Fire Destroys Camp Manitou

AT IRONTON ON LAKE CHARLEVOIX, FRIDAY MORNING.

Fire, thought to have been of incendiary origin, completely destroyed all buildings at Camp Manitou, located at Ironton, six miles south of Charlevoix on Lake Charlevoix at 3:00 o'clock Friday morning.

Six cottages, recreation hall, club house, barns, ice house and other buildings were leveled despite combined efforts of the Charlevoix and East Jordan fire departments.

Caretaker Clyde Ogden and wife were barely able to escape with their lives, and, according to available information, all buildings were afire when the blaze was discovered.

Two strangers, walking toward Charlevoix shortly after 3:00 o'clock were picked up as suspects by Fire Chief Henry Marshall and Clair W. Webster. They were brought to the Charlevoix fire station and left under guard for questioning, but while their guard was not looking, escaped. Efforts to find the two men have failed. Telephone wires between Ironton and East Jordan had been cut.

Camp Manitou, which this summer was to have been known as Lake Charlevoix Dramatic Camp, was recently chosen by Prof. Earl E. Fleischman, of Ann Arbor, as the site for a proposed National Shakespeare Memorial Camp, where a National Shakespeare amateur memorial competition, similar to the National Orchestra and Band competition at Interlochen, was to have been sponsored. The project has been given wonderful support and was looked upon with optimism by its sponsors and local people.

The camp was owned by G. D'Amico of Detroit, who last year conducted an adult summer camp. The loss, estimated at around $100,000, is partially covered by insurance.—Petoskey News.

PICKLE GROWERS AWARDED PRIZES

The yearly custom of the Charlevoix Pickle & Produce Company has been to offer cash prizes to pickle growers having the highest yields in cash per acre. For the 1930 season, $100 in prizes were offered, and checks to winners have just been mailed as follows:

- 1st, $20, Wm. Shaw, Charlevoix; yield per acre, $342.94.
- 2nd, $15, Paul Doctor, Ellsworth; yield, $338.82.
- 3rd, $10, R. DeYung, Atwood; yield, $241.06.
- 4th, $9, A. J. Bolhuis, Charlevoix; yield, $208.58.
- 5th, $8, Silas Doctor, Ellsworth; yield, $205.52.
- 6th, $7, Walter Heileman, East Jordan; yield, $199.21.
- 7th, $6, P. Drenth, Ellsworth; yield $171.76.
- 8th, $5, Mrs. R. Bester, Harbor Springs; yield, $169.94.
- 9th, $4, Joe Moore, East Jordan; yield, $169.70.
- 10th, $4, H. Purdy, Central Lake; yield, $164.56.
- 11th, $3, G. VanderArk, Ellsworth; yield, $163.42.
- 12th, $3, W. Fleming, Boyne City; yield, $158.32.
- 13th, $2, Wm. Murphy, East Jordan; yield, $146.85.
- 14th, $2, C. McKenney, East Jordan; yield, $143.80.
- 15th, $2, C. Wilson, Central Lake; yield, $142.50.

Many other growers secured yields that placed them in close line with the above prize winners, and in spite of the drought, the general averages in yield per acre were very satisfactory and farmers realized a very excellent cash return from their Pickle Crop.

1931 contracts for East Jordan delivery will be offered at the East Jordan Salting Station this week on Friday and Saturday, April 24th and 25th. (See advertisement elsewhere in this paper.)

STANDARD OIL TO ADVERTISE TEST RESULTS

Advertising in 1,614 newspapers in 1,459 cities and towns of thirteen States will be the keystone of the campaign which Standard Oil of Indiana will conduct this year on motor oils. This newspaper is one of the list selected by the advertising agency handling the campaign.

The newspaper advertising will follow on a novel and elaborate test of the oils which was conducted on the Indianapolis speedway from March 17 to April 9 by experts of the American Automobile Association. Standard of Indiana purchased 13 different makes of stock cars and put them at the disposal of the Association for the test. These included a Ford, Chevrolet, Pontiac, Buick, Oldsmobile, Chrysler, Studebaker, Hudson, Cadillac, Willys-Knight, Nash, Cord and Reo.

Data as to consumption, dilution, carbon-forming characteristics, efficiency of the lubrication, and other details were carefully gathered and recorded by the A. A. A. officials and will be presented in the series of ads which the company will this year undertake to inform automobile dealers as well as motorists as to the fine points of good lubrication of cars.

