E. J. Defeats Harbor Springs

In One Of The Best Played Games On Local Field.

East Jordan's base ball team defeated the fast Harbor Springs nine on the local diamond last Sunday in one of the best exhibitions of the national game ever seen in our city. Saffron was in fine form, striking out 14. Kuhn, star pitcher of the M. S. C. and who won for that team in the game against the U. of M. last spring, was in the box for Harbor Springs up to the seventh inning, when, with the bases full, Spink took his place.

East Jordan has one of the best base ball teams it has had in years, but for some reason very little interest is being shown this year in the home games. Owing to the small attendance at last Sunday's game, it was a financial loss—not enough money being taken in at the gate to pay the expenses of the visiting team. Next Sunday the East Jordan team plays at Petoskey.

Big Band Concert This Saturday Ev'g

Director John TerWee announces a Big Band Concert at East Jordan this Saturday evening, July 31st, commencing at 7:30 standard.

The Central Lake School Band and the East Jordan School Band, comprising some 65 pieces will present an open-air concert from the band stand, corner Main and Estery streets.

Our local band was at Central Lake last Saturday where a like program was presented before a large crowd.

Heart Attack Causes Death While Swimming

Donald Hawkins, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Hawkins, former residents of East Jordan now residing at Traverse City, died from heart failure while swimming at that city, last Thursday evening. He was with friends and as soon as he went down they brought him to the shore but life was found to be extinct. He had been troubled with his heart, and it is thought the cold water was the cause.

The young man was 19 years of age and a graduate of the public schools this year. Funeral services were held Sunday at Traverse City with burial at that city. John Hawkins of East Jordan was an uncle of the unfortunate young man.

New Insect Puts In Appearance In State

The Southern Grainlouse, commonly known as the Greenbug, has recently been found in Iron County, Michigan, according to Prof. R. H. Pettit, entomologist at the Michigan State College.

The Greenbug is reported as having destroyed a 20 acre field of oats there. It is the first record of the pest in the Upper Peninsula, and is probably the first instance of any real damage from it anywhere in the state.

Minnesota has recently reported considerable damage from the pest. It is normally kept in check by parasites, according to Professor Pettit.

Thos. R. Joynt Died Monday After Long Illness

Thomas R. Joynt passed away at his home in East Jordan Monday, July 26, following an illness of a year's duration, a greater part of which time he was confined to his home.

Thomas Robert Anthony Joynt was born at Palmerston, Ontario, Oct. 21st, 1868, his parents being Thomas and Ann Mackey Joynt. The family moved from Canada to Hartford, Van Buren County, Mich., in 1871 and lived there two years, removing to Central Lake, Mich., in October, 1873. He made that place his home for some time, later removing to East Jordan where he has resided for many years.

In 1907 he was united in marriage to Miss Alice Morrow of Central Lake. Deceased is survived by the wife and the following sons and daughters:—Mrs. Myrtle Nelson of Melbourne, Fla.; Dorothy aged 17 years, Gilbert 12, Robert 10; Tommy 6, who are at the parental home. The nearest living relative is Mrs. Anna Marie MacDonald (nee Joynt) of Muskegon.

Funeral services were held from the Presbyterian church Wednesday afternoon conducted by the pastor, Rev. C. W. Sidebotham. The remains were then taken in charge of by brother members of East Jordan Lodge No. 379, F. & A. M., and laid to rest with Masonic honors in the Densmore Cemetery.

JACOB E. CHEW IS CANDIDATE FOR COUNTY CLERK

Jacob E. Chew of East Jordan has announced his candidacy for the office of Charlevoix County Clerk on the Republican ticket at the primaries Sept. 14th.

He came to Charlevoix County when a boy in 1879, and has been a resident of South Arm township for 34 years. During those years he has served in various public capacities, teaching public school for several years when a young man, and later on serving as supervisor, justice of peace, as State representative from this county and in minor offices. At present he is serving the county as Supt. of the Poor.

Mr. Chew was in business in East Jordan some ten years and now owns and operates a farm two miles north of East Jordan.

Mr. Chew has always been a staunch Republican, and served his township 17 years as chairman of the Republican committee.

In all his public service, Mr. Chew has been faithful to the trusts placed with him and the electorate of Charlevoix County will make no mistake in giving his candidacy for County Clerk careful consideration at the coming primary.

Up to His Ears

Germany Keeping Its Eyes On U. S., Dry "Experiment"

ANN ARBOR, July 18—Germany, while admitting it is not possible to eliminate alcohol, is watching the experiment in the United States not only with interest but with approval, Dean Edward H. Kraus told a church audience here last night, substantiating his statements with quotations from books recently published in Germany. Dean Kraus spent most of the last semester traveling through European countries, centering his travels in Germany.

The quotations read by Dean Kraus coincided in three particulars: That alcohol still is consumed in the United States; that prohibition has been a good thing for industry, and that it has been a boom for the women and the younger generation. One writer pointed out that it was a good thing for the automobile industry.

Benefits Labor

"On the whole," Dean Kraus reported, quoting "Das Amerikanische Wirtschaftswunder," by Julius Hirsch, formerly state secretary, "the impression is that the abstaining from alcohol is more common in the younger generation and often leads to total abstinence among Americans abroad. Another factor, little observed but very important, is that prohibition has increased the productivity of labor and is among other things partly responsible for the extension of the use of the automobile. What an American laborer formerly spent for alcohol, he now spends for gasoline."

