The Roosevelt Memorial

Movement Now Under Way In Charlevoix County.

"One flag, the American flag; One language, the language of the Declaration of Independence; One loyalty, loyalty to American people."

—Roosevelt—

Charlevoix County is to have a prominent part in the Roosevelt Memorial Movement which is under way throughout the entire country. Michigan's quota is $200,000 and Charlevoix County's quota $500. It is the purpose and earnest wish of the County Chairman, Mr. F. O. Barden, that all thought of partisanship be removed from the campaign. Theodore Roosevelt's memory is the common heritage of all Americans. Every man, woman and child shall be given the opportunity to assist by their energy and gifts in perpetuating memory of the man of robust honesty, dauntless courage, tireless energy and of one hundred per cent Americanism, which he preached and lived befused into the lives of our American youths.

This campaign will begin Monday, October 20th and close Monday, Oct. 27th, when public programs will be held in commemoration of his birthday and his picture dedicated with appropriate exercises in every school house. The campaign for Charlevoix County was opened Wednesday evening in Charlevoix, where forty-five representative people of the county and representing the cities of Charlevoix, East Jordan, Boyne City and Boyne Falls, were called together at the Bartlett House under the direction of the Chairman and enjoyed a well appointed banquet. Following the banquet plans were laid for the forthcoming campaign.

The County was divided into four districts, namely:—Charlevoix with Dr. Armstrong with Mrs. Harry Nicholls, Chairman, amount to raise $150.00; East Jordan with Supt. M. R. Keyworth, (Chairman of woman's division to be supplied), amount to raise $150; Boyne City with Dr. J. R. Furman and Mrs. J. M. Harris, amount to raise $150.00; Boyne Falls with E. S. Stock, (Chairman of women's division to be supplied), amount to raise $50.00.

One of the big features of this Memorial Campaign and one that will appeal to the school boy and girl, is the giving of from five cents and more of their present funds for a Memorial that will perpetuate the memory of our popular National hero. It is understood that pupil thus giving and by handing in his or her name, will get a certificate from headquarters in New York City. Miss May L. Stewart, County School Commissioner, will have charge of this campaign.

During this campaign, it is the expressed wish that everyone will contribute to this fund for memorials to the Great American and that every cent obtained in this campaign will be used in carrying out these plans.

FARMERS QUESTION VALUE OF OAT CROP.

As a result of the unusually light Michigan oat crop this year, the lowest since 1907, according to U. S. Department of Agriculture estimates, many farmers of the State are questioning the value of oats as a crop. The yield this year in Michigan is reported as 24.3 bushels per acre. During only two other years of the last fifty has the crop been reported this low in the State, and the average is far above this year's yield.

"Many farmers who are keeping cost of production figures will undoubtedly figure this year's crop as a loss", says C. H. Graves, farm management specialist at the Michigan Agricultural College. "It is a mistake, however, for them to condemn oats as a crop for this reason. In making cost of production studies the farmer must either consider his entire rotation for a single year, or else consider any single crop in the light of yields for several years.

"Oats, when averaged over any ten year period of the last fifty years, are found to be a profitable crop in Michigan, and no farmer should condemn them on the strength of this year's showing. Farming, unlike other industries, cannot be figured on the basis of a single season. The presence of an uncontrollable factor, the weather, demands a period that will show averages."

IS THERE ANYTHING WORSE THAN THE "FLU"?

Which do you think is worse? The occasional deluge that wipes out a town and leaves its sad memory behind it? Or the steady, black hand of death that takes one here, one there, and continues to awake in our minds the sadness and the suffering of the world? Which is the greater problem in the world today? The swift vengeance of diphtheria or small pox, or the slow trail of the great, white plague? Do you dread most the return of the flu or the awful continuation of the most terrible of diseases—the social disease which men scoff at and call a slight cold? If you could choose the fighting chance at venereal or influenza, which would you attack? We are too near the flu to give our answers and the public knows too little of the blindness, the operations, the epilepsy, the feeble-mindedness as a result of venereal disease to rightly take a stand in open opposition.

There are many who have asked if the Red Cross Nurse would arrive in time to assist in fighting the influenza epidemic should there be a recurring wave of this disease. We must first raise the funds, but this the Red Cross does know. There has been suffering ever since the world began; there is suffering now, needless suffering. There always will be suffering, but what the Red Cross wishes to do is to diminish to the least possible degree all needless suffering, all unnecessary deaths. The Peace Program of the International Red Cross includes suffering from all causes. The success of this program is contingent upon funds enough money to really do the things that it knows should be done. The Red Cross of this county believes that the best beginning can be made by the employment of a Public Health Nurse.

H. S. AGRICULTURAL DEPTS. MAKE TRIP AROUND PINE LAKE.

In spite of the rather threatening weather conditions the entire Agricultural Departments of Boyne City and East Jordan made a trip around Pine Lake Friday. The start was delayed somewhat owing to a shortage of machines, but this condition was soon remedied and the start was made.

At East Jordan the Agricultural Department there fell in the procession, and the first stop was made at the "Evelyn Orchards", Prof. L. H. Taft's farm near Ironton.

When the manager of the orchards started explaining the method of packing apples for shipment, and opened some baskets to show how bruising of fruit was prevented there were some sixty or seventy students gathered in the packing house, and it was necessary for him to stand on a barrel of apples so that they could see the shape of the pack. To show that the quality was as good as the appearance, the manager opened a bushel of Famous (Snow Apples), and treated the entire assembly. From the packing house the students went to the orchards and observed some seedling trees, and an orchard under a sod cultivation as contrasted with one under clean cultivation. Methods of preventing trees from breaking down under overloading by wiring the crotches was also explained, as well as various types of cover cropping.

The next stop was made at the Loeb Farms, where the manager gave the students permission to go where they wished. A great deal of interest was shown by all the students in the magnificent Belgian horses, and much time was spent looking over the herds of pure bred Holsteins.

The next stop was made at the Coulter Farm near Charlevoix where some pure bred Jerseys were observed. At this place the girls were entertained by Mrs. Culter with butter-making on a modern farm. The girls evinced a great deal of interest in the electrically operated churn, cream separator, and other dairy equipment. The interest shown speaks well for the chances of our Agricultural boys of the future. This farm is also the home of the Charlevoix dent corn that has attracted so much attention among the farmers of the county.

Owing to continued rainy weather no attempts were made at further stops, and the return trip to Boyne City was made without mishap, save for a little minor tire trouble, the people arriving there about four o'clock.

In spite of the adverse weather conditions, the trip was very successful, it being the first event of this nature that has been arranged in this county, or in any county in the state, as far as

The Roosevelt Memorial

The Roosevelt Memorial Association is a non-partisan organization of men from all parts of the United States, who are raising a $5,000,000 Roosevelt Memorial Fund.

This fund is to be used (1st) To make Roosevelt's home at Sangamore Hill a National shrine, the same as Mt. Vernon, (2nd) To promote Americanism, so that Americanism will triumph over Bolshevism and other non-American doctrines. Even those who disagreed with Roosevelt, now admit that he was wholly, truly, and sincerely an American and that right now there needs to be a revival of the spirit of Americanism such as he advocated.

East Jordan's quota of this $5,000,000 is only $150. The campaign to raise this amount will begin on Oct. 20th and close on Oct. 27th. Every man and woman, every boy and girl in East Jordan is asked to give something. This is a privilege and everybody should give something toward a movement that is so truly American.

