Fire Hazards Are Critical

LACK OF HUMIDITY UNMATCHED IN YEARS

Firefighters last Thursday brought under control a blaze in the Jordan River State Forest, near the Pinney bridge, which destroyed more than 200 acres.

Lansing, Oct. — Forest fire hazards continue critical throughout northern Michigan as rising winds and a lack of humidity unmatched in years make every stray spark a serious threat to timber, hunting grounds, cabins and small communities.

Fifty-five fires were reported by the conservation department Wednesday in the upper peninsula, the largest of 1,500 acres in Gogebic county, 1,200 acres in Keweenaw peninsula, and three ranging up to 900 acres in the Newberry district. In northern lower Michigan, 17 fires Tuesday burned 500 acres.

Wednesday Governor Kim Sigler's emergency proclamation prohibited tobacco smoking and open fires outside homes, cars and authorized campgrounds north of the north line of Ottawa, Kent, Montcalm, Gratiot and Saginaw counties. It was the first time in four years the state had needed such emergency measures to cope with a forest fire hazard.

Humidity reading of less than 10 have been recorded in western upper peninsula counties, far below the 25 reading that has been respected as the "dangerously dry" mark. Many woods areas in the peninsula have had no soaking rains since August, no rain at all since before bird season opened October 1. Fallen leaves and dead ground vegetation are tinder-dry, and slash from wartime lumbering operations is dangerously dry also.

Emergency measures are in effect in northern Wisconsin also. New England states, with similar conditions, report forest fires out of control.

The Herald To Publish Local Children's Pictures

The Charlevoix County Herald wants a photograph of every youngster in this trading area for publication in a forthcoming feature titled "Citizens of Tomorrow."

"It is a grand idea," seems to be the consensus of opinion voiced by parents of this community since our previous announcement as quoted above.

"I certainly 'clicks' with me," said one mother, who plans to bring her youngsters to the special children's photographer in the Odd Fellows Hall on Monday Nov. 10 from 1 p.m. to 8 p.m. She was not indulging in a pun, either.

Uniform size and good photographic reproduction quality is of a vital importance to a newspaper feature, so arrangements were made with specialists in this work. The Woltz Studios of Des Moines, Iowa, nationally known children's photographers, are going to take the pictures.

These are the facts and only requirements.

All children in this trading area are eligible. There will be no charge of any kind! There are no strings! Nothing need be subscribed for; you do not even have to be a reader or subscriber of this newspaper. If you wish to, you may purchase prints of your children by arrangement with the studio when you select the pose you want published. But even that is entirely up to you, for there are no obligations of any kind — now, then or thereafter. Appointment are not necessary. All children, however, must be accompanied by a parent or other adult.

South Arm Farm Bureau

The South Arm Farm Bureau group held their regular meeting, Tuesday evening, October 20 at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Klooster.

The first part of the evening was spent in group singing and games led by the recreation chairman, Mrs. Zimmerman. The meeting was called to order by the chairman, Harold Goebel.

A report on the New Hospital Project was given by Mrs. Nina Zimmerman. A collection for this project will be taken up at the next meeting. The following officers were elected: Chairman, George Klooster; Vice chairman, Mrs. Joseph Peras; Secretary-Treasurer, Reva Addis; Discussion Leader, Delbert Ingalls; Song and Recreation Leader, Mrs. George Klooster; Publicity Chairman, Reva Addis; Associated Women's Chairman, Mrs. Nina Zimmerman; Hospital Service, Mrs. George Klooster.

After the meeting pot luck lunch was served by the hostess. The next meeting will be held Tuesday evening, November 18, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Goebel.

Community Concert at Petoskey, Nov. 4

Zadel Skolovsky a new pianist of great promise, will be the soloist for the first concert in the Community Concert series at the Petoskey High school auditorium on Tuesday evening, Nov. 4th.

Mr. Skolovsky is a young artist with a very brighter future. He has played with the New York Philharmonic Orchestra as soloist two seasons, also with the N.B.C. and Philadelphia orchestras

Last season he toured the country, and the public as well as critics, were quick to recognize his sensational talent. East Jordan members have a treat in store for them next Tuesday evening.

Car Licenses To Be Changed

1948 ISSUE TO BE RADICALLY NEW

The Secretary of State's Office has installed new machinery, of the addressograph type, for printing car titles and applications for new licenses.

A name plate is being made for every car owner in the State. This plate will show name, address, make of car, style of body, weight, motor and title number, and cost of license.

You will receive one of these applications for your 1948 license version thru the mail. Save this application, take it to your local license office when you are ready to buy your new license, when it will require only the stamping of your new number thereon. This will save you and the local agent much time; and the state will have more legible records than in the past. When in full operation the system will save much time in Lansing, with the result that new titles can be processed in much less time than formerly.

If, when you get this application thru the mail, you find any error; as misspelled name, error in number of motor or title, (compare it with your present title); make the correction on the application blank, and mail to the Sec. of State office or leave it with your local license office, when you apply for new license. A new corrected title will be furnished free.

There are many errors in the records at Lansing, due to the illegibility of the hand written applications, and the State is very desirous to have these errors eliminated.

New licenses will be available some time between the 1st and the 15th of Dec. Plates are now being shipped, and sale will start as soon as all offices are supplied.

Local License Agent

Vance Dist. Farm Bureau

The regular meeting of the Vance Dist. Farm Bureau group met Oct. 21st at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Zoulek.

Meeting was called to order by Bryce Vance with 16 members and two visitors present. The following officers were elected for the coming year:

Wm. Henning, Chairman; Wm. Clapsaddle, Vice Chairman; Mrs. Walter Petrie, Secretary-Treasurer and publicity Chairman; Bryce Vance, Discussion Leader; Mrs. Vernon Vance, Co. Women's Committee; Vernon Vance, Co. Director; Mrs. Wm. Clapsaddle, Recreation and song leader; Bryce Vance, Hospital Chairman.

Wm. Henning was appointed captain of the membership campaign for the coming year.

This group goes on record as being opposed to any further property tax also in favor of more stringent laws against the dumping of rubbish along the highways. At the close of the meeting a delicious Pot Luck lunch was served by the hostess. November meeting will be held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Russell.

