WARTIME MICHIGAN APPLE JAM

If you're worried about sugar rationing, here's a delicious apple jam that has been specially designed for wartime cooking. Uses a remarkably small amount of sugar, is easy to make and tastes wonderful!

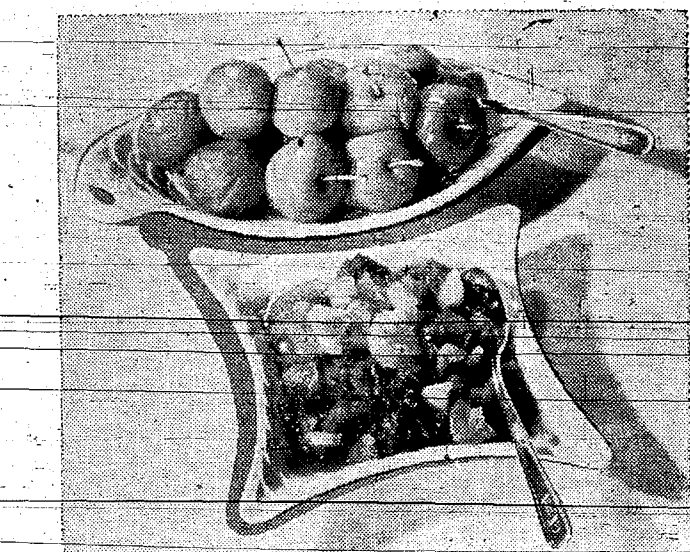

APPLE JAM

4 pounds Michigan apples
Rind and juice of two lemons
2 pounds of white corn syrup
2 pounds of sugar 10 cloves
1 teaspoon ground ginger

Wash, peel, core and cut Michigan apples into slices. Place in a preserving kettle with syrup, rind and juice of the lemons, ginger, and cloves. Boil from 1 1/2 to 2 hours. Put in sterilized glasses and seal.

Variation: Use same recipe, using two pounds of red cherries and two pounds of Michigan apples. This is an equally delightful combination.

Recipe tested by Dorothy W. Lewis, home economist, Michigan State Apple Commission.

MICHIGAN APPLE RELISH AND SWEET CRAB APPLE PICKLE

Pack away some sweetness for the winter with these two grand recipes! They require a comparatively small amount of sugar and will provide you with tasty appetizers you'll enjoy throughout the year. The Michigan apple relish is excellent with cold meats, especially good with cold sliced ham.

MICHIGAN APPLE RELISH
7 pounds of Michigan apples
2 pounds of seeded raisins
2 oranges 1 1/4 lb. of sugar
3/4 lbs. honey 1 pint vinegar
1 teaspoon of powdered cloves
2 teaspoon of powdered cinnamon
Chop the raisins and put in a porcelain kettle. Add the Michigan apples (chopped but not pared,) the juice, chopped peel of the oranges, vinegar, and spices. Boil for one half hour. Pour in hot jars and seal.

Recipe tested by Dorothy W. Lewis, home economist, Michigan State Apple Commission.

SWEET CRAB APPLE PICKLE
3lbs Michigan crab apples
2 cups cider vinegar 1lb of sugar
1/2 lb. of corn syrup
1 1/2 teaspoons whole cloves
1 1/2 teaspoons allspice
1 1/2 teaspoons ginger
1 1/2 teaspoons stick cinnamon
Select crab apples, with stems, if possible. Wash carefully and steam until nearly done. Tie spices in muslin bag, put in preserving kettle with sugar and vinegar, and boil hard for five (5) minutes. Then drop apples in and simmer for twenty (20) minutes. Pack in sterilized jars and fill jars with syrup. If syrup seems thin, boil for a few minutes after apples have been removed and then fill jars.

Recipe tested by Dorothy W. Lewis, home economist, Michigan State Apple Commission.

The Girl He Left Behind
A tale with a moral for advertisers
The boy was very much in love with the girl, and she with him. But she was a beautiful girl who had many admirers. And our young friend was too wise to believe in the old proverb: "Absence makes the heart grow fonder." He resolved that after all the time and the effort he had spent winning the No. 1 place in his sweetheart's affections, he would not let his rivals win by default through his absence. No, indeed, he would see to it that she was reminded of him often and of the good times they had had together and of the better times they could have after the war was over. So he inaugurated and carried out a campaign to keep from becoming the forgotten man. He wrote her regularly about his life in the army, always ending with how much he missed her, how much he loved her, and how much he wanted to be with her again. Those letters she got from him every week or two kept her thinking about him, and kept her from thinking too much about the temporary beaux with the advantage of proximity. The moral for advertisers? Your biggest promotion job under present day conditions when your production is diverted into war channels, is to make people keep on wanting your peace time products, whether or not they can get them. And to keep them wanting them until you again can supply the demand. It's hard to forget someone that you're made to remember. The Charlevoix County Herald East Jordan, Mich

What You Buy With WAR BONDS

It's not a pleasant picture to contemplate, but War calls for "blood and sweat and tears." And the Army Medical Corps, with its efficient nurses and its volunteer Red Cross "Angels of Mercy," needs thousands of surgical beds for field and base hospitals on every front.

These beds cost approximately $22 each. They are the latest thing in modern hospital beds, with elevating springs. In some instances surgical cots are used in temporary field hospitals and there is a folding bed which may be used in ambulances. Your purchase of War Bonds and Stamps can buy many of these beds for the Army. You'll sleep better if you know our boys have every hospital comfort. Buy War Bonds every pay day.
