Tank Salesman Robbed of Cash

TWO MEN HOLD UP JOHN W. PANGBORN ON GREENSKI HILL.

John W. Pangborn, septic tank salesman from Otsego, Michigan, who has been making regular calls over this territory during this year, reported to Petoskey police Tuesday afternoon that he had been held up and robbed of about $14 in money and his watch by two men near Charlevoix that afternoon. Police at once got in touch with Charlevoix County officers, gave them a description of the men, their car, etc., and a hunt was organized at once. Watch was set on all roads.

Mr. Pangborn reported that he had left his parents at Boyne City and was enroute to Petoskey via Greenski Hill. As he drove out onto the main highway, U. S.-31, at that point a black Buick coupe crowded him off the road. Two men, both young, stepped from the machine and menaced Pangborn with guns. They went through his pockets and took his cash and valuables, looked through his traveling bag and machine from which they took nothing, and then ordered him to "beat it." He did, while the two men watched him, both with guns drawn. He believes they then drove back, either toward Charlevoix or Boyne City.

The salesman indicated that both men were young, probably 17 to 19, one rather dark with a dark blue sweater, and the other man with a rather tanned face. They seemed nervous, indicating they may have been amateurs at the robbery business.

Mr. Pangborn reports this is the first difficulty he has had with hold-ups. It is also the first case of highway robbery in this section in some time.—Petoskey News.

Stanton — Mrs. Joseph Hanchett, Bushnell township, celebrated her ninety-first birthday recently. Mr. Hanchett was 96 years old on May 16, and the couple was married 74 years March 5. Their daughter and her husband, Mr. and Mrs. Marshal Sherd, live with the aged couple.

Hibler lost his balance while standing in a skiff and fell in the line of his companion's fire as he shot into a flock of ducks.

PREMIUM BOOKS READY FOR TOP O' MICH. SHOW

The Premium Books of the Top O' Michigan Potato and Apple Show, to be held at Gaylord on October 29 to 31, are being mailed this week and show a slight increase in premiums offered this year over any previous year.

With an enlarged Junior Department and an additional class in apples, the premium list this year, including contests and special awards, totals over $1700. The potato lists continue to be largest with over $900 offered in all potato classes, both adult and junior divisions.

The potato growers of the Top O' Michigan should not hesitate to exhibit because their potatoes are small. The dry weather was general over all of northern Michigan and many potatoes will be small this year. The chances to win prizes at the Show, however, are as good, if not better than ever before, according to B. C. Melencamp, Secretary, Boyne City.

The best from the Top O' Michigan always goes to the State Potato Show in February. With the very bad potato crop in southern Michigan, all winners at the Top O' Michigan Show should have an opportunity of winning at the State Show and of showing the State Show winners that the Top O' Michigan potatoes are supreme.

Write to your County Agr'l Agent or to B. C. Melencamp, Boyne City for a premium list and program if you have not already received one.

Plan now to show by selecting potatoes at digging time.

LAND FIRE FIGHTERS IN RESOLUTION

Lansing, Sept. 30.—The hundreds of men, who for the past nine weeks have fought almost day and night, the forest fires that have ravaged the State, were lauded in a resolution adopted unanimously by the Conservation Commission at its September meeting.

The resolution said: "To all members of the forest fire division and to all men who have served on fire duty this year:

"In recognition of the faithful and valient service rendered by you over the forest fire hazard season of the past nine weeks the members of this Commission desire to express their hearty appreciation of your efforts and to commend you upon the splendid results you have achieved in keeping losses to a minimum during a period of drought not exceeded within the past 41 years.

"There is little we can say to compensate you for the sacrifice to your own well being you have made, but the people of the State of Michigan are proud in the knowledge they possess a fire fighting organization second to none in the entire United States."

JOHNSON—LYONS

Miss Margaret Lyons, daughter of Mrs. D. J. Lyons of Detroit, formerly of Jackson, was united in marriage with Harry Johnson, 513 South West Avenue, son of Mr. and Mrs. Julius Johnson, Thursday morning, August 28th. The couple motored to Wauseon, Ohio, where the ceremony was performed. They are on a motor trip in northern Michigan and Canada, and will be "At Home" after Sept. 5 at 513 South West Ave.

Miss Lyons is a graduate of Jackson High School and has many friends in Jackson who plan many entertainments in her honor on her return to this city.—The Jackson Citizen Patriot.

Bay City—One of the problems duck hunters, patronizing the State Marsh at Wildfowl Bay, have had to contend with is to reach this marsh without trespassing on private property. To alleviate this nuisance the State has purchased a large lot on the shore of the Bay a few miles south of Bay Port and a short distance north of Weale. There is 182 feet frontage and improvements will be made to take care of car park and boat anchorage. The site will be ready for use this season.

Ironwood—Seventy-five patients and several employees of the Grandview hospital escaped injury when a dynamite bomb exploded in a corridor and wrecked a portion of the building.

Louis Kramer, 45 years old, woodsman, was held for questioning. Officers said Kramer confessed he threw the bomb into the hospital in hopes of killing Dr. George Johns, former staff physician, against whom he had a grudge. Dr. Johns left the hospital nearly a year ago and is now believed to be in Detroit. Damage is estimated at $2,000.

State News in Brief

Corunna—The sheriff's department was called upon to investigate the theft of all the furniture in the home of Mrs. Hazel Clay of Antrim Township. She said it was taken while she was in Detroit. A 700-pound safe was among the articles taken.

Negaunee — Horton Andrusen, of Iron River, died in an Ishpeming hospital, three hours after his legs were severed by a freight train. Andrusen is believed to have jumped from the moving train and fallen under the wheels.

Big Rapids—Mrs. Matilda Carr, of Weldman, was held to circuit court on a charge of arson, following the destruction of the house and farm buildings on the farm of her estranged husband, Victor Carr. The woman confessed firing the buildings, say the police.

