Getting Ready For the Fair

Will Be the Greatest Fair Event Ever Staged in Northern Michigan.

At the Charlevoix County Fair grounds in East Jordan, gangs of workmen are busily engaged getting the grounds in a first class condition for the 1919 Fair which will be held Sept. 16th to 19th. The addition to the new educational building in progress rapidly and is nearing completion. The 30x60 room in this addition is practically finished and the standard school is being plastered. This Standard School will be a model for country schools and will be complete in every department. The new ticket office and entrance to the Fair grounds are being built as is also the new judges stand. A wide cinder walk is being placed the entire length of the midway. This will do away with the sand of former years and is an improvement which will be greatly appreciated by the patrons of the Fair. The exhibition building which the Loeb farm is to build for their exhibit is not as yet started but Mr. Sloan, manager for the Loeb farm, expects to put a large force of men at work on this building and to erect it in a very short time. This building will be an addition to the County Fair which no other Fair in the state will have, and in this building patrons of the Fair will be able to see blooded horses, cattle and swine, which are without doubt the very best in the State.

Applications for concessions spaces are coming in rapidly. The Collins Amusement Company have contracted with H. P. French, manager of the Muskegon Park for his Jumping Horse Carrousel and ten concessions. They will also have a Merry-Go-Round and perhaps a Ferris Wheel. The midway this year will commence with a tent show, requiring a 100 foot frontage opposite the dining hall on the space used in 1918 by the Red Cross bower dance and will extend about 200 foot south of the grand stand.

Plans are practically completed for a huge Victory Pageant to be put on by the school children of Boyne City, Charlevoix and East Jordan. If this pageant is carried out as now planned the Boyne City schools will have charge of the Wednesday evening section, Charlevoix schools of the Thursday evening section and East Jordan schools the Friday evening section. The pageant will depict the development of America from its discovery by Columbus to the present day. A more definite announcement will be made later.

Ewing's Zouave Band will furnish music for the Fair, giving concerts each day and night. This is a chautauque band of unusual merit. It has with it Miss Alma Huntley, lyric soprano, of recognized ability. From press reports there is no doubt but that this band will furnish music such as has never been heard at the Charlevoix County Fair and it will repay any lover of good band music to hear this organization at the Fair.

Carlisle's Frontier Wild West Shows with ten different acts will take care of the free amusement features of the Fair as they have never been taken care of before.

Reports from all sections of the county indicate that the exhibits will be larger, of a greater variety and of more merit than ever before. This is especially true of the cattle department, as a great many owners of registered cattle have for some time been getting their animals in condition to exhibit them at the Fair. Only progressive farmers own registered cattle and they are proud of their stock and wish their neighbors and visitors of Charlevoix County to have an opportunity of seeing the class of stock which is being raised here. This is also true of the owners of registered swine and sheep and a great exhibit of live stock is assured for this year's Fair.

Every effort is being made to hold a Fair which will be replete in every department and which will be entertaining and instructing to all who attend. The race track has been worked since last May and is in a No. 1 condition. Horsemen are sending in their entries and good races are assured. All residents of Charlevoix County should plan to attend the County Fair at least one day and evening.

Fishing is great sport, but probably not for the fish.

Those most entitled to sympathy are usually those that do not ask it.

Tag Day This Saturday

Funds To Be Raised for Michigan Hospital School.

Mrs. Eva Buckley, District Worker for the Michigan Hospital School of Detroit is in our city in the interests of that organization, and, with the assistance of our citizens, will put on a Heart Tag Day Sale this Saturday, Sept. 6th.

The Michigan Hospital School is a constructive organization to benefit crippled and physically defective children of our state. Children from East Jordan and vicinity have been treated at this institution with remarkably good results.

Our local Committee for the day will be Mrs. H. W. Dicken, Mrs. G. W. Bechtold, Mrs. M. R. Keyworth, Mrs. R. A. Risk, and Miss Pearl Booth. Hearts will be sold by our young people and prizes given those making winning sales. The Peoples State Savings Bank will handle the funds collected.

The Michigan Hospital School is non-sectarian and supported largely by free-will gifts. Your gift will be most heartily appreciated, and such funds as may be placed at their disposal will be expended in such a manner as will do the most good for the greatest number of these physically defective children.

PUTS "PEP" INTO NEW POLICEMAN

Wife Wades Into Battle to Help Husband.

St. Louis Woman Urges Spouse, Who Had Just Been Sworn in as Policeman, to Get Into Action to Stop Fight—Then Takes Hand Herself—Lieutenant Regrets He Hasn't Star for Her.

When Edward Schramm stood up with the other August police recruits in St. Louis and swore to enforce the law he was in earnest. So was Mrs. Edward Schramm, who waited at home for her rookie policeman.

"You've been a good soldier," she said, "and now you're going to be a good policeman."

Wherefore—
Mr. and Mrs. Schramm on their way home, after a day off, heard angry voices issuing from a house.

"I wonder," said Policeman Schramm "if I ought—"

"Don't stand here and wonder," Mrs. Schramm replied, "you know what you swore to do."

"But I haven't my uniform."

"You have your star and your gun. Go ahead."

Wife Goes Right Along.

Schramm went. Right behind him went Mrs. Schramm.

"What's the row?" Schramm shouted at the five men who were battling all over the home.

"None of your business," said a puffing combatant. "This is a private fight."

"Cut it out," Schramm ordered, "you're making too much noise."

"Dry up," said the fighters.

Schramm fired a shot into the floor. In an instant the five were on his neck and his revolver was on the floor.

Mrs. Schramm picked up the gun and pushed into the melee. One of the fighters knocked it out of her hand and howled her over. Then all started to work on the policeman.

The Missus Calls the Police.

Mrs. Schramm scrambled to her feet, rushed out of the house and called the police. Five minutes later a lieutenant and a squad arrested three of the five battlers. The two others escaped.

After the arrest Mrs. Schramm helped her husband home.

"I'm for you," she said, patting his shoulder. "That's the proper spirit."

"We're for him, too," said the lieutenant. "Schramm's the sort of a man we need. I wish I had a star for his wife, too."

Cow Wears Stockings to Keep Off Flies.

Joe Herman of Alton, Ill., has put stockings on his cow. Herman's cow, bothered by flies, had kicked over so many buckets of milk at 14 cents a quart that the owner grew desperate. So he cut off the feet of stockings and used rubber bands for garters.

KEEP CLOSER TAB ON LIVE STOCK

Government to Change System of Estimates.

WILL BE MORE THOROUGH

Instead of One Estimate a Year for the 48 States There Will Be 12 Covering the 3,000 Agricultural Counties in the United States—Statistics Will Show Age and Sex Classifications as Well as Quality.

(Prepared by the United States Department of Agriculture.)

Up to this time the United States department of agriculture has issued a single estimate, in January of each year, showing how many head of the various kinds of live stock there are in the United States, and one estimate a year showing losses by disease. Now the whole system is to be changed. As soon as the machinery can be got in operation by the bureau of crop estimates, there will be 12 live-stock estimates a year instead of one. Instead of being made for the 48 states they will be made for the 3,000 agricultural counties in the United States. Instead of showing merely that there are so many horses, so many cattle, so many sheep, and so on, they will be made by age and sex classifications. That is, they will show what proportion is breeding stock, what proportion growing stock, and what proportion "marketable stuff." They will show quality as well as numbers—the proportions of purebred animals, of grade animals, and of scrubs.

A great deal more than that, even, is to be done under the new system. These surveys will show, besides actual live-stock figures, a great many things pertaining to and affecting the live-stock industry. They will show how many silos there are and what they contain, how much feed is on hand and in prospect available for feeding to live stock, and the condition of pastures and ranges throughout the United States. This showing will be made every month in the year.

