Decoration Day To Be Observed In Forenoon

CHANGE IN PROGRAM FROM THAT OF PREVIOUS YEARS.

Annual Decoration Day Services will be observed in East Jordan next Friday forenoon, May 30th. Heretofore the main part of the program was held during the afternoon, but for several good reasons it has been deemed advisable to hold the entire program this year in the forenoon.

Services at the Bridge in honor of the naval dead will be held at 9:30 a. m.

At 10:00 a. m., students of the East Jordan Public Schools will assemble at the High School building where a parade will be formed headed by the School Band, the line of march being from school down Fourth St., to State St., and north on Main St., to the City Park, opposite the Public Library, where the main program of the day will be given.

Efforts are being made to secure Hon. Parm C. Gilbert as speaker of the day, but at this writing it is not definitely known if he can be present.

Boyne Has New School Board

THREE ARE NAMED MONDAY IN SPECIAL ELECTION IN THAT CITY.

As the result of Monday's balloting in Boyne City's special school election, the Boyne City school district now has three new members on its Board of Education. The special election was necessary as a part of the ouster proceedings which have been going on against three members of the Board, who were recalled in an earlier special vote. The outcome Monday showed about the same lineup of voters as in the recall election.

The newly named members will serve only until the regular election in July. At that time there will be four places on the Board to fill. The terms of Dwight Herrick, one of the recalled members, and that of Fred M. Walker, expire with the July election. Candidates for these two full term positions will shortly be announced for the coming election. The other two posts to be filled will be those vacated by Mrs. Anne Boylan and Samuel B. Neymark, the other two members recalled, and defeated for re-election Monday. It is not known whether or not Mr. Walker will be a candidate for re-election at that time. In case he is not a candidate, Dr. G. C. Conkle will be the only old member remaining.

Monday's election saw Arthur M. Chipman elected to the board 405 to 337 over Dwight B. Herrick; Floyd E. Newville elected by a count of 461 to 289 over Mrs. Anne Boylan, and Frank J. Beals named by a vote of 449 to 300 over Samuel B. Neymark. With the passing of Mrs. Boylan from the board the women lose their representation for the first time in twelve years. Mrs. Hyslop served for some time, then Mrs. N. J. Rovio was on the board. Later Mrs. F. O. Barden served and then Mrs. Boylan.—Potoskey News.

PLAN TO ORGANIZE RABBIT COMPANY AT EAST JORDAN

C. W. Reemtsen of Potoskey, representing the Raisin Brook Rabbitry Co., of Dundee, was an East Jordan visitor a few days this week in the interest of organizing a local company for the purpose of raising rabbits on contract for the Raisin Brook Packing Company of Dundee.

Al Warda of this city began this spring in a small way the raising of rabbits for this firm. Mr. Reemtsen took the matter up with Mr. Sloan, President of the East Jordan Business Men's Club for a meeting of our citizens. As a result the next meeting of the Business Men's Club will be held next Tuesday evening at the Cherryvale Hatchery of Mr. Warda with a pot luck supper at six o'clock. Following the supper Mr. Reemtsen will present his proposition to those present.

The Raisin Brook Packing Co. is a comparatively new industry, being established some three years ago, but has shown a remarkable growth. The firm is to the rabbit industry what Swift and Armour are to the raisers of live stock. They market the fur, the food, the fertilizer, and other by-products, and by so doing, can pay more for live rabbits delivered to their local agency than can be secured in the open market.

That it is a worth-while proposition is evidenced by the fact that already four separated organizations have been perfected in Emmet Co., and officers elected.

All interested are invited to meet at the Cherryvale Hatchery next Tuesday evening.

East Jordan Entertains Meguzee Ass'n

NEARLY FOUR HUNDRED PRESENT AT WEDNESDAY NIGHT SESSION.

The twenty-seventh annual session of the Meguzee District Association of Northern Michigan Order of the Eastern Star, was held at East Jordan, Wednesday and Thursday, May 14-15, Mark Chapter No. 275 being the entertaining Chapter.

Over 200 registered at the Bureau of Information before the luncheon on Wednesday at the Russell Hotel, including the Worthy Grand Matron of the State organization, Sue E. Raudabaugh of Lansing, Worthy Grand Patron, Otto W. Bishop of Alpena, with Mrs. Bishop, Mrs. Verda Ferguson of Highland Park, Past Grand Ruth, and Mrs. Gertrude Ellis, of Potoskey, Past Grand Electa.

