Many Fatalities the Past Week

Northern Michigan Scene of Several Fatal Accidents.

Reven Cole Boyer, 19, son of John Boyer of Boyne City, Saturday left the farm where he had been working and when he failed to return Sunday morning a search was made. His clothing was found on Iloly island about one-half mile from the farm. The searchers deciding that he was drowned, called the Charlevoix coast guard station and Capt. Francis Patridge sent two of his crew. They dragged Sunday and Monday and recovered the body Tuesday morning in shallow water. Coroner F. F. McMillan examined the body and found no signs of foul play. It is believed that Boyer, who was unable to swim, went in bathing and walked over the channel bank. The body will be taken to Boyne City for burial.

Monday was a busy day for accidents in northern Michigan, Charlevoix, Mancelona and Traverse City reporting fatal accidents.

At Charlevoix Bruce Smith, age eight was killed when an ice truck struck him and crushed his skull. He was attempting to alight from the machine when the accident happened.

At Mancelona Michael McElroy, farmer, was killed by lightning as he was preparing to leave his home to attend the funeral of his life-long friend, George H. Fitch, was sexton of the Mancelona cemetery for the last twenty-five years.

At Traverse City, Vern Burgett, age 47, was instantly killed when a Ford truck he was driving struck a Pere Marquette passenger train near Williamsburg. Burgett, a plumber, was enroute to Mancelona to install a furnace. The accident happened at what is called Donald's crossing, high banks almost completely hiding the truck from the users of the highway.

Alpena—John S. O'Brien, creator of the role of Seward, in Abraham Lincoln, and otherwise prominently identified with New York theatrical circles, died suddenly here. O'Brien was 38 years old. He came here several weeks ago to visit at the home of relatives while recovering from a nervous ailment. His body was found on the shore of Thunder Bay.

Owosso—The severe electrical and rain storm which swept Genesee County last week, following a protracted drought and excessive heat, caused one death and did damage to crops, poles and wires, and farm buildings. Frank Kasik, 15 years old, was killed by a bolt as he sat on a metal post in a milk shed near his farm house. His body was badly burned.

Grand Rapids—Through Attorney Rollin R. Winslow, formerly of this city and now of the American consulate at Batavia, Island of Java, the Kent scientific museum will receive a rare aboriginal arsenal, a collection consisting of 70 pieces from New Guinea; 20 from Sumatra and Borneo and a number from Java. This collection was accumulated by Dr. Fay C. Cole, a collector for the Field museum in Chicago.

Caseville—Battling for his life against a frenzy of fear, Lloyd Wightman, 18 years old, sank to his death in the waters of Saginaw bay at Caseville, taking with him Roy Wilson, 21 years old, who attempted to save him. Watching from the shore, 100 feet away, were several hundred persons, called to the scene by the rescue, a few minutes before, of four boys and girls by Wilson. Wightman's father was in the crowd.

Lansing—Hundreds of bus and truck lines, operators of which have failed to apply to the state public utilities commission for a permit to operate will be put out of business and the managers arrested if application for the permits are not filed at once, it was announced at the office of the commission. Thus far only 50 applications have been filed, although it is estimated that there are nearly 1,000 truck and bus lines operating over the highways of the state.

Cassopolis—Former U. S. Senator William Alden Smith, of Grand Rapids, was the principal speaker here at the revival of the Cass County Pioneer picnic. Dedication of the new pioneer cabin on the banks of Stone lake was a feature of the program. Hundreds of visitors from all parts of the country were present. The log cabin, which will serve as a monument to Cass pioneers, was erected under the direction of Charles Harmon, secretary of the county association. Logs were donated from every part of the country.

East Jordan Still 1000%

Defeat Strong Pellston Team by 9 to 2 Score, Sunday.

East Jordan League Base Ball Team, accompanied by many fans, journeyed to Pellston last Sunday and drove one more spike in its pennant-winning campaign by defeating the strong Pellston team by a 9 to 2 score.

