run and whistle at the same time. The engineer could not make the engine whistle because it had no whistle.

Whistling at crossings was necessary—made so by a railroad law that spelled safety for pedestrians and others. So the train was stopped. Then it backed up to where the engineer knew the engine must have tooted its tooter off. Conductor "Dad" Jones and the passengers went whistle hunting. They found it near the tracks and it was put back where it belonged. Then the train went whistling on its way.

EVERY BOY IS NOW CLIMBER

Police Prevent Lads From Doing "Human Fly" Stunt.

St. Louis, Mo.—Police in the neighborhood of the Chicago House are now kept busy pulling boys off the walls. Frequently young men attempted to duplicate the feat of Harry Gardner, the "Human Fly," who climbed the hotel building.

About half an hour after Gardner had left the building a boy about 15 years old drew a crowd around the north end of the building when he clambered to the third story. He did not attempt to swing over the cornice, but stepped to the cornice on an adjoining structure. He was applauded by the crowd.

His success had the effect of stimulating several boys in the crowd, but they were prevented from climbing by Patrolman John Ohlund. During the week several newboys endeavored to make the ascent, but were prevented by police or hotel attaches.

To listen to people who tell you things for your own good is harmless—and it affords them a lot of pleasure.

People who use religion as a cloak in this world will doubtless manage to keep warm in the next without a cloak.

A man must be in business with another man or married to a woman in order to discover that he doesn't know them.

Surely the woman who is capable of managing her husband is qualified to vote for any man, from road supervisor to president.

Probably Dilliah's hair was getting thin and she became enraged at Samson because he refused to make the bound of hair tender by wash.

Haste not only makes waste but a lot of unpleasantness besides.

There are two sides to every question. Fishing is fun, but not for the fish.

Just because you take the world tragically, don't imagine the world is going to take you that way. It's too busy.

SPRING CLEANING TIME IS HERE

UNCLE SAM PAYING HIS DEBTS

Government's Credit Standing High, Because of Rapidity of Payment of His Obligations—Now a Creditor Nation.

If you were asked to lend money to a private citizen you would ask: "What are this man's prospects? Is his business showing a satisfactory growth? Is he paying off his debts and piling up a surplus?"

When you are asked to lend your money to Uncle Sam you can safely ask the same questions. The American government soon will ask for another great loan. Therefore, now is the time to satisfy yourself that Uncle Sam will be an A-1 debtor.

The first thing that will impress you, when you come to investigate the old gentleman's credit standing, is the rapidity with which he has been paying off his debts and becoming himself a creditor. In 1914, when the war broke out, the nation owed four billion dollars ($4,000,000,000) abroad and had to pay interest on that amount every year.

Now all but about one-fourth of this big debt has been paid off, and the government of the United States has lent abroad a total of ten billion dollars ($10,000,000,000). Instead of paying interest to Europe today, Uncle Sam is now in a position to ask and receive from Europe a total of at least five hundred million dollars ($500,000,000) a year in interest. That sum from across the water each year will pay more than half the interest the government will owe to its people on all the Liberty bond issues, including the fifth.

Uncle Sam certainly can show a good set of books. His credit is A-1 with every credit agency in the country.

LADIES! LOOK YOUNG, DARKEN GRAY HAIR

Use the Old-time Sage Tea and Sulphur and Nobody Will Know.

Gray hair, however handsome, denotes advanced age. We all know the advantage of a youthful appearance. Your hair is your charm. It makes or mars the face. When it fades, turns gray and looks streaked, just a few applications of Sage Tea and Sulphur enhances its appearance. Don't stay gray! Look young! Either prepare the recipe at home or get from any drug store a bottle of "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound," which is merely the old-time recipe improved by the addition of other ingredients. Thousands of folks recommend this ready-to-use preparation, because it darkens the hair beautifully, besides, no one can possibly tell, as it darkens so naturally and evenly. You moisten a sponge or soft brush with it, drawing this through the hair, taking one small strand at a time. By morning the gray hair disappears; after another application or two, its natural color is restored and it becomes thick, glossy and lustreous, and you appear years younger. Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound is a delightful toilet requisite. It is not intended for the cure, mitigation or prevention of disease.

THRIFT SCHOOL PLAN OUTLINED BY EXPERT

Dr. Shailer Mathews Explains Scope and Purpose of Great U. S. Educational Movement for Savings.

By DR. SHAILER MATHEWS, Chairman of W. S. S. Educational Committee for Seventh District and Vice Director for Illinois.

Thrift will be taught in the schools of the states constituting the Seventh federal reserve district.

The children of Iowa will help prepare the Little Lessons Thrift which are being written by Prof. Macy Campbell of the Iowa State Teachers' college, under the general direction of an educational committee of the district. Besides the chairman the educational committee consists of W. E. Larson, department of public instruction, Wisconsin; J. V. McNally, Detroit public schools, Michigan, and Macy Campbell, Iowa State Teachers' college.

