Crises in China and Indies Threaten Peace in Far East; Foresee Substantial Wage Gains

Released by Western Newspaper Union.
(EDITOR'S NOTE: When opinions are expressed in these columns, they are those of Western Newspaper Union's news analysts and not necessarily of this newspaper.)

Given noisy welcome by populace, marines arrive in Tientsin, China, to occupy port after Jap surrender. As crowds cheer, this leatherneck enjoys spin in bicycle rickshaw.

FOREIGN POLICY:

Regional Security

Though Japan has laid down her arms, peace has not yet come to the Pacific, what with Chinese nationalists and communists at swords points and Indonesians seeking their independence from Dutch rule.

U. S. troops stood in the middle as Chinese nationalists squared off against the communists, with marines guarding the vital coal mines and rail route around the shipping port of Chinwangtao in the troublesome northern zone.

Heretofore, the communists have considered this territory their special domain, and until Chiang Kai-shek's troops set foot upon it after disembarking from U. S. vessels, no nationalist forces had ever challenged Red control there. While the communists withdrew in the face of nationalist landings at Chinwangtao, they remained active to the west, cutting rail routes over which Chiang could deploy his armies.

With the U. S. supporting the nationalists and the Russians having recently promised to keep hands off of Chinese politics, Chiang has enjoyed every advantage in his effort to extend his domination over the country. While his representatives have haggled with the Reds over terms in Chungking, Chiang has cleverly pressed his edge in the north.

Meanwhile, natives of the East Indies, led by President Soekarno of their recently established republic, looked to conferences with Allied authorities to clear their claims for independence. Strongly organized early this year when the fortunes of their Jap conquerors began falling, the Indonesians presently represent a formidable trouble - making force hoping to browbeat the Dutch into terms.

The Mr. Big of the independence movement, Soekarno was kept busy trying to quell Indonesian hot-heads whose outbreaks threatened his control of the situation and promised to weaken his hands in dealing with the Dutch.

WAGE POLICY:

Labor Sees Gain

Though President Truman left the way for reconversion wage settlements up to the collective bargaining of employers and unions, labor looked to the administration program to pave the way for substantial pay increases within the stabilization structure.

By appealing for maintenance of high wartime "take-home" pay, and declaring business well able to absorb the added costs, or eligible for moderate price increases, Mr. Truman was seen to apply pressure on management at a time when attention is being focused on the all-important wage negotiations in the automobile, oil and steel industries.

In enunciating his reconversion wage policy to a radio audience estimated at 32,000,000, the President did so only after administration consultations with both big business and labor leaders. As a result of one of these conferences with Henry Ford II, government officials expressed confidence a satisfactory settlement could be arranged in the company's plants, setting an industry-wide pattern.

While the President said industry generally was capable of extending wage increases because of overtime elimination, greater productivity per worker, tax credits for lower earnings and abolition of the excess profits levy, he promised that price boosts would be granted after a trial period if the added costs resulted in operating losses.

Meantime, price rises would be considered in cases where industries raised wages to a full 25 per cent to cover added living costs since January, 1941; boosted pay to iron out differences in plants in the same industries or localities, or paid more to attract workers to essential enterprises to speed up reconversion.

With the government's wage policy established, representatives of management and labor met in Washington, D. C., to establish machinery for settling differences.

AGRICULTURE:

1946 Prospects

Though the government intends no leveling off of over-all production next year and demand for food should remain high, real farm income may drop as much as 15 per cent during 1946 in reflecting increases in some prices of what farmers buy, the department of agriculture predicted.

Despite a 15 per cent drop in real income—that is, what income will actually buy in goods, etc.—it will still remain double the prewar average, the department reported. However, any kind of a decrease would be the first since 1935.

Predictions of a drop in real income for 1946 followed reports that the government would soon outline production goals for next year, asking for maintenance of present livestock and hog marketings and wheat and corn acreage; increased plantings of cotton and sugar beets, and sharp cuts for eggs and chickens and oil bearing crops. Milk and potatoes would be scheduled for smaller reductions.