Only $150 are needed. It can be raised in a short time. But everybody ought to contribute to this and so the privilege is extended to all.

Join the Roosevelt Memorial Association by making a small contribution and thereby feel that you have done something to foster Americanism.

can be ascertained, in which the Agricultural Depts. of two thriving high schools co-operated to give the pupils a trip that would show them some farms that have attracted statewide interest.—Boyne City Journal.

GIANT "BEANS" ARE SAID TO BE FRAUD.

That the so-called "Giant Beans" which have been grown extensively in Michigan during the last two years, particularly by city gardeners, are not beans at all, being in reality gourds is the startling information sent out by the Botany Department of the Michigan Agricultural College.

Some of these 'beans' have been produced in Detroit that are more than a yard long and weigh 20 pounds", declares Dr. E. A. Bessey of M. A. C. "Growers all over the State are vying with each other to see who can produce the largest specimens, and apparently they think that they are turning out record beans."

"There are hundreds of types of gourds, some round and some long. The latter are often called snake gourds. Some enterprising seedsmen with a large supply of gourd seed of this latter type on hand conceived the idea of disposing of it at a handsome profit. Accordingly the papers were flooded last spring, as well as in 1918, with advertisements of "Giant Butter Bean", "New Guinea Butter Bean", etc. This is a fraud, since these are not beans at all, but gourds, closely related to pumpkin, squash, etc.

"When full grown the large fruits are practically valueless in this country. When young, they are edible and taste much like summer squash. It is questionable, however, whether it pays one to grow these things except as curiosities."

If you can be a politician without becoming a hypocrite, you may become a statesman.

Too many friends are cumbersome, but a few are imperative in every normal man's life.

If you can chuckle over the pompous acts of small men instead of being vexed by them, that is the best indication that you are not one of them.

IN MEMORIAM

THEODORE ROOSEVELT

JOHN HOSLER PIONEER RESIDENT PASSES AWAY.

John Hosler, Sr., passed away at his home in this city, Wednesday, Oct. 8th, following an extended illness.

Deceased was born March 12th, 1857, at DeKalb, N. Y., his parents being Mr. and Mrs. William Hosler. He came with his parents to Michigan in 1869 who took up a homestead in Echo township, Antrim County that year.

In 1883 he was united in marriage to Catherine McKay of Echo township, Rev. John Hackett of that township being the officiating clergyman.

Deceased leaves, besides the wife, the following sons and daughters: John R., Edward and Dewey Hosler and Mrs. Barbara Wells of this city; Wm. H. Hosler of Cessford, Alberta, and Mrs. Sadie Davis of Seattle, Wash. Another son, Clifford, was killed in action in France.

Funeral services were held Saturday afternoon from the Methodist Church conducted by the pastor, Rev. M. E. Hoyt. Interment at the Moorehouse Cemetery.

WHY A PUBLIC HEALTH NURSE?

Whenever any board of directors or public commission act upon a new proposition, or adopt a new ruling, the public rightfully asks the question, "Why?" It is right that they should ask this question and the Board of Directors of the Charlevoix County Chapter of the American Red Cross gladly submit to the people a few of their reasons for recommending a Public Health Nurse for Charlevoix County.

It is well known that doctors are busy men, but it has been found in epidemics such as we had last fall that a general public advisor was needed such as can give sane advice for health rules and organize the health forces of the county. To such a public servant, the busy health officers could turn for help and enlist her service as deputy health officer in township or county.

Teachers have found that their most troublesome truancy problems are not those of stubborn or ignorant parents, but those from homes where disease and poverty make attendance impossible or undesirable. The nurse could best investigate such cases and recommend the course to be pursued. Knowing both the health and school laws, she would be able in many cases to effect the desired solution.

It is well known in probate courts that delinquency is the result of physical conditions which have been unfavorable for normal development. Crime and disease are but the product of undernourishment or neglected illness. The nurse should organize the home and school forces to detect all possible preliminary stages, to save us the disgrace and expence of crime in the coming and in the present generation.

These are but a few of the reasons why the Charlevoix County Red Cross wants a Public Health Nurse for Charlevoix County. The National Red Cross recommends that we do this, and we submit it to the people contingent upon the success of the November drive for membership and funds.

Rural Carriers Going Down

Will Have Offices in Basement of Postoffice Building.

Postoffice Inspector Murphy was here from Grand Rapids, Thursday, closing up some final matters relative to a renewal of the lease of the present quarters. F. A. Kenyon, owner of the building, was also in town from Mackinac Island, and together with Postmaster Hudkins plans were made to place the Rural Carriers' offices in the basement of the building. The Carriers' department will be located beneath the sorting tables in the post-office and mail for the routes will be sent down to the carriers in chutes onto tables where it will be sorted by them. This is in line with many other postoffices in which the Carriers have a separate room. It will give more floor space for handling the mails and expedite the sorting. The Carriers will have a room by themselves and have access to their office at all times.

School Commissioner's Notes

May L. Stewart, Commissioner

When is the Teachers' Institute?

There has been no question asked of the Commissioner more frequently during the past two weeks than the simple question: "When is the Institute to be held this year?" Teachers and patrons are alike anxious to know when this event is to be held. It has always been a big event, attended by every wide-awake teacher in the county, and by many interested patrons of our schools. We want a fall institute. For many years we held successful winter institutes but last year's October meeting was so much superior to all others that this is the favored date.

In answer to this question, the Com'r can only say that she, too, wants a fall institute. Last August Supt. Johnson wrote asking what date we wished him to appoint for our Institute, and was promptly told that the first week of October was the date desired. He said he would do all in his power to arrange this date for us and agreed to have Supt. Corson of Pennsylvania with us, and to appoint Miss Perrin of Detroit for recreation work.

Since then, although the Commissioner has written several times, no further plans or explanation have been received. It is possible that the speaker could not come at the desired date, and that we shall hear from Mr. Johnson as soon as he can arrange a schedule with the outside speakers. Of course it is true that our State Teachers Association wishes county institutes at least two weeks away from their date—the 29-30th—in order that they may have the big crowd that their program would warrant. There are only a few of our teachers, however, who go to the state meeting, and these would gladly attend the county institute the following week if such a date were arranged for. We are so far away from the big southern cities that our plans should not interfere with their plans and our city superintendents are getting anxious for our local meeting.

Miss Stewart is again writing to the state urging the earliest date possible and will report what success awaits us in our efforts.

BARES SECRETS OF SLEEP SICKNESS

Chicago Man Recovers and Tells His Experiences.

SYMPTOMS OF THE MALADY

Persistent Series of Illusions—During Periods of Wakefulness One of the Peculiarities of Disease—Beach, Flowers, Castles and Sea Mark Six Months' Visions of Chicago Legislator—Under Sleep Spell.

After hovering under death's wing for more than six months as a victim of sleeping sickness, former Alderman Theodore K. Long, now a member of the Illinois legislature, returned to Chicago from Battle Creek, Mich., and told for the first time the symptoms of the strange malady.

"Less than 10 per cent of those who contract sleeping sickness live to tell their experience," he said.

The principal symptom of sleeping sickness he described as a persistent series of illusions during periods of wakefulness.

Beaches—Chimes—Flowers.