MARRIAGES

Skrocki — Nemecek

A very lovely wedding was solemnized Monday, Oct. 27, at St. Johns church where Sophie Skrocki and Archie Nemecek, both of East Jordan, were united in marriage by Rev. Jerome Szydowski.

The bride who was given in marriage by her step father, Emmanuel Krotchival. She chose for the wedding a taffeta gown with a sweetheart neckline, long tapering sleeves and a full skirt with a long train. Her long length veil was held in place by a headed crown trimmed with satin. She carried a bridal bouquet of white roses and mums. Clara Skrocki, sister of the bride, attended as maid of honor. She wore a pale blue gown of taffeta and was styled with a sweetheart neckline and full skirt. Her headress was a crown of blue flowers trimmed with a matching veil. She carried pink roses and mums.

First couple was Leo Nemecek, brother of the groom, Margie Skrocki, sister of the bride.

Second couple was Chester Skrocki, brother of the bride, and Margie Krall, cousin of the bride. The bride-maids wore identical styled gowns of taffeta with sweetheart necklines and a full skirt. One was peacock blue and the other a pale orchid. Their headress pieces were a crown of matching flowers trimmed with veiling. Each carried bouquets of pink roses and mums.

Ruth Ann Krotchival was flower girl. Her gown was yellow taffeta styled similar to the maid of honor. Her headress was a crown of yellow flowers and she carried a bouquet of red roses and mums.

Ring bearer was Jerry Nemecek, nephew of the groom.

Mrs. Nemecek selected for her son's wedding a black dress with matching accessories. Her corsage was red and white roses.

Following the wedding a reception was held at the Rainbow Gardens, Boyne Falls, for 350 guests. After a short wedding trip the newlyweds will make their home in East Jordan where both are employed.

Out of town guests who attended the wedding were — Mr. and Mrs. Frank Chromicz, Mr. and Mrs. N. Kup, John Skrocki, Mrs. Cecel Blair, Mr. and Mrs. Orlando Blair, Frank Bryzik, Felix Belzek, Bob Blair, Detroit; Mr. and Mrs. L. Krotchival, Chicago; Mr. and Mrs. F. Kiser Lowell; Mr. and Mrs. G. Nelson, Cadillac; Mr. and Mrs. S. Gaznilzak, Petoskey; Vera Skrocki, Bea Skrocki, Marge Skrocki, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Stanek, Lansing; Mr. and Mrs. E. Krotchival, Frederick.

Register Now For Blood Donor Clinic

Appealing to all Charlevoix County men and women between the ages of 18 and 50 years to register at once for the coming blood donor clinic in Boyne City, officers of the Charlevoix County Chapter of the American Red Cross are stressing that all blood given in Boyne City will be used by the local hospitals and physicians through the County to save lives and hasten the recoveries of local patients.

Because the need for blood plasma is great, everyone who has given blood in the past is being asked to give again and to bring a relative or friend with them to the clinic, to meet this need. A doctor and nurses from the State Department of Health will staff the mobile unit which will operate in Boyne City at the Hotel Dilworth Thursday 1 p. m. to 2:30 p. m. — 5 p. m. to 6:30 p. m. Friday 9 a. m. to 10:30 a. m. and 1 p. m. to 2:30 p. m. B. Gale Hetrick, Chairman of Red Cross clinic is in charge of procuring sufficient number of donors to keep the blood plasma supply at the necessary level to meet all needs. Since this is a permanent program of the American Red Cross and the Michigan State Department of Health, plans are being formulated for a county-wide committee and all agencies, organizations and church groups are being urged to participate.

Spokesman of the organization points out that "when you give a pint of blood to save the life of someone, perhaps a relative or friend, you give from the heart."

Air Guns Prohibited

Use of air rifles inside the City Limits is prohibited by ordinance. Parents are equally as responsible as the children. Its ok outside, but NOT inside the city.

Ruhling — Roberts

At a simple ceremony at the Methodist church Mrs. Leda Ruhling of Flint and East Jordan was united in marriage to Mr. Albert Roberts of Grayling Friday October 24th at eight o'clock by Rev. Howard G. Moore. Their attendants were, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Blossie. After October 27th they will make their home at 305 Maple St. Grayling.

Celebrated Their Golden Wedding Anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Shedina celebrated their 50th wedding anniversary Saturday Oct. 25, 1947, with an open house where they have lived the 50 years of their wedded life. Many of their friends and relatives called during the afternoon and evening. Their out of town guests were Mrs. Anna (Gurrad) Fisher, who was Mrs. Shedina's brides maid, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Jenner and Wilbur Klein all of Blue Island, Ill. Mrs. Roscoe Mackey, Mrs. Robt B. Mackey and daughter Sandra of Grand Rapids; Mrs. Cecil Blair of Detroit; Mr. and Mrs. Crozier, Mr. Reinhold Deitz and Sam Ernest, Boyne City; Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Korthase, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Korthase, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Korthase, Miss Caroline Korthase and Mrs. Henry Korthase Sr., sister of Mrs. Shedina who will be 87 years her next birthday, and spent the day and evening.

The house was decorated with beautiful flowers in the traditional colors of gold and white. The lace covered table was centered with a three tiered cake, decorated with white icing and yellow roses, and surrounded by tall gold tapers. Dainty sandwiches, cake and coffee were served. Mrs. Anna Fisher pouring.

Mrs. Shedina wore a print dress and corsage of yellow rose buds. Mrs. Fisher and Mrs. Henry Korthase Sr. wore a corsage of yellow baby mums. Mr. and Mrs. Shedina received many lovely gifts and congratulations.

HOME EXTENSION WORKSHOP TO BE HELD

The Christmas list for Home Extension groups of Antrim County will be presented at a leaders training meeting on Friday, November 7, 1947 at the Court House in Bellaire beginning at 10 a. m. The making of practical, attractive Christmas gifts and centerpiece will be discussed and demonstrated by Virginia Vance, Home Demonstration Agent. Each leader is asked to bring to the meeting one good suggestion for a Christmas gift or centerpiece. The article itself and the written instructions and pattern for making.

This lesson is being presented early in the season to enable local groups to hold their meetings in time to be of assistance to all members in making their plans for Christmas, so all leaders are urged to attend.