Wednesday Afternoon
The meeting was called to order at 2:00 p. m., at the High School Auditorium by the second Vice President, Mr. W. A. Gardner of Mancelona, and the officers of Waldo Chapter No. 180, dressed in white, escorted to their places the remaining officers of the Meguzee with a pretty ceremony. The officers were present as follows:
President—Mrs. Louise Richards, Bellaire.
Second Vice President—Winfield Gardner, Mancelona.
Secretary—Mrs. Gertrude W. Ellis, Potoskey.
Treasurer—Mrs. Alice Palmer, of Kalkaska.
Chaplain—Mrs. Minnie Bonthron, Charlevoix.
Marshal—Mrs. Lillian Preston of Potoskey.
Organist—Mrs. Genevieve Risk of Potoskey.

A similar ceremony was used to escort the twelve Past Presidents to their seats of honor on the platform, and a roll call giving their names, years of service and place of meeting, the Senior Past President having served in 1906 at Boyne City.
—Mrs. Hattie Cooper, Charlevoix; Mrs. Nellie Harris, Boyne City; Mrs. Larris Charles, Mancelona; Mrs. Sarah Judd, Harbor Springs; Mrs. Anna Robinson, Boyne City; Mrs. Jennie Hoxsie, Acme; Mrs. Sarah MacNeal, Boyne City; Mrs. Ella Wallbrecht, Central Lake; Mrs. Myrtle Paige, Traverse City; Mrs. Hady's Bechtold, East Jordan; Mrs. Nettie C. Grayson, Pellston; Mrs. Margaret Harrington, Traverse City.

The formal opening consisted of a prayer, song, "America the Beautiful," and the presentation of the flag with a patriotic ceremony by six officers of Elk Rapids Chapter No. 328.

The Children's Rhythm Band, numbering about 45 children from the East Jordan schools, played four numbers, to the great delight of the audience. This was a most unique and entertaining innovation.
Mr. Al Warda, Worthy Patron of

Mark Chapter No. 275, made the visitors heartily welcome and the response was given by Mrs. Nellie Gill of Central Lake.

A memorial was read in memory of Sister Winifred Wood Crowl of Harbor Springs, President of the Association, who passed away on Nov. 3, 1929, and the Memorial Service for the departed members of the fourteen Chapters comprising the Association was given in a very beautiful and impressive manner by the officers of Pellston Chapter No. 423. The address of her successor, Mrs. Louise Richards of Waldo Chapter No. 180, showed a busy year, and progress in all branches of work of the Order. This was supplemented by the annual reports from all the Chapters, given by the Worthy Matron or ranking delegate present. These reports showed a total of more than 2200 members in the five northern Counties comprising the Meguzee.

The Worthy Grand Matron, in the main feature of the afternoon, complimented the President, the Chapters represented, and the entertaining Chapter, for the good showing made, and gave a very inspirational address on the principles of the Order. She was made an honorary member of the Meguzee Association, Mrs. Genevieve Risk and Mrs. Mattie Bailey favored with two piano duets, and Mrs. S. L. J. MacNeal of Boyne City with two readings, which were well received. This was followed by short talks from the Worthy Grand Patron and from other distinguished visitors present. Mrs. Agnes Greenman of Boyne City presented lovely gifts to the President, Worthy Grand Matron and Past Grand Officers, Past Presidents, and a number of other officers were similarly favored with gifts from their home chapters.

Communications from absent Grand Officers, Honorary Members and Past Presidents were read, and messages of sympathy were ordered sent to several prominent members detained by illness.

An invitation from Beulah Chapter No. 63 to meet in Potoskey in 1931 was read and unanimously accepted, after which the session adjourned to a delicious banquet served to about 350 members at the Presbyterian and Methodist Churches and Russell Hotel.

Wednesday Evening
A fine concert was given in the Auditorium of the High School by the East Jordan High School Band, before the opening of the evening session. This was followed by a reading by Mrs. Margaret Harrington of Traverse City, and two songs by Mrs. Marguerita Gill Jones of Central Lake, accompanied by Mrs. Genevieve Risk of Potoskey. Mrs. Clara Kitaman of East Jordan read two original poems, all of which were much enjoyed.

Mark Chapter No. 275 opened the Chapter at 8:30 in full ritualistic form, assisted by the Worthy Grand Matron, who gave the usual school of instruction during the following exemplification of degrees by officers selected from the fourteen Chapters of the organization; the candidates for pro tem being the Misses Dorothy Joynt and Elizabeth Sidebotham

Preliminary Census Report of Charlevoix Co.

EARLY REPORTS SHOW LOSS OF 3830 POPULATION DURING PAST TEN YEARS.

Preliminary report of the 1930 Census of Charlevoix County shows a falling off of 3830 in our population for the ten years. In 1920 Charlevoix County had 1308 farms and the 1930 preliminary report gives us 1027 farms—a falling off of 281 farms.

The total farm report was given The Herald on a separate sheet by Fred N. Potter, Supervisor of Census of Alpena. As will be noticed, no farm reports have been received for Chandler and Hayes townships and the tabulation total is only 923.

