Heavy Farm Debt Retirement Near End; Latin America Hikes Famine Aid; Russ Want Atom Veto

PERCENTAGE CHANGE IN AVERAGE VALUE PER ACRE OF FARM REAL ESTATE FROM 1935-39 AVERAGE TO MARCH 1946

FARM DEBT:

Decline Slows

Smaller declines in mortgage reduction within the last year and an increase in the number of states showing larger indebtedness suggest that the period of heavy retirement of farm debt since 1923 may be ended, the department of agriculture reported.

Despite signs of increasing indebtedness, however, the record for the war years shows an overall cut of $4 billion dollars in debt in sharp contrast to the 43 per cent rise during the 1915-19 period. As of the first of this year, total indebtedness stood at $5 billion dollars, half of the 1923 figure of $10 billion.

Slowing of debt reduction was reflected in the 100 per cent drop in repayments last year in comparison with 1944. At the same time, 20 states showed increases in indebtedness in contrast to 8 the preceding year. Higher acreage values as of March, 1946, over the 1935-39 period ranged from 115 per cent for Tennessee to 26 per cent for Massachusetts.

erations, the U. S. agreed to a 3½ cent pound boost in the price of the commodity in negotiations with the international rubber monopoly embracing Britain, the Netherlands and France.

With the U. S. able to produce synthetic rubber for most of its needs at approximately 16 cents a pound from its tremendous capacity of 1,000,000 tons annually, the agreement to pay the monopoly 23½ cents a pound represented a move to maintain foreign revenue for U. S. trade. Natural rubber from far eastern sources will provide the bulk of U. S. supplies, with this country continuing production of 250,000 tons of synthetic annually. Synthetic plants with a capacity of 350,000 tons will be kept in a stand-by condition.

Under the U. S. agreement with the British, Dutch and French, the monopoly will continue to make allocations of rubber to various users. Though this country will be able to buy rubber directly from Malaya, the British will peg prices there by paying 23½ cents per pound for the commodity.

ATOM CONTROL:

Russ Proposal

Hanging on to the veto prerogative of the major powers of the United Nations, Russia's counter-proposal to the U. S. plan for control of atomic energy hit the U. S. provision requiring the surrender of the privilege in atomic supervision.

In jealously guarding its veto power even in atomic affairs, Russia continued to insist upon the means of offsetting any voting combinations against it. Reflecting Moscow's concern over such a development, the London Daily Worker stated: "There is within U. N. and its security council an Anglo-American bloc against the Soviet union. . . . With the veto power removed, the U. S. and Britain, with their satellites, would be able . . . to carry the day against the USSR."

Soviet Delegate Andrei A. Gromyko skirted the real issues in insisting upon retention of the veto power in an atomic control commission plan. He repeated Russian press talk by declaring that removal of the veto prerogative constituted efforts to undermine the principle of unity of the big five on all international questions.

Aside from the thorny issue of the veto, the Russian counter-proposal resembled the U. S. control plan in major respects. The Reds suggested conclusion of an international agreement to prohibit use of atomic weapons, forbid production and maintenance of such armament, and force destruction of all stocks of A-bombs.

The Russ plan would also establish two committees, one for studying the control of atomic development for peaceful use, and the other for guarding against production of atomic weapons.

Early reaction to the U. S. plan found Britain pleading its co-operation for atomic control without flatly endorsing the American proposal and China, Brazil and Mexico supporting the U. S. proposition.

Prospects of poultry flock reduction in May and June to levels more nearly in keeping with available feed have been improved by culling approximately 23 million non-productive and low-producing birds in May alone, the department of agriculture said. Producers were urged early last month to cull at least 58 million non-productive and low-producing birds from their flocks in May and June in the famine program.

PALESTINE:

Hot Spot

Great Britain stood right in the middle of the fevered struggle in Palestine over large-scale Jewish immigration to the Holy Land so bitterly contested by the predominant Arab population.

