Jordan Valley Cooperative Creamery "Open House"

TO CELEBRATE THE COMPLETION OF ITS NEW $150,000 PLANT IN EAST JORDAN

Thursday, March 24, has been designated as "Jordan Valley Day" in East Jordan when the Jordan Valley Cooperative Creamery formally presents its new $150,000 plant to the public with an Open House program. All members and the public is invited to inspect the fine new structure and equipment for making its Valley Lea Butter.

Manager Percy Penfold said Open House hours would be from 10 a. m. until noon and from 2 until 4 p. m. There will be free favors to all who attend.

Opening of the new plant marks an event in East Jordan which citizens have anticipated since work on the new plant was started in August 1946. Construction of the new plant was formally completed on Feb. 3, 1949.

Mr. Penfold said interior of the plant and all construction work has been completed but considerable outside landscaping and renovation work will be done as soon as weather permits.

The Open House program will start with a dinner at 6:30 p. m., Wednesday, March 23, in the East Jordan High School, which will be served by the Home Economics girls under the direction of Mrs. Clara Brown. Attending the dinner will be a number of out-of-town merchants and wholesale dairy products buyers from as far as Buffalo, New York.

Other leaders in the dairy industry from Detroit, Chicago, South Bend and throughout Michigan will be on hand.

Principal speaker at the dinner, Wednesday, March 23, will be J. G. Hays, head of the dairy extension department of Michigan State College, who has a national reputation as a humorous dairy speaker. Mr. Hays illustrates his talk with a cardboard cow.

J. F. Yeager of Lansing, managing director of the Michigan Ass'n of Farmer Cooperatives will also speak briefly.

Following the dinner, the guests will be shown through the new plant.

On Thursday, employees of the creamery, Mr. Penfold and members of the board of directors will show the visitors through the plant, which will be especially decorated. Individual signs will mark pieces of equipment so the various operations will be understandable as the people pass through the plant.

The two-story portion of the new plant, facing on Lake Charlevoix, is all new construction and the one-story part, with basement, was erected where the former plant stood. Donald Clark of East Jordan was the general contractor.

The dinner table was centered with a wedding cake topped with a miniature bride and groom and decorated with yellow roses and white calla lilies, with tall gold and white lighted tapers.

Mrs. Gunderson wore a corsage of yellow rose buds tied with gold ribbon. Mr. Gunderson wore a white carnation boutonniere. They were presented with a lovely floor lamp.

Mr. and Mrs. Gunderson were married at Suttons Bay March 11, 1899, by Rev. John J. Maakstead.

The program consisted of some one-act plays and some songs sung by the 4-H Club members. After that, Mr. Festerling showed two movies that were furnished by Mrs. Redmer. The 4-H Club made $28.55 at the Box Social.

Farmers who have not signed 1949 farm plans may do so at any time at the County AAA office on or before March 31. A total of $22,947.00 in federal soil program funds will be available to Charlevoix County this year to assist local farmers in carrying out selected approved conservation measures on their farms.

State Dept. of Revenue Representative to be at State Bank, March 23

On March 23, 1949, Mr. Jay C. Harbaugh representing the Michigan Department of Revenue will be at East Jordan Bank by appointment for the purpose of assisting taxpayers in the preparation of their intangibles tax returns due not later than March 31. Appointment to be made with the Bank Cashier.

Intangible personal property subject to the tax includes all mortgages, land contracts, bank accounts, cash, postal savings accounts, accounts and notes receivable, corporate stocks, corporate bonds and other similar types of property. However, all United States bonds, including War Bonds, are exempt from the tax, and the tax on deposits in Michigan banks and building and loan associations, as well as stocks in Michigan banks, will be paid to the Department of Revenue directly by the banks or building and loan ass'n.

Under the present law as amended by the Legislature in 1945, all Corporate Stocks are 100% taxable including Michigan Corporations.

The Department has issued a warning to all owners of property, such as is outlined above, to file the necessary return forms prior to March 31. The Revenue Department is constantly engaged in checking stockholders' lists, mortgage records, income tax returns and other data for the purpose of discovering evasions of the Intangibles Tax Act. Failure to file a return when a tax is due subjects the taxpayer to severe penalties.

In addition to assisting taxpayers in preparation of their returns, Mr. Harbaugh will also be glad to advise any person concerning his liability, if any, under the Intangibles Tax Act.

Those desiring this advice or assistance are requested to bring with them full information concerning their holdings, including the face or par value, and income received therefrom during the year, and copy of the previous year's return filed with the Department.

Father and Son Banquet Soon

TO BE HELD IN THE GYM, TUESDAY, MARCH 29

The annual Father-Son Banquet, under the sponsorship of the East Jordan Rotary Club, will be held in the High School Gym, Tuesday, March 29, at 6:30 p. m.

The feature entertainer that evening will be John G. McKay, magician extraordinary.

Magic is something that catches the attention, imagination and curiosity of young and old alike. A rabbit out of a hat is good for a laugh anytime.

Fathers and sons attending this banquet will be royally entertained with a local interpretation of the lore of the fabulous Paul Bunyon and his equally famous and legendary companions.

