School Band at Governor's Meet

ARE PAID FINE COMPLIMENT BY GOV. GREEN AND OTHERS.

The local High School Band was no small factor in the success of Mackinac Island's welcome to the Governors. At four o'clock Sunday morning quite a delegation of citizens, who with their cars took the boys to Mackinaw to catch the 7:30 boat for the Island in order to be there in time to meet the Steamship Eastern States from Detroit with the Governors. Four or five Governors came to the Island privately, a couple of them by airplane, however about fifteen of them came in on the above mentioned boat. So many dignified gentlemen with their wives and families made an occasion to be remembered.

After the local boys played the boat in and the Governors had taken their carriages to the Grand Hotel, they took dinner at the New Mackinac, and to say, the lads were ready for lunch, after getting up at 2:45 a. m. is putting it mildly. A very large crowd of celebrities, natives of the Island and others were in attendance. Besides the boys, the following citizens accompanied the band:—A. W. Frieburg, Mrs. Grace Boswell, Mr. and Mrs. H. Rosenthal, Dr. Pray and David Pray, Mr. and Mrs. Taylor, Mr. and Mrs. Ellis, Mr. and Mrs. Irvin Hiatt, Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Duncanson and daughter, Alicia, James Gidley and daughter, Miss Fern, Pete Bulow and Clarence Healey.

The boys and Mr. Ter Wee were generous with their music and played well. They were called upon repeatedly. First at the boat, then in the afternoon at Fort Mackinac where they played before the Governors. Mr. Ter Wee had the boys play some Irish melodies, which were especially pleasing to Gov. Green. It was at this time that Mr. Green complimented the boys on their playing and introduced them to five or six other Governors. It goes without saying that it was a distinct honor to have had the privilege of playing on such an occasion. To have been asked to play at such a conference is not only a compliment to the boys and Director Ter Wee, but a distinct honor to the High School and town of East Jordan.

Another concert was given Sunday evening in front of the Chippawa Hotel. This was perhaps the best rendered of any concert given on the trip and was greatly appreciated by a large crowd of spectators, a hundred or more of the Sailors and Officers from the U. S. Training Ship Wilmette. Remarks from the officers showed that the boys were able to show the ship's band up.

The boys were taken around the Island in carriages, ordered up by our good friend Frank Kenyon. It was largely through the influence of Mr. Kenyon that the Band got the invitation and it surely was good advertising for the band and East Jordan. Many remarks were heard like the following: "Where is this band from? From Wisconsin or Maine, etc. "Now they are good."

Monday morning they gave a concert in the garden in front of the Grand Hotel, then in the afternoon a final concert on the veranda of the New Mackinac Hotel. The whole East Jordan delegation left on the four o'clock boat for home, arriving about 7 o'clock in ship shape after a very pleasant trip for everyone. A further compliment was paid the boys when a delegation of Mackinac business men asked them to stay two days longer, offering them $100 a day.

The band is grateful to the citizens who made this trip possible by the contribution of their cars and time. Also to Frank Kenyon who at all times was very proud to boost that they were the H. S. Band from his home town.

Thousands Attend The Motor Derby

Grounds of the Charlevoix County Agricultural Society in East Jordan were crowded with people from all over this part of the State last Sunday to witness the Motor Derby and Flying Circus.

The program of motorcycle races, auto polo and auto push ball were good. The stunts of the flying circus was exceptionally fine, being the finest exhibit of aerial work ever shown in this region.

This show is scheduled for Traverse City next Sunday, July 31st, where they will play under auspices of the American Legion.

Few smokers think that tobacco can ever hurt their hearts. Luck is what the other fellow has. News is great, but little is being published along that line.

E. J. Chautauqua Here July 29-Aug. 1.

The United Chautauqua of Des Moines, Iowa with Mr. Foster as Superintendent opens a four day program here tonight, Friday, July 29th. This is a community affair and it is up to all the people in this locality who believe in a highly entertaining and inspirational type of entertainment to attend. Season tickets at $1.00 for the seven performances will be on sale until 8:30 tonight by several of the citizens and also at the High School Auditorium.

Handling of Sweet Clover

NEW WAY BEING USED IN CHARLEVOIX COUNTY

Many interesting comments have been heard during the past few weeks from people driving thru the county upon noticing the many fields having been cut with a grain binder and shocked up. Upon first thought it couldn't be, it was too early for grain. Well then what was it, strange to say it was sweet clover, being handled the new way.

Farmers have always liked sweet clover for hay, but in the past the great stumbling block has been the difficulty in properly curing it, which has been instrumental in cutting down of the acreage of the most valuable crop for soil-building and pasture.

Farmers have worried more about sweet clover than any other hay crop. Before sweet clover could all be cut it would always get too far advanced. Then as a result of the difficulty in curing it, the alfalfa and other hays would also be too advanced for high quality hay.

With the use of the ordinary grain binder, the curing of sweet clover is very simple. It is cut when the time is right, with the binder, in small bundles, tied as loosely as possible, immediately shocked up and forgotten for a period of from one to three weeks, during which time the other hays can be cut and cured, then in odd times draw in the sweet clover hay without less of time or labor.

Here are a few reasons why we can heartily recommend this new system:

1. Sweet clover can be cut at right stage. In the old way some gets too coarse and woody, making poor quality hay.
2. It does not lose its leaves, as the bundles hold the contents intact. In the old way a good share of the leaves are lost by too much handling.
3. It cures much better and easier. Other methods allow sun to wither the leaves, which dries up the hay instead of curing. The sun never strikes inside of the bundle.
4. Rain does not penetrate the bundles and cause discoloration. In other systems rain does penetrate, bleaching the hay and making necessary extra handling of hay for curing purposes.
5. It saves time, labor and expense, as the operations necessary are diminished, cost much less, and labor can be better utilized for other hays.
6. It permits more hay being placed in the same space and in a much easier form to feed.

There are several other reasons in favor of the new system, but space does not permit them, but by all means see your neighbors that are using the new way, watch their results this winter, then use your own judgement next year.

Cross-Country Tourists

Potato Tour Visits Many State Growers

Many visitors from other States will take part in the State-wide potato tour scheduled from August 8 to 18, according to the statement of members of the farm crops department of Michigan State College.