In checking back over previous census reports for Charlevoix County the following figures are of interest to our citizens:

SUMMER CLUB PROGRAM IN FULL SWING

Considerable work is being done in formulating plans for the various projects that are available for boys and girls interested in club work.

It is very gratifying to note the number of boys and girls who are contemplating club projects this year. Of the three projects being organized, beans seem to be meeting with popular favor, with corn and potatoes next. From present plans about seven boys are going to have one acre of potatoes, a dozen or more are interested in corn, and around thirty will be working on beans.

In the live stock projects there will be around twenty interested in the calf club project, and five or six anxious to organize a pig club. While no definite organization has been accomplished as yet we have splendid prospects of having eight or nine canning clubs, which will carry a membership of around sixty. All in all we expect to have a much larger group of summer club boys and girls than ever before in the county. Many of the boys and girls who participated in our highly successful winter program will make up the membership in the above mentioned clubs.

A series of meetings are scheduled this week to perfect the organizations. The following new communities are sponsoring club work this summer: Bay Shore, Norwood, Hortons Bay and Ironton, and the above meetings will be located at these points.

Remember that a cordial invitation is extended to any boy or girl in the county between the ages of ten and twenty to join our happy work-ers. If you have not been approached, ed by all means, inform your county agent, so that he can help you in organizing your community.

Dist. Convention Pythian Sisters

WAS HELD AT EAST JORDAN MONDAY, MAY 19.

The twenty-third annual District Convention of Pythian Sisters was held at East Jordan, Monday, May 19 with all Temples represented.

Grand Chief, Viola Green and G. M. of R. C. Anna Shanahan were present. The Convention was called to order at 10:00 a. m., by D. D. G. C., Anna Shanahan, followed by the opening song—"America," and the Lord's Prayer.

Address of Welcome was given by Bertha Williams of East Jordan Temple No. 85 and was responded to by Emogene Sage of Valentine Temple No. 149 of Central Lake.

A resolution committee was appointed consisting of Anna Nichols of Gaylord, Josephine Miller of Traverse City and Adeline Upthegrove of Central Lake. Roll call of the Temples was given by Record Keeper Fannie Whittington of East Jordan, each delegate responding with a report of their Temple.

The Grand Chief gave some very kind and encouraging remarks for the order and many words of praise of the various Temples.

A reading, "The Calling of Metherood" by Mrs. Ruth Staley of Charlevoix was enjoyed by all, especially the mothers, it bringing out many true and noble thoughts.

Afternoon Session
Following adjournment for lunch, the Convention reconvened at 1:30 p. m., and the first on the program was the exemplification of the Public Installation by Hannah Temple of Traverse City assisted by the Charlevoix officers. This was followed by an excellent drill by the Traverse City staff.

A clog dance was given by Misses Ruth Clark and Matcella Muma, and a piano duet by Misses Sidebotham and Joynt rendered. Then followed ritualistic opening and closing by East Jordan Temple and initiation by Charlevoix Temple officers and East Jordan Temple staff.

Corrections and remarks were made by Grand Chief Viola Green who also responded to the Question Box.

IN MEMORIAM

RIBBLE—In loving memory of my dear wife, Nellie Ribble, who passed away two years ago May 27th. Loving and kind in all her ways. Upright and just to the end of her days. Sincere and true in heart and mind. A beautiful memory left behind. The flowers that are placed upon her grave may wither and decay, But my love for her who sleeps beneath will never fade away. Sadly missed by her loving husband,

E. J. TRACK TEAM SHOWED WELL AT CADILLAC

The Track Team of East Jordan High School composed of seven men made a very good showing in Class C at the Regional Meet at Cadillac, May 17th by losing out by one-third of a point for third place. Five of the seven boys came back with medals and the respect from the other schools was very high for East Jordan. East Jordan's strength was mainly in the sprints and runs, a very great disappointment was James Addis who after running a wonderful race in the 880 yard run or half mile run weakened the last 100 yards and had to be satisfied with a fifth place. East Jordan can be proud to lay claim of having one of the fastest runners in the State of Michigan in the 220 yard dash in Francis Quinn, who has only been beaten once in the two years of competition in that event and that was down to the State Meet at Lansing.

Many of the people of East Jordan do not know who this Robert McDaniel is, but the High School is proud of him for his wonderful athletic ability in the way he runs that quarter mile. We expect a great deal of him next year.