Gone are the days when the sound of the axe and the cry of "timber" resounded in the clear, cold air of Michigan's great forests.

Gone are the huge piles of logs on the landings as they waited to be floated down the swollen rivers to the mills.

Gone are the booms and jams once so common on our now peaceful streams. Vanished are the mills and men who fought and died to build them.

Gone to another horizon is the great Paul Bunyon, idol, hero of all loggers. Nevertheless, his spirit lives on and returns to haunt and inspire.

Yes, gone are those generations of hardy woodsmen, those lusty savages, as Old Paul himself, affectionately called them.

We cherish the memory of all this and humbly turn to their progeny to relieve for us, in a limited way, a time or two from a thrilling chapter of great but passing industry.

Don't fail to see Paul and his pals, Johnny Inkslinger, Poleon LaCartouche, Sourdough Sam, Hot Biscuit Slim, Cream Puff Fatty and many others.

The dinner is being put on by the ladies of the Methodist Church, which is your guarantee of a swell meal.

The banquet committee consists of Robert Campbell, Hollis Drew, Meredith Huckle, Richard Malpass, and Lyle Johnston.

No Control of Sea Lampreys

CONSERVATION DEPARTMENT HAS NO SOLUTION AS YET

Two years of sea lamprey research and investigation by the conservation department has uncovered some information about the parasite's life cycle and spawning movements, but little so far which can be translated into an effective means of controlling the growing menace to Great Lakes food fishes and game fish in Michigan inland lakes and streams.

The department's institute for fisheries research has verified the presence of migrating or spawning sea lampreys in 108 Michigan streams. The existence of spawning runs also has been demonstrated in every major Michigan watershed in the Lake Michigan basin and in every major watershed north of Saginaw Bay in the Lake Huron basin. Indicating the growing traveling range of the parasitic menace, the institute reports spawning, spent or migrating sea lampreys now have been recovered or observed in several Lake Superior tributaries. The species is established in Burt and Mullet lakes as well as several other inland lakes.

Institute research shows there are 2 essential physical requirements for successful sea lamprey spawning, besides suitable water temperatures of 50 degrees or slightly higher. Needed are the presence of at least some small gravel and a current passing over the nesting site.

The female lamprey spawns from 24,000 to 107,000 eggs, with the average size lamprey (17.4 inches) producing an average of 62,500 eggs.

Following entrance into a lake, a developed lamprey remains in the active feeding, parasitic stage, sucking the blood out of fishes to which it attaches itself, for approximately 17 months.

From these studies, the institute concludes that the life cycle of the lamprey ranges from 5½ to 6½ years duration.

Peninsula Grange to Hold Open Meeting

Peninsula Grange will hold an open meeting, Friday evening, March 18th, at 9:00 p. m.

Mrs. Robertson, the East Jordan School nurse will be on the program. Mr. Leckrone and five of his F. F. A. boys will put on a parliamentary procedure demonstration.

Refreshments. Come and bring a friend.

Community Concert Ticket Sale Ends This Friday

The Community Concert ticket sale in 1949-50 is on this week and ends Friday. There are some extra tickets but former patrons have first choice. Northern music lovers may feel very proud that they were privileged last year to hear Tossy Spivakovsky give a beautiful concert when critics had not yet put him in top place in the United States. We can say, we knew him "when."

An interesting article in Time magazine this week rates him with the greatest violinists.

Student tickets are $3.00. One of the objects of this course is to develop love and appreciation of the best music. Parents who buy tickets for their young people are doing much for their musical education. For tickets phone Mrs. John Porter 60.

Remember the sale closes, Friday, March 18th.

Future Farmers Team Goes to Lansing

After winning the Parliamentary Procedure contest at Misick, the chapter team will go to the state convention at Lansing to participate in the finals.

Members of the team are: Don Graham, Don Pearsall, Ed Whitney, Fred Looze, and Robert Howard. Don Cutler will accompany the team as a chapter delegate.

The convention will be held on March 22-23, at M. S. C.

Detroit Patrolman Does His Duty

A Detroit patrolman recently scouting his territory on regular duty noticed a car parked in a "No Parking" zone. Returning a short time later and finding the car still there, he placed a ticket on it.

Arriving home that evening the officer received a telephone call from what seemed to be a very irate driver, telling him he had found a ticket on his car. The conversation that followed (it was really laughable) left no doubt in the officer's mind as to the driver's feeling toward him.

The big laugh came when Russell Meredith told Gerald Barnett it was his car the ticket had been put on. How did Gerald feel? Well he will be coming home soon and we'll ask him.

Anyway "Rusty" thinks it's a good idea to frame and hang the ticket in "Squint's" Barber Shop just to remind East Jordan friends that since "Jerry" is a confirmed patrolman, the traffic laws of Detroit will be enforced.

Guide to Native Trees

Campers and cottagers interested in telling one tree from another at the spots where they spend their vacations this summer may take along a guide to Michigan's native forest trees made available by the conservation department.

The illustrated 42-page booklet describes 34 trees. Photographs and botanical notes are a convenient guide in distinguishing the different trees, and the accounts of the species relate their economic and historical importance in Michigan. Copies may be purchased from the department for 30 cents.

