ber of Commerce are Thursday and see you try it." Then they sat back Friday, July 8 and 9.

Originated in 1926, the festival was an annual affair until interrupted by the war years and last year it was sidetracked because of the city's Centennial celebration.

Early in July, the exact date depending entirely on spring weather conditions, a red river of cherries starts flowing into the local packing and freezing plants, and in return a river of wealth flows back into the bank accounts of the orchard owners. The cherry harvest being one of the most important factors in the region's economy, it is greeted joyously by the entire cherry producing section.

The festival this year will be held under the reign of a cherry queen to clude the usual floral parade, child-ren's parade, water events, Mummers' Night, fireworks displays and pagean-try.

Harry E. Potter, 65, of Spring Lake died unexpectedly Tuesday, Feb. 23, in Hackley hospital, Muske-gon, after he had been stricken with eart diesase in the office of the Sealed Power Corporation, where he had been employed 18 years.

He was born in East Jordan July 15, 1882, and spent most of his early life in Duluth, where he graduated from high school and married. He later moved to East Jordan, where he was postmaster for two terms. He moved about 30 years ago to Spring Lake, where he established the first Sales and service garage in the community. He later established a similar business in Grand Haven but sold ed and used by the owners. out to join the Muskegon firm. Did You Know that Boston was the heart of early Masonic activity in this Country? Joseph Warren, Grand Master of Massachusetts James J. fied by friends the morning after the battle and hastily buried on the spot which was marked. After the British evacuation a year later, the body was exhurned and buried with Military and Masonic honors. The funeral oration delivered by brother Perez Morton has been compared to Anthony's oration over the body of Caesar.

"Our Grand Master fell by the hands of ruffians, but was after-wards raised in honor and authority. We searched on the field for the nurdered son of a widow, and found him by the turf and the twig buried on the brow of a hill.

Today a momment marks the scene of Warren's death. King Solomon's Lodge of Charleston purchased the plot of ground and erected a shaft but later donated the ground for the famous Bunker Hill Monument, which also contains a model of the original monument to Warren. A substantial fund was subscribed to and raised by the Masonic brothers for the relief of Warren's widow and children.

The foregoing events all took place at the very time young George Washington was assuming command of the Continental Army at Cambridge, June 1775.

There will be a special Communication of the Lodge next Tuesday, March 16th. Following the work march 16th. Following the work which will be in the Master Mason degree. An oyster supper is planned. We understand they are to be those Big Boys direct from Baltimore. Don't say we didn't tell you.

ANTRIM HOME EXTENSION LEA DERS SAVE TIME AND ENERGY

The leaders of the Antrim County Home Extension groups were given the lesson on "Saving time and En ergy on the Job," Tuesday Feb. 24, 1948 by Mrs. Love, Home Manage-ment Specialist from Michigan State College.

This lesson was especially interest ing to the homemakes as a number of ways to save time with less effort. for instance, making fewer and more effective motions with household tasks, arranging equipment to the best advantage so unnecessary steps will be eleminated, using both hands instead of one, in many tasks as dusting, washing windows, sorting clothes etc., and using correct tools are a few of the ideas discussed.

For practical demonstrations some ladies prepared vegetables, dusted and made coffee as they would ordinarily at home. The other ladies coun ted the motions and the various steps used in these tasks. These methods used were discussed and sug gestions made for improvement. This proved to be a very practical lesson and gave many ideas for ap plying these time saving methods in omes in these communities.

SAVE THOSE SPRING PIGS

Spring farrowing isn't far away says Walter G. Kirkpatrick Antrim County Agricultural Agent. In fact some sows have already farrowed a "winter" litter. Under Michigan con-ditions most farmers wait until the weather warms up to have the pigs come. . . due to such a high death oss of pigs during severe weather.

Every additional pig saved in a lit ter helps to cut the cost per pig at weaning time. The number of pigs to weaning time depends largely upon two broad factors. . . the care of the sow during pregnancy and the care of sow and lit ter after farrowing. Get an electric brooder ready now before the pigs come and be on the job the day or night they arrive. Dry off the new pig, clip the navel cord about a half it gets a hot lunch of mothers milk and place under the electric brooder in corner of pig pen with dry clear litter. If you will do this you will doubtlessly save pigs that are far rowed and increase your net hog returns immeasurably.