Manistique—The barking of a police dog was credited with saving the lives of three persons when Earl Parker's store and hotel near Manistique was destroyed by fire. Mr. and Mrs. Parker and a maid, Miss Rose Mercier, awakened by the dog, jumped

Alma—Alma College students not on freshman or varsity teams will have the opportunity to enter the most elaborate program of intramural athletics ever launched at Alma. Prof. J. W. Ewer will have complete charge of the program. Track meets, cross-country runs, soccer games, touch football, and speedball will be played. Regular schedules will be arranged.

Grand Rapids—A brother and his sister were sentenced to state penal institutions for violating the liquor laws. Mrs. Mildred Stewart, 46 years old, was sentenced by Superior Judge Leonard D. Verdier, to from six months to two years in the Detroit house of correction, while her brother, Harry Banks, 35 years old, will spend a similar time in the state prison at Jackson.

Flint—Street car fares here were recently increased to 10 cents for cash fares, four tickets for 30 cents or 16 for $1, as a result of an ordinance adopted by the city commission. The old fare schedule, in effect since 1927, provided for 7 cent cash fares with four tickets for 25 cents and 17 for $1. Under the new rate, school children may procure tickets at a new low rate of nine fares for 50 cents.

Lansing—The annual state basketball tournament, held in Detroit for the past several years will be held in Lansing next spring. A. W. Thompson, director of interscholastic athletics, announced. With Detroit out of state competition beginning this season delegates at the representative council of the State High School Athletic Association, which met here thought it advisable to shift the tournament to a more central part of the state.

Lansing—John Lazotte, of Grand Island Township, Alger County, arrived in Lansing during the state-wide recount with a ballot box containing eight votes. To reach Lansing he rowed across Munising Bay four miles to take a train at Munising. The cost of the recount was emphasized by the fact that the State had to pay Mr. Lazotte $53.10 to recount eight votes as he traveled 411 miles at 10 cents a mile and was allowed $2 for each of six days away from home.

If you think the world is crazy it may be you that's crazy.

DUCK HUNTERS MAY USE DETACHABLE MOTORS

Lansing, Sept. 30.—A duck hunter who detaches his outboard motor and lays it in the bottom of the boat while he is hunting is not violating the law, in the opinion of the office of the Attorney General.

The Law Enforcement Division of the Department of Conservation has recently received several requests for rulings on this question from both hunters and field officers, some contending that a motor had to be moved to a raft before a boat could be considered as anything else than a motorboat. Others claimed that with the motor detached the boat was no longer a motor boat.

The Attorney General's office takes this latter attitude.

"It would not be a violation of the statute prohibiting hunting wild waterfowl during such times as said person is upon any kind of floating device or other contrivance propelled by or using as motive power, steam, gas, naphtha, oil, gasoline, or electricity—if the individual should be found to be hunting ducks while in a row boat merely because it contained an outboard motor detached and in the bottom of the boat, the opinion states.

RESULTS OF THE JORDAN RIVER CANNING CLUB

This club was organized on June 17, 1930 by ten girls interested in a Canning Club. The members were Lucille Severance, Velma Trojaneck, Marjorie Brown, Helen Nemecek, Clara Skrocki, Stephanie Belzek, Jennie and Elvera Skrocki, Lucille Stanek, and Agnes Stanek, who acted as Leader of the Club. Seven of these girls were lucky enough to be able to attend Camp Gay-Lug-Lun the first week of August. At this camp contests were held. Lucille Stanek won a trip to the State Fair through Canning Judging and Agnes Stanek won second place in the Health Contest.

The club exhibits were taken to Bellaire for Achievement Day and there everyone had very nice exhibit articles. The display at Bellaire was taken to the North Western Michigan Fair at Traverse City. Here the canned products were judged and premiums were placed on the fruit. The Jordan River Canning Club came out second in Antrim County which is eight dollars, Jennie Skrocki 2nd, Velma Trojaneck 3rd and Clara Skrocki 4th, in first year work. Agnes Stanek second, and Lucille Stanek fourth in second year work. In individual prizes there were 12 first premiums and five second premiums. Altogether, the club prize and the individual prizes amounted to $23.00.

This finishes our season's work and we plan to organize a club next summer.

Muskegon—The Muskegon Heights High School football team ran up a record score of 108 points, against Newaygo High School. The veteran Heights team led by Capt. John Regeize, all-State fullback, romped through and around the visitors at will. In the first half the Heights scored 51 points and continued in the second half to collect 55 more.

Parma—All attendance records at Spring Arbor seminary and junior college have been broken by the enrollment of 210 students, according to officials of the Free Methodist school. There are 45 in the senior class, the largest graduating class in the school's 60 years of history. President Merlin G. Smith states that there are 21 members of the faculty this year.

Detroit—E. Trinklein, of Detroit, while fishing four miles east of Arcadia in Manistee County, observed five wild turkeys in the river bottoms along the Little Betsey river. "We flushed the birds and when they took wing there was no mistaking their identity." Records fail to reveal any planting of wild turkeys in this neighborhood over the last ten years and the origin of this small flock is a mystery.

Port Huron—Vincent Pawlak, 18-year-old Detroit, is in Port Huron City Hospital having been shot by Hugh Rosseaw, Berlin Township farmer, as he is said to have been stealing melons on Rosseaw's farm. According to Rosseaw he saw three youths in his melon patch and opened fire with a shotgun. Pawlak fell and the other two fled, although one appeared to be wounded. Pawlak received several wounds in the legs and lost considerable blood before he reached the hospital.

She: "Can you tell fortunes by cards?"
He: "No, but I lost one at them."

Fire Prevention Week

A PROCLAMATION BY GOVERNOR FRED W. GREEN.