The Little Lessons in Thrift appear fortnightly on printed sheets. The lessons are prepared for the different grades in the schools. They are illustrated and interesting. They teach savings as a phase of good citizenship, give problems of arithmetic in terms of thrift stamps, chewing gum, candy and other things a child buys.

It is a new field which is thus being opened up and the war savings organization is rendering a great service to the rising generation. Nor is it all mere theory. The teaching of the principles of thrift is combined with a sort of manual training in thrift, through the sale of War Savings Stamps in schools.

Along with these Little Lessons in Thrift the educational committee furnishes the schools with pupils' thrift cards, on which the teacher keeps an account of the amount, however small, which the pupil brings to her for the purpose of buying stamps. This practice itself becomes educational, because the pupil gets introduced to simple bookkeeping and banking.

These plans have received the heartiest co-operation of the school administration in the various states and cities. The parochial and private schools also are co-operating in the use of the material and plans prepared by the committee.

The young men and women of the next generation will have a higher respect for thrift and a better understanding as to how to spend their money, for they will learn even in the primary grades that thrift is not miserliness but a way of spending money so as to make it for them.

SAVE; HAVE A PERSONAL SHARE IN THE FUTURE

BILLIONS FROM THE NICKELS

Ever Stop to Think of Vast Sums That Can Be Saved From Small Amounts?

If every person in the United States saved a nickel in one day it would mean that at night the people would be just five million dollars richer. And then suppose the people kept this up for one month? It would mean that at the end of thirty days they would have saved one hundred and fifty million dollars.

Why not keep it up for the rest of 1919? What would be the result? One billion five hundred million dollars. Sounds like a lot of work for one little nickel to do, doesn't it, yet there are scores of industries in the United States which are paying big dividends on the little nickels gathered day by day.

This immense sum if invested in War Savings Stamps would earn for the savers approximately sixty-four million dollars in 1920—the work of "old man interest" who never takes a day off and who is continuously on the job.

Keep the Money Saved. Thrift means saving money and keeping it saved. Patriotism does not mean enthusiasm today, and indifference tomorrow. Buy War Savings Stamps and hold them. No man's duty is fully done when he purchases the securities. He must hold them.

GARDEN GIVES A LIFT.

A garden gives the game a lift, And helps us practice ways of thrift, That give us seeds from which we grow War Savings Stamps that earn us " dough."

Good Roads Sunday Is March 30

In a proclamation to the clergy men of Michigan, Governor A. S. Sleeper has designated March 30 as Good Roads Sunday. In his communication to the clergy, the state's chief executive suggested that they make some mention of the proposed Good Roads Amendment to be voted on at the election, April 7. He says in part: "It seems to me this is a public question which comes clearly within the jurisdiction and even under the responsibility of the clergyman. In this broad, modern age, your duty is not limited purely to moral and spiritual teachings, but carries with it the grave obligation to lend your influence to the moulding of civic ideals to the end that your people may measure up to the fullest degree of good citizenship."

HE BUYS FARM IN MICHIGAN BECAUSE ROADS CUT PRICE

WEALTHY OHIOAN PURCHASES PLACE FOR HIS SON NEAR LANSING AND SAVES $13,700 ON DEAL.

FINDS SOIL JUST AS GOOD

But Highways of Buckeye State Have Boosted Average Values There to $200 and More.

Lansing, Mich., March 26.—When a wealthy Ohio farmer comes into Michigan to buy land because poor roads make it possible to save $13,700 on 100 acres of exactly the same soil quality as his Buckeye state holdings, there is little opportunity for argument on the question of whether improved highways increase agricultural land values.

This is not a hypothetical incident nor is it, by any means, an isolated case. Almost any bank or realty dealer in Michigan can tell of parallel experiences. Horatio K. Larned, president of the Lansing State Savings Bank will vouch for the authenticity of this particular incident because it chanced to come under his personal observation.

Mr. Larned was approached in the Lansing State Savings Bank by a stranger who had an $8,000 check to deposit against the time when he could find a suitable farm to purchase. The bank president talked over the land values with the man who explained that he had become wealthy on Ohio farm land and had come to Michigan to purchase a farm for his son who had just been married. Only a few days elapsed before the stranger appeared again and called for his $8,000. He explained he had found just the place he was seeking, close to a small town in the immediate vicinity of Lansing and wanted the money to pay for the farm and get title in his son's name.

Roads Make The Difference.

