C. W. Wing Our Agricultural Agt

Antrim County Schoolmaster Appointed By Our Farm Bureau.

At a meeting of the executive committee of the Charlevoix County Farm Bureau held at Charlevoix, Friday, March 28th, C. W. Wing of Antrim County was employed as Agricultural Agent for Charlevoix County for the coming year.

Mr. Wing has served as Superintendent of the Alba schools for the past four years. Owing to a vacancy, he was appointed Commissioner of Schools for Antrim County to fill out the unexpired term.

Mr. Wing comes to our County highly recommended by those who know him. He will make his headquarters at Boyne City, and, with his family, expect to locate there about the middle of this month.

WHERE DO WE GET OFF?

Secretary of Commerce Redfield has issued a report saying that "The Far East is rapidly coming into its own with relation to our foreign trade." Just what the Department of Commerce means by "its own" is doubtful, but the expression has little of encouragement for American industry in view of the recent declaration of the Secretary that we must be careful not to be hogging in going after foreign trade. During the year 1918 we bought from the Far East goods of the value of $1,042,000,000, and sold to the Far East goods of the value of $603,000,000, leaving the balance against us to the amount of $439,000,000, which the Department of Commerce evidently considers rightfully belongs to that section of the world. That is "its own."

HAIL CAESAR!

A year or so ago the Democratic boosters took delight in likening Woodrow Wilson to Abraham Lincoln. They overlooked, however, one important distinction—Lincoln did not assume to exercise the powers of both the executive and the legislative branch of the Government. Having had some experience in Congress himself, Lincoln recognized the probability that members of Congress might have some opinions that were worth considering. We shall get along better if we have more presidents of the Lincoln type and fewer of the Wilson type.

The Wilson administration evidently thinks the people will be so busy earning money to pay their taxes they won't have time to ask where the money has gone.

To the Voters of the City of East Jordan.

LADIES AND GENTLEMEN:

I am a Candidate for Mayor and naturally would like to be elected.

If I should be elected I want to know that I was elected by a free and un-influenced vote therefore please vote as your own free conscious dictates.

BARBERS NOW WANT HAIR TAX

Next They'll Want Your Watch, Boots and Cravat.

St. Louis, Mo.—Men who have more than the normal amount of hair to cause the barber trouble, and men who have less than the allotted amount, both should be subjected to a tax, in the opinion of the Journey-men barbers. At a meeting of the St. Louis Journey-men Barbers' Union a charge of 5 cents was indorsed for trimming a mustache—heretofore trimmed free with a haircut or shave—and a charge of at least 15 cents was urged for hair restorer or tonic placed on the cranium of a bald-headed gentleman. The present charge is 10 cents.

U. S. AVIATOR SETS RECORD

A new world's record for distance covered in ten hours, carrying a passenger, was made by Victor Carlstrom of the Atlantic Coast Aeronautical Station, who made 661 miles flying in a Curtiss twin motor land-and-water machine. His actual flying time was 8 hours and 40 minutes.

The machine's engines were stopped only twice during the day. A heavy fog made flying difficult.

BRETZ—MALPASS

Wedding of Frank Bretz to Miss Kate Malpass.

At the home of the bride and groom Friday evening, Mar. 28th occurred the marriage of Miss Kate Malpass to Mr. Frank Bretz. Rev. R. S. Sidebotham, pastor of the Presbyterian Church, officiated.

To the strains of the wedding march, played by Miss Alice Malpass, the young couple entered the room accompanied by Louise Bretz, flower girl and Betty Bretz, ring bearer, and took the vows that made them one.

The bride carried a beautiful shower bouquet of roses and sweet peas. The house decorations were roses, daffodils and amilax.

After congratulations, and looking over the beautiful gifts, light refreshments were served.

The newly-married couple spent the week-end with Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Severance at their country home.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Bretz have the very best wishes of a large circle of friends for many years of happiness.

MAGEE—CAPÉLIN

East Jordan Chemist Married At Petoskey.

[From Petoskey News.]

In a pretty forenoon wedding Wednesday in this city Miss Hazel L. Capelin, of Boyne City, became the bride of Edward P. Magee, of the same city, but who for three years was with the Canadian overseas forces. The wedding took place at the home of the bride's sister, Mrs. Norman Risk, of Mitchell Street. Rev. J. W. Leonard, pastor of the First Christian Church, performed the ceremony.

The bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Capelin and other relatives and friends, attended the wedding. After a trip to Chicago and other cities, Mr. and Mrs. Magee will locate in East Jordan, where Mr. Magee is connected with the East Jordan Iron Company as chemist.

TO ENCOURAGE TREE PLANTING IN STATE.

East Lansing, Mich., Mar. 31.—As a move in the direction of encouraging the more general planting of trees in Michigan, the department of forestry at M. A. C. has announced plans of selling seedlings at cost from the college nurseries in East Lansing to the public.

Up until two years ago the department made a practice of giving away seedlings to schools and to public institutions, but war conditions sent costs up so high that this program had to be relinquished.

The seedlings in the nurseries at M. A. C. are from trees of all species. Inquiries, it is announced, can be addressed to the Department of Forestry, M. A. C. East Lansing.

PUSH FIGHT ON OAT DISEASE IN MICHIGAN.

East Lansing, Mich., Mar. 31.—The fight against smut of oats, a disease which in seasons past has collected heavy toll of the Michigan farmer, will be pushed this spring on a statewide scale, it is announced from the department of plant pathology at M. A. C. Through county agricultural agents, a message will be addressed to farmers this spring recommending the more general treatment of seed oats with formaldehyde.

