Alba Defeated By East Jordan

IN TRACK MEET HELD HERE
LAST TUESDAY.

First Track Meet in five years held in East Jordan on Tuesday, May 7th. Alba defeated by East Jordan in dual meet 55 1/2 to 33 1/2.

A day that to spectators and performers reminded them of the crisp football weather expected in the fall but not in the month of May. The first track meet in five years was held on the High School grounds. Considering that this was the first meet of the year and that the boys of both schools have not had the experience of several years practicing at their favorite events, some good time was made just the same. The enthusiasm and spirit in track will improve as the month goes along even though fishing, baseball, tennis and other favorite spring sports seem to take the interest away from track. East Jordan has promise in a dozen or fourteen boys who can stack up "against the cream" of the Northern part of Michigan and give them a run for their money. The boys who run or jump against them will know that they have been in a race for places. East Jordan shows strength in the dashes and jumps but is weak in the weights—but the boys in these events will improve before the year is over.

The first step to create enthusiasm in track was in the form of a physical achievement test given to every boy in High School and Junior High School also. Also a class meet was held last Thursday when the Juniors nosed out the Seniors for first place 33-27 1/2.

What the New Pest Does to Oranges

Far worse than a score of hurricanes in its effect on the orange groves is the Mediterranean citrus fly that has made its appearance in Florida, especially about Orlando, where this photograph was made. President Hoover asked congress to give $4,250,000 to check the inroads of the pest.

Upholds Amateur Athletics

Mr. Avery Brundage, the forceful leader of the A. A. U., who has taken drastic steps toward clearing the name of his organization from any taint of professionalism. The first step was the release of college athletes from A. A. U. jurisdiction and placing them under direction of the National Collegiate Athletic Association. Brundage further declared his determination to run down all traces of violation of amateur rules by athletes supposedly performing for sport and not commercially.

TO MEET AT PETOSKEY.

What bids fair to be the greatest Fraternal gathering ever held in this section of the State will take place at Petoskey on Saturday evening, May 18th. The Lodges of Emmet, Charlevoix, Antrim, Otsego, Cheboygan and Mackinac Counties have united in a membership drive and every indication points to a class of well over one hundred new members.

Besides the lodges of the counties above named, lodges at Cadillac, Traverse City, Sault Ste Marie and Newberry, and intermediate points, have been invited to participate in the meeting, both in attendance and with candidates.

The impressive ceremony of initiation will be held in the High School Auditorium of Petoskey, which has a seating capacity of 1,000, and will be conferred by a degree team composed of Grand Lodge officers, together with several Past Grand Masters. Among those who will participate in the work are Grand Master Sweeney of Detroit; Deputy Grand Master Carr of Jackson; Grand Warden Kulp of Battle Creek; Grand Marshal Dow of Stanton; Grand Conductor Turner of Morley; Grand Herald Dehnke of Harrisville; Grand Chaplain Kilpatrick of Wyandotte; Past Grand Masters, Harry L. Petoskey Odd Fellows have arrangements completed and are all set to entertain the big crowd. Supper will be served at the Lodge Temple from 5:30 to 7:30. The degree ceremonial will begin promptly at 8:00 o'clock.

CHARLEVOIX GUERNSEY BREEDERS MEET

The first meeting of this year of the membership of the Guernsey Breeder's Association was held in the Library in East Jordan on May 1st with an attendance of 29 dairymen.

An interesting discussion on the securing, handling, and keeping of better bulls was directed by W. D. Berrington, East Lansing, who represents the American Guernsey Cattle Club in Michigan. He cited many examples of how good bulls have greatly benefited different communities and kindly offered to assist anyone wishing to purchase one.

The election of officers resulted in the election of Chas. Murphy, President; Carl Stevens, Vice-President; Clyde Clute, Sec'y-Treas., with Ray Loomis, Carl Grutsen, Archie Murphy, Orvie Gunsulso, Oakley Saunders and Bert Lumley as Board of Directors for the ensuing year.

Discussion was also brought up pertaining to the second annual summer Show and Picnic to be held in East Jordan in July, calf club work, and cow testing work.

The Guernseys are still gaining in favor and the members reported more dairy cows and better quality and type. Another meeting will be held later to make definite plans for summer activities.

Between the vertebrae of our backbone there is a cartilage disk which serves to absorb the shock of bodily movement. After being up all day these cartilages are said to be squeezed a little flatter and thus we are slightly shorter when bed time comes. Reclining and rest restores the elasticity and we arise at morning slightly taller. (© 1929, Western Newspaper Union.)