Mr. Larned was curious to know why a man who had become wealthy working a farm in Ohio should come into Michigan to buy a farm for his son. It was very simple. "Farm lands of good quality, within reasonable distance of a market center cost from $200 to $250 an acre in our country," said the Ohioan. "I purchased this farm in Michigan for $43 an acre. The land is every bit as good as mine and perhaps a little better. I get the 100 acres in Michigan for $4,300, where it would have cost $20,000 in Ohio. I saved $13,700 on the deal and the boy's opportunities are better than mine were. He knows how to make a farm pay. I have made my pile on three crops, oats, hay, and potatoes. These three crops, with land such as his, are sure to pay out in the long run. He will come here and accumulate a nice, comfortable fortune. I want to start him right."

Mr. Larned was more than ever curious by this time. "But why is there such a difference in value on land of equal soil quality?" he inquired.

"Roads," replied the Ohioan. "We have improved highways in our country. I've seen the values go up as the highways improved. They will increase here. That's another reason why I came to Michigan. I see your state is getting ready to go about the road improvement problem in a big business-like way. It means the boy's farm will increase in value while he is accumulating his nest egg. When you have the roads, this farm I bought for $4,300 will be worth $20,000 all right."

Good Roads Inspire Education. In a U. S. Department of Agriculture Bulletin on "Highway Roads," Lawrence I. Howe of the Bureau of Public Roads and Rural Engineering at Washington writes: "The construction of hard built highways has a decided beneficial effect on school attendance. In one county under observation, one consolidated school reported three one-room schools in a single year. In another the school attendance increased of more than 17 per cent in one year. There are but two out of hundreds of such instances."

PUT MICHIGAN IN THE LEAD

Put Your Money in War Savings Stamps and Place State Where It Counts Among the Leaders.

Michigan occupies a paradoxical position among middle western states in the War Savings campaign.

In the past five years its thrift habits, as shown by savings deposits in banks, have grown faster than any other state in the great middle valley. The year 1918 showed the total savings had increased 65.4 per cent over those of 1914. No other middle western state comes close to this figure of remarkable gain in wealth.

From this position—a just cause of pride—Michigan slips away to the foot of the ladder when a showing is made of the sale of War Savings stamps. According to figures compiled by the American Banker, a publication of standing in the field, the holding of stamps in Michigan is only $5.75 per capita, as against $14.54 for Ohio, $12.40 for Indiana, $12.82 for Iowa, $11.50 for Missouri, $10.42 for Wisconsin, and smaller totals for Illinois and Minnesota.

Michigan's total savings in 1914 were $66.18 per capita, and in 1918 $150.47.

"This shows," says Luman W. Goodenough, state chairman of the War Savings committee of Michigan, "that there is no field which offers so exceptional an opportunity as our own state. This state not only has prosperous farms and factories where the good wages paid are proverbial, but it has the saving instinct.

"Once the people of the state realize how good a medium of thrift War Savings stamps are, I have no doubt that our totals will show a gain that will be the surprise of the 1919 campaign. All we need is to get the current of public support with us."

Stamp Machines in West Michigan.

Grand Rapids.—War stamp selling machines, which worked so successfully in Detroit last year, are being distributed through western Michigan. They are similar to the cash boxes on the pay-as-you-enter street cars. The purchaser drops in a 25-cent piece, turns a crank, and the stamp drops out. Placed in stores, restaurants and banks, these machines pick up a surprising amount of coins. One department store in Detroit, at the campaign's height, averaged $700 a week per machine. Grand Rapids stores and other business concerns are putting them in rapidly.

Factory Societies Forming.

Detroit.—Probably the best organized industrial plant in the state for the war savings campaign is the Hudson-Motorcar Company, with twenty-eight active War Savings societies in operation. Growth of the membership in these societies has been rapid. The Hudson campaign has been conducted with emphasis on the fact that not one is asked to join unless he does so of his own free will. Detroit's other industries—of which there are 1,000, employing over 100 men each—are swinging into line.

High School Campaign Going Well.

Lansing.—Lansing High school, which sold the largest per capita number of stamps last year, is going right after the prize, again. It has in its auditorium a replica of the Atlantic ocean with ships bringing back American boys from Europe. Each division has a ship, and when one club gets its own ship in, it starts on its way back to town in a smaller-powered sister ship. The rivalry spirit has been a winner.

New District Leaders.

Grand Rapids.—Western Michigan this year will be under new leadership in the War Savings campaign. Carroll F. Sweet, vice president of the Old National bank of Grand Rapids is at the campaign's head. He is co-director of the state with Luman W. Goodenough, state chairman. Carroll M. Emerson is assistant to Mr. Sweet. Western Michigan already is probably better organized than it was at the end of 1918.

Prohibition's Saving.

Lansing.—State officials believe the coming of prohibition will aid the sale of War Savings stamps. While Michigan is "dry," there has been a great deal of rum-running. It is interesting to note that the national liquor bill—$2,000,000 annually—would more than cover the year's quota of War Savings stamps, which is $1,800,000,000. With July 1st coming on, it is believed much of this cash will turn stampward.