Radio was brought into the campaign to announce the conclusion of the test at the speedway, and booklets, direct mail, and other advertising helps are to be used. But newspaper ads will be the chief medium through which the company will endeavor to make known to the public the proof of its claims furnished by the Indianapolis speedway test.

He was born in Germany, Nov. 10, 1861. At the age of four he came with his parents to the United States and settled in Chicago. In 1882 he left Chicago and came to Wilson Township, where he resided until his death. In 1884 he was united in marriage to Laura Schultz. QUALITY SPUDS TO BE TALKED ON PENNSY SOIL TRAIN

Beginning with Ravenna April 20 and following on through to and including Pellston, a potato meeting will be held at 9:30 central standard time each forenoon in the lecture coach of the Lime and Fertilizer Train operating over the Pennsylvania Railroad, April 17th to May 2nd.

This is in co-operation with the potato interests in Western Michigan which are at present sponsoring a State-wide program based upon the production of a higher quality potato.

C. L. Nash of the Economics Department, and H. C. Moore, Chief of Potato Work will be in charge of the meetings.

Mr. Nash will present the present economic status of Michigan's potato industry, using as a basis for his talk, the information he has gleaned from a study of the potato situation which he has been making for the past few months. The facts and figures he has obtained are said to be mighty interesting, and should be of great value from a money making standpoint, to the Michigan potato grower when properly interpreted.

Mr. Moore will discuss the State-wide program recently launched by the potato interests, designed to place upon the table stock market a much superior potato.

Western Michigan potato growers are offered this opportunity to get this information first-hand and will be able to find out, at this meeting what they can do to regain Michigan's prestige in the potato markets, which for the past two years has been largely usurped by some other States.

It is hoped that at the completion of this series of meetings held in connection with the Soil Improvement Special, that a greater effort will be made by potato-growers, each having in mind the goal of producing superior table stock potatoes.

Remember, while the Soil testing is going on in the laboratory car, this meeting will be held in the lecture coach.

Bankers, business men and others interested in and dependent on a stabilized potato industry are invited to attend.

Following is the schedule of the Soils Train in this near vicinity; potato meetings to be held in the forenoon; in afternoon each day, lecture coach will be used for soils conference. All meetings central standard time:

- Kalkaska, Saturday, April 25th.
- Manton, Monday, April 27th.

- Kingsley, Wednesday, April 29th.
- Mancelona, Thursday, April 30th.

By a resolution passed March 10th by the Board of Education, the election of school officers and the annual school meeting of the Rural Agricultural School, District No. 2 will take place the second Monday in June instead of the second Monday in July.

The adoption of the above chapter requires that persons running for membership to the Board of Education must secure a petition signed by at least fifty (50) qualified school electors to have their name appear on the ballot.

To vote at the annual election it is required that all school electors be registered. This may be done any time between the dates of May 9 to May 30 inclusive and the Board has especially designated the following dates: May 9, 16, 23, 29 between the hours of 3:00 p. m., and 8:00 p. m., standard time at the office of the Clerk of the City of East Jordan.

The Board has resolved the district into one voting precinct and the election to take place at the High School building in Room 15.

Petitions for membership to the Board of Education must be filed with the Secretary of the Board no less than 15 days before the election and no sooner than 30 days prior to the election—which would be not later than May 25 nor prior to May 9. No elector shall sign the petitions for more candidates than are to be elected. There are two members whose term expire this coming school election, June 9 and whose offices will be filled at that time.

The qualified electors are only people who are:

The above method of election, time of voting, annual meeting, etc., is in keeping with the general practice over the State.

DAIRY PROFITS CONFERENCE FOR CHARLEVOIX CO.

A Dairy Profits Conference is being planned for Charlevoix County, which, according to County Agr'l Agent Melencamp, will be held at Boyne City on May 12th. This Conference will be a business meeting of representative farmers and dairymen who will discuss the dairy problems of the county with the county agent and extension dairymen from the Michigan State College.

The conference will be devoted to outlining a long time plan of work. This plan of work will help put the dairy business of Charlevoix County on a more highly profitable basis. Means of getting more economical production will be discussed with the thought that profits lie in economy of production rather than increased total production.