MAY REACH MOON, THINKS CURTISS

Aviator Sees Planes Making Trips Some Day.

Miami, Fla.—Glenn Curtiss, famous aviator, father of commercial aviation and builder of the airplane products which bear his name, said that man will some day reach both the moon and the planet Venus. During an interview, he was asked: "What are the probabilities of interplanetary communication? Do you believe man will ever reach the moon and possibly the planet Venus?"

"I think the time will come when man will fly from this earth to the moon," Mr. Curtiss replied. "It is not impossible. Anything man thinks of can eventually be made to come true.

"The weird stories we read recently concerning plans to fly to the moon are no harder to imagine than Jules Verne's exploits were when he wrote them more than three decades ago. And a good percentage of his predictions have come true. Around 40,000 feet is about as high as man has gone.

"The vehicle to carry a man to the moon will have to be extremely strong. It must carry enough oxygen and food to last him the entire journey. The biggest part of the feat will be navigation and it will take another land-bergh to stay on the course to reach the objective."

Mr. Curtiss has made Miami his permanent home, having established a factory, two airplane bases and a flying school here.

All Living Plants Have Nerves, Says Scientist

London.—A theory that trees resemble human beings insofar as they are attracted and repulsed by the presence of human beings is put forward by Herbert G. Longford.

"It has been reserved to scientists of the present generation," he says, "to conceive and produce instruments of marvelous delicacy, proving by the production of visible record that all living plants have nerves which respond to electric shock, to heat and to cold—as do ours—and a throbbing pulse which varies naturally—as does our own—during times of wakefulness and sleep.

"Still further it can be proved by demonstration that their reactions to chloroform and other anesthetics are identical with the phenomena exhibited by the animal world.

"Grown trees, under the influence of drugs, has been transplanted with mutilated roots without shock, where as untreated, similarly selected trees have died."

Student Farms Bring Profit to Indian Boys

Nearly forty Indian boys now cultivate separate tracts, ranging from sixty three to seventy-five acres a piece, at the Chillico Indian Agricultural school. Four thousand acres are under student cultivation.

Lawrence E. Correll, superintendent, aroused interest by telling the Indians the ground held "buried treasures." Each boy assigned a tract of ground averaging $200 profit annually, one quarter of what he produces.

Younger boys are allowed to cultivate smaller tracts. The school either buys the grain for its own use or sells it at the market.

The Chillico school's venture has been adopted as a model by Indian schools throughout the country.

6-Year-Old Royal Heir Drives Tiny Motor Car

Belgrade, Yugoslavia.—Crown Prince Peter of Yugoslavia, who has received a miniature automobile as a present for his sixth birthday, is learning to drive his car, under the close supervision of his royal mother, Queen Marie.

Prince Peter sits behind the wheel of the car and rides full speed through the palace grounds, King Alexander looking on, sometimes with anxiety, as the boy and his mother whirl around sharp corners.

Every morning the crown prince, in a uniform of a private in the Yugoslav army, goes through regular army drill, learns how to carry a miniature gun, how to salute and march.

He has just been promoted corporal, which indicates that Peter is a good soldier.

Stricken by lightning a short time ago, little remains of the tree so intimately associated with Italian literary and religious tradition.

MEXICO IS DUE FOR NEW FORTUNE HUNTS

Every Revolution Has Own Special Stories.

Eagle Pass, Texas.—It will soon be time for new stories of buried money and treasure of fabulous value to come out of Mexico. Following each of the previous revolutions tall tales of this kind have been told and many are the expeditions that have gone forth in futile search for the hidden wealth. It has long been the practice of rebel leaders to take advantage of war-time conditions and confiscate bank funds wherever they could be found. The present revolution is no exception to this old established custom. From the banks of Monterey, Saltillo, Durango and Tereon, money which was said to belong to the federal and state governments, aggregating approximately $1,500,000, has been taken by the different rebel army leaders.

In each instance the army officers gave their personal memorandum that the funds had been taken and would be repaid when the new regime got into power. It is from money obtained in this manner that the soldiers of the rebel armies are daily paid. It was stated by arrivals here from Tereon that during the time the revolutionists occupied that city the privates were lined up each morning while the paymaster handed to each man one and one-half pesos, equivalent to 75 cents American money.

Carry Cash Along.
The cash is carried along with the fighting contingents in big motor trucks. If by any chance the rebels are defeated, the custodian or the funds make a wild drive for some remote spot where the wealth is buried to await a propitious time for its recovery.

