Center Stage Opens Fine

NORTHERN MICH. SUMMER VISITORS MUCH IN EVIDENCE

The opening play of a ten week season of legitimate stage plays at Center Stage '48, in East Jordan, brought "Broadway" to an appreciative and enthusiastic audience last week-end. The youthful and experienced professional group, recruited in New York City, have dedicated themselves to the task of bringing "good theatre" to Northern Michigan throughout the summer season and they offered their audience exactly that in their presentation of "John Loves Mary".

Under the excellent direction of Marilyn Lief and Bernice Loren, the play moved along with a rapidity and finesse impossible to achieve with an untrained or amateur cast. The authentic Broadway setting, the special lighting equipment plus the excellence of the performance by the cast who took no less than three curtain calls, made the opening play highly entertaining and successful.

Center Stage's goal of bringing theatre to this area on a par technically and artistically with what Broadway has to offer—at a price everyone can afford—has the blessings and encouragement of local service clubs and Chamber of Commerce, as well as many prominent persons in the theatrical field. Included in the numerous telegrams received by the group on opening night were those from Helen Hayes, famous Broadway and movie actress, Robert Breen, Vinton Freedley, President of the American National Theatre and Academy and Margo Jones who has met with national recognition in establishing a comparable community drama theatre in Dallas, Texas. Miss Jones, like Center Stage, believed there was a waiting audience in the West, away from the over-crowded Eastern States and her telegram bearing best wishes for success was signed "from a fellow pioneer."

The opening performance attracted summer visitors and residents from Mackinaw City, Bay View, Petoskey, Charlevoix, Alpa, Ellsworth, Cadillac, Manistowick, Bellaire, Boyne City and Ironton as well as members of the immediate community around East Jordan.

Now in rehearsal is "Arsenic and Old Lace", which will open on Thursday, July 8th. For the next nine weeks a different play will be presented each Thursday, Friday and Saturday evenings with a matinee on Saturday.

Judging by the enthusiastic applause at the opening play, it seems as if Center Stage can look forward to a highly successful season. Evidently their belief was correct when they felt that here in Northern Michigan was an audience long denied the opportunity of witnessing legitimate stage plays, and one that would welcome good drama in the area.

Caution Urged For DDT Use in Garden

Says M. S. C. Specialist

Careless use of DDT around the yard can cause injury to some shrubs and plants, caution says R. L. Janes, extension entomologist at Michigan State college.

Some of the plants which may be injured include delphinium, bleeding heart, and azalea. DDT causes the leaves to drop on privet and it may take some time for these plants to regain their foliage. Repeated treatments of DDT may kill privet, Janes warns.

For treating shrubbery and lawns to control flies and mosquitoes, one form that can be used is the 50 per cent wettable suitable for use with water. Use four pounds of 50 per cent wettable DDT in 100 gallons of water. This amounts to four level tablespoons to one gallon.

Various types of machinery such as knapsack sprayers, barrel pumps, or power equipment can be used to apply the DDT. In the case of power equipment, care should be taken to reduce the pressure especially on tender plants. Knapsack sprayers should be kept well agitated.

A five per cent DDT dust can also be used successfully on grass and shrubbery with the same reservations in its use as for the 50 per cent wettable DDT. Drifting is a disadvantage of dust.

Janes has another word of caution about DDT. It is poisonous to gold fish, fish in ponds, frogs and cats. Avoid accidental spraying of cats. Special instructions are available on the use of DDT for control of mosquito larvae (wigglers) infesting ponds.

Guests of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Kamradt for a week are her brother, Ted Griffen, and for a month visit are her sister, Pauline Griffen, and nephew, John Griffen, all of Farmington.

Grass Days Draw Large Numbers of Michigan Farmers

Between 25,000 and 30,000 Michigan farmers saw demonstrations during June which emphasize the need for more and better grass and legumes. Sponsored by the Michigan Cooperative Extension Service, the 12 demonstrations days in different parts of the state attracted large crowds despite rainy and unfavorable haymaking weather.

Demonstrations in the use of fertilizer, proper seeding, pasture renovation, weed control, gully erosion control, contouring, and the use of modern haymaking equipment were featured.

Other agencies, including the Soil Conservation Service, assisted local committees in planning the field days. Local farmer committees worked with county agricultural agents in the many areas.

Extension Service officials at Michigan State college are considering plans now to continue the Grass Day Demonstrations next year. Great interest shown by farmers in growing and utilizing higher quality forage for livestock proved the need for continued emphasis on grassland farming, MSC officials believe.

E. J. Rotary Club Entertain Cast of Center Stage

The East Jordan Rotary Club entertained the entire cast of Center Stage '48 on Tuesday night, June 29 at dinner in the basement of the Presbyterian Church. Present also were Rotary Anns, the wives of members of the Club.