"In untreated fields of oats, 6.52 per cent of the oat crop was destroyed by smut last season," declared Dr. G. H. Coons, of M. A. C. "This represents a loss of something like 2,000,000 bu. On fields where the seed oats had been treated before planting, smut was almost entirely absent."

Information on how to treat seed oats effectively and economically is being supplied to farmers on request by county agricultural agents, and by the experiment station of M. A. C., in East Lansing.

When somebody "has it in" for you, better have it out with him.

HE ESCAPED INFLUENZA

"Last spring I had a terrible cold and grippe and was afraid I was going to have influenza," writes A. A. McNease—High Point, Ga. "I took Foley's Honey and Tar. It was a sight to see the phlegm I coughed up. I am convinced Foley's Honey and Tar saved me from influenza." Contains no opiates. Good for children.—Hite's Drug Store.

REGISTERED CATTLE IN THIS SECTION OF THE STATE

There will be a livestock meeting in Traverse City on April 9th at which time there will be three men from Lansing to help in the developing of a movement for putting in registered cattle into this section of the state so that we might become known as shippers of high class cattle. Livestock is the back bone of the Northern Michigan agriculture and the sooner we get to raising registered cattle just that much quicker will we become independent farmers on a profitable basis.

This will be an all day meeting and in the evening the matter of establishing a sorting yard at Traverse City for four counties to grade and sort the livestock which is shipped by the associations of these counties will be taken up. Great advantage on prices will be the outcome of this plan, as straight cars of cattle bring a higher price on the market than mixed cars.

All breeders should attend this meeting.

Farmers treat your grain this spring for smut before sowing. 1 pt. of Formaldehyde to 50 bu. of grain. Add as much water as formaldehyde and spray on grain with a bug atomizer while the grain is being shoveled over. Cover with a blanket for four hours and then air well and sow at once if possible.

Only use the formaldehyde at the above rate; for ten bu. of grain 1-5 pt. is the proper amount.

Men have larger losses from smut than they realize as the infected grain often does not develop and one does not see the loss.

COUNTY AGENT.

A Telephone Deficit Also.

For years the American Telephone Company, ably managed, wisely financed and intelligently mindful of the people's interest, performed admirably a work of prime national importance. It was not an infrequent thing, it became habitual, for telephone rates to be lowered. Yet all the while the service constantly improved. And the company was a steady and prolific earner for its stockholders.

The Government took over the operation of the telephones as it took over the operation of the railroads. Then, exactly as had happened in the case of the railroads, the Old Nick got into the wires. More of the earnings were eaten up, but there was nothing to show for it. Important tolls were increased, but the service grew worse. In the first five months of Government operation there was a deficit of close to $4,000,000 for a company hitherto accustomed to nothing but fat surpluses.

And now a general increase of rates amounting to 12 per cent. will be necessary to wipe out the deficit and provide a thin surplus—a surplus, perhaps; then again, perhaps not. For, as Government operation can wipe out any surplus that exists in anything, Government operation, when there is no surplus, is an insurmountable barrier against the creation of one. A surplus indeed, however high the charges to the public are jacked up, seems as abhorrent to Government operation as good service.

The touch of the Government in business is the touch of death.—New York Sun.

THEY HIT THE SPOT

D. McMillen, Volunteer Fireman's Home, Hudson, N. Y., writes: "Foley Kidney Pills are like a stream of water played on a fire by firemen." They hit the spot, put out the fire and drown the pain." Foley Kidney Pills relieve rheumatic pains, backache, sore muscles and other symptoms of kidney and bladder trouble.—Hite's Drug Store.

Is the Partnership Fair One?

A Final Appeal To Pull Michigan Out of the Mud.

I am going to make this last appeal to the voters of Michigan. Everything will depend upon the efforts of those who have a vision and who believe in a bigger Michigan. A great majority of the meetings I have thus far addressed, satisfies me that our people as a whole do not yet understand the real issue. The time is here when the Federal Government believes that the public highways of the nation must be built to that standard that will make it possible for the new invention of American genius (the gas car) to perform its functions and carry from the farms, to the marts of trade both the products of the soil and the factory. Realizing this great end, the Government is anxious and ready to enter into a partnership with the more progressive states and we in Michigan, are confronted with the question, "Is such a partnership worth while?" We are now invited to come in on an equal basis, and into a full and complete partnership. The Government will pay not only one-half of the cost of our main market roads, but also will furnish to us its expert engineers and road builders as well as a portion of its equipment for road building and will thus aid and assist our own state highway department in completing the most perfect system of main highways that it is possible to construct. We must rely upon both the intelligence and the patriotism of our people in this great undertaking. The Federal Government can be interested only in our plain market roads and such roads as may be used for National defense and especially, for the carrying of the mail and parcel post, in other words the roads to be improved must be post roads or The Major Part Thereof. By the construction of five thousand miles of such roads, the various townships and counties will be enabled to give more time and attention to the lateral roads and the time will soon come when we shall have a perfect net work of well built roads throughout the entire state, bringing to the door of every producer, whether of the farm or the factory, a depot to which shall be brought and from which shall go, the commerce of the state and the nation. These roads will soon become the arteries through which shall flow the very life blood of our nation. I take it to be the duty of every man and woman in Michigan to call the attention of every voter to the fact that Uncle Sam is paying one-half of the bill. That the cities and villages of Michigan will pay sixty-five per cent of the cost and that Wayne county itself is paying one-third of the taxes of Michigan. The farmers' per cent will be so small that it is hardly worth while to compute, as there can possibly be no burden or hardship to be placed upon them. The following is the assessed valuation of Michigan as given to me by the tax commission for the year 1919:—