This will be the first time many of the members of the tour have seen the fields which produce the potatoes that they buy yearly. The potato crop of Michigan now finds its way to the markets of most of the States east of the Mississippi, and the buyers of these potatoes are interested in the men and the cultural methods that produce their seed and table stock potatoes.

The tour starts with an inspection of the State College experimental plots at 1:00 p. m. August 8. The line of march will then be to Greenville, Big Rapids, Reed City, Tustin, Cadillac, Manton, Traverse City, Kingsley, Bellaire, Alba, Gaylord, Burt Lake, Petoskey, Levering, Van and Mackinaw City.

At Mackinaw City arrangements have been made to divide the tour so that those desiring to visit the potato areas of the Upper Peninsula may do so while the rest of the party continue on to Onaway, Rogers City, Posen, Cathro and Alpena.

The route through the Upper Peninsula will be St. Ignace, Newberry, Seney, Munising, Chatham, Skandia, Marquette, Crystal Falls, Champion, Sagola, Iron Mountain, Hermansville, Dagget, Wallace, Bark River, Escanaga, Cooks Mills, Manistique and St. Ignace.

The potato producing sections of Michigan lie in the area where the scenic beauty draws thousands of visitors each year. Side trips to many of the most noted beauty points have been arranged for members of this tour. H. C. Moore, farm crops department, Michigan State College, will furnish detailed information to any one interested.

Mrs. Dora Stockman To Meet With Deer Lake Grange

Mrs. Dora H. Stockman will meet with Deer Lake Grange, Saturday evening, Aug. 6th.

All Grange officers are requested to be present for a conference. All other members are also invited to attend.

This promises to be a fine meeting and the Grange is very fortunate in having Mrs. Stockman in the County. It is hoped that every Grange will be well represented.

Family Reunion at Harrington Home

A family reunion was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. William Harrington in this city, last Sunday, July 24th, two sons, three daughters, and grandchildren participating. Those present were:—

Mr. and Mrs. Russell Harrington and family of Flint; Blaine Harrington of Muskegon; Mrs. Nellie Sweet of Muskegon; Mrs. Pearl Pelton of Knoxville, Tenn.; Mrs. Margaret Caulder of Regina, Sask.; and Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Bell and family of Muskegon.

When the end of the world comes it is more than likely that we will have some unfinished business pending.

Charlevoix County Is Re-accredited

We are pleased to learn from a recent announcement from H. W. Norton, Director, Bureau of Animal Industry, State Dept. of Agriculture, that Charlevoix County has been re-accredited under date of July 1st, for a period of three years. We have the honor of being the third county in Michigan and one of the few in the United States that have made such a successful campaign to eradicate tuberculosis from its boundaries.

In order to be accredited a County must have less than .5 of 1% infection which makes it next to impossible for the dreaded disease to gain a foothold. This high rating now held by the county is worth thousands of dollars to the farmers as it means added value on every head of cattle owned. During the last two years on an average, out-of-State buyers have purchased several carloads of cattle and paid a premium of from ten to fifteen dollars more per head as a result of our accreditation.

At the present time there are 34 Counties that are accredited, 19 counties with the first test completed, 2 counties with first test in progress, and 18 counties on the waiting list, which totals 73 out of the 83 counties in the State that have taken action.

By the time you read this, there will be 42 counties that are accredited as 8 more have been sent in for accreditation.

The Charlevoix County Board of Supervision should be complimented for their financial assistance that has made the work possible and their desire to make this county one of the most healthy spots in Michigan to live.

Five Farm Homes Landscaped

The visit of O. I. Gregg, Specialist in Landscape Architecture, of M. S. C., last week was very instructive and beneficial to several families interested in making their homes more attractive.

In the one day Mr. Gregg was only able to work with five co-operators and make plans for the improvements to be made. This new phase of work proved to be so popular that many requests for the work had to be turned down for lack of time at this season. The following homes were visited: Fred Mason, Charlevoix; Arlo Wickersham, Charlevoix; Wesley Dilworth, Horton Bay; Harry Behling, Boyne City, and Wm. Tindall, Boyne City.

In a short time—two places will be selected from the County and next spring public demonstrations will be given, personally supervised by Mr. Gregg.

Plans are being made for another visit by Mr. Gregg, some time in Oct., when two or three more farms can be landscaped, and in addition three or four meetings held so that more interested people can attend and receive assistance in improving the appearance of their homes.

We are very fortunate in having the Charlevoix County Nursery located in the county, where any and all of the shrubs, bushes, flowers, etc., can be purchased. Geo. Hemingway, its proprietor is very anxious to co-operate and lend his efforts in making the homes more attractive and pleasing in appearance. Have you ever visited the Nursery and enjoyed the most beautiful surroundings to be found anywhere in this section?

Mr. Hemingway is planning an entertaining the public at an early date. Urges all lovers of beauty to spend a day as his guests and inspect his Nursery. Watch for further announcements.

Essential Points In Road Building

Two essential points in road building are—that concrete roads wear, and that all other kinds wear out. The age of concrete roads is not known for as yet, none have worn out, and I truly believe that one hundred years from now this same statement will be true.

I never did suppose that the whole United States would immediately take up the building of good concrete roads, but I did think that Charlevoix County would—and then after our adjoining counties had witnessed the beauty and permanency of these roads, and they too would. But this I do say, "That as a result of the object lessons which have been so forcibly given us in our building of these roads fifteen years ago and all the newspapers in Charlevoix Co. preaching and publishing them, I did expect more concrete roads built."

Remember: Uncle George says, "Every householder in every county should subscribe for one newspaper at least in his own county—and every business man should advertise his business. Show me the man in business who does not advertise, and I'll show you a dead or dying one. If you will compare the articles in your own county papers with those of many other counties, you will admit that you have a superior class of papers at home.

It is absolutely a crime to spend our money for building the kind of roads we are. Especially since we have so many miles of concrete roads which haven't cost a dollar since they were built, and all the others have cost us hundreds of thousands of dollars, with no permanency in any of them, nor can there be. The whole world has ever been looking for something according to the system of their times—while Charlevoix County has sat still for the past ten years with folded hands, apparently satisfied with what they have done. Now the time has come to wake up and devise ways whereby we can get the balance of our twenty miles of Dixie Highway finished, and a complete concrete road around Lake Charlevoix.