The biggest surprises of the Meet were Billy Kitsman and Dan Reich. Kitsman is pole vaulting higher each week and if he only had another year he would be way over 10 feet. Dan Reich, there is no one in school in better condition than he is, surprised the crowd by finishing first in the mile run. The best part of it is that he never ran the mile in com-

DISTURBING NIGHT COUGHS QUICKLY STOPPED

Night coughing need not trouble you this winter, when each dose of Foley's Honey and Tar Compound carries the curative balsamic virtues of pure pine tar, fresh demulcent honey and other valuable cough-healing ingredients into direct contact with the inflamed irritated throat surfaces, covering them with a smooth and pleasant coating, at once putting an end to coughing. No opiates to constipate, no chloroform to dry up natural secretions. Dependable alike for children and grown persons. Ask for Foley's Honey and Tar. For Sale by Hite's Drug Store. adv.

MAKING LIFE TOO EASY

By THOMAS ARKLE CLARK
Dean of Men, University of Illinois.

Summer almost raised a riot in our neighborhood a few years ago because of the treatment of his young son who had reached the mature age of four and who Summer thought should have gained some respect for the law and order of the family. The road in front of the Summer house was not paved.

In the spring the mud on the thoroughfare was well nigh bottomless, and Summer had warned his son to keep to the walk. But the young American was full of adventure, and wandering out into the street, mired in the soft loam and began calling lustily for help. Summer sitting on his front porch saw his son struggling to extricate himself from the mud, but he gave no aid.

"He has gotten himself into the difficulty," he explained, "he may get out the best way he can. It isn't a good thing to make life too easy."

Seeing that he was left to his own devices, the boy stopped crying and pulled himself out of the mire. He was taught a good lesson, but the neighbors were scandalized at the cruelty of the unsympathetic parent.

If I should be asked to give an opinion as to what is the matter with the young people of today it would be that life is being made too easy for many of them. They are asked to make no sacrifices, they come up against no real hardships, they know little about early rising and hard work and doing without things. Their pathway is carefully smoothed by father and mother and grandmother and maiden aunts. Every stone is removed from their path, and the activities of life are all graded down to a dead level.

"I don't want my son to go through what I went through," father explains. "We want John to have every advantage." mother-announces, and so the boy has an easy road, and turns out too often soft and selfish and easily discouraged when he comes up against difficulty.

We have a rule at the institution where I do business that students may not drive automobiles excepting in cases of real necessity. Simon came to see me last year concerning his son, a lazy hulk who was just barely passing his work.

"Why should he have the car?" I asked.

"Well, he lives so far away from the campus," he explained, "and he is sometimes late to class from not getting up in time."

"How far?" I inquired.

"Oh, four or five blocks."

"I shook my head. He thought a minute and then seemed resigned to my refusal.

"Well, he can call a taxicab if he doesn't feel like walking that far," he said. He was thinking it pretty easy, I thought.

Our young people have too many fur coats, too many silk stockings, too soft beds to lie on. They shy too often from hardship and things that are difficult and unpleasant. Parents forget that they grow strong only from struggle and the life that is made too easy is generally weak and inefficient.

State News in Brief

Lansing—A thousand trained men scattered throughout the fire districts of Michigan are ready for the opening of the 1936 forest fire season.

Bay City—Maurice Newsham, two-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Newsham, died in Mercy Hospital as the result of drinking from a can which contained deposits of lye.

Grand Haven—A new $1,000,000 car ferry to replace the Milwaukee, sunk last Fall, will be placed on the run here this season, Grand Trunk Railroad officials announced.

East Lansing—Contracts for the erection of six new farm buildings, to cost $71,000, have been let by the Michigan State College. The structures will replace the old barns on the campus.

Lansing—Farmers of Clinton county are clearing away wreckage left by the tornado that swept a lane 15 miles long and a half mile wide eastward from Eagle. Estimates place the loss at approximately $100,000, mostly to farm buildings and orchards.

Potosky—A large fleet of scows and tugs, derricks, cement mixers and material scows were brought across Lake Michigan by the United States Army engineers for the work of repairing the Potosky breakwater. The task is expected to require all summer to complete.

Lansing—The area of the Ogemaw state forest was increased by over 100 per cent this month with authorization by the conservation commission for the acquisition of 60,000 acres, much of which is land now owned by the state. With the newly acquired land the Ogemaw state forest now has a total area of 124,000 acres.

Bay City—Airplane service between Detroit and Bay City, offered by the Northern Aircraft Corp., opened on May 15. Stops are being made at Saginaw, Flint, and Pontiac and scheduled time is one hour. Planes leave Bay City at 9 a. m. and 3 p. m. and leave Detroit at 1 p. m. and 5 p. m. Landings at Detroit are made at the municipal airport.

Escanaba—Planting of 350 elm trees along US-2 highway has just been completed west of this city by the Escanaba post of the American Legion. The trees, dedicated to soldiers who lost their lives in the World War, stretch for more than a mile on both sides of the highway. This part of the road has been called Memory Lane.

