MR. CROW'S REVENGE

MR. CROW had been watching for a chance to pay Mr. Dog for upsetting his plans that day in the cornfield, when he had barked so loudly that Mr. Man came out with his gun and, before Mr. Crow could fly away, the gun went "Pop!" and greatly upset the nerves of Mr. Crow.

What Mr. Dog was barking about really wasn't on account of Mr. Crow at all. He had not noticed him, for under the stone wall Mr. Dog had seen Mr. Rabbit hop out of his sight and also his reach. But the barks had brought Mr. Man with his gun and, seeing only Mr. Crow, he popped the gun at him.

But this did not matter at all to Mr. Crow. He did not know anything about it, anyway, and now every day he watched Mr. Dog, whenever he happened to see him, to find a way to bother him, if he could.

It was some time after this happened that Mr. Crow, from a telegraph the stone wall and took a look about, so he would be sure of the very spot where the bone was hidden.

In a short time Mr. Crow was at a farm some distance down the road, where there lived Mr. Towser Dog.

Mr. Crow did not care any more for Mr. Towser than he did for any other dog, but he was the one that lived the nearest to the spot where the bone was buried, so he called on him.

Mr. Towser Dog was napping, with his head poked out of his house, when Mr. Crow arrived, and the loud "Caw! Caw!" that he gave made Mr. Towser open his eyes.

"Where is your Master?" inquired Mr. Crow, wishing to be sure he was in no danger before he told his secret to Mr. Towser.

"He has gone off and left me at home," whined Mr. Towser.

"Are you chained?" inquired Mr. Crow.

"Of course I am not chained," replied Mr. Towser, jumping up to show he was free. "Master never chains me. He knows I would not run away. I have the place to guard, don't you see?"

"You would not run away even for a nice bone if you knew where there was one, I suppose," said Mr. Crow, cocking his head.

"Well, I would not say I wouldn't if I was certain where it was," said Mr. Towser.

Mr. Crow told him and off he ran. He found the bone and was back before his master returned, but in the meantime Mr. Crow had a feast in the cornfield, and when he went to bed that night he felt he had done a good day's work.

It was some time after that Mr. Crow, who was on the watch, saw Mr. Dog scratching and digging where he had buried the bone, and acting in the most excited manner because he could not find it.

"Caw, caw," cried Mr. Crow. "The next time you see me in the cornfield perhaps you will not bark and try to get me shot; caw, caw, caw."

But, though Mr. Dog heard him, he did not in the least know what Mr. Crow meant, and that is the way it often happens, that those who work hard to get revenge for some fancied wrong fall as far short of getting it as Mr. Crow did. For what he really wanted was that Mr. Dog should know he was to blame for the bone being gone and Mr. Dog never did know it.

Mr. Crow Told Mr. Towser.

wire where he was sitting, saw Mr. Dog trotting along the road with something in his mouth.

Mr. Crow watched and then he flew over to where Mr. Dog disappeared under a rail fence into the garden, and by the wall on the other side he saw Mr. Dog dig a deep hole and hide in it a very fine-looking bone.

"Stole it, I am sure he did," said Mr. Crow, forgetting that he was one of the worst of thieves himself. But right then Mr. Crow was struck with a thought. He had a plan by which he could pay Mr. Dog for barking that day he was in the cornfield.

Mr. Crow waited until Mr. Dog had the bone buried and the earth nicely covered over it, and Mr. Dog was trotting off home. He then flew over to

"What's in a Name?"
By MILDRED MARSHALL

Facts about your name; its history; meaning; whence it was derived; significance; your lucky day and lucky food!

JULIA

ONE of the oldest and most classical of names is Julia. The fortunate woman who bears it may be assured that famous women of unrevealed centuries have answered to it, for it exceeds Rome in antiquity. Like its masculine counterpart, Julius, it had its origin in the Julian gens that preceded Roman civilization. Various legends are put forth to account for "Julius" and historians differ widely, but the generally accepted theory is that Julius is the diminutive of "Julus," meaning divine, and was evolved in the same manner that Zeus, father of the gods, came to be the Roman Jupiter. If such is the case, Julia may fairly be called a daughter of the gods.