One of the most striking stories of buried treasure in Mexico relates to the fortune which Francisco Villa is asserted to have concealed in some remote spot in the Sierra Madre. Villa made a number of large hauls from banks, stores and private individuals from time to time. In the city of Chihuahua he found $300,000 of gold coins concealed in one of the hollow pillars in the vestibule of the Banco de Mineral and he carried the money off into the mountains. During the brief time that he and Emiliano Zapata, the Morelos bandit, were in joint control of Mexico City, they were said to have depleted the national treasury of more than $2,000,000. The treasuries of several states were also looted by Villa.

Acquired Big Roll.
At the time he was assassinated it was estimated by several of his intimate associates that he had accumulated a fortune of more than $6,000,000 during his banditry and rebel activities. This wealth, according to current belief, was buried in the mountains about two days' mule-back ride to the west of Parral, state of Chihuahua. The hidden hoard, it was said, was drawn upon secretly by Villa on several occasions after he settled down upon the big ranch in the state of Durango which the federal government had given him as a peace offering. Following Villa's death, an expedition was outfitted at Parral and spent several weeks searching for the fortune, but it was never located. From time to time since then other searches have been made for the treasure, but all of them failed.

Mainly rebel leaders and bandit chiefs of lesser notoriety are credited with having buried their loot in various places, from one end of the country to the other, and these stories have been the cause of many treasure hunts.

Boy Babies Shown to Be Weaker Than Sisters

Washington.—Despite the general belief that the male constitution is inherently stronger than the female, girl babies have a 30 per cent better chance of living than have boys, the Labor department's children's bureau has found.

More boys than girls are born each year in the United States registration area, but for every 100 female infant deaths there are 130 male mortalities among children under one year old, it was found.

The boy's greater need of sunlight accounts for this difference in death rates, it was said. Males, deprived of the sun's beneficial rays, soon develop such diseases as rickets and tetanus. Girls are said to have a higher resistance to these maladies.

Artificial sunlight, it is believed by the bureau, "is strongly indicated as a method of reducing the present mortality sex ratio."

Stonehenge Will Be Preserved by British

London.—Stonehenge, ancient monument of man's worship during the late Stone age, is to be preserved for future generations.

The huge stone monuments, set in the shape of a horseshoe on Salisbury Plains, had been threatened by a building operation. Altogether, 1,444 acres have been purchased around the lonely phalanx at a cost of about $155,000, subscribed by the general public.

At present there is a barbed-wire fence around the site and an admission fee is charged visitors. It is expected the fence will be removed and the site opened to the public free.

There's No Excuse for Failure!

THE mails must go. That is why the Universal Aviation Corporation, operating fleets of passenger and mail planes between Chicago, Kansas City, St. Louis, Omaha, Indianapolis, Cleveland and Louisville, choose Stanolind Aviation products to protect their great Wasp and Hornet engines against friction.

You may not be interested in airplanes but you gain the advantages to be derived from the work of these lubrication specialists when you use

POLARINE -ISO-VIS

They are exceptional motor oils that hold up under the most trying conditions. They are both sturdy and rich. They maintain protecting cushions of oil on all bearing surfaces. They make the engine run smoothly and keep it from wearing out.

Polarine is effective and economical. The Standard Oil Company has kept it abreast of developments and recommends it to you to give maximum lubrication at minimum cost. Use Polarine and drain the crankcase every 500 miles.

ISO=VIS is the most advanced of motor oils because it will not thin out and because it wears and wears and wears—frequent draining of crankcase is not necessary. Motorists drive 1,000 to 2,000 miles without changing ISO=VIS and every bearing is lubricated correctly on the way.

Use either Polarine or ISO=VIS. You'll save yourself worry and trouble. You'll save your money. You'll save your car. The Standard Oil Company [Indiana] recommends both Polarine and ISO=VIS. Buy the grade for your car.

"GHOSTLY" CHORDS STARTLE FAMILY

Mysterious Notes Come From Piano at Night.

Nottingham, England.—Eerie chords struck from an unattended piano in the dead of night have nearly succeeded in convincing the skeptical Eason family of Cottesmore road, Nottingham, that there are such things as ghosts.

Recently after Mrs. Arthur Eason, who is seventy-six years old, and her three daughters had retired for the night they were startled to hear chords struck on the piano downstairs, and simultaneously heard sounds as if furniture was being moved about.

"We had been in bed about half an hour when we heard a chord struck on the piano, immediately followed by the whining and scratching of Tony, our little fox terrier, who sleeps in the front room.

"Then to our alarm two more chords were struck.

"I was too scared to move, but one of my sisters went down to investigate. The room was empty, but the dog was trembling visibly."