About fifty delegates selected from every part of the county will participate. These delegates will be farmers with many years of dairy experience. This experience combined with the many years of scientific yet practical information collected by the Michigan State College should result in some lively discussion for real good to the community.

Bay City—A reduction in gas rates in Bay City, effective June 1, from $1.40 a thousand cubic feet to $1.25 has been decided on, the city commission has been advised by the Consumers Power Co. The present rates have been in effect since February, 1928, by agreement between the city and company.

Hastings—With his view of an oncoming automobile believed to have been cut off by dust raised by an automobile which had just passed, Lawrence Taber, 5-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Dwight Taber, residing seven miles west of here, was injured fatally when he ran in front of a car driven by Theodore J. Deyne, of Grand Rapids.

Detroit—Francis Raterman, 19 years old, gasoline station attendant, suffered a fractured left leg when he was knocked down to the pavement by a tire which exploded as he was forcing air into it. A passerby who refused to give his name was responsible for the arrival of several police scout cars whose occupants demanded to know where the shooting had taken place.

Ionia—The National Bank of Ionia was appointed receiver for the Bank of Muir, a private corporation, which has been closed temporarily. The petition listed the assets at $226,334 and the liabilities at $212,724. The receivership was made necessary, it was said, by frozen farm loans. Officials said that all this paper is good and that eventually they expect to repay every dollar invested.

Detroit—Detroit's death rate for the first three months of this year showed a marked reduction under that for the same period last year, census bureau figures revealed. A rate of 9.7 deaths per thousand of population for Detroit was recorded by the government. Detroit's rate was considerably lower than the average rate for 32 other major cities of the nation, which was shown as 14 deaths per thousand of population.

Jackson—Charles Williamson, 41, of San Francisco, and his sister, Mrs. Maggie Underwood, 38, of Albion, who have been separated since infancy, were reunited with each other at a reunion arranged by Deputy Sheriff Fred McQuown. When 4 years of age Williamson was placed in an orphanage and had not since seen his sister. Deputy McQuown arranged the reunion after locating Williamson through old Probate Court records.

Homer—Myron Littbrandt, 54 years old, living on a farm six miles southeast of this village, shot and instantly killed his 10-year-old son, Richard, and then fired a bullet through his right temple. Littbrandt died 20 minutes later. In his pocket was found an unsigned note in which he stated he had been in ill health, that he was unable to meet the payments on his place and that he feared old age. He also stated in the note that Richard was "too young to live."

Lansing—George R. Hogarth was reappointed director of conservation by members of the State Conservation Commission, and Ray E. Cotton again was given the secretaryship. William H. Loutitt was re-elected chairman of the commission. The newly formed commission was delayed from functioning until the Senate had confirmed the appointments of M. J. Fox, of Iron Mountain, and Philip K. Fletcher, of Alpena, whose names were presented to that body by Governor Brucker.

Lansing—Senator Herbert J. Rush-ton's bill to appropriate $100,000 a year for advertising Michigan's advantages as a tourist and resort state, has been passed by the Senate, and forwarded to the House. The bill provides that the state appropriation must be matched by the various tourist and development associations and the money spent under the direction of the Conservation Department. A similar appropriation made two years ago is credited with saving the tourist business during a period of serious depression.

FORD RELIABILITY

Long, hard use shows the value of good materials and simplicity of design

EVERYWHERE you go you hear reports of the good performance and reliability of the Ford.

One owner writes—"The Ford Tudor Sedan I am driving has covered 59,300 miles through all kinds of weather. It is still giving perfect satisfaction."

Another owner describes a trip of 3217 miles in 95 hours over bad roads and through heavy rain and sleet in the mountains. "Throughout the entire trip," he writes, "the Ford performed excellently and no mechanical trouble of any kind was experienced. The shatter-proof glass undoubtedly saved us from serious injury when a prairie chicken struck the windshield while we were traveling at 65 miles an hour."

See the nearest dealer and have him give you a demonstration ride in the Ford. Then, from your own personal experience, you will know that it brings you everything you want or need in a motor car at an unusually low price.

Minor Blemishes on Onions Hurt Value

Sun Scalds Become Dry, Slippery and Bleached.

(Prepared by the United States Department of Agriculture.)—WNU Service.