Following the pacification of the Arabs by Foreign Minister Bevin's blunt rejection of the proposed immigration of 100,000 Jews to Palestine, the moderate Jewish resistance movement joined with extremist groups in a reign of terror, blowing up bridges and rail yards, firing at British troops and kidnapping officers.

The violent outbreaks of the Jewish elements were seen as pressure moves designed to bring about a modification of the British stand. Though the proposal to admit 100,000 Jews to Palestine did not meet with complete approval of Jewish leaders when first presented, they settled for it and may fight for acceptance of a similar compromise.

JEWEL THEFT:

In Indies

The theft of $3,000,000 of crown jewels and heirlooms of the royal Hesse family of Germany was topped by the stealing of $6,000,000 of gold, currency and gems by a British, Dutch and Japanese ring in the East Indies.

Special British police were called in to crack the case after a British captain and Dutchman learned of the whereabouts of the treasure from a Japanese official's Eurasian mistress and divided the loot between them.

Originally, the Jap had hauled 10 steel trunks and 5 crates of gold, currency and gems to his mistress dwelling after V-J Day and told her to take her pick of the loot. After she had chosen jewels valued at six million dollars the Jap then turned the remainder of the cache estimated at twenty two millions to his superior.

When the woman began bragging of her sudden wealth to friends—exclaiming "I am richer than a queen (and) I am going to sleep in a golden bed—a Dutch civilian gained her confidence and learned of the loot. He tipped off a British captain, who commandeered the treasure and split it with him. Made aware of the missing fortune, special British police entered the case and seized the pair.

Meanwhile, Allied officials redoubled efforts to nail the missing Japs with the remainder of the treasure, which had been confiscated from Dutch civilians during the Nipponese occupation of the East Indies.

RED ARMY:

Tighten Discipline

Completing the swing from a "democratic" to the traditional authoritarian type of army, Russia ordered the tightening up of discipline in military ranks and the cultivation of respect and pride in the profession of arms.

First steps in the Russian program to develop a more efficient and closer knit military machine were the re-establishment of rank, cultivation of old military traditions and the reward of merit. This signaled a radical departure from the old bolshevik principle of equality of men in the service, with its attendant lack of discipline.

The latest orders issued from the Kremlin serve to still further tighten up regulations to promote a smoother working military machine. Prompt and precise execution of orders are now required; soldiers must bear difficulties without protest and be ready to shed their blood; the men must knuckle down to serious consideration of military technique, and troops must respect their superiors and observe all the rules of military etiquette, such as saluting.

CONGRESS:

Report on Reds

Two Democratic congressmen joined two Republicans in hitting at Russian politics in eastern Europe and sharply criticizing U. S. diplomacy in a report filed with the house foreign affairs committee summarizing their findings of an overseas tour last fall.

Listing their observations, Representatives Ryder (Dem., Conn.), Gordon (Dem., Ill.), Bolton (Rep., Ohio) and Mundt (Rep., Minn.) declared:

- Soviet secret police and agents have conducted a reign of terror in Poland in support of the Russian-backed provisional government.
- U. S. concessions to Russia have weakened the hand of Communists friendly to the U. S. on the all-powerful politburo ruling the Soviet.
- U. S. inability to claim credit for vast lend-lease shipments have enabled Soviet officials to accredit the supplies to Russian production and strengthen their own political position.

SUGAR:

Output Drops

The world's sugar production for 1945-46 now being marketed is estimated at 27.2 million short tons (raw value), by the department of agriculture's office of foreign agricultural relations. This is three-quarters of a million tons less than the previous season, 3.5 million tons less than in 1943-44, and 7.3 million tons below the 1935-39 prewar average of the department indicated in its survey.

Newsmen Argue A-Bomb Results While They Wait

By WALTER A. SHEAD
 WNU Correspondent.

(EDITOR'S NOTE: This dispatch was filed from the atomic bomb testing area only shortly before the first test bomb was scheduled to be dropped.)

ABOARD USS APPALACHIAN—BIKINI ATOLL (Via Navy Radio)—This reporter does not intend to delve into the scientific aspects of this atomic bomb test, leaving that to the scientific writers and the scientists themselves. This test is primarily a military experiment to determine how the United States navy and other armed services can figuratively "keep its powder dry" in the face of any future atomic warfare.