According to Mrs. Eason the notes heard were similar to those which used to be played by her blind brother, who died two years ago, and who was for many years organist at the local Wesleyan church.

"I'm not psychic, and I don't believe in ghosts," said Mrs. Eason. "I was certain that the sounds had been caused by some practical joker and the next day I set out to find who had broken into our house and played the piano. I was confronted first with the fact that all the windows and the doors were locked tight. Searching inquiry among neighbors failed to shed any light on the occurrence.

"Subsequently we have heard sounds at night as though of furniture being moved about downstairs, and once a blind suddenly flew up with no one near it.

"No, I still don't believe in ghosts, but all the same I am beginning to wonder."

First False Teeth Worn

by Woman of 300 B. C.

Santa Monica, Calif.—The first false teeth, so far as we know today, were worn by a woman of Sidon in Phoenicia about 300 B. C., according to Dr. Roy L. Moodie, well-known anatomist.

The Phoenician woman's jaw, with the false teeth, is preserved in the Louvre, in Paris. The two right incisors are represented by artificial teeth, held in place and bound to each other by gold wire. The wire has been drawn through careful perforations in the artificial teeth.

Although the Egyptians pioneered in treatment of many diseased conditions of the body, this sort of dental replacement apparently was never devised by Egyptian physicians. Thousands of mummies, representing 7,000 years of life in Egypt, have been examined but no clear evidence of such repair work has ever been found. It appears that we not only owe our alphabet and numerous geographic discoveries to the restless, inquiring minds of the Phoenicians, Doctor Moodie points out, but also we are indebted to them for this entrance into prosthetics, which is a particularly valuable field of dentistry.

Sidewalk Artist Copies

Work of "Old Masters"

The street artist, who refused to reveal his name, has surprised experts by his ability, and it has been learned that he at one time exhibited in the Paris salon and showed signs of becoming an eminently successful artist.

"The Old Testament tells us that baby chicks should depopulate one mile south of Salina, and listen to the word of the prophets. After passing through Leavenworth, turn north to Jericho. A bond issue is being talked of in the Holy City."

The radio fan discovered that one radiofan was a minister, one a man giving condition of the roads and the other a lecturer on poultry.

Public Officials and Publicity

By THOMAS ARKLE CLARK
Dean of Men, University of Illinois.

Even in my earliest youth when ambition burned most hotly within me I had no desire to become a public official of any sort. I was going to be quite contented to run a locomotive on the narrow gauge railroad which crossed the prairies a short distance from our place, or if fortune favored me in any extravagant way possibly to be a conductor.

Charlie Hixon, our next-door neighbor's boy of my own age, once in a burst of confidence, told me that he expected to go to congress, but such distinction had no allurements for me. There was too much criticism of such an official, too much publicity, too much of getting one's name into the newspapers. A congressman could not turn around or neglect to do so without some mention being made of the fact, in a Washington press dispatch. A lot of fellows I knew wanted to be President of the United States, but not I.

Now just supposing you were king of England or President of the United States. At first thought it would seem like a lot of fun. There would be a big salary, and a fine house in which to live—several houses if you were king—and people to wait on you and to send you things and all that. It looks soft. The President gets countless things at Thanksgiving and Christmas—carloads of turkeys and fresh eggs and collie dogs, and goodness knows what sorts of things are sent to a king.

But a great public official has no privacy. He can't legitimately call his soul his own. Every move he makes is commented on. Whatever he eats or wears or dares to think about—much less to express an opinion upon—gets into the newspapers. It must be wretchedly tiresome.

Now about going to church. If you were king or President it would always be in the Saturday paper where you intended to worship the next day. If you had any intention of worshiping, and why you didn't intend to do so, if you didn't I have wondered often if Mr. Coolidge during the summer really wanted to go to church every Sunday and listen to blind men or Scandinavians preach, or if he wouldn't rather sometimes stay at home and lie around reading the Sunday papers, or playing with one of the dogs. But if he didn't go he would have to make up reasons to satisfy the inquisitive newspaper men and maybe it's easier to go and sit quietly through the service and then to smile and wave your hand at everyone when the service is ended than it would be to explain why you stayed at home.

Nancy and I didn't go to church last Sunday. We stayed at home and had a beautifully quiet time and read Jane Austen's "Northanger Abbey." And no one asked us why, and we didn't get our names in the paper, but you see we are not public officials.

First Airplane Hobo

The first airplane hobo—Curt Ellis of Oklahoma—photographed at El Paso, Texas, after he tumbled out of a baggage compartment of a T. A. T. plane, piloted by E. C. Bove from Big Spring. No charges were preferred against Ellis, whose novel "blind-baggage" ride amused officials of the municipal field.