Mr. Hirsch was quoted by the speaker as saying that in 1925 he attempted with the help of New York statisticians to compute the consumption of alcohol at that time. His estimate was that it was one-third of that before prohibition. "The fact that the saloon nuisance of other days has disappeared," was another quotation.

Dry Agitation Gains

"The farther west one goes, the less he will find alcohol, and the more one mingles with the younger generation, the more persons he will find to whom alcohol is of very little consequence. So far as my own observations are concerned, the agitation for prohibition is certainly not diminishing, but increasing, especially in agricultural circles."

Dean Kraus also quoted the conclusion

Germany Keeping Its Eyes On U. S., Dry "Experiment"

ions concerning prohibition in a book, "Amerika-Europa," by Arthur Feiler of the staff of the Frankfurter Zeitung, published early this year. Mr. Feiler was more fulsome in his praise of the benefits prohibition has brought to the working man of the United States and in his summing up of the prohibition problem, Dean Kraus quoting him as saying:

What Writer Says

"The great majority of the American people today get along with very little alcohol and will grow more and more content with this limitation. Indeed, a large share of them are even now passing over to the total abstinence. Restraint in this connection is making progress, and women and children are reaping the blessings of it, particularly the children. Consideration of them and of the coming generation requiring this protection is the strongest moral force which supports the rigors of prohibition—and is more impressive than all the economic and sociological factors."

America will never be totally dry, Mr. Feiler was quoted as writing, as long as it has its far-flung boundaries, its numerous harbors and certain races "particularly adept in the home manufacture of beer and wine."

Ragnar T. Pederson of South Arm Passes Away

Ragnar Torval Pederson passed away at the Ann Arbor hospital Thursday, July 22nd, where he had gone for treatment of a serious form of vegetation poisoning.

Mr. Pederson was born at Christiansund, Norway, Nov. 2, 1872, his parents being Easten and Marie Pederson. He came to the United States when a young man of seventeen years, and has been a resident of South Arm Township for the past thirty-six years.

On March 15th, 1906, he was united in marriage to Engaborg Olson of East Jordan. The wife, together with two daughters—Esther and Julia—survive the deceased.

The remains were brought to his late home here Friday evening.

Funeral services were held from the Norwegian-Lutheran church of this city Saturday afternoon, July 24th, conducted by Rev. J. C. Johnson of Frankfort. Interment at Sunset Hill.

COUNCIL PROCEEDINGS

Regular meeting of the Common Council of the city of East Jordan held at the council rooms Monday evening, July 19, 1926.

Meeting was called to order by the mayor. Present: Mayor Dicken and Aldermen Aldrich, Watson, Gidley, Ross, Proctor, and Sedgman. Absent:—None.

DIPPING INTO SCIENCE

Largest Cake

In June, 1780, Frederick William I, king of Prussia, feasted his army of 80,000 men. Their dessert was a huge cake drawn by eight horses. The cake was 54 ft long, 24 feet broad, and about 2 feet thick. It required 98 barrels of flour, 200 gallons of milk, 1 ton of butter, 1 ton of yeast, and 5,000 eggs to make it. Some of the cake was left over. (© 1926, Western Newspaper Union.)

Think It Over

To have a right estimate of a man's character, you must see him in adversity.

To Eradicate The Barberry

Federal and State Men Now Working In Charlevoix County

Charlevoix County is one of the seven counties in the state in which the Barberry Eradication Campaign is being carried on in this summer. This campaign is being conducted by the U. S. Department of Agriculture in cooperation with the State Department of Agriculture and Michigan State College. Michigan is one of the thirteen principal grain states of the North and Northwest which are carrying on the fight against the common barberry bush.

At the present time a squad of five men from Michigan State College are stationed in Charlevoix County. It is estimated that they will be the entire summer in completing the work. The men which compose the squad are Mr. R. Smith, Mr. McIntyre, Mr. Bryfogle and Mr. Kurtz. Mr. Knopf of Michigan State College is also located with the squad in this county and is preparing over 70,000 specimens of infected barberry leaves for use throughout the United States.

The common barberry bush, which the campaign seeks to exterminate is the cause of the black stem rust on wheat, oats, barley, rye, and other grains and grasses. This rust, in the North Central States annually destroys over 50,000,000 bushels of cereal crops. It has cost the grain growers of these states an average of $60,259,512 a year for the last ten years.

Black stem rust is caused by a well known fungus parasite. In the spring this parasite grows on common barberry on which it forms spores which are in "cluster cups." These spores or seeds are blown by the winds to grasses or grain. They germinate in moisture furnished by rain or dew and infect the grain or grass plants. The parasite gets inside the plant, takes its food from this plant and then within a week or two produces the red or summer spore rust familiar to any grain farmer. This rust is the summer stage of the black stem rust. These summer spores are in turn blown by the wind and infect other grains and grasses. Thus many crops of red spores may be produced and each crop causes more rust and makes the rust area larger.

Later in the season the rust becomes black. This is the winter stage. The winter spores cannot germinate at once but lie dormant on the stubble or straw until spring. Then they germinate but they cannot directly infect grains or grasses. This Black Stage Of The Rust Can Only Infect The Common Barberry. Destroy The Common Barberry And The Black Stage Of The Rust Becomes Harmless. The rust cannot then get a start in the spring as it is unable to maintain itself in the red stage during the winter.

