LOOKING BACKWARD

From the Herald Files of Forty, Thirty and Twenty Years Ago
Compiled by Mrs. Mabel Secord

The recent passing of Mrs. Samuel George Rogers breaks one of the last remaining links between the first settlement of this region and the present time.

The close of the Civil War and the opening of homestead land brought a number of men here, among the first being Solomon G. Isaman who came in 1866 and took up a homestead on Section 22 in South Arm township; David C. Nettleton and Eugene A. H. Cole who came in 1867 and Benjamin Rogers of Grey County, Ontario, who came in either 1866 or 1867 and also homesteaded on Section 22. Mr. Rogers was this region's first postmaster, the postoffice being in his home on the place now owned by Fred Moore.

Those first postoffices were apparently sort of "volunteer" affairs as the government did not appoint a postmaster there until April 26, 1869 when David C. Nettleton was appointed postmaster of Nelsonville postoffice. Over west, Daniel Isaman had the postoffice of Intermediate in his home on the northwest corner of Section 35 in South Arm township. He was another who came here in 1866, at the same time his brother Solomon came. Both men established stores in their homes.

However, the government did not appoint a postmaster until March 2, 1874 when they named Eugene A. H. Cole as postmaster of Intermediate.

Samuel G. Rogers followed his father here in 1868 and took up a homestead on Section 26. The next year he went back to his old home and married Miss Eleanor Johnston. They came immediately to the farm which was to be their home for the remainder of their lives. I have never learned who the first mail carriers were but I do know that Mitchell LaCroix carried the mail on his back between Traverse City and Petoskey for four years, beginning in 1871, making two trips a week each way. Mr. LaCroix died in 1914.

The Harbor Springs and Petoskey baseball teams played two ball games this week, one at each place, for the benefit of Mrs. Lena Carson whose husband was drowned in the collision on Pine Lake Saturday night.

WHEN WILL THIS WAR BE OVER?

A FATTISH MAN we overheard in a Pullman diner said it would be over some time during the week of November 11.

He'd talked to "a man who knew a man who was high up in the army" who'd said the Allies were planning to terminate the war on the 25th Anniversary of the Armistice.

The fattish man doesn't know.

A woman, who is president of a literary club in a medium-sized town in Colorado, says the war will be over in April, 1944.

This is (we quote her) "just a year after the fall of Tunisia, which is about the time it ought to take us to beat Hitler and clean up the Japs."

The lady doesn't know.

The fact is that nobody can look into a crystal ball and tell when this war is going to end. Nobody, not even the General Staff, can look at the war maps, survey the disposition of troops, weigh our might against the enemy's might, and tell when this war will end.

There's only one thing we can be sure of—just this one thing:

This war will end sooner if everybody on our side—and that includes you—pitches in and does everything he can to help end it. "Everything" means, among other jobs, buying all the War Bonds you can afford. All.

Your government is asking every citizen to purchase—during September—$100 extra in War Bonds. At least $100 over and above what he has been buying.

Does this sound like a lot to you? Well, the only answer is our men need a lot. A General Sherman tank still costs $90,000; a Flying Fortress still costs $450,000.

You can buy your extra $100 worth, can't you? If you think you can't, read over every story in today's paper that tells about some soldiers, some sailors, some marines, some merchant seamen dying somewhere in this war-torn world.

And remember—they're dying for you.