Onions frequently acquire unsightly blemishes and discolorations—for the most part damaging only the outward appearance—when exposed to certain chemicals, sunlight, or some fungi. The United States Department of Agriculture says in Circular 128-C, Blemishes and Discolorations of Market Onions.

"Scorched spot" and "bag print" frequently appear on colored onions that have been in damp storage for some time. The names are descriptive of the appearance of these blemishes. The chemicals in some bags print the weave of the bag on the outer surface of the onion, when the bag is moist. Ammonia fumes escaping in a storage plant or emanating from manure piled over ground-stored onions as protection from freezing often discolor onions. Ammonia turns yellow onions brown, red onions deep greenish-dark or metallic black, and white onions greenish-yellow.

Sometimes the sun scalds exposed onions at harvest. The scalded tissue first becomes slippery, then dry and shrunken, and finally bleached. Sun scald frequently opens the way for destructive bacteria and fungi. Growing bulbs may develop sunburn or "greening" on exposed parts, a blemish which is self-descriptive. The greened portions are usually bitter and unpalatable, but not particularly subject to decay.

A fungus growing on Bermuda onions in California produces a dark "soil stain" in the outer scales on the bottom of the onion. It damages the onion only in appearance.

Copies of Circular 128-C may be obtained by writing to the Office of Information, United States Department of Agriculture, Washington, D. C.

Climbing Peach Borer Is New Orchard Problem

Orchardists' difficulties in controlling peach-tree borers have been further complicated in recent years by the increasing numbers of the lesser peach-tree borer, a species which has a habit of working in the lower and larger branches of the tree. There it is out of reach of the deadly fumes from the paradichlorobenzene crystals customarily applied on the ground around the tree to control peach borers.

Entomologists of the United States Department of Agriculture now recommend the use of the same insecticide but in a different form. They found that paradichlorobenzene crystals could be dissolved in crude cottonseed oil, paraffin, grafting wax, or any highly penetrative solvent and "painted" on the bark around the borer burrows. The insecticide applied in that manner kills a large percentage of the borers.

While developing this control measure the investigators also learned how to "snare" many other borers of fruit and ornamental trees in their "dens," for the same process is likely to prove generally effective against pests of like habit.

Control Is Important in an Apple Plantation

The development of an apple plantation and the bringing to maturity of a good crop of high grade fruit depends not only upon correct cultural practices, good nursery stock, fertile soil, and favorable climatic conditions, but also upon the attention given to the control of diseases of various kinds and insect injuries, observes Dr. I. T. Scott, plant pathologist of the plant division of the Missouri state board of agriculture.

Neglect of proper control measures often results in complete loss of crop, and sometimes the loss of the trees themselves. Therefore, the ability to recognize those troubles that are most common and serious, and knowing how to control them is a necessary part of the equipment of every apple grower, the plant pathologist says.

FARM NOTES

Plant Kentucky Wonder beans for the succotash season.

Don't be afraid to sink the spade when you do your garden digging.

Try some of the cucumber-leaved endpapers for cutting—nothing finer.

Don't expect to cut a newly-set asparagus bed. Give the plants a chance to get established.

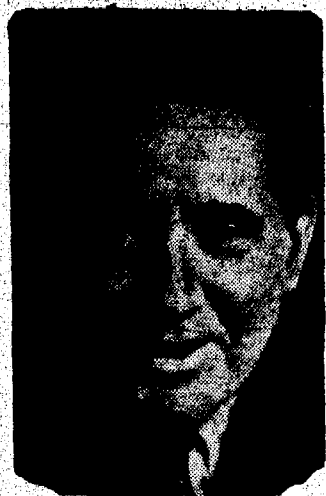

When you irrigate or sprinkle, apply sufficient water to soak down to the root system of your plants.

Reports state that the San Jose scale is increasing again. Thorough control measures are necessary.

Get plenty of beet seeds, an ounce, and plant a week and a half apart until midsummer for baby beets. Same for carrots.

Experiments conducted at the Pennsylvania state college to determine the value of commercial fertilizers for use in continuous seedbeds show that they aid in producing vigorous seedlings in the field.

By LEONARD A. BARRETT

THE RED CROSS

THE first place among all philanthropic organizations is voted, by common consent, to the Red Cross. It is one of the oldest and certainly the most efficient organization of its kind—it is international in scope and operates in all parts of the world. Among its objects is ministry to those who may be wounded in war, relief of suffering due to floods, sickness, and calamities of all kinds.