I feel very proud of the following poem which was written some twelve years ago. It has been copied by several papers and seems to have made a good impression.

Where Are The Roads?
Hordes of autos now remind us,
We should build our roads to stay.
And departing leave behind us,
Kind that rains don't wash away.
When our children pay the mortgage,
Fathers made to have their loads,
They'll not have to ask the question,
Here's the bonds, where are the roads?

Yours truly,
Uncle George Van Pelt.

M. E. Church Was Dedicated

SUNDAY, JULY 24TH, WAS BIG DAY WITH EAST JORDAN M. E. CHURCH.

From a field of pine stumps to the beautiful new church on the corner is certainly some transformation.

Forty-one years ago the little group of members held services in the town hall, with W. H. McCartney, as Pastor.

There were nine great big pine stumps where the Methodist Church and Parsonage now stand. These were not removed with dynamite or great big 4,000 lb. teams, but with a shovel and ax, and such horse power as the townspeople and farmers donated—one man donating the use of an ox team. The pastor assumed the removal of the largest stump, and old residents say it was sure some job.

The parsonage was built (or part of it) the next summer. There was no basement under the church at the time, this being dug out several years after. Nearly all this labor was donated, the men working after supper, wheeling the dirt out with wheelbarrows.

The church was remodeled and enlarged in 1911, with T. Porter Bennett as pastor. This structure burned in May, 1926. Rebuilding operations were started in Sept. and were completed just in time for the Dedication Services of last Sunday, July 24th, 1927.

The services of last Sunday started at 7:00 a. m. with a talk to the Young People by Rev. C. E. Pollock of Charlevoix, Mich.

At 9:00 a. m. several babies were baptized, and at 10:00 o'clock Dr. L. R. Eckardt of Depauw, Ind., preached, followed by Sunday School at 11:00, at which time Prof. F. G. Blair of Springfield, Ill., gave a very interesting talk on the lesson subject, "David and Goliath."

The Dedication services were held at 3:00 p. m., Dr. J. O. Randall, D. S. officiating, and at 7:00 p. m., Dr. C. J. Kruse of Petoskey conducted the final service of the day.

The music of the day deserves special note. The Yinger Quartette, one of the most noted in Michigan, entertained at the 10:00, 11:00 and 3:00 o'clock sessions. At the morning service, Harker Kirby of Charlevoix sang "The Holy City" in a very pleasing manner. In the afternoon, a solo by the director, and two anthems by the choir of Asbury Church of Traverse City; and in the evening, a solo by Miss Drusilla Shaw, and a Quartette from Petoskey completed a program of music much appreciated by all present.

The re-building was financed by insurance received from the fire, and contributions by friends of the church. There is a small indebtedness to be cleaned up. The officials of the church wish to publicly express their appreciation to all who assisted in the re-building and dedication of this church.

Progress Made In Barberry Campaign

Good progress has been reported thus far, in the barberry eradication campaign which is being conducted in Charlevoix County this year. The territory around East Jordan has been completed and the squad has moved to Boyne City. Many areas of escaped areas were located in the territory around East Jordan.

The campaign is being carried on by the United States Department of Agriculture. The common barberry against which the campaign is waged is the cause of black stem rust on oats, wheat, barley, rye and other grains and grasses. It is interesting to note that there has been a noticeable check of black stem rust in the last two years; over the entire area in which the campaign is being carried on.

This is largely due to the fact that over fifteen million common barberry bushes have been killed which means that there are just that many less places for original inoculation to spring from. Thus the black stem rust cannot get started in a big enough way to do any great damage as it has in the past.

The common barberry is a tall, erect, spiny bush. The leaves are purple or green in color and have saw toothed edges. The spines are usually in groups of three or more. The red berries which are borne in clusters, like currants, are quite conspicuous. The bark is grayish and the wood yellow.

Auditorium, it is said, was derived from two foreign words: audio, to hear; and taurus, bull.

DIPPING INTO SCIENCE

Rainbows
The white rays of the sun, in shining through air which is filled with tiny particles of water, are refracted as the rays strike the rounded surfaces in entering the drops and are broken up into prismatic colors. The colors are reflected and again reflected as they re-enter the air, thus forming our rainbows.

"Auto's" Derivation
The word automobile was taken from the Greek "auto," meaning self, plus the Latin "mobilis," meaning movable. It is of French origin and is an adjective used as a noun. In its first usage it was applied only to pleasure vehicles or carriages. The term was created to meet the sudden demand for a word to describe the horseless, or self-propelling vehicle.

ALASKA HOTEL OWNED BY 'MOTHER OF NORTH'

Got Her, Start Cooking for Gold Seekers.

Skagway, Alaska.—Many tourists from the States know Mrs. Harriet Pullen of the famous Pullen house, which is 1,500 miles as a plane flies from Ketchikan, at the southeastern tip of Alaska to Nome, out to the northwest on Bering sea. All over the world, wherever linger those madmen and others who came rushing to Alaska and the Klondike—to the eastward, in Canada—for gold in 1898 and 1899, Mrs. Pullen is loved. A handful of women became famous because they were able to stand beside the sprinkling of men in the uncounted myriad of goldrushers who were hard enough to conquer the North—and of all that bright company the men of the golden North count Mrs. Pullen the brightest.

Young, comely, strong, Harriet Pullen was daughter of a rancher on Puget sound in Washington state. She came to Alaska in 1898 with her four children to go with her husband over the Chilkoot trail or the equally terrible White pass trail into the Klondike for gold.

Had $7 and Four Children. She lost her husband. Camped on the beach here she had $7—and four little children. The rush was never so mad that men did not eat, and the mother with the four children and $7 went to cooking. She cooked so well and withal was so kind and helpful that those thousands passing through here and up the White pass trail or through Dyea, four miles from Skagway, and up the Chilkoot trail, called her the Mother of the North. She prospered and bought out old Cap Moore's boarding house in Skagway.

The boarding house she developed into Pullen house, a 20-room modern hotel, standing in a landscape garden of several acres, split by a mountain stream with an island and rustic bridges. Canadians opening up their country came with a railroad over White pass—the White Horse & Yukon.

