Remains of Pvt. William A. Clark To Be Laid At Rest

The casket remains of Pvt. William A. Clark, East Jordan's third son to make the Supreme Sacrifice, will arrive at Ellsworth, accompanied by a uniformed Army Escort from the Chicago Distributing Center of the American Graves Registration Division, Friday morning and will be met by R. G. Watson and American Legion Escorts and be at the Watson Funeral Home from 8:00 a. m. to 4:00 p. m. when it will be escorted by members of Rebec-Sweet Post No. 227 American Legion to the Densmore Cemetery, Antrim County. Military graveside services will be conducted by Rebec-Sweet Post.

PVT. WM. A. CLARK

Pvt. Clark's body was buried at Gela, Sicily, in a temporary cemetery. Pvt. Clark was born Jan. 7th, 1922, son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Clark. He attended the Pleasant Valley school, and was married to Marion Barnes in 1940. In April, 1942, his son Erwin was born. He joined the U. S. Army Dec. 8, 1942 and was killed in action July 13, 1943 in North Africa. He was 21 years old at the time of his death.

Marriages

Cooley — Malpass

Miss Angela Cooley, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Howard E. Cooley of Grand Rapids, and Frederick Bruce Malpass, son of Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Malpass of East Jordan, were married July 25, at 3 o'clock, in the chapel of the First Congregational church in Grand Rapids.

The Cooley family are former residents of Battle Creek and East Jordan. Rev. Don L. DeCoursey conducted the service before 100 wedding guests.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, asked her sister, Mrs. H. V. Henry to act as Matron of honor. The bridesmaids were Miss Delores VerMerris and Miss Nell Deppe both of Grand Rapids. Little Judy Malpass, a cousin of the bridegroom, was flowergirl. Steve J. Kulchar of Flint was best man. The ushers were Parker Sailer and Richard Ward Malpass, cousin of the groom.

The bride's gown was white Marquisette, made with a high neck and lace bertha. The skirt fell into a short train. Her finger tip veil was attached to a halo hat and she carried a bouquet of stephanotis, white roses and gardenias.

The three attendants were dressed in white Marquisette with royal blue polka dots. They wore off-the-shoulder, and the one worn by the matron of honor also featured a bertha. Mrs. Henry had royal blue, white and yellow carnations and the maids' flowers also were royal blue and white carnations. The flower-girl was in a long yellow dress embroidered in white eyelet. She carried a basket of rose petals and wore yellow snapdragons in her hair.

A reception followed in the parlors. The newlyweds left later to travel to Canada, Niagra Falls and through New York, Pennsylvania and Ohio. They will make their home in East Jordan.

Among those from here to attend the wedding were Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Malpass and son Phillip, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Malpass and family, and Parker Sailer.

AN APPRECIATION

I wish to thank all of my friends and neighbors for the lovely cards, gifts and flowers sent me during my stay in Lockwood hospital.

Horse Racing At County Fair

TO BE STELLAR EVENT. GRAND STAND ATTRACTIONS, CARNIVAL.

The race program at the Charlevoix County Fair, September 7-11, will be the biggest in the history of the fair, according to Ed Rehman, County Agr'l. Agent. The State of Michigan has doubled the purses paid at East Jordan last year. This money was collected by a tax on the parimutual betting at the Northville races.

Other attractions include a horse pulling contest, grandstand attractions, and a good carnival and concessions. The horse pulling will be divided into light and heavy weight teams, and this contest will be held Saturday afternoon September 11.

Clyde Warner, chairman of the exhibits committee, is expecting the exhibits committee, is expecting the very best in agriculture exhibits. He chinery companies will have exhibits at the fair this fall.

The "No Vacancy" Sign

Why not be a little careful about the use of that crisp bit of questionable hospitality known as the "No Vacancy" sign. Many experienced operators have come to the conclusion that it should be used sparingly—if at all.

