Victory Loan Volunteer Week Starts Saturday

EAST JORDAN'S QUOTA IS $85,000

Can We Raise This Amount During the Week?

Committees Organized and Ready For Business.

Plans for the big Volunteer Week Victory Liberty Loan Drive for East Jordan are all made and the Campaign to raise our City's quota—$85,000—starts this Saturday morning, April 19, and closes Saturday night, April 26th. The Committees hope that the full quota will be subscribed during this period and it would be a big thing for our city if the amount is raised voluntarily. Subscribe at your bank at once or at the Victory Liberty Loan Booth, corner Main and Estery streets. This booth will be in charge of Mrs. M. R. Keyworth, chairman of the East Jordan branch Womens Defense League and a committee of ladies.

The War Board Committee in charge of this drive are as follows: John Porter, chairman; William F. Bashaw, James Gidley, Robert Barnett, Roscoe Mackey, Mrs. W. H. Roy, A. K. Hill, D. L. Wilson, and E. N. Clink. These citizens are responsible for the raising of this amount in East Jordan, and their work will be similar to that in the Fourth Loan. It is hoped, however, that their work will be lessened by the loan being fully subscribed during the coming week. As soon as the amount—$85,000—is raised, subscriptions will cease.

Loan Rally Next Week

A big rally is planned to be held at the Temple Theatre one night next week. A prominent speaker from outside will be here for that night. The Freshmen Class of East Jordan High will put on a patriotic play the same night. Watch for bills announcing date.

BE A VOLUNTEER.

6 LIQUOR STILL IN BATTLE CREEK

Battle Creek, April 16.—Internal revenue officers have uncovered evidence showing that whisky has been distilled daily from at least six "moonshine" stills here for sale to soldiers from Camp Custer and civilians.

Federal operatives have been working here for weeks and uncovered much evidence, indicating the city was well supplied with liquor. While firemen were fighting a fire of incendiary origin, which broke out simultaneously in two rooms in the back part of the Italian Spaghetti house, they found the first, fully equipped with a container full of cracked corn and having a copper coil, condenser and other paraphernalia in one of the back rooms.

Sam Saginetti, proprietor of the place has not been found. No one was in the restaurant when the fire was discovered. Police are seeking the other stills known to be operating.

PALMER DECLARES PEACE

Attorney General Palmer doesn't seem to count the fact that we are at peace with Germany. Several sedition charges against magazine writers indicted under the espionage act have been dismissed. Mr. Palmer having suggested that the ends of justice would thus best be served in view of hostilities with Germany having ended. It would appear on the surface, at least that whether hostilities had ceased or not should have no effect on these cases. The result should rest on whether or not the indicted persons are guilty. Just because the "war is over" is no sign their seditious utterances did no harm before the armistice was signed. Such action on the part of the Attorney General is a bad example to set for the future.

If a man were to say exactly what he thinks on all occasions he wouldn't be able to live through a day.

Not one man out of four appears well in the kind of hat he wears, yet he will select a hat in five minutes and take an hour to select a suit, even though nearly all suits make him look more or less alike.

Highest French Honor For 32nd

General Mangin Presents the Crosses and Streamers.

Coblentz, April 15.—The Croix de Guerre with palm has been pinned to the colors of the four infantry regiments and three machine gun battalions of the 32nd division, by General Mangin. This is the highest honor yet paid to any American division by the entente.

On the breasts of scores of officers and enlisted men the General also pinned the cross of war, which they had by individual acts of bravery won. In all, 500 Michigan and Wisconsin soldiers, former national guardsmen, were awarded this honor, but only 220 were present to accept them when the review was held near Dierdorf.

Battle Streamers on Colors.

Twenty-four Distinguished Service crosses were bestowed by Maj. Gen. Joseph T. Dickman.

The major general tied the "flamme de guerre" or battle streamers to the colors of each regiment or machine gun battalion. These streamers bore the names of the divisions' big engagements, Alsace, Aisne-Marne, Oise-Aisne, and the Meuse-Argonne, which name appears twice.

General Mangin's Citation.

The 32nd division is grouped as two infantry brigades and the division machine gun battalions in General Mangin's citation, which reads:

"The 64th infantry brigade—a magnificent brigade to which the French soldiers, fighting at its side, rendered the most beautiful homage by calling it 'Brigade des Terribles.'"

"It is composed of the 127th and the 128th regiments and the 121st machine gun battalion."

"It took in a brilliant and irresistible attack the village of Juvigny Aug. 30, 1918, and pursued its advance Aug. 31, and Sept. 1 dominating the enemy constantly, in spite of heavy losses, and sustaining without faltering the most violent enemy counter attacks, and fighting for three days without stopping, without rest, and almost without food."

Glory for the 125th

"The 63rd infantry brigade is composed of the 125th and the 126th infantry regiments and the 120th machine gun battalion. It has acquired the most splendid title to glory in the battles of Aug. 28 in the vicinity of Juvigny."

"Scarcely having entered the lines it dashed forward to assault. The enemy was surprised and became demoralized by the rapidity and vigor of the attack."

"The brigade proved its superiority in the fierce hand to hand struggle, where the 125th and 126th regiments and the 120th machine gun battalion emerged the victors. The brigade drove back the beaten enemy as far as the approach to Etny-Sorny, while efficaciously supporting the neighboring French troops during the attack from Aug. 31 to Sept. 1."

Praise for Machine Gun Men

"The 119th machine gun battalion for four days fought with energy, skill and endurance. Although tried by the enemy fire, it moved continually forward, sending its fire directly and remorselessly upon the adversary, shattering his counter attacks, and inflicting upon the enemy deadly damage. It contributed mightily in taking Juvigny, and holding the conquered ground."

The records show that the 32nd served under the Tenth army on the Oise-Aisne front last August, and that service was referred to directly by General Mangin in his speech of presentation.