"I imagined I was at the seaside, and could see hundreds of men and women in bathing," he continued. "Of course, I had other illusions, but beach scenes predominated.

"Sometimes I could hear the ringing of what seemed a million cathedral chimes.

"Again, I saw wonderful examples of architecture, castles, battlements.

"Sometimes I wandered through fields of flowers, but, curiously, they had no perfume.

"And no matter what I saw, I could always hear the sound of the surf as it broke against the shore, and sooner or later I found myself on the beach again.

"In Springfield about seven months ago, while I was engaged in legislative work, I first noticed my health was not normal.

"I suffered from an intolerable languor.

Under a Spell of Sleep.

"Try as I would I could not resist the desire to go to sleep.

"I would be compelled to go to bed at any time of day the spells struck me, and I would sleep from 12 to 14 hours.

"When I awoke I would not be rested, but felt as though I had done a hard day's work.

"Finally I was compelled to give up my official duties and come to Chicago. I went to St. Luke's hospital, where my case proved a riddle to attending physicians.

"Finally it was diagnosed as encephalitis, or African sleeping sickness, and I was confined to bed for 14 weeks. It is a direct effect of influenza, and I have no doubt the germs spread by the tsetse fly of Africa in some manner have found their way to this country.

"After suffering from influenza, the body is especially subject to attack by the sleeping sickness germ."

DO NOT WANT LICENSING BILLS

Farmers, Stockmen and Merchants Oppose Packer Legislation at Washington.

Representing a diversity of interests and including farmers, feeders, retail butchers and produce dealers, fully a thousand individuals have made their way to Washington to enter their protests against the packer licensing plan now in hearing before the senate agriculture committee.

Far from solving in any measure the high cost of living, the proposed legislation if passed would be a dangerous experiment for everyone, is the consensus of opinion held by these witnesses.

"We've had government control of railroads and telephones and telegraphs until we're plumb worn out, and we don't want any more," W. P. Carpenter, stock feeder of Tarkio, Mo., told the committee. "I'm in favor of the man who can produce the cheapest going ahead as far as he can. That's the way to cut down the cost of living."

That the packers dominated the stock markets was an idea scouted by testifying stock feeders, who said they found the stock yards places of keen competition.

Taking away the packers' refrigerator cars was as reasonable as taking away their butcher knives, was the conviction expressed by J. P. Lynch, another feeder from Tarkio.

The concern of stockmen and butchers who fear that hampering the packers will only result in disrupting the meat industry without benefit to anyone, was not the sole interest displayed at the hearing. Business men throughout the country are strongly against the licensing feature which would establish a precedent for bringing government control and politics into the conduct of all manner of business.

Many business organizations have expressed themselves formally, through resolutions, as against the principle of bringing business under government interference of the kind proposed in the Kenyon and Kendrick bills.

In speaking for the chamber of commerce of Moultrie, Ga., C. T. Caldwell said: "We've got Swift & Co. down there, and they've helped more than anything else to get our farmers to diversify. The live stock business needs their national distribution."

THE PACKERS AND REFRIGERATOR CARS

Whether refrigerator cars should be owned by the railroads or by the packers—a point to be determined by legislation now pending in Washington—may seem to be a question rather remote from the interests of the average person. But, inasmuch as these "ice boxes on wheels," as one of the packers terms them, are the conveyances which bring our beefsteak to town, we may assume that we have a certain concern about them. If they have anything to do with the price of the beefsteak our concern is a deep one.

It is maintained by some that these cars give the packers who now own them an unfair advantage over competitors. This is stoutly denied by the packers, who offer as proof the fact that they pay the same freight rates as any shipper; and they assert that the only advantage they enjoy is in being able to get enough cars for their needs by furnishing them themselves instead of depending upon the railroads to do so. In this they are backed up by a report of the Interstate Commerce Commission, made after an investigation of all privately owned cars, to the effect that there were no unfair practices and that a radical change would adversely affect both shippers and the public.

While not opposing, in principle, railroad ownership of refrigerator cars, the packers maintain that there are not enough of these cars to go around and that the legislation in question makes no provision for insuring that the railroads shall furnish them in sufficient number. On the other hand, to pool their cars and take chances of getting what happened to be available, would seriously handicap the distribution of their perishable meat products. The stream of shipments from the packing plants would be blocked, which in turn would block the buying of live stock, and the industry, which is founded on a basis of rapid distribution, would be badly muddled.

In these contentions pro and con, there are three parties whose interests are at stake—the packers, their competitors and the public. Only one of these parties could gain a possible advantage if the packers' cars were taken away from them, viz, the packers' competitors. The cars are now admittedly handled on an economic and efficient basis, and no change is justified unless unfairness is definitely and absolutely proved—which would be in absolute contradiction to the report that the Interstate Commerce Commission has already rendered on the subject. The public would pay the bill for inefficiency in the packing industry, and it has no desire to pay this bill in order to help a few of the packers' competitors.

DAPPER DR. OF 81 YEARS IS NABBED

Old Man French Tells Chicago Police of Decline of Pick-pocket Game.

Two aged men, with a combined police record 106 years long, stepped nimbly into the detective bureau in Chicago beside Detective Sergeants Tony McSwiggan and Charles McShane and waved a cheery greeting to the desk sergeant.

"Well I'll be darned if it ain't Old Man French," said that enthroned upholder of the law to the elder of the pair, a gentle, likeable little old man with snowy hair, inconspicuously dressed as fashionably as a gay young blade.

"I'll say it's Old Man French," replied the wearer of the checked suit, shoving forward a slender, supple hand that has spent 82 years delving into other people's pockets, "and still able to go a few if he is eighty-one years old. Let me introduce the Kid here. Perhaps you don't know him as well as you do me."

The "Kid," known less notoriously than the other to the annals of crime as "Kid" Adams, stepped forward, a stocky, pudgy man, sixty-five years old, with iron-gray hair.

"Where d'ye think we found 'em?" asked McSwiggan. "Out at the Mardi Gras at Riverview kickin' around in the crowd as sly as a couple o' eight-year-old dips."

"But they haven't a thing on us," said French, "because we hadn't got started yet. The Kid's kind of a slow worker. He ain't got my speed, I'll never get too old for this graft game, and I've put in some time, too, as a heeler, you know, playin' the banks."

"But the game ain't like it used to be when you could get on a Broadway car in N'York and bang a super under a newspaper. I've been to Europe several times with Barnum's circus—knew old Phineas T. well—and cleaned up on them foreign boobies crowdin' the sidewalks. And I know all about crowds to get into and crowds to stay clear of, and I told the Kid this Riverview bunch were pikers."

INDIANS PURCHASE AIRPLANE

Even the life of an airplane drummer is filled with surprises. Three gaily bedecked Indians shuffled into the salesroom of a Kansas City airplane distributor, saying:

"We come buy airplane." The airplane drummer took the trio to a landing field south of the city. A big yellow ship was inspected. Finally one Indian said:

"Got brother. He fly. He not like yellow ship."

"That's all we got," replied the salesman.

"No paint him?"

"Too much trouble."

From a pocket in a leather coat worn beneath a blanket the Indian drew a huge canvas bag and poured the contents of the bag on a blanket—$8,000.

"You bet we paint," the drummer finally was able to say. And the three Cherokee Indians, newly rich through Oklahoma oil land holdings, returned to their home. A red airplane will be flying over Oklahoma in a few days.