The experiments however by their very nature and the various tests which are to be made of atomic energy will produce by-products of knowledge in the fields of biochemistry, biology and medicine.

Further knowledge will be gained also in the fields of radio, photography, geology, fish life and all the sciences which apply to ocean life.

Many Conjectures.

A tour of this ship and a visit to the staterooms where the newspaper men are housed conjectures on the outcome of this bomb test measured only by the number of newspaper men aboard. This is almost true of the scientific writers themselves, for most all have different viewpoints on the possible developments.

These conjectures run the gamut of total destruction by tidal wave or earthquake of the entire task force in the vicinity of the bomb down to the theory that the bomb might even prove a dud forecasts of the destruction of the atomic bombs dropped on Hiroshima and Nagasaki made by the scientists connected with Uncle Sam's military establishments were fairly accurate and this reporter is willing to discard the more fantastic conjectures and string along with some of these more conservative forecasts.

Earthquake or Tidal Wave?
 In the first place Bikini lagoon, where the bomb will be dropped, is roughly 25 miles long and 10 miles wide and the water averages 100 feet in depth and one scientist likened the dropping of the bomb into such an expanse of water and air to a spark from a welder's torch dropped into a 30-acre lake. Scientists admit that the bomb may cause a slight earthquake and tidal wave but that in comparison with nature's earthquakes it will have no destructive violence and will only be recorded upon seismographic in-

The front page carries an article, indicating East Jordan had a rhymer at that time. It is headed: "Maiden, Pine Knot," and reads as follows:

"The Literary Editor of the American Lumberman received the following touching lines, penned in a feminine hand and dated at East Jordan, America.

TELL ME NOT
Tell me not your love is wiled,
Tell me not you love me not;
Tell me not that I am jilted —
You're the last chance that I've got.

As the shepherd pipes his praises
Of the maiden that he knows,
So you sang to my fond gazes —
Tell me not the pipes are froze.

Tell me not you love another,
That a sweetheart new you've got —
That to me you'll be a brother —
Tell me not, oh tell me not.

The editor being a practical lumberman and inclined to require clear stock in his poetry as well as in his retail yards, returned the above effusion, saying that he could not use it on account of being too full of notes. We print it at advertising rates."

Fred Nelson was waylaid Saturday night and after being rendered unconscious by a blow on the head, robbed of his pocketbook. He lay in the snow and damp from about 11 p. m. until 5 a. m. when discovered. A warrant has been issued charging (name omitted) with the crime, but he has not yet been apprehended.

A distressing accident occurred at the Shingle Mill, Monday, when Harry Curkendall slipped and fell against a circular saw, cutting his right forearm near the elbow through the first bone into the second. He was wearing a new pair of shoes and in pushing a bunch of shingles his foot slipped throwing him onto the saw. Harry had his "nerve" with him and after the doctors had dressed the wound he declined to ride home, preferring to walk. The cut is healing nicely.

Some of our boys seem to have the gymnasium craze. That is right and proper, but after all the cheapest and best gymnasium in the world — one that will exercise every bone and muscle in the body — is a flat piece of steel, notched in one side, fitted tightly into a wooden frame and, after being greased on both sides with a bacon rind, rubbed into a stick of wood lengthwise on a saw-buck.

The Charlevoix Sentinel of last week contained a half column article relative to the "hard road" in which it states that the road will probably be sold to the M. C. people by the 15th of this month. We do not know who Bro. Smith's informant is, but as near as the Herald can find out the "deal" is practically where it was six months ago. The road may be sold today, tomorrow or six years from now — there is nothing definite. The Michigan Central wanted to buy; the Ward Estate made a proposition but, as yet, it has not been accepted. It will take several years yet to cut the pine off the Ward Estate and these people must have cheap transportation facilities — it was for this reason that the road was built — and they probably don't intend to let the M. C. get control without that feature being definitely understood.