SEVERAL ISSUES

The people of this country should not let themselves slumber under the delusion that the controversy between Postmaster General Burleson and the owners of the Postal Telegraph Company is of interest to those persons only. There are several issues in which all the people have an interest. Least in importance are the increased charges and diminished service incident to government operation. More important is that policy of government ownership which will be foisted upon the country if the Postmaster General has his way. But more important still is the observance of property rights, which, if infringed upon in one instance, may, with equal recklessness, be seized in other instances. It is to the interest of every citizen to see that justice is done to every other citizen.

New Industry For West Side

Will Manufacture Cider, Vinegar and Other Products.

A deal was closed the past week in which M. C. Larime of Hart, Mich., together with some of our local business men, become owners of the E. B. Clark warehouse on the West Side. Machinery will be installed and, commencing about August 1st they will start manufacturing pasteurized cider, vinegar, apple butter, jellies, and other apple products. A Coopersage building will be erected and they will manufacture their own containers.

Mr. Larime operated two similar plants and is a competent manager. The business here will employ from 15 to 45 men and furnish a ready market for apples of all grades.

This will be good news to the fruit growers of this region for in the past there has been a large quantity of cull apples going to waste owing to no available market.

EAST JORDAN HERO RETURNS HOME

SERGEANT JOHN ELLIS

East Jordan welcomes another of her wounded soldier heroes this week, in the person of Sergeant John Ellis of Headquarters Company, 125th Infantry. Sergt. Ellis enlisted with our Company "I" boys while they were stationed at Fort Wayne and was with them in Camp at Waco, Texas, prior to their going overseas.

On August 4th he was wounded by a sharpnel in the left leg while in charge of third platoon trench mortar on the Chateau-Thierry sector. He was removed to a hospital where the leg was amputated above the knee.

He landed in New York in December and was later transferred to Fort Snellen, Minn., where he was fitted with an artificial limb and attended a soldiers school.

He has received his final discharge and returned home to East Jordan, Sunday, and will make his home for awhile with his brother, Lewis Ellis. He expects to attend a business college this fall.

HOTEL MICHIGAN SOLD UNDER DECREE OF COURT

W. P. Porter of East Jordan, Purchaser of Property.

George W. Weaver, acting as special commissioner in chancery, has sold the Hotel Michigan, corner Antrim and Bridge streets, to William P. Porter of East Jordan, the sale being made in compliance with the terms of an order and decree issued by the circuit court of this county.

The property in question is one of the most valuable hotel sites in the city and for many years enjoyed a prosperous business. After several fires, financial difficulties, and lack of funds to properly conduct the business, the hotel was never rebuilt after the last fire, and for two years the property has stood vacant and unrepaired.

The legal steps taken places the title of the property in Mr. Porter, unless redeemed as provided by statute. In case of no redemption he will become the legal owner and will without doubt at once rebuild and refurbish the building and it will be then re-opened under new management.—Charlevoix Courier.

About the best thing a lot of worthless men could do for their country in peace time would be to die for it.

Victory Loan Terms Explained

ALLOW ALL $10,000 SUBSCRIPTIONS.

Both Small and Large Buyers to Be Cared For. In Size This Loan Is Classed Fourth.

Here is the new Victory Loan dope: Date—April 21-May 10. Amount—$4,500,000,000. No over-subscription to be accepted, but all subscriptions to $10,000 will be allotted in full.

Dates—Notes issued May 20, 1919, mature May 20, 1923.

Terms—For small buyers, notes at 4 1/2 per cent interest, nontaxable except for inheritance and estate tax, where the owner's income is less than $5,000.

For large buyer, notes at 3 1/2 per cent interest, exempt from all taxation except inheritance and estate taxes.

Goal—$5,000,000 purchasers.

Final—This is the last Liberty Loan. Terms of the Victory issue may be compared with the following terms of past issues:

First Loan—$2,000,000,000, 3 1/2 per cent, tax exempt, maturity 30 years.

Second Loan—$3,000,000,000 offered, $4,617,000,000 subscribed; $3,908,000,000 accepted; 4 per cent; partially tax exempt; maturity 25 years.

Third Loan—$3,000,000,000 offered, $4,176,000,000 subscribed and accepted; 4 1/2 per cent; partially tax exempt; maturity 10 years.

Fourth Loan—$6,000,000,000 offered, $6,993,000,000 subscribed and accepted; 4 1/2 per cent; partially tax exempt, with special conditional exemptions for past issues; maturity 20 years.

War savings stamps bear the equivalent of 4 per cent interest and mature in five years.

The first week of the campaign in East Jordan is volunteer week when people are expected to come to headquarters and subscribe their quota.

GET SEED POTATOES READY

As the time approaches for potato planting the grower should take the necessary steps to provide himself with good seed stock and to prepare for its disinfection before planting. High-grade seed potatoes are those which are true to name, free from varietal mixture, of good type, and grown from healthy and productive plants. In the absence of such seed stock select medium large-sized tubers of good shape and as free from scab and black scurf as possible.

TREATMENT

In disinfecting seed potatoes one has the choice of two disinfectants—formalin, and corrosive sublimate, either of which are about equally effective against potato scab but are not on a par when black scurf (Rhizoctonia) is present on the surface of the tubers. For this disease the corrosive sublimate solution is much more effective.

DIRECTIONS.

(1) Formalin solution: Dilute 1 pint formalin with 30 gallons water.

(2) Corrosive sublimate solution: Dissolve 4 ounces corrosive sublimate in 2 gallons hot water; dilute to 30 gallons. Soak uncut tubers in either solution for 1 1/2 to 2 hours; remove and "spread out to dry."

In cutting the seed a further selection should be made by rejecting all tubers which, on the removal of a thin slice of flesh from the stem end, show a brownish discoloration. If this examination is carefully made it will eliminate practically all blackleg, fusarium wilt, and rhizoctonia-infected tubers from the seed stock.

The use of well-selected and properly treated seed should insure a much larger yield than that secured from unselected and untreated seed.

"Your new spring suit is ready for you," announces a tailor's ad. But the main question is, "Are you ready for the spring suit?"