It has been the custom each year to set aside a week to be known as Fire Prevention Week. Its purpose is to call to the attention of all the people of Michigan the havoc that fire causes in the State, both to property and life. Every year in Michigan an enormous amount of property has been destroyed. It has taken hard labor to produce this property, and the State is so much poorer by its loss. Many people think that if insurance is carried the owner of the property is compensated for his loss; but insurance is only a means whereby the individual is protected and the loss distributed to all citizens of the State. Therefore, Michigan is poorer each year by the amount of fire losses in the State.

Last year there were 322 deaths by fire in Michigan. Life cannot be restored, and this appalling number of deaths should awaken everyone in the State to the danger of fire and it should be an incentive to every citizen to remove all fire hazards from any property he owns. The loss of life is largely in the homes and each citizen of Michigan should use the greatest care in making the home safe.

More than fifty per cent of the lives lost in Michigan from fires were caused by gasoline, naphtha or other volatile explosives. Use extreme care in handling such products. I urge citizens to make an effort to reduce the fire hazard; to dispose of accumulated waste material, and see that chimneys, wiring, and heating equipment are in good condition.

The Michigan Fire Chiefs' Association is making splendid effort to reduce the loss of property and life, and I urge all citizens to join together in making

FIRE PREVENTION WEEK October 6 to October 11, inclusive a notable one in this State. Through united effort this loss of life and property can be greatly reduced.

Given under my hand and the great seal of the State this tenth day of September, in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred and thirty, and of the commonwealth the ninety-fourth.

FRED W. GREEN, Governor.

BARK-BEETLE HARMS STATE FRUIT TREES

Considerable injury to fruit trees in Michigan is caused by the Fruit Bark-beetle which tunnels in the cambium layer just beneath the bark but this injury can be considerably lessened by careful orchard practices, according to the entomology department of Michigan State College.

This insect preferably attacks wood which has been bruised or which is weakened by disease but occasionally the borer becomes established in healthy wood. "When the borer has been able to make extensive galleries beneath the bark, the numbers of the insect increase rapidly and individuals move to other trees to establish new colonies.

Brush which has been removed by pruning and left in the orchard, wood cut from fruit trees and stored near orchards, or wild cherry wood which has been cut and left on the ground make ideal quarters for the establishment of colonies which later attack fruit trees. All such prospective quarters for the borer should be burned.

Orchard trees which are so badly infected by the borer that the branches are dying should be removed and burned to prevent the migration of the borers to other trees. Orchardists who pile brush in their orchards for use in building smudge fires should never use brush taken from fruit trees.

Cherry and peach trees are attacked more frequently than other Michigan fruit trees.

Making a success of life is pie. All you need is a lot of crust and a filling of apple sauce.

A man can be responsible for his own character, but he has to trust to others for his reputation.

Things that prey on some people's minds run the risk of dying from starvation.

The man who wins is the man who holds on until he can hold no longer—and then doesn't give up.

It takes nerve to fly in the face of tradition, but the fact is, they seldom serve prunes at a boarding house.

The difference between age and youth is that when you are young you long for things to happen, and when you are old you hope they won't.

RED SQUARE WILL BE RECONSTRUCTED

Once Scene of Glamour and Tragedy in Russia.

Washington.—Russia's "Red Square," the scene of glamour and tragedy, is to be reconstructed, according to a report of the National Geographic society. In back of a high board fence the work of turning the temporary wooden mausoleum into a permanent resting place of stone is already underway. Smooth flag stones will replace the ancient cobbles and permanent reviewing stands are to be erected.

Formerly the scene of public executions, of imperial proclamations and martial parades, of bloody revolutions, it now surrounds with the tramp of the Red army and the footfalls of Soviet workers. High above the Kremlin wall rises a great clock tower, built the year before Columbus discovered America. Opposite this historical structure are the Trading Rows with their arched sidewalks, around which the people in all walks of life gather. Women in felt boots, clerks in leather jackets, officials, usually well-dressed, with their brief cases under their arms, laborers in their dirty sheepskin coats, slippered girls dragging hand carts behind them offer a glamorous contrast.

Vendors cluster around the gates leading to "Red Square," offering all manner of articles and making sections of the square into virtual outdoor department stores.

At night an open forum is established in the square. Unimportant Soviet speakers gather little knots of listeners about them to explain details of the Soviet plan of government, and oftentimes the square is filled with a mass of people while the government leaders proclaim the doctrines of the Revolution through mammoth loud speakers.

With the work of reconstruction now started, all of this glamour is at a standstill, until when a new and even greater "Red Square" is completed, it can begin anew.

Soviet Finds Use for Dead Cats; Making Soap

Moscow.—Don't waste your dead cats and dogs. The Soviet has found a use for them.

"Soap must be made from cats and dogs," says Pravda, the Soviet newspaper. "One cat boiled down gives five ounces of fat, one dog more than a pound."

Rats, mice and marmots will also be used in preparing a popular toilet brand called "My Grandmother's Bouquet." Boiling, instead of throwing away the carcasses used by the state fur syndicate, will yield annually 5,000 tons of fat for soap, releasing an equal quantity of fats edible by workers.

An official circular urges peasants not to drown puppies, but to keep the entire litter for one year and then knock them on the head, and sell the skins and carcasses to the fur syndicate.

Natural Well of Ice Found in South Dakota

Rapid City, S. D.—A natural ice well, 172 feet underground, from which crystal clear blocks of ice can be cut in hottest weather, is occasioning much interest here. The well is located at the gypsum-plaster mill at Black Hawk, seven miles north of here.

In digging for gypsum at the plant, workmen sunk a shaft, at the end of which a large hole was excavated in taking out gypsum. This filled with water to a depth of eight feet, which freezes in summer and is coated with thick ice.

OPPORTUNITY

By THOMAS ARKLE CLARK
Dean of Men, University of Illinois.