This was Jack Gunderson's opening game with East Jordan and he made good by striking out ten men, Pellston only securing four hits off his delivery.

East Jordan base ball boys are developing more and more a first-class base ball machine. They are working together all the time, and each game sees a marked development in fielding and batting. In Sunday's game, only two errors were made, against Pellston's six.

The East Jordan team play a league game at Charlevoix next Sunday. On Wednesday (the Fourth) they again play at Charlevoix.

Bangor—This district, without a drop of rain since May 13, is reporting almost a total failure of its strawberry crop, the largest acreage ever planted by local growers. It is estimated the strawberry crop will be only 25 per cent normal, while raspberries also are showing the effects of the dry weather. Apples, peaches and pears give promise of a good yield, but there will be only about half a crop of cherries.

Plainview—Rising his own life by contact with the high voltage third rail of an interurban line, Robert Scott, 13 years old, saved his eleven-year-old brother from certain death here. The younger boy, Herman, accidentally stepping on the third rail, was knocked unconscious and fell with his leg still in contact with it. Robert dashed to his brother's side, throwing him free of the rail. An application for a national boy scout honor medal has been made by the scout council here.

Lansing—Final preparations have been made at Jackson and Ionia prisons for the removal of between 200 and 300 prisoners to various road camps about the state. Only men will be taken from the prisons who can be trusted and are not regarded as criminals. There are hundreds of men serving time for various offenses who would never again violate any law and who will be perfectly harmless even though given greater liberty than that planned in the road camps, members of the administrative board declared.

NELSON'S STUDIO HAS ADDED A NEW PHOTO-LIGHTING SYSTEM

C. J. Nelson, our local Photographer believes in being abreast of the times in his work, and has recently added a new Beattie's Hollywood Flood-Lite to his already well equipped photograph studio.

This machine is used in conjunction with the regular photo lighting system for the purpose of producing sunshine effects, shadowings of various kinds, and many forms of back line, and opposed lightings. Many beautiful and artistic background compositions are quickly secured by projecting shadows of twigs or other objects onto a plain ground.

This machine is the latest thing in the photographic world, and is being used extensively by film stars. Many samples of the work of this light appear in all the film magazines.

Lansing—There remains $4,121,795 of unpaid state taxes, according to a report made to the state administrative board by Auditor General O. D. Fuller.

South Haven—Francis H. Cady, formerly of South Haven, died at the Masonic home at Alma. He was 98 years old and is said to have been the oldest Mason in Michigan.

East Lansing—Michigan Agricultural College broke ground on the campus last week for the new Union Memorial Building, to cost a half million dollars. Hundreds of returning alumni and students attended the ceremony.

Flint—The guest of honor at the fifty-third annual Garner-Dian family reunion held at London, Ont., was W. A. Garner, of Flint. This 83-year-old member of the clan has not missed a reunion in all the 53 years since its inception.

Saginaw—Major George M. Parker, who has been instructor at the infantry school at Fort Worth, Tex., has been assigned to the command of the Second Michigan district of the Sixth Corps area. He is expected to take up his duties here soon.

St. Ignace—Six skeletons, supposedly those of Indian warriors felled in battle, were discovered by workmen excavating to lay water pipes here. One skull shows effects of a blow. It is believed the bodies of Indians slain in the Massacre of 1649.

Newaygo—The body of James Shortleigh, 60 years old, a wood cutter, was found near his shack, with a deep gash in the right side. Sheriff Noble McKinley said that he believed Shortleigh had cut himself while at work and died before he could summon aid.

Saginaw—A meeting of the home service officials of the American Red Cross for Saginaw and neighboring counties was held last week at Saginaw. Representatives from Bay, Gratiot, Gladwin, Isabella, Genesee, St. Clair, Sanilac, Huron and Tuscola were present.

Ontonagon—Many of the agricultural sections of the upper peninsula are reporting a sharp decrease in potato acreage this year. A large part of last year's crop was fed to stock because of the low prices. Some farmers allowed their crops to rot in the ground to save the cost of digging them.