Michigan Mirror

Hundreds of state employees are quitting their jobs because of inadequate salaries, Governor Sigler was told by Thomas J. Wilson, state civil service director.

The governor promptly announced that the state legislature will be called back for the second special session of 1947. The session is scheduled for mid-November.

Here is the latest proof, if any were needed, that inflation works both ways. It not only booms sales tax revenue, currently forecast at $180,000,000 for the year ending next June 30, but it also increases operating costs. The new salary adjustment would amount to $8,500,000 to $8,000,000 a year, of which the federal government would furnish $2,500,000 through the Michigan unemployment compensation commission and veterans vocational funds.

The additional $6,500,000 appropriation, sought from the legislature, is the same as the tax sum involved in a suit filed by the Detroit Board of Education, Michigan Federation of Teachers and other school groups.

The suit contest validity of the state legislature's 1947 action creating a single school district for teachers pensions, vocational education and state school for handicapped children. The district was given a legislative appropriation of $6,838,260 from the sales tax diversion to schools.

School attorneys argued before the Michigan State Supreme court that the schools were entitled to the full tax diversion amount of $61,000,000. (Continued on last page)

BOYNE CITY ARTIFICIAL BREEDERS ASSOCIATION

A group of 38 interested farmers met last Thursday evening, at the Boyne City Library, and organized their own Breeders Association. The names chosen was, "Boyne City Artificial Breeders Association," with headquarters at Boyne City. The areas to be served by this association will be that north of Charlevoix and east of Ironton and East Jordan, complete to Chandler and Hudson township.

The meeting started off with a talk on Artificial Breeding by George Parsons, of the Dairy Department of Michigan State College. Mr. Parsons discussed inheritance in dairy cattle, and how artificial breeding increased milk production by the use of better bulls. Along with the advantages of artificial breeding, Mr. Parsons also listed two or three disadvantages, but the advantages seemed to more than offset the disadvantages.

After the discussion by Mr. Parsons, an election was held to elect a Board of Directors for the association. The Board that was elected are as follows: For a three year term, Harry Smith, RFD 3, Charlevoix; Cadet DeNise, Boyne Falls; Mr. Hurd, Boyne City; For a two year term, Clayton Healey, RFD 2, East Jordan; Carl Stevens, Walloon Lake. For a one year term, Pete Wennick, RFD 3, Charlevoix; and Robert Reidel, Boyne City. This Board will meet in the very near future and elect their own officers to carry on the business of this association.

42 farmers have joined this association. They pledge 226 Holsteins, and 124 Guerneys. The association needs 74 more Holsteins signed up before they can start their operations. Any farmer who is interested in joining their dairy herd should join this association, because he can buy inheritance at only $5.00 per cow. This inheritance will more than pay for its investment in the future.

SEPTIC TANKS

A new septic tank bulletin is off the press. One copy has been received by the County Extension Office and more are on their way. This new bulletin gives the answers to many questions asked about proper installation of a sewage disposal system.

The bulletin, "Septic Tanks"; Michigan State College Extension Bulletin 118, is a joint publication of the Michigan Department of Health and the Michigan State College Extension Service. Recommendations made in the bulletin were gained from many years of study, and observation of successful disposal systems for rural and suburban areas. Developments of rural electrification and the rapid increase in the installation of water pressure systems and toilet facilities emphasize the need for information.

Building concrete septic tanks, is described in this bulletin which is available without charge. Drop a line to the County Extension Office and ask for your copy.

APPLE PIE QUEEN TO BE CHOSEN FOR NORTHERN MICH.

The Queen of Northern Michigan Apple Pie Bakers will be chosen at the 12th Annual Northern Michigan Potato and Apple Show, to be held at Bellaire, November 10 and 11.

Apple pie has long been a favorite of Northern Michigan people because of the exceptional quality of the apples grown in that area of the State. To give proper recognition of the apple industry in that area and determine the best Pie Baker, the contest is a fitting addition to the Show. The Queen of the contest will be determined wholly upon the pie submitted. It will be scored on the basis of general appearance, texture of crust, texture of filling, and flavor.

There are two sections in the contest, one for girls under 21 years of age and the other for women 21 years and over. The Queen of the contest can be either a Junior or Senior lady as baker of the highest scoring pie, regardless of age of contestant.

Contestants are eligible to compete in the contest whether they live in town or the country. Just as long as they live in the Potato and Apple Show area embracing the northern 31 counties of the lower peninsula.

Some very useful prizes will be given for the seven high contestants, including an electric mixer for the Queen. The three high Juniors will be awarded a make-up case, vanity set, or a string of pearls and the three high Seniors ladies, a set of pastel dishes, electric toaster, or electric clock.

Complete rules of the contest can be secured from the County Agricultural Agent in the respective counties of the Show area.

P. T. A. Hold Harvest Supper

DISCUSS PROBLEMS. NEED FOR BLOOD BANK EXPLAINED

The annual Harvest Supper, which launches the year's activities for the Parent-Teachers Club, was held Oct. 23 in the high school gymnasium.

The new president, Helen Klooster, presided at the business meeting. Mr. Wade was given the floor and he first introduced Mrs. G. Boswell. Mrs. Boswell explained the need for the blood bank and invited people to visit the station in Boyne City to make donations.

Mr. Wade then introduced the new teachers with appropriate remarks. Each responded with a few words.

The organization again voted not to affiliate with the State and National Congress of Parents and Teachers. It was felt that, since that organization claims 80 per cent of the local dues, more could be done for our own school children if all our money was kept at home.

The problem of buying black shades for the gymnasium windows was again discussed. Mr. Smith explained the need for a room for showing educational film to the entire grade school, or high school at one time, rather than in six shifts as are now necessary.

A discussion on how best to conduct a membership drive resulted in planning to use the same method as was used last year. A letter will be sent home to all parents explaining the purpose of the Parent-Teachers Club and that the local dues be used in our own school. A few days later a small envelope will be sent out for the return of the dues if the parents care to join.

It was suggested that the president appoint ways and means committee. Mrs. Florence Stucker was appointed chairman, she to appoint her own committee members.

The meeting was then adjourned to give the parents an opportunity to meet their children's teachers and to visit their school rooms.

Sadie M. Liskum, Secy.