Interurban Lines in Game.

Detroit.—The Detroit railway street car and interurban lines have undertaken the organization of their 4,500 employees into War Savings societies with unusual vigor. The street car men's union is co-operating, and there is a general "happy family" spirit about the campaign. The unit of organization is the car barn and its department.

Thousand Limit Club Grows.

Detroit.—You simply can't drive the Thousand Limit members away. A dozen or so of last year's members applied for re-membership this year before the committee could get around to invite them. The high interest and non-taxability of the stamps make them ideal investments for men and firms of large means.

Barry County Going Good.

Hastings.—Kellar Stem, the chairman who put Barry county in so prominent a place on the War Savings map last year, has started his campaign this year with characteristic energy. He has made the same working force,

Hot Water for Sick Headaches

Tells why everyone should drink hot water with phosphate in it before breakfast.

Headache of any kind, is caused by auto-intoxication—which means self-poisoning. Liver and bowel poisons called toxins, sucked into the blood through the lymph ducts, excite the heart which pumps the blood so fast that it congests in the smaller arteries and veins of the head producing violent, throbbing pain and distress, called headache. You become nervous, despondent, sick, feverish and miserable, your meals sour and almost nauseate you. Then you resort to acetanilide, aspirin or the bromides which temporarily relieve but do not rid the blood of these irritating toxins.

A glass of hot water with a teaspoonful of limestone phosphate in it, drunk before breakfast for awhile, will not only wash these poisons from your system and cure you of headache but will cleanse, purify and freshen the entire alimentary canal.

Ask your pharmacist for a quarter pound of limestone phosphate. It is inexpensive, harmless as sugar, and almost tasteless, except for a sourish twinge which is not unpleasant. If you aren't feeling your best, if tongue is coated or you wake up with bad taste, foul breath or have colds, indigestion, biliousness, constipation or sour, acid stomach, begin the phosphate hot water cure to rid your system of toxins and poisons.

Results are quick and it is claimed that those who continue to flush out the stomach, liver and bowels every morning never have any headache or know a miserable moment.

LESS MEAT IF BACK AND KIDNEYS HURT

Take a glass of Salts to flush Kidneys if Bladder bothers you—Drink lots of water.

Eating meat regularly eventually produces kidney trouble in some form or other, says a well-known authority, because the uric acid in meat excites the kidneys, they become overworked; get sluggish; clog up and cause all sorts of distress, particularly backache and misery in the kidney region; rheumatic twinges, severe headaches, acid stomach, constipation, torpid liver, sleeplessness, bladder and urinary irritation.

The moment your back hurts or kidneys aren't acting right, or if bladder bothers you, get about four ounces of Jad Salts from any good pharmacy; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys will then act fine. This famous salt is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for generations to flush clogged kidneys and stimulate them to normal activity; also to neutralize the acids in the urine so it no longer irritates, thus ending bladder disorders.

Jad Salts cannot injure anyone; makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink which millions of men and women take now and then to keep the kidneys and urinary organs clean, thus avoiding serious kidney disease.

6000 MICHIGAN MEN IN CENTENARY ARMY

GIVE TIME FROM BUSINESS TO TELL OF GREAT DRIVE.

MINUTE MEN FORM ARMY

Plans, Ideas and Aims of Movement Are Spread By Volunteer Speakers Throughout Whole State of Michigan.

Detroit, (Special.)—Five thousand men in Michigan are spending several hours of each day, as part of a small army of minute men, telling the people of the state the "plans, ideas, and aims of the great Missionary Centenary drive which is being waged throughout the United States by the Methodist Episcopal church.

Headed by Arthur J. Stock, Detroit insurance broker, this small army of business men is going into every meeting where its members are permitted to speak—public or private; political or religious—and are proclaiming that world-wide democracy, eternal peace and Christian fellowship can be won only through the practical application of the teachings of Christ.

The Methodist Centenary plans provide for the raising of a fund of $120,000,000 during an intensive nationwide financial drive the first week in May. This money is to be used in the up-building of the home missions and church extensions, foreign missions and in reclamation work in devastated Europe.

This army of minute men is using its every effort to explain to the people the unprecedented need for speeding the teaching of Christ at this time, when many of the soul breaking and nation wrecking "isms" are running rampant in the world.

A. L. Parker, Detroit business man, is national executive secretary of the minute men of the country, and is in charge of their work in all the states of the union.