Frenchman, Freed by Kaiser on Promise to Return, Went Back.

Raoul Doridot, a soldier who committed suicide recently at Moulins, France, was the hero of a strange adventure. The emperor granted the request with the proviso that Doridot give his word of honor to return to camp when the object of his journey was accomplished. Arriving at Besancon, he was held by the French authorities. While he was detained his mother died.

The voyage to Moulins being now without object, Doridot returned to Germany and presented himself at the camp.

"I never expected to see you again," said the commandant.

"The word of a French soldier is worth more than a scrap of paper," responded Doridot.

PEOPLE HELPED WASHINGTON

Supplied Ammunition With Which Continental Army Forced British to Evacuate Boston—Islands Discovered as Result of Shipwreck.

Washington, D. C.—"The Bermuda Islands suggest the adventures of Robinson Crusoe in their colonization and present in their later chronology a curious parallel to United States history, with the events consistently predated by a number of years."

With this statement the National Geographic society prefaces a bulletin on the Bermudas, a principal group of the British West Indies, which some Englishmen suggest should be ceded to the United States in part payment of the American war loans to Great Britain.

"The Robinson Crusoe comparison obtrudes because the islands were discovered and later settled as the direct result of shipwrecks, and the settlers had to build themselves a bark to set sail again," the bulletin continues.

"As for the anticipation of American history, on a miniature scale, it may be noted that the colonization took place seven years before the Pilgrims landed at Plymouth, Mass.; that witches were burned, Quakers were persecuted and miscreants were ducked before similar occurrences are recorded in New England, and that slavery was abolished in 1834. The Bermudians protested long before 1776 against the mother country's rule, until the island prisons were over full, but relief came, in their case, not through a declaration of freedom but by the accession of Cromwell.

Helped to Start Revolution. "But the essential point of contact of the American with the Bermudians arises from the all-but-forgotten fact that while the immortal Lafayette gallantly helped the colonies conclude their war of independence, the Bermudians supplied the ammunition to begin it.

"So acute was the need for powder in 1776 that George Washington wrote to the governor of Rhode Island that 'no quantity of powder, however small, is beneath notice.' Learning that there was a store in Bermuda, and that the islanders were anxious to have the embargo lifted upon shipment of food supplies from the colonies, Washington addressed a letter to the people of the island, who had shown themselves sympathetic with the American Revolution, promising them ample supply of provisions and 'every other mark of affection and friendship, which the grateful citizens of a free country can bestow upon its brethren and benefactors if they would make this ammunition available for the Continental army.

"It so happened that the powder had been procured before the letter was delivered, and with it the Continental army compelled the British to evacuate Boston.

A Winthrop Joined Tories. "Not only the sale of powder but the fact that Bermuda allowed the colonies to have salt, so incensed the governor of Bermuda that he upbraided the citizens for treason, and feeling ran so high that he was removed. His successor was a native of Salem, Mass., whose loyalty to the mother country was such that he gave up large estates in the colonies rather than join the revolutionists. He was connected, both by blood and by marriage, with the Winthrop family. Under his rule the island's full allegiance to England was restored.

"Browne was succeeded by Henry Hamilton, during whose administration the town of Hamilton was founded and named for him. This town today is the seat of the island government. It has a population of less than 3,000.

"Hamilton is on Main Island, or Bermuda, while St. George, the former capital, is on the island of the same name. There are more than 300 small islands in the Bermuda group, of which only a score are inhabited. The total population of the islands in 1916 was little over 20,000, of whom about one-third were white. Bermuda suffered during the war by the cessation of the American tourist patronage, which had doubled the entire island population in preceding seasons.

"The Bermudas attracted visitors because of their mild climate, which knew no frosts, and by their scenic beauty.

"Juan Bermudez, sailing from Spain to Cuba in 1515 with a cargo of hogs, discovered the islands when a storm blew him to their shores. Apparently he left some of the hogs there, for later visitors found the animals on the island. From him the islands were named, and thus originated the 'hog money,' coins stamped with a hog on one side and a ship on the other, which still are preserved in various collections.

"The islands were settled through the efforts of Sir George Somers, who became impressed with their fertility and beauty during a sojourn enforced by the wrecking of the ship which was carrying him to Virginia."

For hundreds of years the Nile floods have not varied ten days in their arrival.

"LIFE SAVING IS RED CROSSAIM"

ORGANIZATION MUST GO ON

Co-ordination of All Movements to Conserve Humanity and Prevent Disease is After-War Task.

"The efficient organization which the American Red Cross built up to meet the demands of war must not be permitted to slip back into inactivity," said Dr. Livingston Farrand, chairman of the Central Committee of the American Red Cross who is touring the country to place the proposed peace work squarely before the people. His tour was outlined to carry the message into all states as a forerunner of the Third Red Cross Roll Call, to be conducted from Nov. 2 to 11 for 20,000,000 annual memberships and $15,000,000.

Most Diseases Preventable. "The war has accentuated and sharpened our realization that the greatest contributing factor in disturbing the happiness of mankind is the question of physical well-being, the problem of health and disease," Dr. Farrand said. A large portion of the disease of the world is preventable, and the people naturally are looking to organizations that are able to help and guide; that are built on lines that beget confidence.

"The organization best equipped for this purpose is the American Red Cross. States and municipalities must conduct this campaign and the local Red Cross organizations are operating units. For the last ten years leaders in health work have sought an organization capable of co-ordinating the various local activities into a massed movement which would produce results. That organization is the Red Cross.

Nursing Program Developed. Are we not going to take advantage of this opportunity to better humanity? We have here an organization that represents every national interest; that knows no party and no creed; that has attached to it every type of man, woman and child in the United States and we propose to put this energy behind the great movement to co-ordinate and bring together these varied interests so far as possible.

"The biggest activity which the Red Cross has undertaken in this field is the great public nursing program. The entire movement for public health depends upon the adequate development of the public nurse."

LOANS $50,000 TO SOLDIERS. Loans totaling approximately $50,000 have been advanced to about 4,000 disabled soldiers by the American Red Cross for personal uses while these war veterans were adjusting their affairs with the federal board for vocational training. These loans are in no sense looked upon as charity either by the soldiers or the Red Cross, the latter considering this bit of financial assistance a part of its war obligation.

Red Cross Liaison officers are in touch with all the district officers of the vocational board and the public health service. These Red Cross men are able to help the soldiers when the government check miscarries, during the interval between approval for schools and placement in school, when subsistence and transportation are needed by those denied training, and under various other conditions.

PLAN WORLD WAR ON PLAGUE. Twenty-six national Red Cross societies forming the League of Red Cross societies, have opened a united war on disease, famine and disaster in all parts of the world. The league has started its work in Poland, where typhus is raging and threatening to spread over western Europe. A medical commission has been sent to handle the situation there and to report on methods of checking the plague. The roster of the league includes Argentina, Australia, Belgium, Brazil, Canada, China, Cuba, Denmark, France, Great Britain, Greece, Holland, India, Italy, Japan, New Zealand, Norway, Peru, Portugal, Rumania, Serbia, South Africa, Spain, Sweden, the United States and Venezuela.

WANTED. One million volunteers to enlist with the American Red Cross for the Third Roll Call, November 2-11, and enroll annual members. The Red Cross needs $15,000,000 to complete its remaining war work and for a comprehensive peace program. The Red Cross needs 20,000,000 members to maintain its present high standard of organization. The Red Cross needs YOU. ENLIST. Your chapter is your recruiting station.