Open Letter to a Driver Who Speeds Through Our Streets

I saw you barely miss a little boy on a tricycle this afternoon and heard you yell, "Get the H— out of the way! Don't you know any better than to ride in the street?" He didn't answer because he hasn't learned to talk very well yet. So I'm going to answer for him.

No, the little boy doesn't know any better than to ride his tricycle in the street. He has been warned not to, but little boys don't always heed warnings. Some adults don't either, especially traffic warnings; for example, the one limiting speed of automobiles.

I'm going to tell you something about that little boy. He has a mother who endured considerable inconvenience anxiety and suffering to bring him into the world. He has a father who has worked hard and made many sacrifices to make him healthy and happy. The supreme purpose of their lives is to have their little boy grow up to be a useful man.

Now stop a minute and think. If you should kill a child, how would you feel facing its parents? What excuse could you give them for having robbed them of their dearest possession? More important: What excuse could you possibly offer Him whose Kingdom is made up of little children?

Children, my hasty friend, were here long before you or your automobile were thought of. All the automobiles on earth are not worth the life of one little boy. We don't know what that little boy may some day be. But we do know what you are, and it's unimportant. We could get along without you, but we can't spare a single little boy on this street.

PENINSULA...

(Edited by Mrs. E. Hayden)

A smart little shower Oct. 26, the first since Oct. 7.

The news is just catch as catch can for there is absolutely no telephone service.

Full work is well in hand, potato digging finished, and fruit nearly all gathered.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Evert and daughter Margaret of Boyne City spent Sunday afternoon with Mr. and Mrs. Lance Russ on Lake Shore Dr.

G. C. Ferris of Star Dist. left for Hillsdale, Sunday, where he will be delegate to the Pomona Grange. Mr. Ferris is an old resident of Hillsdale.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Leshner and children Frances, Ward and Linn of Petoskey spent a pleasant hour at Orchard Hill, Sunday.

Mr. B. R. Winborn of Birmingham has been at his farm, Holy Hill south side, for some time, making some improvements and enjoying our beautiful Indian summer.

William Isendrath of Chicago has been some time at his farm, Overlook farm, Holy Hill, north side, removing the old orchard and making other improvements, and soaking up some sunshine for winter.

The special election in Eveline Twp. Tuesday brought out the largest number of votes in years, 253. The question was should liquor and spirits be sold in Eveline Twp. The count was 71 yes, and the rest no, definitely an undisputed defeat.

Cash Hayden of Orchard Hill was very much surprised Thursday evening upon going out to finish the evening chores about 8:30 to hear a flock of wild geese going south. According to the Grand Rapids Herald, Wednesday was the hottest October 22 on record. Thursday a. m. was plenty cool. While there was no ice at Orchard Hill the mercury stood just above 32 degrees. Saturday was again plenty warm and Sunday a regular summer day with no rain, if I remember correctly, Oct. 7.

V. A. Poker

Tired of reading and the radio the two patients in a veterans' hospital called for a deck of playing cards. The nurse didn't have any. "What's in that little box?" asked one impatient patient. "Just filing cards," she replied. "Let's have 52 of them," said the patient. "We'll get by." Poker was played with fervor and a pot got hot. Real money was piled between the fistful of phony cards. The showdown patient No. 1 spread out a full house—3 appendectomies and 2 hernias—and reached for the currency. "Take your hand off the dough," said No. 2. "I've got 5 transfusions."

Just Hot Air

The disconsolate-looking farmer stood on the steps of a midwest town hall during the progress of a political meeting. "Do you know who is talking in there now?" asked a stranger, pausing for a moment, "or are you just going in?" "No sir, I've just come out," the farmer answered. "Congressman Tallow is talking in there." "What about?" "Well," continued the countryman, passing a knotted hand across his forehead, "he didn't say!"

MODERN CHILD

The chairman told about a little girl who went to the church for the first time. Afterward, the minister asked her how she liked the service. "Well," she said, "I thought the music was very nice, but your commercial was too long."

Very Specialized

Father was in his sober, lecturing mood. "George," he said, to his youngest, "This is the age of specialists. I hope you will be an expert at something, and know your specialty better than anyone else in the world. Is there anything, George, that you can do better than anyone else?" "Yes father, there is," replied the quick-witted youngster. "I can read my own handwriting."

Wide Awake

Fu Lung, who had just opened a laundry on one corner, gazed appreciatively at the signs on the business establishments on the other three corners. On the bakery was a sign, reading: "We never close." Over the garage, the sign read: "We stay open all night"; and over the restaurant: "We never sleep."

The following morning over Fu Lung's laundry appeared the neat handprinted sign: "Me Wake Too."

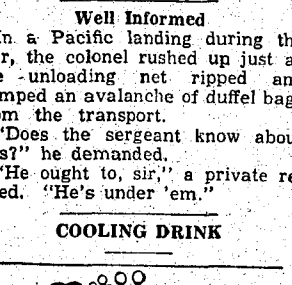

Give Them an Eyeful

"Does your wife go to church to see what other women wear?" asked snooty Mr. Harris. "Oh, no," rejoined the newly rich Mr. Updyke, "my wife has so much money to spend on clothes now that she goes to church to let the other women see what she wears!"

Well Informed

In a Pacific landing during the war, the colonel rushed up just as the unloading net ripped and dumped an avalanche of duffel bags from the transport. "Does the sergeant know about this?" he demanded. "He ought to, sir," a private replied. "He's under 'em."

LOOKING BACKWARD

From the Herald Files of Forty, Thirty and Twenty Years Ago
Compiled by Mrs. Mabel Soord

October 26, 1907
Eldred McKee shot and killed his divorced wife at Boyne City last Saturday evening, then killed himself.

Peter Ballhouse committed suicide by the rough-on-rats route last Monday. He died in great agony.

Gilbert & Gidley are now operating their roller skating rink every Tuesday, Friday and Saturday evening. Friday afternoons are devoted to the ladies and Saturday afternoons to the school children.

I found the answer to my query of last week in this issue: Friends of Mrs. John Shapton gave her a surprise farewell party at her home Wednesday evening and Rev. A. D. Grigsby, at their request, presented her with some beautiful silver gifts.