HOME EXTENSION GROUPS TO REPAIR CUSHIONS

Several workshop lessons on the Repair of Spring Unit Cushions' Agent.

This lesson consists of the actua renovation of spring cushions from davenports and chairs. The cushions are taken apart, the springs are inserted into the pocket and tied again forming the spring unit. The spring unit is replaced into the cover and completed. After undergoing this treatment, the cushions are minus ed on his parents, Mr. and Mrs. their bulges and sags and look and feel like new.

> GET BROODER HOUSE READY Be ready for the baby chicks, says Walter G. Kirkpatrick, Antrim Cointy Agricultural Agent.

He recommends that each 50 baby chicks have a two-quart water fount and that each chick has one inch of feeder space. Until they're ten days of age, provide three feeders three feet in length for each 100 chicks. A large three or five gallon water fount will be desirable after 10 days of age and more feeder space will be all

However, regardless of the thermometer reading, remember that the chicks' behavior is your best indication of the proper brooding temperature. An even distribution of chicks over the floor indicates proper temperature. It's a good idea to make sure the brooders are in good condition be-fore putting the chicks in the brooder house. A brooder house fire destroys both equipment and valuable chicks. Coal brooders should be checked for leaky connections and worn tubing. Electric equipment should be checked for flaws in wiring and insulation. The time spent in examining these points may save you from a brooder

FACTS to check Before you Insulate

1 — The best material you can use is one that actually reduces fire hazard.

Because B-H black Rockwool_ is fire-proof—it retards the spread of fire, eliminates the flue action of empty stud spaces.

2 - A good insulation does not pack down after it is installed.

Compressing a handful of B-H black Rockwool does not break down the fibers—its natural resilience is unaffected by temperature changes or time.

3 — A material that absorbs water loses its ability to insulate. B-H black Rockwool is water-repellent-will float even after being immersed.

4 — The ideal material is physically stable and chemically inert.

Because B-H black Rockwool is made from mineral rock—it is odorless, will not attract vermin, remains unchanged through the years.

- Insulation is no better than the men who install

When you buy B-H Home Insulation you get all the advantages of dealing with a thoroughly experienced local firm—backed by the facilities of a national manufacturer.

Curtain Time

There were six days of crisis in Czechoslovakia and then it was all over—the Communists were in complete control of that nation of 13 million population.

The iron curtain came down with a muffled clang as President Eduard Benes accepted the resignation of 14 of his cabinet ministers after he had refused for a week to do so.

Into power strode Communist Premier Klement Gottwald who had led his party upward from a minority status in Czechoslovakia until now its members dominated every phase of the nation's life and were prepared to swing it directly into the orbit of other Soviet satellites.

Wielding the club to keep the Czechs in line was Gottwald's good right hand, Vaclav Nosek, minister of the interior, who controls all Czechoslovakian police forces. In that powerful position in a Communist-dominated state Nosek was analogous to the mailed glove on the

For what it was worth-and that was very little-aging President Benes had managed to keep at least a superficial appearance of repre-sentative government by insisting that the government be composed of members of other parties of the national front which reinstated the Czechoslovak republic in 1945 when the Germans were being driven out. But it was a hollow, tasteless victory—meaningless in any practical

The new government consists of 12 Communists (there were seven before), four Social Democrats, two Czech National Socialists, two Catholic Peoples party members, one Slovak Democrat and two non-party men, Jan Masaryk as foreign minister and Gen. Ludwig Svoboda as minister of defense.

Bewildered Czechs finally knew their cherished republic had come to a grim end when loud speakers in Prague blared this announcement into the night:

"Reaction has been beaten. Go back to work and let us complete our tasks on the two year plan."

In Czechoslovakia's ironic chro-nology the surging wall of the Red tide engulfed their country just 10 years after the western Allies had sold the nation to Hitler at Munich in a tragically selfish and futile effort to avoid war and save their own skins at the price of just one small Central European state.