Lansing.—But little longer is a certain body of water in Garfield Township, Clare County, to be burdened with the repulsive and libelous name of Mud Lake. The Senate voted to change the name to Gray Lake. There seems to be no concerted opposition to this bit of legislation in the house.

Muskegon.—When a raising party headed by Charles V. Lane of the state fire department began to tear down the condemned house of Mrs. Gerrich here, Mrs. Gerrich used a club in an effort to prevent demolition. She was taken away by police and detained until the building was torn down.

GAMBLERS PREY ON SEA TOURISTS

Atlantic Liners Are Plagued by Card Sharppers.

London.—With more American tourists visiting Europe than ever before, the Atlantic liners are being plagued more and more by the professional gambler.

Acting in conjunction with the British and American police, and with the steamship officials afloat, the French authorities have contrived to make at least one haul, and some prominent gamblers now find themselves debarred from obtaining a ticket from any of the big steamship companies.

This card sharper trouble is one of the greatest of all that beset the paths of the steamship companies. They do all that they possibly can to check it, but there is a difficulty at every turn.

It is no offense to play cards on board ship, and it is no offense to play poker just a little better than one's opponents, so that the ship's officers have to be very certain that there is actual cheating going on before they can take any legal action.

Every passenger is warned against playing cards for money with chance acquaintances, or indulging in high stakes with anybody. Yet there are many who will not be advised and who resent any interference with their liberty, particularly any suggestion that they are not well able to look after themselves.

Gentlemen of the "profession" are generally well primed with good stories and have all the knowledge of the world which delights the eye at traveling.

So the lines are always working at a disadvantage in their efforts to protect those who will not take advice, and occasionally it is necessary to resort to unorthodox means to circumvent the gamblers.

There is one story concerning a famous western ocean officer who was a remarkably clever conjurer. He saw perfectly well how two rich young passengers were being plucked, but had not the legal proof necessary to take official action. So he took a hand in the game, and won back for the two youngsters every penny that they had lost with a little over for seamen's charities.

Lindbergh Has Sister

Living in Minnesota

There's not a person living in Red Lake Falls, a town of 2,000 citizens, who doesn't know the comely little wife of the editor of the Red Lake Falls is a sister of the illustrious colonel.

But outside of the town few have ever heard of Mrs. Eva Lindbergh Christie. Few even suspected Colonel Lindbergh had a sister. The reason for the secret is that Mrs. Christie is extremely modest and fears publicity.

"You see, it's this way," she explains. "My mother was Mary Lafond. She died when I was only five years old, and father married again. Charlie was born of that second marriage. Charlie and I were children together in Little Falls, Minn., but we became separated when I went to college. Then I became a schoolteacher and was married to Mr. Christie.

"Charlie and I were together about five years ago when father died, and then we separated, and until he came to Minneapolis after his Paris flight I didn't see him. But we did have a nice reunion in Minneapolis. I'm glad Charlie's doing so well and I hope when he gets married he will bring his bride here to visit us."

Lost Diamond Ring

Is Found in Pretzel

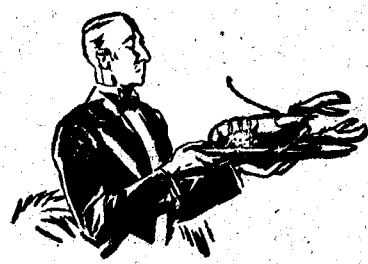

Sandusky, Ohio.—Edward Sprau, local grocer, has good reason to believe he was born under a lucky star. For years Sprau wore a valuable diamond ring. One day he noticed it was gone from his finger. All efforts to recover the ring were futile.

Sprau's son, Edwin, called on his girl friend one night. The young lady's mother passed a bag of pretzels around the guests. One of the girls present put her hand in the bag for a pretzel but withdrew a diamond ring instead. It belonged to the older Sprau.

Wedding in Doubt, but

O. K.'d by Legislature

New Britain, Conn.—Mr. and Mrs. Staunton E. Ashley are on their honeymoon, safely married—through an act of the state legislature. After Ashley and his bride, the former Miss Mrs. McKirdy, left on their honeymoon their parents discovered the Shuttle Meadow Country Club, where the marriage took place, was over Bristol town's jurisdiction. The license, obtained in New Britain, would not have been recognized in Bristol. They immediately appealed to the legislature, which passed a special act validating the marriage.