Just as the masculine Julius was famed through Julius Caesar and became hereditary throughout the empire, so the feminine counterpart was accepted as hereditary and was adopted as ornamental in other countries when classical names came into fashion. The "Julie" of Rousseau's "Nouvelle Heloise" made Julie very popular in France, England, Spain and Portugal kept her intact as Julia, but Italy changed her to Giulia, and Russia added the typically Slavic touch of Juliya.

Juliana came into vogue after St. Juliana was beheaded at Nicomedia under Gallienus and her relics were enshrined at Rome and later Brussels. The Normans changed it to Julienne. England received it in the form of Julian and recalls her heraldic and hunting prioresse, Dame Julian Berners. Gillian is also a British derivative, which later became Jill, famed in the nursery rhyme of "Jack and Jill." The name is still used in England.

In Brittany Julia makes her appearance as Sullana, which was the name of the nun-sister of Du Guesclin. She became Juliana in Spain and Julietta, or Jolite, among the French peasantry. Italy calls her Giuliana and later Guilietta, whence Guilietta Capellet, whose mournful story told in Da Porta's novel, was adopted by Shakespeare as Juliet for his immortal "Romeo and Juliet."

According to Vergil, the name of Julia is unadaptable; certainly it belonged to a spirited race, for the Julias of history were not pretty lay figures, but women of power and position. They were quite fearless, due perhaps to the all-masculine quality of their own particular jewel, the jade.

This mysterious green stone is invested with mysticism by the Mohammedans. It is a sacred symbol which represents the secret thoughts of the soul and the essence of happiness and love. Besides, it possesses therapeutic qualities and is much used by the Chinese as a curative. Wednesday is the lucky day of the wearer of jade and 5 is her lucky number.

MEN YOU MAY MARRY

By E. R. PEYSER
Has a Man Like This Proposed to You?

Symptoms: Taller than short, hair a little naturally marcelled, always dieting—nuts and lettuce and then lays off with melancholy notions—then says he'll go on a trip. You never know where to find him, but his relatives do, for he has always "put up" with them (and they wish him!) wherever he goes. He never seems to want to be "on his own." He has very high ideals.

IN FACT
His high ideals are what keeps him low in mind and pocket.

Prescription for bride-to-be:

CHARMING FROCK FROM PARIS

This school frock is charming, simple, in good taste, and warm enough to be comfortable on chill days of early spring, yet loose enough to allow free circulation of air. It is designed to be donned in a minimum of time. The frock is of marine blue wool, embroidered with white "snowflakes."

LIGHTER COLORS FOR TWEEDS

Pale Shades Hold Favor for Town and Country Wear; Delicate Yellows and Grays.

All the new town tweed suits and those for the country, too, are being made in light pale colors. There are no more of those flashing blues and pinks and greens that appeared so numerous. Now the colorings are more subtle, though they are as delicate as can be and bid fair to need much cleaning if any sort of hard wear is given them.

There is a suit in the highest of yellow. It is almost a lemon color. It is made on strictly plain and tailored lines and it gracefully follows the lines of the figure without in the least being called fitted.

Another popular tweed is a steel gray. This is as delicate as can be in coloring, but it does permit of the wearing of colorful and interesting hats. It makes its wearer inconspicuous on the street, while at the same time it succeeds in looking most distinctive.

There is a cream colored suit made only for sports wear, and with that brown stockings and shoes, with a brown scarf, are accenting notes of much interest.

White tweeds for both coats and suits are very much the order of the day. So if you wish to spend your time keeping clean, then have one of them, for at least you will be assured of being smart looking.

NEW NECKWEAR FOR SPRING

Sets of Lingerie Collars and Cuffs, With Deep Berthas in Net and Other Fabrics.

In neckwear, matched sets of lingerie collars and cuffs, with deep berthas in net, in lace or in organdie stand out as the leading features for spring. Plaited stoles on the clerical order also are featured, and are being brought out for wear with the new square-cut neck finish.