Total State Valuation	$4,216,781,678
Cities' Valuation	2,407,101,484
Villages' Valuation	272,893,069
Farm Property	1,538,787,104

Governor Sleeper in a questionnaire sent out by him asks and answers some very important questions for the farmers. The legislature have by resolution provided that only five million bonds shall be issued in any one year. This will give ten million for two years from the state and ten million from the Federal Government. With twenty million as a fund to work with, we are credibly advised that no more money could be possibly spent in a period of two years. Every man who wants labor in Michigan will find it and plenty of it. We will thus serve not only to employ labor, but at the same time be building up the great thoroughfares of Michigan, enabling us to hold up our heads along with our sister states.

Governor Sleeper has given the figures to the voters somewhat high. The legislature having the entire subject in hand, will doubtless create a sinking fund, and at least a portion of the income from the automobile license fund will be placed in the sinking fund and these bonds retired without any tax upon the real or personal property of our state. I have given to you the assessed valuation of the state, of the cities and villages, and of farm property. This will enable you to make your own deductions. When the farmer understands that of the small amount that he will be called upon to contribute and when he stops to think that the government is paying one half of the entire cost, Wayne county one-third of the other half, and the cities and villages sixty-five per cent, he will naturally ask himself the question, "How much, or how little will we be privileged to pay?" He then will be prepared to answer the greater question, "This is indeed a fair partnership and now is the time for co-operation."

Conditions which existed 75 years ago in Michigan, but which no longer obtain, led to the putting of an article in our constitution which forbids the state bonding for any public improvements. Since then we have learned from experience the wisdom of permitting, with the authority of the state, our cities to issue bonds for highways, water works, school buildings, and other public improvements, and leave the issuing of the bonds to the legislative body of the city—viz., the city council or school board. The people of Michigan also permit townships and counties to sell bonds for building roads, as well as for other public purposes, and trust the matter of issuing and disposing of the bonds to the legislative body of such township or county—viz., the town board or the county board of supervisors. In view of the urgent need for good market roads in Michigan, and with the millions of dollars offered to our state by the National Government, on a 50-50 basis, for building such highways, can there be any possible reason or excuse for any citizen of this state for failure to vote for Good Roads Amendment, which places the whole matter of issuing the authorized bonds in the hands of the legislature of our state? Especially so when our failure to meet the reasonable requirements of the National Government will mean the loss of these millions of Federal aid?

May I again appeal to you to tell your neighbor the truth. Tell him that this is not a fifty million bond issue, but on the other hand it is an amendment to the constitution that will enable the legislature to meet the Federal Government as necessity may require. Explain to them that if the amendment carries, we will have the authority to issue the bonds of the state for the purpose herein indicated, and thus, all together, PULL MICHIGAN OUT OF THE MUD.

Letters From Our Soldiers

From PRVT. CARL SHEPPARD

(To His Mother Mrs. A. H. Sheppard.)
February 25, 1919.

Dear Mother and All:

Received your letter today and certainly was glad to hear from you. You wrote it Feb. 7th, and I got it on the 25th of Feb. I haven't received any old mail yet, that you wrote me last summer. Hope I get it because it always cheers a fellow up when we hear from home. One cannot explain how one feels when he doesn't hear from home. Of course he doesn't know what the matter is and it makes 'him feel, well, he don't care if he lives, or dies. We are here and it makes a person feel that he is in prison or some place worse. I have wondered what I have done to be punished the way I have been. It seems like punishment and yet it is not. And other fellows have wondered the same thing. The thing is, why are we being kept over here. We have fought for our flag and our country, and we can't see why we are being kept over here. They give us passes to Paris, and the Y. M. C. A. gives us entertainments and we have movies once in awhile, but that home longing is still around. There is a lot of boys from Michigan in this division, and from all over, even California. Well, I will change my subject now. That Harry Simms that was in the clipping you sent me, was a company runner for Capt. Allen, he was made major on that drive. Yes, mother, I knew of him and I was on that drive myself and made that objective too. A fellow friend of mine and I came very near getting ours there. On that same objective the Germans had flanks fire on us. I was on that drive for nine days.

I will tell you more about this war when I get home. I don't like to write things in a letter. That officer, I think the one you spoke about is Lt. Johnson I knew his brother, he used to clerk in the Hite drug store, his brother is in France now. I would like to see some one that I knew before I came to the army. It makes a person feel good to see some one out of old Company E, 338, there is a lot of them in this division. This division is a regular army division and the way things look I guess I won't be home before next Christmas. But I think we will be home before then, at least I hope so, I don't see how they can put a drafted man in and make him stay like a regular army man.

I got my box of candy. Tell Russell to write and Rosetta also, I will answer all the letters I get. It's just since I have been in Germany that I have received any letters from home. We are billeted in the German houses here and the boys have been treated with a bowl of butter milk. The people have not got food to eat here like they have in the states. You walk into a store and there is nothing there to buy, so there is no use of going in.

Well, mother, I guess I will close for tonight it is 7:10 p. m. There hasn't been much snow here, about three inches of snow, but it got awful cold. I have to go on guard tomorrow night so I will close hoping to see or hear from you soon.