Opportunity, the proverb says, knocks at every man's door at least once. Perhaps some ears are duller than others and fail to hear the knocking. Some may be too sound asleep or too deeply engrossed with trivial affairs to recognize the summons, but at any rate the visitor, receiving the cold welcome, passes on to the next door, and possibly never returns again. It is strange how many men are sure that they have never had a chance, and how equally sure they are that if they had had they would soon have had the world by the tail.

That is the way Wallace feels. He is an old man now, and I have known him ever since he was a young fellow in the town near which I lived. He was always ambitious, apparently, and eager to do something worth while, but, as he says, he has never had a chance. He has been trying something different every few years in an endeavor to discover something that he likes, something that he is fitted for, something that he can throw his whole soul and energies into, but the opportunity has never come. He wanted to be a lawyer, but he did not have the money to go to college, and working his way seemed too hard a task. He was a traveling salesman for a time, but he saw no future in that line of work, and so he gave it up. He bought a little store, but there was so much competition that he went onto the rocks there. And so it had gone; he never got anywhere; he never had a chance.

It never occurred to him that other fellows whom he had known as a boy with no more money and no more opportunity than he had had were pretty well up in the world now. Miller was looked upon as the most successful lawyer in that part of the state, and he had started with nothing. Connor owned a line of chain stores and he had begun as an errand boy in the little grocery store on Sangamon avenue, and Carson, who had been Wallace's seat mate in grammar school, was nationally known as an author and a scientist. He could not see that they, having no apparent opportunity had made one, each for himself, and by hard work and persistence had conquered difficulties.

The trouble with most of us is that what we mean by an opportunity is an easy chance to do something that is pleasant, and that is sure without effort on our part to result in a soft bed.

"What I'm looking for," a young fellow said to me once, "is an easy job with a big salary attached." He never found it.

"Opportunities might be more easily recognized," a newspaper writer recently wrote, "if they did not so often come disguised as hard work."

That's the difficulty. When opportunity knocks we expect to find an expensive automobile waiting outside to convey us to a soft job.

FOUR NEW NATIONAL FLAGS ARE ADOPTED

Designs Selected by States of the Levant.

Geneva, Switzerland.—Four more national flags have been added to the rainbow of banners which must be kept by all governments and warships to be flown on state occasions.

France carved up the Levant into four sovereign states, under the mandate of the League of Nations. Each has now picked its own flag. The republic of Lebanon adopted the red, white and blue tricolor of France, with the addition of a green cedar of Lebanon in the middle of the white band.

The state of Syria has adopted three green, white and black horizontal stripes, with three red five-pointed stars on the white band.

The flag of the state of Latakia, formerly the state of Ailatites, resembles somewhat that of Japan. It is a golden sun with 11 rays rising out of the center of a white flag. In one corner is a tiny French tricolor and in the other corners are three red triangles.

The government of Jebel-Druze has perhaps the gaudiest flag in the world, with five colors worked into a difficult composition. In the top left corner is a red, white and blue rectangle, and the remainder is like the American flag, with stripes. There are five stripes—green, red, yellow, blue and white.

Man Bites Dog; Town Breaks into the News

London.—For one brief afternoon the seaside town of Herne Bay broke into the front pages of the London afternoon papers because real news happened there.

In other words, a man bit a dog in Herne Bay.

Hundreds of bathers were astonished to see the owner of a dog which had been running about the beach barking and snapping at people, suddenly pick up the dog and give it a good hard bite.

The dog gave one startled yelp and tore off down the beach. A moment later it returned to its owner and docilely trotted at his heels.

"I have tried all sorts of remedies to keep the pup from snapping at people but none of them worked," said its owner. "So I thought I'd show him what it felt like to be snapped at himself. It was a last-measure remedy but it seems to have worked."

"Not one of my wives left me because she ceased to love me," Steele brags. "They simply went away because they were jealous of my success with other women."

"Executed" Man Observes His 89th Anniversary

Kingston, Mo.—It's a matter of record that E. G. Wallace, who is usually to be seen relaxing in the shade of the courthouse trees here, is dead. But recently he celebrated his eighty-ninth birthday.

Wallace, captured with three other men during the Civil war, was convicted of participation in guerrilla warfare and sentenced to die.

The men were lined up, rifles cracked and they fell forward. Wallace said his companions were dead, but he, unhurt, fell from fright. The execution squad came near and fired a bullet at the head of each man to make certain of death. The bullet intended for Wallace pierced his hat, grooved his skull. The scar remains today as proof of his story.

LIGHTS OF NEW YORK

It was John Oliver La Gorce who, on his last trip to New York, told me about "Old Sow." He had been fishing and on this trip heard the story.

Sacketts Harbor nestles on the shore of Lake Ontario, across from the mouth of the St. Lawrence and the Thousand Islands. Here, on July 12, was fought the first battle of the War of 1812. The British attacked from the water with five ships, the largest of which was the Royal George, carrying twenty-four guns and 200 men. The other four ships carried eighty guns.

The defenders on shore had only one gun. They called it "Old Sow." It was a thirty-two pounder, and had proved to be too big for a small Yankee schooner, so it had been brought ashore and left for months in the mud. But, when it looked as if it would be needed for defense, Colonel Bellinger mounted it in a field facing the water.

There was no dearth of powder, but all the cannon balls on hand were intended for a twenty-four instead of a thirty-two pound gun. This was like having only 22-caliber cartridges for a 32-caliber revolver, but the old inhabitants of Sacketts Harbor were a resourceful lot. They wrapped the cannon balls in pieces of carpet, which they tore up for the purpose, and in this manner were able to fire them.

Still, that artifice doesn't appear to have improved their aim. For around two hours, the ships shot at the shore and the shore shot at the ships with small damage on either side. The shore had the better of it, because ships offer a large target, while "Old Sow" at which the sailor gunners undoubtedly were firing, offered a small target indeed, especially with guns of that day.