Numerous matched sets consisting of wide collars with gauntlet cuffs made of plain linen, of embroidered net, or of organdie, lace trimmed and embroidered with metal, are shown.

A certain revival of interest in the Ascot stock in plique is to be noted. These are endorsed by several of the leading makers for wear with the severe type of tailored suits.

In general, separate neckwear when worn at all, is in white or in deep ecru tints. No demand at all is registered for colored neckwear.

GOWNS FOR THE DEBUTANTE

Laces, Silks, Satins and Velvets Among Charming Soft Fabrics Favored by Misses.

For the debutante the season is one of laces and silks, satins and velvets. She leaves elaborate embroideries and heavy brocades to her older sister, and favors the soft, charming fabrics that are so suited to the debutante type of today. She has learned the values of beauty—that beauty is proportion, and that to dress beautifully is to dress in harmony not only with the season and fashions of the moment, but with one's age and type.

Taffeta is always appropriate and becoming, and this season it is being so much worn that the debutante may have several taffeta frocks in various textures and designs. If she finds that satin enhances her type of loveliness, the debutante will wisely combine it with lace, which brings a freshness to this material.

Becoming Collars.

Upstanding ruffs of taffeta or tulle are seen on many of the newest frocks. This softens the line about the back of the neck and is more flattering than the severe line.

Your Telephone Exchange Manager is directly responsible to you for your telephone service.

We urge you particularly to meet and know him.

Sometimes, there may be little, irritating difficulties with the service that the ordinary trouble report does not seem to quite clear up. In such cases the Telephone Manager will make it a matter of personal attention to see that service is restored to your satisfaction.

But don't wait until then to make his acquaintance. Drop into your telephone office, some day, and meet him. If he is not in, capable representatives will gladly attend your telephone needs. Or leave your card, and the Manager himself will call on you.

The telephone people will give you any information about your own telephone service or about telephone matters in general.

They are animated with just one purpose—their primary and most important business is to serve you.

ICE GORGES CAUSE FLOOD

MISSOURI RIVER RISE DOES MUCH DAMAGE TO WESTERN CITIES.

HUNDREDS ARE MADE HOMELESS

Special Signals to Warn Employees and Residents Along River Front When Danger Point is Reached.

Omaha, Neb.—With reports arriving that the swollen Missouri river is rising as new ice gorges form in the river around Homer, Neb., Omaha industries and residents along the river front here were laying plans for an immediate evacuation.

A special steam whistle signal has been arranged by the Western Smelting and Refining Co. to warn employees of other firms located along the river front that the danger point has been reached.

At the sounding of the signal all employees have been warned to leave their work and seek higher points.

The river will rise higher suddenly, if it does at all, it was said.

Thousands of hogs were killed in the lowlands between Homer and Dakota City, Neb.

Hundreds Homeless
Sioux City, Ia.—Hundreds of students of the bottom lands of Sioux City and the farming country surrounding are homeless, driven from their places of abode by Missouri river ice gorge floods. Three lives are reported lost.

More than 5,000 farmers on the Nebraska and Iowa shores of the Missouri have left their homes, driving their stock to the highlands where they are camping until the flood recedes.

Waters are backing up on the town of Vermillion, South Dakota, as the result of a gorge in the Missouri a few miles below the city.

Damage to farm property in Iowa alone is estimated at $5,000,000.

Lincoln, Neb.—A dispatch from Blair, Neb., last Saturday reported that the huge ice gorge which made many families homeless and flooded much valuable farming lands in Iowa and Nebraska, broke with a loud detonation and swept down the Missouri river.

If They Could Be Harnessed.
It has been estimated that there are always 1,000 thunderstorms in progress in different parts of the world, and that their energy is equal to about 100,000,000 horse-power.