A minute man is apt to succeed in more ways than one. Dr. John G. Benson, of Detroit, assistant to Bishop Henderson, reports one minute man who talked himself into the movement. According to Dr. Benson this man was not enthusiastic about the Centenary but took it up in a half hearted way because the church was back of it. He started as a minute man and as he kept speaking he became more enthusiastic, until one day he walked into the Detroit office and shouted, "Well, I have sold one man at least. I have sold the Centenary to myself by talking it to other people. I intended to give it a little something, but as I talked I realized how momentous the scope of the plan is and so I have decided to give $5000 to the movement."

SPIRITUAL REPAIR OF WORLD NEEDED

HUGUENOT LEADER SEES GREAT RESPONSIBILITY FOR CHURCH.

CENTENARY TO BE BIG AID

Rev. Reuben Sallens Says Political and Spiritual Reconstruction of World Must Go Hand in Hand.

Detroit, (Special.)—The world is facing more than the problem of political reconstruction, it is face to face with that great problem of spiritual reconstruction, according to the Rev. Dr. Reuben Sallens, leader of the French Huguenots.

Dr. Sallens is well known in Detroit, having been here during the war in the interest of the Protestant churches in France and Belgium.

"Spiritual reconstruction of the individual mind and heart must go hand and hand with political reconstruction if the world is to be truly free," he declared in a letter received a few days ago.

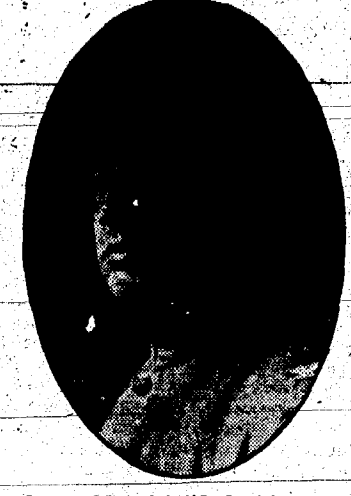

"We are responsible. We spent billions for a military victory. Surely we can give millions for the spiritual reconstruction of the two nations which have done so much for world democracy. This is one of the tasks of Christendom. Today we have the opportunity. Tomorrow will be too late."

Dr. Sallens voiced the same sentiment in his communication that is heralded in the Methodist Missionary Centenary campaign which is waging throughout the United States and which will close in May with a great financial drive for $120,000,000 with which to carry on this spiritual reconstruction as well as physical reconstruction.

Elaborate plans for this work on a large scale are part of the Centenary program. One of the greatest problems now facing France and other stricken countries is the question of how thousands of war widows are to achieve self-support and earn maintenance for their families.

The Methodist church already has started on this relief work. A delegation of church officials, of which Bishop Theodore M. Henderson, head of the Detroit Area of the church, is one, is in Europe at the present time making a survey of the ground and recommending immediate relief. Three general workshops have been established where women and girls may obtain employment. An initial investment of $10,000 has been made in these projects and others will be started without delay.

ROAD BONDING LIKE BUYING PHONOGRAPH

State Senator H. F. Baker, "Untamed Bearcat" From Cheboygan Draws Homely Parallel.

Lansing, Mich.—State Senator and former Speaker Herbert F. Baker, long an influential figure in legislative circles and in State Grange activities, whose tireless fighting in the interests of the farmer inspired former State Senator James A. Murtha, of Detroit, to christen him: "The Untamed Bearcat from Cheboygan," comes down out of the clouds of high finance and intricate tax data in discussing the proposed good roads amendment to be voted upon April 7 and draws a homely and striking parallel for his farmer friends to consider. Senator Baker likens the proposition to the purchase of a phonograph. He says:

"The proponents of the good roads amendment argue that our main market roads should be built now and built by the state and nation and paid for on the installment plan, thus placing the state, in the matter of the expenditure necessary to rapid highway development in the same position as the family, unable to buy a phonograph for cash. The installment plan relieves the situation and in each case, it is possible for those interested to enjoy the use of the desired object while raising the fund with which to pay for it.

STATE SEN. HERBERT F. BAKER Who has been christened the "Untamed Bearcat from Cheboygan" and who represents the 28th District in the Michigan State Senate.

None of our friends should become unduly excited about the large number of round naughts in the $50,000,000 figure of limitation put upon the proposed bond issue. No single round dollar of our dad's will be removed from its present moorings by this measure until a majority of the people of the state (women included) have given their approval at the polls.

"The vote April 7 is not on a bond issue, but to give the people themselves, through their representatives in the legislature, the authority to bond the state for good roads. After a ratification by the people at the spring election, the amount of bonds, when they shall be issued and how spent will be determined by the legislature and the legislature of Michigan always has reflected the sentiment of the people back home on the big issues of state.

"Rep. Aldrich, of Cheboygan, has introduced in the house a bill to work out the plan of state-built highways. Get a copy of it and study its provisions before indulging in adverse criticism."