T. R. NEVER SOLD OUT.

Is there any doubt as to just what Theodore Roosevelt would say about the league covenant were he alive today? Those on both sides of the question are attempting to state what his views would be. There is only one answer. Roosevelt was one of the greatest examples and exponents of Americanism the country has ever known. He practiced what he preached and preached what he practiced. He stood for America first, last and all the time and was a firm believer in the teachings of George Washington. Would he consent to the surrender of American rights as demanded in the covenant? Would he consent to the giving of one vote to the United States in a council containing nine? Would he allow the Monroe Doctrine to be relegated to the scrap heap? Would he consent to the wholesale amending of our own constitution necessary to make it possible for the adoption of the league? Every man who knew Roosevelt in the slightest will answer "No" to all these questions.

It took Gray seven years to write his Elegy, yet many modern writers are convinced they could have done better work in an hour.

LADIES! SECRET TO DARKEN GRAY HAIR

Bring Back its Color and Lustre with Grandma's Sage Tea Recipe.

Common garden sage brewed into a heavy tea, with sulphur and alcohol added, will turn gray, streaked and faded hair beautifully dark and luxuriant. Mixing the Sage Tea and Sulphur recipe at home, though, is troublesome. An easier way is to get the ready-to-use preparation improved by the addition of other ingredients a large bottle, at little cost, at drug stores, known as "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound," thus avoiding a lot of fuss.

While gray, faded hair is not sinful, we all desire to retain our youthful appearance and attractiveness. By darkening your hair with Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound, no one can tell, because it does it so naturally, so evenly. You just dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time; by morning all gray hairs have disappeared. After another application or two your hair becomes beautifully dark, glossy, soft and luxuriant and you appear years younger. Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound is a delightful toilet requisite. It is not intended for the cure, mitigation or prevention of disease.

ROOSEVELT'S DEPARTING WORDS TO HIS COUNTRYMEN

Col. Roosevelt died about 4 o'clock on the morning of January 6. The previous evening at a great patriotic rally in the New York Hippodrome a message was read from him, written especially for the occasion. In it was this striking sentence:

"We have room for but one flag, the American flag, and this excludes the red flag, which symbolizes all wars against liberty and civilization just as much as it excludes any foreign flag of a nation to which we are hostile, and we have room for but one soul loyalty, and that is loyalty to the American people."

In the Sistine chapel in Rome the choir was chanting the famous "Miserere" by Allegri, the copying of which was forbidden by the church under pain of excommunication. In a corner of the chapel a boy of 14 listened with trained ear, greedily devouring a jealously guarded piece repeated twice. In his room the tone pictures transmitted to Mozart's brain were recalled accurately and transcribed upon paper. The next day he sang the "Miserere" at a concert, accompanying himself on a harpsichord. All Rome, including the pope was astounded. His holiness sent for him and instead of excommunicating him, heaped honors on Mozart; so extraordinary was the feat regarded.

Not a Bite of Breakfast Until You Drink Water

Says a glass of hot water and phosphate prevents illness and keeps us fit.

Just as coal, when it burns, leaves behind a certain amount of combustible material in the form of ashes, so the food and drink taken day after day leaves in the alimentary canal a certain amount of indigestible material, which if not completely eliminated from the system each day, becomes food for the millions of bacteria which infect the bowels. From this mass of left-over waste, toxins and ptomaine-like poisons are formed and sucked into the blood.

Men and women who can't get feeling right must begin to take inside baths. Before eating breakfast each morning drink a glass of real hot water with a teaspoonful of limestone phosphate in it to wash out of the thirty feet of bowels the previous day's accumulation of poisons and toxins and to keep the entire alimentary canal clean, pure and fresh.

Those who are subject to sick headache, colds, biliousness, constipation, others who wake up with bad taste, foul breath, backache, rheumatic stiffness, or have a sour, gassy stomach after meals, are urged to get a quarter pound of limestone phosphate from the drug store, and begin practicing internal sanitation. This will cost very little, but is sufficient to make anyone an enthusiast on the subject.

Remember inside bathing is more important than outside bathing, because the skin pores do not absorb impurities into the blood, causing poor health while the bowel pores do. Just as soap and hot water cleanses, sweetens and freshens the skin, so hot water and limestone phosphate act on the stomach, liver, kidneys and bowels.

SALTS IF BACKACHE AND KIDNEYS HURT

Drink lots of water and stop eating meat for a while if your Bladder troubles you.

When you wake up with backache and dull misery in the kidney region it generally means you have been eating too much meat, says a well-known authority. Meat forms uric acid which overworks the kidneys in their effort to filter it from the blood and they become sort of paralyzed and loggy. When your kidneys get sluggish and clog you must relieve them, like you relieve your bowels; removing all the body's urinous waste, else you have backache, sick headache, dizzy spells; your stomach sour, tongue is coated, and when the weather is bad you have rheumatic twinges. The urine is cloudy, full of sediment, channels often get sore, water scalds and you are obliged to seek relief two or three times during the night.

Either consult a good, reliable physician at once or get from your pharmacist about four ounces of Jad Salts; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys will then set fine. This famous salt is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for generations to clean and stimulate sluggish kidneys, also to neutralize acids in the urine so it no longer irritates, thus ending bladder weakness.

Jad Salts is a life saver for regular meat eaters. It is inexpensive, causes no injury and makes a delightful, effervescent lithia-water drink.

HEAD STUFFED FROM CATARRH OR A COLD

Says Cream Applied in Nostrils Opens Air Passages Right Up.