HE ESCAPED INFLUENZA

"Last spring I had a terrible cold and grippe and was afraid I was going to have influenza," writes A. A. McNeese—High Point, Ga. "I took Foley's Honey and Tar. It was a sight to see the phlegm I coughed up. I am convinced Foley's Honey and Tar saved me from influenza." Contains no opiates. Good for children.—Hite's Drug Store.

Wholesale Plots to Ship Liquor in Cars From Ohio Coal Mines Blocked.

Detroit, April 16.—One million dollars' worth of liquor, in cases, trunks, grips, kegs, barrels and other containers repose in the basement of the county building and other storage places held innocuous by John B. Downey's department.

During the last two weeks 103 arrests have been made by the liquor department which resulted in the confiscation of some of the largest whisky consignments that have been brought into the state since the dry law went into effect.

Enough liquor, bonded goods, white still whisky from dozens of stills being unearthed in Wayne county, brandy and wines to make up a trainload of twenty cars Tuesday morning, crowded the basement rooms at the county court house, with forty-one inspectors of the department reporting new seizures at the passenger depots, the steamer docks and in various places outside Detroit.

One wholesale plot with ramifications extending into Coshocton county, Ohio, and the coal mines of that county has been uncovered, one carload of coal discovered at Coshocton or Clowville, near Coshocton, having more than $6,000 worth of concealed whisky consigned to a Detroit firm.

Blind tighing under the Lewis act is declared by Downey to have become de trop, and listed among the 103 arrests are names of those alleged to have been among the biggest commercial runners of liquor in Detroit.

Many former saloonkeepers, garage owners, and, in some cases, the heads of smaller manufacturing companies, are defendants on the complaints now being filed, which, on conviction, permit the maximum fine of $1,000 and imprisonment for a year.

FIFTY VISIT THE LOEB FARM

Holsteins Make Fine Cattle Exhibit.

(From Petoskey News)

Fifty farmers of Emmet County enjoyed a trip to the Loeb farms at Charlevoix Friday afternoon.

The rainy weather kept a good many away but those who made the trip enjoyed it very much.

The men were much interested in the fine herd of Holsteins which is being gathered at this farm. Whether a man is a Holstein fancier or not, it is an inspiration to any lover of live stock to see the black and white cattle on this farm.

The men were met by R. V. Otto, farm superintendent, who conducted the party through the barns, telling the merits of the various cows and the records of those that have been tested and those on test at the present time. The $10,000 herd sire was a source of admiration for their isn't a better Holstein herd sire in Michigan than the animal heading the Koeb herds.

Mr. Otto made an attractive offer to owners of pure bred females who wish to get the service of the herd sire at the Loeb farm.

The cattle barn with its arrangement and fixtures came in for a generous amount of praise.

The men who made the trip are much indebted to Mr. Sloan, general manager, and Mr. Otto, farm superintendent, for the courteous treatment given and the invitation to come again. Another trip will be arranged for later in the season for those who were unable to go this time.

The trip was planned and arranged for by the Emmet County Farm Bureau.

FAMILIES OF SOLDIERS AND SAILORS.

Are you worried because your allotments do not come, or your letters do not arrive, or for any reason connected with your boy's service to his country? Let the Red Cross, Civilian Relief Department help you. Call or phone the following committee:

J. J. Porter, phone 1.
Mrs. W. E. Palmiter, phone 185.
Roscoe Mackey, phone 89-F2.

The service is yours, free. Returned Soldiers and Sailors: Keep up your Government Insurance. We have some late dope on this. Ask us.

Boat Service Being Resumed

Steamer Mabel Again Connects East Jordan—Charlevoix.

William E. Knight and son, Ray, arrived here recently from wintering at Cleveland and have been busy putting the Steamer Mabel in condition for the season run between East Jordan and Charlevoix.

Ray Knight, Master of the boat, states that the Steamer Mabel will make odd runs between now and the first of May. Commencing on that date two round trips will be made between this city and Charlevoix, as in past years, the boat leaving East Jordan at 7:00 a. m. and 1:30 p. m. The only difference in the schedule being the afternoon leaving time which is one-half hour later than heretofore.

School Commissioner's Notes

May L. Stewart, Commissioner

Altho all districts have not yet arranged for next year, the following teachers expect to retain their schools for the coming year: Julia Jacobs, Melissa Mayhew, Ethel Brotherton, Mrs. Susie Flagg, Thelma Spees, Mona Bardwell, Golda Jensen, Clare Thorsen Edith Cary, and Vivia Keller.

Other contracts have been arranged as follows: Eva Latham at Pleasant Valley, Olive Underhill at Deer Lake. A summary shows that there are at present fifty-five vacancies and forty applications. This makes a present shortage of fifteen in the rural schools at the present time. If there is delay in hiring so that we lose present available teachers to other counties, the shortage may become much greater. The state normals are graduating this year just one thousand less graduates than in former years and the supply of beginners is therefore very limited.

Since other occupations have been paying more, in many cases only the undesirable will care to teach, and we find that only the paying propositions are accepted by the teacher who knows she can make good. Under the present circumstances the only thing we can do is to pay the price and to make that decision as quickly as possible. If we would save our schools and care wisely for the children of our land, we must economize in other things but we must maintain the standard of our schools.

Seventeen teachers visited during the past week. Work progressing nicely in all schools but one. In a few cases some very superior teaching was observed and splendid work is being prepared for the coming contests. The best number records were in Marion and Wilson—18 sec. and 12 sec. per drill respectively.

Burgess, Chaddock, Miles, Walloon, and others formerly noted report that the primary grades have read thru their readers, and have read several supplementary readers of the same grade during the year. So much better than the old plan of one book per year, or advancing the child too rapidly and keeping him in difficult reading.

Second teacher's meeting was held in each of the following townships during the past week: Melrose at Walloon, on Friday, Wilson at Afton on Monday, Hudson at Woodard School on Thursday. Details for the contests are being nicely worked out by the teachers in charge. So far as the Com'r is able to learn there is only one teacher in the County who is not working might and main for her school and for her township in the school contests of May and June.

Ironton High had a true election day in the school room with polling station, election board, true ballots, and all the regular arrangements. They had the state go dry of course and elected regular state officers. It will be nicely written up for the civics class exhibit.