Pasture Knowledge Vital.

The last-mentioned item, that of the condition of pastures and ranges, is of much greater importance than might appear at first blush. Leaving all of the others out of account for the moment, it should result in considerable increase of live-stock production as well as increased profits to a great many live-stock men. It will make possible quick shifts of live stock from sections where, for some reason, the pastures are short to other sections where for the time being the supply of pasturage is much greater than required by the live stock on hand.

Almost every year somewhere in the United States great numbers of cattle and sheep suffer for lack of pasture, fall to put on weight, and, if they do not die, are finally sold at a considerable loss to their owners. At the same time that this is going on, multiplied millions of dollars' worth of grass goes to waste in various other sections of the United States, because the supply of live stock on hand is not sufficient to eat it.

The average farmer who makes live stock a side line, or even one of his main lines, plays safe in the matter of pasture. The number of head of live stock he carries is the number he knows he can carry safely if conditions should happen to be such as to cut his pastures short. Very rarely does he carry the maximum number that would be possible with his pastures at their best or even at normal. It happens, therefore, when his pastures are exceptionally good and even when they are normally good, he has considerably more grass than is needed by his live stock.

With reliable monthly reports from the government each month, showing just the condition of pastures everywhere, the feeder or range owner who finds himself short of grass should have little difficulty in distributing his cattle where there is abundance of grass, keeping his young and poor stuff from going to the slaughter pen before they are ready and generally making his business more profitable and more satisfactory.

More Important Work Planned.

All of the other items in the new program of the bureau of crop estimates are equally important, and some of them are vastly more so. The publication monthly of reliable figures showing the live-stock situation the country over should result practically in putting the live-stock business of the farmer on a more secure basis. The live-stock dealer always has the means of getting, on his own responsibility, a pretty accurate survey of the situation, but the farmer has no access to those sources of information. When the government gives him the figures that are promised he will be on an equal footing with the buyer.

If there were ever any doubt as to the ability of the department of agriculture to obtain quickly and accurately country-wide information on present and prospective food supplies the doubt has been dispelled. The war emergency demonstrated the matter very clearly. During the two years 1917 and 1918, the department estimated in advance of the planting season the acreage that farmers intended to plant to food crops. In both years these preplanting estimates came within 3 per cent of the final figures. It is possible to check up accurately on wheat, the department's estimates came within 2 per cent of the wheat production, as shown by the quantity used for seed and total receipts at mills and elevators as reported by the grain corporation of the food administration.

Such figures, authoritative and unbiased, are a prerequisite to the most intelligent program either of production or of marketing. They prevent the issuance of biased and misleading reports by speculators. They tend to stabilize prices by giving advance information of overproduction or underproduction. The certainty of supply resulting from dependable government reports reduces the carrying risk of buyers and dealers, and enables them to pay better prices than would be possible otherwise. The government reports enable transportation companies to estimate tonnage and to provide cars when and where they are needed. They give bankers the information necessary in providing funds for financing farmers in the production of their crops and, after harvest, for buyers and distributors of crops. They enable manufacturers to know, months in advance, what materials should be contracted for in order that farm machinery, equipment, and supplies may be made available without annoying and expensive delays.

There is just one class of men injured by the government crop reports. They are the professional speculators who profit by the ignorance and uncertainty of others.

Those facts have long been realized as to the government reports on field crops. Now they are to become equally true as to live stock.

To Show "Commercial Production."

A number of other things are to be done under the new program. One will be to show, not merely total production, but commercial production as well. That is, the crop report will show not only how much of a given commodity is produced on the farms but how much leaves the farms and goes on the market. The price of anything is not determined by the quantity of that thing produced on the farm, consumed on the farm, or wasted on the farm, so much as by the marketable surplus—the portion that actually leaves the farm and becomes a factor in supply and demand in the open market.

Another important thing that will be a little longer in coming is the actual taking of a farm census every year instead of using as a basis of all figures the last preceding 10-year census. This is to be accomplished by using tax assessors as gatherers of basic farm figures. About 30 states have already passed laws requiring assessors to do this work, the returns to be made to the state commissioner of agriculture and to be checked up by the state field agent of the bureau of crop estimates. In states where such laws have been passed, they are, for the most part, new and are not yet fully in effective operation. The department of agriculture expects, however, that similar laws will be passed in all other states and the plan put in complete effective operation throughout the United States within the next five years.

A great deal of work is being done, also looking to closer co-operation between the federal department of agriculture and the state departments. Such co-operation results in combining the facilities of the two organizations and using them for the issuance of a single monthly crop report for the state instead of two. Co-operative agreements have been entered into in Wisconsin, Ohio, Illinois, Iowa, Nebraska, Missouri, Georgia, Alabama, North Carolina, West Virginia, Arkansas, Utah and Idaho, and are under consideration in many other states.

Pulmotor Saved Pigs.

Penn Yan, N. Y.—When Jacob brook overflowed, two pigs owned by Dr. H. J. McNaughton were swept away and to all appearances drowned. The physician recalled that when he was president of the village he had purchased a pulmotor to be used by the fire fighters, so he sent in a hurry call for the life-saving apparatus. Thinking human lives were at stake the village smoke enters made a record run to the doctor's home. Twenty minutes after the pulmotor was put in action the patients were able to sit up and take nourishment.

DESPONDENT PONY SEEKS DEATH IN LAKE

"Babe" Hart Despairs of Future Happiness, but Will Start Life Anew.

"One more unfortunate, Weary of breath, Rashly importunate, Gone—"

Well, not quite gone. The coast guard interfered. Otherwise, Babe Hart, would have drowned himself and escaped the troubles of this wicked world.

Troubles? Say, count 'em: Sugar lumps off the market. Carrots out of sight. George and Freddy getting heavier every day.

Oats—

But why go further? The troubles already enumerated would cast down younger and more optimistic ponies than Babe Hart, pet and slave of fifteen-year-old George Hart and his twelve-year-old brother Freddy of Milwaukee. Upon Babe, who is getting along in years, they had a dismal influence. Babe resolved to die.

His chance came when Freddy unhitched him beside the lake shore after a long, hot drive. Babe jerked the halter rope out of his young master's hand, loped to the water's edge and jumped in. The deed was done.

He had gone down a second time, when a coast guard came to the rescue. Babe is back in the Hart stable, bedded in comfortable straw, with sugar lumps and carrots at his disposal. Freddy and George wait on him constantly, and he has promised never to do it again.

But there is a bolshevist glitter in Babe's eyes. He has learned how to tame his masters, and when the sugar lumps cease to appear and the boys want to go riding again, Babe will know what to do.

LITTLE GIRL TRAPS ANNOYER

Elderly Man Offers Pie to the Wrong Girl.

The next time Frank Billings, sixty-one years old, has a piece of pie to give away, he will be a little more careful regarding the person to whom he offers it.

Sunday afternoon Kathryn, nine-year-old daughter of a Detroit detective sergeant, was standing at a street corner waiting for her aunt and uncle when an elderly man walked up to her and asked her whether she wanted a piece of pie.

She refused, but he asked her to come into a vacant house near the corner and he would give her some pie. She had been told by her father not to go with any stranger, so she ran home and told her father about the man. The sergeant walked up to the corner, failed to see any one and was about to board a street car when he noticed some weeds moving. He walked over to investigate and found Billings hiding.

He placed the man under arrest and upon investigation found he has a record for burglary and is on parole from Jackson (Mich.) prison.

GETS SIXTY RED NECKTIES

Indiana Man's Taste in Cravata Remembered on Birthday.