The common barberry has three distinguishing characteristics. The leaves are green or purple in color and have saw toothed edges. The spines are usually in groups of three or more and are to be found underneath the stem of the leaf. The yellow flowers are small and seldom seen but the red berries which are borne in long clusters are quite conspicuous.

The common barberry should not be confused with the Japanese barberry which is not harmful. The Japanese has smooth leaves which are much smaller. The spines usually are single. The flowers are yellow in color. The berries are borne singly or in clusters of two or three like gooseberries. The two barberries can be distinguished easily by the height also as the Japanese is a beautiful low spreading bush while the common barberry is tall, erect and spiny.

Old Amber

To rank as genuinely "antique" amber must be at least 5,000 years old. The flies entombed in some pieces of amber are a proof of great antiquity, because they belong to species unknown to entomologists today.

Concrete George Had A Grouch The Other Week

Charlevoix, Michigan, July 16th, 1926.

My dear Editor: I hope no one will read this letter. This is one of the mornings that your Uncle George has a "Grouch" and I'd advise our readers who do not have the grouches not to read it.

Our thinking machine—we did not make ourselves. It was given us by the Divine Power and we should use it for good and not for evil. But, we do not do it all the time as we should.

I find that since I have changed my office from in the Saddle or on the Jump to Hotel Lobbys and Hotel porches that I get a great deal more news, facts and experiences than I did.

Newspaper men are as a class very smart. They have to be very much on their guard, as to what they publish. Sometimes they want to publish what they know, but for fear of a law suit they deny themselves, and their readers frequently the pleasure it would give us all to read some of the spicy things which occur daily in their towns.

In fact sometimes I am attempted to run a newspaper of my own, and in order to avoid legal difficulties, I'd incorporate for about $1500.00 (fifteen hundred dollars) and then the corporation could stand a legal war and not much cost. I learned this from a lawyer.

Speaking of lawyers, they are the smartest set of people on earth, for their education has taught them just how far they can go and keep within the law, also that they are able to defend those who break the law (if they have money to pay for so doing), and make the opposition believe that the law breaker did not break the law.

Now that is a very strong point. For my own part I am having a d... of a time to convince human men who are interested in soft black top stuff for roads that it is not worth a... and that concrete is the only stuff to use, for it will last forever, because the older it gets the better it gets. No concrete road as yet has ever worn out. It will break, just as a bridge will if it is over loaded. At present our State Law like many others permit sixteen tons, and in the near future a law will undoubtedly be passed making it a National law with a heavy penalty for loading in excess of sixteen tons.

A still small voice says, well what about the Grouch. I'll tell you, I went to a man who makes his money driving over roads, and I thought he would be the best man to take me to Boyne City and East Jordan, in order that I might interview Mr. Haire, Editor of the Boyne Citizen and Mr. George Lisk, also Editor of the Charlevoix County Herald. I told the man the object of my trip and asked what he would charge. He replied by asking how long I'd be in each place. I replied, one-half hour. He then said $10.00. Then the grouch began. He said, "Is the price alright?" I said, "Yes I guess so, but I am not going." "Why not?" "Because I have quit my job." "What does this mean?" "Why Sir, "You being one of the men I am working for, and when you charge me $10.00 for doing a $6.00 or $8.00 job, I refuse to work for you, any longer." "I've been at this job on Concrete roads for twenty years. I am over eighty-five years old, but this has shown me what a D... fool I am, and I've quit." "Well aren't you going?" "No, why should I go. I tell you I've quit and if you wish to continue to drive your car over these damnable roads, keep on doing it for it doesn't cut any ice for me what kind of roads you fellows have up here." It is just such experiences as this that have made my job a hard one. You can't blame me for quitting, can you?

Now we will compare my grouch case with another but very different one. As I was telling my experience of the grouch to some of my friends, one of them said, "Well when do you want to go to Boyne City and East Jordan?" I replied, "I am not going. Didn't I tell you I have given up my job? Do you suppose that I'd continue to work for such men as that?" And another spoke up and asked, "Has this man ever been known to do many good generous acts?" Then another man (a good Samaritan) spoke up and said, "Well when do you want to go Uncle George? And again I said, "Why did I not tell you I have given up my job and that I am not going?" And then he said, "Why Uncle George, you couldn't give up your job if you tried, and you wouldn't if you could. "When you want to go let me know, and I'll take you and it will not cost you a cent." I thanked him and we parted.

About a half hour later I met him again and I said, "I guess you are right and I'll go." "When?" said he. Tomorrow morning at eight thirty. "I'll be there" and he was. We went, we saw, we had a glorious reception, and a press of business in both cases, was the only excuse offered.

Both Editors are in hearty support of the G. C. R. around Pine Lake, and so are our own Editors in Charlevoix. Many people in Charlevoix County do not appreciate what the newspapers have done for them. We never would have had the concrete on the Dixie Highway that we have, had it not been for their support. It costs money to run a newspaper, and that the space that they have given to you demands your loyal support. Every one of you, Business men for advertisement, Laymen for subscription and when you have finished reading, wrap your paper up in a two cent envelope and send it to your friends, and let them read what we are doing in Gods Country, and Charlevoix County. In speaking of Gods Country let me ask you one and all to read the 8th Chapter of Zechiriah, for there you will learn the value of a good life, age, Truth and Love, and then try to improve our own selves, and to love our neighbor and tell the truth. A real Chapter. Let us all try to feel the divine energy of truth and love, and a good will toward all men, including the women and children, which will bring us to a new state of life, and no longer recognize selfishness, and jealousy or any other material power as able to build up our beautiful country.