The work of the Red Cross during the last war was so efficient and valuable that no person would attempt to estimate its service in terms of statistical tables. In addition to the enormous sum of money expended in hospital equipment, supplies of all kinds, etc., the organization rendered a service of sympathy and compassion toward the sick and wounded that was known only to those who were the recipients of those ministrations. How many lives were saved and bodies healed are records which only the angels keep.

In our own country the Red Cross has rendered a very unique service in the follow-up work among those wounded in the war and has been of unprecedented service upon other occasions, among which was the calamity due to the recent Mississippi floods. Another gigantic task is being handled by the organization in bringing relief to those who are the victims of the recent drought. Only those who visited these districts have any adequate idea of the devastation caused by the drought and the serious need for help.

The appeal of the Red Cross for $10,000,000 is allocated directly to this work; and every person who has shared in that relief work by means of a contribution to that fund should certainly feel that he has rendered most valuable help in a most worthy endeavor.

The Red Cross is a voluntary organization and is dependent for its activities upon free will contributions. It has a very definite claim upon the loyalty and generosity of every American citizen.

Substitute for Stable Manure

Specialist Is Developing Synthetic Compost for Mushrooms.

(Prepared by the United States Department of Agriculture.)—WNU Service.

With the horse population steadily decreasing, mushroom growers of the country have been looking to the United States Department of Agriculture for a satisfactory substitute for stable manure, the standard medium for growing this crop. To meet this need, Dr. Edmund B. Lambert, mushroom specialist of the department, is developing a synthetic compost which has given promising results. In a general way the procedure used in making this compost is based on the process for making artificial manure that was developed and patented by English scientists in 1922.

Synthetic Compost Tested.

The artificial compost was first tested in 1928, and three crops of mushrooms have been harvested from it. The mushrooms grown on the synthetic material were normal in every way and fair yields were obtained, but as yet they do not compare favorably with yields obtained by commercial growers. The experiments are being continued, however, and the product is being steadily improved.

Wheat straw, cut into short pieces, forms the base for the synthetic compost. Different sources of nitrogen, such as dried blood, cyanamids, and urea, were added in varying amounts, as well as various mineral foods, to determine the ratios that produce the best crop. The material is handled in the same way as ordinary compost, and no change is made in the usual cultural practices.

Industry Is Growing.

The mushroom industry in this country has made a remarkable growth within the last 20 years, according to Doctor Lambert. This has resulted, he says, from the development of pedigreed spawn, or propagating material, and the use of special houses instead of caves for growing the crop. The use of pure culture spawn is a big factor in the control of insect pests and diseases, and the grower can control temperature and moisture conditions in the houses.

Goosefoot Weed Weakens Disease of Sugar Beets

A weed which is good as well as bad has come to the attention of the United States Department of Agriculture. It is the nettle-leaved goosefoot.

To all outward appearances, this weed in a sugar-beet field concentrates all effort on robbing the crop of its plant food. But Dr. Eubanks Carner, of the office of sugar plants, observed that it may compensate for its evil by weakening the virulence of the curly-top disease of sugar-beets. The disease is less destructive to beets after it has first passed through the goosefoot.

C. F. Lackey, also of the office of sugar plants, discovered that another weed, the wild chickweed, may restore the virulence of curly-top disease if the disease passes from goosefoot to the chickweed.

Neither weed is a practical factor in curly-top control in the sugar-beet belt yet, but plant pathologists think this relation of weeds to the virulence of diseases of nearby cultivated crops, discovered or the first time by these Department of Agriculture scientists, may have a practical bearing on some crop diseases.

Insects Prove Useful in Controlling Weeds

The popular idea that nearly all insects are injurious to man in one way or another is entirely wrong, according to entomologists of the United States Department of Agriculture. In some parts of the world insects have been imported for the sole purpose of controlling weeds which have threatened to crowd out useful plants. Entomologists of the Hawaiian Sugar Planters' association have introduced from Mexico a number of insects which feed on the lantana plant, a troublesome weed, and recent reports state that this plan of control is meeting with success.