Joseph W. Davis of Wabash, Ind., celebrated his sixty-fifth birthday and received as presents 60 bright red neckties, one for each year that he has been old enough to wear a necktie. Davis says he was five years old when he wore his first necktie and it was a red one. Since then he has never been known to wear any other color necktie than a bright red. For the last ten years he has received on an average of twenty red ties each Christmas.

HIS DIGNITY WAS PROOF AGAINST THE CHILD'S POSY

It wasn't very easy for this gallant young guardsman to sit expressionless on his horse while this impulsive little miss of seven vainly offered him her posy and then turned away, hurt; but a guardsman on duty at the Guild hall in London on occasions of ceremony must maintain discipline at all costs.

TAKE TWENTY STEPS TO START HOME OF OWN

War Savings Stamps Will Do the Trick and Help You to Independence in Life.

The man or woman owning a home rather than renting, is on the way to truest happiness and prosperity. The home owner is a solid and substantial citizen, not a national, economic "floater." He is like a tree that has taken firm root.

The man or woman not now owning a home should lose no time in beginning to work for the home-owning goal. Saving for a home should begin immediately, since comparatively few are financially able to build on the instant. "The first hundred is the hardest," but the "first hundred" needn't come hard at all, if proper saving methods are put into use.

War Savings stamps, with Thrift stamps as builders, and the new Treasury Savings certificates are admirable friends of the American citizen with laudable home-owning ambitions. It's comparatively easy to save $5, albeit the War Savings stamp which in 1924 will mature at $5 in September, 1919 costs but $4.20. The first $5 saved means the first step, the step that counts, toward the home-owning achievement. Take twenty such steps—within the current year and your filled 1919 War Savings stamps card may be exchanged for a Treasury Savings certificate maturing in 1924, for $100. If your "first hundred" already approaches realization, take the twenty steps at a leap by purchasing a $100 Treasury Savings certificate which costs, in September, 1919, only $84, with monthly price and value increase of 20 cents. In September, 1919, a $1,000 Treasury Savings certificate maturing in 1924 costs but $840, with $2 monthly increase. With a building lot and from $1,000 to $1,500 capital, it has been estimated, actual home building, under one of several partial-payment plans, may safely begin.

The business or professional woman with home-owning aspirations pins her faith to War Savings stamps and Treasury Savings certificates. They bear 4 per cent interest, compounded quarterly, they mature in five years, they may be redeemed at any time, at any post office, at face value.

PUT FAMILY ON "SAFETY LANE."

Two hundred War Savings stamps bought this year will be $1,000 in 1924 for that new office equipment, new car, post-graduate course in a specialty, payment toward a home, for the youngsters' education, or, against a rainy day.

One hundred stamps now will be $500 then, for advancement or protection; and 50 will be $250.

Fix your own mark of your needs or desires and get there via the W. S. S. route. W. S. S. pay more than 4 1/2 per cent and are absolutely safe and convenient investments for the busy man or woman.

FOUR GOOD RULES TO FOLLOW

1. Here are four good rules to follow in providing for your future welfare. Lay aside some portion of the regular income every week or every month.
2. Invest some regular portion of these savings in government securities War Savings stamps and Treasury Savings certificates.
3. Get full value for every expenditure.
4. Take care of all purchases and utilize them fully.

U. S. GOVERNMENT HAS A MESSAGE TO DAIRY PEOPLE OF ENTIRE WORLD

And Has Chosen National Dairy Show in Chicago in October as Place to Transmit It.

FOREIGN NATIONS TO GET IT

Delegations From Many Lands Across Seas Will Be Present to Learn What Uncle Sam Has to Say About This Most Important World Industry.

People of the world must have milk and milk products in ever-increasing quantities. Never was the necessity quite as vital as now.

The dairy industry in many of the countries of war-torn Europe has been, in a large measure, destroyed by the ravages of the sanguinary conflict. Infant mortality in some of these European countries, following the loss of dairy cattle and dairy products, was something appalling during the year, and even now is little better.

The United States government has had commissions in Europe studying this condition; it has had commissions devoting deep study to the dairy situation in this country.

And the government's message on the necessity for continued and increased production of dairy cattle in the United States and of milk and its products is to be delivered to the nations of the entire world at the National Dairy Show that is to be held this year in Chicago from October 6 to 12.

As Important as Any War Measure. Governmental heads at Washington consider this message to be as important as any delivered to the people while the great war was in progress. Congress has appropriated $25,000 expressly for the purpose of enabling those departments of the federal government interested to exhibit at the National Dairy Show, to deliver this ringing post-war message and to visualize to the people the relation of milk and milk products to human life.

Through the department of state at Washington formal invitations were extended to all foreign governments to send delegations or commissions to Chicago at the time of the National Dairy Show to get the message and also to exchange information and ideas.

The management of the Dairy Show is advised that already 17 foreign governments have accepted this invitation and will send delegations to the Dairy Show. It is probable that many others will do likewise.

Thus, the National Dairy Show of 1919 takes on an international character. It will be the post-war clearing house and bureau of information on the dairy industry of the world.

States Take Notice of the Show. Official recognition of the importance of the National Dairy Show this year to the country and the world at large will also be taken by governors of different states, in all probability.

The United States government is asking for a large attendance at the show that its message may be heard by many ears and its very wonderful and complete exhibits may be seen by many eyes.

There is no person in any way connected with the great dairy industry of the United States—an industry whose output runs up to the tremendous estimated total of three billion ($3,000,000,000) dollars a year—who should miss the Dairy Show.

The government has a most vital and important message for all.

TAKE A LESSON FROM UNCLE SAM

Everyone is interested in the dairy business, both those engaged in it and those who use milk and milk products—the latter including almost everyone.

The United States government wants the people of this country to know more about milk and milk products and their relation to human life. That's why congress appropriated $25,000 to enable the governmental departments interested to be adequately represented at the National Dairy Show in Chicago this year.

The United States has been spending large sums of money in investigating dairy conditions in this and foreign countries.

Why not take a lesson from Uncle Sam and learn more about milk and milk products? The place is the National Dairy Show in Chicago, from October 6 to 12.

Miss Julia Lathrop, head of the Children's Bureau at Washington and one of the country's most noted women, will be at the National Dairy Show in Chicago this year.

There will be enormous exhibits and competitions of milk, butter and cheese from all parts of the country at the National Dairy Show in Chicago this year.

The dairy industry is the industry that furnishes man's most vital food.

Proof that Some Women do Avoid Operations

Mrs. Etta Dorion, of Ogdensburg, Wis., says:

"I suffered from female troubles which caused piercing pains like a knife through my back and side. I finally lost all my strength so I had to go to bed. The doctor advised an operation but I would not listen to it. I thought of what I had read about Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and tried it. The first bottle brought great relief and six bottles have entirely cured me. All women who have female trouble of any kind should try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound."

How Mrs. Boyd Avoided an Operation.

Canton, Ohio.—"I suffered from a female trouble which caused me much suffering, and two doctors decided that I would have to go through an operation before I could get well."

"My mother, who had been helped by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, advised me to try it before submitting to an operation. It relieved me from my troubles so I can do my house work without any difficulty. I advise any woman who is afflicted with female troubles to give Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound a trial and it will do as much for them."—Mrs. MARIE BOYD, 1421 6th St., N. E., Canton, Ohio.

FRENCH & REDMON
By J. E. Redmon.

A good many of our ablest philosophers bear bravely other people's misfortunes.

There is poetry in motion, in the form of clouds, in the wild bird's song, in the laugh of a child—in fact in almost every thing except free verse.

DON'T NEGLECT YOURSELF

Lame back, shooting pains, torturing rheumatic aches, swollen joints, sore muscles, puffiness under eyes, floating specks, and an "always tired" feeling are indications that the kidneys and bladder are not working properly. Foley Kidney Pills soothe and strengthen weak and disordered kidneys and bladder.—Hite's Drug Store.

