

NOWLAND HILL AND PLEASANT VALLEY
(Edited by Mrs. C. M. Nowland)

Pleasant Valley Farm Line Telephone Company met Tuesday evening at the home of the President, John R. Neville to transact business and elect officers for the coming year.

Ivan and Alice Nowland drove up Saturday from Flint and spent the week end with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. R. Nowland, returning Monday p. m.

Albert Nowland leaves this week for a deer hunting trip with Richard Lewis and Roy Sherman of East Jordan.

Mrs. Charles Shepard visited Mrs. Ray Nowland Tuesday afternoon and presented her with a beautiful Begonia plant in behalf of Wilson Grange. Mrs. Nowland is just able to get around a little with crutches, after having a local operation on her foot nearly three weeks ago by Dr. Dicken.

Mr. and Mrs. Milo Clute attended a community supper at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ben Ellis of Wildwood Harbor Friday evening.

John R. Neville returned home Nov. 3, after working two months near Moran, across the Straits.

Fred Kurtz and family moved Monday from their farm home in Pleasant Valley to Boyne City for the winter.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Zinck and children spent Sunday at the home of his sister, Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Kurchinski.

Ray Nowland and Albert St. John made a business trip to Peninsula after pigs, first of the week.

Mrs. Ramsey Wells of Peninsula spent Sunday and Monday with her niece, Mrs. Ray Nowland.

Mrs. Alvira Munger arrived Nov. 6 from Vassar to spend the winter with her Nowland relatives.

Frank Schultz thrashed beans and buckwheat for several farmers here last week.

Teddy Ecker, mail carrier on Route 1, Boyne City, left Monday noon for a deer hunting vacation across the Straits. We hope he has his usual success.

Several Wilson Grangers from here attended Charlevoix Pomona Grange at Marion Center, Saturday night. It was an open meeting and about 147 were present. (Yes, correspondent can not express in words the interesting reports and program given.) Next meeting is at Rock Elm next April.

Wilson and Deer Lake Granges plan on attending installation of officers Friday evening of the South Arm Grange. Mr. and Mrs. Ballhice of Barnard are installing officers.

It's always a cold day for the officeholder when he gets fired.

State News in Brief

Trenary—Henry Paulson, 36 years old, is dead of injuries received when a horse kicked him in the stomach.

Sparta—Morris Bowler, 67 years old, Algoma township, is dead of injuries, received when a sewer trench in which he was working, caved in. Bowler was for several years village marshal.

Greenville—J. A. Fancher, of this city, has just cast his nineteenth presidential vote. Mr. Fancher who is 95 years old, first voted when Fremont ran against Buchanan in 1856, 72 years ago. He has always voted the Republican ticket.

Ludington—Taggart and Walsh's Well No. 3, in Logan Township, came in recently with a heavy pressure of gas at a depth of 3,300 feet. Well No. 1 has supplied gas and fuel for drilling Well No. 2 and No. 3. Well No. 2 is down 2,400 feet.

Muskegon—The Swastika Giles Company is busy trying to care for the 20,000,000 feet of gas which is pouring out of a "dry" well, recently purchased by the Swastika organization from the Bulldog Company. The Bulldog had abandoned the well as worthless.

Mt. Pleasant—Taking a cue from Henry Ford, the Alumni Association of Central State Teachers College has purchased a log cabin, a half-century old, from a farm near here and will move it to the campus for an American museum. Pioneer furniture will be collected by students and alumni.

Lansing—The first request for extradition of an alleged airplane thief was issued by Gov. Fred W. Green recently. Joseph Martin, charged with stealing a plane near St. Joseph, loading it on a truck and taking it to Chicago, has been arrested in Chicago. The Governor asked Illinois to send him back to Michigan.

Algonac—Three men cast their ballots in the first precinct here, in the recent presidential election, who cast their first ballots for Abraham Lincoln in 1860. Charles Montney, Robert T. Lee and George F. Pillard, all of Algonac, are the "Lincoln voters." They are more than 89 years old and were driven to the polls together.

Jackson—After threatening the life of Ruth Horsley, 19 years old, factory worker, while she was on her way to work early one morning, an unknown armed highwayman searched the girl's purse, took five one dollar bills from it, then handed it all back, with a threat he would kill her if she said anything about the affair.

Detroit—Refusing to heed his friends' warning to wear red on his person as a safeguard while out hunting, Herbert Simpson, 51 years old, of Detroit, was mistaken for a deer in the woods near Pickeral, Ont., and was shot to death by a companion. He had hunted in the district for 16 years. Before moving to Detroit, Simpson lived at Yarmouth Center, Ont.

Iron River—Katherine Sarka, 16 years old, battered on the head with a hammer by her insane father, who ended his own life by shooting himself through the head, died at a hospital here. The girl suffered multiple fractures of the skull. Domestic troubles brought about the slaying and suicide, the authorities believe. Another daughter, Mary, 18, left for Milwaukee a short time ago.

Port Huron—Burton Jones, 59 years old, Berlin township farmer, was crushed to death under a tractor while doing road grading work near Berville. Jones was about to hook the tractor to a harrow and he was caught between the tractor and the harrow while the tractor was in motion. When found, the tractor was on top of the harrow with the crushed form of Jones between them.

Muskegon—While the state conservation department, through the medium of the Federal District Court in Grand Rapids, has been seeking to stop drilling on the Kelley Goldboss No. 2 well here, drillers have rushed the well to completion and struck a 1,500 barrel a day flow. The conservation department is seeking to enforce its ruling that only one well may be drilled on a five-acre plat. Seven million feet of gas daily is also pouring from the well.

Tecumseh—Although Mrs. Harriet Wheeler is 101 years old, she, in the recent election, cast her first ballot—and for Herbert Hoover. Mrs. Wheeler, who lives with her granddaughter, Mrs. Clarence Holdridge, near here, celebrated her one hundred and first birthday Jan. 15. She is the oldest W. C. T. U. worker in the world and until recently took an active part in politics. For many years she campaigned for woman suffrage. Mrs. Wheeler registered in August and cast her ballot at her home.

One reason a woman can't keep secrets is because she doesn't know what to do with them.

Unless a man has scored at least one failure he is unable to appreciate success.