Retiring President John Porter presided over the Speaker's table along with Rotary Ann Eve and incoming President Guy Watson and Mrs. Watson.

Highlight of the program was introduction of members of the Center Stage group by Director Marilyn Lief and Bernice Loren, who told of some of the production problems that go into bringing Broadway plays to the community. Actor Les Robin told the group of the aims of Center Stage—to bring good drama to the area, at a price everyone could afford, and urged all to realize that this theater is somewhat a community project. He encouraged interested audience to "come backstage" and get acquainted with what goes into such productions.

Retiring Director Barney Adair presented John Porter and Mrs. Porter with a barometer for their cruiser, in recognition on behalf of all the Directors, for the excellent job Mr. Porter has done during the past year.

Bass Season Opens Well

Favored by the weather, Michigan anglers turned out in force for the opening week end of bass and bluegill season, found the bass fishing on many lakes excellent—better than they had expected it to be until the normal peak of bass fishing success later in the season.

Cane-pole fishermen in boats found the bluegill fishing generally productive, and demands on boat livies were heavy. The conservation department reported exceptional interest in southern Michigan lakes whose deeper waters have been stocked with trout. Like all other lakes south of the Muskegon-Port Sanilac line, except a dozen with special regulations, these lakes with trout as well as bass and panfish in them remained closed until bass and bluegill fishing began.

Conservation officers reported excellent cooperation from fishermen whose creels they checked, and both understanding and approval among sportsmen of the new wildlife protection act that authorizes such inspections.

BASIC COLOR PLAN NEW KEY-NOTE in HOME FURNISHINGS

Welcome as a cool summer shower is the news for homemakers about the new way of harmonizing the colors in carpets, drapes, wallpapers and upholstery fabrics.

"Basic Home Furnishings" is the name which the Home Furnishings Style Council has selected for the eleven colors which they recommend for home furnishings. With these basic colors you can choose the right furnishings for any room.

Ruth J. Peck, extension home furnishings specialist at Michigan State College, describes the colors a clear and muted and reports that each color comes in a range of nine values from light to very dark.

Here is a typical conversation by a housewife who knows about Basic Home Furnishings colors: "May I look at some drapery material with Grand Canyon rose background?", asks Mrs. Consumer. "My rug is Shenandoah green and my color scheme is green with rose as a contrasting color."

With this information a clerk can be of real service, for Mrs. Consumer has given him the fundamentals necessary. Grand Canyon rose and Shenandoah green are two of the 11 home furnishings colors. These colors were selected with the thought that colors in a room do not have to match but should harmonize.

Carpet manufacturers, wallpaper companies and textile firms which use the Basic Home Furnishings colors are a great help to the homemaker who is trying desperately to furnish a room with pleasing color harmony.

Farmer Vote This Friday

ON ORGANIZING A SOIL CONSERVATION DISTRICT

Farmers of Charlevoix county will have the final choice in the organization of the Soil Conservation District this Friday, July 9. Every land owner and occupier of three acres or more of land should go to their respective township polls and vote on the establishment of the district. Not only is a favorable vote requested but a large number of votes are also required before the State committee will declare a district organized.

The polls to be used are the regular voting places in each township, with the exception of Beaver Island, where the only voting place will be at St. James. The hours for voting are from 12:00 noon to 2:00 p. m., and from 7:00 to 9:30 p. m., in the evening. This will give everybody a chance to vote either during the noon hour or in the evening.

Ed Reisman, County Agr'l Agent, said, "This is the time of the year when every farmer is very busy making hay and cultivating corn. However, his time is worth considerably more by taking a few minutes and voting for an establishment of a Soil Conservation District."

SAVING SUGGESTIONS FOR FOOD BUDGET OFFERED HOMEMAKERS

What shall we have for dinner? This is easy to answer after you have decided on the main dish—but this is where high prices spell trouble these days.

Homemakers looking for main dish receipts which are filling and nutritional but inexpensive are offered 150 recipes and suggestions in a new booklet announced by Roberta Hershey, foods and nutrition extension specialist at Michigan State College.

Titled, "Money Saving Main Dishes", the bulletin is offered by the Office for Food and Feed Conservation, at no charge to help you save both money and scarce foods. The recipes were tested by the Bureau of Human Nutrition and Home Economics of the United States Department of Agriculture. You can get your copy of the 48-page booklet from your county extension office or from the Bulletin Office, Department of Public Relations, Michigan State College, East Lansing.

Secretary of Agriculture, Charles F. Brannan, states that day-to-day use of the recipes in the booklet may save you as much as thirty per cent on meat alone. Suggestions for balanced, economical meals, and tips for skill in cookery are included.

Following each "main dish" recipe are suggestions for other foods to complete the meal, and also for ways to vary the main-dish recipe. For example, a brown beef stew can easily become lamb or veal stew or a quick stew with hamburger. With it you might serve coleslaw or green salad, and a baked peach or pear for dessert. Sweet-sour spareribs, Chinese style, can become baked spareribs with barbecue sauce.