WOMEN INTERESTED IN THE BALLOT

WOMEN OF ALL PARTIES ARE ANXIOUS TO LEARN ALL PARTICULARS ON HOW TO VOTE.

NOT NECESSARY TO STATE AGE

A Brief Outline of What is Necessary to Avoid Errors in Voting.
Vote Early.

Qualifications of Women Voters

Women must have the same qualifications for voting as men. All women born in the United States and twenty-one years of age, having lived six months in the State and twenty days in the precinct or township, and being duly registered have the right to vote. Women of legal age, born in foreign countries, whose parents at the time of their birth were citizens of the United States, can vote. Women of legal age of foreign birth, married to citizens of the United States, can vote, providing there is no reason why they could not become naturalized citizens if unmarried. Women whose fathers were naturalized before they were twenty-one years of age can vote. Naturalized women of legal age can vote.

Registration

Registration necessitates giving to the registration official name, address, age (which can be stated at "21 plus"), and whether the applicant is a native or a naturalized citizen. While this information is public, it does not necessarily mean common publicity.

Voting.

On election day, April 7, the duly qualified voting woman, presents herself at the polling place. She announces her name, and also her residence, if living in a city, and when it is found that she has been duly registered and is entitled to vote, the official ballots are handed her. Then she enters a booth alone, to mark her ballots.

There will be, of course, the ballot for state and county officers. The state officers to be voted for at this election are two Justices of the Supreme Court a Superintendent of Public Instruction, a member of the State Board of Education, two Regents of the University and two members of State Board of Agriculture. The only County officer to be voted for is the Commissioner of Schools.

Then there will be the City and Township tickets on separate ballots in each case.

The proposed amendments to the constitution will all be printed on one ballot. These are three in number—the so-called "light wine and beer" amendment, the amendment permitting the legislature to authorize the issuance of bonds from time to time for highway improvement, not to exceed in the aggregate $50,000,000 and the amendment permitting the increase of salaries of judges of courts of record.

In order to vote a straight Republican State and County ticket, a cross (X) mark is made in the place designated under the emblem of the party, the cut of Abraham Lincoln. The local tickets will have proper headings of their own. The amendments will have the words "Yes" and "No" following and squares in which to place the cross after either word. In this way a complete ballot can be voted by simply making one cross (X) mark.

After marking each ballot, the voter folds it in such a way that the number appearing on one of the corners can be torn off without mutilating or disclosing the ballot. Each ballot must also carry the initials of one of the inspectors; otherwise it will not be counted. So it is the duty of each voter to see that her ballot has been initialed. It is her further duty to see that the identical ballot she hands to the inspector is placed in the ballot box. A voter has the right to insist that this be done in her presence immediately it is handed to the inspector.

If you make a mistake in marking your ballot do not try to erase it. Exchange it for another ballot. Attempted erasure will invalidate the ballot.

Women voters are entitled to sit on election boards, and to perform the duties of election inspectors.

Women voters have the right to be present when the ballots are being counted. The number who can be present depends on the amount of room that can be spared to the public.

SOLONS OF STATE PLEDGE SELVES TO LIMIT ROAD BONDS

Lansing, March 27.—By pledging themselves not to authorize the issue of Highway bonds in a sum of more than five million dollars a year, the House of Representatives and the state Senate have given irrefutable evidence that a vote for the Good Roads amendment by the people at the election April 7 cannot saddle a Fifty million dollar bonded debt upon Michigan's taxpayers.

The pledge given by the Michigan legislature was in the shape of resolutions unanimously adopted by both the House and the Senate and was inspired by the fact that many of the legislators' constituents had gained the erroneous impression that the constitutional amendment with its Fifty Million Dollar figure of limitation involved an immediate bond issue of Fifty Million Dollars.

The State senate was first with the resolution. State Senator William Connelley, chairman of the Highways committee of that body and author of the resolution which was adopted early in the session and put the Good Roads amendment up to the people for ratification, was responsible for the introduction of the resolution which pledged the legislature not to exceed Five Million a year in bonds. Rep. John Deprato of the House committee on Roads and Bridges, followed the senate's lead.

The resolution not only pledged the state's law makers to keep the bond issue inside of $5,000,000 a year, but calls upon every individual member to go home to his constituents and explain the true meaning of the amendment to be ratified at the Spring election and educate the people as to the immediate need for the machinery which will permit the people to use Michigan's credit to obtain a comprehensive system of main market highways at once and pay the bill while using the good roads. The Representatives and Senators will explain at every possible opportunity that this is the one means by which the roads may be made to pay for themselves and they will go into the matter of Federal Aid.