Let us balance partners, join hands, all hands round, and then shake up. Yours truly, UNCLE GEORGE.

WASHINGTON BRIEFS

Lack of street and number addresses on letters has become such a drag on the postal service that Assistant Postmaster General Bartlett has begun a general campaign to educate the business public in the necessity of giving complete addresses on all letters.

Army air officers are investigating the recent flight of Major Spatz from Washington to Kelly field, Texas, to ascertain whether he established a new time record for the route followed.

A 2-cent envelope, with the red stamp bearing a picture of the Liberty bell, will be issued by the Post-office department to commemorate the sesquicentennial anniversary of American independence.

The rise of radio has resulted in the swamping of the United States patent office under the greatest deluge of applications in history.

STATE NEWS IN BRIEF

Grand Rapids—Election campaign posters and stickers must not be displayed upon county-owned property, the finance committee of the board of supervisors has ruled.

Lansing—A village or city may issue as many mortgage bonds as needed for a public utility, the state supreme court held recently, in declaring unconstitutional part of a law passed by the 1926 legislature which limits the bonded indebtedness of a village for the construction of a utility.

Coldwater—Arrangements are virtually completed for the state convention of the Michigan Sheet Metal and Roofing association, which will be held here July 30 and 31. Headquarters for the gathering will be Cahill's pavilion, Coldwater lake. More than 500 delegates are expected to attend.

Sturgis—Attempts to drive a bug out of the car while driving on Chicago road west of this city resulted in a broken shoulder for Mrs. E. C. Thompson, of Mishawaka, Ind., and minor injuries for her husband. The car, driven by the husband, lurched into a ditch, turned turtle, and was badly wrecked.

Ann Arbor—Paul Buckley, assistant secretary of the University of Michigan since 1920, has been appointed general manager of the Michigan Union, all-campus men's club, succeeding Homer Heath, who resigned after 19 years as head of the institution to accept a position with the Allerton Club residences of New York. Mr. Buckley will assume office October 1.

Kalamazoo—Due to the unusual hot weather lake resorts in this vicinity that had suffered from a slump in business at the beginning of the summer are now enjoying a decidedly increased patronage. While the wheat crop is being harvested, the other crops, particularly corn, potatoes and beans, need rain badly. Severe damage will result if relief from the drought does not come soon.

Jackson—Chief of Police Charles Phelps is thinking of opening a night school for potential auto drivers following an experience with an applicant for a drivers license. In testing the applicant, the chief wrote on a piece of paper, "no left turn," and asked the applicant to read it. "It says Stop," was the answer. Then the chief wrote "Keep to the right." "Go" was the interpretation of the would-be driver. He failed to get the license.

Lansing—Increasing sentiment against prohibition prompted a number of Kalamazoo business men to organize officially a national organization to fight for the repeal of the eighteenth amendment. Although the association—known as the National Liberty league—will eventually be country-wide in scope, its organizers plan to work at present in the middle west, co-operating with the National Association Against Prohibition, which is carrying on the fight in the east.

Flint—This city has been asked among other places in Michigan to submit proposals to a committee of the Michigan Grand Lodge, F. & A. M., for the furnishing of a site for a new state Masonic home to replace the one at Alma. The home at Alma is located in the center of the city and there is no chance for enlargement, it is explained. The Grand Lodge committee is seeking a site of at least 320 acres and stipulates that it must be accessible to railroad stations and close to a main trunk highway.

Owosso—For every dollar invested in the liquor traffic, there is $100 invested in the dope traffic, Leon F. Miner, Shiawassee County prosecutor told the Kiwanis Club here. He added that while there is much furore about liquor, it is a pigmy compared with the dope traffic. The prosecutor said that recently a package of dope was found under a culvert near an Owosso school, indicating, he said, that peddlers might be trying to induce school children to take it. This, he said, is a favorite method of obtaining dope recruits.

Adrian—Extensive preparations are being made by the Leauwe County Rural Carriers association for the entertainment of the state convention to be held here July 27 to 30, inclusive. It is expected that between 800 and 400 delegates will be in attendance, the meetings being held in Memorial hall at the fair grounds. Wednesday evening a banquet and program will be given and the attendance will include state officials, a representative of the federal post-office department, and Representative Earl C. Michener.

Lansing—Quo warranto proceedings against the Michigan Bell Telephone company, started by Attorney General Andrew Dougherty in an effort to break what he terms an illegal combine of this concern with the American Telephone and Telegraph company, has been refiled in the state supreme court. The case recently was thrown out of the Detroit federal court. All charges that the company is violating the Sherman anti-trust law have been withdrawn, leaving the issues confined strictly to the Michigan anti-trust laws.

U. S. IS IGNORED ON WORLD COURT DEAL

14 of 42 Countries Fail to Make Any Reply.

Washington.—Only Cuba, Greece and Liberia have accepted the reservations laid down by the senate to United States adherence to the World Court protocol.

This became known when a tabulation of interchanges initiated by the State department last February with notifications to 42 governments that the United States is prepared to adhere to the court, with reservations, and asking the acceptance of those reservations, showed that mere acknowledgments had been received from 19 countries, 8 others explained that they would reserve their decision until after the Geneva conference, and no response whatever had been received from the other 14 nations.