The railroad still runs, and Mrs. Pullen still prospers because the whitehanded children of the outside come, taking this fast route to see the sights of the North. Pullen house is reputed to have entertained more distinguished guests than any other hostelry in the North.

Sent to West Point. Mrs. Pullen's oldest son was Dan. He attended the University of Washington, which then had a preparatory school, five years. President Roosevelt gave him the first appointment from Alaska to West Point. He became all-American tackle, and graduated among the first five cadets in his class.

Into the World war he went as a colonel of engineers. He was pressed into service as a tank commander. With his squadron of tanks he took a German position, but infantry following him, failed to consolidate. To hold the position, Pullen hastened back afoot, reformed the infantry, led them back and retook the position. He died of sleeping sickness, attributed to war service, two years ago.

Royal Pullen graduated from the University of Washington, playing guard, and was an officer in the World war. Both brothers were cited for gallantry, and General Pershing once exclaimed: "I wish I had a regiment of Pullens."

Mildred Pullen graduated at a nurses' school in New York city. Chester Pullen, a student at the University of Washington, was drowned at Ketchikan on his way back to the States after a summer at home.

Note in Bottle Tells of Gold in Canada

Norway, Maine.—Do the bones of two human skeletons stand as the gruesome monument to a great gold field? Woodbury Russell resolves this question in his mind as he plans trips in search of the yellow metal. He has abandoned interest in the search and gives all the information he possesses to the public.

His information is contained in a note found floating in a tightly-corked bottle below the falls at Clark City, on the St. Margaret river, in Canada. The note reads:

"Whoever finds this bottle, there is gold and in plenty 25 miles above the falls. My chum, Jack, is dead, and I am freezing to death."

Russell, a contractor and builder, went with his brother and several other men to do construction work at Clark City, Canada. Here they found the bottle, and made their first successful trip in search of the mentioned gold.

Automobiles Aid Alfalfa Growing

Legume Becoming Popular as Market for Timothy Hay Is Dwindling.

Automobiles aid the production of alfalfa, because, as they replace horses, the market for timothy hay, which was once a major cash crop on many New York farms, dwindles and in its place farmers in some sections are producing the legume, says the New York State College of Agriculture at Ithaca, N. Y.

Best Cash Crop.
As a cash crop, alfalfa is better than timothy, because the demand for alfalfa is good whereas the demand for timothy is poor. As alfalfa is used more and more by feeders in regions where it cannot be produced cheaply, the demand probably will increase.

Aside from the chances of marketing it at a profit, alfalfa has other advantages, the college says. It is high in protein and therefore can be substituted, in part, for high-protein concentrates in feeding dairy cattle. The college points out that alfalfa prices were good and New York growers found it a profitable field crop even when the prices of mill feeds were low. If it was profitable to grow alfalfa then, it should be still more profitable to grow it when the prices of mill feeds are higher, for this should stimulate the use of alfalfa.

Sell Good Product.
Farmers who plan to produce alfalfa to sell, however, should be careful to offer only that which is free from weeds and other grasses and which is well cured. Much New York alfalfa that is marketed usually has to be sold at a low price because it has poor quality. The college advises farmers in sections adapted to the crop to grow more than they need at home and plan to sell only a good-quality product.

Live Stock in Wood Lot Hinder Timber Growth

The farm wood lot is more valuable as a producer of wood than as a pasture for live stock, according to C. R. Tillotson, forester of the United States Department of Agriculture. A year's forage production in the average wood lot is estimated to be worth from 25 cents to $1.25 an acre. In the same time a well-managed wood lot will add from one-half to one cord of wood. In addition there is the convenience of having a supply of cord wood, poles, posts and lumber near at hand.

Live stock eat and break down the young growth, bend it, strip it of bark, and tramp it out. Also by trampling the soil around the roots of older trees they pack it so tightly that air and water are excluded from the roots, and the trees gradually die. Hogs eat the seeds of oak and beech and thus interfere with the establishment of seedlings. Heavily pastured woods are easily recognized; they are almost entirely devoid of bushy undergrowth, a sod grass has begun to creep in, and the old trees are beginning to die in the tops.

Live stock undoubtedly benefit from the shelter afforded by woods. Two or three acres, however, will ordinarily give them all the shelter they need; the remainder of the woods had better be fenced off to grow wood crop.

Quack Grass Is Killed by Covering With Paper

Patches of quack grass are most easily killed by covering them with tar paper, says Matthew Fowlds at the South Dakota Agricultural college. Several experimental fields have been cleared by a four-year rotation of corn, oats, wheat and sweet clover or a similar combination. As soon as the sweet-clover crop was harvested the stubble was plowed under. Throughout the balance of the summer the ground was frequently disked and cultivated. Alfalfa has kept the weed from spreading but will not kill it in that state.

In Michigan J. F. Cox at the agricultural college advises very shallow plowing in August where whole fields are infected. Then disk and cross disk to cut the sod into pieces. The roots can then be raked together and burned. As soon as rain cakes the ground run over the field with a spring tooth harrow or disk, repeating every ten days. The next spring plow as early as possible, seven to nine inches deep, and plant a cultivated crop.

There are some men afraid of bats—but they go on them all the same. Most single men have their eyes on a single female. Most married men, from experience, have learned to keep their eyes on a single female.

The historic home of Barbara Fritchie in Frederick, Md., has been rebuilt on the original site, and Miss Julia E. The Green Cloak

By Yorke Davis

HAVE you in your travels or in your reading of the South Seas ever heard of the death chant of the Maoris, and do you know its significance? It forms the basis of the plot in this extremely fascinating mystery story. In this case the chant was not heard in faraway New Zealand, but in an American inland city. Read of the amazing double-personality of the girl who wore the green cloak.

ARGUMENT

By THOMAS ARKLE CLARK
Dean of Men, University of Illinois.

I PRESUME that at one time or another people may have been convinced by argument, but that would be only when the facts in the case were in question, but where it is a matter of opinion or of personal bias, I do not now recall any case where argument had any weight excepting to confirm each side more firmly than before in the point of view which it originally held. The man who said that he was easily convinced but he would like to see the person who could do it, was stating a situation which is almost universal. When a man starts to argue with you, the natural human tendency is to think up a rebuttal, and the harder he presses his opinion the more set you are in the opinion which he opposes.