Thousands of voters will learn through their representatives in the legislature that the government has put up nearly Seven Million Dollars as Michigan's share of Uncle Sam's Two Hundred Million Dollar appropriation to be used in main market highway construction in the various states. To get this Seven Million, Michigan must put up a like sum. It is pointed out by the representatives of the legislature that, to get this Seven Million, the state either must impose a direct tax or issue bonds and to spread a direct tax big enough to cover Uncle Sam's offer of Federal aid for the ensuing two years would mean too great a burden. It will be explained by the Representatives and Senators that unless Michigan meets Uncle Sam's dollar-for-dollar offer of Seven Millions, the money will go to other states and Michigan people then will be contributing to the building of improved highways in other and more progressive states.

Let Them Call It What They May It's Right Name Is—Saloon

COUNTLESS ATTEMPTS have been made in this and in other states to fool the people into voting for acts and amendments that will bring back the saloon with all its attendant evils and dangers.

THE USUAL PROCEDURE is to give such legislation harmless sounding titles but, by a tricky use of words—a camouflage of language—slip a joker into the text that will give it, when enacted, the opposite power and effect to that which appears in the title.

A MORE VICIOUS use—or rather abuse—of the intentions of voters cannot be imagined—but what can you expect from a business founded as was the saloon on the weakness and cupidity of the weaker members of the race?

RIGHT NOW IN MICHIGAN a last desperate attempt is being made to do just that sort of thing.

UNDER A TITLE that sounds like one thing, an amendment that means just the opposite, is up for your decision.

IT IS CALLED the "Beer and Wine" amendment. When the "Wets" speak of it they use the term "Light wines, etc.," but as a matter of fact the word "light" does not appear in title or text—and a heavier weapon was never used by the advocates of a befuddled world!

FOR IF YOU WILL READ this latest attempt to nullify Michigan's best piece of legislation—the "Dry" act—you will find that it means just this—bringing back the Saloon in its worst form and with its most harmful accessories.

CALL IT WHAT THEY MAY—word it as they may, to conceal its true intent—this "Beer and Wine" amendment's right name is "The Saloon Amendment."

DON'T BE DECEIVED by the wheedling of those who have always advised only for their own profit—and your loss.

READ CAREFULLY, weigh every word; and make up your own mind what the saloon interests are trying to get you to do.

JUST AS AN EXAMPLE of the difference between what they say about it and what they say in it—

THEY ARE SOLICITIOUS—Oh, so feelingly solicitous!—lest the poor farmer be denied the privilege of making cider from his own apples. That would be a great hardship you will agree. They weep real tears over his predicament.

VERY WELL—Read that amendment and you will find cunningly concealed in verbiage, yet clearly stated, that if that "Beer and Wine" amendment were passed the farmer could never make nor sell cider without first taking out a license—same as a saloon or a brewery.

CAN YOU BEAT THAT for double dealing? Yet they fondly hope that enough Michigan voters will be fooled by the title and by their propaganda to vote for this thing that would put the saloon back even stronger than it was.

OH, WINES ARE HARMLESS! they say Verily! Wine is the standby of the "Side Door" and the Cabaret. And the Cabaret and the "family entrance" are the most vicious phases of the Saloon—they ruin women as well as men and degrade both.

WHY, SOME FOREIGN WINES have almost as great an alcoholic content as the strongest whiskey—and create a worse form of intoxication.

AND BEER! they used to tell us—"why in Germany even the children drink beer Beer drinking is universal there."

WELL, WE HAVE SEEN what Beer will do when universally used! Was ever a people more degraded—more brutalized—more debased to the difference between right and wrong?

MAKE THE BRAIN SODDEN—render it, by constant soaking in beer, only half active—and you have a being more akin to a brute than a man—Tractable? Yes—but never dependable.

NO—WE NO LONGER hold a beer soaked people up as examples of—anything.

AMERICAN GENERALS found that men, who went over the top sober were better able to do their part and take care of themselves—especially if wounded—than were soldiers who had grog served to them to lend an artificial, momentary courage.

THEY EVEN TRY—the Saloon propagandists—to make you think our soldier boys resent the abolition of the saloon.

WHAT AN INSULT to those brave boys and to your intelligence.

AS IF EVERY AMERICAN SOLDIER were a toper so addicted to his booze that, like a dope fiend, he would fight if deprived of it.

THAT'S THE VERIEST ROT of conf. They know it is—else why do they not dare say just what this "Beer and Wine" Amendment really means?

WHY DO THEY TRY TO HIDE its real intent under an innocent sounding title and hide its meaning again by a tricky use of words? Why?

BECAUSE THEY KNOW that the people who voted Michigan dry still want it dry. And they know too that the votes of the men will now be supported and augmented by the votes of Michigan women—and they know what that vote will say.

THEIR ONLY CHANCE to get the saloon back is to make you think they want something else. For they know you want no more of the saloon.

IT IS THEIR LAST forlorn hope—their last dying kick. The saloon's gone never to return. The longer we are without it the less we miss it—the less does anyone want it back.