Reaction

-With the Balkans all tied up with a red ribbon the world began to wonder which small nation the Communist tide would engulf next. Some thought Finland might be the top name on the list, others wondered whether Austria, France and Italy might not be clamped soon in the Communist vise.

There was general agreement on munist coup in Czechoslovakia had forged perhaps the most vital link in the Russian chain intended to shackle the Marshall plan.

In Finland and Italy, as in Czech-oslovakia, elections were coming up soon and the Communists were out for victory. Finland, like Czech oslovakia, is ruled by a coalition government which has acknowledged that the country must remain friendly with Russia.

DOWNWARD: Factory Wages

Life, as it is reflected in the week-ly pay check, is no longer as lush it was last year. To be exact, it was 47 cents less in January than in December, according to the bu-reau of labor statistics.

The bureau disclosed that weekly earnings of factory workers declined in January to an average of $52.27 Average weekly hours of the 12.8 million production workers in manufacturing establishments fell from 41.2 to 40.6 between December and January, and weekly earnings fell from $52.74 to $52.27.

However, average hourly earnings increased from $1.279 in December to $1.28 in mid-January.

The average number of hours worked each week is exactly the same as in January, 1947, the bureau said, but gross hourly earnings were about 13 cents higher.

Peerless Pie

LYNCH BAN:

Pending Bill.

Apparently determined to go along at least part way with Presi-dent Truman's civil rights program, congress is preparing to consider a bill to make lynching a federal of-

Such a measure has been approved by a house sub-committee and congressional leaders generally feel it will pass the house with ease and possibly even clear the senate this year.

Action on the bill sponsored by Rep. Clifford Case (Rep., N J.) came just before the release of a list of 74 southern Democratic house members who had signed a resolu-tion bitterly assailing the Presi-dent's civil rights program and urging him to drop it.

The forthcoming argument - and it undoubtedly will be a fierce one-over the anti-lynching bill will not be the first of its kind in congress. The house in 1940 passed such a measure by a vote of 252 to 131 over the shouted protests of Dixie Demo-crats, but it died in the senate in the face of a dogged southern filibuster. Main features of the present bill include a maximum-penalty of 20 years' imprisonment and a $10,000 fine for persons inciting or taking part in a lynching, as well as a maximum penalty of five years and $5,000 fine for law officers who fail to "make all diligent efforts" to protect persons from lynch mobs.

LOUISIANA:

Long Trail

Northwest were suffering most from the situation, but it also was bad in Illinois and Indiana. The kerosene shortage has been severe enough to cause hardship in most of Louisiana was back on the Long-

Louisiana was back on the Long-Long political trail again. In a Democratic runoff primary, voters of the state called Earl Long, brother of the assassinated Huey, to be their governor once more. After he had remained in a state of political eclipse for eight years Long won a walloping victory over Sam Houston Jones, the man who beat him for office in 1940 and brought an end to the regime set up by Huey Long 12 years before.

In Louisiana, winning the Democratic runoff primary was the equivalent of being elected, since the Democratic party is in absolute power throughout the state.

It was a triumphant comeback for Earl Long personally and for the Long family in general after Earl's political fortunes had sunk to such a low ebb in 1944 that he couldn't even get himself on the head of a

This election, as a matter of fact was Long's only statewide victory except for 1936, when he was except for 1936, when he was elected lieutenant-governor. He became governor in 1939 when Richard W. Leche resigned the post in the midst of "Louisiana scandals."

Lacke and other political leaders of state funds and property.

COWBOY:

(Dem., Ida.)

It looked like political suicide when Sen. Glen H. Taylor (Dem.. mating livestock in Mexico for many months will spread across Ida.) came out formally as vice-presidential candidate on Henry Wallace's third party ticket, but the "crooning cowboy" from Idaho didn't see it that way.

He did it, he said, to support Wal-lace in his "gallant fight for peace" and because the Democratic party has surrendered to "Wall street and the military."

"I am not leaving the Democratic party; it left me," Taylor declared dramatically.