Garden Club formed Friday with children of Loeb Estate. Organization formed also demonstration for County Normal Class.

Miss Metcalf is greatly pleased with the Story Hour Readers, and the Free and Treadwell, which she has been provided with for supplementary reading. She also has a nice supply of reading equipment in the base cards, letter cards, word and sentence cards, and you should hear those children read. It is delightful to catch the glint of pleasure in both workman and workers.

ALL REPUBLICANS URGED TO ENLIST IN VICTORY LOAN DRIVE
"Nation's Next Great Duty"
Says Chairman Hays.

Washington, D. C., Apr. 14.—Chairman Will H. Hays, of the Republican National Committee, today issued a call to all Republicans urging their united and effective support of the Victory Loan. While the call is publicly issued to all Republicans, it was also sent directly and personally to all Republican-national committeemen, state chairmen, all state organization workers, all county chairmen and all precinct committeemen and to all Republican newspapers, asking them to suspend all political activities until the success of the loan had been assured.

The test of the appeal reads: To the Republicans of the Nation: Again the call for the charge has sounded.

This is not for the fighting men at the fighting front. For them the war is over. Their part is accomplished to their own everlasting honor and the glory of the nation, and no additional burden should be theirs.

But to the rest the real test has come. To those whose privilege it has been to form the second line, and to whose credit it is recorded that they, too, attained every objective; to those from every class, creed and political faith, who acted in that unselfish cooperation which brought to the fighting men the support that made so much for the complete vindication of our institutions; to the men and women of America, who do not fail, has this call come.

Let us show to these fighting men who have returned how commands have been obeyed here. Let us send to the fighting men still abroad the message of no weakening. Let us show to the world that our patriotism is not that born only of extremities and stirred only by martial music, but the devotion which meets a duty in the firm determination of consecrated service, and performs it. And let us demonstrate to ourselves that we are worthy of the name American and the privileges of our citizenship.

Our first duty as Republicans today is that duty which we have never failed and never will fail to anticipate and discharge—our duty as Americans. Just as during the recent war we determined our every act by how we could do most for effective action, so now we will measure our every step by how we can contribute most to the Nation's welfare.

To that end we will abandon all other activities to aid in the Victory Loan until its success has been accomplished.

For this purpose let the Republican Press and every member of the Republican organization enlist in the Victory Loan drive. The national, state, county, city and precinct organization of loyal working Republicans will enroll to a man in this service.

This is the nation's next great duty. It is our privilege to exhaust the possibilities in our same splendid support, with the knowledge that those who may oppose us in political strife are joining fully with us in this effort.

WILL H. HAYS,
Chairman,
Republican National Committee.

FOR SALE.—My Residence and Lot on North Main Street. Dwelling in good condition and equipped with furnace.—GEORGE CHAPMAN, at Argo Mill.

A painful silence is unknown to men—but with women it's different.

Persons usually have more patience with the fault-finder than he deserves.

Every woman has a right to pose as a beauty at the expense of her drug-gist.

Men are usually well supplied with weak excuses for doing the wrong thing.

When a lawyer takes the case of a rascal he usually gets his fee in advance.

If a man is able to make a bluff at crying a woman will forgive him anything.

AS IT MIGHT HAVE BEEN

Senator Lodge, in his recent debate on the league of nations with President Lowell of Harvard, insisted that had the President taken the Senate into his confidence, laid the draft of the league constitution before it, and asked for advice, he would have had amendments laid before him that could have been submitted to the peace conference at Paris as an indication of what the Senate was prepared to approve. If Mr. Wilson had taken that course he would have followed the example of Andrew Jackson, Grant, George Washington, and Abraham Lincoln. "And in the path that George Washington and Abraham Lincoln have walked," said Mr. Lodge, "there is no man too great to tread."

In the opinion of the Senator the battle for a league of nations would have been more than half won had the President departed from his habit of relying solely on his own judgment, and said to the Senate, "I submit this draft to you for your advice, I hope for your approval, and for such suggestions as you may have to make." But instead of that he not only did not lay the league's constitution before the Senate, but he refuses to call the Senate together now to consider it.

The course pursued by the President from the first is one calculated to provoke hostility to his draft of the league. Opposition to the proposal could have been minimized had he consented to share with the Senate the responsibility of framing the document, as contemplated by the Constitution of the United States. That he has not done, but has placed before the country a readymade league constitution that he declares to be perfect and that he will not consent to amend. Naturally such a course is resented by Senators. The President's arrogant assumption that his individual wisdom is superior to that of ninety-six Senators has served to create a much more solid opposition to his wishes than would have been the case had he treated them with the consideration that their place in the treaty-making power of the government demanded.

PIANO OR LIBERTY BONDS

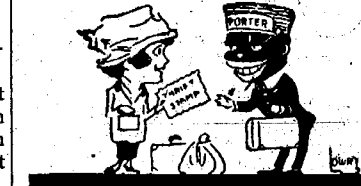

Successful Business Woman Says She Cannot Buy Luxuries Until Victory Liberty Loan Is Triumphantly "Put Over."

"No, I haven't bought my piano yet. I was just about to buy one when the first Liberty loan was announced, and I couldn't make it seem patriotic to spend for purely personal purposes the money that might also help the government. I felt just the same way about the second Liberty loan and the third and fourth, and of course I shan't think of buying a piano now until the Victory loan has been triumphantly 'put over.' I couldn't make it seem right."

The speaker last year "wrote" over $100,000 worth of life insurance business. This year she expects to attain a $200,000 total, having already $148,000 to her credit since last July, when the current "insurance-club year" started. Oh, yes, she's a real woman! Her name is Maud M. Freeman and she's known to thousands of Chicago business men and women.

She could have bought a piano several times over and still have done her duty by herself and her country in the way of buying Liberty bonds. But—her full duty, as this patriotic and successful citizen sees it, means helping on the work of the United States government in every possible way.