Scale insects, plant bugs, caterpillars, and beetles are now being introduced into Australia to feed on the prickly pear cactus, a plant which has spread over the country at an alarming rate. A few years ago it was said that 60,000,000 acres of land in Australia were overgrown by this cactus, and the rate of increase was about 1,000,000 acres a year. After other methods of control had failed the plan of importing insect enemies was adopted, and it is proving successful, according to recent reports.

Farmers Safeguard 1931 Crops by Testing Seed

To protect themselves from unscrupulous distribution of farm seeds, farmers in many sections of Wisconsin may call into action a state law which prohibits the sale of such stocks without purity and germination tests.

While it is expected that much of the Wisconsin grown alfalfa seed will meet all legal requirements, frugal growers will not run any chances next spring by planting seed which has failed to meet these standards.

A. L. Stone, Wisconsin state seed inspector, is preparing to meet a lively call for the services of the state seed laboratory in testing this, and other, seed sold under the state law.

ON BEING A KING

By THOMAS ARKLE CLARK
Dean of Men, University of Illinois.

"I often wish that I were king, And then I could do anything."

It is A. A. Milne's little Christopher Robin who makes the statement and who believes as do many little boys, and big ones, too, no doubt, that positions of distinction bring one freedom from responsibility and the conventions which ordinary people must expect. If little Christopher Robin were king, as he so much desires, he would most likely find that instead of not being required to brush his hair, he would have to keep it in the most perfect order so as to set a good example to his subjects. Being king in whatever kingdom one finds himself does not often give one much more liberty than does being a slave. It is not an easy job, and it is not one which allows one a great deal of freedom, this being a king.

I have seen the king of England a few times, and once in Europe I ran onto another king, hedged in, surrounded by soldiery, doing the most conventional things in a deadly conventional way. They had no freedom, no chance to do as they pleased.

Conway is the head and chief owner of a great industry which does annually a business worth a good many millions of dollars. In theory he can come and go as he pleases. He need hold himself to no regular office hours; if a man in his employ does not please him Conway can fire him and hire him over again if he wishes. He can go off on a vacation whenever he pleases and charge the cost of it to expenses. He is king. It looks to a cursory observer that if Conway wants to take his hat off in the rain or leave his hair unbrushed, there is no one to say him nay.

But these things are only seeming. Conway is really a greater slave than the man who works for him by the hour.

It is a mistake that too many inexperienced men make that the boss or the president, or the manager or the dean, or whoever in the domain in which you work is king, can do as he pleases. No one can do so less.

Little Christopher Robin was wrong. A king is very much restricted in his activities, no matter where his kingdom lies.

NOTHING approaching this lubrication study in size and scope had ever before been attempted. Months of preparation had worked up to this climax. Drivers waited at their wheels for the word to go. Excitement ran high.

The tests were conducted by the Contest Board of the American Automobile Association. The results when compiled will be certified by it.

Better Seeds for Better Gardens

LOOK for the FERRY SEED BOX

Look for the name "Ferry's" on the seeds you buy for your garden. This means that you are buying tested seeds. State News in Brief

Albion—Calhoun County's poor fund being exhausted until next March, a committee has been formed to take care of the poor in Albion. It is expected a fund will be raised by subscription.

Grand Rapids—John Snoeink, 27-year-old farmer, fell dead before his wife and young son, for whom he was flying a kite, when a copper kite "string" came in contact with a high tension line.

Ann Arbor—A faculty numbering 350 of the regular staff and 54 visiting professors will instruct in a total of more than 650 courses in the 1931 Summer session of the University of Michigan, according to a statement by Dean Edward H. Kraus.

Muskegon—George Snippe, mill owner at Reeman, Newaygo County, is walking on crutches as a result of his battle with a mouse. He made a lunge at the mouse and missed. The blade of a knife he had in his hand pierced his knee. The mouse escaped.

Muskegon—Jack, the 5-year-old son of Warren Mullen, an executive of the Consumer's Power Company, died in a hospital of injuries suffered when the boy was struck by an automobile driven by F. V. Nordstrum, of Muskegon Heights, while playing near his home.

Grand Rapids—Two pet dogs lit their own funeral pyre by knocking over an oil stove in the house in which they had been locked by the occupants, Mr. and Mrs. Edward L. Kessler, who returned to find their home destroyed. The loss was estimated at $5,000.