It is well always to consider the other man's view-point, especially if it's the same as your own.

People who are easily insulted never lack for something to keep their minds occupied.

QUIT MEAT IF YOUR KIDNEYS ACT BADLY

Take tablespoonful of Salts if Back hurts or Bladder bothers—Drink lots of water.

We are a nation of meat eaters and our blood is filled with uric acid, says a well-known authority, who warns us to be constantly on guard against kidney trouble.

The kidneys do their utmost to free the blood of this irritating acid, but become weak from the overwork; they get sluggish; the eliminative tissues clog and thus the waste is retained in the blood to poison the entire system.

When your kidneys ache and feel like lumps of lead, and you have stinging pains in the back or the urine is cloudy, full of sediment, or the bladder is irritable, obliging you to seek relief during the night; when you have severe headaches, nervous and dizzy spells, sleeplessness, acid stomach or rheumatism in bad weather, get from your pharmacist about four ounces of Jad Salts; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast each morning and in a few days your kidneys will act fine. This famous salt is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for generations to flush and stimulate clogged kidneys, to neutralize the acids in urine so it is no longer a source of irritation, thus ending urinary and bladder disorders.

Jad Salts is inexpensive and cannot injure; makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink, and nobody can make a mistake by taking a little occasionally to keep the kidneys clean and active.

Aspirin is the trade mark of Bayer Manufacture of Monosaceticacidester of Salicylicacid.

MAY OPEN WONDER LAND TO PUBLIC

Suit Would Lift Gate to 67,000 Acres on Pacific,

ISLAND VERITABLE PARADISE

Ownership of Santa Cruz Island Involved in Action Brought in California Courts—Because of Strange and Beautiful Scenery Island is Frequently Used as Background for Motion Picture Dramas.

If a suit recently filed in the county superior court at Santa Barbara, Cal., is successful, one of the wonder spots of the Pacific coast will be thrown open to the public. The suit, which is brought by Aglae S. Capucio, against Arthur J., Fred F. and Albina C. Claire, the Santa Cruz Island company and others, involves the ownership of Santa Cruz, the largest of the Channel Islands, which lies within thirty miles of the mainland opposite Santa Barbara, and is little known because of present inaccessibility.

The island was secured from the government many years ago by Justinian Calre and his family, who formed the Santa Cruz Island company as a holding corporation. On Calre's death the widow, holding one-half the stock, combined her interests with those of one of her children, thus exercising complete control of the company and the island.

A recent failure to pay the annual corporation tax gave the other heirs an opportunity to attack her control. The suit, it is believed by some of the protesting heirs, will result in the corporation being dissolved and the property divided into parcels in accordance with the stock holdings.

Santa Cruz contains about 67,000 acres. The north side of it is precipitous, a mountain chain running the entire length, but there is a good harbor at the other end. The south side is exposed to the full force of the Pacific and there is no landing place.

There is a small settlement upon it. Part of the land is devoted to sheep grazing and part to wine grape cultivation, but the greater part is wild.

The waters about the island teem with fish and abalone. For a large part of the shore line the cliffs are honeycombed with caves. Some of these great holes are gaudy with wonderful combinations of colors, suggesting camouflage. The sea rushes in at high tide and the caves are filled with queer sounds likened to the moaning and growling of giants. Practically every seal in vaudeville or in circuses which shows exceptional intelligence comes from Santa Cruz. For years Capt. George M. McGuire has driven a thriving trade with amusement enterprises in capturing seals.

The island abounds in wild pigs, foxes and mountain lions. The wild pigs are descendants of porkers brought to the island a half century ago by Russian seal hunters who, on departing after a stay of several months, kidnaped a number of Indian women then resident on Santa Cruz. The women were taken to the arctic lands and formed part of a seal-hunting colony there.

Forms Movie Background.

Because of the strange and beautiful scenery of the island it is frequently used as a motion picture background.

The island management has been averse to permitting campers on the island in considerable numbers, but occasional trips are made to it by Capt. Ira Eaton in his ship the Sea Wolf, with vacation parties. If the island is split up some of the contesting heirs will build a wharf and make a bid for tourist patronage.

Tradition declares that pirates made the island their rendezvous, and there has been desultory and futile search for buried treasure by various adventurers.

EARLY RISER GETS THIEF

Interest is Aroused at Early Morning Movement of Tires.

If David Groh, formerly with the department of justice and now running a private detective agency in Chicago, did not get up so early in the morning he would not see so much.

For the last two weeks Mr. Groh has been getting up at five o'clock in the morning. He noticed William Heller, who lives in the same building, bringing automobile tires into his basement. Knowing Heller did not own a machine, he made inquiries of the company for which Heller works, and was told it had not missed any tires.

Mr. Groh took the numbers of some of the tires, compared them with those belonging to the company, and it was found the tires belonged to Heller's employer. Heller was arrested and confessed stealing more than $500 worth of tires.

WINE AGENT IS NO MORE

Today's Lothario is Chapo, Who Sells Near-Beer.

Not so long ago a favorite tale was that of an elderly wine agent and the innocent young thing. Today it is that of the young near-beer agent and a woman with children nearly as old as he. Truly romance has changed, if not perished!

Three or four months ago the wife of Henry Huntington, a wealthy farmer of Area, Lake county, Illinois, left home, husband and grown son and daughter. She is in her middle forties and comely.

Early the other morning a detective employed by Henry found her in an apartment in Aurora, Ill. She tried, vainly, to hold him at the door. But she and Henry Jaros, twenty-four-year-old near-beer agent, who had been known as "Henry Huntington" at the apartment, went to the police station together, where they were booked on a serious charge and held for bail of $1,000 each. Jaros was out the next day. But Mrs. Huntington was still awaiting bond.

CITY HEALTH OFFICER WINS

Finds Way to Get Around Storekeepers' Rule.

Dr. George R. Daniels, city health officer of Marion, Ind., is the only one of his family who eats cheese and he does not eat much. He went into a local store to buy a small amount.

"I want a nickel's worth of cheese," the doctor said, bravely.

"Sorry, Doc, but I can't cut that small an amount," came back over the counter.

"Well, how about a dime's worth?"

"All right. We can do that," was the reply.

Dr. Daniels received the cheese and asked for a knife. He cut it in two parts, threw down the nickel and walked out.

He got the nickel's worth of cheese.

Swiss Pay High Prices for U. S. Coal. Several steamers have arrived at Rotterdam with American coal for Switzerland. This coal costs from $34 to $36 a ton. The Swiss have paid $25 for German coal. Germany, however, requires return shipments of cattle, condensed milk, cheese and other products.

RETURNS WITH FAME

Youth Out on Probation Redeems Himself.

San Francisco Boy Makes Good Serving in War as Army Captain.

San Francisco.—Three years ago Thomas J. Ford, a youth of 19 years, walked out of Superior Judge Franklin Griffin's courtroom, grateful for a chance and vowing he would make good.

Three charges of grand larceny were against his name. Judge Griffin placed the lad on probation on one charge and carried the other two on the reserve calendar.

Recently Captain Thomas J. Ford of the Canadian army walked into Judge Griffin's courtroom.

"I've made good," he told Griffin, simply, "and I came back just to thank you for having given me the chance."

Then he told his story:

"After you permitted me to go I joined the Canadian forces as a private. I went to France and into action. It was real action, too. My regiment fought in some of the biggest engagements. I wanted to make good and to show you I could, and that carried me through some tight places. I rose in the ranks, surprising myself at the way I forged ahead. I even won distinction for bravery under fire."

"You have earned more praise than this court can bestow on you," said Griffin. "Besides doing our country an honor you are one of the many men that have convinced me that the probation law is successful."