She does her duty in the way of War Savings stamps also, to say nothing of Thrift stamps. The latter she uses as tips when traveling, etc. Last Christmas she used them, almost exclusively, for presents for children, young people, intimates. Next Christmas she plans to do the same, while all through the year Thrift stamps will serve her, whenever possible, as "small change" or currency.

"No investment possibly could be so safe or so desirable as United States government securities," says the woman, whose generous income tax was paid cheerfully and without a murmur, because "I'm so glad to have been able to earn so good an income."

—HELP "FINISH THE JOB."

The money to be raised by the Victory Liberty loan already has been spent. It furnished the "punch" that won the war and saved the lives of 100,000 of America's bravest boys. It is this unshed blood you are paying for when you subscribe to the Victory Liberty loan.

The war is not over, and our duty to support our forces is not over until they are back home again. The Victory Liberty loan is to bring them back—to finish the job.

GLAD TO PAY
COST OF PEACE.

Millions of Lives Saved by Vast Military Preparation of Our Government.

FOE KNEW AND QUIT COLD

These Life-Saving Bills Must Be Paid and the Boys Brought Back to the Country They Love.

"The price of peace," of which the Victory loan is but a part, is large, but not nearly so large as it would have been had the war been fought to the annihilation of the German armies as our military leaders believed would be necessary. Had the war lasted as long as these leaders anticipated, hundreds of thousands of American youths and millions more of their allies would have been called upon to pay the supreme sacrifice.

That they were not forced to give their lives is in no small measure due to our government's preparations to crush the enemy completely. The industry as well as the man power of the nation was called into the government service, and a great war machine was created which the German general staff saw meant complete annihilation for their forces if they fought on, so they quit.

There were in France when the armistice was signed, 2,002,175 officers and men wearing the United States uniform. In the states there were more than 1,500,000 more in training or awaiting shipment overseas. This army had 1,500,000 rifles and 429,000,000 rounds of ammunition in France when the armistice was signed. There were 221,000,000 additional rounds on boats en route to France at this time. These figures do not deal in anything but infantry equipment.

Smokeless powder was being delivered at the rate of 4,800,000 pounds a week and high explosives at the rate of 6,900,000 pounds. We had on hand when the war closed, 419 tons of mustard gas, enough to load 419,000 shells; 654 tons of phosgene, 511 tons of chloroplatin, 680 tons of white phosphorus for incendiary bombs, 303 tons of tannic tetrachloride, and 153 tons of titanium tetrachloride. We had enough gas to smother the German army. On the defensive side the government had developed the best gas mask known, and had produced 5,087,600 of them.

We had built 2,010 ten-ton caterpillar tractors and 1,586 15-ton machines for hauling great guns. There were 15,000 more of these under construction when the war ended. They had demonstrated their ability to drag the heaviest mortars, howitzers and rifles over any terrain, no matter how badly cut up or how wet.

Ten thousand Ford "baby" tanks equipped with two Ford engines, would have been on the front line by the time the Victory Liberty loan is to be floated. They would have been supported by thousands of the French "whippet" type tanks and the big 35-ton American tanks driven by Liberty motors.

We had in France and in use at the army at home, 57,607 trucks of two, three and five tons capacity, 11,476 ambulances, 18,375 motorcars and 29,421 motorcycles.

Our merchant marine was growing at the rate of 400,000 tons dead weight per month when the war ended, and we were turning out about 10,000 airplane engines a week, with pinnes to carry them.

German spies found this out. German spies knew that the U-boat had failed because of the barrage of mines that the British and American navies had strung across the North sea. German spies sent word to the general staff that in spite of their best efforts to check the Americans at the home base, they were outgeneraled. So the German staff learned that the Americans had thrown their unlimited resources into the scales with the allies, and the German staff turned "yellow" and quit.

That mighty preparation of which the above is but a fragmentary tale, is the reason why the Victory Liberty loan is the last of the war loans. Had the war gone on there would have been a fifth, a sixth, a seventh, an eighth loan—loans until the German hordes had been crushed and sent back into the heart of the fatherland. The need for these was eliminated by the mailed fist of our great preparation, which supplemented the gigantic efforts put forth by our allies.

"Let us, then," as the secretary of the treasury has said, "with thanksgiving to God that we were spared any greater price, meet the honorable commitments of our government contracted in behalf of the freedom of the world."

—HELP "FINISH THE JOB."
For permanent peace and prosperity support the Victory Liberty loan.

Letters From Our Soldiers

From SERGT. F. E. WIGGINS

(To His Mother, Mrs. Sadie Wilson.)
Trier, Germany.
Mar. 30, 1919.

Dear Mother and All:
Received your most welcome and loving letter four days ago and was glad to hear that you are all well, as this letter leaves me in the best of health and hope it finds you all the same.

We had quite a snow-fall today, but there is not much to show for it now as it is 7:00 p. m. I suppose you are just having your dinner now, so you see we are some ahead of your time, and it will soon be time for us to turn in. I have been around the billet all day and did not visit the city this evening so that is the reason I happen to be writing you a letter as there is nothing else to do. The Company got mail tonight but I did not get any for the first time in quite awhile. I got a letter from aunt Lizzie in Toledo and one from aunt Effie in Flint, the first of the week, and I have got to answer them tonight or tomorrow night. How is Lyle getting along in Flint, or don't he write very often. I have wrote him two letters in the past month and have not heard from him, so tell him to get busy and write as I would like to hear from him. I suppose Dee is still staying at home. Is Ethel still going to school? I see by the paper that some of the troops of the 85th are on their way home, but we are still in Germany and I guess we will be for some time yet by the way it looks, oh well, I guess we will start for the U. S. some time this summer anyway. Well, mother, there isn't much news to write about here. Have you received the box I sent yet or some of the cards, I have been sending every little while? I guess I will close for tonight so will ring off. With love and best wishes to all. Good night.
Floyd.