Those reserving their answers pending the Geneva discussions are Austria, Norway, Albania, Finland, Rumania, and the Kingdom of Serbs, Croats and Slovenes, while no acknowledgment has been received from Great Britain, Japan, Belgium, Italy, Spain, the Netherlands, Sweden, Bulgaria, Czechoslovakia, Estonia, Hungary, Brazil, Chile and Luxembourg.

Since the League of Nations called the Geneva September conference of signatory powers after the State department's notifications were dispatched, and it is regarded as certain that these 14 governments will attend that meeting, State department officials interpret the position they occupy as "perfectly normal." They believe that the American rejection of the league invitation to the conference will not influence the ultimate decision of participating governments.

It is expected that the conference will serve to expedite common action and that soon after the meeting adjourns the individual nations will speedily make known their assent to American adherence.

The governments which sent bare acknowledgments of the receipt of the notifications include France, Bolivia, China, Colombia, Denmark, Haiti, Latvia, Lithuania, Panama, Paraguay, Persia, Poland, the Dominican republic, Portugal, Salvador, Siam, Switzerland, Uruguay and Venezuela.

"TIZ" FOR TENDER, SORE, TIRED FEET

Ah! what relief. No more tired feet; no more burning feet; swollen, bad smelling, sweaty feet. No more pain in corns, callouses or bunions. No matter what ails your feet or what under the sun you've tried without getting relief, just use "Tiz." "Tiz" draws out all the poisonous exudations which puff up the feet; "Tiz" is magical; "Tiz" is grand; "Tiz" will end your foot troubles so you'll never limp or draw up your face in pain. Your shoes won't seem tight and your feet will never, never hurt or get sore, swollen or tired. Get a box at any drug or department store, and get relief for a few cents.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Riedal and children of Deer Lake spent Sunday with Chas. Knop.

Mr. and Mrs. Luther Brinall gave a party for Otto Schultz of Corvallis, Oregon, who will return home next week. A very pleasant time was enjoyed by all.

Miss Harriet Behling, R. N. of Grand Rapids is spending her vacation with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Behling.

Paul Stenke and sister Cora, and Miss Lydia Marten spent Sunday visiting Mr. Stenke's sister, Mrs. Harry Behling.

The box social which was given by the young people's society of the Lutheran Church was a grand success. Our next meeting will be Aug. 5th.

Miss Adeline Knop of Boyne City spent a few days last week visiting her cousin, Margaret Knop.

Mrs. Lorena McGinnis and daughters, Ruby and May of Kansas, who have visited at the home of Henry Sloop for the past two months returned to their home Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Sloop and children and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Archer of East Jordan and son moved on to the Strehl farm to help care for the bountiful crop of cherries.

Miss Meta Jandt and Miss Darlene LaCroix of Advance spent Sunday at the home of Mrs. Fred Behling.

CENTRAL LAKE
(Edited by Jesse Morse)

Cherry picking is now in full swing. Remember—the big Sunday School Convention of Antrim County and picnic at Twin Bridge next week, Wednesday, Aug. 4th.

Central Lake voted to erect a gymnasium for the people's use here.

The East Jordan-Central Lake Band Tournament was a great success, Saturday evening. Come again.

Mrs. Sarah Suitsler was quite severely shaken up by falling down cellar last Tuesday evening.

Mrs. Mary Scott of Detroit is here for the summer and is keeping house at her home in the south end of town.

W. Supernaw, Supt. of the East Jordan Co-op and Canning Factory made a business call out this way Monday, looking for cherries.

O. R. Morse estimates his loss of cherries damaged by Tuesday's storm at $500. He will have only about $1500 worth this year. One year he sold $3000 worth.

George Harvey, brother of Mrs. Addie McEwan, fell from a load of hay Tuesday, breaking his back, and died before night. Mrs. McEwan was unable to go as she is still ill at the home of her sister. Her sister, Mrs. Currin attended the funeral Sunday at Shenandoah, Ohio.

Lloyd Riley will teach the Dewey school in Clam lake neighborhood, west of Belaire, next year. Mrs. Leon Dewey will teach North Milton school near Elk Rapids. Pauline Gardner will teach at Creswell, and Mr. Hill in Bradshaw Dist., east of Central Lake.

A L B A

Mrs. Deringa and a friend of Alpena visited at the home of Mrs. Childs on their way back from the south part of state.

Mrs. Harwood of Hillsdale is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Anderson.

Mr. and Mrs. Dimond accompanied their daughter and grand children to the south part of the state where they will visit friends and relatives.

Breaking It Gently

The headmaster of a boy's boarding school received a letter from the mother of one of the pupils to the effect that the lad's father had died. The mother asked that the news be broken to her son. The headmaster summoned the lad, and said, "Boy, your father is dead, and I've got to break it to you."

Detroit—Michigan has one of the remaining 25 establishments in the United States where bicycles are manufactured. It was disclosed in a report of the industry for 1925, by the United States Department of Commerce.

Lansing—The Michigan Public Utilities Commission has prepared an order adjusting telephone rates at Birmingham, Redford, Kalamazoo, Pontiac, Bay City and Flint. The order will be made as soon as all the members arrive in Lansing and sign it.