She leaves this week for her new home in Aberdeen, Wash. Her daughter, Hazel was given a party by her S.S. teacher, Mrs. W. A. Stone, and the class the same evening and she was presented with a gold bracelet. Her son, Clayton, who recently resigned as manager of the E.J. Lbr. Co., store at Hitchcock, was given a farewell supper at the hotel Ericks by his friends (also on Wednesday evening) and was presented with a gold watch.

G. C. Isaman has replaced Clayton Shapton as manager of the Co. store at Hitchcock.

Warren C. Hathaway and Miss Mary Tryon were married Wednesday evening at the Presbyterian parsonage.

J. A. Lancaster and wife of Detroit have rented the Dan Kale residence on Stone's addition and will live here. Mr. Lancaster is an expert horse-shoer by trade.

(From the Boyne Citizen): "Walter French came over from East Jordan last week with another man and a launch to get a load of tile from Lewis warehouse and loaded the same in their launch at the city dock. A little lurch caused the boat to fill with water and she sank at her moorings and went to the bottom. Both occupants of the boat saved themselves from a chilly bath by grabbing the side of the dock, from which they pulled themselves out. They fished out part of the tile next day and proceeded on their journey with a lesser load. Part of their load of tile still remains at the bottom of Pine Lake.

"Apropos of the recently-passed law, compelling the painting red of all cans used as containers for gasoline, benzine or naphtha, one East Jordan lady bought a ten cent can of red paint, applied it to her gasoline can, and because it improved the appearance of the can so much, she proceeded to give her kerosene can a similar coat."

October 26, 1917
From the school notes: The Junior class has elected Reo Bockes, President; Mary Severance, Secretary; Basil Cummins, treasurer; the Sophomores elected Conard Hughes, President; Will Donaldson, vice President; Gladys Murner, secretary; Eleanor McBride, treasurer. The school has bought a Studebaker bus to transport the students from Jordan River school, as well as picking up other students who live out that way. Mr. Tindale is the driver.

Commencing next Tuesday the admission rates at the Temple Theatre will be raised to 15c for adults and 10c for children. This is because of the new war tax on moving pictures which takes effect Nov. 1st.

Co. I, 33rd M.N.G., in the transfer to Camp McArthur at Waco, Texas, lost their identity as a Michigan unit and are now Headquarters Company of the 127th Infantry, U.S.N.G. with Henry L. Winters ranking as Senior Captain of the regiment.

One of our growing industries is Hite and Collins Potash Co. E. B. Hite and E. H. Collins bought the former Haight Cooperage site last summer and converted it into an ashery.

Mrs. Minnie C. Isaman, aged 66, died at her home on the West Side October 20th. She was born in Germany, Oct. 24, 1851, her parents being Martin and Wilhelmina Czinkus. When seven years old the family came to Sheboygan, Wisconsin. They came from there to this area in 1869, where she had since resided. She was married June 8, 1871 to Solomon G. Isaman who died January 28, 1889. She is survived by two daughters, Mrs. Lillian Brabant, East Jordan, and Mrs. Retta Fallis, Ontario, Calif., and a son G. Cleveland Isaman of East Jordan, and two grandchildren; her stepfather, Michael Kowalski; a brother, Adolf Cincush (Czinkus); two half brothers, Lewis and Rudolph Kowalski and a half sister, Mrs. Emma Bucher of Manistee.

October 28, 1927
E.J.H.S. defeated Grayling here 33 to 0.

Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Berg and daughter, Anna left Wednesday for Petoskey where they will make their future home.

November 2, 1907
The business men of East Jordan inaugurated a new plan — that a public auction and traders exchange to be held November 7th with T. E.

Niles as auctioneer. Carl Stroebel, W. A. Loveday and LeRoy Sherman were the committee on management and J. G. Holliday, G. A. Lisk and M. A. Lemieux had charge of advertising. Livestock, farm implements, household furniture, etc. were included and there was no charge for the service (Note: I just checked with Roy Sherman and he said they had several of them but they finally petered out. A look ahead in the file shows there was a second one Dec. 4th.)

Daniel S. Kitson and Mrs. Ida Cleland were married at Charlevoix this week.

November 2, 1917
Dr. Branch of Beaver Island has opened a physician's office in the rear of the Monroe building back of the East Jordan Drug Store.

Mrs. Rose Kake and Guy LaValley were married October 27th by Rev. Myron E. Hoyt.

A reception will be given at the Methodist church Wednesday evening, Nov. 7th for their newly appointed pastor and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Myron E. Hoyt.

Emma N., ten-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Torvald Pederson, died of diphtheria at her home Monday.

Glenn M. Smith and Lela Lehr were married October 26th at Charlevoix.

Edward Nachazel and Miss Jennie Josifek were married at St. John's church Monday morning, October 28th.

Totals of the 2nd Liberty Loan drive which closed last Saturday night were East Jordan, $107,900; Boyne City, $104,750; Charlevoix, $72,550; Boyne Falls, $5,650; total for the county, $290,850.

November 4, 1927
Miss Eileen Farmer and Bernard Brennan were married at St. Joseph's church Monday morning, Oct 31st.

Mr. and Mrs. Claude Shepard are getting their new home in the Chad-dock district ready for occupancy.

Eleven carloads of thoroughbred horses, hogs and Holstein cattle from Loeb Farm were shipped from Charlevoix last week to Grand Rapids where an auction was held Nov. 1 and 2. The stock was in charge of Dr. L. V. Simmons and a crew of Loeb Farm employes.

KNOW YOUR PANS TO HELP AVOID WASTED BAKING

If your cakes, biscuits or other baked goods don't turn out just right, perhaps it is your baking pans, not the recipes, that are at fault.

Recipes baked in the same oven for the same length of time and at the same temperature may brown quite differently in different pans. Roberta Hershey, foods specialist at Michigan State College, says that most test kitchens where recipes are developed use aluminum pans.

If you don't use aluminum pans you may need to change the baking time and the temperature accordingly. In general, enamelware baking pans give the deepest brown. Glass pans next in rapid browning, especially in an electric oven. Enamelware and glass both absorb that kind of heat well. In aluminum and tin the browning is less rapid and usually more even, unless the tin is very dark, or thin and warped so that the heat is uneven.