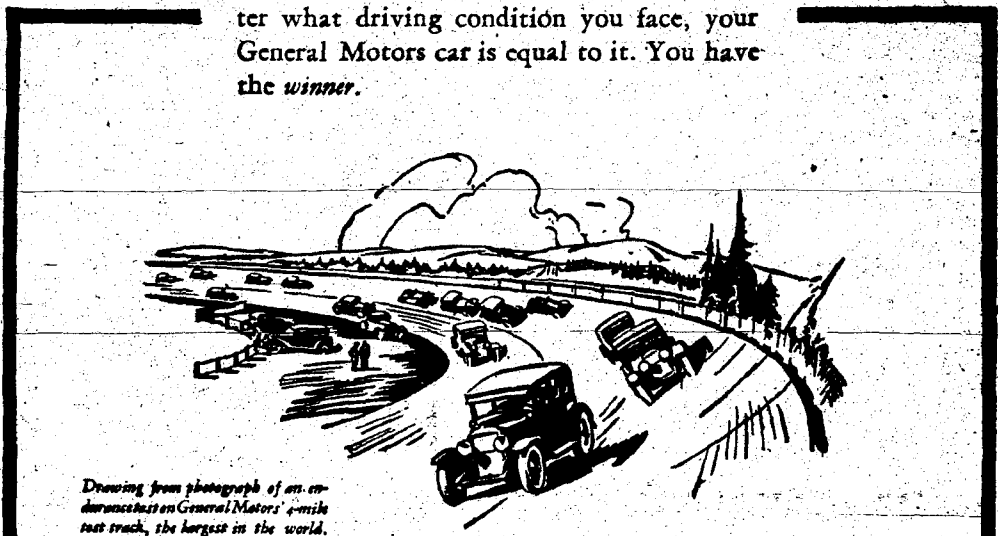

"Bring me the winner!"

THE story is told of a man dining in a restaurant, who was served a lobster with only one claw. Upon complaining he was told by the waiter that this happened occasionally because the live lobsters fought among themselves in the kitchen. "Bring me the winner!" said the diner.

At the General Motors Proving Ground, a fleet of specimen cars, built long in advance of factory production, fight a battle of hills, bumps, and every other sort of torture. These cars are torn down and rebuilt until they are able to beat every test. The tests involve speed, power, endurance, braking, riding comfort, handling ease; fuel, oil, and tire economy; body strength—every phase of car construction and performance.

Only the winner of all these tests is sent back to the factory to be used as a model for the construction of the car you buy. No matter what driving condition you face, your General Motors car is equal to it. You have the winner.

A True Story

John home to dinner. "What's the matter haven't you paid the rent? Are we moving out?"

John—"What is it then? What makes the house look as if it hadn't a friend in the world?"

Mary—"Well, I'll explain, I didn't realize myself what a difference the window trim makes. I've indulged, plunged you would call it. I've bought some new Curtains and Drapes. And I did not need to go out-of-town for them either. The Panels, fringed were 98c each, and that new pretty Cretone Crash Drapery 30c the yard. When I get these up you will think you are away visiting some place. You know I think the windows are the most noticeable item in the house."

John—"Where did you get these goods?"

Mary—"At the East Jordan Lumber Co. Store. And Drapes and Curtains are not all they have. Bed Spreads, Bath Mats, Linen Lunch Sets, almost everything you need about the house. Then for ourselves—Dresses, house or dress, Coats, Ensemble Suits, almost anything you want."

Traverse City—The interstate commerce commission at Washington has denied the contention of Traverse City that the railroad rates on coal from the Virginia and Kentucky mines are unreasonable and unduly preferential to Menominee. Maintenance of a lower rate to Menominee is justified by the commission on the ground that rail-and-lake competition exists at that place, while it does not exist at Traverse City.

Lansing—William Ryno, 10 years old, son of Earl Ryno, was fatally injured one afternoon when struck by an automobile driven by Elvin L. Vaughn, agent at the Union Railway station. The boy was crushed between the automobile and a post near which he was standing when Vaughn threw the car into reverse gear. The accident occurred within a few feet of the Ryno home. Vaughn is related by marriage to the Ryno family.

Lansing—The Isle Royale survey bill was passed by the Senate. The bill, which now goes to Gov. Fred W. Green for his signature, carries an appropriation of $15,000 to be used by the University of Michigan in making a survey of the island. This survey completed, it is the plan to turn the island over to the United States Government for development as a National park. Much of the land already is owned by the State and the balance is to be acquired by public subscription.