Yes—we know that when your accommodations are filled you don't want to be bothered. It's no fun to be roused out of bed in the middle of the night just to tell some late traveler that you can't take care of him! But wait—here's a tourist that is ready to stay overnight and maybe longer. You can render a valuable service to your community by sending that prospect to some nearby resort that may have a vacancy. It's a mark of courtesy and hospitality and it's profitable to try and hold those tourist dollars in your locality.

Of course, some tourists will say they would not take time to stop if they knew there was no vacancy but still they do need accommodations somewhere and you may be able to help them. After all, it cost money to get that cash customer to your door. Take care of him if you can, and the courtesy will pay your area a big dividend.

State Lands Up For Sale

SEVERAL PARCELS TO BE SOLD AT GAYLORD, SEPT. 15th.

State owned properties in eight Counties in Northern Michigan (including seven parcels in Charlevoix County) will be offered for sale at public auction on Wednesday, Sept. 15, at 10:00 a. m., in the Courthouse at Gaylord.

A copy of the list of various parcels, together with minimum price, is on file at The Herald office or a copy of same may be obtained at County Treasurer's office, Charlevoix, Conservation Dist., Headquarters, Gaylord, or Lands Division, Dept. of Conservation, Lansing.

Vocational Rehabilitation Officer Here, Tuesday, Aug., 31

Roger B. Moon, Field Agent for the Vocational Rehabilitation Division of the State Board of Control for Vocational Education, will be in the City Hall, East Jordan, Tuesday, August 31, at 9:00 a. m., and will interview any persons who are disabled.

The purpose of Vocational Rehabilitation is to give services to those people who are handicapped in any way, but who could, through surgery, medication, training, guidance, the furnishing of tools or equipment, become or continue to be self-supporting. Any person with such a problem is urged to come. The interviewing is free and if the person is financially unable to provide the other services, these are also granted to him.

During Dr. Savory's vacation, Dr. B. J. Beuker is available for both office and house calls. Office at Dr. Savory's.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Stanek and daughters were over the week end guests of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Stanek.

Miss Irene Stanek returned to her work at the Michigan National Bank of Lansing after spending the week end with her parents.

Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Hoyt, son John, daughters Shirley and Susanne, of Iola, Kansas, are visiting at the Wells cottage near Eveline Orchards.

The Luthern Ladies Aid of Wilson Township are sponsoring a bake sale at The Quality Food Store in East Jordan on Saturday afternoon, Aug. 28. adv.

Center Stage To Present Two More Plays In '48

Residents and summer visitors from the surrounding area will have the opportunity of seeing two more plays at CENTER STAGE '48, new summer theater in East Jordan, before the group completes their first ten week season, in Northern Michigan.

"ALL MY SONS" by Arthur Miller, who received both the Pulitzer Prize and the Drama Critics Award for the play, will open Thursday, Aug. 26 with performances also on Friday and Saturday evenings and a Saturday matinee at 2:30.

"We at CENTER STAGE are very proud to have obtained the rights to one of the finest plays produced in the contemporary American theater", said Miss Loren speaking for the group. "ALL MY SONS" represents a challenge to every actor and demands that attention of every theatergoer. The play carries a message that concerns all of us, whatever our station in life; it is a play one can get intense about, and does. This is the most dramatic production presented by Center Stage since "The Hasty Heart" earlier in our season."

Co-director Marilyn Lief pointed out that the group will adhere strictly to the set and script upon which the movie version of "All My Sons" was based and she added, "We sincerely hope to reach even larger audiences than we have already enjoyed throughout our season here with "All My Sons" and we would like to hear from those who attend the play. We would appreciate their comment on this and previous productions at our theater—and thereby know to some degree if we have fulfilled our task of bringing Broadway to Northern Michigan, to their satisfaction and enjoyment."

Passing of The Old Logging Roads

Another chapter in upper peninsula logging history will close in September when the Nahma and Northern railway near Escanaba, will have ripped up all but 4 1/2 miles of its 60 miles of track for scrap metal.

