TO DARKEN HAIR APPLY SAGE TEA

Look Young! Bring Back Its Natural Color, Gloss and Attractiveness

Common garden sage brewed into a heavy tea with sulphur added, will turn gray, streaked and faded hair beautifully dark and luxuriant. Just a few applications will prove a revelation if your hair is fading, streaked or gray. Mixing the Sage Tea and Sulphur recipe at home, though, is troublesome. An easier way is to get a bottle of Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound at any drug store all ready for use. This is the old-time recipe improved by the addition of other ingredients.

While wispy, gray, faded hair is not sinful, we all desire to retain our youthful appearance and attractiveness. By darkening your hair with Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound, no one can tell, because it does it so naturally, so evenly. You just dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time; by morning all gray hairs have disappeared, and, after another application or two, your hair becomes beautifully dark, glossy, soft and luxuriant.

FRENCH TROOPS OCCUPY ESSEN

GERMANY'S RICHEST INDUSTRIAL SECTION OF RUHR SEIZED TO ENFORCE REPARATIONS.

U. S. RHINE ARMY ON WAY HOME

American Government Recalls Army of Occupation From Coblenz—Protests French Action.

Essen—Germany's richest industrial section of the Ruhr district is in the hands of the French troops owing to failure of Germans to live up to the stipulations of the treaty of Versailles.

While the occupation is not actually spread over the entire district, its leading city, Essen, is occupied, and the 600,000 inhabitants of the municipality are subject to supervision of soldiers with fixed bayonets and full field equipment.

The Ruhr basin, which now is the center of the world's interest, contains Germany's richest coal fields. It lies at the northern end of the great Rhineland industrial belt. The coal fields flank the Ruhr river, which flows into the Rhine at Ruhrort, 15 miles south of West.

This stream is 150 miles long and furnishes valuable water transport for coal and coke to the German mills and factories at Essen.

Essen, the seat of the great Krupp works, formerly the chief source of Germany's war supplies, lies on the western fringe of the Ruhr district.

The coal syndicate was the first to adopt protective measures before seizure of French troops last week. All their archives, documents, contracts and distribution charts were placed in motor trucks and taken to Geslenkirchen from where they were transported to Hamburg. Banks have taken similar action.

Washington—It is expected that before the end of this week the American detachment stationed at Coblenz will be on their way back to America.

The recall of American troops from Germany is openly proclaimed as a protest of the U. S. government against military occupation of the Ruhr valley by France, in the most forcible and concrete manner open to it.

By this order the government of the United States gives notice it no longer assumes any responsibility, directly or indirectly, for relations that may exist between Germany and any Allied government. Also, notice is given if further trouble develops between Germany and France the latter need not look again to America for support.

Too Much Meat Hurts Kidneys

Take a glass of Salts to Flush Kidneys if Bladder bothers you.

Eating too much meat may produce kidney trouble in some form or other, says a well-known authority, because the uric acid excreted by the kidneys, they become overworked, get sluggish, clog up, and cause all sorts of distress, particularly backache and misery in the kidney region; rheumatic twinges, severe headaches, acid stomach, constipation, torpid liver, sleeplessness, bladder and urinary irritation.

The moment your back hurts or kidneys aren't acting right, or if bladder bothers you, get about four ounces of Jad Salts from any good pharmacy; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys may then act fine. This famous salts is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for generations to flush clogged kidneys and stimulate them to normal activity; also to neutralize the acids in the urine so that it is no longer irritating, thus often ending bladder disorders.

Jad Salts can not injure any one; makes a delightful effervescent lithia water drink which millions of men and women take now and then to help keep the kidneys and urinary organs clean, thus often avoiding serious kidney disorders.