Owosso—Joseph Pomikal, Owosso Township farmer, was killed by a freight train as he stopped at the crossing to permit the train to pass, but stalled his motor. He got out to crank it, leaving the car in gear. When the motor started, the car pushed Pomikal under the wheels of the train.

Grand Rapids—Investigation has been started in an effort to determine if the recent death of Mrs. Henrietta Wickham was caused by psittacosis, or parrot disease. Mrs. Wickham obtained a parrot a week before her death. The parrot was ill and bit her on the finger. An infection developed and soon afterward Mrs. Wickham became ill.

Lansing—The State Board of Aeronautics has recently awarded three new temporary airport licenses. The three airports are under construction and are nearly completed. They are: Skyport at Mt. Morris, to be operated by the Northern Aircraft Corp. of Bay City; Genesee County Airport at Grand Blanc, operated by Edward S. Schmier, and the Gaylord Airport at Gaylord.

Detroit—Purchase of license plates for new cars has reached a new peak for the year at the main branch office of the Secretary of State. "It looks as though we'll go over the number of plates sold last spring," said Joseph J. Burman, manager of the Detroit Branch of the Secretary of State's office. He said that on the best day of this year, 302 sets of plates were sold and that this was a better record than any time since July 15, 1930.

Allegan—Four high school boys were injured and a score of persons were endangered when an automobile in which the boys were riding struck a pole and knocked a network of high tension wires into the highway. The collapse of the wires, carrying 40,000 volts, created a flash visible for miles. The injured are Ross Overton, and Kelly Goss, Ann Arbor high school students, and Edward Stone and Donald Mainz, of the Allegan high school, occupants of an automobile driven by Overton.

East Lansing—Experiments carried out at the Michigan State College experiment station last fall showed that the return from pigs fed on a wheat ration, supplemented by proper protein food, was just as satisfactory as from those fed on the usual corn-fattening ration. The return from the corn-fed pigs was only four cents per bushel of food higher than from those fed wheat. This would indicate that much of the surplus wheat crop could be converted into money by marketing it as pork.

Lapeer—Mourners filled the Methodist Episcopal church at Otter Lake, near here, while Rev. Frank S. Hemingway was conducting services at the funeral of his cousin, Mrs. W. C. Larkin. Suddenly the frame walls of the building swayed and with a crash the floor collapsed, precipitating 250 persons into the basement. The pulpit and that part of the church containing the casket were not damaged. The casket was taken through the rear entrance to the cemetery, where the funeral services were concluded.

Owosso—Taxpayers of the Durand School District, who have been congratulating themselves on a reduction of nearly 50 per cent in their school taxes, because of aid received from the State under the Turner Act, have received notice that the district was paid $18,561 more than it was entitled to, because of a $1,000,000 mistake in the assessed valuation. A demand has been made for the return of the money, but the district has no funds with which to pay it. An opinion has been asked from the attorney general.

Detroit—Gunpowder from a cap pistol which fell into a slight scratch on his leg, caused the death of nine-year-old Neal Grady. He was taken to a hospital after home treatment failed to prevent lockjaw.

Grand Rapids—Mrs. Lovina Dent Bryant, 85 years old, who died here recently, leaves 86 descendants including seven sons, four daughters, 29 grandchildren, 41 great-grandchildren, and Ave great-great-grandchildren.

Farmington—Work has been resumed on the widening of Grand River avenue into Farmington. The road will be paved to a width of 50 feet to the business section, under State supervision. Completion is expected by June 1.

Semper idem

"ALWAYS THE SAME" . . . a good slogan for any one of a thousand advertised articles whose superior qualities are maintained year in and year out.

Have you ever stopped to consider the time, patience, skill, money and experience invested in every one of the articles you see advertised in this paper? No matter what it may be—a lead pencil or an expensive automobile—the problems of maintaining and improving quality are constantly in the minds of those responsible for their manufacture. Quality must be maintained at all hazards. Quality must be bettered wherever and whenever possible. Price must be kept at a level that will insure the utmost in value.

Advertised goods must, and do, live up to their advertising. "Semper idem"—always the same. They cannot afford to vary in the least.

Trust advertised goods. Buy them Regularly. Read the advertising columns every day to learn what is new. Read them to know what others are buying. Read them to ascertain how you can save money and yet get better merchandise.

Read the Advertisements . . . they stand for quality merchandise . . . semper idem.