Escanaba—L. Betts, of Menominee, president of the Upper Peninsula Airways Commission, recently was on a "pathfinding" tour of Upper Michigan to inspect the landing fields in the 16 communities that will be visited on the Upper Peninsula Air Tour, June 10 to 14. The stops scheduled are at Sault Ste. Marie, St. Ignace, Newberry, Manistique, Blaney, Munising, Ishpeming, Negaunee, Marquette, L'Anse, Houghton, Ontonagon, Ironwood, Iron River, Crystal Falls and Iron Mountain.

Manistique—Kitch-iti-ki-pi, the "big spring," located north of here in Schelders county, has been made a state park. It will be known in the future as the Palms-Brook State park. This was effected by a transfer of title to the state from the Palms-Brook Land Company of Detroit. The perpetual preservation of this natural wonder of Michigan's northland in a state of primeval splendor is due to the energy of local interests in Manistique, and to John Bush of the Cleveland-Cliff Iron company.

Lansing—Executive clemency again may be sought for Arthur C. Rich, Battle Creek youth who is serving a life sentence in Jackson prison for attacking Louise King. A group of Battle Creek residents called on Governor Green recently and expressed an interest in the case. They asserted sentiment is growing in that city for a reduction of his sentence. They believe he has been punished sufficiently, they said. No direct request for gubernatorial action was made. Members of the group planned to confer with Judge Charles B. Collingwood, who sentenced Rich.

Allegan—Suel P. Hudson, Allegan postmaster, has quit the service after 55 years' connection with the local office. He succeeded as clerk and has served under nine postmasters. He retired on his seventieth birthday to take up farming a mile from here.

Grand Rapids—Claiming that his credit was damaged when the Western Union failed to deliver a telegraph money order which he sent to his bankers, H. D. Pierce, Pentwater, is suing the company for $10,000 damages in U. S. District Court here.

DUMBBELL CLUB IS FORMED BY FLYERS

Army Officers Organize Select Fraternity.

San Antonio, Texas.—Kelly field here now has a select fraternity rivaling the famous Flying Jackass club of Wright field. It is called the Dumbbell club, and, like the other organization, has a membership limited to officers who distinguished themselves by some prize bit of bone-head flying.

"When an air corps officer has performed some feat like hitting a mule in the vast reaches of Kelly field, taking off for Dallas due north in the morning and landing at dusk 60 miles southeast of Kelly, out of gas, or falling out of an airplane at 1,100 feet for no good reason, his deeds must not go unsung. He is elected to the Dumbbell club and made custodian of the sacred banner, the dumbbell flag."

"He inscribes his name on the banner in the presence of all officers of Kelly field and remains custodian of the banner until some other officer is so fortunate as to become a member.

Photographs and Record.
A book, containing photographs and a complete and true account of the circumstances which led up to each officers' initiation is now being compiled. The last citation follows:

"We meet on this auspicious occasion to do honor to a brother officer, a man who has distinguished himself far above all expectations. We are here today, gentlemen, to bestow upon him the highest honor that Kelly field can give—an honor next only in importance to the Congressional Medal of Honor and the Distinguished Service Cross. Before making this esteemed award it will be necessary to review the facts and circumstances that caused the committee on awards to bestow this honor.

"On the bright and sunny day of October 28, 1923, in his trusted DH, this intrepid air corps officer was cruising about the ozone of Kelly field when, feeling a little frisky and being a quick-thinking pilot, he decided to engage in a little combat work. As it was during the noon hour he could find no planes in the air to trolch with. He cast his eye about the sky and terrain for a suitable prey for his pent-up enthusiasm. His attention was finally attracted to a two mule powered single plane grass attacker piloted by an Ethiopian field officer, which was flying at a very low altitude and at a very uncertain speed in the vicinity of the forty-third squadron air-drome.

Mule Kicks Plane.
"Our brave hero licked his chops and, turning to his mechanic, said: 'Watch me down the quartermaster air force!' Pushing his throttle forward, he made one of those terrific dives so common to the quick thinking brigade. The Ethiopian pilot, seeing that he was being attacked from his right flank and being sadly out-classed, took to his parachute. However, one of the mule powers of the motor seeing that escape was impossible decided to put up as good a fight as possible. He elevated his tail to an angle of 45 degrees, brought back the bolts of his rear guns and as the DH got within range let fly, hitting the DH in a vital spot causing it to careen over on its side and fall to the ground a mass of flames.
"Fortunately the hero who risked his life beyond all call of duty, who was so enthralled with the desire to give his corps the supremacy of the air-drome and who, without thought of personal safety, engaged an enemy far superior to him in equipment, escaped the fray with only bruises and burns and has now completely recovered and is with us today."