The N & N hauled its last load of pulpwood June 16, after camps operated in wartime were closed. The rails are reported worth twice as much now as scrap in Chicago as when they were laid down more than 50 years ago.

Railroads were once a standard part of every big logging company's equipment, and deer hunters sometimes rode them part way to otherwise inaccessible deer camps. They disappeared long ago in the lower peninsula, and little is left of them now in timber country above the straits. One still operates out of Ontonagon, the "Northern". Logging operators still use railroads extensively, but they now haul with trucks to the main lines.

Not sharing the oldtimers' nostalgic regret at the passing of the logging railroads are conservation department forest fire fighters, for whom the old engines were an extra fire hazard, requiring periodic safety inspections.

WEEKLY NEWS ANALYSIS

Bumper Crops Due This Year, May Crack High Cost Living; Spy Probe Confusion Mounts

By Bill Schoentgen, WNU Staff Writer

EDITOR'S NOTE: When opinions are expressed in these columns, they are those of Western Newspaper Union's news analysis and not necessarily of this newspaper.

SIDETRACKS . . . Two potential witnesses who were expected to add some information to the Washington Red spy hunt were Mrs. Oksana Stepanovna Kosenkina (left) and Alexander Koral. Neither did, however. Mrs. Kosenkina, who taught children of Russian U. N. officials in New York, made headlines by leaping from a third-story window in the Soviet consulate where she allegedly was being held against her will. Koral, billed as a "mystery witness" and accused of being a paid courier for the wartime Communist espionage ring, refused to tell anything he might know on the grounds that he would be incriminating himself.

CROP REPORT: Momentous

There was momentous news from the nation's farms: In the cards for 1948 was a record-setting corn crop, the second largest wheat crop and substantial increases over last year in oats, barley and rye.

Government estimates, as of August 1, of this year's grain production read like a statistical fantasy of the promised land.

Bureau of agriculture economics reported that a corn crop of 3,506,363,000 bushels is indicated this year, far above 1947's small, weather-plagued crop of 2.4 billion bushels.

An approximate 1,284,323,000 bushels of wheat will be forthcoming this year. Other crop estimates were: Oats, 1,470,444,000 bushels; barley, 313,139,000 bushels, and rye, 28,664,000 bushels.

Trouble grew out of the fact that, although the huge crops are welcome this year, they may set the scene for huge postwar surpluses, mostly of corn and wheat.

Officials contend that there simply aren't enough animals left on the nation's farms to take care of the kind of production being achieved this year, particularly the corn output.

Immediate result of this sudden condition of oversupply probably will be the government's starting to support corn prices as soon as the crop starts moving. Other grain supports are likely to be evoked later.

Grain exports will be pushed, of course, but the export market is almost certain to fall off in a year or so because other nations also are intensifying their farm production with considerable success.

Deflation?

Brighter side of the crop situation is the fact that it promises the consumer almost certain relief from inflated food prices sooner or later, since grain supplies and prices are basic in determining cost of living at the household level.

Prices of most grains, as a matter of fact, already have broken. Corn was down to $2.02 a bushel work for farm gluts that would be followed by costly subsidies in the form of farm price supports.

Should another year of heavy crop yields follow this one, and should there be a recovery of agriculture abroad, tremendous surpluses in grains would result. Thus, U. S. taxpayers would stand to lose in the cost of price supports a good deal of what they might save in food prices.

CONFUSION: And Spies

America's current top thriller, the Russian spy sensation, had developed more facets than a cylindrical lens in a lighthouse and each one was blinding to the eye of the beholder.

The motley group of persons called to testify before congressional investigating committees was growing and growing. It was getting to the point where even the witnesses had witnesses.

A sensational offshoot of the original spy investigation temporarily stole the spotlight from the main event. This was the battle of the schoolteachers—Mikhail I. Samarin and Mrs. Oksana Stepanovna Kosenkina, both U. N. personnel.