Mt. Clemens—Twenty-five miles will be cut off the trip from Southern Michigan to the Thumb district by a new road on which $600,000 will be spent by the State in paving operations. The new highway will be from Brockway south through Emmett and Memphis, connecting with the Grandtunpike in Macomb County at Mutonyville.

Saginaw—The next few days in all probability will write important history in the prospecting development for oil in Saginaw valley. Announcements made by two drilling units for plants to prospect in remote sections of the county far removed from the proven field have caused veteran oil men situated here to believe that the scope of the field will be determined to a great extent.

Grand Rapids—The Leonard Refrigerator company, of this city, a unit of the Electric Refrigerator corporation, has announced its intention of immediately erecting plant additions costing $1,500,000 thus materially increasing the payroll and production. It was also said it is proposed to add to the capacity of the Kelvinator and Nizer corporations' plants in Detroit, increasing from 200 to 300 per cent the production for all plants under common control.

Muskegon—Arthur Reynolds, 25 years old, miraculously escaped death when he fell 70 feet, the result of a rope breaking while he was painting the stack at the Central Paper company plant July 13. Reynolds was sealed in a loop of rope, and though he fell the entire distance to the ground, his fall was broken by a scaffolding. He struck on his side, apparently and bounced up. He was badly shaken, but an X-ray examination showed that no bones had been broken.

Ann Arbor—Economic value holds no lure to the bashful swains of Washtenaw county. So County Clerk C. L. Pray decided after his offer of free marriage licenses given during the annual gala bargain day of Ann Arbor merchants went unheeded. So enthused was Pray with the idea, he said, that he would pay for all licenses issued himself. After missing the circus acts to wait in his office for the rush of applicants, Pray retired in disgust. Not a single application had been made.

Lansing—The welfare committee of the American Legion, Department of Michigan, and all officers working under the committee, have been organized of all charges of mismanagement, payment of excessive salaries to officials and use of power for political purposes in a report prepared by the legislative committee appointed to investigate expenditures of approximately $250,000 in funds turned over to the Legion by the Michigan Patriot Fund Committee after the World War.

Detroit—A general shortage of skilled labor throughout Michigan and existence of unemployment only in the unskilled occupations is reported in the monthly bulletin of the Labor Department on industrial employment, just made public. Some Michigan cities, notably Lansing, Kalamazoo, Jackson, Bay City and Detroit, report the surplus of common labor has not yet been absorbed. Grand Rapids, Flint and Saginaw report a shortage even of unskilled labor. Farm help is in demand.

Flint—Stockholders of the Flint Motor company have ratified sale of the company's plant here to General Motors corporation for approximately $4,000,000. Immediately following the announcement, Harry H. Bassett, president of the Buick Motor company, announced that the plant would be used by the Fisher Body division of General Motors to manufacture bodies for the Buick company. The Flint Motor company will continue operations in an Elizabeth, N. J., plant of the Durant Motor company.

Detroit—Final plans for carrying out the program of the 1926 Michigan State Fair, to be held Sept. 6-11, inclusive, were decided on here recently, when members of the Board of Managers of the State Fairs met with approximately 40 department superintendents, farm organization executives and county agricultural agents. "Michigan this year is going to have the greatest fair it has ever seen, and one of the best the Middle West has ever seen." L. Whitney Watkins, state commissioner of agriculture, declared.

TRADING

By THOMAS ARKLE CLARK, Dean of Men, University of Illinois.

JOHN said that he had been born in England, but if it had not been for his speech, which confirmed his statement, I should have been certain that he was descended from one of the Spanish gypsies who live in the old dugouts in the hillsides at Granada. He was a nomad, never satisfied to stay long in any one place, never contented unless he was engaged in barter of some sort.

Even as a child with his pockets full of marbles and tops and knives and boyish treasures of various sorts, he was always wanting to exchange what he had for what he wanted. "Got anything to trade?" was his first question when he ran onto a friend or a stranger, from the time he entered school. It wasn't that he profited. He was seldom a shrewd trader, and starting out in the morning with a handful of treasures he often brought up by evening with practically empty pockets. It was not so much gain that he was after as the mere pleasure of exchange. One might have thought that experience would have sharpened his judgment, but it did not.

When he was twenty-one John's father gave him a small farm. Shortly afterward he married and went to work on the tract of land. He was still restless, constantly trading horses, or farm implements, or anything that was movable. His wife remarked often that if it had been at all possible he would have traded her for another one.

He traded his farm when prices were lowest for a little store in Indiana. He thought he would like to live in town better than in the country. Trade waned, however, he didn't have just the business sense he needed, so he made an exchange of his store in Indiana for a livery stable in Kentucky. He didn't like working in the stable, and when a man came along and offered to trade him an interest in a grain elevator for his livery stable John took him up. It was low-time then where he landed.

It has been this way all through the years that I have known him. He has been in all sorts of businesses in most of the states of the country, but not for long. Florida and California and Texas and Kansas and North Carolina have all seen him for a short time. He has bought and sold and worked at this and that—worked hard, too—but he has never stayed long enough with anything to realize its worth. He has always seen ahead of him some business oasis upon which he could settle contentedly. Always the thing he had in hand was not to be compared with what was ahead of him or what the other fellow had. He was always willing to trade, always eager to move, and still is.

He is an old man now hardly able to do a day's work. He has made nothing at trading, and sad to say there are no knives in his pockets, no tops with which to barter with the other fellow. He's traded out at eighty.