The shape of the pan also influences browning. Cake baked in a square pan, especially if it is enamelware, is likely to become too brown at the corners. Browning is more even in pans with rounded corners. In a deep high-sided pan biscuits and cookies often come out too pale because the high sides "shade" them from the heat. They brown better on a flat sheet or on the bottom of an inverted pan.

Pan size counts, too in browning. If the pan is too large for the recipe, a cake or bread mixture may be spread too thin and become too brown. In these days of grain saving, we can't afford to throw away baked goods that have become too brown or didn't get "done".

LOOK BEFORE YOU LEAP

Glib gallants who won fair maidens with false promises may be ancient but their blishments seem to work as well today as ever before. Read in The American Weekly magazine with this Sunday's (November 2) issue of The Detroit Sunday Times, how the domsels who succumb are frequently neither lonely nor neglected, but beautiful and presumably worldly-wise.

From where I sit... by Joe Marsh

Sam's a
Matrimony Expert

Sam Abernathy never intended to be a matrimony expert, but he hit the nail on the head the other day when he said:

"What marriage really needs is more open minds and a lot fewer open-mouths."

Sam may not think much of his missus' choice of hats or her habit of serving watercress and cream cheese salad. But he keeps his mouth shut (I mean, he just uses it to eat the salad). And the missus never criticizes Sam's affection for that worn-out chair before the fire, and his mellow glass of beer and pipe at the end of a long day.

From where I sit, that prescription would apply to most human relationships. Criticism rarely causes anything but resentment. But an open mind—whether it's applied to a woman's choice of hats, or a husband's preference for a pipe and a moderate glass of beer or two—leads to the conclusion that there's right on both sides.

(Delayed from last week)
Today's unchecked inflation, fed by a record full of employment in the United States and widespread shortages in Europe, is upsetting a lot of well-made plans.

For the 1946-47 fiscal year, the state treasury is called upon by the voters constitutional mandate of 1946 to divert 44.7 per cent of the sales tax proceeds of the preceding year (1945-46) to local governments including the public schools.

What did the state collect in this preceding year? Approximately $116,000,000. This was thought to be a bonanza at the time.

What did the state collect during the past fiscal year ending June 30, 1947? Approximately $156,000,000 just $40,000,000 more than the year before. And what is the prospect for the current 1947-48 year which will end next June 30, 1948? At the present rate of price inflation and prosperity spending, Budget Director John A. Perkins estimates the tax flood may reach the high peak of $180,000,000 another $40,000,000 more than the year before.

Here's where the catch comes into the picture. It has state officials puzzled.

When prices are continually climbing, the state will always be dollars ahead in the division of funds based upon the previous year's collection. But when the tax revenue starts to dip — and it is bound to do so eventually, probably with a bang — the state will have the responsibility of paying funds to local governments at a greater rate than current tax collections.

State Treasurer D. Hale thinks that the only prudent thing for the state of Michigan to do is earmark 44.7 per cent of each month's tax collection, as it is received by the state. This amount would be tagged monthly and held in reserve until ready for disbursement to local governments, as required by the constitutional amendment.

The current surplus in the treasury thus becomes a mere bookkeeping surplus and somewhat of an illusion, in view of the future disbursements to be made. But it already has prompted a headline, "Inflation turns deficit into surplus for state," that is quite in reverse of the state's true financial situation.

Whether new taxes are to be levied in 1948, they are likely to be required by 1949, according to most state officials at Lansing. There is some argument about whether it would be desirable, politically, to do so in 1948, which is a state and national election year. Legislators are loath to impose new taxes at the eve of their own elections. And it won't help Governor Sigler any, either, in the judgment of many legislators.

The possibility of new taxes in 1948 has caused a number of vulnerable industrial interests to prepare for a legislative showdown. If a way can be found to postpone the necessity of such levies, the legislature will probably jump at it.

Repeal of the constitutional tax diversion amendment is to come before Michigan voters at the November election, 1948. The Michigan Public Expenditure Survey recently made a sample poll of voters to find their thinking. The Survey reports that incomplete returns show 63 per cent — nearly two-thirds — favor such repeal.

There is one observation that could be made about the Survey poll, however. It is being taken at luncheon club luncheons which are attended by business men. We have a strong hunch that many voters — especially those who read only headlines and do not get into the details — will be reluctant to vote against Santa Claus. It is nice to get more money from

Christian Conduct

Lesson for November 2, 1947

CHRISTIAN standards of conduct must be understood as Christ's standards, not man's standards. Our lesson makes this quite clear when James declares,

"My brethren, be not many masters (judges), knowing that we shall receive the greater condemnation," James 3:1. James goes on in this third chapter to emphasize the truth that man is by nature inclined to "run away," even as the horse when he is not bridled, or the ship when it is not controlled.

Which brings the first practical lesson—that of the tongue. "The tongue is a little member," says James, "and boasteth great things. Behold, how great a matter a little fire kindleth!"

The Words I Say

IN PROVERBS 8:7, we read, "My mouth shall utter truth." And again in Proverbs 25:11, we read, "a word fitly spoken is like apples of gold in pictures of silver."

Which adds up to this: The words we say have much to do with what people think of our standard of conduct. If we speak words of truth and kindness, we need not be concerned what people will think of us.

Boys and girls who guard their tongues will have friends. Boys and girls who speak words of envy, prejudice and falsehood will be shunned.

The Right Words

WHAT is in our hearts determines what we say and do. Therefore, if we are to speak the right words, our hearts must be right—right with God.

I have just come from a playground where a group of junior boys and girls were having a picnic. I got there at the moment when a baseball game was in the decisive ninth inning. One of the junior boys was umpire. He called a pitched ball a strike, and the batter objected. Words followed—not altogether pleasing words. They saw me standing on the sidelines, and asked me to settle the matter. I had not seen the pitched ball closely enough to express an opinion.

The boy who had spoken most sharply went to the boy who was umpire, took his hand, and said, "It's okay with me. I am sorry I said what I did." That boy had the right attitude. He turned wrong words into right words, because his heart was right.