Rural Tele-news

BLUE-RIBBON TELEPHONE—A certain telephone which looks like any other, but nevertheless bears an unseen mark of distinction, was installed a few weeks ago. It brought to 50,000 the number of additional telephones installed in rural areas by Michigan Bell since VJ Day. That's about as many telephones as there are in Lansing. Rural installations since VJ Day have averaged nearly 1,500 a month.

WEB OF WIRE—To bring telephone service to more folks in rural areas, Michigan Bell, since VJ Day, has strung 23,000 miles of wire and placed hundreds of miles of cable and buried wire. Large amounts of central office switching equipment have been required, and in some exchanges, new buildings or building additions.

ON SCHEDULE—Michigan Bell's rural expansion and improvement program is moving along right on schedule. Besides installing 50,000 more telephones in rural areas since VJ Day, we have reduced the number of parties and improved the ringing on many rural lines.

Bezalel, The Craftsman
Lesson for July 11, 1948

THE dignity of labor, the source of artistic ability, the secret of mechanical skill, and the service of good workmanship—these are the facets that break across the ages, pointing us to worthy effort, as we study again the achievement of Bezalel and his associates in the construction and furnishing of the Tabernacle at Sinai.

A MAN WHO DID FINE WORK
BEZALEL, grandson of Hur, son of Caleb, was called of God to superintend the building of the Tabernacle. His name means "under the shadow of God." He knew how to do fine work, having been trained in Egyptian art and handicraft—metallurgy, carpentry, weaving, embroidery, leather-dyeing, gem-cutting and confections. He even knew the art of apothecary.

Best of all, he loved to do fine work. It is one thing to possess the know-how, it is yet another thing to love the execution of a great design.

TRAITS OF CHARACTER
BEZALEL possessed knowledge as a fine craftsman, but back of this technical knowledge was spiritual discernment. He was filled "with the spirit of God." He worked at the temporal, but he worked for the eternal.

He possessed wisdom—wisdom which comes only from God. Wisdom which means understanding in the sense in which Solomon speaks in Proverbs. Picture life with every workman filled with the spirit of God, and possessing an understanding of his task in the light of God's eternal will. Here, I fancy, Henry Van Dyke may have got the inspiration for his great poem on "Work."

HANDS THAT SERVE GOD
AHOLIAB, meaning "the father is my tabernacle," was called of God to help Bezalel in this high and holy task. He was of the tribe of Dan—which tribe furnished Hiram as chief artist in building Solomon's temple. Aholiab, "given of God" for this divine task, gladly dedicated his skillful hands in helping Bezalel. And there were many others who helped—"wise hearted," we read. Here was a task, God's task, and here were leaders, Bezalel and Aholiab, ready to serve God; and here were helpers, wise hearted.

WORK FOR EVERY DAY
TURNING now from the fascinating story of how Bezalel and Aholiab and their helpers constructed and furnished the Tabernacle at Sinai, according to the minutest detail as outlined in the passages above cited, let us ask, What about our work?

There is work for everyone every day. "To every man his work." And every task is essential in bringing to pass the Kingdom of God on earth. God did not make us for idleness. He made us for a purpose—that purpose to do our particular work. None other can do what God has ordained that we should do.

"My Father worketh hitherto, and I work," said Jesus. "Work, for the night cometh when no man can work."

Will my work be done ere the night come?
"Time worketh,
Let me work, too,
Buy at time my work I ply,
Till I work the work of eternity."

New Generations

God is the infinitely persistent experimenter, and when one generation fails him he always tries another. Always there is a new generation as fresh and multitudinous as morning dew, to hear again God's gracious gospel and have an opportunity to respond to his inspiring challenge.—E. M. Walker.

Missions

Whether we like it or not, we have been thrust into a world that has been crowded up into such close quarters that there is no longer any "home mission" field or "foreign mission" territory. The needs of all the world are our problem.

From where I sit ... by Joe Marsh

Will's Hospitality Isn't "Cracked"!

Ever since January, Will Dudley planned to give his living room that "new look"—planned to carefully refinish the woodwork and replaster the walls.

Every time Will got out the putty to start filling in the cracks, a neighbor stopped by to pass the time of day—and first thing you knew, there was a group of us helping Will do the job up right. After Will called a halt to the evening's work, we'd sit around the fire enjoying a friendly argument and a sparkling glass of mellow beer.

So Will's living room doesn't look like it did a year ago—but it's by far the most "livable" living room I know: A place you can always drop in for good talk, good beer, and a warm welcome.

From where I sit, so long as Will puts that atmosphere of hospitality and good fellowship ahead of everything else, we'll all be happy to help Will change the looks of his living room any time he wants.