Dress-Up Millinery for Little Misses

The winsome heads of little girls are pretty in anything, and nearly all the time they are suitably protected by plain and serviceable hats. But every little while comes along a joyous, or important occasion, when little miss must be dressed up a bit. Then she is entitled to wear real millinery, a hat from the milliner's—of delicate materials and dainty trimmings. Three such hats are shown here. One of them at the top is a straw braid shape in natural straw color with a wide collar of satin ribbon laid in folds at the side, each fold held down by a tiny flower. The hat has a satin binding to match the ribbon, and any pretty color may be chosen for it. For an older miss a tam is shown of straw braid and silk with ribbon trim. The small hat of silk has its upturned brim decorated with needlework, a pretty ornament at the front and loops and ends of narrow ribbon at the sides.

If some of the women I know had some of the men I know for husbands, they'd give 'em poison, and—the men would take it.

SAGE TEA KEEPS YOUR HAIR DARK. When Mixed With Sulphur It Brings Back Its Beautiful Lustre At Once.

Gray hair, however handsome, denotes advancing age. We all know the advantages of a youthful appearance. Your hair is your charm. It makes or mars the face. When it fades, turns gray and looks streaked, just a few applications of Sage Tea and Sulphur enhances its appearance a hundred-fold. Don't stay gray!—Look young! Either prepare the recipe at home or get from any drug store a bottle of "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound," which is merely the old-time recipe improved by the addition of other ingredients. Thousands of folks recommend this ready-to-use preparation, because it darkens the hair beautifully, besides, no one can possibly tell, as it darkens so naturally and evenly. You moisten a sponge or soft brush with it, drawing this through the hair, taking one small strand at a time. By morning the gray hair disappears; after another application or two, its natural color is restored and it becomes thick, glossy and lustrous, and you appear years younger.

Drink Water If Back or Kidneys Hurt. Begin Taking Salts If You Feel Backache or Have Bladder Weakness. Too much rich food forms acids which excite and overwork the kidneys in their efforts to filter it from the system. Flush the kidneys occasionally to relieve them like you relieve the bowels, removing acids, waste and poison, else you may feel a dull misery in the kidney region, sharp pains in the back or sick headache, dizziness, the stomach sour, tongue is coated, and when the weather is bad you have rheumatic twinges. The urine is cloudy, full of sediment, the channels often get irritated, obliging one to get up two or three times during the night. To help neutralize these irritating acids and flush off the body's urinous waste, begin drinking water. Also get about four ounces of Jad Salts from any pharmacy, take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys will then act fine and bladder disorders disappear. This famous salt is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for years to help clean and stimulate sluggish kidneys and stop bladder irritation. Jad Salts is inexpensive and makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink which millions of men and women take now and then to help prevent serious kidney and bladder disorders. By all means, drink lots of good water every day. Have your physician examine your kidneys at least twice a year.

YOU MUST

Money acquired quickly has a tendency to go as fast. Accumulated slowly it lasts and lasts. While you can't become rich by just saving, you will never be rich if you don't save. You can have anything if you can save. You can save if you must. You must if you want to have anything.

DIPPING INTO SCIENCE

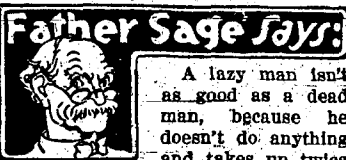

Early Automobiles

If an automobile is a "horseless vehicle," then they originated several centuries back. A Jesuit missionary built "an improvement on the wind coaches of the natives." A jet of steam playing on a mill wheel furnished power. A London paper in March, 1742, announced the arrival from Bern, Switzerland, "of a chaise that travels without horse, carries five persons, and of sound mechanical principles." Size of Sphinx

The great Sphinx, lying about a quarter of a mile southeast of the Great Pyramid in Egypt, is 172 feet 6 inches in length and 66 feet high. Its head is more than 100 feet around. While its exact age is in doubt, investigations seem to indicate that it was built about 5,000 B. C. (© 1924, Western Newspaper Union.)

Early Use of Gas

The first American house in which gas was used for lighting was the home of David Melville, at Newport, R. I., Baltimore, Md., was the first city in the United States to use gas for lighting. It was introduced there in 1817.

Wear White Dresses These Warm Days

Mrs. Brown: "Hello Mrs. White. How is everything?"

Mrs. White: "Everything is fine only the weather is pretty warm don't you think?"

Mrs. Brown: "Yes, these days are pretty warm. Just the kind of weather to wear white and you know white is so much cooler too, than a color."

Mrs. White: "Surely, but who wants to sew when the weather is so hot?"

Mrs. Brown: "You don't have to sew. Go to the East Jordan Lumber Co. store, they have such a good Bungalow apron or dress which ever way you want to wear it, in white for $1.25, and the 'Hoover' Dress for $1.50, also white. And these are of good cloth and very well made and easy to launder. White is so good this year and really these are the best dresses I've seen for the price."

CONGRESS SETS NEW PACE IN LAWMAKING

Total of Eight Hundred Ninety-Six Bills Passed During First Session.

Washington.—The Sixty-ninth congress, at the closing of its first session July 3, was well in way toward out-doing any of its predecessors in law-making, according to information compiled under the direction of William Tiller Page, clerk of the house of representatives.

Not only was the number of laws in excess of other first sessions for which records have been compiled, but the total was greater by 121 than was the total of laws enacted in all the first sessions in ten years, including the war emergency period.