The goings on over this pair of Russian pedagogues seemed to be fairly complicated, but they could be boiled down to a sophisticated international game of run sheep run.

Both Samarin and Mrs. Kosenkina had appeared on the scene as potential witnesses in the congressional investigation. Then things started to happen.

First Mrs. Kosenkina disappeared for a few days. According to the official Soviet version, she had been "captured" by a group of anti-Communist White Russians and held prisoner. Then she was "rescued" by loyal U. S. S. R. subjects. A few days later she leaped from a window in the third story of the Soviet consulate in New York where, she said, she had been held captive. Driven to desperation by fear, she was seriously injured when she took the only way out.

On top of all this the other school teacher, Samarin, also disappeared. He, too, was supposed to be in custody of anti-Commie White Russians. However, information leaked out from the Samarin camp: He wanted to testify; he liked the U. S. and revolted against going back to Russia.

ACCIDENTS: 100,000 Deaths

Possibly the most shocking set of statistics compiled year in and year out in the U. S. is that dealing with the nation's accidental death rate.

In 1947, National Safety Council has disclosed, about 100,000 persons died accidentally. The full accident toll was approximately 2,000 deaths higher than in 1946.

Accidents in the home accounted for a majority of all the deaths listed by the council. There were 34,500 such fatalities. The total also included 32,300 traffic and 17,000 occupational deaths.

Some of the other facts released in the annual report:

More people died in disasters last year than in 1946—550 in the stupendous Texas City explosion, 167 in a Texas-Oklahoma tornado, 111 in the Centralia, Ill., mine blast, and 198 in airplane crashes.

Total of 20,900 deaths resulted from rural traffic accidents, while city traffic accidents accounted for 11,400 fatalities.

from its postwar peak of $2.80. Wheat was down from $3.13 to $2.09, oats from $1.47 to 74 cents. Further decreases are inevitable when this year's great yield makes itself felt. Generally, cheaper grain means cheaper feed for livestock. Cheaper feed means less expensive meat in the butcher shop.

This apparently certain relief from the high cost of living is not just around the corner, however. It lies somewhere in the middle future. Prices probably will continue to rise somewhat for the rest of this year, after which the impact of the 1948 crop should be felt, causing them to come down.

Despite the optimistic outlook, there is another problem to complicate the picture. This year's great crops could lay the ground-

211.9 BILLION

U. S. Personal Income Still on Elevator

Everybody works. Everybody makes money. That is the theme song of the American people who are, nevertheless, twisting and turning in the clutches of an intolerable condition of inflation.

But the money keeps on rolling in. Personal income hit a historic high rate of 211.9 billion dollars in June, the commerce department has reported. That figure is 2.5 billion dollars above the total personal income for May.

Responsible for the large May-to-June increase were the absence of major strikes, impact of third-round wage boosts in durable goods industries and higher prices received by farmers for livestock. The department of commerce said Wage and salary payments jumped 2.3 billion dollars in June.

YOUTH MONTH: Awareness

If the day should ever dawn when every family in the nation becomes fully aware that all juvenile delinquency has its beginning in the home, then U. S. society will have reached its Elysian fields.

Once families become endowed with this awareness they will tend to bring pressure to bear to eliminate the secondary factors that contribute to delinquency in young people: School failure, church failure, bad housing and the inevitable shift in ethical values from one generation to the next which are sometimes confusing and frightening to immature minds.

To that end, and because a healthy store of young minds and bodies is the best overall insurance any nation can have, September has been proclaimed Youth Month.

The Theater Owners of America, who feel they have a big stake in the welfare of U. S. youth, have undertaken to organize the principal media of information—newspapers, magazines, radio and motion pictures—to publicize the month.

Aside from the publicity to be accorded the problem of juvenile delinquency, which is the immediate purpose of Youth Month, the observance is more deeply significant in that it provides some evidence that Americans are becoming actively conscious that at least a partial remedy must be found.