Collegians Seek Jobs in Paraguayan Army

Asuncion, Paraguay.—Letters from United States college students volunteering to fight for Paraguay against Bolivia were received by President Gueguari long after the Chaco quarrel had quieted down.
One from the University of Texas, Austin, said that Ernest Joseph desired to "come to the aid" of Paraguay with 200 companions, all with military training.

A letter from Comanche, Texas, offered the help of James Madison, who said he was an aviator and wished to volunteer with two companions, sergeants and machine gunners. Similar letters were received by Bolivian authorities from Americans eager to see a fight in the swampy, mosquito-infested Chaco.

Act to Remove U. S. War Dead from Russ Soil

Kansas City, Kan.—Bodies of American war dead buried in northern Russia and Siberia are to be removed to the United States, as soon as the graves are located. It was announced by Eugene P. Carver, Jr., commander in chief of the Veterans of Foreign Wars. Mr. Carver said the Russian people's commissariat for foreign affairs has agreed to co-operate with the veterans' organization in locating the graves and removing the bodies, which are those of soldiers who fell on the Eastern front in the World war.

ANCIENT ROCKS GIVE UP PEARLS

Berkeley, Calif.—Final verification has just been made of the fact that ten pearl-like fossils found by geologists of the University of California recently in rocks laid down about 25,000,000 years ago, are real pearls, conforming in structure with the modern variety, and having as their source mollusks related to the present so-called pearl oyster.

The pearls were found by Prof. N. E. A. Hinds and R. D. Russell, graduate student, of the department of geology at Berkeley. They were uncovered while the university men were searching for fossils of the cretaceous period in the banks of Oak Run Creek, five miles northeast of Millville, and twenty miles from Redding, Calif.

In spite of their 25,000,000-year burial from the time when dinosaurs were making their last stand on earth, winged dragons or pterosauria were flying over the land, and birds that were half reptile were swimming in the sea, the pearls still maintained a little of their luster, and mollusk shells in which they may have been formed are clearly recognizable in the surrounding rock.

In order to check the first supposition that the formations were pearls, Russell ground one to powder and sectioned another for examination under the microscope. The mollusk that probably formed the pearls is known as the Inoceramus, a distant relation of the present-day pearl-forming mollusks, which are incorrectly called oysters.

Russell explains that mention of such finds is extremely rare in geological literature. Some years ago one was reported from England, from the same mollusk and the same period in the earth's history. One also was found by Stanford geologists in the lower Sacramento valley, though it is representative of a later period. One other has been reported from Texas.

In size the pearls found by the University of California men vary in size from three-sixteenths to five-sixteenths of an inch in diameter. The shell of the mollusk found on the spot was originally about nine inches and six inches across.

America Leads Nations in Aircraft Production

Washington.—The United States led all other nations in production of aircraft during 1928, according to figures made public by the Department of Commerce.

Great Britain, however, and probably France, led the United States in export of aeronautic products, the report disclosed.

Aircraft production in the United States conservatively was estimated at 4,800, whereas, according to reliable estimates, the report said, France produced 1,440, Italy 475, Germany 300, and Switzerland 25. Aeronautical exports from this country last year totaled $3,714,429, or virtually equal to the total aircraft exports from the United States in the three preceding years. Great Britain's aeronautic exports totaled $7,484,700, as against $5,292,540 in 1927.

The total of aeronautic exports from France has not been reported but it is believed to have exceeded the total of $8,000,000 for 1927.

Skeletons of Women Found in Old Church

Berlin.—In the course of renovating the "Klosterkirche," the oldest church of Berlin, the workmen, under their ecclesiastical expert, Doctor Steinberger, discovered a subterranean tomb filled with 18 skeletons of women that were identified as remains of the Eighteenth century. The skeletons were exhumed and buried elsewhere.
Within the last two centuries, the "Klosterkirche," built during the latter part of the Thirteenth century, has repeatedly proved a treasure trove for historical relics.

Natural Refrigerator

Trousdale, Wash.—A lava dome 2,000,000 years old is used by farmers here as a natural cold storage plant. The temperature remains from 37 to 41 degrees the year round.

Excavation Rich in Geology Finds

Camden, N. J.—A common place excavation for the new city hall here has developed in to an interesting center of pre-historic geological investigation.
Workmen at 70 feet below street level found the imprint of a strange leaf, and soon excavated more than 100 logs that were in the first stage of petrification.

Dr. Lewis Pilcher, geology professor at the University of Pennsylvania, investigated and said that the trees grew in the mud after the waters of the glacial era receded over territory that is now southeastern Pennsylvania and New Jersey. He claims that the shore line of America at this point during the glacial era was somewhere near Bryn Mawr, Penn.