There were 696 public and private laws and resolutions added to the statutes of the United States in the 153 days of the session.

The measures that went through were divided as follows: Public laws, 523; public resolutions, 48; private laws and resolutions, 327; total, 898. There were no vetoes. Five of the 898 acts covered a multitude of laws. These were omnibus pension bills. The five of them enacted into law 2,717 private bills, saving by that method much expense in printing and other items. If these were all counted individually, the grand total would be 8,606 bills which became laws during the first six months of 1926. Although the senate is less than one-fourth the size of the house, it had better luck than the so-called lower branch of congress in the number of its bills which became laws. The upper body originated more than one-half of the measures that finally went on the statute books.

The 898 laws are subdivided as follows:

- House bills, 557.
- House joint resolutions, 24.
- Senate bills, 290.
- Senate joint resolutions, 25.

There are yet more laws to be written on the books when congress reconvenes, for the first session had a total of 1,405 bills reported by committees. Approximately 500 are slated for favorable consideration next winter, this being the difference between those reported and those enacted.

A grand total of 18,908 bills and resolutions was introduced. The nearest to that in recent years was the first session of the Sixty-sixth congress, when the total reached 11,418. The first session of the Sixty-fifth congress spent 114 days in writing 100 laws. The first session of the Sixty-sixth, 144 days in writing 121 laws; the first session of the Sixty-seventh congress, 139 days making 152 laws; and the first session of the Sixty-eighth took 142 days in writing 398 laws. This was at the rate of between two and three a day.

The first session of the Sixty-ninth congress, recently closed, was 158 days in writing its 898 laws, so that approximately six a day were approved. If the omnibus bills had not been counted as simply five, the rate would have been about twenty-three laws a day.

Place Cost of Bushel of Corn at $1.40 to $1.43

Des Moines, Iowa.—The corn-belt committee, recently in session here, received a report of its cost-finding committee, which fixed the actual cost of production of a bushel of corn in Iowa, with an allowance for a fair profit, at $1.42.

The report also set forth that in Illinois the expense of producing corn, with a fair profit of 5 per cent cent included, is $1.43; in Nebraska, $1.40; Minnesota, $1.41, and in North Dakota and Wisconsin, $1.42.

Other costs of production in Iowa, allowing the same fair margin of profit, were reported as: Oats, 79 cents; wheat, $2.49; hay, $21.44; hogs, $16.82; veal, $17.82; wool, 66 cents; butterfat, 96 cents, and eggs, 61 cents.

A 160-acre farm was the area upon which the compilation was based and it was capitalized at $148 an acre, with an average interest of 5 per cent, or $1,184. Other expenses figured included:

Depreciation on a $2,250 dwelling, $90; depreciation on $8,800 worth of other buildings, $184; depreciation on fences, $88; depreciation and interest upon $1,978.90 worth of machinery, $385.56; farmer's salary, $1,800; hired help, $360; fertilizer, $101.60, and automobile depreciation and interest, $121.50, only 75 per cent of the motor car expense being charged to the farm.

The total income necessary for the 5 per cent fair return as outlined is $5,601.44, against what was sold to be a present income of $2,998.44.

The figures were compiled by E. E. Kennedy of Pontiac, Ill.

Antedated Jazz

"Blue" songs had a vogue in the southern central states many years before jazz was known. The nature of the song is all that the name implies and is in the same category as the "spiritual" and the "jubilee" heard so frequently through the South.

Sheer Fabrics Used in New Two-Piece Frocks

The two-piece frock of georgette and other sheer fabrics is prevalent among the new jumper frocks for summer wear. Shades of tans, grays and brilliant reds are the most fashionable in these fabrics, many of them having novel trimmings of a contrasting color to give added chic. One of the smartest of these models is this beige jumper frock of Elizabeth crepe, worn by Joan Crawford, featured in Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer's "The Gray Hat," which is smartly trimmed with red satin collar and cuffs. A flower motif of beige and red is embroidered at the bottom of the blouse, giving it an interesting finish.

Lasses Vary in Length

The length of lassos depends upon the use to which they will be put. Some are from 20 to 25 feet. This will allow a fairly good throw. Some lassos, however, are much longer than this, such as the western lasso. These run sometimes as long as 50 feet.

Too Much With Us!

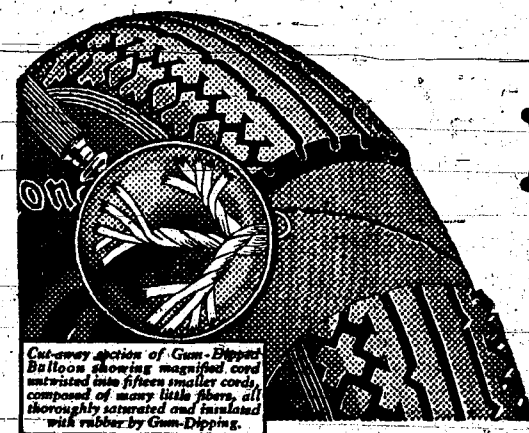

The principal trouble with popular songs, says a musical authority, is that they are cheap and maudlin. Wrong. The principal trouble with popular songs is that they are popular.

Hotel Porters Have Code

The tipping habits of European tourists are indicated by hotel porters to each other by the angles at which they place luggage labels, says the Dearborn Independent.