Offered His Friend Choice of Nice Jail.

Kansas City.—A certain saloonkeeper entered the office of Sam Hargus, assistant United States district attorney, here, and explained that he wanted to know if he could sell some liquor with his 2.75 per cent beer. Others were getting away with it, he declared, and he wanted to know if he could.

"How far would I get?" he asked.

"Well," replied Mr. Hargus, "seeing that you are an old friend I think I can fix you up—so you could get your choice of any jail in the Western district of Missouri. We have some pretty fine ones; some say they have never seen better."

"I'll stick to my near per cent beer," replied the saloonkeeper as he hurriedly left.

KILLS MORE THAN WAR

Tuberculosis Claims 150,000 Victims a Year.

Survey Indicates 2,000,000 Unsuspected Sufferers From Disease in Nation.

New York.—A survey of the country shows the United States is face to face with a condition more menacing to its people than actual warfare, according to the report of the executive committee of the National Tuberculosis association.

The survey shows an annual death rate from tuberculosis in the United States of 150,000, and more than 1,000,000 active cases of the disease in the nation.

To combat and prevent the spread of the disease, an intensive national campaign is necessary, it was asserted. Funds for the campaign will be sought by a ten-day sale of Red Cross seals, beginning December 1. The total of the several state budgets will be more than $8,500,000.

During the discussions, attention was called to the revelations of the war-time medical examination boards, made up largely of members of the association. Official figures were cited, showing that of the men called to the colors, nearly 100,000 were tuberculous.

It was pointed out that the death rate of 150,000 a year from one preventable disease means the sacrifice of more lives than the United States army lost in the year it was actively engaged in the war.

BRITISH SELL WAR STORES

Government Offers to the Public Immense Quantity of Goods and Factory Plants.

Washington.—The British government is offering at public sale, either by auctions or bid from private parties, an enormous amount of goods, stores and all kinds of property accumulated in the course of the war and now held in quantities far beyond the needs in time of peace.

A special publication known as "Surplus," copies of which have been received here, show that this property includes whole factories fully equipped for manufacturing all kinds of commodities.

An effort is being made to dispose of much of this property abroad and a special bureau has been established in London to interest export houses.

JUST A MATTER OF MONEY

Ontario Town Would Pay for American Coal in Own Currency.

Windsor, Ont.—Orders placed by Mayor Winter with a United States firm for 600 tons of anthracite coal, quoted at $12 a ton, including freight, and expected to be paid for in Canadian money, must now be paid for in United States currency, according to word received here.

The demand for United States money will make about 42 cents difference a ton, the mayor says. The order is held in abeyance until it can be learned whether another American company will accept Canadian money.

Cared for Town Clock.

Bucyrus, O.—Care of the town clock passed out of the hands of the Kehrer family, which has had it for more than fifty years, when George J. Kehrer Jr., was taken ill and had to delegate his task to the court house janitor. About twenty years ago the elder Kehrer died, after tending the clock for thirty years, and the clock stopped. For a month a stranger struggled with it, but it would not run more than forty-eight hours consecutively. Then his son took care of it and ever since the townspeople have set their watches by it.

Prize Fish Yarn of 1919.

Topoka, Kan.—The champion "fish tale" for 1919 was brought to this city by Mr. and Mrs. Paul Lovewell, who returned with their family from Lake Koronis, Minn., where they spent two months.

The family consisting of the parents, two sons and a daughter, caught a total of 168 pike and bass, in addition to pickerels which they did not count. They showed a snapshot with a catch of 40 fish averaging two pounds each.

BULWARK AGAINST WINTER SHORTAGE

Some Facts About Cold Storage and the Charges of Manipulation and Exorbitant Prices.

Once again the subject of cold storage has come into the limelight of public attention; and this time in connection with the nation-wide search after the cause for the high cost of living.

There can be no argument in behalf of hoarding and holding back food supplies for speculative profits. But this is a matter quite apart from the true and legitimate purpose of cold storage; and, unfortunately, because of the much agitation and damaging publicity that have centered about the subject from time to time, the real service performing function of cold storage has been largely obscured.

Laying in Winter Stocks.

City-wise people, and even country-wise people, have long since forgotten, amidst the conveniences of modern life, that there was a time in the history of our country when "laying in a winter's stock" devolved upon each household individually. Today, one does not even need to remember that eggs are not an all-year-around product; that butter is produced in scant amount in the winter, and cheese likewise. Not a few would be completely surprised to know that even meat production has its seasons of scarcity. The buyer for the household in these days simply goes to the store, any day in the year, expecting to find these and similar commodities on the market.

Are Storages Overstocked?

However, we are told that storage stocks of certain commodities are at the present above the normal as compared with this time last year. It has been computed that the combined excess of a number of important foods in cold and dry storage amount to 19 per cent. While on the face of it this looks like undue hoarding of reserves, yet it must be remembered that comparisons with last year are altogether misleading. Demands for a great number of commodities have increased tremendously. Our exports for June were double what they were a year ago, and 40 per cent of these exports were foodstuffs.

Moreover, our reserves last year were inadequate. Those who recall some of the extraordinary prices of certain foods last winter and spring know precisely what it means to have too small holdings in storage. That we are better prepared for next winter than we were for last should not be used as the basis of a wholesale condemnation of our methods of providing for our future wants.

How Prices Are Determined.

Cold storage has been criticised severely as an instrumentality that lends itself easily to the taking of unfair profits. Without a question its ability to extort has been grossly exaggerated. Storage warehouses are scattered throughout all portions of the United States and their contents are owned by thousands of competing firms and individuals. About half the storage space in the country consists of public warehouses that rent space to whoever wants it, either for small lots or big ones. Tabulated figures of the amounts in storage are gathered and disseminated by the government monthly; and the amounts in holding from month to month figured against what should normally be in storage during those months (or the estimated demand) form the basis for prices.

Some Figures on Profits.

But the best information as to profits in the cold storage business consists of actual figures, and such are published regularly by the federal Department of Agriculture. These show, for instance, that in the season of 1915-1916 butter stored in June and July at an average of 26.64 cents a pound, sold from November to March at an average of 27.45 cents a pound, giving a gross profit of 0.81 cents a pound, or scarcely enough to pay for storage and nothing for net profit or interest on investment. In 1916-1917 the gross profit was 7.79 cents a pound, and in 1917-1918 it was 5.98 cents. These gross amounts must cover storage charges and interest on the money tied up for several months before the net profits are arrived at. It is apparent from these figures that storing of foods is an uphill and downhill business with its fat and lean years, and affords an average profit which is not excessive in view of the risks that are run. Figures on storage eggs for 1915-1916 show a net loss of 2.2 cents a dozen; for 1916-1917, an unusually prosperous year, the net profits were 5.54 cents a dozen; and for 1917-1918 there was a net loss of 1.42 cents a dozen.

Extravagant charges of manipulation and control of prices are preposterously absurd in view of these seasons of losses. The ups and down of profits simply indicate the hazards of the game; for the best laid plans of men can not foresee when a warm spell may come which will start the hens to laying, nor, on the other hand, a cold snap that will shut off current production entirely. Year in and year out, as the figures would indicate, the consumer pays but a modest sum for the blessing of cold storage, which takes upon itself, with all risks involved, the task of laying in his winter stores for him.