Liza had served us for a number of years with intervals of lethargy or absence. If she announced her going we were sure it would not be long before she was again back on the job. I came down one morning to find everything silent at the back of the house. The stove was cold; no one was engaged in getting the morning meal. It was quite apparent, in the language of our Longfellow, that Liza had folded her tent like the Arabs and silently stolen away.

Her going caused some embarrassment for a time, but adjustments can be made, and we got on. She was back in a year for work again.

"Why did you run off like that?" Nancy asked her. "Why didn't you tell me you were going to leave so that I could have found some one else?"

"If I'd told you, you'd 'ave argued," she replied, "and I don't like arguin'."

Very few of us do.

When I was a boy there was a great sectarian debate scheduled in the neighborhood which occupied the time daily for a week. The subject was baptism, and the two contestants argued until their voices were hoarse and their tempers were on edge, the claims of sprinkling or immersion upon our consideration as forms of baptism. There was no apparent crowding of the doors at either the Baptist or the Methodist church after the argument was over. Neither man had done more than to establish in his own mind more firmly than ever the justification of his own belief, or perhaps to do the same thing for those who had already accepted the doctrine which he defended.

Drake used to want to talk things over, with me before he took a determined stand on one side of a question or another. I came to see what he was really doing was to argue the question a while with himself so that if he felt weak on any particular point he might by this sort of informal argument get his feet on solid ground as it were. He never convinced me by his talk; he simply convinced himself and that is the result of most argument.

I'm like Liza, "I don't like arguin'."

REVIEWS PROGRESS OF WAR ON DISEASE

Health Service Shows Reduction in Tuberculosis.

Washington.—Many diseases are being decreased by the activities of health departments, says the United States public health service in a review of the progress being made against disease, while other maladies are holding their own, and still others are actually increasing.

Disease of the heart at present causes more deaths in this country than any other one thing. The health officer, it is said, cannot do much to prevent heart disease except to give advice, but the layman can. "Your heart is your own," says the review, "and you can easily neglect and abuse it, or you can be taught how to take care of it. Most cases of heart disease result from avoidable conditions and are contracted usually early in life. If you wish to know how to avoid these conditions, go to your doctor or your dentist, or both. They can help you avoid heart disease if you go to them in time."

"Influenza and pneumonia together stand next to heart disease in the number of deaths which they cause. Reports of tuberculosis for 1924 have not yet been completed. We know that this disease killed 78,423 in the 35 states from which reports have been received. Estimating for the rest of the population at the same rate, we assume that 112,000 persons died in the United States in 1924 of tuberculosis. This, of course, is bad, but it is the lowest rate we have ever had. If the same rate had prevailed in 1924 as we had in 1900, there should have been 233,000 deaths instead of 112,000, so you see there were proportionately less than one-half as many deaths in 1924 as in 1900.

Control of Diphtheria.

"Diphtheria is a disease which doctors and health officers have learned how to control, provided the people will co-operate, but not otherwise. Based on the rates for 35 states from which reports have been received, it is estimated that there were 10,700 deaths from diphtheria in 1924. Now that is bad, but it is the lowest rate we have ever had. Again, if the 1900 rate prevailed, we would have had nearly 50,000 deaths instead of 10,700. In other words, there were proportionately nearly five times as many deaths from diphtheria in 1900 as there were in 1924. If parents would have their children Schick-tested and have the doctor give the toxin-antitoxin treatment to those who are susceptible to the disease, there would not be very much diphtheria left. You may write to the surgeon general for literature on diphtheria.

"Many people think that whooping cough is not a serious disease. Well, whooping cough is not so serious for grown people or for older children, but it murders babies and young children by the thousands. Do not let your baby get whooping cough.

"At the beginning of the present century the control of typhoid fever seemed almost hopeless. Today we are usually able to find out who or what is to blame, even if it is only a small outbreak of typhoid fever. However, present conditions indicate that there was more typhoid fever in the United States in 1925 than in 1924, and health officers everywhere are on the alert to check this tendency.

Measles Hard to Combat.

"Measles is a disease which is extremely difficult to combat in the present state of our knowledge. While there has been a general reduction in the death rate from this disease since 1900, this reduction is not marked, and the course of the disease is very irregular. Our inability to control measles is due in great measure to the fact that there usually elapses a period of about four days from the time of the appearance of the initial symptoms to the time of the appearance of the eruption. Measles is communicable during this stage. The child is not infrequently at school during a portion of this time, and unless a doctor is called, the disease is not recognized until the eruption appears. Many mild cases of measles are never seen by a physician and are not reported.

"Infantile paralysis or poliomyelitis is another deadly disease. Fortunately, it is not as prevalent as measles or whooping cough, but it is sufficiently common to strike terror into the hearts of parents. Scarlet fever shows an apparent increase. However, it is believed that the cases are being better reported and there was an actual decrease of 12 per cent in the number of deaths during 1924.

"Approximately 16,000 people are killed each year in the United States by automobiles, and the number is increasing."

Japan Barbers Combat Smiling Female Rivals

Honolulu.—Fear that the alluring smiles and soft words of Japanese woman barbers would lure too many customers away from the shops run by the opposite sex has resulted in the appointment of an anti-flirting committee by the Japanese-Barbers' association.

One barber from each of the 24 districts in the city was selected to act on the committee, which will watch the feminine shops in an effort to put to an end tonsorial flirtations. The association has issued a decree forbidding flirting, but no explanation has been made as to how the ban will be enforced.

PRINTER USES GOLDEN RULE

Sharing of Profits Builds Business, He Says.

Seattle, Wash.—The Golden Rule in a printing establishment may be comparatively new, but Clint W. Lee, Seattle specialty printer, believes he has proved it a success in the ten years he has operated under this system.

Twenty-four years ago, Lee started business on a small scale, assisted by a printer and a $6-a-week boy. Ten years ago he first began to share his profits with his son and with his pressman.

Since then he has gradually developed his co-operative plan, and last year distributed $4,700 in profits among the thirty-five men and women on his pay roll. Moreover, he has made money.