Sheridan—The jawbone and several large teeth of what is believed to be the skeleton of a prehistoric mastodon have been uncovered by workmen digging in a road north of here. Two of the teeth weigh nearly two pounds each. The bones will be sent to Lansing to be studied and perhaps placed in a museum.

Manistique—Census reports from two Upper Peninsula cities made public reveal gains instead of losses reported in 1910. Escanaba now has a population of 14,516, an increase of 10.7 per cent over the 13,103 of 10 years ago. This increase of 1,413 compares to a loss of 91 during the decade between 1910 and 1920. Sault Ste. Marie, the other city reporting, had 13,552 residents, compared to 12,096 in 1920, an increase of 1,456, or 12 per cent. The 1920 returns showed a loss of 509.

Lansing—The state board of aeronautics has licensed 28 airports to date. They include Grand Rapids, Bay City, Saginaw, St. Ignace, Ypsilanti, Ford Motor company, Sturgis, Menominee, Alma, John R. at Detroit, Battle Creek, Manistique, Muskegon, Gratiot-Packard, Pontiac, Detroit municipal, Iron Mountain, Royal Oak, Grosse Ile, Johnson, Newberry, Owosso, Ann Arbor, Kalamazoo, Potosky, Blaney, Triangle. The board has received applications from 38 schools, 89 instructors and 64 airports.

Kalamazoo—Five-year-old Owen Andrus, son of Mr. and Mrs. Leon Andrus, slept peacefully on the running board of his father's automobile while the father drove a mile through traffic. The boy, exhausted at play, went to sleep on the running board unknown to his parents. They drove downtown on an errand, ignoring the shouts of bystanders who saw the sleeping child. Finally after a mile drive, they halted for a red light and a pedestrian called their attention to the child.

Pontiac—The Dixie highway between Flint and Pontiac, termed the most dangerous highway in the state, claimed its third life within four days when six-year-old John McGarvey, son of Mr. and Mrs. John McGarvey, Drayton Plains, died of injuries suffered as he was going to school. John was struck by a car driven by Harry Carruthers, Detroit, as he was crossing the highway. Carruthers rushed him to the City hospital and then made a statement at the prosecutor's office. Coroner O. C. Farmer held that Carruthers was not negligent.

Marlette—A mother and her year-old daughter were killed and her husband and three other children cut and bruised when an automobile struck a truck parked beside the road five miles north of here. The victims were Mrs. Alex Sampson, of Defold, near Caro, and her daughter, Martha. The Sampson car struck the fender of a truck owned by Stanley Fike, of Cass City. Mrs. Sampson and the baby were thrown into the back seat. The mother died instantly and the child died three hours later in Marlette Hospital.

If the hour is fine, and the affair formal, the metal-trimmed afternoon frock is in order. The one shown here is of cream and green crepe. The lengthy bodice is embellished with clusters of metal flowers, and the girle adopts the glittering mode in silver.

CAREFUL MOTHERS KEEN ABOUT IT.

"Coughs never last long in our family, for we use Foley's Honey and Tar," says Mrs. J. M. Hill, Homer, Ga. "Foley's Honey and Tar has never failed to take care of coughs and colds in our family, and we have used it over 20 years," says Mrs. Ornstein, Green Bay, Wis. Dependable always, no opiates, no chloroform, nothing that a careful mother hesitates to give her children. That's why mothers endorse Foley's Honey and Tar. Ask for it. Two Kinds of "Notes"

"Dear Eric," wrote a young lady to her former fiancé, with sadness—"as you are probably aware, I am to be married to Mr. Bendley during the coming month. I shall, therefore, appreciate it if you will burn all the little notes I sent you, assuring you of reciprocity in regard to those you sent me."

"Dear Dorothy," wrote Eric, in reply—"I shall certainly comply with your request at once. And, incidentally, as your new fiancé holds a few 'notes' of mine, I shall deem it a great favor if you will induce him to burn them with the rest!"

Tree-Shaded Highways Add to Property Value

It is time to consider systematic tree beautification of our highways, many of which are unsightly. In Europe the highways are a delight to the tourist, particularly to the American, who marvels at those wonderful tree-lined roads, says the New York state college of forestry at Syracuse university.

Except for a few memorials and places where civic organizations have planted trees, and where the private owner has taken a pride in the appearance of his property, no organized planting on our modern state roads has been done. Since the advent of automobile highways, roadside planting seems to have been forgotten at a time it is most needed.

No state at present is setting out avenues of trees on its highways. Our modern highways might very appropriately be embellished by avenues of oaks or maples and in some places by what is known as the "group-planting" system. The expense of this work would be partially offset by the increased values of abutting property owners, by esthetic improvements, by less pavement maintenance and a slower deterioration of automobile equipment.