Bay City—A Lawrence Clements, 39 years old, lumber salesman, died at the steering wheel of his car at Frankenthum junction, last week, while on his way home from a picnic near Flint. With him were his wife and five children. When the car began to swerve he pulled up to the side of the road, stopped the engine and collapsed.

Kalamazoo—The innocent red dug up by excavators in the street along the Kalamazoo college campus is not a weapon of long past sophomore-freshman struggles, as first supposed by mystified collegians, but is the long missing pendulum for an astronomical device stolen from the college laboratory 30 years ago, it was revealed by the authorities.

Petoskey—This city's proposed new charter providing for the revision to the aldermanic type of government was returned by Governor Groesbeck without his approval. In a letter accompanying the returned charter, the governor stated that proceedings leading up to the submission of the question were not taken properly and therefore were invalid. He also noted eight defects in the charter itself.

Lansing—Ten members of the Lansing Eagle scout troop, under the leadership of Scoutmaster M. A. Leach started on an overland journey which will take them to practically every part of the lower peninsula. Leaving here the party will go first to Grand Rapids. From that point the itinerary includes Grand Haven, Muskegon, Ludington, Manistee, Traverse City, Cheboygan and Mackinac Island.

Death Toll on Sunday Large

Lakes and Rivers of the State Claim Fourteen.

Detroit.—Limpid waters of Michigan's lakes and rivers held inviting promise of refreshing coolness to thousands of sweltering persons Sunday. Into their inviting but treacherous embrace 14 of those seeking relief plunged to their deaths, in most cases bringing to a tragic and sorrowful end pleasure trips of families.

In one instance a father died in an effort to rescue his drowning son, who was saved by others. Another victim jestingly shook hands in mock farewell to his fiancée and friends as he prepared to dive. It was his last plunge. Again there was a mother, father and twin brother who in agonized worry kept up a search for a loved youth, it ending in their recovering his dead body.

In still another instance a mother missed her two sons, with whom she had been on an outing, and when she went to seek them found they had drowned.

Tragedy stalked pleasure hunters and four times it reached out its grim hand, picked a victim and snuffed out a life. One was that of a man just starting on his honeymoon. He was killed at the side of his bride. Twenty-two other persons were injured in accidents. An aged woman died under an automobile her daughter had driven over an embankment near Birmingham; another woman fell to death from a roller coaster; a 3-year-old boy was run down on the street.

Denver, Col.—Sumner Curtis, of Washington, representative of the Republican national committee, accompanying President Harding's party on its western trip, was killed, another man was fatally hurt, two were injured seriously when the automobile in which they were making a mountain trek plunged off the road into Bear Creek canyon, 25 miles from Denver, late Sunday.

Thomas French, driver of the car, died on his way to a hospital.

FORECAST DEMAND FOR CROPS

Government Service to Aid Farmers in Planning Programs.

Washington—A forecast of prospective domestic and foreign demand for corn, hogs and wheat, and a resume of other information, to aid farmers in making their program for next fall and winter will be prepared by a conference of agricultural economists and statisticians called by the secretary of agriculture.

The conferees will analyze and interpret the nation-wide pig survey report just completed, and the crop report of the government which will be made July 9 and contain the first announcement of the acreage planted to corn as well as the condition of that crop and of wheat on July 1.

All other late information on those subjects will be made available, and with the facts before them as a basis the conferees will prepare a competitive report on the situation at home and abroad as it affects American agricultural production and the probable domestic and foreign demand for the next six or nine months.

ETNA COOLING; DANGER FADES

Inhabitants Rejoice As Fiery Peril Recedes—New Fissures Appear.

Catania, Italy—For the first time since Mount Etna became violent, a ray of hope dawned for the much tried inhabitants of the volcanic region.

The danger is not yet ended for the crater of the mountain is still belching molten streams of lava and great rocks which threaten the complete destruction of nearby communities, but undoubtedly the violence of the eruption is decreasing.