A good deal of the world's trouble is caused by those who, having nothing to say whisper it.
The world cheers fighters, but somewhere there ought to be a little applause for the peacemakers.
If you lie about your worst enemy, no matter how bad he is, you have helped him and hurt yourself.
Nobody ever yet got revenge with out living to regret it, yet people continue to wear away their lives seeking it.
When you think you have "a message to deliver," go to your room, gaze at yourself in the glass and deliver it there.
A lot of men who during the war sang loudly, "Keep the Home Fires Burning," allow their wives to do it in winter.
Some day we're going going to learn how the movie heroines work that palpitating throat business to produce the sob effect, and then we're going to try it on our creditors.
A fisherman went out on the ice east of Holy Island last week and tried to chop a hole in the frozen surface of the lake. He cut down to a depth of sixteen feet and then quit, fearing that the water would come through and drown him in the hole. As It Seemed to Dick.
When Dick's uncle was married the second time—he came to Dick's home on his honeymoon. ### A GOOD FRIEND

A good friend stands by you when in need. East Jordan people tell how Doan's Kidney Pills have stood the test. H. H. Cummings, prop. feed and grain business of Main St., endorsed Doan's many years ago and again confirms the story. Could you ask for more convincing testimony?

"My kidneys were not acting right and I had a dull ache in the small of my back just over my kidneys," says Mr. Cummings. "I used a box of Doan's Kidney Pills and they acted promptly in correcting the action of my kidneys and ridding me of the backache and pains. I know Doan's have been beneficial to me." (Statement given Aug. 3, 1909.)

On April 23, 1920, Mr. Cummings added: "I haven't had any further need of a kidney medicine since Doan's rid me of the trouble years ago. I gladly confirm the statement I made before."

Have Pains?

Aches and pains seem to be the lot of the ordinary mortal. However, these should be taken simply as nature's warning signals that some part of the human machine is out of order. It is a mistake to resign one's self to physical torture when the cause can be removed.

Foley Kidney Pills

tone up weak, inactive, sluggish kidneys and help rid the blood of poisonous waste matter that causes aches and pains in arms and legs, backache, rheumatic pains, sore muscles, stiff or swollen joints.

Isaac B. Turnman, Ashbury Park, N. J., writes: "My back caused me a great deal of trouble for some time. I experienced sharp, shooting pains which were due to the condition of my kidneys. One bottle of Foley Kidney Pills completely relieved me. The pains left my back. I recommend Foley Kidney Pills to my friends."

HITE DRUG COMPANY

Stanic Geography.

No person, either historical or legendary, has more places named after him than the devil. The famous explorer, Captain Amundsen, added to the list during his expedition. He gave us: "Devil's Glacier" and "Devil's Dancing Room."

BE PRETTY! TURN GRAY HAIR DARK

Try Grandmother's Old Favorite Recipe of Sage Tea and Sulphur

Almost everyone knows that Sage Tea and Sulphur, properly compounded, brings back the natural color and lustre to the hair when faded, streaked or gray. Years ago the only way to get this mixture was to make it at home, which is messy and troublesome. Nowadays, by asking at any drug store for "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound," you will get a large bottle of this famous old recipe, improved by the addition of other ingredients, at a small cost.

Don't stay gray! Try it! No one can possibly tell that you darkened your hair, as it does it so naturally and evenly. You dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time; by morning the gray hair disappears, and after another application or two, your hair becomes beautifully dark, glossy and attractive.

PERSONAL TAX IN STATE ASKED

Individual To Be Responsible for Filing His Return.

Lansing—Compulsory listing of personal property by the owner, is called for in the bill introduced in the house of representatives, by Representative Howard E. Baxter, of Grand Rapids.

It is one of the most important tax measures introduced this session, seeking as it does to transfer from the assessing officer to the individual assessed, the responsibility for making the return.

Under the present law, the taxpayer is required to make his disclosure only on demand of the assessing officer.

The Baxter bill would require this disclosure to be sent to the assessing officer, and would penalize negligence in so doing or falsifying of the return.

The Baxter bill would require this disclosure to be sent to the assessing officer, and would penalize negligence in so doing or falsification of the return.