A Scotchman was discovered wandering around Detroit with a pair of rumpled trousers over his arm. "Can I help you in any way?" asked a kindly citizen. "Man," replied the Scot, who was evidently a newcomer, "I'm looking for the Detroit Free Press."

Francis Bacon's Tomb

One will look in vain in Westminster abbey for the tomb of one of the greatest, most learned Englishmen. The remains of Francis Bacon, Baron Verulam, lord chancellor of England, philosopher and essayist, lie in a small old country church on the outskirts of St. Albans. Bacon, it is related, caught a fatal chill when stuffing a fowl with snow on a bitter day to see whether cold would preserve the flesh—an action typical of the man who combined a marvelous versatility with an unquenchable thirst for first-hand knowledge.

The Schools and Good Manners

By THOMAS ARKLE CLARK, Dean of Miss. University of Illinois.

They have organized a campaign recently at the Princeton (New Jersey) high school, for the development of good manners, so the newspapers tell us. I had supposed that training in manners and courtesy had its seat in the home. It was once so, at least, but very likely I am wrong.

When speaking to ladies, to show respect for old people, to rise when anyone came into the room, to keep quiet when visitors were talking, and to say "please excuse me" when walking in front of anyone. I suppose it isn't done that way now.

The schools must take care of manners as they are now responsible for morals and for the general education of young people. It is heartening, however, to know that some one has recognized the fact that good manners among young people are decadent and that a revival of interest in courtesy is in order.

Now as to taking off the hat: I see every day hundreds of young men from the best families of the country, or at least so these young fellows admit. They walk through the halls of college buildings with their hats on their heads cocked at every variety of angle.

They stop to talk to young ladies with no remote conception that it would be better manners if they took off their hats. You see them in college offices sitting with their hats on—in their own houses, everywhere in fact. The fact that young women are present makes no difference; the hats are still on.

Possibly the reason many do not wear hats at all is that it is too much trouble to take them off. I don't know why we have lost an interest in the refinements and the courtesies of life as we undoubtedly have.

Are we more selfishly looking after our own pleasures and interests than we once did, or has the hurry and bustle of the age left us too little time to be polite? I was out driving yesterday on a somewhat congested highway. It was interesting to me to see how little consideration the majority of drivers gave to the comfort or safety of others.

They splashed my car with mud as they went by; they cut in when there was scarcely time or space for the maneuver. They all seemed in a mad hurry to get somewhere regardless of other people's rights or safety.

If the schools are to give training in good manners there is a wide and uncultivated field open in the matter of automobile manners.

Even if one is selfishly looking out for his own interests good manners furnish a most direct road to the accomplishment of one's purposes. Everyone is well disposed toward the good mannered man. It is a good field for the schools to work in, but it is after all a burden which should not rest there.

If young people are ill-mannered the difficulty and the solution really lie at home. Our children are ill-mannered most likely because we ourselves are. The schools will have a hard time unless the home becomes different.

Saginaw—Saginaw's population is 80,409, compared with 65,648 in 1920, a gain of 14,761, or 22.48 per cent, it was announced by Guy Jenkins, supervisor of the census for this district.

The figures are subject to correction later. Saginaw, Jenkins pointed out, has experienced a substantial growth during the last two decades, the 1910 population being 50,510. The population is considerably above the Federal Census Bureau estimate of 76,321.

Lansing—"Every square mile of Michigan north of a line running east and west from Grand Rapids can be seen from the 140 odd towers operated by the forest fire division," according to Howard R. Sayre, chief fire warden of the Department of Conservation.

"This Summer, as in previous years, we are issuing an invitation to the public to visit these towers. Last year more than 12,000 people climbed the towers and we expect that there will be more visitors this year."

Muskegon—The Muskegon Railway & Navigation Co., commonly known as the Belt Line, became the property of the Grand Trunk Railway, when checks for $312,000 were sent to the bondholders. The Grand Trunk, in accordance with an agreement made in 1926, paid 80 cents on the dollar and accrued interest of 3 per cent.

The belt line, circling the city, was the subject of a contest between the Grand Trunk and Pere Marquette before the Interstate Commerce Commission.

Bay City—Former lumbermen and log drivers who piled their trades during the height of the lumbering industry in the Saginaw Bay and Northern Michigan districts are being sought by the Eastern Michigan Water Carnival Committee. They plan to feature the old "jacks" in the carnival parade.

The carnival will be held here July 31 and Aug. 1 and 2. Sponsors of the carnival point out that log driving was really one of the original sports of the district and as such it deserves a place in the aquatic celebration.

DIPPING INTO SCIENCE

The Formation of Coal. When we burn wood in such a manner that little air gets to it, we have an almost all-carbon product—charcoal. Exactly in this way did mother nature produce our coal.