Instant relief—no waiting. Your clogged nostrils open right up; the air passes freely. No more yawning, sneezing, blowing, headache, dryness. No struggling for breath at night; your cold or catarrh disappears.

Get a small bottle of Ely's Cream Balm from your druggist now. Apply a little of this fragrant, antiseptic, healing cream in your nostrils. It penetrates through every air passage of the head, soothes the inflamed or swollen mucous membrane and relief comes instantly.

It's just sneeze. Don't stay stuffed up with a cold or nasty catarrh.

PLAN NEW BILL TO ADMINISTER ROAD BOND FUND

HIGHWAY COMMISSIONER ROGERS MEETS WITH LEGISLATIVE COMMITTEES TO ARRANGE FOR DISTRIBUTION OF MONEY.

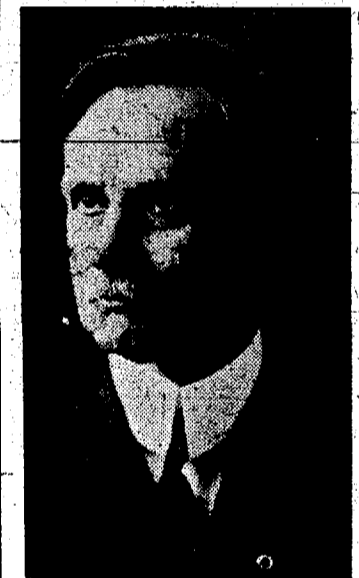

TO MEET FEDERAL AID FIRST

Government to Furnish Equipment As Well As Cash to Help Pull The Wolverine State Out of the Mud.

Lansing, April 2.—Highway committees of the House and Senate, together with State Highway Commissioner Frank E. Rogers, are busy working out a new bill for introduction immediately following the ratification of the Good Roads amendment at the election April 7, which will serve to arrange for the distribution of the money to be raised from time to time on the Highway bonds.

Rep. Frank B. Aldrich's bill establishing a sliding scale of state reward for road building, which most people supposed was designed as the machinery for the administration of the Highway bond proceeds, will serve only as a part of the legislative machinery. Commissioner Rogers has gauged public sentiment and is convinced the people now so understand the proposed Highway amendment and so thoroughly approve of a system of permanent roads built under a deferred payment plan and with Uncle Sam matching the state's investment on a dollar-for-dollar basis, that he is proceeding under the assumption that the proposal will get an overwhelmingly favorable vote at the spring election.

New legislation must be provided to assure the use of a portion of the funds raised from time to time from the sale of bonds, to guarantee Michigan it's more than $7,000,000 share of Federal aid during the next two years. Some special provision must be made for caring for bridge construction in such a way that it will not be a burden on the local community and there must be machinery to assure the local communities their full quota of state reward. All these points will be incorporated in a new bill which probably will be one of the last pieces of legislation, pushed through the house and senate.

Mr. Rogers also announced that Michigan will receive some 4 per cent of the vast quantities of war equipment and supplies that could be converted to highway building. This will be distributed in the same ratio as the Federal aid and he already has assurance of a large number of trucks, automobiles, stone-crushers, road rollers, surveyors' instruments, tractors, locomotives, cars, narrow-gauge track, steam shovels, concrete mixers, etc. And this is but a small portion of what Uncle Sam will send into Michigan to help the state spend its own and the government money in the most economical, efficient manner in the construction of a comprehensive system of main market roads leading into every community.

SUPERVISORS INDORSE GOOD ROAD AMENDMENT.

Nearly all of the County Boards of Supervisors have passed resolutions endorsing the proposal to amend the constitution to provide the machinery for issuing bonds from time to time for the construction of a system of main market roads leading to every community. In addition to the endorsement of individual boards, the State Association of County Supervisors, in annual session at Lansing, adopted a resolution pledging themselves individually and collectively to help the movement and help educate the people to the true character of the proposal.

WHICH ROAD DO YOU TRAVEL?

Here Are the Signposts: End of One Will Find You "Broke," Other Happy and With Funds.

There are two roads in life. One leads to a quagmire of nothingness. The other leads to success. Both are lined with signposts to show the wary traveler in which direction he is moving. But many people go along, their eyes on the skies, on the ground, or unseeing in dreamland, never noticing that they are advancing on the wrong highway. Do you know which road you are traveling? Here are the signposts. The end of one will find you empty-handed. The end of the other will find you with funds for a sunny opportunity—with War Savings Stamps and Liberty Bonds working for you at over 4 per cent interest.

Spendthrift Road.

"This is on me."
"One more of the same."
"Lend me five."
"Charge this."
"Here, boy."
"Where do we go from here?"
"Let's have another round."
"You can go home any time."
"Your money's no good."
"I can't be bothered with small change."
"The sky's the limit."
"I'm paying for this."
"Don't be a piker."
"It's all in a lifetime."
"More where this came from."

Thrifty Road.

"What's the price of this?"
"One will do."
"The walk will do me good."
"No, thank you."
"I can't afford that."
"Give me your best price."
"I'll carry this."
"I promised my wife."
"I need the money."
"Let me pay my share."
"I can get along without this."
"I'll get it as I need it."
"Is it worth seeing?"
"A penny is as good in my pocket."
"This is what I got for my money."

FOR A RAINY DAY.

Sing a song of sixpence!
A pocketful of "tin,"
Four and twenty Thrift Stamps
All tucked in.
When the card is finished
The stamps begin to gain,
Isn't that a pretty plan
Against a day of rain?

