The Northern Michigan base ball league the past summer, was a very successful and entertaining affair, and it is probable that nearly all the clubs that were in it will belong in the 1922 league, with perhaps two or three new ones. Traverse City and Cadillac, it is said, desire to join the coming year. Mancelona made a good record in '21, ending the season in third place, despite the fact that two or three games were lost by poor headwork. Mancelona's team cost $900 and notwithstanding quite a little money was paid out for outside players the club had some funds on the season as well as on the Fair games. It is the plan now to work in more home talent the coming season and thus keep more funds in the treasury.—Mancelona Herald.

Regular meeting of South Lake Lodge No. 180, K. of P., every Wednesday evening at 7:30 sharp. All members urged to be present. Visitors welcome.

ONLY ONE CHARGE AGAINST SMALL

ILLINOIS GOVERNOR FREED ON CHARGES OF THEFT OF STATE MONEY.

CONSPIRACY CHARGE REMAINS

Another Hearing Set for January 7 When Defense Will Argue for Separate Trial.

Waukegan, Ill.—Governor Len Small has been freed of every charge against him except that of conspiring with Lieutenant Governor Fred E. Sterling and Vernon Curtis to defraud the state of $2,000,000 during Mr. Sterling's term as state treasurer.

All charges of embezzlement during his own term as state treasurer were stricken from the record, partly by Judge Claire Edwards and partly by the state, and the court also quashed a charge of operating a confidence game.

Governor Small issued a statement declaring that "what occurred in the circuit court of Lake county will lay bare to the public mind the methods employed and the inspiration causing these indictments."

The date of his trial on the one charge remaining is still uncertain. Judge Edwards, in his decision on the motion to quash the indictments, ordered the governor's trial January 9 on an indictment charging him with embezzlement of $500,000 during the last six months of his term as state treasurer.

State's attorney C. Fred Mortimer, of Sangamon county, and his assistants staged a vigorous fight to bring the governor to trial first on the conspiracy charge, and failing in that, nolleed the embezzlement indictment rather than try it first. James H. Wilkerson, assistant attorney general of Illinois, one of Mr. Mortimer's aids, explained to the court the state's desire to try the conspiracy case first because all the books and records needed in it "had been left in the treasurer's office and not carried away."

The embezzlement indictments, besides charging the governor with misappropriating $400,000 in state interest money, also alleged he had destroyed or carried away many of the records of the treasurer's office.

The next step in the legal battle between the governor and his prosecutors will be staged here Saturday, Jan. 7, when the defense expects to present a motion asking for separate trials for the governor and Mr. Curtis, who are both defendants under the conspiracy charge. Legal jockeying may postpone the actual start of the trial a month or more.

29 HURT IN CAR DERAILMENT

D. U. R. Interurban Topples When it Falls to Slow Up For Curve.

Orion, Mich.—Twenty-nine of the 55 passengers on a D. U. R. interurban, running between Detroit and Flint, were hurt, none of them fatally it was stated by physicians, when the car was derailed a half mile south of this city, Dec. 23.

The car did not slacken speed when it reached Grant's crossing and it was hurled from the track into a telephone pole, snapping it short, the stub penetrating the right side and roof of the car.

Warm Reception for Prince.

Calcutta—The restraint of the "Hartal"—India's "Boycott" against the Prince of Wales—was utterly smashed at a pageant in honor of the British heir to the imperial throne, when tens of thousands gave him an enthusiastic reception. The event was comparable, in its color and success, to the 1911 pageant with which the Prince's father was entertained. There was a brilliant display of fireworks in the evening and the entire city was illuminated.

PROBATE ORDER STATE OF MICHIGAN. The Probate Court for the County of Charlevoix.

True Detective Stories ALL EVIDENCE

Copyright by The Wheeler Syndicate, Inc. D. WEST, head of the prosecution department of the National Association of Credit Men, leaned back in his chair and placed the tips of his fingers of his left hand precisely against the tips of the fingers of his right, a habit that was second-nature to him during the consideration of a difficult problem.

"Why on earth, Edwards, didn't you come to me with this story before? It's too late to help you now. Your stock's gone, your credit ruined, and they've milked you dry."

"The name's familiar," replied the lawyer, "but I don't recall the details."

"Oh, it was the same old game," grunted Elstern. "I got him to come up and talk to you—"

"Exactly," only this time he evidently intends to work the game all for his own. You can't blame him for that, after he's been burned once."

"But," protested Easton, "he can't handle it by himself!"

"That's what I figured," said Elstern. "But, naturally, I didn't put the matter up to him. Things have been pretty dull around here for a while. Why don't you run up and see Edwards? Admit that we didn't do as well for him the first time as we might have, and make him a guarantee of $2,500 on a 40-60 split."

"Right!" snapped the lawyer. "I'll take a run up there tomorrow."

The following afternoon, in the private office of his store, Edwards and Easton thrashed out the details of their former arrangement the lawyer stating that he had come to pay over $5,000, "which had been unexpectedly saved from the wreck."

"Incidentally," he added, "I understand that you won't be here much longer. Going to try the same game yourself?"