Springboard for Youth Month and any other concerted group action that might obtain is a probing and thoughtful report on juvenile delinquency by the National Conference on Prevention and Control of Juvenile Delinquency, Washington, D. C.

A digest of this report, or series of panel reports, covering basic causes and possible solutions of the problem, is well worth a few hours' study on the part of every parent who is aware of his inevitable fallibilities as a guide and leader of his children.

NEW LOW: Bitterness

While American, British and French ambassadors in Moscow were grimly making peace talk with Soviet Foreign Minister Molotov in the Kremlin, general relations between the East and West were sliding to new depths of mutual recrimination.

This state of affairs was not eased any by unsubstantiated reports that the Moscow talks had degenerated into a deadlock and that no progress was being made.

For the most part, however, the animosity was being spread through raucous propaganda by British newspapers, with the publications sponsored by the Russians and the western powers waging a pitched battle of words.

The British-licensed paper Telegraph reported that the Soviets were getting ready to move great numbers of new troops into Germany and that Russia was pressing toward "sole rule over all of Berlin."

Soviet propaganda instruments, meantime, renewed their overall attacks on the West, demanding that the Berlin city council be ousted and that the whole city be made part of the Soviet zonal administration.

Regardless of any truth implicit in the Berlin newspaper fight it was obvious that the vindictive battle would do much more harm than good to relations between the two power spheres.

It was equally obvious that there was more bitterness and fear at work in Berlin than there was a rational understanding of how to cope with the crisis.

Headliners

IN LONDON. . . . Mrs. Fannie Blankers-Koen, stupendous Dutch woman athlete who won four gold medals in Olympic track and field competition, subsided into housewifely bliss (above) after her endeavors as she received an un-Olympian kiss from her husband.

IN OAKLAND, CALIF. . . . Edwin G. Chester dejectedly told a judge that the price of meat was pretty high, pleaded guilty to a charge that he wrestled and killed a 860-pound heifer.

IN CHICAGO. . . . Diane Janakos charged her husband with cruelty in a divorce action, displayed as proof a pocketbook full of hair which she said he had yanked out of her head.

DRAFT: Questions

This may come as a shock to young future draftees who want the world to know that they are loyal Americans, but just about the only question draft boards will not ask the potential inductee is whether or not he is a Communist and if he is loyal to the U. S.

All the queries in an eight-page questionnaire for draftees deal with the subject's social, economic, physical and marital status.

Should Enterprise be Encouraged

(Especially when it can do a lot for East Jordan)

Some two years ago two talented young women started planning a new business venture to be located in Northern Michigan. They wanted their business to serve, to broaden, to add culture in whatever community they chose — and in a community who would welcome their efforts.

They had vision, talent, the encouragement of the American National Theatre and Academy, their savings and the will to work.

The two women chose E. Jordan for their new venture and E. Jordan chose them, bearing in mind that nothing worthwhile is ever developed and accomplished without hard work, money and co-operation of one's fellowman.

Early this Spring the women opened their new business — Center Stage '48 — Northern Michigan's first legitimate stage theatre to be conducted on a business-like basis. They and their fellow-workers have worked hard. They have served, broadened and brought new and cultured entertainment to hundreds in this area. They ask for no financial help, they invested heavily of their own funds — and these funds plus receipts of their new business have been spent in this area.

Two years of planning, plus two years of hard work and investment of savings deserves to be recognized. Let us then recognize this new business in our town and what they have accomplished for us in bringing hundreds to E. Jordan who had never been here before. Let us recognize what this new theatre can mean to our community in future years and let's recognize the fact that we can help.

Let us help by attending the last two plays of their first season among us and urging all the people you can to do the same. Let's close their season here with full house audiences. Let's assure the group we want a permanent summer theatre here, in E. Jordan — not in some neighboring community.

If it's impossible to attend the plays — then write a card or note to Center Stage encouraging their efforts, recognizing the tremendous amount of effort they have put forth in our community, and telling them you would like to see them re-open Center Stage in '49!