Taylor accused the Democrats of having "betrayed the principles in which I believe," and gloried verbally in the wonderful freedom that now would be his to campaign with Wallace against "this bi-partisan coalition and all its works; Taft-Hartley - universal military training - this drive toward war - high prices and racial discrimination and suppression of civil liberties."

Fashion Slump

Foreign fashion buyers have been giving the Paris "new look" a dirty look and the result has been a bad slump in the French fashion indus-

Most of the buyers who came to Paris to examine the 1948 models got an eyeful of the latest French styles and then apparently decided they could do just as well at home for less money. Not even French women wear the new fashions.

Foxes Chief Predator on Farm Poultry and Stock in 1947

The fox was still the chief predator on farm poultry and stock in 1947, according to damage complaints investigated by the conservation department's predatory animal control officers. But where damage complaints involving other predators remained fairly constant — 277 in '46 and 263 in '47 — complaints inolving foxes dropped from 401 in 46 to 285 last year.

Last year's farm stock and poultry lamage complaints were charged to oredators in these proportions: Fox, cent; mink 3.6 per cent; oppossum age complaint is investigated.

2.2 per cent; owls two per cent; bears and skunks 1.6 per cent each. The monetary loss from bear attacks was greater in '47 because of damage to cattle. Raccoons had the greatest increase as a complaint source, up from 11 per cent in 1946.

Chickens suffered most from pre dators, according to the complaint analysis, figuring in 60 per cent of the cases; others were turkeys, 10 per cent, ducks eight per cent, geese two per cent, other poultry three per cent, lambs 11 per cent and pigs two per cent.

Predatory animal control officers are steadily increasing the number of farmers skilled at trapping and other-wise protecting their farms from 52 per cent; raccoon, 20 per cent; pedators, by demonstration trapping dogs, seven per cent; coyotes six per and advice each time a farmer's dam-

Ben's Bride Gets Chickenhearted

Ben Ryder was mighty proud of his young bride when she offered to care for his new flock of baby chicks. "Just like a mother with her brood," he boasts.

Then came market time for fryers-and the crisis! Sue simply wouldn't let Ben near her chickens with an axe. She'd raised them as babes . . . she'd named them . . .

Ben poured himself a glass of beer, to think things over sensibly. He hated to lose the price on frvers ... but he figured Sue had put up

OLD Angus MacNab had been a hard, cruel man, and among his relatives the news of his suicide been received with more rehad joicing than sorrow. But his son, Sandy, in whose home the old man had met his quietus, persisted in moping over the affair. "Sandy," admonished a brutally frank acquaintance, "why do you carry on so? The old man was regular torment to everybody, and you know, down deep in your heart, you're glad he's gone."

"That I am," admitted Sandy.
"It's cruel to admit it, but it's true."

"You're not thinking he suffered, when he took off, are you? He just turned on the gas and went to sleep. what's eating on you?' So what's eating on you.
"Mon, oh, mon," groaned Sandy "just look at this terrible gas bill the old coot left me!"

Smallpox Vaccination

Smallpox can be virtually wiped

Smallpox can be virtually wiped out in this country if every child is successfully vaccinated against this disease before reaching his first birthday, revaccinated when he enters school and every three years thereafter, according to medical doctors in Michigan.

The most important fact for parents to remember, doctors point out, is that the smallpox vaccination should be given during infancy to insure the greatest protection. Postponing the vaccination until school age may make the difference between life and death for the child. Even if the disease did not prove fatal, it would scar the child prove fatal, it would scar the child for life and possibly leave him

Michigan doctors of medicine with state and county health departments are now engaged in a campaign aimed at eventual eradication of smallpox and the other severe diseases of whooping cough, diphtheria and tetanus (lockjaw). This campaign is designed to reach every child in the state regardless of economic status or distance of economic status or distance from a doctor's office.

HIGHWAY BODY RECOMMENDS FIVE AND ONE-HALF MILLION DOLLAR PROGRAM

Nearly 540 miles of county roads city streets and state trunk highways in Charlevoix county are dangerous congested or otherwise unfit to mee present traffic demands and should be improved at a cost of $5,525,820 he Michigan Highway Study revealed today.