HUSBAND SAVES WIFE

From Suffering by Getting Her Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Pittsburgh, Pa.—"For many months I was not able to do my work owing to a weakness which caused backache and headaches. A friend called my attention to one of your newspaper advertisements and immediately my husband bought three bottles of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound for me. After taking two bottles I felt fine and my troubles caused by that weakness are a thing of the past. All women who suffer as I did should try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound."—Mrs. JAS. ROHRBERG, 620 Knapp St., N. S., Pittsburgh, Pa.

Women who suffer from any form of weakness, as indicated by displacements, inflammation, ulceration, irregularities, backache, headaches, nervousness or "the blues," should accept Mrs. Rohrborg's suggestion and give Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound a thorough trial.

For over forty years it has been correcting such ailments. If you have mysterious complications write for advice to Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co., Lynn, Mass.

An Inside Bath Makes You Look and Feel Fresh

Physicians the world over recommend the inside bath, claiming this is of vastly more importance than outside cleanliness, because the skin pores do not absorb impurities into the blood, causing ill health, while the pores in the ten yards of bowels do. Men and women are urged to drink each morning, before breakfast a glass of hot water with a teaspoonful of limestone phosphate in it, as a harmless means of helping to wash from the stomach, liver, kidneys and bowels the previous day's indigestible material, poisons, sour bile and toxins; thus cleansing, sweetening and purifying the entire alimentary canal before putting more food into the stomach.

Just as soap and hot water cleanse and freshen the skin, so hot water and limestone phosphate act on the eliminative organs.

Those who wake up with bad breath, coated tongue, nasty taste or have a dull, aching head, sallow complexion, acid stomach; others who are subject to bilious attacks or constipation, should obtain a quarter pound of limestone phosphate at the drug store. This will cost very little but is sufficient to demonstrate the value of inside bathing. Those who continue it each morning are assured of pronounced results, both in regard to health and appearance.

ANTIQUITY OF DECORATIVE ART

PRESERVATION OF SURFACES.

Crude but Effective Processes Employed by the Egyptians and Greeks of Piny's Day—Noah Prudently Waterproofed the Ark.

Whether paint was invented in answer to a need for a preservative or to meet a desire for beauty is a question fully as knotty as the ancient one about the relative time of arrival of the chicken or the egg. It was invented, though, and it serves both purposes equally; so whether it is an offspring of mother necessity or an adopted son of beauty remains forever a disputed question.

The first men, cowering under the fierce and glaring suns of the biblical countries, constructed rude huts of wood to shelter them. The perishable nature of these structures caused rapid decay, and it is probable that the occupants, seeking some artificial means of preservation, hit upon the pigments of the earth in their search. It is perhaps natural to suppose that it was the instinct of preservation that led men to the search, although the glories of the sunsets and the beauties of the rainbow may have created a desire to imitate these wonders in their own dwellings.

The earliest record of the application of a preservative to a wooden structure dates from the ark, which was, according to the Bible, "pitched within and without." The pitch was a triumph of preservation whatever it lacked as a thing of beauty.

Decoration applied to buildings first comes to light with ancient Babylon, whose walls were covered with representations of hunting scenes and of combat. These were done in red and the method followed was to paint the scene on the bricks at the time of manufacture, assuring permanence by baking. Strictly speaking, this was not painting so much as it was the earliest manifestation of our own familiar kalsomining.

The first Hebrew to mention painting is Moses. In the thirty-third chapter of the book of Numbers he instructs the Israelites: "When ye have passed over the Jordan into the land of Canaan, then shall ye drive out all the inhabitants of the land from before you and destroy all their pictures."

At later periods the Jews adopted many customs of the peoples who successively obtained power over them and in the apocryphal book of the Maccabees is found this allusion to the art of decorating: "For as the master builder of a new house must care for the whole building, but he that undertaketh to set it out and paint it, must seek out things for the adorning thereof."

Although Homer gives credit to a Greek for the discovery of paint, the allusions to it in the books of Moses, the painted mummy cases of the Egyptians and the decorated walls of Babylon and Thebes fix its origin at a period long antecedent to the Grecian era. The walls of Thebes were painted 1,900 years before the coming of Christ and 996 years before "Omer smote his bloomin' lyre."

The Greeks recognized the value of paint as a preservative and made use of something akin to it on their ships. Piny writes of the mode of boiling wax and painting ships with it, after which, he continues, "neither the sea, nor the wind, nor the sun can destroy the wood thus protected."

The Romans, being essentially a warlike people, never brought the decoration of buildings to the high plane it had reached with the Greeks. For all that the ruins of Pompeii show many structures whose mural decorations are in fair shape today. The colors used were glaring. A black background was the usual one and the combinations worked thereon red, yellow and blue.

In the early Christian era the use of mosaics for churches somewhat supplanted mural painting. Still, during the reign of Justinian the Church of Saint Sophia was built at Constantinople and its walls were adorned with paintings.

In modern times the uses of paint have come to be as numerous as its myriad shades and tints. Paint is unique in that its name has no synonym and for it there is no substitute material. Bread is the staff of life, but paint is the life of the staff.

No one thinks of the exterior of a wooden building now except in terms of paint coated. Interiors, too, from painted walls and stained furniture down to the lowliest kitchen utensil, all receive their protective covering. Steel, so often associated with cement reinforcing, is painted before it goes to give solidity to the manufactured stone. The huge girders of the skyscrapers are daubed an ugly but efficient red underneath the surface coat of black. Perhaps the best example of the value of paint on steel is found in the venerable Brooklyn bridge, on which a gang of painters is kept going continually. It is scarce possible to think of a single manufactured article which does not meet paint somewhere in the course of its construction. So has paint grown into the very marrow of our lives.

WEST SIDE SCHOOL NOTES

This week the kindergarten had an Easter party. They made nests out of tissue paper and filled them with candy eggs. For handwork they had drawing, coloring and mounting of tulips.

The first and second graders went in the third and fourth graders room Friday afternoon for their Easter program.

The Audobon bird pins of the third and fourth grade have arrived. They intend to have one meeting a month, learning about the birds. No one can join it unless he promises to protect the birds, build bird houses, and such kind of work.

The third and fourth grades have been making Easter baskets and we are going to make Easter baskets for the one whose name we draw. We have rabbits, chickens and roosters of all kinds.