Only 20 fresh craters opened, indicating that the pressure within the mountain is less.

Experts say it is impossible to prophesy how long Etna will continue active, but they expect a return to more normal conditions shortly.

Meanwhile, though the loss in property has been enormous, the present eruption of Sicily's great mountain of terror has claimed no human victims. The physical injuries have been extremely rare.

Spitz Dog Not Useless.

The Pomeranian sheep dog, better known as the Spitz dog, is bred in most countries as a house pet, small and useless. But in its own home on the shores of the Baltic this dog is the local sheep tender.

UNCLE GEO. H. VANPELT STILL CAMPAIGNING FOR GOOD CONCRETE ROADS

My dear George:—
I am handing you a letter written August 21, 1922, just prior to my going East and which was not mailed. On reading it over, it sounds pretty good to me, hence my sending same to you, at this late date.

"It is a crime to build any other kind of a road than a good concrete road, and we all know it. One man just said to me that there is more stealing and graft going on in building roads than any other one thing in the country. This is especially so of the gravel roads. They plow a deep furrow on the extreme outer edge throwing the dirt inside, thus leaving a strip on the outer edge about two inches deeper and three or four inches wide than in any other place on the road which makes the gravel just that much thicker than it is in any other place, it being the place where the inspector inspects, he expecting that it is the same thickness all the way across the road. For reasons unknown (except for a few perhaps) they seldom test or inspect the main body of the road. He also said (which I think is true) that we can well afford to spend ten or fifteen dollars per mile by digging a strip entirely across the road on a job when it costs six or seven thousand dollars per mile. This test should be made every half mile.

The following is to the Charlevoix County Good Road Association: After six and one-half years persistent work of our association, we have succeeded in getting five and one-half miles of rather rough-surfaced, but excellent quality of concrete road built on the Dixie Highway, and we are now beginning on two and one-half miles more of same to be finished October 1, 1922. Of course, this is very disappointing to me knowing that if the men on the job had done what they should have done and given the contract three years ago to Bates & Rogers of Chicago, that the whole twenty miles between Emmet and Antrim Counties could have been finished that year and at a cost much less than the five and one-half mile cost per mile. Their bid was $25,500 and our Board of Supervisors took the contract for the County because they were told that that price was too much and he could do it for less than nineteen thousand dollars.

Yours truly,
"Uncle" George.

BELGIAN CRISIS HURTS FRANCE

FALL OF THEUNIS MINISTRY EXPECTED TO END SUPPORT OF INVASION PLANS.

DEBT TANGLE REOPENING SEEN

New Reparations Parley, With U. S. As Possible Participant, Is Believed Likely.

Paris—The fall of the Belgian cabinet, leaving France isolated in the Ruhr, overshadowed the receipt of the British note regarding reparations.

With Premier Theunis resigning over the controversy of the French language in the Flemish Ghent university, it is not believed that Belgium will continue its support of the Allied occupation in the Ruhr, thereby strengthening British contention.

Expert opinion here realizes it is almost impossible for any succeeding Belgian cabinet to take part fully in the French viewpoint regarding the Ruhr, and fear is expressed that the next Brussels government may decide to withdraw its participation in the military occupation or in any event insist that the last Cuno memorandum deserves a reply and consideration.

Since the Brussels conference, Belgian public opinion has been aroused over the new obstacle placed in the path of a settlement of the Ruhr problem through Premier Poincare's demand for a cessation of the passive resistance before the offer is made.

No succeeding cabinet is expected to endorse M. Theunis's support of Premier Poincare to such an extent as to re-open the whole question, leaving France alone if it persists in its attitude, as is expected.

In view of the latest Belgian developments it is indicated that Premier Poincare will be forced to accept a conference to examine the whole reparations question, admitting all the powers included in the German indemnity—Portugal, Roumania, Jugo-Slavia and others, including possibly the United States, but excluding Germany.