Finally, the Royal George almost got the range, and with a thirty-two pound shot, it buried itself in the ground near "Old Sow" and the defenders dug it out, probably with great rejoicing. They at last had a cannonball which would fit their gun. They chucked it in the muzzle, rained it home, and aimed with great care. Their former practice must at least have given them the needed data, since they hit a ship fairly on the deck, where the crew were gathered thickest. That one shot killed fourteen men and wounded eighteen, and the British fleet retired. At least, that is what the people of Sacketts Harbor say, and it is their story, so they are entitled to stick to it. (Note: His forlornly will please not write.)

But their gratitude to "Old Sow" does not appear to have been profound, for there the old gun rests in sun and rain, with never a tablet or a monument to tell of past accomplishment. The grass and weeds grow high around it and the only road to it is an overgrown and rutted wagon track. To be sure, Sacketts Harbor is no financial center; but these associated sons and daughters of various wars are always concerning themselves with some sort of memorial. It seems as if they might make a proper road to "Old Sow," and give her a bit of smooth lawn on which to rest, and rub away a little of the dust and rust of years. In the face of odds, she did her stuff and she rates a little recognition.

Astrologists are doing an immense business in New York. They are consulted by almost every class of people. You might expect that theatrical people and other types prone to superstition would be potential customers, but hard-headed business men want to know what the stars say about their ventures. The majority of the astrologists are women, and some do not only a local but a mail order business. They tell me that there is one who gets thousands of letters a day. Some of those who go to the astrologists take up the study for themselves. Mary Hay, the actress, is considered a fine amateur astrologist, and there are many more.

But there is one new stunt in connection with astrology of which I have heard only recently. There is a woman who owns some well known kennels who has the horoscopes of blooded puppies cast as soon as they are born. This leads to arguments with the manager of the kennels, who does not believe in astrology and does believe in his own knowledge and experience of dogs.

George Gershwin, the famous composer, is a golfer of long standing and, until recently, of high scores. But Mr. Gershwin is improving. The other day, playing the Lakeville course, he not only, for the first time in his life, broke 100, but shot an 85. From now forever more, any time Mr. Gershwin falls to shoot in the low eighties, he will be off his game.

Stock market crashes and unemployment bring strange results. The army, for example, never had less trouble getting enlistments. The same is true of the other branch of the service. The slogan now seems to be: "Join the navy and see three square meals a day."

ANCIENT PALESTINE CITY IS ALL-JEWISH

Tel Aviv Most Remarkable Town in Old World.

Tel Aviv, Palestine.—This thriving city at the eastern end of the Mediterranean is singular in the world as the first all-Jewish city since the dispersion of the Jewish race in 70 A. D. In outward appearance Tel Aviv greatly resembles a prosperous California seaside town, but it is the economic and cultural center of the most modern political experiment—the attempt to establish a Jewish national settlement in Palestine.

Most Remarkable City. From many viewpoints Tel Aviv is the most remarkable city in the Old World. The rapidity of its development is astonishing, judged by Old World standards. The town was founded on barren sand, just north of the ancient city of Jaffa in 1903, and the census of 1913 showed only 908 inhabitants. In 1919 there were 2,892 inhabitants, but today there are more than 40,000 and the city has outstripped its neighbor, Jaffa, which has existed since biblical times.

Other features of the first modern Jewish town are that the ancient Hebrew language is the official and generally spoken language; it is inhabited by Jews from about 40 different countries; it was the first local authority in the Near East whose council was elected by direct voting of the entire population and the first town to grant full woman's franchise.

Since the famous Balfour declaration in which England promised to facilitate the foundation of a national home for the Jewish race in Palestine, Tel Aviv has grown by leaps. In 1919 the area of the town was about 220 acres; today it is more than 1,400 acres.

Contrast Is Striking. To the casual observer the busy streets and boulevards considerably resemble a newly built American boom city. The streets are thronged with well-dressed people, with shiny motor cars, mostly of American manufacture, and motor busses. The traffic policemen are dressed much like the summer uniforms of American policemen. The shops are bright and modern. The homes are either of the California bungalow type or flat buildings. Compared with the dirt and squalor of an Arab town like Jaffa, the contrast is striking.

Although there is a physical resemblance to an American town, the inhabitants differ from those of any other city in the world. Most of them have come to Palestine in pursuit of an ideal, which is the erection in the ancient home of the Jews of a modern Jewish state to constitute the focal point for a cultural revival of the Jewish race. One of the first stages which is being accomplished here is the resurrection of the Hebrew language as a living force.

Family Outwits Swarm of Bees in Week's Siege

Winnipeg, Man.—Driven from upstairs to downstairs and finally struggling to maintain their household in the kitchen, H. Bandy and family, who live on a farm near Birtle, Man., are recovering from a week's battle with a swarm of bees.

The bees flew in a week ago, making their first stop on the roof of the Bandy home. For some time they caused no trouble, but as their numbers increased they invaded the bedrooms, usurping beds and dressers.

The Bandys retired to the rooms downstairs. They were forced to make their last stand in the kitchen when the bees followed them to the tower floor. Realizing the propensities for pursuit which bees have, the Bandys then retired into the open. Falling into the trap, the bees followed, and now the Bandy home is free of bees.

Corpse Is Thrown Out as Truck Hits Hearse

Newark, N. J.—A gruesome accident occurred as a funeral cortege was proceeding with the body of Mrs. Mary Sullivan to the Holy Sepulchre cemetery. The hearse, hit by a heavy truck coming down a hill towards it, was rolled over on its side, the casket opened and the body thrown out into the interior of the hearse.

It remained for drivers of other funeral cars following to extricate body and coffin and await the arrival of another hearse.

AUCTION SALES

The most important thing connected with a sale is advertising it. Indeed that is practically the whole story. It makes all the difference between success and failure. Whether your sale is poor, fair, "pretty good," or extra good, depends on how well you advertise it.

Just as you are reading this advertisement because you are interested in Auctions, so the prospective buyer of the property you have for sale reads your advertisement.