THEY'D LIKE TO DRIVE a wedge in the Federal act by getting this amendment through in Michigan. That is the big significance of this attempt—that a why so much outside money is being spent in propaganda here.

TRUTH TO TELL there isn't much Michigan money being spent—Michigan brewers and Saloonists look upon it as a dead issue. They are making other plans and are now sending more good money after bad.

BUT OUTSIDERS are still frantically trying to get Michigan back in the wet column so as to prevent nation-wide prohibition and the utter dismantling of every brewery and distillery in this country.

FOR THAT KIND OF PROHIBITION does prohibit—no more chance for disgraceful scenes like that recently between Toledo and Detroit.

THEY HAVE EVEN TRIED to make this appear a religious issue—their propaganda says some denominations are against a dry state.

IT'S NOTHING OF THE KIND—a few men of all denominations favor a Wet condition. But the vast majority of all religious denominations are for a dry state and a dry nation.

THIS ISN'T A MATTER of religion, or sect, or nationality. It is just a matter of decency and sanity and good citizenship as against cowardism.

WATCH THIS THING—it is counterfeit. It does not mean what it says. It's title is a misnomer. Its intent is vicious. It dresses in the guise of liberty—"personal liberty"—its effect would be to enslave again.

IT IS CALLED THE Beer and Wine Amendment—its real name is the Saloon.

DO YOU WANT the saloon back?

IF NOT—vote NO April 7th to the so-called "Beer and Wine" Amendment.

HOW THE TURKS ATTEMPTED TO "MURDER A NATION"

Former English Ambassador to America Relates How the Attempt Was Made.

"The most worthy charity that has ever appealed to this country—billionaire is the way a county leader defined the appeal for funds for the American Committee in the Near East which is assisting the starving Christians in Eastern Europe and Western Asia who have been starved, exiled and persecuted by the Turks, to live and to regain a foothold in the countries to which they are being restored. The red trail of war has left almost 4,000,000 half starved, nearly naked refugees in Armenia alone according to Former Ambassador to Turkey Henry Morgenthau, who describes the persecutions of this people by the Turk as a cool, deliberate and but for the war's quick end, brought about by the intervention of America, a successful attempt at "the murder of a nation."

Viscount Bryce, the eminent English historian and diplomat who is noted for his history of "The American Commonwealth" like Ambassador Morgenthau, made searching inquiry into the persecutions. He says:

Armenians Suffered Greatly.

"It is easier of course for the people of France, Great Britain and America to sympathize with Belgium than with a more unfamiliar nation in a distant zone of the war. It needs little imagination to realize acutely that the Belgians are "people like ourselves" suffering all that we should suffer if the same atrocities were committed on us; and this realization was made doubly easy by the publication of minute, abundant, first-hand testimony. The Armenians have no such immediate access to our sympathies, and the initial unfamiliarity can only be overcome by a personal effort on the part of those who give ear to their case; but the evidence on which that case rests has been steadily accumulating, for Armenia has not been without witness in her suffering." Most witnesses were Americans and Europeans, some of those who testified to Turkish cruelties being German subjects.

Thousands Were Massacred.

"There is no dispute as to what happened in 1915. The Armenian inhabitants of the Ottoman empire were everywhere uprooted from their homes, and deported to the most remote and unhealthy districts that the Government could select for them. Some were murdered at the outset, some perished on the way, and some died after reaching their destination. The death toll amounted to upwards of 800,000, in 1915—but this has greatly increased, and is increasing rapidly. For the Turks continued their massacres and persecutions up till the end of the war, and combined with their efforts were terrible, terrible plagues and wholesale starvation.

"For the women" says Lord Bryce, "there was an alternative to deportation. They might escape it by conversion to Islam, but conversion for the Armenian woman meant something more physical than a change of theology. It could only be ratified by immediate marriage to a Moslem man, and if the woman were already a wife (or, rather a widow, for by this time few Armenian husbands remained alive) she must part with any children she had, and surrender them to be brought up as true Moslems in a Government Orphanage,—a fate of uncertain meaning, for no such institutions were known to be in existence. If the convert could find no Turk to take her, or shrink from the embraces of the bridegroom who offered himself, then she and the children must be deported with the rest, however fervently she had professed the creed of Islam. Deportation was the alternative adopted, or imposed upon, the great majority."

One may well pity the patriotism of the man who thinks that a pension pays the real soldier.

Character is something that does not amount to much if it is allowed to take care of itself.

The more genuine regard a man has for others the more respect he is likely to have for himself.

A man can not cheat others without robbing himself of something that is worth more than property.

One man on a jury never seems to understand how eleven others can not see the justice in the case.

Most persons have the annoyance of their employment interfering with their desires for recreation.