The belief is that Great Britain will be willing to urge Germany to abandon the resistance once the allies are in accord on a reparations program while discussing the details with German representatives.

TO DEMAND NEW DISARM MEETING

CONGRESS ALARMED BY EUROPE'S AIRCRAFT, SUBMARINE PROGRAMS

DETERMINED TO BLOCK NEW WAR

French Attitude Chief Obstacle to New Parley—Britain Is Ready.

Washington—With France and Great Britain engaged in a quiet, but nevertheless intense, race for supremacy in the air, the sixty-eighth congress, which convenes next December, is going to demand that President Harding inaugurate another world arms conference to do what the Washington conference failed to do—limit the production of aircraft and submarines.

Something will have to be done soon, or the next war will bring a conflict so horrible that the horrors of the last war will seem pale by comparison. Aeroplanes and gas were in their infancy during the last war—and see what havoc they did. With all the advance that has been made in the last few years in the development of these terrible weapons, the next conflict may see whole races wiped out and civilization itself destroyed.

Both President Harding and Secretary Hughes favor another conference in principle—although they believe there has never been a time since the Washington conference closed when another would have stood any chance of success.

France has not yet ratified the Washington conference treaties, although more than a year has elapsed since they were placed before the French parliament. There is keen resentment in Washington over failure to the French to ratify.

That Great Britain would subscribe to a new arms conference is regarded here as assured.

British government officials are keenly concerned over the French air and submarine program, and the uneasiness has been brought to the surface frequently of late in parliamentary debate.

No such assurance exists, however, with respect to the French. It was due to France that the Washington conference failed to limit submarines—a fact that promoted considerable ill-feeling between the French and British governments.

Whether France, now engaged upon a comprehensive air and submarine program, would consent to enter a limitation conference is doubtful, according to government officials in a position to know. Certainly, it was said Saturday, the policy of the French in the last year has not been conducive to much hope in that direction.

Ceremony Witnessed by Great Concourse of People.

Detroit—Thousands of men, women and children spectators, together with an assemblage of nuns, and many priests of the Roman Catholic church, witnessed the blessing and laying of the cornerstone for the new $4,000,000 Sacred Heart seminary on Chicago boulevard Sunday afternoon. High dignitaries of the church performed the rites.

The course of study will be divided into a six-year minor period, followed by six years' work in theology and philosophy.

DETROIT TO GET A UNIVERSITY

Board of Education Authorizes the College of City of Detroit.

Detroit—Detroit acquires a university under a resolution adopted by the Detroit board of education Thursday night, following an enabling act of the 1923 Legislature.

A third-year course will be established next fall, the funds to be provided mainly through an increase in the tuition fee from $15 to $60 a year. The resolution concurs in a recommendation by Frank Cody, superintendent of schools.

It was stated that there are approximately 1,500 students in the present Junior College, so that the increase in fees will be more than $60,000. It is estimated that the third year course can be maintained for about $20,000.

CHINESE PRESIDENT IS OUSTED

Chief Executive Flees Peking—Seized, Given "Third Degree."

Tientsin—President Li Yuan-Hung, fleeing from Peking to Tientsin, was held up by armed supporters of the Chihli party, put through "the third degree" and finally was permitted to proceed to his residence in the foreign quarter here when he divulged the hiding place of seals of office, which disappeared when he sought safety in flight, has been reported.

The special train carrying the republic's ousted chief executive reached Yangtsun, outside Tientsin, and there it was stopped.

President Li was removed from his coach and subjected to a vigorous "third degree" to make him reveal the whereabouts of his missing seals of office.

Finally he told his inquisitors that they had been taken to the French hospital in the legation quarter of Peking by his wife.

If Kidneys Act Bad Take Salts

Says Backache Often Means You Have Not Been Drinking Enough Water

When you wake up with backache and dull misery in the kidney region it may mean you have been eating foods which create acids, says a well-known authority. An excess of such acids overworks the kidneys in their effort to filter it from the blood and they become sort of paralyzed and loggy. When your kidneys get sluggish and clog you must relieve them, like you relieve your bowels, removing all the body's urinous waste, else you have backache, sick headache, dizzy spells; your stomach sour, tongue is coated and when the weather is bad you have rheumatic twinges. The urine is cloudy, full of sediment, channels often get sore, water scalds and you are obliged to seek relief two or three times during the night.