If You Were Managing a Bank

You would wish to do these things.

First and foremost you would wish to so lend the funds entrusted to your care that there could be no possible loss to any of your depositors.

Secondly you would wish to lend those funds in a way to best serve the interests of the territory you serve.

Lastly you would desire the service offered by your bank to be at all times both friendly and helpful.

These are the things you would wish to do. They are the things which we in this bank have in mind in its management.

"SONG O' MY HEART" COMING TO TEMPLE THEATRE

John McCormack, whose concerts prove a Mecca to which sentimentalists and music lovers alike throng here and abroad, comes through in a picture that rates the road show prices to be asked for it.

The Irish tenor's beautiful voice is heard eleven times. If the picture had nothing else to it, wise it would be over with miles to spare. But it has. The charm of Ireland is there. Also the delicate, appreciative and showmanship direction of Frank Borzage, who handled McCormack with uncanny cleverness. Then there is the story, unimportant but delightful, and the rich Gaelic comedy supplied by Kerrigan, aided by MacDonald.

Important in the cast are Maureen O'Sullivan, the young daughter, and Tommy Clifford, the eleven-year-old brother, who contribute much to the vast appeal which "Song O' My Heart" holds. At Temple Theatre, East Jordan, Sunday and Monday, April 26-27.

THE BAD EFFECTS OF ALCOHOL

Alcohol is one of the worst things there is and can't possibly bring anything but misery to those who drink it. This has been proved many different times and ways by expert physicians who are interested in that kind of work.

Most men who are drunkards did not intend to be that when they started drinking alcoholic drinks. One day the man would take one glassful of some kind of alcoholic drinks, the second day he would want more, the third day he would want two glassfuls. Every day he would want more until he drank all of the time.

Alcohol has cost more than $610,000,000.00 in money yearly which if saved would have fed many poor families as well as saved good health.

Many lives have been lost in accidents with machinery because of alcohol. In railroad companies the employers make the employees put their hands on the Bible and swear an oath that he does not drink alcohol. In factories with machinery that may cause death, if not handled correctly, the employers make the employees do that.

Many families starve to death because the father spends all of his money for alcoholic drinks. Alcohol has caused men to beat their wives and children to death.

Alcohol hurts the nerves and the brain so badly that he goes insane or else the county has to support him and his family too. Men or women can not be efficient if he or she drinks alcohol.

It was once thought that alcohol made you work faster and harder. It has been proved many times that this is not true. When you first drink it, it makes you work swifter but in about an hour you work very slowly. If you drink it every day it might make you do your work swifter but you will do it careless. After you have drank it right along you can't work at all.

"Traded a pack of cigarettes for mine," was the common answer gained from the inmates.

Ann Arbor—Why Paw Paw children don't go to school worried Mrs. John A. Brennan, the Paw Paw school nurse. She looked into the matter. So Mrs. Brennan talked to the county officials, hired a bus, and collected a load of children. And as a result 52 tonsils were removed at the University of Michigan hospital, with the expense charged to Van Buren county. Another bus load is to be brought to Ann Arbor soon.

The proposal to permit refinancing of state road bonds was turned down by a heavier majority than the capital punishment issue, and that permitting the state to issue airport bonds rejected decisively.

The minister was talking to the smallest daughter of the house: "You say your sister Rose is the eldest. And who comes after her?"

"How long had you known your husband before you were married?"
 "I didn't know him at all. I only thought I did."

"Mrs. Jones Had On a Wonderful New Dress"

THE Mrs. Jones we're talking about is the sort of woman who, in spite of only moderate means, is always well dressed . . . whose home is furnished with exquisite, though not extravagant, taste . . . whose table is frequently graced with some appetizing new food product . . . whose housekeeping equipment, kitchen requisites, all seem to have been chosen with rare good judgment.

Mrs. Jones is an observant woman. A well-informed woman. A keen judge of values. A careful buyer. She reads the advertisements in her favorite newspaper.

Whatever is new or improved is the realm of merchandise, Mrs. Jones most likely knows all about it. She reads the advertisements.

Whatever store is putting on an unusual sale, Mrs. Jones has probably heard about it. She reads the advertisements.

Are you Mrs. Jones? Or a woman like her?

To get the newest, the best and the most for your money . . . read the advertisements.