The needs were among those listed by cities and villages representing 87 percent of the urban population, by all of the 83 counties and by the state highway department for roads and streets under their respective jurisdictions. After screening by impartial engineers, the individual reruirements were made the basis for the general report on Highway Needs in Michigan, released last veek.

The study committee pointed ou that only the absolute minimum needs are included in the figures and recommended that they be met during the next 12 or 15 years.

Information on Boyne City was supplied by Lyle W. Ross, city clerk data from East Jordan came from Street Commissioner Leo Sommer ville, and figures for Boyne Falls were provided by Leslie Baker, village president.

Boyne City, it was found tha 2.4 miles of major streets be modern-ized at a cost of $304,520 and new bridge should be built for $27,400 or Lake street between Water and River. The present structure is subjecto failure at any time and has a posted load of only 3,000 pounds, he

Street improvements listed as needed in Boyne City are Lake be-tween Pine and Lincoln, concrete widening to 44 feet and asphalt re-surfacing, $70,700: Water between Boyne and Lake, resurfacing, $13,-320: Main between Lake and East concrete widening to 44 feet and resurfacing, $10,500: Main between Boyne and city limits, new concret pavement, 44 feet wide, $70,000: and Michigan from Line to city limits, new concrete pavement, $140,000.

East Jordan needs to improve 11.5 miles of local streets at a cost thoroughfares at a cost of $144,800 $262,000 and two miles Major street needs were itemized as surface, $25,800.

In Boyne Falls, the study disclosed that only 1.37 miles of local streets need to be improved at a cost of $78,000.

Needed improvements on roads are estimated to cost $2,563,-300, including $59,600 for reconstruction of three bridges; $1,453,700 for modernizing 148 of the 204 miles of Class B (primary) roads and $1,050,000 for improving 335 of the 536 miles of Class C (local) roads.

Fifty six miles of the Class B roads would be treated with a heavy black top, seven miles would be given a light blacktop surface and the remainder of both B-and C deficient miles would be graveled.

On the state and U.S. trunk system in Charlevoix county it was found that 37 miles are deficient and should be modernized at a cost of $2,145,800, including $65,000 for two bridges. These needs were itemized as follows

US 31-1 Charlevoix to east county line, 7.6 miles, high type two lane, 3402,000: Charlevoix to south county line, 10.2 miles, high type two land, $760,000. Christian Character

Lesson for March 14, 1948

WHO is the most valuable person in your community? In many communities it has come to be the custom to select the Man of the an of the Year, the idea usually being to name the person. through a process of sampling of pub-lic opinion, who has rendered the outstanding service of the year.

Year or the Wom-

Sunday's lesson is a dramatic scene out of the long ago, picturing a

Dr. Newton munity's tribute to a truly great man, the apostle Paul. Read Acts 20:17-38, and you will have the story.

LOVED AND HONORED

HE first impression I get from THE first impression I get from this story is the fact that these people of Ephesus loved Paul. They loved him enough to lay aside their work and hasten to the near-by seaport of Miletus to see him for the last time, and to bow down in his presence and honor him.

Why did they thus love Paul? Because he had told them about God. You need but read again the record of Paul's ministry in that important city of Ephesus to be reminded of how greatly he had served them in the name of Jesus. Loved and honored! What a trib-ute to the worth of Christian character! Wouldn't you appreciate the tribute which they paid Paul as the goal out yonder to which you strive? Boys and girls of today may thus be honored tomorrow, if they will live for Jesus as Paul did.

THE POWER OF RIGHT LIVING DAUL not only told the Ephesians how to live, but illustrated day by day in his own life what he preached to them. The most elo-quent sermons are not spoken, but lived. "What you are speaks so loudly I can't hear what you say.

The boy and man who plays the game straight are putting into practice what the teacher and preacher proclaims on Sunday. The power of right living will win its way today, just as it did in the long ago when Paul witnessed for Jesus in Ephesus.

It was not easy to live for Christ in Ephesus, nor is it easy to live for him in Chicago or Los Angeles or Boston or Miami, but it is the one way to ultimately impress the world of the reality of Christianity.