The Power of Words

"SPEAK not one against another," writes James, 4:11. Two teen-age girls were walking home from school. One spoke bitterly to the other of a third girl. They parted at the corner, and the girl who had spoken the bitter words of her neighbor slipped and fell as she passed the home of the girl about whom she had been speaking. The neighbor girl rushed to her side, helped her into the house where her mother dressed the ankle. Waiting for her father to come with the car, the girl who had spoken bitter words began to cry. Thinking that her neighbor was crying from the pain of the ankle, the girl who had been bitterly assailed spoke sympathetically to her neighbor.

"Will you forgive me?" cried out the distressed girl.

"Forgive you?"

"For the unkind words I spoke about you to Mary. O, I am sorry, sorry."

Forgiven, they became trusted friends.

Words Reflect Character

THIS lesson should summon every heart to utter the prayer of the Psalmist:

"Let the words of my mouth and the meditation of my heart be acceptable in thy sight, O Lord, my strength, and my Redeemer," Psalm 19:14.

Our words reflect our character. Christ's standard of conduct calls for words wisely chosen. Longfellow put it well when he wrote:

*I shot an arrow into the air,
It fell to earth, I knew not where;
For, so swiftly it flew, the sight
Could not follow it in its flight.*

*I breathed a song into the air,
It fell to earth, I knew not where;
For who has sight so keen and strong,
That it can follow the flight of song?*

*Long, long afterward, in an oak,
I found the arrow still unbroke;
And the song from beginning to end,
I found again in the heart of a friend*

Gee! A telephone!

Not so many years ago, a telephone was still a curiosity. Few people had them. There was only a limited number of other telephones you could call.

But through the years, as more and more telephones have been installed, you've been able to reach more and more people . . . your telephone has been able to run more and more errands for you. Now, with still greater numbers of telephones being added, to take care of people waiting for service, its value is growing every day.

WEEKLY NEWS ANALYSIS

De Gaulle Sets Back French Reds;
Jobs, Wages, Construction on Rise;
Open Probe on Film Communists

Released by WNU Features

EDITOR'S NOTE: When opinions are expressed in these columns, they are those of Western Newspaper Union's news analysts and not necessarily of this newspaper.

FRANCE VOTES:
Changes Seen

They were only municipal elections in France, but they were a portent of profound changes in the political trend of that nation.

Gen. Charles De Gaulle's young party, Rally of the French People (R. P. F.), had scored an amazing victory in the balloting to choose municipal councils. (No national assembly seats were at stake in the election.) The R. P. F., which is not formally a political party but undoubtedly acts like one, got about 40.5 per cent of the vote, largely at the expense of the Popular Republican party whose percentage dropped to 8.5.

De Gaulle

Communists managed to hold most of their strength with 30 per cent of the vote, but the victory of the Gaullists nevertheless was acclaimed as one of the greatest steps in breaking Communist domination of France since the liberation.

No one denies that Communism remains a powerful force to be reckoned with in France, but the R. P. F. election victory has led some observers to declare that Red influence is on the wane.

In the U. S. government officials refused to be optimistic about the results as presaging the defeat of Communism in France. The economic situation of the country remains too dangerously insecure to discount the possibility of the Reds taking over the nation.

Real test of the R. P. F. show of strength in the municipal balloting will come next June when the parliamentary elections are held.

BOOM TIME:
Never So Good

Industrial employment, home building and factory wages all hit record peaks in September, and the nation's economy is destined to expand still more between now and Christmas.

That was the domestic situation as outlined by Ewan Clague, economist and commissioner of the bureau of labor statistics. One word—expansion—"keynoted the economic situation in September," he said.

He cited the following developments as part and parcel of the nation's unprecedented period of prosperity:

1. Industrial employment reached a record of 43 million, and probably will increase through December, dropping off as usual just after the Christmas season.
2. The average factory worker made more money each week in September than during any other month in history. Average factory worker's weekly wage was $50.42.
3. About 88,000 new permanent homes were started in September—more than in any month during the past 20 years.
4. Fewer people drew unemployment compensation than during any month since V-J Day.

TECHNICOLOR:
Hollywood Reds

Has the great, glorious, glib theater-going American public been straining its eyes in movie houses to see pictures with Communist characteristics?

That was what the house committee on un-American activities wanted to find out when it called in a number of Hollywood notables to testify on possible Communist infiltration in the motion picture industry.

In the first day's proceedings, a total of 22 film writers and directors, were branded Communists. As a matter of fact, "95 per cent of the Communists in Hollywood are writers," said Sam Wood, the producer.

However, Wood, together with fellow-producers Jack L. Warner and Louis B. Mayer, agreed that Communists presented no immediate menace in Hollywood, since they exercised no final control over what went into the pictures.

Katharine Hepburn, she of the tip-toeing voice, was brought into the sordid proceedings when Wood testified that $87,000 raised at a recent

Taken at their best, the Hollywood-Communist hearings probably would turn out to be little more than another klieg-light exhibition of big names, resulting in little or no conclusive information.

So far, no one had even stopped to explain what a Communist film was, or how it could be recognized.

LITTLE ASSEMBLY:
Russia Revealed

When U. S. Secretary of State George Marshall proposed that the U. N. set up a "little assembly" as a one year experiment with the idea behind a full time interim assembly, he had in mind nothing more sinister than an aim to expedite and simplify work of the United Nations.

The little assembly, as Marshall outlined it, would screen problems not within the scope of the security council, thus increasing the efficiency of the now overburdened, irritable security council.

Russia's objection to the little assembly idea was taken as a matter of course—simply another stone in the uncompromising Soviet barrier to co-operation. The Soviets opposed it because they saw behind it a scheme to undermine the security council, and therefore a plot to break Russia's veto power. So they boycotted the little assembly. It was as simple as that.

Yet, this particular action, taken with other typical Russian didos, reveals the leaders in the Kremlin as insecure, fear-ridden, distrustful men. Fiercely nationalistic, they are unable to understand an international viewpoint in others. They constantly seek the plot, the hidden meaning behind every suggestion made by other nations in the U. N.

Fully aware of Russia's long history of bloody invasions by foreigners, they now wear suspicion like they wear their own skins. They are afraid to co-operate on an international basis; hence, their obstructionist tactics in the United Nations.

PENNIES:
But No Cars

One of the zanier American antics to develop lately is the widespread practice of sending 1943 copper pennies to the U. S. treasury in the expectation of getting a new Ford car in return.