FUEHRER'S END:

Died With Eva

Answering repeated rumors of Hitler's escape from Berlin, British intelligence declared that an exhaustive investigation had indicated that the fuhrer had shot himself in the bunker of the reichchancellery on April 30 and his consort, Eva Braun, had followed him in death by taking poison.

Though broken in health, Hitler remained alert in mind to the end, the British found, and even held hopes for a successful defense of Berlin after his decision to remain in the capital on April 22 and abandon plans for a last-ditch stand in the Bavarian mountain redoubt. When the Russians continued to hammer forward, however, hope faded and Hitler and his mistress were married on April 29, climaxing a long, secret relationship.

Bidding his personal followers in the reichchancellery goodbye the next day, Hitler then shot himself through the mouth while his mate took poison, the British said. Per the fuhrer's last orders, Propaganda Minister Goebbels and Deputy Leader Bormann then saturated the bodies with gasoline and burned them beyond recognition. It is also believed that the remains may have been further broken up and then buried.

FARM PRICES:

Substantial gains in prices received by farmers for truck crops, grains and cotton were primarily responsible for a two-point upturn in the general level of prices received by farmers to 199 per cent of its August, 1939-July, 1914 average in mid-October, the department of agriculture reported. October parity prices reached another new 25-year high as prices paid by farmers for commodities, interest and taxes, advanced.

More Shoes on Way

With production for November and December expected to hit 30 million pair a month, shoes soon should become plentiful, with dealers able to replenish stocks curtailed by former wartime regulations and runs made upon stores following the removal of rationing. At 20,000,000 pairs per month in August, the output began to spurt after V-J day, reaching 28,000,000 for October.

Household Hints

When storing empty fruit jars, replace lids to keep tops of jars smooth and free from nicks.

Place a piece of gum camphor inside the piano case when going away from home. It will keep the moths from getting inside the felt.

To waterproof rope so it will last longer, treat it with a tar and talow mixture. Add 20 per cent talow to the tar and melt both materials so they will spread over the rope easily, using an old paintbrush. The rope will also be more pliable.

To make thickening for gravy, put the flour and water into a wide-mouthed jar, with a screw top, and shake well.

To mix cheese with other ingredients to be cooked, cut the cheese into small pieces or grate it. If the cheese is soft, press it through a coarse sieve.

Pour a little paraffin over the sliding groove in the drawer to make it slide easier.

Johnny Found Soda Pop To Be Highly Potent Stuff

A story is being told about a couple of moonshiners who came out of the mountains of Kentucky to ride on a train for the first time. To them it was a great experience.

Before they got on the train they saw some folks drinking soda pop. Being thirsty, they decided to buy a couple of bottles of the beverage. When the train started, one of them pried the cap off the bottle and started to drink the contents just as the train entered a tunnel.

"How is it, Johnny, how is it?" inquired the other.

To which Johnny replied: "Don't touch it! Don't touch it! It's made me blind already!"

SNAPPY FACTS about RUBBER

The 24 million American passenger automobiles that survived the war need 50 million new tires, according to Government estimates.

New passenger tires will continue to be all-synthetic for some time to come.

It takes 450 rubber trees and two men a year, working full time, to produce a ton of natural rubber.

The work of inscribing names on headstones has been made easier by development of a rubber sandblast stencil sheet.

The first commercial application of B. F. Goodrich Company's "Tonalite" rubber spring is in 1,000 twin-coach buses to be produced this year.