RED CROSS NEED OF MONEY TOLD

Work Must Be Carried on Across the Waters and in the United States.

PEACE PROGRAM PLANNED

Enrollment is a Vote of Confidence in the Future and an Appreciation of Tasks Accomplished.

The American Red Cross is preparing to launch its third Roll Call, to be held from Nov. 2 to 11, for 20,000,000 annual members and $15,000,000.

The first question that will arise is:

"Why does the Red Cross need money? The war is over?"

National headquarters of the American Red Cross has answered this question, and has outlined graphically the reasons why it is necessary to raise $15,000,000 for its international, national and local work.

In brief the answer is as follows: Because: The actual war work is not completed. The Red Cross cannot lay down its responsibilities to the American soldiers, sailors or marines until everyone of them has been released from service, recovered from illness or wounds or receiving proper care, or back in the place in the world from which the war snatched them.

Because: The American Red Cross is planning to launch a comprehensive program for peace times, designed to prevent the needless waste of human lives through preventable diseases and accidents in America; continue and broaden its home service work and public nursing, first aid, home hygiene and Junior Red Cross activities.

Because: By a recent act of Congress medical, surgical and dietary food supplies valued at $35,000,000 were turned over to the Red Cross by the government, the supplies having been purchased for use with the American forces. These supplies are scattered throughout Europe, many of them far from the places where they are most needed. The prompt and efficient distribution and handling of these supplies means the maintenance of a force of trained workers where the supplies are and where they are most needed.

Because: Pestilence and starvation have gripped many European countries because of the war. These countries are unable to cope with their own difficulties, and the only force organized with facilities capable of stepping into the breach and bringing order from chaos is the Red Cross. Typhus is sapping the man strength of many countries, and the American Red Cross is using every available power to check it.

Because: The Red Cross must be prepared to meet emergencies arising from disasters at home and abroad. The Red Cross membership must be maintained at its present high standard. Every enrollment is a vote of confidence in the past performances of the American Red Cross and a reaffirmation of the belief in the principles for which it has stood in the past and its plans for the future.

The Red Cross, having committed itself to a definite and comprehensive program, cannot turn back, and to go forward it must have as general a membership as possible and ample funds to provide for any contingency.

LOCATES MOTHER AFTER FOUR DAYS IN DESERT SANDS

Four days by camel from Damascus, in a little desert village nestled in the blazing sands, lived the Syrian mother of an American soldier, waiting, yearning for word from her son who had gone to far-off America.

George Hamway, the son, enlisted with the American colors when this country went to war, and fell fighting in the Argonne, leaving to the mother a $5,000 government insurance policy. The address of the mother was vague. She lived in the heart of the desert, four days from Damascus—that was the only address George knew.

The task of finding the mother was given to the Red Cross mission in Palestine, and the search was started immediately. Strange by-paths of that land of mystery—the great desert—were visited by Red Cross workers, and at length the mother was found.

She was taken to Damascus by camel, accompanied by witnesses establishing her identity, and after much palaver it was explained that the American government would make remittances to her which meant comparative affluence for her declining days.

CLUBS TO AID RED CROSS

A series of club days are being arranged by the Red Cross as a forerunner of the Third Roll Call to be conducted from November 2 to 11. Business, commercial, rotary, Kiwanis, advertising, fraternal, woman's and other clubs are being invited to set aside one meeting day to be devoted to the Red Cross.

REMAINS OF HESSIAN CAMP ARE UNEARTHED

Workmen excavating at Broadway between One Hundred and Sixty-ninth and One Hundred and Seventieth streets unearthed, 12 feet below the surface of the lot, the open fireplace and flooring of a house. Reginald F. Bolton and William S. Calder, members of the New York Historical society, who were summoned, declared the ruins to be a section of one of 40 huts used by Hessian soldiers during the Revolutionary war.

Further digging by the workmen, under the supervision of Mr. Bolton, brought to view several gold buttons on which were stamped the Hessian coat of arms. Several bullets were also dug up.

The members of the New York Historical society say that, according to records, some 40 huts, each about 12 feet square, were built on the site, and that further digging will no doubt unearth three rows of the houses. According to Messrs. Bolton and Calder, the huts formed the "General Von Donop Camp," and were occupied by the Hessians until 1779.

The fireplace unearthed is still in good condition, having been made of round cobble stones. Though the flooring of the hut is rotted, the thickness of the boards shows the huts were built carefully and strongly.

"The Memorial History of the City of New York," published in 1892 by the New York History company, tells of an engagement in the vicinity of where the ruins were dug up. Here, according to the history, General Washington fought a bloody battle with General Von Donop's Hessians and a British regiment. The fighting took place along the Hudson and extended far into Harlem Heights, where Washington retired to await fresh troops. It is believed that the Hessians built the huts below an embankment and, hidden by a ledge of rock and brush, established their headquarters.

WOLF FOR HAWK

Hunter Swapped Bounty for Marriage License.

Wilbur Holcomb, a young Holley farmer, traded a gray wolf for a hawk the other afternoon and only had to give County Clerk Russell of Albany, Ore., 50 cents to boot.

The Hawk was of the Holley variety and very rare, in the opinion of Mr. Holcomb. Her name was Lulu G., and she is now Mrs. Wilbur Holcomb. County Clerk Bilyeu tied the nuptial knot.

Mr. Holcomb is something of a hunter as well as a successful soldier in Dan Cupid's regiment. He shot the gray wolf, brought it into the clerk's office, secured the bounty of $2.50 and straightway applied it on a marriage license.

His application was also sent into the state game commission for the larger premium of $20 offered by the state for the extinction of gray wolves in Oregon, and the lone gray wolf may pay part of the honeymoon expenses of the newlyweds.

ASKS EXECUTION OF 14 ELK

California Woman Says They Ravage Vegetable Gardens.

Governor Stephens of California, has been asked to bring about the execution of a herd of 14 elk that have been ravaging the vegetable gardens of Pacific Grove, Cal., for several years. In a letter to the governor, Mrs. L. L. Long says she has appealed to the mayor and other officials without result, and that she carried her plea to Governor Stephens because she was sure there was "some way to get rid of this nuisance."

"The elk," she wrote, "have been ranging on this point of the peninsula for several years, and after the grass dries in the spring they proceed to eat the gardens, fence, or no-fence."

The writer suggested that the herd be killed and fed to the men of the Pacific fleet.

Buy Goods to Help China.

The disposition of the 4,000,000 rubles borrowed by Chinese Mongolia from Russia for the purpose of establishing the finances of the country on a sound basis is now revealed.

A small part of the money was expended upon the purchase of arms, but the greater part went to Russian manufacturers to pay for 10,000 brass images of Buddha.

Must Use Proper Form.

In giving vent to his feelings on his discharge, an old British soldier wrote to his late colonel:

"Sir—After what I have suffered, you can tell the army to go to hell."

In due course he received the following:

"Sir—Any suggestions or inquiries as to movements of troops must be entered on army form 123XYZ, a copy of which I inclose."

The charge tore several bad wounds in the child's abdomen, arm and hand, and she is in serious condition at Cheboygan. However, physicians do not believe the wounds will prove fatal. The brother was working in a potato field and asked his sister to bring him the gun that he might shoot at crows. The child was dragging the gun by the muzzle when it was discharged.