Either consult a good, reliable physician at once or get from your pharmacist about four ounces of Jad Salts; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys may then act fine. This famous salt is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for years to help clean and stimulate sluggish kidneys, also to neutralize acids in the system, so they no longer irritate, thus often relieving bladder weakness.

Jad Salts is inexpensive, can not injure and makes a delightful, effervescent lithia-water drink. Drink lots of soft water. By all means have your physician examine your kidneys at least twice a year.

STUDEBAKER BIG-SIX TOURING CAR

$1750

You Can Buy More Weight—But You Won't Find a Better Car

In the Studebaker Big-Six you get all the performance, all the comfort, and all the dependability that any car can give—at a price that smaller producers cannot even approach.

The Big-Six Touring is a seven-passenger car with a seven-passenger motor and seven-passenger dimensions throughout. It distinctly is not a seven-passenger body mounted on a five-passenger chassis.

The Big-Six will take the steepest hills on high. It will maintain a high rate of speed over long stretches hour after hour. No car provides more restful riding—none is easier to operate. None is freer from frequent repairs.

Equipment is complete, even to an extra wheel with tire, tube and tire cover.

Its low price is due to large volume and to the fact that Studebaker over-head is shared by three models—all sixes. Then, too, only one manufacturing profit is included in the Big-Six price because all vital parts are manufactured in Studebaker plants.

If you spend more than the Big-Six price you can buy more weight and bulkiness and pay more for overhead and operation, but you will not get a better automobile.

Studebaker has been building quality vehicles for 71 years.

"Do not be so absorbed in your favorite study that you shall not also have an eye and a heart for matters pertaining to the general welfare."

SIMPLE FOODS

OCCASIONALLY the family will enjoy a stew of the Irish variety.

Irish Stew.

Put in small pieces two pounds of meat. Chop one onion and fry in a little meat fat, when the onion is a light brown add the meat and cook until slightly brown. Cover with boiling water, adding seasonings as desired. A small piece of bay leaf is liked by some. Dice carrots, turnips and tomatoes, using a pint of the cut-up vegetables. Simmer until nearly done, add raw potatoes sliced very thin one-half hour before serving. Place in a fireless cooker to cook or on the back of the range, keeping the food at a simmering temperature.

Peanut Butter Chops.

Take one-half cupful of peanut butter, one-half cupful of bread crumbs, one egg beaten, four tablespoonfuls of catsup, a little onion and seasoning. Mix in the order given into the form of chops, place in a well-buttered baking dish and bake in a moderate oven for twenty minutes.

Chili Con Carne.

Brown a small onion in a tablespoonful of fat, the onion chopped fine. Add six ounces of chopped round steak, one teaspoonful of salt, pepper to taste, two cupfuls of strained tomatoes, one cupful of boiled rice, one pint of canned kidney beans, one small chili pepper or a generous dash of cayenne. Cook the meat in the onion and fat for five minutes, add the other ingredients and cook, mixing well, for ten minutes, then serve. The rice may be boiled and served in a mound with the meat poured around it if preferred.

Honey Salad Dressing.

Beat the yolks of three eggs, add three tablespoonfuls of strained honey, three tablespoonfuls of lemon juice, one-half teaspoonful of salt, cayenne to taste, three tablespoonfuls of salad oil. Cook the yolks and honey until thick, stirring constantly; add oil, one-half teaspoonful of salt, cayenne and lemon juice. Cook until thick. Cool and add before serving one-fourth of a cupful of cream whipped.

Raspberry Lacto.

Beat one egg, separating the white and yolk; add one quart of buttermilk, two cupfuls of strained honey, one-fourth of a cupful of raspberry sirup and freeze. When partly frozen add the juice of a lemon. Any other fruit sirups may be used.