The Christian printer, as Lee is known in Seattle, said he has no cut and dried plan which can be applied in any business. His policy is the result of year to year experiment in his own plant. He has seen fit to divide 30 per cent of the net income of the plant with his employees besides paying union wages or better and giving a week's vacation yearly with pay. His minimum wage for experienced girls is $20 a week and only two receive so little as that.

Group life insurance on the employees is paid for entirely by the company and one-third of the cost of health and accident insurance. Every employee is given an opportunity to buy stock in the concern on easy terms.

One of the new human element features of Lee's policy is a 20-minute chapel service every Monday morning on the company's time. Lee, who was elected chaplain, starts the exercises at eight o'clock with a prayer.

Court Presentation in England More Difficult

London.—Obtaining a presentation to the king and queen is becoming such a task that even English folk of high rank have to resort to subterfuges to obtain a court presentation for their own children. So many foreigners are claiming the right of presentation nowadays that even though their majesties hold four courts instead of two in a season, the English-born debutante has difficulty in getting into the presence of her sovereigns.

Hundreds of applications were received by the lord chamberlain this year. Already the unsuccessful applicants are registering for next year. Many parents whose daughters do not reach the debutante age of eighteen before 1927 or 1928, have made applications for the year in which their daughters shall be old enough. The lord chamberlain has received these applications but not accepted them, for he fears that if such a precedent is set, soon applications for presentation will be filed as soon as a baby girl is born in eligible families. American mothers are quick to follow this lead. The American embassy already has application for the courts of 1927 and 1928.

Americans Big Losers in Casinos of France

Nice, France.—It is estimated that American visitors lost $3,240,000 francs in the Riviera casinos last year. The "kittles" of the various casinos amounted to $3,100,000 francs, 40 per cent of which is figured to have come from American pocketbooks.

The municipal casino of Cannes led all the others in paying local and state taxes on a total bank's percentage of $2,904,000 francs. The municipal casino of Nice was second with 29,280,000 francs, while the other casino at Nice, the Promenade Jetty casino, was third with 10,981,000 francs.

Monte Carlo casino, which is not a French casino, had a yearly "kitty" of 112,550,000 francs. (The franc at present is worth about 8 1/2 cents.)

No Wonder

New York.—Lucrezia Bori of the Metropolitan spends more than $25,000 a year on her stage wardrobe and $15,000 for other clothes. And so, she says, that's why she's always poor. The company would provide costumes for her, but she prefers to design and buy her own.

DIPPING INTO SCIENCE

The Source of Chalk

Chalk is really skeletons of millions of tiny creatures that at one time lived in the sea. All of their bodies, except the calcium carbonate, which is what chalk really is, decayed and passed away, but carbonate remained through all time. Chalk cliffs seen in England and France today then were one time sea beds.

Picturesque Costume of Flesh Organdie

Demure, adequately describes this organdie-frock-worn by Fay Wray, Paramount player. Fashioned of flesh organdie the flounced skirt makes a startling descent to molly's ankles, with an inch or two added by a taffeta and silver lace drop. Flesh taffeta binds the flounces and sleeves and a pink horse-hair hat is quite necessary to complete this picturesque costume.

MICHIGAN BELL TELEPHONE CO.

Long Distance Telephone Service Gives Durant "the personal touch"

DURANT MOTOR COMPANY

LANSING, MICHIGAN
EST. 1915

Mr. F. A. Campbell, Manager
Lansing Bell Telephone Company
Lansing, Michigan.

Dear Mr. Eastwood:

When "Bill" Lindbergh landed in Paris, about the first thing he wanted to do was to talk with his father over Long Distance.

Why?

Not because he did not know he had landed, but rather, so he could hear his voice.

The other day we talked with a dealer at Burlington, Iowa who said he had used the Long Distance simply to hear us say something again.

In other words, he wanted to get the personal touch. That is what we find the Long Distance does for us.

It reduces distance to nothing, and gives us an opportunity to talk with our dealers wherever the necessity arises, just as though they were at the plant.

We depend upon it in our sales work very nearly as much as our boys does our right arm.

Sincerely,
F. A. Campbell,
Manager

When Ban Johnson Started

It was in 1893 that Ban Johnson, who recently resigned as president of the American league, really started on his successful career as a baseball executive, as it was then he was selected by Charles Comiskey and other club owners to head the reorganized Western league which in 1900 developed into the American league.

As the governor of North Carolina did not say to the governor of South Carolina, "it is a long time between credits and collections."

State News in Brief

Marquette—Hurling himself under a street car when it was but a few feet from him, Einar Palmgren, 40 years old, ended his life here.

Lansing—The State Welfare Commission at a meeting here decided to make a personal inspection of the Jackson County Jail and Infirmary and the Lenawee County Infirmary. The commission will visit the institutions to determine whether conditions are acceptable to the state.

Detroit—Empty champagne bottles, provided they bear the proper label, are valuable in the United States. The Veuve. Cluquot company of Rheims, France, received an offer from a Detroit bootlegger of $30,000 for 10,000 "empties" to be shipped to Montreal. The firm refused the offer.

Saginaw—Condemnation proceedings against several property owners living on the west side of Bay City road, which was recently paved, will be started. The state highway department plans to extend the right of way on the road from 86 to 90 feet. All but eight or 10 property owners have signed the releases.

Lansing—Collections of automobile license fees for the second quarter of 1927 total $7,649,473, according to a report compiled by John S. Haggerty, secretary of state. Wayne county paid $926,617; Oakland, $146,712; Genesee, $181,580; Ingham, $72,865; Jackson, $78,228; Macomb, $50,100; Monroe, $29,068, and Washtenaw, $61,303.

Lansing—Probably the most disappointed man in Michigan over the Dempsey-Sharkey fight was the governor, Fred W. Green. He had nine tickets in a choice section and had completed plans for a little "vacation" sneak into New York to witness the battle. However, he admitted with lamentation, that all nine tickets had been given to friends because press of business forced him to "stick at the desk."

Lansing—The State Administrative Board has ordered connections installed to the Pontiac State Hospital may discontinue the use of its power house except for heating purposes. Power will be purchased. Gov. Fred W. Green said the hospital commission believes the Pontiac institution should be enlarged to accommodate 2,500 patients, and another hospital should be established capable of caring for 5,000 patients.