There are, the treasury reports, two drawbacks to this optimistic game:

1. The treasury just isn't giving away any cars.
2. No copper pennies were minted in 1943.

Where and how the report got started remains a mystery, but it is a fact that thousands of credulous Americans are sending in their pennies accompanied by their fond hopes.

POULTRY:
Face Saving?

Charles Luckman, food conservation czar, besieged by poultry producers seeking to get poultryless Thursdays eliminated from the conservation program, was steadfastly maintaining that the one-day-a-week ban on fowl was a good way to save grain.

Whether Luckman refused to drop poultryless Thursdays because he sincerely believed in them, or simply because he didn't want to lose face by backing down on the original edict was an open question.

Poultrymen contended that they could not "reconcile themselves to believe that poultryless Thursdays have any value in conserving grain," and they pointed out that the chickens and turkeys which now are not being marketed are, instead, eating their heads off, gorging themselves on precious grain on the farms.

They marshalled an array of figures to bolster their claim that 4.25 million bushels of grain a week could be saved by abandoning poultryless Thursdays and urging the people to eat more fowl. Chickens and turkeys now on farms are consuming grain at the rate of 14 million bushels a week, they said.

It was a delicate situation, and the administration was afraid it might lose a few feathers from its prestige as a result of it. Luckman, however, was gracious: "The committee will entertain any specific program to conserve grain at the source."

PREOCCUPIED:
Army Stays

The U. S. state department has abandoned its tentative plans to take over administration of occupied areas from the army, but it wants it definitely understood that the decision was made because of "administrative considerations," not because of the present unsettled world situation.

Announcing the indefinite postponement of that shift of authority, the state department said lack of personnel was a primary reason for the state department's taking its new position. There is a shortage, it appears, of suitable administrators.

While he was still army chief of staff, Secretary of State Marshall had urged such a move, advocating transferring authority for all occupation areas, such as Germany, Korea, Austria and Japan, to the state department.

As a development, it was small and relatively unimportant, but there were some who thought it held a dark hint that the U. S. was not looking forward to an early settlement of peace treaties for those occupied nations.

FOOD DROP:
More Serious

Secretary of Agriculture Clinton Anderson had prophetic words implying more work in the future when he spoke before the annual convention of the Future Farmers of America in Kansas City, Mo.

The world food shortage, he said, is more serious today than it was a year ago. And the present broad gap between world needs and available supplies will continue to be serious, even if exporting countries increase shipments as much as now appears possible.

Anderson, who lately has come to be a harbinger of gloom, said that production of bread grains was down from a prewar total of 240 million tons in the 16 Marshall plan countries and to 200 million tons in Germany.

From the secretary's talk, his young listeners at least could conclude that there was a definite future for the American farmer in producing desperately-needed food.

Defeated Party

Palmiro Togliatti, leader of the Italian Communist party, casts his vote in the recent municipal elections in Rome. Togliatti's forces were defeated in an attempt to win control of the city's government from Premier de Gasperi's Christian Democratic organization.

New Homes Increasing

Construction of private homes is on the increase all over the nation. A labor department estimate shows that private builders started 88,000 permanent, new homes in September—highest monthly figure on record.

Those estimated 88,000 homes are 2,300 more than the 85,700 which were begun in August, and 30,400 above the number for September, 1946, the department reported.

000 under the constitutional amendment. Assistant Attorney General Elburn Parsons contended that the schools can get only what the legislature decides to appropriate.

The iron mining industry in the Upper Peninsula is a long way from being washed-up.

The Mather mine at Ishpeming-Negaunee is destined to be the world's greatest under ground iron ore mine. One shaft is already producing; another, 8,000 feet to the eastward, is now being put down. When both shafts are producing, an annual output of 3,000,000 tons is anticipated. One thousand men will be working in this one mine.

Calumet & Hecla company is reopening the old Ropes gold mine a few miles to the north of Ishpeming. The Jones & Laughlin Steel corporation has opened a new ore research laboratory in Negaunee, adjacent to large undeveloped J & L land holdings. A scientific search is being pressed to develop a practical way where by millions of tons of low-grade ore may be utilized.

An educational campaign to inform Michigan citizens of the need for food conservation will get under way soon, led by Prof. Herman J. Wyngarden, Michigan State college economist. Wyngarden was chosen by Governor Sigler to head a state committee for this purpose.

The drive will seek to enlist citizens in volunteer conservation of food as requested by President Truman's Citizens Food Committee under the chairmanship of Charles Luckman.

Facts: We Americans are eating more meat than we did in 1939. The 1946 record was 152.8 pounds per capita, compared with 132.8 pounds in 1939. Fresh and processed fruit were consumed in 1946 at a rate 36 per cent higher than 1939. The food consumption in 1947 is estimated at 17 per cent above pre-war.

The bell is tolling in Europe. Every country there is suffering from dietary deficiencies. Self-sacrifice here will be a small price to pay.

YOUR CHILD'S PICTURE IN THIS PAPER

The Charlevoix County Herald has generously consented to publish pictures of your children. You can have your loved one's picture taken by the Woltz Studios of Des Moines, Iowa, who will be in town Nov. 10, or you can make your appointment with your local photographer at once, or a time convenient to you, up to November 15.

Your home town photographer will take Personalized Portraits that take time and great care — portraits of your own choosing that you'll be proud to see in the paper... absolutely free, no obligation to order prints.

As usual, our Studio is open evenings by appointment.

How many of these need electricity?

You're right. All these—and many other good things of modern life. That's one reason why, in a recent Gallup poll, Americans named electricity as the most important invention of all time.

Another reason: good electric service is available to almost everybody, at low cost.

Listen to the Electric Hour — the HOUR OF CHARM. Sundays, 4:30 P. M., EST, CBS.

MOVIES? Electricity screens 'em, keeps 'em moving, makes 'em talk, and even keeps the customers cool

X-RAY? The X-ray itself is actually a special kind of electricity—and that's no rib!

TELEPHONE? Electricity carries your voice along the wires and rings the bell at the other end.

TROLLEY CARS? Horses pulled 'em once, but electric horsepower does a faster, better job.

HOME APPLIANCES? Electricity makes 'em work—heats, cools, freezes, lights, cleans, entertains—and then some!