Then Griffin directed that the two remaining charges against Ford be erased from the calendar.

Ford was arrested three years ago because of his practice of taking automobiles that did not belong to him to take women friends joyriding.

FOR MEN WHO WORK HARD

Men who work at hard physical labor are subject to kidney trouble. J. G. Wolf, 734 S. Jackson St., Green Bay, Wis., writes: "Foley Kidney Pills relieved me of a severe backache that bothered me for several months. A few bottles fixed me up in good shape." They also relieve bladder and urinary ailments.—Hite's Drug Store.

Jump from Bed in Morning and Drink Hot Water

Tells why everyone should drink hot water each morning before breakfast.

Why is man and woman, half the time, feeling nervous, despondent, worried; some days headachy, dull and unstrung; some days really incapacitated by illness.

If we all would practice inside-bathing, what a gratifying change would take place. Instead of thousands of half-sick, anaemic-looking souls with pasty, muddily complexioned we should see crowds of happy, healthy, rosy-cheeked people everywhere. The reason is that the human system does not rid itself each day of all the waste which it accumulates under our present mode of living. For every ounce of food and drink taken into the system nearly an ounce of waste material must be carried out, else it ferments and forms ptomaine-like poisons which are absorbed into the blood.

Just as necessary as it is to clean the ashes from the furnace each day, before the fire will burn bright and hot, so we must each morning clear the inside organs of the previous day's accumulation of indigestible waste and body toxins. Men and women, whether sick or well, are advised to drink each morning, before breakfast, a glass of real hot water with a teaspoonful of limestone phosphate in it, as a harmless means of washing out of the stomach, liver, kidneys and bowels the indigestible material, waste, sour bile and toxins; thus cleansing, sweetening and purifying the entire alimentary canal before putting more food into the stomach.

Millions of people who had their turn at constipation, bilious attacks, acid stomach, nervous days and sleepless nights have become real cranks about the morning inside-bath. A quarter pound of limestone phosphate will do cost much at the drug store, but is sufficient to demonstrate to anyone its cleansing, sweetening and freshening effect upon the system.

Men's Heads Bigger? Bosh! Say Scientists

Philadelphia.—"Pish! Tush!" said psychologists and anatomists of the University of Pennsylvania, commenting on the statement of hat manufacturers to the effect that men's heads were growing larger. "It's all rot!" said Dr. R. Tait McKenzie, in charge of the physical work of the university. "The theory could not possibly be sustained by facts unless," he added, "with a twinkle in his eye, 'unless it is a reflection from Germany. They seem to be suffering from swelled heads just now.'"

"The fact is interesting if true," said Dr. Lightner Witmer, head of the department of psychology of the university. "I can't think of a reason in the world for the fact, if fact it is. I'm very much inclined to doubt the truth of the statement."

GETS JOBS FOR MANY

Statistics Show Uncle Sam's Record as Employment Agent.

During 18 Months' Period 10,000 Persons Were Placed Each Working Day.

Washington.—The record of Uncle Sam as employment agent is given in statistics made public by the department of labor, which cover the period from January, 1918, when the United States employment service was organized, to June 30, 1919, the end of the government's fiscal year.

Ten thousand persons were placed in jobs of all kinds each working day for the 18 months' period, according to the report, without costing them or their employers a cent and at a cost to the whole country of but $1.34 per placement. The saving in fees to the men and women directed to employment by Uncle Sam in co-operation with states and municipalities, is estimated at not less than $10,000,000.

From January 1, 1918, to June 30, 1919, 7,108,855 workers of all kinds were registered by the United States employment service for employment. Of the total, 6,446,294 were referred to positions and 4,955,159 were reported placed. A worker is reported as placed only after the service has received assurance, oral or written, from either worker or employer of placement.

Placements were made of every kind of worker; from common and domestic laborers to high-salaried professional and technical workers. The recruiting and placing of farm labor has been one of the special features of the work of the federal employment service during the last year and a half.

The common labor placements were but 23 per cent of the total of slightly under 5,000,000 persons placed. The other 77 per cent consisted of skilled labor and other workers engaged in specific occupations.

The total figures of the work of the United States employment service divide into two groups: The "war period," from January, 1918, to the end of November, 1918; and the "readjustment period," from December, 1918, to the end of last June. The first period was primarily one of "man-finding"; the second one of "job-finding."

During the war period 3,452,997 persons were registered for employment and 3,444,093 referred to jobs, the great majority of them in war industry. Returns from the workers and employers show that 2,698,887 were placed.

During the readjustment period the figures show that 3,452,997 persons were registered for employment, 3,002,201 referred to jobs and 2,258,272 were reported placed. Included in the registrations were 519,804 soldiers and sailors, of whom 314,137 were reported placed, but the returns on soldiers' placements are incomplete.

Our Public Schools opened Monday with the largest enrollment of scholars in years. The High School has 45 pupils over the number of last year, the attendance now being 225. In the first six grades over 300 are enrolled—a much larger number than last year. In the first grade there is an attendance of over fifty; rather than make half-day sessions, an assistant has been employed in the person of Miss Doris Fuller. There are about sixty in the kindergarten, the work being handled in half day sessions. During the past year many new families have moved from various places to East Jordan, which has increased our population considerably.

"Perfect Dream" of a Man Put on Bargain Counter

Claire MacDonald of New York city proposes to commercialize the sacred institution of matrimony. MacDonald has been appointed "business manager and personal representative of the handsomest young man—outside the movies." It is his idea to sell this young man as a husband to a lucky Chicago girl.

"He is a very fine chap from a fine family," writes the manager, "and believes that as marriage is a chance anyway, he stands as good a chance of meeting his soulmate in this way as in any other. He is willing to have me sell him, and agrees to marry the lucky girl, regardless of her age, religion and previous condition of servitude, provided only she is white."

A photograph inclosed reveals this little bit of heaven. It is a high light profile of a dreamy youth, something of the choir boy type, with curly silk hair waving back from a noble forehead.

CHRISTIANS IN EAST SUFFER

Doctor Barton, Back From Asia Minor, Relates Hardships of Deported People.

Satonki.—Rev. James Levi Barton, president of the American commission for relief in the near East and secretary general of the American board of commissioners for foreign missions, has just arrived in Satonki to visit the missionary schools after a journey of more than 5,000 miles in Turkey, Asia Minor, Armenia and Mesopotamia.

On his arrival Doctor Barton said: "I found the Christian populations in an extremely deplorable condition. Hundreds of thousands of persons, who had been deported from their homes found themselves at various points in Turkey forced to live on charity. 'The American commission for relief, in entire collaboration with the Greek and Armenian committees is doing everything possible to maintain the lives of the unfortunates.'"

PRODUCE STORAGE INCREASES

Reports for This Year Show Gain of 40,000,000 Pounds in Butter, 1,375,000 Cases in Eggs.

Washington.—Large increases in the amounts of butter and eggs in cold storage this year, over totals a year ago, were reported by the agricultural department.

There were 802 storages which reported in 1918 holding stocks of 68,202,000 pounds of butter, while the same storages on July 15 this year held 108,862,000 pounds. The 372 storages reporting eggs on July 15 this year, held 7,870,000 cases, against 6,282,000 cases a year ago.

Stocks of frozen and cured fish in storage showed a decrease on July 15 of 4 per cent, as compared with a year ago, present holdings including 68,984,000 pounds of frozen fish, 29,147,000 pounds of cured herring and 6,822,000 pounds of mild cured salmon.

Mouse in a Pie.

Topeka, Kan.—A full-grown mouse in a pie he sold brought a fine of $25 and $7.50 costs to Carl Singer, a Wichita baker. The pie was bought by a boy for a lunch for members of the office force of a produce company. The report from O. H. Graves, deputy pure food officer, didn't state whether it was a mince pie or not. Anyway, the pie purchasers made complaint. Singer had two counts charged against him—selling poisonous substances in food and for keeping uncovered cooked food.