Right now no lake trout are being netted in upper lake waters and Lake Huron and Michigan fishermen are practically idle. Spawning season is on for several weeks and it is likely no commercial fishing will be done until the first week in November. So far work of gathering spawn for the government fish hatcheries has not yet opened but it is believed the work will be well under way by late this week. The great government hatchery at Charlevoix will then get under way and millions of trout and whitefish spawn will be turned into fish fry and put back into the upper lakes next spring early.

HOW TO AVOID BACKACHE AND NERVOUSNESS

Told by Mrs. Lynch From Own Experience.

Providence, R. I.—"I was all run down in health, was nervous, had headaches, my back ached all the time, I was tired and had no ambition for anything. I had taken a number of medicines which did me no good. One day I read about Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and what it had done for women, so I tried it. My nervousness and backache and headaches disappeared. I gained in weight and feel fine, so I can honestly recommend Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound to any woman who is suffering as I was." Mrs. ABELINE B. LYNCH, 100 Plain St., Providence, R. I.

Backache and nervousness are symptoms or nature's warnings, which indicate a functional disturbance or an unhealthy condition which often develops into a more serious ailment. Women in this condition should not continue to drag along without help, but profit by Mrs. Lynch's experience, and try this famous root and herb remedy, Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound—and for special advice write to Lydia E. Pinkham Med. Co., Lynn, Mass.

A good spender is generally a bad lender.
Women may be hard to understand but they're easily fooled when you tell them you understand them.
An ideal father to the modern family is one that make enough money so they can spend as much as their neighbors.

COMB SAGE TEA IN HAIR TO DARKEN IT
It's Grandmother's Recipe to keep her locks Dark, Glossy, Beautiful.
The old-time mixture of Sage Tea and Sulphur for darkening gray, streaked and faded hair is grandmother's recipe, and folks are again using it to keep their hair a good, even color, which is quite sensible, as we are living in an age when a youthful appearance is of the greatest advantage.
Nowadays, though, we don't have the troublesome task of gathering the sage and the mussy mixing at home. All drug stores sell the ready-to-use product, improved by the addition of other ingredients, called "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound." It is very popular because nobody can discover it has been applied. Simply moisten your comb or a soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time; by morning the gray hair disappears, but what delights the ladies with Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound is that, besides beautifully darkening the hair after a few applications, it also produces that soft lustre and appearance of abundance which is so attractive. This ready-to-use preparation is a delightful toilet requisite for those who desire a more youthful appearance. It is not intended for the cure, mitigation or prevention of disease.

RUNAWAY LAD MAKES LIVING BY SWAPPING

Precocious Child Give Police the Slip When First Arrested.

Concord, N. H.—Henry Smith, aged 3, who ran away from the home of Mrs. Crittenden in Bradford, was found in Concord for the second time and has been returned to his home, Chief of Police Dow of Warner, coming to the city for the young boy.
When Smith was first taken into custody he made a getaway from the police station the same evening and for several hours had the police baffled, finally being found in a local garage fast asleep in an automobile.
The youngster made bicycle swapping his chief pastime while here and received money enough from his various transactions with which to buy food and entertain himself. His lodging while in the city was in hammocks, preferably located on rent piazzas, so he states.

The small boy has a record which dates back almost to his cradle. At the age of four he was a stowaway on a fishing smack. At that time his parents lived in Fall River, Mass.
Petty thefts, missing teams and mysterious accidents on the street railway were traced to his door, which brought about the action of the Watch and Ward Society. They sent him to the country.
It is said that on one occasion a whole squad of policemen were pressed into service to make the arrest of the boy when he was but five years of age, the report being received at the police station of a Massachusetts city that burglars were rifling the residences of prominent people. The "close in" resulted in catching the five-year-old busy-picking what he wanted by the light of a flashlight which he was carrying.

SCOUT LEADER WILL STUDY MOVEMENT ABROAD

Father Hawe, an effective worker among Catholic Scouts, has for the main part of his mission abroad the study of scouting in England and Ireland. He will make a careful survey of the situation there and will bring back a fund of information which will be used in connection with his own scout work in this country.

TOT TESTS FREEDOM OF SEAS

Nationality of Child Born Aboard Ship is a Question.
The first to try out the freedom of the seas is a little blue-eyed baby boy. He came to this planet on board a weather-beaten old Norwegian whaler in mid-Atlantic. The result is the mother and father, who already have five children, are afraid the little newcomer is in law a Norwegian.
There was no doctor on board and Mrs. Creece, the mother, was the only woman. Captain Johannesen, a kindly old Norwegian, looked after the baby throughout its early days, even giving it a bath, much to the delight of Mrs. Creece, who said she couldn't have done it better herself.
Father is now running round London trying to find out the nationality of his newly born. He hopes it's British, so as to keep in line with the rest of the family.

Must Learn to Laugh With God.
"Since the armistice the world has been one big union of mutinous nerves," said President Hough of Northwestern University, Chicago, speaking at the Mansion House, London, at a reception in his honor. He added: "One of the greatest assets of the Christian religion is a sense of humor. If we refuse to take our nerves seriously. We should learn what keeps God Almighty steady, for even he who sits in the heavens laughs."

Hopes Women Will Adopt This Habit As Well As Men
Glass of hot water each morning helps us look and feel clean, sweet, fresh.

Happy, bright, alert, vigorous and vivacious—a good clear skin, a natural, rosy complexion and freedom from illness are assured only by clean, healthy blood. If only every woman and likewise every man could realize the wonders of the morning inside bath, what a gratifying change would take place.

Instead of the thousands of sickly, anemic-looking men, women and girls with pasty or muddy complexions; instead of the multitudes of "nerve wrecks," "rundowns," "brain fags" and pessimists we should see a virile, optimistic throng of rosy-cheeked people everywhere.

An inside bath is had by drinking, each morning before breakfast, a glass of real hot water with a teaspoonful of limestone phosphate in it to wash from the stomach, liver, kidneys and ten years of bowels the previous day's indigestible waste, sour fermentations and poisons, thus cleansing, sweetening and freshening the entire alimentary canal before putting more food into the stomach.

"Love Her Only Crime."
Her only crime is that of loving, and she should not be punished for that.
With this statement Judge McMahon of New York suspended sentence on Teresa Cleri, charged with bigamy.
She had defended herself by stating her first marriage was loveless, having been arranged by her parents two years ago, before she left Italy, whereas, when she met Luigi Izzo, she fell in love with him and married him last October, regardless of the law.

Wife Will Quit Smokes.
In answer to a charge of deserting a wife, a man complained at Birmingham, England, that she smoked cigarettes. "What can you do with a woman like that?" he asked. A magistrate suggested that smoking was not a crime. However, the wife said she would give up smoking and the case was adjourned to give the couple an opportunity of settling their differences.

Killed Herself at Sweetheart's Door.
After writing a letter threatening to take her life because her lover had rejected her, Marie Radin, eighteen years old, of Great Falls, Mont., took poison on the steps of her sweetheart's home.

A mother's child never grows up.
A bachelor always pats his friend's offspring on the head and remarks, "Children are great institutions," and then tries to change the subject.