Millions of years' accumulations of leaves and vegetable matter and the resulting weight, together with the earth's heat, turned this matter into coal. However, more gas is retained in coal than in charcoal.

Pat took his wife to the theatre for the first time. They arrived rather early, and she was very interested in everything about them.

Nudging Pat, she whispered: "What does that word 'asbestos' mean across the curtain?" "Be quiet," said Pat, "and don't show your ignorance. That's Latin for 'Welcome.'"

Disappointed Customer—"Well, of course you know your family better than I do."

Stenographer: "Your little girl wants to kiss you over the phone."

FORGETTING SOMETHING—MISTAKES BELIEVED

When Arthur O'Malley, Carson Hill, Calif., had to drag his aching weary body from a sleepless bed, he did a wise thing—took Foley's Pills diuretic, and says: "Less than two bottles of Foley's Pills diuretic relieved me entirely of my kidney and rheumatic troubles and put me on my feet and to work again. I want other workers to know about them." Guaranteed to give satisfaction. Ask for them. For Sale by Hite's Drug Store.

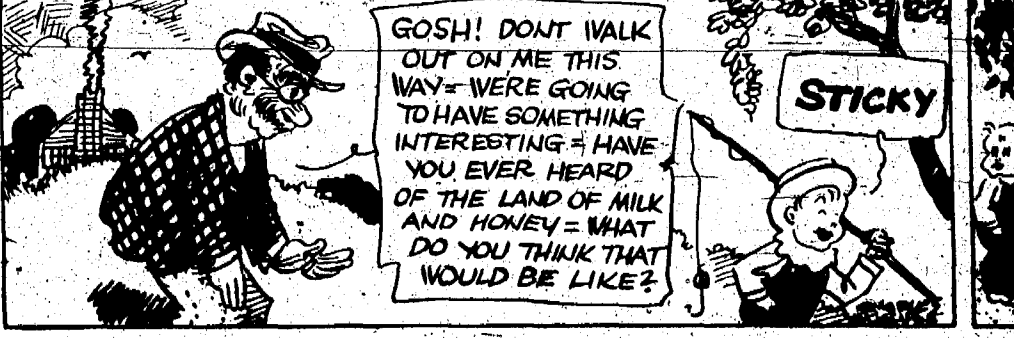

"YOU ARE WANTED ON THE PHONE"

YOU ARE PROMPT to respond to the ring of your phone. The very idea that some one has a personal message for you intrigues your interest.

Has it ever occurred to you that back of every advertisement in this paper there is some one with a personal message for you? More often than not these advertisements were written with you in mind. It is impossible for most merchants and manufacturers to give you a phone call about their goods, their wares, or their services. So they pay us for the privilege of calling these things to your attention in our advertising columns.

Give an advertisement the same attention you give to a phone call. Many of them are just as important to you—and just as interesting. They will help you to economize and keep posted on news of vital interest to you and your pocketbook.

Don't lay this paper aside, today, without reading the ADVERTISEMENTS. They are personal calls for you.

This was followed by a very pretty ceremony called the "Floral Work" put on by the Worthy Matron and 7 officers from Waldo Chapter, the home Chapter of the President, and was a very pleasing ending of the program.

After the formal closing of the Chapter by the officers of Mark Chapter, the delegates and visitors remaining for the business session of the second day, were entertained in the homes of the members and their friends at East Jordan until the hour of opening at 9 a. m.

Thursday Forenoon
This was called to order in the Masonic Temple, and two beautiful numbers "The Gingham Girls" and "Cupid" were given by a chorus of young girls and some young men, from the Operetta recently given by the East Jordan schools, under the direction of Miss Carol Chandelier. These were much enjoyed by the more than one hundred delegates and visitors remaining for the executive session.

After the opening prayer and song, the minutes, communications and bills, and reports of Secretary and Treasurer, and various committees were read and accepted. Considerable time was devoted to a revision of the By-Laws, several important changes being approved. The annual election resulted as follows:

President—Mrs. Minnie Bonthron of Charlevoix. First Vice President—Mrs. Alice Palmer of Kalkaska. Second Vice President—Mrs. Amanda Shepard, East Jordan. Third Vice President—Mr. Martin Smith, Central Lake. Secretary—Mrs. Mae Brooks, of Mancelona. Treasurer—Mrs. Mina Morrison of Elk Rapids.

Member of Executive Committee for three years—Mrs. Louise Richards, Bellaire. The newly elected officers were invited and escorted to the platform, and "given a hand." The Worthy Grand Matron, Mrs. Raudebaugh gave a short farewell talk, as did the Worthy Grand Patron, Mr. O. W. Bishop, who also invited the members to the meeting of the Wolverine Association at Conway May 28rd, afternoon and evening. The following resolutions were adopted by the Convention, and the session closed, to meet in Petoskey in May, 1931 as the guests of Beulah Chapter No. 63.