OCCULT POWER BASIS OF SUIT FOR BIG SUM

Indiana Woman Makes Millionaire Oil Operator Defendant in Novel Suit.

Bruce Bement, millionaire oil operator of Terre Haute, who owns and operates big oil holdings in Pike county, both east and west of Petersburg, Ind., was made defendant in a novel suit filed in the Pike circuit court by Mrs. Minnie Hershman, of Petersburg, Ind. She claims she is endowed with hypnotic powers and asks judgment against Bement in the sum of $37,000, a sixteenth part of what he received for a half interest in some oil property which he sold to the Central Refining company several months ago. She also asks for a sixteenth interest in all of Bement's remaining oil property in Pike county.

In the complaint Mrs. Hershman says she has hypnotic influence over Horace I. Wiley, of Mt. Carmel, Ill., and that she can put Wiley in a trance and while under her influence he divulges things beyond the human eye. The complaint further avers that on July 15, 1917, Bement, who was then operating for oil in Pike county, came to her for information and after she hypnotized Wiley she told Bement that oil would be found on the Dough Barker, Pearl Barker Burkhardt, Willis Chew and Rumble leases. It is asserted Bement prospected these leases, finding much oil and the Central Refining company paid him $600,000 for the property that included the leases named by Wiley while in a trance.

Mrs. Hershman also asks for a sixteenth interest in the gas property owned by Bement which includes both the plants in this city and Winslow. Wiley is a party to the suit. Bement came here a number of years ago from Terre Haute and opened offices. He has had remarkable success in the new Pike county oil fields, but is now engaged in developing Texas oil lands.

CROSS-EYES HIS JINX

An Ankle and a Car Involved in Hit Undoing.

Retribution overtook Michael Nickl of Philadelphia.

Nickl, who is cross-eyed, was driving a car in which were two companions, Ernest Becker and Joseph Gaudl. A street car was approaching and a perfect 36 in a short, tight skirt was crossing the street. The motorman was sure Nickl was looking at him. Those on the sidewalk were sure he was gazing ankleward.

Anyway, street car and automobile met, and so did Nickl and the police. The car, it was found, had been stolen a few hours before. Nickl and Becker were given medical attention, then locked up. Gaudl was taken to the bridelwell hospital to recover from minor injuries.

And then the police remembered three men who looked exactly like Nickl and his comrades were driving an auto truck stolen from J. Peterson when it collided with another automobile a few days before.

HUNTER DRIVES BARGAIN

Oregonian Trades a Wolf for a License to Wed.

Wilbur Holcomb, a young farmer of Holley, Ore., traded a gray wolf for a Hawk the other afternoon and only had to give County Clerk Russell 50 cents to boot. The Hawk was of the Holley variety and very rare, in the opinion of Mr. Holcomb. Her name was Lulu G., and she is now Mrs. Wilbur Holcomb. County Clerk Bilyeu tied the nuptial knot.

Mr. Holcomb is somewhat of a hunter as well as a successful soldier in Dan Cupid's regiment. He shot the gray wolf, brought it into the clerk's office, secured the bounty of $2.50 and straightway applied it on a marriage license. His application was also sent in to the state game commission for the larger premium of $20 offered by the state for the extinction of gray wolves in Oregon, and the lone gray wolf may pay part of the honeymoon expenses of the newlyweds. They will make their future home near Holley.

ALDERMAN PLEADS GUILTY

City Father Picked Up As Speeder and Fined.

"I am guilty as charged, your honor."

Alderman Hiram F. McCullough of Evanston, Ill., made this statement in the court of Justice John F. Boyer when arraigned on a charge of speeding.

The justice coughed and looked away. Motorcycle Policeman Louis Windleborn blushed.

"I think $2 and costs would be a reasonable fine for one with such a high regard for civic duty and honesty," said the justice.

Alderman McCullough paid the fine.

WAR HOSPITAL WORK TOO TAME FOR MISS SEDGWICK

Serving in a London war hospital was altogether too tame for pretty Miss Adelaide Sedgwick of New York, so the young lady transferred her activities to France, where she ran a canteen for British soldiers near Calais. Here Miss Sedgwick had thrills enough to last a lifetime, for the German aviators bombed the vicinity nightly. Miss Sedgwick's canteen served 600 soldiers a day. She has been commended by the British government for her work.

JULIA STARTS OWN RIOT

Gives Chicago Policeman Turn When She Calls Them Out.

Mental pictures of a new race riot flashed before the minds of policemen at the Stanton avenue station in Chicago when the telephone rang and a woman excitedly announced that a riot was about to be started in the vicinity. Patrolmen ran to the automobile patrol and were soon on the scene. They saw Mrs. Julia Barfield, colored, awaiting their arrival.

"You—all the police I called?" she asked.

"Yes. Where's the riot?" one of the patrolmen inquired.

"There ain't none yet—but there will be if the law don't make my old man give me some money."

The police lost interest in their riot vision and settled down to questioning Mrs. Barfield.

"Me and my old man lived at 3604 South Dearborn street until he gets a express wagon and moves all my stuff to this rooming house," she said. "Now I wants the law to go with me and make him give me some money."

Pervus Barfield was not in when the patrol stopped in front of his home and a dozen policemen, headed by Mrs. Barfield, left the conveyance. Neighbors told the police Barfield saw them first and was going south in the alley while they were knocking at the front door. Mrs. Barfield was told to take her troubles into court.

IS LOVE BLIND?

This Indiana Burglar Will Unqualifiedly Answer No.

Shoes are becoming so valuable that it is dangerous for a merchant to leave them in a window display over night, as was shown when a thief used a club to break a plate glass window in Hartford City, Ind., in an effort to get several pairs of workmen's shoes.

He worked near a street light and was prevented from succeeding in his venture only by the fact that newlyweds were honeymooning on the porch of the Snyder home, just across the street from the shoe shop.

The newlyweds, Mr. and Mrs. William Florence, who were married in the afternoon, shouted at the robber, who ran without obtaining any booty. Patrolman Cook heard the crash of glass from the broken window and was on the scene within a few minutes, but the thief had escaped.

WHAT IS DOLLAR REALLY WORTH?

Analytical Experts Disagree Over the Problem.

TRAGEDY OF FACTS IS REAL

One Man With a Sick Wife Has Pathetic Answer to Question—Meager Salary Would Not Stretch to Give Her the One Chance for Life—Chicago Woman Seeks the Great Adventure as One Way Out.

One expert, analyzing the problem of the high cost of living, sets forth that a dollar now is worth 65 cents. Another equally eminent, says it is worth only 45 cents. So it appears clear, anyway, that a dollar is not worth a dollar.

John Bemish of Chicago finds $26—the same old $26, except that it won't stretch nearly so far—in his pay envelope every week. There are four children, the oldest fourteen years, the youngest five, and all with healthy appetites. And there is, or maybe there was, his wife, a victim of the white plague.

For months Mrs. Bemish's housework had been interrupted frequently by paroxysms of coughing. Her strength was waning. There came a time when she could not lift the heavy drain under the refrigerator to empty it, or the pail of hot water to scrub the floors.

When she tucked the children in bed at night she averted her face and stifled her cough, lest they breathe slow death.

Doctor's Sad Decision.

There was little money for doctors and medicine, but they had to be paid. And at last the doctor gave his final verdict.

"She must be sent away," he said. "It is her only chance. And the children may catch the disease if she stays."

"On $26 a week," John Bemish sighed.