Ohio and Indiana have incorporated into their tax laws provisions of this sort that have placed millions of dollars of taxable personal property, not previously taxed, on the rolls.

As in the case of the federal income tax, the burden of making a true return is placed squarely upon the tax payer.

PIUTE UPRISING IS SQUELCHED

General Round-Up of Tribe Has Been Effected—Chief Wounded.

Mouticello, Utah — Desperately wounded in the leg, "Old Posey," leader of Utah's latest and probably last Indian uprising, was hiding in the rocks with Bishop's oldest boy as the sole remnant of his little band that defied the "razee face" law, and fled with two prisoners, convicted in the San Juan county court.

A general round-up of the Piute tribe has been put into effect. Reports from Bluff stated 20 squaws and papposes had been captured and sent in there.

Cleared of Murder After 25 Years.

Washington—President Harding has granted a pardon to Charnier Tidwell, a half-breed Cherokee Indian, who served 25 years in the Atlanta federal prison for a murder he did not commit, the department of justice announced. Tidwell was finally vindicated by the deathbed confession of the widow of Jim Brown, the man who he was charged with killing. Pardon pleas for Tidwell had been rejected by Presidents Roosevelt, Taft and Wilson.

Noted Athlete Lived Long.

Henry E. Buermeyer, who lived to be eighty-four years old, held more than 50 medals which he had won in athletic events.

COUGH AFFECTS THROAT

"Cold weather always brought on a bad cough that affected my throat. Tried Foley's Honey and Tar and it stopped my cough," writes Mrs. Redmile, Richardson Park, Del. For coughs, colds, croup, throat, chest and bronchial trouble use Foley's Honey and Tar. The largest selling cough medicine in the World. Refuse substitutes.—Hite's Drug Store.

SECT RITES BRANDED IMMORAL

Women's Clubs Throughout State Demand Action—Probe of Colony Asked.

Grand Rapids—Hoarded treasure in the shape of buckets brimful of gold, chests crammed with jewelry and precious stones allegedly "ingathered" from converts in far-flung climes, cash amassed in the office vault to the tune of some $1000,000 at one time, with fresh contributions flowing in as religious fanatics and in some instances, outright lunatics, joined the fold, were laid bare in U. S. District court last Thursday.

Liquor parties in Shiloh, palace of King Benjamin Purnell, in which girl members of the colony were forced to drink so that they became intoxicated, were revealed by Mrs. Emma Rosetta, once a favorite of the cult king.

Mrs. Dorian M. Russell, president of the Michigan Federation of Women's clubs, in an emphatic declaration, Thursday, supported Mrs. William R. Alvord, of Detroit, former president, in a demand for a thorough probe of conditions at the House of David, Benton Harbor.

"I think it would be a mighty good plan for Lansing authorities to take some decisive action in the matter," Mrs. Russell said. "It is futile to stir it up continually, if nothing is going to be done about it."

"Women of Michigan will be up in arms if the disclosures as made in the Grand Rapids trial are not answered in their entirety," or an investigation is not carried on asserted W. H. Quigley, president of the council of Parent-Teachers' associations.

Similar statements were made by Miss Grace A. Van Hoegen, of the League of Women Voters, and Mrs. Ida W. Elson, an official of the Federation of Women's Adult Bible classes.

Oil Fly Ravages Italy.

Italy's plague is the oil fly, which devastates the olive yards. In southern Italy this insect has done $35,000,000 worth of damage within the last 12 years.

Historic Herb House.

It is not widely known, except to the trade, that Madison, Ind., has the largest and perhaps the oldest herb house in the United States, which has existed since 1854. It collects from various parts of the country and distributes to many parts of the world approximately 100 varieties of leaves and roots known in the business as crude drugs.

Joy in Forgiveness.

Many persons cut themselves off from one of the highest and greatest joys in life—the joy of magnanimously forgiving an enemy.—Exchange.

Europe's Growth of Peach Trees.

In England and middle Europe, peach trees are usually trained flat against walls or grown in pots under glass.