PAUL'S CONSUMING PASSION

WE ARE what we are becoming, and never was this axiom of life more powerfully illustrated than in the case of Paul. "I press on toward the goal for the prize of the 5:6-21, Paul reviews the qualities of conduct which produce worthwhile character, admonishing all Christians to strive for these qualities.

"I live, yet not I, Christ liveth 'n me," is another of Paul's watchwords, and still again, "I can do all things through Christ, who strengtheneth me."

It was the consuming passion of lings. We need them. Christ in his words and in his works. It is conceivable that the people at Ephesus had come to see Christ in the life of Paul, and that his daily ministry in their midst convinced them that God was in Christ reconciling the world unto himself.

WHAT AM I WORTH?

THE question then emerges, What am I worth to my com-munity? When I come to the end of the journey, will the people who know me best honor and love me for what I have done?

I can see the people of Ephesus bowing on the dock at Miletus, kissing this weary old servant of the Lord. It is a beautiful scene. This tribute meant more to Paul than all the gold of Ephesus would have meant. It was compensation of abiding worth to him. And what is vastly more important; it was glory to God which must have evoked the praise of the angels about the great White Throne.

On God's Word

John Wycliffe, in the introduction to his translation of the Bible into English in 1380, wrote as follows:
"When the teachings of the Bible Clarence Bowman laft Tuesday for are generally accepted and acted on, then shall we have a govern-ment of, for and by the people." Four hundred years later the Amer-Ican republic was established—the first great democracy—and it was successful because the Constitution and the Bill of Rights were founded on God's Word.

DAILY

When little Johnny or Susy beg, 'Read me a story, please", it is wise or Mother or Dad to take time out for story time. If you've had trouble getting them to bed and to sleep at night, a story may be your answer.

Reading or telling stories to a hild helps him relax reports Eileen Algiers of the Michigan State college nursery school. No child can be expected to fall asleep quickly and easily if he has just finished an exciting game or romp. A quiet time with a book is good for him.

Children like to look at books and pictures by themselves, too. Often meal time becomes more calm and enjoyable, when children sit quietly and look at books for a few minutes before eating.

Story time can be anytime. During the day it gives both you and your erature is his rightful heritage.

CHILDREN NEED STORY TIME children a time for relaxation and conversation. "Told" stories are equally as good. Without a book and its pictures you can substitute motions and direct talking to the child. Stories are a source of both entertainment and information. Interest in subject matter will change with your child from day to day and month. Simple nursery rhymes usually are sung to the baby. These are his first stories. The child of two is interested in stories about himself. In another year he likes to hear about animals he knows, cars, buses, and every day things. Later he will like stories with a plot, stories of people in other countries, and stories of make believe.

Requests for stories should come from every child of two years up to the junior high school age. A broad knowledge of books, stories and lit-

Governor Kim Sigler has re-deigned his package for Michigan good government. Immediate reform is giving way to long-range reform. Showing a willingness to change his mind when convinced that he can achieve results better by other me thods, Sigler now favors the following program which is being shaped for presentation to the state legislature in special session starting next Tues-(March 16):

1. No new or higher taxes, Mich igan taxpayers, the governor feels, are paying enough money today for government public service. The big job is to distribute this money equitably where it is needed. Hence, no new or higher taxes. For example: No increase in the state gasoline tax for additional road building.

2. Remove from the November bal-lot the legislature-authorized vote on revision of the state constitution by constitutional convention. The gov ernor is convinced that piece-meal revision of the constitution is a more intelligent way. Voters can concentrate their thinking on a few issues at hand, rather than opening the door wide to complete revision through the relatively slow process of a conver

3. Remove from the November bal lot the legislature-authorized vote amendment. The governor has consistently favored repeal; he still does However, he is convinced that the time is not ripe for such action. The public must be convinced of its necessity, and the most realistic way to do this is to demonstrate through red-ink financing-deficits, if please—that the public cannot enjoy state public service (without new or higher taxes) while 76 per cent of the sales tax money is returned to home communities for spending by home government.

4. Four-year tenure of office for all constitutional state and county offices except the state offices of secretary of state and attorney general, both to be filled by appointment by the governor. The first election to be in 1950, a non-presidential campaign year.