Mrs. Bemish heard. She knew that if from her husband's pay came money to send her elsewhere there would be little left for the home. And she knew that if she remained at home the children might—

All night she lay awake, staring dazed into the darkness, pondering her problem. Toward morning she reached a decision. When her husband and children awoke Mrs. Bemish had gone.

Kisses Sleeping Babies.

The children told of having felt in their slumbers a light kiss on their cheeks—not on their lips. That was all.

On his birthday, a week ago, one of the children received a card from his mother. It read:

"Dear Son: Stay with your father. Your mother is no good. Try to forget her. MOTHER."

Today John Bemish was asked by the police to go to the South side and look at the body of a woman who had committed suicide. He dropped his tools and put on his worn coat.

"I hope it's not Emma," he stammered to his mates. "We want her back, sick or well."

"And she is good," he cried as he moved away. "She's the best woman in the world."

Another Pitiful Case.

One expert says the dollar is worth 65 cents now. Another says it is worth only 45 cents. One thing is certain. That is, a dollar is not worth a dollar. And—

Tuttle Sweeney, assistant engineer at the Burr school, draws the same pay he did a year ago; maybe a little more. But he decided that there wasn't enough any longer to pay the rent and also keep his wife and children clothed.

"We'll give up the flat and go to live with my mother," he told his wife, Elizabeth.

The next day Mrs. Sweeney kissed her children good-by and went away.

The same day Mrs. Lena Kirchner rented a room in her home at 4447 West Ravenswood avenue to a woman. Next day the woman went to work. The following morning they found two gas jets open in her room. The woman was dead.

Shock for Husband.

Sweeney was called by the police to view the body of the suicide. It was his wife.

"I heard her talk over the telephone about having left her husband and children because there wasn't enough money to keep their apartment," Mrs. Kirchner told the police.

"She said she'd regret her hasty decision till her dying day. And she did. It was the last thing she talked of last night."

There was a coroner's inquest. The verdict was "death by suicide." The value of a dollar did not enter into the proceedings.

Honeymoon Ends in Hospital.

Attempting to elude pursuing wedding guests by running away in an automobile, Mr. and Mrs. Gustave Johnson of Bay City, Mich., were injured when the machine landed them in a ditch beside the road. They continued their honeymoon in a hospital.

MRS. ENOCH ARDEN BOBS UP

First Wife of Civil War Hero Reappears After Fifty Years.

At eighty-one years of age, James Waincott of Richmond, Va., is the unhappy possessor of two wives, 13 children and two divorce suits—all as the result of a romance in 1865.

In 1865, Waincott was in a hospital suffering from wounds received in one of the last battles of the Civil war. He married the nurse who brought him back to health. After six months they separated, and Waincott was told later that she had died. So in 1870 he married again, and has since then been a wealthy resident of Richmond, and has a family of 13 children.

And now of the dead past comes Mrs. Waincott No. 1 from Kansas City, very much alive and angry, to secure a divorce. Wife No. 2 also considers herself a victim of Waincott's marital zeal, and has also asked for a divorce. Both demand heavy alimony.

That of William the Great will be removed in a few days and the former kaiser's statue at Thorn will be taken from the market with a festival parade. American Woman Tells Tale of Atrocities.

MOTHER STARVED TO DEATH

Suffers Eight Months of Imprisonment and Brutal Treatment in Bandit Camp—Forced by Carranza General to Carry Message to Zapata—Two Months' Trip Is One of Hardship and Danger.

Brutally treated and finally starved to death by Mexican soldier bandits, Mrs. W. H. Keenright, who left Washington a few years ago to join her son-in-law and daughter, Dr. and Mrs. Charles T. Sturgis, in Mexico, died last November. Her body, wrapped in a strip of matting, lies hidden in a hole near Depolan, in Chipas.

Before she died she saw the Sturgis plantation sacked, witnessed the cruelties that reduced Doctor Sturgis to a physical wreck, and was forced to watch the indignities suffered by her daughter at the hands of Carranza soldiers and the bandits led by Gen. Rafael Cal y Mayor, a friend of Zapata.

Dr. and Mrs. Sturgis reached New Orleans a few days ago.

Eight months of imprisonment and brutal treatment in a Mexican bandit camp, where they were hidden after their plantation was sacked, was the experience related by Doctor Sturgis and his wife.

In Mexico 20 Years. Twenty years ago Doctor Sturgis went to Mexico to practice his profession of dentistry. He also acquired and cultivated a large coffee plantation and in 1915 came to Washington and married Miss Cora Keenright, Mrs. Keenright, her mother, went to Mexico to visit her daughter.

It was in January, 1918, according to Mrs. Sturgis, that they had their first raid.

"The raiders were Carranzista soldiers," Mrs. Sturgis said in a letter to friends here, "commanded by Capt. Leopolda Garcia and Capt. Julio Castellano. They swarmed into the house. Captain Garcia pointed his rifle at me and at my muzzle forced me to search the whole house for him 'for revolutionaries,' he said.

"Then he ordered me to climb the roof and search it with him. I refused. I'm the wife of an American citizen. He sneered at me.

"Go ahead and kick to your government. Go ahead and kick to my government, too, if you want to. It won't do any good. We're going to drive all you damned gringos out of the country before we're through with you," he said.

"Well, the Carranzistas left us at last. And then came the raid of June 26, 1918. That was headed by Gen. Rafael Cal y Mayor himself.

Ran Away All Employees. "Prior to that time we were in difficulties. For the Carranza government ordered all plantation employees to quit. A Carranzista agent kept coming regularly. If he found any at work he threatened to have them hanged.

"On June 26 Gen. Cal y Mayor rode up to the house. His men swarmed through it. They stripped the house of everything movable. Then they took us to the bandit camp as prisoners.

"We were prisoners of Gen. Cal y Mayor from June 26, 1918, to February 18, 1919. It was November 13, 1918, that my mother died of starvation.

"This Gen. Rafael Cal y Mayor was a close personal friend of Zapata. On November 15, 1918, he had me brought to his shack.

"Get ready for a trip," he told me. "You're going to carry a message to Zapata for me. You're going to Vera Cruz and to Mexico City. If you try to trick me, or if you're not back in two months, I'll kill your husband."

"He sent with me an Indian woman named Clotilde Lopez. She was to keep watch over me."

Traveling on foot, on muleback, and sometimes in a canoe, the two women finally reached Mexico City. Mrs. Sturgis made the long journey back to camp and saved her husband's life. They were held prisoner several weeks longer and then set free. After much trouble they got in communication with the American consul at Zalina Cruz, who furnished money sufficient to pay their expenses back to the States.

COSTLY RAILROAD FRAUDS

Millions of Dollars Alleged to Have Been Lost Through Irregularities.

The railroads of the country have lost about $5,000,000 a year through "irregularities in connection with the sale of stray and unclaimed freight," according to a statement made before Federal Judge Foster of New York city.

Jerome S. Dumont and Capt. Solomon Shuldiner have been accused of frauds against the railroads in connection with the business of Shuldiner's firm. Tentative pleas of not guilty were entered and the two men were released on bonds of $25,000 each.

WIFE GETS NEW HAT, YET SHE COMPLAINS

Says Husband Is Liberal Spender, Except When Household Is Concerned.

Twenty cents will not purchase a suitable hat for the wife of a man who earns $2,000 a month.

This point was decided, officially and finally, by the appellate division of the supreme court in New York when it affirmed the decree of separation awarded by Justice Pendleton to Mrs. Clara H. Montgomery against her husband, Joseph R. Montgomery, who is a raw sugar buyer for Arbuckle Brothers.

Mrs. Montgomery stated in affidavits opposing her husband's application to have set aside the separation order that her husband was a liberal spender except where it came to his household.