Grand Rapids—A shirt bearing the imprint of a horse's hoof on the left sleeve between the elbow and shoulder has cleared up the mystery in the death of Dirk Tanis, 70-year-old grocer, who was thought to have been clubbed to death. The imprint of the hoof on the left sleeve was at the point where Tanis' arm had been broken. Detectives believe that the kick of the horse threw him back against the wall fracturing his skull.

Lapeer—Fire believed of incendiary origin, destroyed three old landmark in Lapeer. The block on Park street between Pine and Court streets, was destroyed with a loss of more than $15,000. All the buildings were frame and had stood there for the past 60 years. While the fire was in progress an elevator owned by E. L. Paddison caught fire. Investigators found paper stuffed in a grain chute. The loss was more than $200.

Sault Ste Marie—Tossing what he declared to be his last half dollar to a man who was lying on the park grass nearby, Andrew Whelton, 35 years old, of South Boston, Mass., threw his coat off and jumped into the St. Mary's river just above the Government locks recently. He sank at once before the astonished eyes of his beneficiary without any attempt to swim. Books left in his coat pocket established his identity. He was a fireman on one of the lake steamers.

Ypsilanti—The Detroit Edison Co. has been given permission by the city council to remove the 100-foot steel electric light towers which have been a landmark of Ypsilanti for many years. The company reported the towers are in a dangerous condition and in need of extensive repairs. The towers were erected years ago with the idea that they would light up a large expanse of territory by reason of their height, but the growth of the city shade trees has made them of little value during the summer months.

Lansing—Lansing's final step toward the acquisition of an up-to-date flying field has been taken when the State Administrative Board on the recommendation of Frank D. McKay, state treasurer, voted to spend $2,500 to level the knolls and other rough spots on State ground, northwest of Lansing, so it will be fit for an airport and furnish a runway for the largest airplanes. This will give Lansing an airport as well as a golf course as the result of the beneficence of the State.

Lansing—Faced with the necessity of closing the Chelsea cement plant or sustaining an operating loss for the present year, Governor Fred W. Green has cancelled orders for 110,000 barrels of cement given to independent manufacturers by the last administration. The business will be given to the state-owned plant. This move is expected to cause protests from the independents, but the governor has pointed out to them that as long as the state is manufacturing cement, it should use its own product.

Holland—For the first time in the history of commercial fishing here, fish tugs have been forced to lay up due to lack of catch. Fishermen of 50 years' experience are at a loss to explain the reason.

Traverse City—Beatrice Dakin, of San Diego, who police said was kidnaped 17 years ago from her mother, now Mrs. Minnie Renike, of Traverse City, by her father, M. G. Dakin, has been located by Los Angeles, Calif., police, and has made plans to return to her mother. Miss Dakin was a baby when kidnaped and taken to San Diego.

Detroit—Colonel Charles A. Lindbergh will visit Detroit August 11, this being the tentative date fixed by the schedule for the flier's trip around the United States in the interests of commercial aviation and contained in a letter to Mayor John W. Smith, received from Harry F. Guggenheim, president of the Daniel Guggenheim fund for the promotion of aeronautics.

Owosso—Twenty-five barrels of oil are being pumped daily from the first oil well in Shiawassee Co., according to the drillers. While this amount is, comparatively small, operators declare that the large amount of water found is a good indication. The well has not been shot yet and the oil being pumped is only seepage. The well is down 2,203 feet. Preparations for a big flow are being made.

Lansing—Bootleggers confined in the Michigan State Reformatory at Ionia, may get their confiscated cars returned to them to repair. At the suggestion of Gov. Fred W. Green, the State Administrative Board has adopted a motion whereby all cars confiscated by the state police, approximately 4,000 annually, will be sent to the Ionia institution for painting and other repairs before being sold at public auction.

Mt. Clemens—A boy's love for his dog resulted in the death of William Bridges, 14 years old, only child of Mr. and Mrs. Noll Bridges, of Roseville. The boy jumped from a boat in Lake St. Clair for fear he would lose his pup, which had jumped overboard. Believing his dog would swim away and be lost, the lad jumped from the boat and plunged to the bottom of the lake. He never came up, according to the three boys in the boat. The dog swam to shore.

Port Huron—After lying for two days by the side of an unfrequented road near Allington, St. Clair county, with his throat cut in an attempt to end his life, Edward Davis, 66 years old, of this city, was brought to Port Huron. Davis was found by a farmer living near Allington. He heard moans and investigated. Davis told him he had slashed his throat with a knife in an attempt to end his life. The knife did not hit a vital spot but Davis was weak from loss of blood when found.

Lansing—Michigan's tax bill to the federal government dropped off considerably in the last fiscal year, as a result of the Coolidge income tax reduction program and the cut in the automobile tax, the treasury department announced. Telegraphic reports from the various collectors of internal revenue throughout the country show total receipts of $2,865,695,509, of which Michigan paid $197,993,492, a decrease of 12 per cent. In spite of the drop in Michigan taxes, the state returns as a whole indicated increased prosperity.

Brown City—The discovery of a cache of small bills and currency on a lot in back of the local bank has given Brown City its first touch of gold fever. The "buried treasure" was discovered by 11-year-old Ethel Schause, who stumbled over a piece of wooden moulding on which was written: "And under this board you will find a little hole. Dig down it and you will find some gold. It is yours." Ethel, her sister, and a little friend started to investigate and after a few minutes' digging unearthed about $150 in currency.

Port Huron—Three swarms of angered bees held sway here for several hours recently, driving pedestrians to cover and forcing a temporary halt in motor traffic at two main intersections. More than 40,000 of the invaders massed army-like in three squadrons. The attack began. It grew in ferocity while police pondered the delicate problem. Finally William Blake, a bee expert, living near here, was summoned. Within two hours he gathered the bees together. Authorities do not know from where the invaders came.

Flint—Miss Mildred Doran, 22-year-old school teacher, and Auggie Pedlar, Flint aviator, have left Flint in their newly-christened airplane, the Miss Doran, on the first stage of their flight to Long Beach, Calif., from where they expect to hop off about Aug. 11 on a flight to Honolulu in a competition for a $25,000 prize. At the christening ceremonies, Miss Doran was presented with an American flag. The flag will be carried on the flight to Honolulu. Miss Doran also took her seven-week-old puppy, "Honolulu," along as a mascot.