The funeral of the late James Cornneil, was held at the Methodist church Sunday afternoon, May 6th, under auspices of the Foresters. The remains lay in state one hour at the church guarded by two officers of the lodge. Mr. Cornneil was an engineer on the E. J. & S. R. R. and the boys on the road showed their respect with a flower piece with the letters Engine No: 5 on it; the Foresters a tribute of a floral wreath; Mr. and Mrs. Kent of Hitchcock, a cross of arbutus; the Ladies' Aid of the M. E. church a spray of carnations; also loving tributes of the Beautiful from numerous friends. The church was prettily decorated with festoons and potted plants by Mrs. James Howard. Rev. George E. Allen preached from the text found in 1st Corinthians, 13 chapt. 11th and 12th verses. A choir of eight voices sang "Jesus Lover of My Soul," "A Million Voices," and "Go Bury Thy Sorrow." Miss Blanche Robertson was accompanist and played "Nearer My God to Thee" as the large audience moved out of the church to pay the last sad rites at the cemetery on the hill.
Ernest O. Coy this week sold his brick block to Mrs. John Monroe.

The Detroit and Charlevoix Railway recently paid back taxes amounting to $31,022.98. The road is being taxed for far more than the price they are willing to sell to the Michigan Central people.

Truant Officer Finn of Cheboygan brought Bryce Nuit before Judge Humphrey of that city, charged with smoking cigarettes on the public streets in violation of the state law which says: "thou shalt not, if you are under 18 years of age." Finn says he has the backing of the good people of the city and county in enforcing this law as they can see "no good of a boy sucking his life away on the vile pimp sticks."

about the second day in May by holding a Mother's Day. There was a good attendance, a fine program, a photographer, much delicious home-made candy and there were problems profitably discussed. You should have seen the "Winding of the Maypole."

to turn yours off, and prevent a fire. July 21 marks safety week—but you can make every week your safety week.

HERBS
Many of the secrets of European cooking—and some of our own—center around the use of herbs. They're the secret of those intriguing dishes that are based on a "dash of this and a dash of that."

If you're a cliff dweller in a city apartment and a patch of home-grown herbs isn't available for your gathering basket, home economics specialists at Michigan State college, suggest that you grow a small window box of spicy plants. Mint, cress and Marjoram, basil, chives and rose geranium will flourish on a sunny window sill—and they'll make appetizers, soups, eggs, fish, meat, poultry, vegetables, salads, beverages and sauces something to talk about.

BANG'S DISEASE
Following is a letter just received from Charles Figy, Director of the Michigan Department of Agriculture which I am sure will be of interest to everybody in Charlevoix county. The letter is as follows:

"In accordance with the regulations of the State of Michigan the work of eradicating Bang's disease is in progress in Charlevoix County. All the dairy and breeding cattle over six months of age in Charlevoix County have been officially tested for Bang's disease, and, as a result of said test, Bang's disease is known to exist among such cattle not to exceed one percent, and the herd infection does not exceed five percent."

"All herds of cattle in which Bang's disease was found were quarantined by the state and will be released as proper tests have been completed to show that such herds are definitely free of Bang's disease."

The Michigan Department of Agriculture through its Bureau of Animal Industry petitioned the Chief of the Bureau of Animal Industry, U. S. Department of Agriculture to officially declare Charlevoix County a modified accredited Bang's disease-free area for a period of three years."

It is hereby certified that Charlevoix County has been declared a modified accredited Bang's disease-free area approved by the U. S. Department of Agriculture, Bureau of Animal Industry and the Michigan Department of Agriculture, Bureau of Animal Industry."

"The movement of cattle into Charlevoix County and from herd to herd within said county shall be in conformity with regulations promulgated by the Michigan Department of Agriculture and legally posted. Retaests as are necessary to maintain said accreditation will be applied."

"This certification shall terminate June 1, 1949 unless sooner revoked. Signed, Charles Figy, Director of Michigan Department of Agriculture Ed. Rebmán Co. Agr'l Agent