A VERY IMPORTANT POINT

In advertising your Sale remember that it is necessary to cover the whole region to get the best results. Your Sale is not a neighborhood affair. Your neighbors will know about it anyway. You want bidders that come 10, 12, 15 and 20 miles, the strangers with the cash in their pockets.

To get these buyers you must place your advertisement where it will attract their attention. The Charlevoix County Herald of East Jordan and The Ellsworth Tradesman have a special combination offer for the same Auction Sale advertisement to appear in both publications. This assures a wide coverage in both Antrim and Charlevoix Counties.

DON'T BE "PENNY WISE"

Remember that all your goods are to be sold at one time, and upon that one day depends whether you make or lose perhaps several hundred dollars. A few dollars expense is nothing compared with having your sale well advertised.

If a merchant is going to have a sale he does not hesitate to advertise it liberally. Yet he is in business 365 days every year, his store is being advertised all the time, and if his sale is not a success he can make good the loss later on. But if your sale is not a success, you can never make good the loss, because you are in the selling business for only one day.

Don't forget this point: If you advertise your sale thoroughly, you will know that you have done your best, and you will always be satisfied. If you skimp on the advertising, and save a few dollars, then if your sale is not satisfactory you will always blame yourself for not spending a little more money and doing it right.

REMEMBER

Your eggs are all in one basket. You have $500 or $1,000 or $2,000 worth of property all to be sold in ONE day. Without a crowd your goods will sell at a loss. With a good crowd you may make hundreds of dollars. One bidder may make you enough money to pay all your advertising and your auctioneer besides. The cost of the advertising is NOTHING compared with the risk you run in selling a thousand dollars' worth of property. The question is not "Can I afford it?" but rather, "Dare I take any chances?"

FREAK STORMS DUE TO ELECTRIC RING

Physicists Advance New Theory of Magnetic "Rumpus."

London.—A ring of electric current surrounding the earth in very much the same way as the more material rings of Saturn surround that planet is seen as the cause of the magnetic storms that sometimes occur, upsetting cable and telegraphic communication. This suggestion is made by two English physicists, Dr. S. Chapman and V. C. A. Ferraro of the Imperial College of Science here. They have announced their theory through the pages of Nature Magazine.

This current occurs, according to their theory, in a stream of neutral ionized particles shot out from the sun. As the stream advances toward the earth the magnetism of that body sets up electric currents in the stream in its forward surface. The stream then proceeds to envelop the earth, possibly approaching as close as the upper layers of the atmosphere. The flow of the current in a westerly direction in the part of this stream around the earth then sets up magnetic effects that produce the main phenomena of a magnetic storm.

The authors of this theory point out that one of its distinctive features is that the current is close to the earth, only a few times its radius away. After the current ring is formed, they say, it could persist for several days, even after the flow of particles from the sun has ceased.

As magnetic storms are frequently associated with sun spots, it would seem therefore that the particles are shot out of the spots, though this is not mentioned in the announcement of the theory. It is suggested, however, that the stream approaches the earth with a speed of about 1,000 kilometers (620 miles) per second. This would take it across the 92,900,000 miles separating the sun and the earth in about forty hours.

Regiment's Lost Medal Found After 14 Years

New Haven, Conn.—Forty years ago the Second Continental regiment, now known as the One Hundred and Second regiment, purchased a gold medal set with diamonds and valued at $1,000.

It was presented to Col. S. R. Smith, who then turned it over to his successor. Fourteen years ago the medal was lost. Recently Col. James Gettys, while looking over military papers, found a notation giving the location of the medal, which had been put in a safety deposit vault.

The medal has been recovered, and it was presented in turn to Col. Ernest L. Isbell, James A. Haggerty and Louis L. Fields, past and present commanding officers of the regiment who served during the 14 years the decoration was lost.

Los Angeles.—Twelve-year-old Alfred Hill, attacked by a tiger at the Luna park zoo, died in the police hospital recently despite the sacrifice of his mother, Mrs. Lynett Hill, who gave a pint of her blood for a transfusion.

Alfred was caught by the tiger and his scalp nearly torn off before a trainer ended the beast's life with a rifle bullet.

With three companions Alfred crawled through a fence at the zoo and wandered through a jungle-like enclosure, ignoring warning signs. The lad climbed another low fence and suddenly the tiger darted upon him.

DEATH ENDS HIKING PACT OF TWO MEN

Partnership for a $25,000 Prize Is Dissolved.

Antofagasta, Chile.—A hiking partnership of two Englishmen which had been sustained for two years in a gallant attempt to win a $25,000 prize by walking from Buenos Aires to New York was tragically dissolved when one of them was run down on the railroad near this lonely nitrate port.

The dead man is Albert MacLewin. He died in the General hospital and was buried in the tiny Protestant cemetery on the Andean slopes above the port, his companion, James Winyard, and members of the Anglo-American colony carrying the casket.

Started August 21, 1928.

Winyard, though grief stricken by the loss of his mate, declared that he would see the adventure through by himself, disregarding the representations of his consul and local residents.

The two men commenced their walking tour on August 21, 1928, following the Argentine railway toward Bolivia, but the climate was much against them. Winyard fell ill with fever and MacLewin was bitten by a snake. They were pitied by friendly Indians, who cauterized MacLewin's wound. Both returned to Buenos Aires, a thousand miles away, and were in hospital three months.

Undaunted, they trekked off again after recovery, this time following the railway to Chile. A diary found on the dead man bears the stamps of station masters, prefects, school teachers, and farmers passed on the lonely route and tells tersely of weeks of rain and scorching heat.

Four hundred and eleven days were spent on the international rail route. Thirty were spent in traversing an equal number of miles at the mountain crest. In the two mile tunnel below the statue of Christ which marks the boundary between Chile and Argentina they struggled on with flickering candles.

Adventures Bared.