He would allow her only $1 a day for food and nothing for clothing, except on one occasion when he doled out 20 cents with which to purchase a new spring bonnet, she declared. She said she was forced to borrow bread from neighbors during the day, and on telling her husband of this on his return to the house at night, he would personally avenge the bread to be returned to see that the neighbors got none the best of it.

Doctor bills he also balked at, she said, and on numerous occasions when these fell due he remarked with evident cheerfulness that he could bury his wife for less than it would cost to settle with the physicians. Alimony later will be fixed by Justice Pendleton. Before their separation the Montgomerys lived at 134 West One Hundred and Eightieth street.

RELIGIOUS SECT SHUN BARBER

EVEN BALL TEAM BEARDED

House of David, Organized in 1902, Now Has 700 Members Who Live in Community Up to Date in Every Respect—Have Pleasure Park of 100 Acres, With Miniature Railroad and Numerous Amusement Attractions.

At Benton Harbor, Mich., there is a queer religious sect known as the Israelite House of David. The men do not believe in barbers and permit their hair and whiskers to grow to their shoulders. Their community offers many unique attractions, but by far the greatest of them all is a long-haired and much-be-whiskered baseball team.

In addition to being an excellent playing aggregation, the baseball team is one of the greatest attractions in Michigan. Its catcher is a king and its shortstop is a crown prince. Since no Israelite is allowed to shave or cut his hair, the players have flowing locks, frequently extending to their waist, and some of them have beards that cover their chests. Black, except in so far as the hair is concerned, is considered a badge of mourning, and no player is even permitted to wear black shoes. All the shoes are made especially for them, and are tan colored. Even black tape may not be put around the handles of the bats.

Big Crowds at Games.

The Israelites have an excellent ball park with a well-kept diamond, and back of it a covered grandstand, which can accommodate more than 1,000 spectators. So as not to interrupt the daily activities of the members of the community, all the games are played on Sundays, and people flock to Benton Harbor from all the neighboring towns and cities.

When autumn comes and the baseball season is over, all the members of the House of David team go to the lumber camps, where they keep in training for the following summer's baseball contests.

The House of David was established in 1902 by King Benjamin with the assistance of his wife, Queen Mary. The king and his tribe came, originally, from Australia. They believe that they are the descendants of the ten lost tribes of Israel. Their occupation is agriculture, and men and women must take daily a prescribed amount of outdoor exercise. Their little city is complete in every respect, except that there is no hospital. The people are so healthy that there is no need of such an institution.

The community at present numbers 700 members. They have a pleasure park of nearly 100 acres, including Eden springs, the waters of which, King David and his followers assert, have wonderful health-giving properties. The park also is said to have the most extensive and completely equipped miniature railroad in the world. Other attractions in the park are a moving picture theater, a photograph gallery, bowling alley, a zoo and aviary and a huge amphitheater seating 1,200 persons.

Women Have a Band.

One of the features at Benton Harbor is a vegetarian restaurant where all kinds of good things to eat are served to visitors, while the diners listen to the music of a band composed entirely of the women of the community. Besides this musical organization, the men of the House of David have an excellent brass band and a stringed orchestra. Every afternoon and evening during the summer season these varied musical organizations give programs, which attract hundreds of people to the park.

'Twas Quite a Shingle

Doctor's Automobile License Plate Gave Trade Away.

"I'm Doctor Terwilliger, and I've driven over from Illinois to see my daughter, who is one of the dancers here," said a man stopping his car in front of the Terrace Garden dance palace in New York.

Then up spoke Marcus Nathan, the actor:

"If you're a doctor you ought to change your license plate—it isn't a good advertisement."

The plate bore the legend, "467,392 III."

"Still," ruminated Nathan, "it looks as if you had quite a practice, at that."

Jewelry Loot Filled Bucket.

Two bandits, one a cripple, held up Louis Trocky in his jewelry store in Chicago, bound and gagged him, and in view of scores of pedestrians escaped with an iron bucket filled with diamonds and watches valued at $5,000 and $100 in currency. They came and went in an automobile.

Kindled Fire With $2,000 in Bills.

Grabbing a bundle of paper from the kitchen cupboard, Mrs. Alexander Sandor of McKeesport, Pa., struck a match to it. Then she gasped, seized a pail of water and extinguished the blaze. In her haste she had picked up a bundle of $50 and $20 bills, $2,000 in all, which had been hidden in the cupboard.

JAPS ADMIT FLOGGING OFFENDERS IN KOREA

Assert Natives Often Prefer Sound Thashing to Payment of Fine.

Japanese officials in Korea, in discussing the punishment administered to Koreans in the independence movement there, say that the old Korean custom of flogging has been continued by the Japanese authorities.

One reason given by the Japanese for this was that the prisons were insufficient to lodge the large number of prisoners arrested in the revolutionary movement. The Japanese officials also declare that the Koreans, themselves, sometimes preferred flogging to paying a fine.

Foreign newspapers have published statements from foreigners in Korea alleging that several Korean men were flogged in pursuance of court sentences were afterward in serious physical condition. Mention was particularly made of five men who had entered a local hospital at Seoul, who had received for three consecutive days 30 blows each. It is declared that the flesh was terribly swollen and discolored and that gangrene had set in.

One of the officials shown the correspondent the instrument with which flogging is done under the orders of the court. It consists of two slender pieces of wood tightly bound with hemp twine.

The convicted person is tied to a wooden bench, which is built something in the form of a cross.

AMERICAN HEIRESS IS NOW POVERTY STRICKEN

Countess Colored-Mannsfeld, formerly the beautiful Nora Isehn of New York, before she married into Teuzon royalty, is now one of the number of American heiresses who are living on borrowed money or on sums ridiculously small compared with their former grandeur. The financial chaos in Germany and the seizure of their wealth in this country by the alien property custodian has left them practically penniless.

HAS LIVED A CENTURY

But "Aunt Dude" Goodall Works in Her Garden.

"Aunt Dude" Goodall celebrated the one hundred and first anniversary of her birth at Marion, Ill., recently. Mrs. Goodall was born the year Illinois was admitted to the Union, and has lived all her life in that state.

She is in excellent health for a person of her age, and works practically daily in her garden and with her chickens.

Mrs. Goodall was born in Saline county. Her maiden name was Meredith. Her husband has been dead for 20 years. She was the mother of 11 children, three of whom are still living. Mrs. John Charldn, Mrs. D. L. Thompson and Mrs. George Pultey.

On her one hundredth anniversary, held last year, the entire city and surrounding community turned out to do her honor. The celebration took place at the large Williamson county fair grounds, which was crowded all day with visitors. This year the family gathered at the home for a dinner.

Finder Substitutes Glass.

The loss of her diamond ring was discovered by Mrs. Theodore Tucker of St. Louis while she was in an uptown building. A man aided in the search. He pretended to pick up a diamond. "Here it is," he said. Mrs. Tucker thanked him and gave him $5. A jeweler said the diamond was glass. The lost stone has not been found.

GRAY HAIR BECOMES DARK AND BEAUTIFUL
Try Grandmother's Old Favorite Recipe of Sage Tea and Sulphur.

Almost everyone knows that Sage Tea and Sulphur, properly compounded, brings back the natural color and lustre to the hair when faded, streaked or gray. Years ago the only way to get this mixture was to make it at home, which is messy and troublesome. Nowadays we simply ask at any drug store for "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound." You will get a large bottle of this old-time recipe improved by the addition of other ingredients at very little cost. Everybody uses this preparation now, because no one can possibly tell that you darkened your hair, as it does it so naturally and evenly. You dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time; by morning the gray hair disappears, and after another application or two, your hair becomes beautifully dark, thick and glossy and you look years younger. Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound is a delightful toilet requisite. It is not intended for the cure, mitigation or prevention of disease.