NOBODY LIKES TO WASH DISHES OR OTHER DISAGREEABLE TASKS

Many Unnecessary Motions Made in Washing Dishes.

(Prepared by the United States Department of Agriculture.)

Have you ever timed yourself washing dishes, or doing any of the other less agreeable tasks, to see whether there was any way of shortening the work? Or noticed what motions you make with your hands during this and other daily jobs? Or how many steps you take in connection with a meal, particularly when you are clearing the table and washing the china and other utensils used during the meal and its preparation? Every motion requires energy, and unnecessary motions use up unnecessary energy, leaving one fatigued with no real gain. And when actual minutes are saved, they can be put to more interesting uses than the routine of daily dishwashing.

One of the best ways to observe yourself, says the United States Department of Agriculture, is to make a time, method and motion study of the different duties about the house. It will add zest to the housework, help to make one see measures necessary for reform, and make one ready to assist an inefficient neighbor.

Use Unnecessary Energy.

Starting with dishwashing: There are several ways of attacking the task. Try the way you are doing the work, observing as you go whether there are any motions made which could be eliminated, or if any part of the process could be shortened. For instance, those who possess dishwashing machines expect to leave the dishes to try themselves after being washed and rinsed with very hot water. This principle can be applied perfectly well to dishes draining in a basket if a kettleful of clean, hot rinsing water is poured over them. The process of wiping can then be entirely eliminated, except possibly for the glass and silver. Fewer towels are thus used, and the amount of washing of tea-towels is reduced.

Look at the details in the above picture and see how many time and motion saving suggestions it contains.

although the housewife evidently has only a farm kitchen with few conveniences. She does not even possess a drain board, which would be very desirable if placed on her left where the table now is. Right-handed persons ordinarily hold what they are washing in the left hand, and apply the mop or dish cloth with the right, so that when the dish is set on a drain board at the left they do not have to cross their hands. In spite of this simple and obvious way of doing the work, it is common to find in houses offered for sale or for rent a right-hand drain board, installed probably by some masculine architect who did not think out the process of doing the work or consult any woman about it. Having two drain boards, a drain board at the left and a level shelf, at the right-hand side of the sink for stacking the soiled dishes is even more convenient than having only one drain board.

Many Steps Saved.

There is only one tap shown in the picture, and the large kettle on the stove suggests that the housekeeper has to heat all the water she needs. Running hot water is a great boon, but not available in all homes. Steps have been saved in this instance by placing the sink fairly near the stove, and by bringing all the dishes from the dining table into the kitchen on the tea-cart. Utensils that hang up are put on hooks on the wall right over the sink; and evidently all the pots and pans were washed before the meal was served, which greatly shortens the time for the entire job of dishwashing.

The sink is several inches higher than the table, so that the housewife does not have to stoop over it. When the clean dishes are set in the drain basket the task will be done, as nearly all of them will probably be wanted on the table for the next meal. If the china is to be put away, a set of shelves within reach of the sink would save many steps.

Thought for the Day.
Christianity is larger than any definition of it, and is social rather than theoretical.

It Never is Short.
People who find themselves in a peck of trouble never complain of short measure.

BE PRETTY! TURN GRAY HAIR DARK Try Grandmother's Old Favorite Recipe of Sage Tea and Sulphur

Almost everyone knows that Sage Tea and Sulphur, properly compounded, brings back the natural color and lustre to the hair when faded, streaked or gray. Years ago the only way to get this mixture was to make it at home, which is messy and troublesome. Nowadays, by asking at any drug store for "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound," you will get a large bottle of this famous old recipe, improved by the addition of other ingredients, at a small cost. Don't stay gray! Try it! No one can possibly tell that you darkened your hair, as it does it so naturally and evenly. You dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time; by morning the gray hair disappears, and after another application or two, your hair becomes beautifully dark, glossy and attractive.