"A narrow shave," alludes the diary to the fortunate passing of the de-luxe transcontinental pullman train when the men were resting in a safety cutting.

It tells of another adventure which befell them when nearing the vineyard city of Mendoza. A stranger attacked them violently. In self-defense they were forced to use the sole gun they carried. Just then a police patrol rode up to the dismay of the tramps. Fortunately it turned out that their assailant was an escaped lunatic.

After resting a week in central Chile MacLewin and Winyard turned New Yorkwards once again and smilingly trudged off along the railroad that led into the nitrate wilderness that was to prove the graveyard of one of them.

Lettuces Called Aid to Beauty of U. S. Women

Paris.—American women owe their beauty to lettuce, in the opinion of Mile. Paulette Bernège, a dietician who has just completed a three months' tour of the United States.

"Vitamins are their chief concern," Mile. Bernège said. "They drink a good deal more orange and tomato juice than gin, contrary to the popular French conception, and they distinctly are not 'dollar grabbers.'"

"As a matter of fact, they are surprisingly loyal and industrious, and their independence of the male is one of the striking things about their great country."

But Mile. Bernège thinks American women are undernourished. "It is her contention that a happy medium somewhere between the typical French and the typical American diet would be very nearly ideal."

"Starvation may prove temporarily helpful," she said. "But in the long run it will shorten life, rather than lengthen it."

Vienna Police Must Keep Up Weight to Hold Jobs

Vienna.—By the Austrian Court of Appeals the right of the police to pension off any member of the force whose weight drops below 115 pounds has been upheld.

A verdict to this effect was given when Johann Klehvedler, age thirty-three, appealed against dismissal from the force because—the semiannual health examination of all policemen revealed that he was under this weight.

Firemen Rescue Kid on "See the City" Trip

Canon City, Colo.—It took the fire department to find six-year-old Wilbur Ward, Wilbur decided to "see the city," and spent the day doing so. When he failed to return home in the evening his mother notified the fire department and he was found within 30 minutes.

Reduce Din of Building by Electric Welding

Wilmington, Del.—A 14-story building is being erected here with little more noise than in construction of a barn. The structure is an addition to the Dupont office building which will cover two city blocks.
All of the structural steel frame is being electrically welded, while the concrete is mixed at a central plant and hauled to the site ready for pouring. The absence of the racket of pneumatic riveting hammers and the rattle of concrete mixers in operation has eliminated practically all noise except that of nailing together the lumber forms for the floors and other concrete work.
Occupants of nearby office buildings and people passing the operation would hardly be aware that construction was under way unless they saw it.

SKIPPER SEES ISLE "AFLOAT" IN PACIFIC

Captain Reports Discovery Near Society Group.

Norfolk, Va.—A "floating" island, inhabited only by birds, and another not visible two years ago, were discovered by Capt. J. O. Evans of the British steamer Pareora and his crew, according to a report made by Captain Evans on his arrival in Hampton Roads.
His ship has just returned from a long cruise to the Society Islands, Solomon Island and various other islands in the South seas.
The Pareora, out of England, has been away from home six months and has been steadily on the go.
"It was on April 15 at noon that we discovered the 'floating island.' It was in the Pacific near the Society Islands," said Evans.
"There were no signs of human life, but there were great flocks of birds swarming over the place. There must have been a thousand birds at least in the flock we saw. We did not get close to the island because we did not know how deep the water might be."
Island Reappears.
"The island appeared to be only a few feet above the water. In some places it looked as if the water was breaking over its shore lines.
"We also sighted the Tonga of the Friendly Islands, which was entirely submerged two years ago. It is now 600 feet above the surface of the sea. There is no life on this island either, except birds. I presume if anybody wanted to live there they might be frightened for fear that the island might again be claimed by the sea from which it came.
"At Solomon Island we had a run-in with the head hunters. They attempted to get fresh with my crew and we took three of them into custody. We gave them into the custody of the civic authorities, but they were permitted to return to their haunts with a warning they must be good.
"The Tonga island appears to be shielding a volcano. When our ship passed it we could see smoke.
"The other island which we sighted near the Society Islands we called the Floating Island. I don't know anything about where it came from nor how long it will remain visible."

Washington.—The radius of the universe has been placed at about 9,500,000,000,000,000,000 miles. That is the calculation sent to the National Academy of Sciences by Prof. Wilhelm De Sitter, of the University of Leyden, Holland, one of the world's foremost mathematician-astronomers.
It is based on the velocities of spiral nebulae, or island universes, as measured by the Mount Wilson Observatory of the Carnegie Institution of Washington.

SALVAGING GERMAN FLEET EXPENSIVE

Six Years and $2,000,000 Spent in Work.

London.—Eleven years ago the huge German fleet, still proud in defeat, rode the waves in Scapa Flow. It was a pleasant sight to British admiralty eyes. The fight had been hard. The spoils of victory would be sweet.

Then suddenly one of the battle cruisers lurched forward and began settling into the sea. Others followed and before the astonished eyes of British seamen the fleet disappeared below the waves.

The Germans had opened the sea-cocks. They had scuttled their craft as a last act of defiance.

Offer Is Accepted.

After recovering from their amazement the admiralty officers turned their thoughts and energies to having the ships salvaged.

Veteran shipping men and others contemplated the task, but made no bids. Year after year the ships lay snugly in Davy Jones' locker. When the admiralty had all but abandoned hope of realizing on their victory, E. F. Cox, in his late thirties, made an offer. It was quickly accepted.

Then Cox began a task which has been watched with interest by the shipping world because of the many difficult obstacles that lay in the path of success.

Gathering around him some of the best engineers and divers in Europe, Cox directed the work to date, and has resulted in bringing to the surface, later to be junked, three battle cruisers, one battleship, one light cruiser and twenty-five destroyers.

Although he knew comparatively little about salvage operations, Cox realized he needed more than the usual equipment and purchased the submarine floating dock the Germans had used, which he used in raising the destroyers.