Bar "Stamp Shark" Advertisements. Newspapers throughout the country gradually are banishing from their columns all advertisements inserted by unscrupulous persons who conduct a business of purchasing War Savings Stamps and Liberty Bonds at a discount.

HER FIRST REAL MONEY

"This card represents my first real money," recently said a farmer's wife, with an odd look of mingled pride, deprecation and something very like triumph.

"At home, as a girl, I had no money. Mother bought things for us children with whatever money father gave her. Since I've been married it's been much the same. I've got things at the town stores and Jim's paid for them. Even my egg and butter money has gone, as a rule, to help with the household upkeep—turned in on the grocery bill, usually. I've never seemed able to hold on to a penny.

"But when the War Savings Stamps came along I said to myself, 'Here's your chance, Mary!' And now I buy War Savings Stamps regularly, take 'em in change as regularly as I sell chickens or cash the creamery check at the bank. I've filled several cards already, and I can tell you I gloat over 'em! When those War Savings Stamps mature I'll have real money of my own."

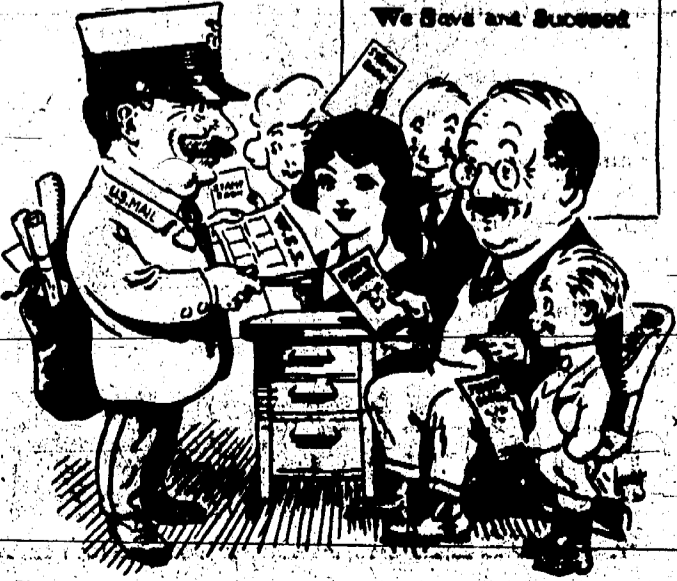

CAPITALIZE YOURSELF

Hold On to Your Stamps. Do not sell your War Savings Stamps. The government borrowed the money for a specific purpose. If the securities are not retained your purchase will have been of no permanent benefit to the government. The men who buy and save, who follow the principles of thrift, are the people who will shape the destiny of the nation.

ALOON ISSUE MAIN CONTEST ON APRIL 7

Wine and Beer Amendment, If Adopted, Will Bring Bars Back—Drys Expect to Win.

Lansing, Mich.—While good roads and party politics will command attention of voters of the state on April 7, the real battle at the polls on Monday, according to lieutenants who have been directing the pre-election campaigns, will revolve about the contest in progress between the wets and drys over the wine and beer amendment proposed by the liquor interests. If adopted by the electors of Michigan, the amendment will again make lawful the sale of wines, beers, ales and porters within the state.

Representatives from both the liquor and the prohibition camps have had their coats off and their sleeves rolled up for several weeks—the wets campaigning quietly, in gum-shoe fashion; the drys openly, from pulpits and platforms in every section of the anti-saloon forces profess confidence that the present dry laws will be maintained, and the wine and beer amendment defeated.

The present struggle between the saloon interests and the drys, it is being pointed out, is the reverse of that it was in 1916, when the drys were on the offensive. On Monday the drys will be on the defensive to hold what they have. In 1916 their motto was "Vote Yes." Their slogan in the present campaign is "Vote 'no' on the wine and beer amendment."

Confidence in the dry camp is attributed in the main to the expectation that a big majority of Michigan's 500,000 feminine voters will line up to prevent the return of the saloon.

FIND FORTY JOKERS IN WINE-BEER BILL

Wet Amendment to Be Voted On Monday Is Masterpiece of Camouflage, Drys Declare.

Lansing, Mich.—A wag among the many who are holding down seats in this season's state legislature, has pinned a name upon the proposed wine and beer amendment of the wets which promises to stick with it until after the election of April 7. Some time ago the Drys issued a pamphlet enumerating 40 flaws in the measure, and taking his cue from this, the capitol wit christened the amendment "The Forty Jokers." It is upon the presence of these "jokers" in the amendment, which make it something other than what it purports to be, that the Drys are basing their hopes for the defeat of the measure by Michigan voters on election day.

Among the jokers enumerated is one it is said, that would make it legal, if the amendment was adapted, to give wine, beer, ale or porter to boys and girls; another would restrict the legislature from making any laws that would limit the amount of alcohol these beverages could contain and a third feature of the amendment would repeal the right of counties to vote on local option, and would hereby make every county wet whether it so desired to be or not. If adopted the Drys charge, the amendment would throw Michigan wide open in a way that the state has not seen in 50 years.

NO DEBATE ON WINE AND BEER AMENDMENT

Wets Decline Invitation of Drys to Thrash Issue Out on Platform.

Lansing, Mich.—Michigan will hear no debates this spring upon the relative merits and demerits of the proposed wine and beer amendment to the constitution, which will be voted upon April 7. Some weeks ago a challenge was issued from the headquarters of the Michigan Anti-Saloon League here inviting representatives of the liquor interests to talk the question over in public, but the invitation has thus far brought no responses from the champions of the wine and beer measure.