WHEREAS, We have met in the 27th annual session of our beloved Meguzee Association, and enjoyed the fellowship experiences at these meetings; and whereas:

That we give vocal expression of our appreciation of their thoughtfulness and extend to Mark Chapter and the City of East Jordan our thanks for their effective efforts and courtesies shown us;

Second, be it Resolved: That we extend to our Worthy Grand Matron, Sister Sue E. Raudebaugh, a vote of thanks for the helpful suggestions given in such a pleasing manner;

Third, be it Resolved: That we extend a vote of thanks to the Board of Education for the use of the Auditorium, and the entertainment by the little Rhythm Band and the High School Band for their especially enjoyed contributions; also to the young people of the school who participated in the morning's entertainment.

And finally, be it Resolved: That these resolutions be made a part of the records of the 27th annual meeting of the Meguzee Association and a copy be sent to the Charlevoix County Herald.

School News and Chatter

"J-HOP" IS HUGE SUCCESS

All persons who attended the annual Junior Hop cannot say enough good things about it. The head of the decorating committee was Margaret Bayliss, whom we all know deserves much credit. She also was in-charge of the invitation and programs.

Margaret worried until we were really quite frightened by Thursday night, but Margaret's motto seemed to be "Don't give up the ship" and she certainly didn't.

Margaret isn't the only one who deserves praise, however. Velma Shepard was chairman of the refreshment committee, and you all know that the punch was just right. One thing we all liked about it was that all the pits were out. Thanks Velma.

Agnes Stanek was another Junior who certainly did her share. She helped Velma decide how many oranges, lemons and cherries to use, and how many pounds of sugar to dump in.

The Grand March was very different from previous years. That too, was a success, much to the credit of President, Donald Stokes and Marian Maddock, who led us in and out and all around.

Many more Juniors did a great deal in making flowers, the fence, archways, stringing wire and arguing about the length of paper and so on until many people wonder how we ever took a step Friday, but just ask Mr. Maynard. We've surprised him more than once. He thinks we're quite a bunch I guess. It takes a lot of push on his part but we get things over big.

A meeting is to be called this week to make plans for a Junior and Senior banquet.

GRADES

First Grade—The first grade vegetable garden is growing fine. How is your garden?
Second Grade—The second grade are now reading the book entitled "The Japanese Twins." Some attractive spelling booklets were made by the second grade similar to the Japanese lanterns.

Third Grade—An attractive and striking poster was made by the third grade of the people of Japan and their bright parasols. The Japanese lanterns were very pretty with their many colors. The colors were well chosen and in good harmony. Altogether they have a good display of Japan.

Skillful drawing and work have produced some interesting posters of the self we all know in the poem entitled "The Elf and the Toad Stool." Fourth Grade—Those having 100 per cent in spelling last week were: Jean Stroebel, Rebecca Bowen, Anna Jean Sherman, Dorothy Sonnabend. The boys still have the lead in Arithmetic.

The fourth grade have an exceptionally large Jack in the Pulpit which was brought to school by Jean Bartlett. They feel very proud of it being there are few people who have seen one grow to such a large size. Sixth Grade—The fifth, sixth, seventh and eighth grades are to have a track meet Thursday. A great deal of enthusiasm has been worked up among the boys.

For nature study the sixth grade have a turtle about the size of a quarter and also some pollywags. We are thinking some interesting material will be produced. The sixth grade will blossom out with their graduation badges of blue and gold very soon.

The sixth grade are leaving a gift for the people who will follow them. It is to be two pictures which they will purchase with the money they have in the bank. One of the pictures is to be George Washington Crossing the Delaware. We feel that the people who will later be in the sixth grade will appreciate this gift from the sixth grade of 1932.

FUEHRER RESIGNS AS HEAD OF SCHOOLS

William L. Fuehrer, Superintendent of Schools at Boyne City for the last eight years, has tendered his resignation to the Board of Education, effective at the close of the present school year. Mr. Fuehrer said he was not yet ready to announce his plans for the future but that he might later on have a statement to make. The school superintendent's resignation comes as a result of the school situation at Boyne City, which resulted in the recall of three members of the board of education, and the election on Monday of this week of three new members to the Board. It is considered that the new members are opposed to past policies of the board of education and that radical changes in policies would be asked for the coming year. Because of the election of three new members to the board of education that body was forced to re-organize and at a meeting Tuesday Dr. G. C. Conkle was elected President. He replaces Dwight Herrick. Floyd E. Newville was elected Secretary to replace Mrs. Anne Boylan. Charles J. Beals was named Treasurer to take the place of Samuel E. Neysmark. Petoskey News.