One of the most difficult tasks in the entire operation, it is said, was that of closing all deck and hull apertures left open when the fleet was scuttled.

Determination Wins.

Cox's determination was displayed while attempting to salvage the battle cruiser Hindenburg, weighing 28,000 tons. After months of hard work it had been raised to the surface, but developed a dangerous list and had to be dropped back again to the ocean floor.

Later, in order to counteract this list, Cox's workmen built onto the Hindenburg's side a block of concrete weighing 9,000 tons. On being refloated she developed a starboard list. Once more the cruiser was dropped and another concrete block was built. This done the Hindenburg floated.

Six years have passed since Cox began his operations. His firm has spent to date more than $2,000,000. The profits are not known.

Sun Fires Tar Barrel, Blast Maims Worker

Minneapolis, Minn.—Thrown skyward when a tar barrel on which he was standing exploded in a freak blast, Clifford Palm, employee of a sheet metal company, suffered two broken legs.

Palm was standing on the barrel in order to reach a weld spot, working with a torch. The barrel, empty of tar except for that clinging to its sides, stood in the sun. The heat of the sun created fumes and gases filled the barrel.

A spark from the welding torch probably ignited the gases, which caused the explosion.

Outcrop of Gold Ore Is Found on Virginia Farm

Staunton, Va.—Gold mining in the Shenandoah valley, though never practiced extensively, may be revived if ore deposits on a grazing farm, five miles east of Elkton, owned by John A. Hensley, are found in sufficient quantities to make profitable the mining of the mineral.

According to reliable information, an extensive outcrop of gold ore, the first deposits found about a year ago, has been discovered on this farm, and after being assayed by government chemists is found to constitute a high-grade sample of the metal.

Fire Breaks Out While Arson Jury Is Examined

Preston, Idaho.—While officials were choosing a jury for the first arson case tried here in 35 years, fire started in the Preston Chamber of Commerce rooms, where the temporary courtroom was established. Spectators and prospective jurors were driven hurriedly from the building, and the flames raged for an hour before they were extinguished. The court had to be moved elsewhere.

Dried Pig Stomach a Cure for Anemia

Paris.—The stomach of a pig, dried and pulverized, has been found to be an effective treatment for pernicious anemia.

The French Academy of Medicine has studied the new cure, which it pronounced to be as good as the feeding of raw liver to anemic persons and much more agreeable to take.

Sec'y and Treas.—Mabel Hudkins.

AGRICULTURE DEPT.
The other week some of the students went to Traverse City and judged grains, poultry and other things along that line. When they came home they did not bring the results with them so we were held in suspense. But we have since received the returns and in the judging of grains they were as follows:
Agnie Stanek, first place; Marjorie Sommerville, second place, and Vera Hammond, third place.

HOME ECONOMICS
The eighth grade girls are now making pajamas. They are getting along fine in this work and we hope they continue to do so.
The other girls are now studying art principles and also have been applying them. For example such as the color that is best suited for them.

COMMERCIAL DEPT.
There is a nice size class this year taking first year typing and they are doing fine.
The Commercial Club has met and have their officers elected and here they are:

Vice President—Honoring Blair.
Sec'y and Treas.—Moreen Bulow.

LIBRARY CLASS
The library class has been organized again this year and they have begun work with a great deal of enthusiasm under the assistance of Miss Hazel Crofoot. They hope soon to have some new books to brighten the shelves in the library.

GRADES
The third grade are making vegetable dolls and health posters.
The third grade went for a hike down to the park one afternoon. We hunted for caterpillars. We found two milkweed caterpillars. We put them in a box and fed them milkweed leaves. One morning when we came to school the caterpillars had crawled on the blackboard. We watched them burst into a pupa. The pupa is green with gold spots. We are watching to see what will happen next.

The fourth grade have made health posters of vegetables and fruit. They are making a leaf collection in Nature Study. Last week they had four butterflies hatched. The first division won over the second in spelling.
There are fifty-one pupils enrolled in the fifth grade. The boys and girls are having a contest in spelling and the girls are ahead. The following pupils had "A" in spelling this month: Betty Cook, Katherine Kitman, Anna Jean Sherman, Jean Stroebel.
In Geography we are studying the story about rubber and we are collecting pictures of rubber.

The sixth grade English class have organized two clubs, the A Club and the B Club. The purpose of these clubs is for better English in speaking and writing. In Nature Study they have collected four different kinds of cocoons, and they are now making collections in seeds, flowers, insects, leaves and postage stamps.

The second and third grades have a new ball and bat. The boys have two base ball teams, the Cubs and the Bears. They are going to have a tournament of seven games.
They built a store in their room and call it the "West Side Store." Last week a candy sale was made in it.

The fifth grade are having a car race, boys against the girls. The boys are ahead now.
The fourth and fifth grades decided to mark themselves this month in spelling. They made a chart and are putting stars on. A gold star for A, a silver star for B, a red star for

C, a blue star for D.
The fourth grade made an Eskimo picture. They used soap for the house and icebergs, cotton batton for snow. The dog and boy were cut from wood and painted.
All but two have won their silver stars and gold stars in Palmer Method.

Berets of White Velvet or Colorful Chenille

That black canton crepe frock of yours will take on new swank if topped with a beret shirred of transparent thin-as-chiffon white velvet, or else made of wide white velvet ribbon. A chenille beret, crocheted or embroidered, in matching color is just the thing with your new wine colored or dark green light woolen frock.

With Hat to Match Is Rule for Youngsters

This wee tot tells you what she and her little girl friends will be wearing when late autumn sets in. She wishes to say, does this smiling child, that the new pile fabrics in brown and gray tones are ever so practical and attractive for outfits "with a hat to match" such as she is wearing.

It is lucky that virtue is its own reward, otherwise some of us would be fearfully underpaid.