Yes Sir! Now its Seaman First Class, for WARD ROBINSON and HERSHELL YOUNG, who are stationed in the Philippines together.
 JACK LYONS, who is now visiting in East Jordan, tells us that he was quite fortunate in that he received the Herald within eight days by regular mail on his ship in the Pacific!
 W. A. Loveday brought in a portion of a letter written by his grandson, Pvt. Clark H. "Bud" Loveday, now in Yokahama, which we felt was worth printing, so here tis: "A while ago we were staying by a river which flowed between two rocky cliffs about 1500 feet high. The cliff across from us had a number of crevices on its face and about dusk the first night we noticed what appeared to be a spiral of smoke issuing from one crevice near the top. This seemed strange so we paid close attention. Soon it drew nearer and came lower until it was directly overhead about 50 feet above the ground. Then we discovered it was bats flying so close together in places that it was impossible to distinguish them or see the sky between. The column was about 20 feet wide and the leader flew on until they were out of sight and the column weaving from left to right continued on from the crevice for 15 or 20 minutes before the last passed over our heads. We never could decide how many millions of bats there may have been. It was one of the strangest spectacles I have ever seen and will remain among my pleasant memories when I return home."

From Cpl. BURL WALKER, still in the Philippines, comes the sad news that "I haven't had the Herald catch up with me in the last 6 mos. I thought I had better ask you to lift my name from the mailing list. By the time these back issues catch up to me I should be headed that way. I am getting your column mailed to me and that is what I get the most out of. I have 56 points (all time but 5) so I don't expect any action on the going home deal for some time. I'm still at San Jose, Mindoro, in the Philippines. It's as dead as a Tuesday night in Advance. The 96th Div. is here now and expects to leave for home in December. By the grace of God and a favorable wind I might get to go with them, but don't plan on it very strong. All the fellows that were here from home seemed to have left about the time I came. I haven't seen anyone I know here. I have certainly appreciated all your efforts on Reveille. Being unable to pour words into an exact description of my gratefulness, like some of our home town boys can do. I hope you will not take my briefness as a descriptive note on my idea of what Reveille meant to me. Thanks for many hours of the most enjoyable reading possible — news from home. Outside of this place's quietness there is nothing more that could possibly make news.

HOUSEHOLD MEMOS by Lynn Chambers

It's Roast Turkey Time Again! (See Recipe Below)

Time for Thanks

The first peacetime Thanksgiving in America for several years can really be a thankful one. It sees loved ones coming home to be with their families once more. The family cupboards, though bare in almost every other country, are full here. Yes, it can really be a thankful Thanksgiving.

Thanksgiving is a very "homey" sort of holiday. Families and neighbors gather and share their year's harvest. The food, too, is of the homey type: Mr. Turkey, proud, plump and bursting with good stuffing; crisp, crackly cranberries; hot, fluffy rolls; relishes fresh from the cupboard in the cellar; and, of course, the crowning touch, pumpkin pie, shiny and plain or topped with whipped cream, if you wish.

One of the nicest centerpieces for a Thanksgiving table is made of fruit. There are rosy-cheeked apples, golden-hued pears, flaming oranges, all woven with strings of cranberry and clusters of grapes. Yes, pretty, and good to eat, too!

An easy way to serve is to have cups of chilled cider in the living room before the serious business of dinner begins. Don't forget to pass crackers, salted nuts, and relishes with the first course. Or, if the weather is a mite chilly, try hot cups of tomato juice, spiced up with a bit of lemon juice. These will help break the ice and bring the folks to the table in a jovial mood.

How to Prepare Turkey.

Singe the bird by holding over a flame. Remove pin feathers with knife or tweezers. Remove oil bag from tail.

If internal organs have not been removed by the butcher, make an opening carefully under one of the legs, or at the vent, and remove them carefully, taking care that the gall bladder which lies near the liver is not broken. The intestines, gizzard and liver should all be removed together.

The lungs and kidneys which lie near the backbone must also be removed. Clean the gizzard by cutting through to the inner coat, half way around, take off the outer coat and remove the bag which is inside.

The giblets, which are the gizzard, liver and heart, should be washed carefully, placed in cold water, heated quickly and cooked until tender.