5. These elected officials to take office on December 1, instead of January 1, as at present. The new governor, for example, could then ready his legislative program before the legislature meets.
6. An amendment to remove sal ary limitations from the state consti-

> The South's competition for ir dustry is best illustrated by Florida which has no state income tax, no state sales tax, no tax on homesteads under $5,000 valuation, no state realty tax and no state bonded debt.

"These fortunate and attractive safeguards will be maintained," ob-served the Tampa Florida Morning

Tribune recently, "because over whelming public sentiment will prevent the imposition of any taxes."

The same newspaper points out that Florida had the third greatest in crease in individual income in the naion during the period 1940-1947 and that its population gain was 18 per cent, exceeded only by 10 states.

Governor Sigler visited Florida pri or to his return to Michigan, follow ng a month's rest in the South.

It may be accomed that Governor Sigler, during the 1948 campaign will express his current views on the subject of taxation.

Dull as this topic traditionally is it is pertinent to the future of indus try in Michigan. Burdensome taxes levied by a legislature seeking its way out of the sales tax diversion dilem ma, could readily speed up the decentralization trend voiced recently by Henry Ford II. Ford thinks the com pany employs too many people at River Rouge for production efficiency.

One year ago Sigler was opposed to imposition of new taxes. Instead. he favored repeal of the sales tax di version amendment, an accomplishnent now conceded to be very diffi cult to attain.

The 1947 Bonine-Tripp labor act, state companion law to the federal Taft-Hartley act, may prove to be a deterrent to industrial migration from Michigan. If either or both of these laws discourage coetly labor strikes and en-courage friendly labor-management relations, much will be accomplished Michigan still has a bad reputation, like Chicago for gangsters, of being the hotbed of labor agitators.

Nature richly endowed Michigan with natural resources, readily trans ported by water or railroad to be processed into consumer and capital goods. Man can safeguard this blessing by assuring freedom from discriminatory taxes, freedom to work and freedom of competition. Surely these are among the reasons why Michigan enjoys its present great

PICKLE GROWERS TO MEET:

Pickle growers of Charlevoix County will meet with Jack Rose, Speci ialist of vegetable production, Michigan State College, on Monday March 15th in the afternoon at 2:00 P.M. The meeting will be held at the Marion Center Hall. All farmers who are interested in raising pickles should plan on attending this meeting.
BULL PICTURES TO BE SHOWN

George Parsons, Extension Specia-list in Dairying will be in Charlevoix County Thursday March 18th in the afternoon at 2:00 P.M., in the basement of the Boyne City Library. Mr Parsons will show colored slides of the bulls that are used in the Artificial Breeding Program. He will also discuss along with the pictures pedigrees and proofs on these bulls. All members of the Association are requested by President Clayton Healey, to attend this meeting. Visitors are very welcome and any one interested in dairy should attend

NSECTS ATTACK STORED GRAIN Insects living in farm grain bins eat or destroy five percent or more of our nation's stored grains and cereal products every year. The terrific loss is carried largely by farmers.

Extension specialist at Michigan State College say that whenever there s mild weather, insects are busy. This is true particularly if the grain has high moisture content or is not very clean. It's a good idea to check your bin onditions carefully. Look for webbed or caked areas and for kernels that seem to have been "chewed" or have small holes in them.

If insects are working on your stored grain, you'll want to do something about them on the first varm dav.

STUMP DECAY CHEMICALS:

Lester Bell, extension forester at Michigan State College, says that there is no royal road to producing quick decay of bothersome trees or stumps. A number of materials now on the market are advertised with glowing claims. People wro buy the naterial find it of little value.

Chemicals selling for high prices are advertised as "magic" for stump killing and decay. If these chemicals are offered for sale in the community, a standard test of this material will show whether it is anything other than saltpeter. If the chemical is saltpeter it will actually slow down decay . . . rather than hastening it. Use of strong chemicals kills the fungi that destroys wood.

The usual recommendation for clearing rough land is by the use of power machinery, or dynamite, both guaranteeing complete removel of the trees and stumps from the ground. Ed. Rebman County Agr'l Agent.