"Our only inference," remarked Grant M. Hudson, superintendent of the Michigan Anti-Saloon League, "is that the wets realize their measure is so lacking in merit that no defense for it is possible."

Another invitation addressed by the Drys directly to State Senator Arthur E. Wood of Detroit a few days ago, has likewise remained unanswered.

"NO BEER, MORE WORK" SLOGAN OF WOLVERINES

Governor Albert E. Sleeper So Tells New Yorkers in Interview.

Lansing, Mich.—On the eve of what is expected to be the last wet and dry fight in Michigan, the Dry forces of the state have adopted a slogan, "No beer, more work," coined by Governor Albert E. Sleeper.

The slogan has come from here New York, where it was first enunciated by the governor in the course of an interview granted to the New York Journal.

The governor was asked whether the "No beer, no work" movement would affect Michigan.

"Not at all," he answered. "Our experience is 'no beer, more work.'"

The governor's declaration is expected by the Drys to much help the Dry cause when the proposed wine and beer amendment is voted on April 7.

LAW REQUIRES BETTER HOMES FOR HONEY BEE

Owners of Box Hives and Log Gums to be Liable to Arrest after July 1.

East Lansing, Mich., March 31st. The state law requiring sanitary quarters for honey bees, enacted two years ago by the state legislature for the protection of the beekeeping industry, will be enforced after July 1, according to B. F. Kindig of M. A. C., state inspector of apiaries. After that date, an announcement from the office of Inspector Kindig declares, inspectors will be supplied with warrants for the immediate arrest of individuals still keeping their bees in box hives, log gums, skeps or in modern hives with crossed combs.

"The enforcement of the law has not been pushed heretofore," declared Inspector Kindig, "because it was assumed beekeepers should be allowed some time in which to transfer their colonies into other equipment. All the necessary changes should be made by July 1, after which date all inspectors will carry with them blank warrants for the arrest of every beekeeper found housing his colonies in unlawful hives."

A bulletin telling how bees can be transferred has been published by the experiment station of M. A. C. and can be obtained by writing either to the Director of the Experiment Station, East Lansing, or by dropping a card to the State Inspector of Apiaries, East Lansing.

IN MISERY FOR YEARS

Mrs. Courtney Tells How She Was Cured by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Oskaloosa, Iowa.—"For years I was weak in misery from a weakness and awful pains—and nothing seemed to do me any good. A friend advised me to take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. I did so and got relief right away. I can certainly recommend this valuable medicine to other women who suffer, for it has done such good work for me and I know it will help others if they will give it a fair trial."

—Mrs. LIZZIE COURTNEY, 108 8th Ave., West, Oskaloosa, Iowa.
Why will women drag along from day to day, year in and year out, suffering such misery as did Mrs. Courtney, when such letters as this are continually being published? Every woman who suffers from displacements, irregularities, inflammation, ulceration, backache, nervousness, or who is passing through the Change of Life should give this famous root and herb remedy, Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, a trial. For special advice write Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co., Lynn, Mass. The result of its long experience is at your service.

If you had what you think you ought to have, you probably wouldn't be happy because then you'd want something that you oughtn't to have.

Russell C. Ostrander, Republican Candidate for Justice of the Supreme Court. John E. Bird, Republican Candidate for Justice of the Supreme Court.

Dr. Lucius L. Hubbard, Republican Candidate for Regent of the University. Benjamin S. Hanchett, Republican Candidate for Regent of the University.

Dora H. Stockman, Republican Candidate for Member of the State Board of Agriculture. L. Whitney Watkins, Republican Candidate for Member of the State Board of Agriculture.

Mrs. Lucele Condon of Hancock, Addresses Appeal To Woman Republican Voters Of State

During the war, women assumed responsibilities to which they were unaccustomed, and underwent real hardships uncomplainingly. Duty now calls them in another direction with the same patriotic sense of responsibility and obligation. Judging by the expressed opinion of a number of women voters with whom I have discussed the essentials of the task before us there is a mistaken impression prevailing at this time that because women will have the vote, it therefore follows that there is to be a separate woman's party. This is decidedly not the case. In Michigan it is the privilege and the obligation of women to affiliate with one or the other of the two great parties, either the republican or the democratic party—of, even one of the numerous minor parties, if their sympathies so incline. Since a party is the machinery for the expression of opinion and for the selection of representatives of that opinion, and the republican party, especially, is a great body of followers, is distinguished by principles which embrace the ideals and the needs of all citizens, therefore it is to all women of republican leanings that this appeal is addressed, so that a clearer understanding of the obligation of the woman voter of this district may be had.

At last the great state of Michigan has called women to share in the planning and administration of government and our state and nation will gain in its civic life to whatever extent women bear their part with intelligent understanding. There is a healthy sentiment attached to new beginnings—woman will need no inspiration for her coming task. Her spirit is ready and eager for it. There will be difficulties and many perplexing conditions to meet and it will help materially if the men of the republican committee will instruct, encourage and co-operate with us in our performance of a civic duty. All of us have much to learn in this new field, but most of us are discriminating enough to realize that men, having had a wider experience have developed a greater political acumen than have women. Nevertheless we do not, nor do our friends who wish us well, deny that we are lacking in it potentially.

Let then all republican citizens, both men and women, unite in a harmonious agreement on the high principles of our great party and strive to do our whole part in the service of citizenship.