Wash the bird thoroughly inside and out, and rub the body cavity with salt before stuffing. Fill lightly with dressing.

To truss the fowl (this is done after stuffing) tie the end of skin of neck with string, leaving two long ends to pull it over the back. Turn wings

LYNN SAYS

Let's make good piecrust: Excellent pastry is the result achieved from careful measurements and little handling. A good, standard proportion is 1 cup flour, 1/2 cup fat, and 1/4 teaspoon salt. For double this recipe, not more than 1/2 cup of cold water should be used.

All ingredients should be well chilled before working. This is especially important when the fat is being worked into the flour. In this case the fat does not melt, but is rather coated with the flour, and the method makes for flakier pastry.

If too much water is added, the manipulation necessary to shape the dough and roll it out develops the gluten. This makes a sticky dough and tough crust. If too little water is added, the crust is crumbly rather than flaky because there is not enough moisture to bind the crust.

back and legs to front, close to body. Draw string up, on each side over legs, cross it and tie legs down under and around the tail.

Making the Dressing.

Dressings may be of any type to suit the individual taste, but they should be packed into the body cavity lightly. Allow one cup of stuffing for each pound of turkey or chicken.

Bread Stuffing (Makes 3 cups)

4 cups dry bread cubes
3 tablespoons chopped onion
1 teaspoon salt
1/4 teaspoon pepper
Sage or poultry dressing
1/2 cup melted fat
Hot water or stock to moisten

Combine bread, onion and seasonings. Add fat and sufficient liquid to moisten (about 1/2 cup).

Oyster Dressing: Add 1/2 to 1 pint drained, chopped oysters, uncooked or heated in the fat of the above recipe.

Raisin Stuffing: Add 1/2 cup seedless raisins.

Celery Stuffing: 1 1/2 cups celery, chopped, should be added.

Roasting Time.

For a turkey weighing eight to ten pounds, use a 325-degree oven and roast the bird, uncovered, for 3 to 3 1/2 hours. For a 10 to 14 pound bird, use a 325-degree oven and allow 3 1/2 to 4 hours. For a larger bird, 14 to 18 pounds, use a 300-degree oven and allow 4 to 4 1/2 hours.

Onions Au Gratin (Serves 6)

Peel 3 cups small white onions and boil until almost tender in boiling salted water. Prepare 1 1/2 cups medium white sauce. Place onions in greased baking dish, pour white sauce over them, and cover with 1/4 cup grated cheese and 3 tablespoons buttered bread crumbs. Bake in a moderate oven about 10 minutes, enough to heat through.

Brussels Sprouts.

Clean the sprouts and soak for 10 to 15 minutes in cold, salted water. Boil with a small amount of water until just barely tender and then add melted butter and salt and pepper. Cooked, chopped chestnuts may also be added before serving, if desired.

There's nothing quite like a good pumpkin pie to finish off this dinner of dinners. Now that whipped cream is back again, the pie can come to the table, topped with glorious swirls of that luscious delicacy. Or, if you prefer, make a meringue and flavor it with maple syrup and then spread on the pie and brown before serving.

Pumpkin Pie.

2 cups cooked or canned pumpkin
1 cup brown sugar
1 teaspoon cinnamon
1/2 cup cream
1/2 teaspoon ginger
1/2 teaspoon salt
3 eggs
2 cups milk

Mix all ingredients together in the order given. Bake in a deep dish pie plate which has been lined with pastry. When cool, top with sweetened, whipped cream and sprinkle with chopped pecans.

THE OUTREACH OF THE CHURCH

LESSON TEXT: Acts 11:21-30; 12:24, 25, 13:1-4.
GOLDEN TEXT: And He said unto them, Go ye into all the world, and preach the Gospel to every creature.—Mark 16:15.