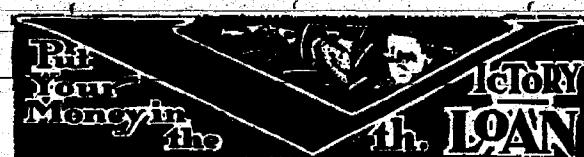

The fifth graders are making maps of South America and pasting on the products. The fifth and sixth grades are going to have a field trip Friday afternoon. The fifth graders are making Easter crosses and the sixth graders are making posters for victory gardens.

Glady, the twenty-foot python in Lincoln park, Chicago, received her semi-annual meal recently. Twelve keepers, with the aid of a sausage-stuffing machine and a five-foot pole, treated her to thirty pounds of ground beef, followed by a twelve-pound piece of beef.

Instead of the old-fashioned "pound" party, the Rev. and Mrs. C. L. Eaton were entertained at a "pint" party at their home in St. Johnsberry, Yt., recently. There were pints of canned fruits and vegetables, one pint of coal, several pints of sugar and two pints of cents given them.

ALL SET FOR BIG LOAN DRIVE

Five States in Seventh District Ready to Put Victory Liberty Loan Over.

WORKERS ON THEIR TOES

Confident Americans Will Carry Through the Campaign for Funds in a Way of Which the Nation Will Be Proud.

The preliminary publicity campaign for the Victory Liberty loan has resulted in great activity throughout the five states in the seventh federal reserve district, and in every county of these states the war loan organization workers have been busy day and night with the preparation to make a success of the coming loan. With the formal opening of the loan drive only a short time ahead, efforts are being redoubled, and the apathy of a few weeks ago has been dispelled by the aggressive campaigning methods adopted.

In each division of the district the state speakers' bureaus have arranged state-wide tours for speakers of state and national reputation. Large and enthusiastic meetings have been held daily and nightly for some time past and every day before the launching of the drive on April 21 will be filled with activity and aggressive work. The heads of the state departments have made out schedules for leading speakers, and from the meetings already held there appears to be no lack of enthusiasm, contrary to the expectations of some of the state leaders.

In addition to the whirlwind oratorical campaign schedule in all of the states, tours of the war exhibition trains, tanks and band and drill squads are now being made. The war exhibition trains will travel through every county in each state in the interest of the war loan organization, and the people will have an opportunity of viewing several carloads of war material, including tanks, cannon, airplanes, all kinds of ammunition, and many trophies captured from the Germans by the American expeditionary forces. These trains will be accompanied by a detail of returned soldiers. At most of the places at which these trains will stop special Victory Liberty loan meetings have been arranged by the local committees, and in most instances speakers of wide repute will make addresses.

A feature of the work through the district has been special county meetings of the war loan organization workers. In some instances the workers of several counties have held joint meetings. At all of them the ways and means of making the campaign a rousing success have been discussed, and wherever possible, the state director of sales, or some other representative of the state or district organization, has been present to give the local workers the benefit of his wider experience.

Illinois reports indicate the workers are on their toes in readiness for the real campaign to start, as they are confident they will repeat their achievements of the previous popular loan campaigns. The state WLF is covered by the war exhibition trains, by leading speakers and a military or naval band.

A lively and enthusiastic campaign has been under way in Michigan for some time. State officials have been on the job under the leadership of State Director of Sales Frederick R. Fenton. Every county has been thoroughly organized, and reports are optimistic. County meetings have been largely attended, and at the public meetings held so far there has been no lack of enthusiasm. Every county in the state will be visited by the new United States army tanks. Great interest is being displayed in these instruments of modern warfare.

In conjunction with the speaking campaign, Iowa towns and cities will be visited by a war exhibition train similar to those touring other states, and there will be a separate tour of a band and drill squad from the Great Lakes Naval Training station. As in other states, the county meetings have been well attended by the local workers, and public meetings have shown no lessening of enthusiasm as compared to previous loans. Notable speakers are touring the state.

In Indiana the new United States battle tanks are touring the state, going overland from town to town. They have created a veritable sensation along the country highways. The state will also have a war exhibit train, as well as nationally known speakers. A number of enthusiastic meetings have been held to date. Wisconsin leaders report everything in shape for a rousing subscription drive. War exhibit trains, with tanks and bands, are enlivening the campaign and are stirring up much enthusiasm. The state and county organizations are complete, and everything is in readiness for the drive.

—HELP "FINISH THE JOB."

The American fighters now in Europe saved the life of our nation, and the nation—the people of the United States—would be basely ungrateful if it abated one iota in support of them now that the danger is over. Our sacred duty to them will not have been performed until every one of the boys now "over there" has been brought home.

THE RIGHT OF WAY

EVERY CITIZEN AN AMERICAN GREAT GUNS!—WHAT MAIL

Women's Foreign Language Division of Victory Liberty Loan Committee Has Active Organization.

"Every citizen an American. Every American a government stockholder. Bolshevik doctrines will not flourish in the minds and hearts of those who have a proprietary interest in their government."

That is the threefold object of the newly organized women's foreign-language division of the Victory Liberty loan, according to Mrs. Edward Bemis, director for the Seventh federal reserve district.

In reply to a question, Mrs. Bemis said: "Our foreign-born women have often had reason in the past to think we cared little for them, but now since their sons and brothers and husbands have fought side by side with ours the differences have fallen away. We are all women of one country, working to one end—a united America."

Mrs. Bemis believes there need be no lack of co-operation between the native and foreign-born inhabitants of America. She is inclined to place a large part of the responsibility for a lack of united interest at the door of the countless native Americans who stand in need of re-Americanizing. War work has shown that much of the renewed patriotism on the part of descendants of the older generations of Americans may well be learned from our patriotic foreign born.

The Council of Foreign-Language Women has been presenting "Gifts of the Nations" to the people of Chicago since the Third Liberty loan campaign. After a program attended by fifteen nationalities, the majority being Americans, one foreign-born woman said: "This is the first time since I came to America that I have been asked to do anything with the American people." Said another woman: "I always could speak enough English to get things at the store, but never before did American ladies want to talk with me. Now I shall get books and learn to speak English like the rest of them."