A Welcome to the Women of Michigan.

"We are glad to welcome into our party the women of this great, free Republic. Their splendid war service upon the battle front and at home, their loyalty and devotion to their country in the great conflict entitle them to a place in American government upon the same footing as men. There is work enough in our ranks for all earnest men and women." (From Platform adopted at Republican State Convention at Lansing, February 18, 1919).

The Republican party in Michigan has long been a staunch advocate of Woman Suffrage. The State Central Committee of the Republican party repeatedly adopted resolutions favoring Suffrage and many Republican State Conventions declared in favor of it before it finally became an established fact. Within the last six years Republican legislatures in Michigan have submitted the question of Suffrage to the voters of the state upon three different occasions and until it eventually carried.

The Republican party of Michigan extends an earnest invitation to every woman in Michigan who will be 21 years old or over on April 7th next to go to the polls on April 7, 1919, and cast her first vote in favor of the principles and the candidates of the party.

Cheboygan—Wolverine claims the oldest active woman suffragist in the county, Grandma Jane McEorinick, 87 years, who is taking a prominent part in the spring election. At the Republican caucus she exerted real influence and is electioneering for her favorites.

TAXICAB CAT NO USE FOR THIEVES

SHE LOVES THE CHAUFFEURS, BUT HATES STRANGERS

Why, She Actually Had Chance For Fine Home, But Fleed After Mauling Friends' Angoras.

New York.—There is a disreputable, self-opinionated gray cat that lives at the northeast corner of 7th avenue and 43rd street, and is known as the only "taxi cat" in the city. It is usually found in front of a restaurant door there, at which there are usually three or four taxicabs. Nominally the cat belongs to the restaurant; really the restaurant belongs to the cat, while the taxis are its playground and their drivers its willing slaves.

How this all came about is best told by Edward Edgerton, known by his fellows as "Edge", who has kept his taxi on that stand for the last year.

"That gray tom?" he said, when asked about the cat. "Why, that's Bum, the only and original taxi cat. What's more, I got him his job, and many a night he goes with me when I'm taking the late ones home. What's more, he travels with all the boys, but, like any proper cat, he always comes back, and every day when I get on the job, there he is waiting to say 'Good morning'."

"It was funny how I found Bum. It was in the first big snow last winter: I was driving across town in one of the Eighties and the snow was drifting in big heaps all along the curbs. As we skidded down the middle of the block I saw a big, black cat right out in the street in the worst part of the storm. I slowed down with a bump and hopped out to see what was the matter. I picked her up and got back into the seat just as my fare began to holler about being delayed in getting home.

"I put the cat down under the robe, and when I got my fare home I tucked the cat up good and warm inside the cab and started back to the stand. When I got there I found that I had another cat and four little ones under the robe. It was bitter cold, so I took the whole family down into the cellar of the restaurant, and one of the boys fixed up a place for them. The biggest of the bunch was Bum, and just as soon as he was old enough to ramble for himself he came upstairs and became friendly with me and the other drivers." He got lots to eat and in the beginning we were always chasing him out of the cabs. Pretty soon we found that what he wanted was rides, just like the people who hang around this district, and we began taking him out.

"One of the best things Bum does is to watch the cabs. Now that the whole street is torn up with the subway work lots of laborers hang around. Bum does not approve of the torn-up street, so now he sits on the railing or in the flower boxes and keeps his eyes on things. The other night a man strolled across the street and, finding no one in my cab, which was at the end of the line, started away with the laprobe. No sooner did he get it in his hands than Bum made a dash out of the flower boxes and landed on him. He hollered and dropped the rug and I dive out of the door and grabbed him. Bum was just eating him up and if I'd left him alone that crook would never have hankered after any more laprobes. After that incident Bum made up his mind that all strangers that hung around the taxis were enemies, and whenever a man stops near them you will see him climb down from his perch and sneak over on his toes to investigate.

"There's a woman that comes to the restaurant pretty regular that's interested in Bum. She used to stop and pet him, and one day she said to me: 'Why does not some one give that poor cat a home?' I started to tell her, but just then I caught a fare, and when I came back Bum was gone. 'Well, I felt pretty sore about it, and was fixing to find out where the woman lived to ask her to bring him back. I made up my mind to do it as soon as I got off. It wasn't more than an hour after that when a gray flash dived around the corner and there was Bum, all excited and darn glad to get back. He was a little mused up, and had some scratches, and he jumped up on my seat and doctored himself.

"I had an idea of what had happened, and next night I heard about it. The woman and her husband came for supper, and when she went in her husband said, pointing to Bum: 'That's one real man eater. My wife took him home last night and he seemed to like it until he got in the house and she introduced him to her flock of prize Persians and Angoras. He just took one look at those petted beauties and then started in to lick the lot. You never saw so much cat hair in your life. Right in the middle of the scrap my wife rushed into the room and dived into the melee, and the old gray cat gave her a wallop, too. She was only too glad to see him go through the front door. I guess she don't like those fancy cats too much'."

Then came a call for a taxi and Edge jumped his car to the door, and as they went off there was Bum sitting on the seat beside him.

And a good deal of knowledge that people acquire is about as useful in their business as counterfeit money.

With men it's wine, women and song; with women it's ice cream soups, men, grand opera and chicken salad.

An egotist is a man who insists on telling you the things about himself that you want to tell about yourself.

The man who insists that he has a right to spend his money because he earns it has no business being married.