FOREKUNNERS OF SICKNESS.
Indigestion and constipation are the forerunners of half the ills of mankind. When food is properly digested, you are free from biliousness, gas, bloating, sick headache, sour stomach, coated tongue. OPEN NOSTRILS! END A COLD OR CATARRH
How to Get Relief When Head and Nose are Stuffed Up.
Count fifty! Your cold in head or catarrh disappears. Your clogged nostrils will open, the air passages of your head will clear and you can breathe freely. No more snuffling, hawking, mucous discharge, dryness or headache; no struggling for breath at night.
Get a small bottle of Ely's Cream Balm from your druggist and apply a little of this fragrant antiseptic cream in your nostrils. It penetrates through every air passage of the head, soothing and healing the swollen or inflamed mucous membrane, giving you instant relief. Head colds and catarrh yield like magic. Don't stay stuffed-up and miserable. Relief is sure.

JAPAN TO PAY TEACHERS MORE

But Police Forbid Holding of Mass Meeting by Pedagogues in Yokohama.

Yokohama—Public school teachers of Japan are insistently demanding an increase in salaries to meet the increased cost of living. The police recently prevented the holding of a mass meeting, called by the primary teachers of Yokohama. All teachers received a circular declaring that with the League of Nations about to be framed, the leading nations were endeavoring to promote the welfare and happiness of mankind. Teachers, therefore, "should assemble to discuss the changing thought of the nations and interests of education." Newspapers announce that the government will raise the teachers salaries.

A thick-headed man always gives thin excuses.

When tempted to use the word "lady," remember that half the women brought into police court on assault and battery charges testify that the fight started because somebody said that one of them was "no lady."

DRINK HOT TEA FOR A BAD COLD
Get a small package of Hamburg Broom Tea at any pharmacy. Take a tablespoonful of the tea, put a cup of boiling water upon it, pour through a sieve and drink a teacup full at any time during the day or before retiring. It is the most effective way to break a cold and cure grip, as it opens the pores of the skin, relieving congestion. Also loosens the bowels, thus driving a cold from the system.
Try it the next time you suffer from a cold or the grip. It is inexpensive and entirely vegetable, therefore safe and harmless.

RUB BACKACHE AND LUMBAGO RIGHT OUT
Rub Pain and Stiffness away with a small bottle of old honest St. Jacobs Liniment
When your back is sore and lame or lumbago, sciatica or rheumatism has you stiffened up, don't suffer! Get a 30 cent bottle of old, honest "St. Jacobs Liniment" at any drug store, pour a little in your hand and rub it right into the pain or ache, and by the time you count fifty, the soreness and lameness is gone.
Don't stay crippled! This soothing, penetrating oil needs to be used only once. It takes the ache and pain right out of your back, and ends the misery. It is magical, yet absolutely harmless and doesn't burn the skin.
Nothing else stops lumbago, sciatica and lame back misery so promptly!

This Poker Player Was Thoroughly Cleaned Out
Cobalt, Kan.—So completely cleaned out was Jean Paul Asselin after a poker game on Third St. here that when he came to R. L. O'Gorman, J. P., to swear out a warrant against a fellow player whom he suspected of stealing his roll, he could not produce the dollar fee demanded. He had to borrow ten cents from Chief of Police Bonville to make up the required sum. Asselin charges that $100 disappeared during his temporary absence from the scene of operations, and he swore a warrant for the arrest of Sam Borlich, known to the police as "Minnesota," accusing him of stealing the money.

MARKS SPOT OF YANKS' LANDING

WALLACE PRAISES FRENCH

President Poincare Urges Both Nations to Guard Against Estrangement—Lafayette Sailed for America From Same Port.

Pointe de Grave, France.—France paid lasting tribute to American loyalty the cornerstone of a monument here commemorating the landing on the spot of the first contingent of American troops in 1917. Speeches by President Poincare and Hugh C. Wallace, the American ambassador, were the features of the exercises, appropriately held on the birthday of Lafayette, who sailed for America from this same port in 1777.

The scene was a brilliant one, numerous detachments of French and American soldiers and sailors and marines assembled among the sandy dunes of the Pointe giving color to the picture. The guard of honor, for instance, was composed of United States marines, many of whom were veterans of the fighting on the Marne in 1918.

Distinguished Gathering.
In addition to Premier Clemenceau, Marshal Foch and other distinguished Frenchmen, numbers of prominent Americans assisted in the ceremony, among them Frank L. Polk, under secretary of state; Gen. Tasker H. Bliss and Brig. Gen. W. D. Connor, now commander of the American forces in France. The French representation included also Marquis de Chambrun, a descendant of Lafayette and a member of the Joffre mission to the United States in 1917; Andre Tardieu, and Deputy Maurice Damour, chairman of the committee in charge of the exercises. A band from the U. S. S. Carola played.

A crowd of some 3,000 witnessed the ceremony.
President Poincare in his speech called to America to continue that close relationship which caused the United States to come to the aid of France.

"In the plains of Picardy, Lorraine and Champagne by the side of 1,400,000 whom the war has mown down," said he, "sleep your Americans whose mothers do not know their tombs. They all sacrificed to the same ideal the French died for."

"Let us bend down over these tombs and listen. It is the same voice which everywhere arises from the depths of the earth. 'We have suffered,' they say, 'in order that the world should become free.' To you now falls the duty to watch that never again may leap up this danger which we have removed. Do not allow France and America to estrange themselves one from the other. Do not draw apart those hands which are now joined. Be on your guard that there shall never be kept between you misunderstandings which sooner or later might be transformed into disagreements."

"Tomorrow no more than yesterday can you dispense with each other. Separated you will quickly be exposed to the offensive return of violence. Side by side the peoples who have won the war will be strong enough to make such war impossible."

Praises Spirit of France.
American Ambassador Wallace said the monument would be to "victory and liberty."
The speaker praised the spirit of France and said that while "many and great are the glories of France there is none that compares with the glory of the Marne."

Ambassador Wallace, after having dwelt upon the part Lafayette had played in the Revolutionary war, said the United States was proud to have had the opportunity to cross the ocean in this case, and that General Pershing had the honor of serving under Marshal Foch. The ambassador said he also considered it a great honor to himself that the opportunity was given him to affirm what was the due of France, which, he declared, must come out of the war with added strength and prestige, as otherwise victory would have been won in vain.

DRUGS EXCITE YOUR KIDNEYS, USE SALTS

DRUGS EXCITE YOUR KIDNEYS, USE SALTS
When your kidneys hurt and your back feels sore, don't get coaxed and proceed to load your stomach with a lot of drugs that excite the kidneys and irritate the entire urinary tract. Keep your kidneys clean like you keep your bowels clean, by flushing them with a mild, harmless salt which removes the body's urinous waste and stimulates them to their normal activity. The function of the kidneys is to filter the blood. In 24 hours they strain from it 600 grains of acid and waste, so we can readily understand the vital importance of keeping the kidneys active.
Drink lots of water—you can't drink too much; also get from any pharmacist about four ounces of Jad Salts; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast each morning for a few days and your kidneys will act fine. This famous salt is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for generations to clean and stimulate clogged kidneys; also to neutralize the acids in uric acid so no longer is a source of irritation, thus ending bladder weakness.
Jad Salts is inexpensive; cannot injure; makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink which everyone should take now and then to keep their kidneys clean and active. Try this, also keep up the water drinking, and no doubt you will wonder what became of your kidney troubles and backache.