A church that is spiritually alive will be missionary-minded. What seemed like unfortunate persecution of the early Church (Acts 8:4; 11:19) proved to be a blessing, for like flying embers from a beaten fire, these believers lighted many new fires as they were scattered abroad. The ministry by Philip in Samaria was paralleled by that of others in Phenice, Cyprus, and now in Antioch. That great city was not far from Jerusalem, but it was far from God. A mighty city, rich in trade, it was also deep in all kinds of sin. But there it pleased God to establish a great center of Christian testimony. God loves to do new things (see, for example, II Cor. 5:17; Isa. 43:19; Ps. 33:3; Rev. 21:5).

I. A New Fellowship (11:21-25).

The Antioch church was a living witness. "The hand of the Lord was with them"; little wonder that "a great number believed and were turned to the Lord." Your church and mine might learn much from the church at Antioch.

The genius of Christianity is fellowship. Those who have a religious belief which makes them exclusive—not willing to fellowship with other Christians—do not truly represent their Lord.

When the church at Jerusalem heard the good news, they sent Barnabas to help the new converts and to establish fellowship.

He was the ideal man to send, for "he was a good man." It is far more important that a man be good than that he be brilliant if he is to edify young converts. He was "full of the Holy Ghost." He was also "full of faith," and without that no man need undertake the work of instructing and developing young converts. He was free from the love of gold (4:36, 37).

"He was free from personal ambition and jealousy in his work (vv. 25, 28). He was very sharp-eyed to see the sincerity and promise of a young convert (9:27)."

Into this new fellowship of life and service the gracious and generous Barnabas brought a new evangelist—Saul, God's prepared man for this hour.

II. A New Name (11:26-30).

Christian, the beautiful name of those who follow Christ, was first used at Antioch. It may have held a measure of contempt (see Acts 26:28; I Pet. 4:16), but it was a remarkably suitable name for those who had come out of paganism now to live, amid their old surroundings, a new life, a separated life, the Christ life.

This name "combines Jewish thought with Greek and Latin language, and thus, like the inscription on the cross, bears witness to the universality of Christianity as a religion for the whole world. The idea of 'Christ' (Messiah) is Jewish; the substantive 'Christ' (Christos) is Greek, and the adjectival termination 'ian' (Janus) is Latin. . . This new name was intended to introduce and mark the difference between Jews and Gentiles on the one hand, and those who, whether Jews or Gentiles, were followers of Jesus Christ. . . The term 'Christian' evidently points to the person of Christ, and to those who are associated with Him as His followers. It implies and involves union and close association with Christ" (W. H. Griffith Thomas).

Those believers at Antioch not only bore the name, they practiced the life of Christ. They gave of their means, "every man according to his abilities," to meet the need of their new-found Jewish brethren in Judea.

III. A New Vision (12:24, 25; 13:1-4).

Little wonder that in such a church "the word of God grew and multiplied" (cf. 11:21). But the believers were not content to settle back at ease and enjoy that fellowship. Their precious church was simply the center from which they reached out to the heathen world around them.

Every army must have a home base. Just so, the army of the Lord looks to the home church, the local gathering of God's people. An army would fall if those at the base of its action were asleep, or so interested in the pleasures of this world, or so indifferent to their responsibility, that they would not work hard in support of the active army. So the cause of Christian missions cannot go ahead if it must depend on a home church which is spiritually asleep, indolent, indifferent, and worldly-minded.

The church at Antioch prayed and fasted. It ministered the Word of God. It was responsive to the guidance of the Holy Spirit and ready to sacrifice by giving its leaders to the missionary cause. Is your church that kind of church?

'End of Trail' Symbolizes Passing of the Red Man

The statue of an Indian with a spear under his arm, sitting on a horse, in an attitude of utter abandon, is intended to symbolize the passing of a great race—the Indian, once the unchallenged master of this continent, but who now, as the sculptor, James Earle Fraser, conceives it, stands hopeless and despairing at "the end of the trail."

The statue is very literally at the end of the trail, too, in Golden Gate park, San Francisco.