Lansing—Michigan's 2-cent gas tax raised $1,208,847.73 more for road building purposes during the last fiscal year, ending June 30, than it did the preceding fiscal year, according to figures issued from the office of John S. Haggerty, secretary of state. A still larger increase in revenue is anticipated for next year from the gas tax as it stands, independent of the proposed 1-cent increase. The receipts from the gas tax for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1926, totaled $9,311,787.84. The receipts this year totaled $10,520,635.57.

The cities of Monroe, Adrian, Hudson and Muskegon, and Gibson township in Bay county and eight townships in Jackson county are the complainants. Potatoes are in excellent shape and growers say the tubers have never been better. While cherries are almost wiped out in many sections there are some excellent sweets, the growers say, and here and there an orchardist will have a fair crop of sour.

Kalamazoo—Thirteen farmers finished the $1,000 ball necessary for the release of Charles R. Tuttle, a Lawrence, charged with having acted as a federal engineer. Tuttle first grew out of his alleged that he could find oil sites, by chemicals and photographic processes, at $25 a test. Between 35 farmers sought his release it is claimed. ANNOUNCEMENT!

WHEN IS AN ACCOUNT UNPROFITABLE TO THE BANK

THAT A BANK EVER ACTUALLY LOSES MONEY ON ANY ACCOUNT WILL BE NEWS TO MANY PEOPLE; NEVERTHELESS IT IS A FACT.

WHEN DOES AN ACCOUNT BECOME UNPROFITABLE TO THE BANK? IT IS WHEN THE AVERAGE AMOUNT ON DEPOSIT IS SO SMALL AND THE NUMBER OF CHECKS WRITTEN IS SO LARGE, THAT THE BANK CANNOT MAKE ENOUGH MONEY ON THE LOANABLE BALANCE TO PAY FOR THE COST OF THE SERVICE WHICH IT MUST GIVE TO THE CUSTOMER.

GENERALLY SPEAKING, IT MAY BE SAID THAT ANY ACCOUNT WHERE THE AVERAGE BALANCE IS LESS THAN $100.00 AND THE NUMBER OF CHECKS WRITTEN EACH MONTH EXCEEDS FIVE, IS CARRIED BY THE BANK AT A LOSS.

BUT, HOW CAN A BANK AFFORD EVER TO RENDER SERVICE "BELOW COST?" NO BUSINESS FIRM COULD DO THAT AND NOT FAIL.

THE BANK IS A "PUBLIC SERVICE" COMPANY

SERVICE IS THE FIRST WORD IN THE BANK'S DICTIONARY. ITS COMPLETE FACILITIES AND EVERY ACCOMMODATION IT CAN SAFELY AND LEGITIMATELY EXTEND ALWAYS ARE AT THE COMMAND EQUALLY OF THE LARGE DEPOSITOR AND THE SMALL DEPOSITOR. ACCOUNTS WHICH DO NOT PAY THEIR WAY NOW ARE CARRIED IN THE HOPE THAT THEY WILL GROW AND PAY THE BANK A PROFIT LATER ON.

THE BANK HAS A FIELD OF USEFULNESS AS IMPORTANT AS THOSE OF THE TELEPHONE, LIGHT, GAS, AND WATER COMPANIES, BUT WITH ONE STRIKING DIFFERENCE—THERE ARE NO "SERVICE METERS" ATTACHED TO THE BANK'S ACCOUNTS, MEASURING SERVICE AT SO MUCH PER "DOLLAR-WATT." THE BANK'S SERVICE—THE WHOLE OF IT—IS OFFERED TO ITS DEPOSITORS FREE, IN RETURN FOR WHICH THE BANK ASKS MERELY THE PRIVILEGE OF USING TEMPORARILY, AND UNDER CERTAIN DEFINITE AND LEGAL RESTRICTIONS, A SMALL PART OF THE FUNDS ENTRUSTED TO IT FOR SAFE-KEEPING.

BUT IT OFTEN HAPPENS THAT INDIVIDUAL DEPOSITORS WHO DO NOT UNDERSTAND CLEARLY THE CONDITIONS UNDER WHICH THE BANK MUST OPERATE TO PROSPER, WRITE SO MANY CHECKS AND KEEP SO LITTLE MONEY ON DEPOSIT, THAT THE LOANABLE BALANCE NOT ONLY IS TOO SMALL TO ENABLE THE BANK TO EARN A PROFIT, BUT IS INSUFFICIENT TO COVER THE ACTUAL EXPENSES OF THE BANK IN SERVING THESE CUSTOMERS.

WHEN THIS OCCURS IN TOO LARGE A NUMBER OF INSTANCES, THE BANK SOMETIMES FINDS IT NECESSARY TO MAKE WHAT IS TERMED A "SERVICE CHARGE"—NOT FOR THE PURPOSE OF MAKING MONEY FOR THE BANK, BUT TO KEEP IT FROM LOSING MONEY.

HOW CAN YOU HELP SOLVE THIS PROBLEM

THE IDEAL RELATIONS BETWEEN A BANK AND ITS CUSTOMERS ARE WHERE EACH DERIVES EQUAL BENEFIT AND PROFIT FROM THE ASSOCIATION. AND NOTHING WILL CONTRIBUTE MORE SURELY TO THE ESTABLISHMENT OF MUTUAL CONFIDENCE AND FRIENDSHIP THAN FAIRNESS AND FRANKNESS UPON THE PART OF BOTH.

THEREFORE, THE OFFICERS OF THESE BANKS FEEL SURE THAT THEY WILL NOT BE MISUNDERSTOOD NOR GIVE THE SLIGHTEST OFFENSE TO ANYONE BY RESPECTFULLY SUGGESTING TO THOSE WHOSE ACCOUNTS HAVE BEEN TOO SMALL AND ACTIVE, THAT THEY ENDEAVOR TO INCREASE THEIR BALANCES IF POSSIBLE, AND IN THIS WAY AID US IN OUR SINCERE EFFORTS TO GIVE REAL SERVICE TO EVERYBODY.