"Many do not realize that the heritages of many of our foreign nationalities may well be emulated by our far newer civilization," said Mrs. Bemis. "There is an innate courtesy in some of these older countries, and they have a patriotism engendered by years of seeking the liberty found in America."

"We want to know our foreign-language neighbors for what they can teach us as much as for the service that we ourselves can render them."

"Every member of each community has an interest in supporting our government's financial program. We must bring the boys home; we must establish business for our returned soldiers and we must help this country and Europe to stand free and for peace. We women are as interested in this as men can possibly be."

The five states of the Seventh district, Michigan, Illinois, Indiana, Wisconsin and Iowa, will have a foreign-language chairman for women. Each county where there are resident foreign groups will have as county chairman a woman who understands the local needs of the various communities. Group meetings are planned for each nationality wherever it exists in considerable numbers.

"Out of this work will come—if our hearts are in it—that united interest in the service of our country which we call Americanization."

Give to Enjoy Blessings of Peace. We are enjoying the blessings of victory and peace. Think of what had we been defeated, we would be willing now to give for victory, and make your subscription to the Victory Liberty Loan accordingly.

We may speak of the Victory Liberty loan as a Peace loan, a Victory loan, or a Thanksgiving loan, but in a sense it is a Memorial loan to our brave boys who died on the field of battle.

The Germans, not the Yanks, were the quitters. Help finish the job with the Victory Liberty loan.

Uncle Sam Will Carry a Whopping Load of Reading Matter About Victory Liberty Loan to His Prospects.

That is the staggering weight of the matter which Uncle Sam will distribute throughout the Seventh federal reserve district in giving "scientific billing" to the Victory Liberty loan.

To insure maximum efficiency in the distribution of this enormous amount of propaganda material the distribution bureau of the department of publicity for the Seventh federal reserve district has evolved the following scheme, based on the most reliable figures obtainable. The estimated population of the district is 14,246,503 divided as follows:

Divisions	Population	Per Cent of Total
Cook county (Illinois)	2,858,431	21.18
Illinois (outside Cook county)	2,188,344	14.75
Indiana	2,239,492	15.23
Iowa	2,219,099	15.09
Michigan	2,744,490	20.03
Wisconsin	2,016,647	13.72
Total	14,246,503	100.00

The above districts are divided into counties, the county being the unit of distribution. There are 339 counties. Each has a chairman. He receives all the propaganda allotted to his district based on the proportionate population, and his own working organization see to it that all "live space" is properly billed. Here are a few facts regarding the whirlwind machinery of distribution:

Twenty thousand square feet of space are necessary for addressing and mailing room.

Three hundred men work day and night.

One million posters will be mailed in four-pound packages.

Eight million Victory Liberty loan buttons will be handled.

Two million circular letters to bondholders of previous Liberty loan issues will be mailed.

Five million letterheads and envelopes to bond salesmen will be distributed.

Tens of thousands of automobile owners will receive windshield stickers advertising the loan.

It has been officially announced that the drive for the sale of Victory Liberty loan bonds will start on April 21. If careful plans of the distribution bureau carry through every American on the morning of April 14, at least a week before the drive, will be greeted with the nation-wide injunction, "Finish the Job."

Get Behind the Victory Liberty Loan.

"Peace must be financed as well as war, and the initial stages of peace may be found even more expensive than war. Therefore, get behind the Victory Liberty Loan when it comes."—Secretary Glass.

Don't Be a Quitter.

In the last few hours of the war our soldiers fought the hardest. We cannot quit—these boys now. Back them up by supporting the Victory Liberty Loan.

MORTGAGE SALE.

Default having been made in the terms and conditions of a certain mortgage bearing date the 31st day of October, 1908, executed by Lemuel Henderson, Jacob Henderson, Cora Henderson and Priscilla Henderson of Wilson Township, County of Charlevoix, Michigan, to George S. Bridge of Chicago, which said mortgage was recorded in the office of the Register of Deeds for the County of Charlevoix, Michigan, in Liber 45 of Mortgages, on page 56, on the 2nd day of November A. D. 1908 and was also assigned by said George S. Bridge, the 5th day of February, 1917, and recorded March 1, 1917, in Liber 53 of Mortgages on page 402, in the Peoples State Savings Bank of East Jordan, Michigan, and is now owned by it. On which mortgage there is due at the date hereof, for principal and interest, the sum of Four Hundred Seventy-four and 25-100 ($474.25) Dollars and an attorney fee of Fifteen and no-100 ($15.00) Dollars as provided by law and no suit or proceedings at law or in equity having been had to recover said sum or any part thereof.

Now therefore notice is hereby given that by virtue of the power of sale in said mortgage contained and in pursuance of the statute in such case made and provided, the said mortgage will be foreclosed by a sale of the premises therein described at public auction or vendue to the highest bidder, at the outer easterly front door of the Court House at the City of Charlevoix, of Charlevoix County and State of Michigan, said Court House being the place of holding the circuit court for said county, on the 7th day of July A. D. 1919, at ten o'clock in the forenoon, the description of said premises contained in said mortgage is as follows:

All that certain piece or parcel of land situated in the Township of Wilson, in the County of Charlevoix and State of Michigan, and described as follows to-wit: The Southwest quarter (SW¼) of the Northeast quarter (NE¼) of Section twenty-six (26) in Township thirty-two (32) north, of range six (6) west. Excepting a parcel thereof described as follows: Commencing at a point in the Boyne Falls State Road on the north line of said Section twenty-six (26) Thence West on said line to the line running north and south through said section; Thence South on said line to the Boyne Falls and East Jordan State road; Thence North and East along the line of said State Road to place of beginning. Also that part of the Northwest quarter (NW¼) of the Southeast quarter (SE¼) of Section twenty-six (26) Township thirty-two (32) north, of range six (6) west, lying North of Deer Creek containing Twelve (12) acres more or less.