Frank Malone, City Chairman.

Fire Destroys Lakeside Lunch

MONDAY MORNING BLAZE DEFEATS FIRE DEPARTMENT

The East Jordan Fire Department was called out at 7:00 a. m., Monday, to extinguish a fire at the Lakeside Restaurant. The fire originated where the stove pipe of the kitchen range went through a wooden partition into the wash room. When discovered, it had gained considerable headway, and, due to the flimsy construction of the building, spread rapidly. Efforts to combat the flames with two fire extinguishers proved futile. Front part of the building was gutted, the kitchen damaged only by heat and smoke. Because of the peculiar construction of the building firemen were hampered in getting to the blaze, a false ceiling adding to the difficulty.

The Lakeside, formerly Nelson's Shoe Shop, later Shaw's Grocery, and for the past several years the Lakeside Restaurant, operating under at least half a dozen ownerships, finally taken over by Gene and LaVerne Teichman, who opened for business Feb. 7. The building was partially covered by insurance.

A juke box valued at $800.00 and a pin ball machine valued at $250.00, owned by Garth Bryan of Boyne City, were destroyed with no insurance.

The Teichman's plan to build a new building on the same site as soon as weather permits. The new building will be 15 feet wider, part of the lot on the west side having been used for a public alley for years.

The fire siren sounded twice at 7:00 a. m.; and a few minutes later the fire chief, Merle Thompson requested the phone operator, Jean Neumann to sound it once more as the firemen were not showing up. This was due to the inability, at times, depending more or less on the wind direction, for East Jordan's fire siren to be heard. This new siren does not have the high ear-piercing quality of the old one and consequently cannot be depended upon at times.

Red Cross Drive off to a Slow Start

Our local Red Cross Drive got off to a very slow start but the collectors are beginning their yearly round of calls.

Mrs. Ed Strehl will be calling on the residents of Bowens Addition instead of Mrs. Murphy as reported in last week's paper.

The report is in on only a few calls of last week with a bank deposit of $139.90.

Let's give generously and put East Jordan "Over the top" at an early date.

WEEKLY NEWS ANALYSIS

Truman Threatens to Take Battle
On Legislative Program to People;
MacArthur Sees No Russian Attack

(EDITOR'S NOTE: When opinions are expressed in these columns, they are those of Western Newspaper Union's news analysts and not necessarily of this newspaper.)

TRUMAN: All Aboard!

President Truman, who obviously regards himself as the "man with a mandate," was tossing some not-too-subtle threats toward congressmen inhospitable to his legislative proposals.

Keep fooling with me, he said, in effect, and I'll hit the old stump again—and you know what that means.

The President meant that if congress didn't set about soon enacting into law the pledges he made to the people during the November campaign, he'd hit the trail again and take the issue to the people—the way Franklin D. Roosevelt used to do.

MR. TRUMAN apparently felt that by so doing he could whip public sentiment up to such a pitch that congress would be forced to go along with his program, or else face possible defeat in the 1950 elections.

Not having the vocal equipment of his predecessor, who could get desired results with his "fireside chats," Mr. Truman would have to climb aboard a train if he wanted to influence the masses.

Strangely enough, congress didn't seem unduly perturbed at the President's threat. Things went along in congressional procedure about as usual, with Republicans charging that the 81st congress is also a "do nothing" congress, while Democratic members were inviting comparison with the "do nothing" 80th congress.

IT WAS READILY evident that Mr. Truman was needed by lack of congressional action on his program. Reiterating his campaign pledges of last fall, in which he declared the central issue was the "welfare of all the people," Mr. Truman asserted that lobbyists, pressure groups, and controlled editorial pages, columnists and commentators were offering determined opposition to his legislative program.

"All we have on our side," he said, "is the people."

Pointing out that he found on his campaign tour that the people of the nation are concerned about their government, Mr. Truman termed that concern a "fine thing."

"I propose to do all I can to help it along," he added. Then he hurled the threat: "In fact, I may even get on the train again and make another tour around the country to tell the people how their government is getting on."

INFLATION: Has Two Faces

Observers purportedly on the "inside" of things in Washington regard approval of the congressional committee on the economic report—Mr. Truman's proposal for controls to ward off inflation—as lip service only and argue that none of the committee expect the proposal to win congressional favor.

It was said the favorable committee report was made only to "save face" for the President as he seeks to implement the pledges he made in his election campaign.

THE COMMITTEE vote, which will send the measure to the floor of congress, was 7 to 4 for approval, and that came only after the proposals of the President had been toned down.

Critics of the Truman plan say it poses the unique theory that the country is in the midst of an inflation and deflation period at the same time—a condition admittedly difficult of comprehension.

They assert, too, that it would give dangerous controls to the President at a time when they actually are not needed.

One commentator observed that if any members of the committee considering the proposal had had any idea it would be enacted by the congress, it would have been killed completely before it ever got to the floor of the house or senate.

JAPAN:

The Russians had an answer to what would happen if they ever moved on Japan.

Gen. Douglas MacArthur, in a special interview, declared that he did not expect any attack upon Japan by the Russians, but if that occurred, "we," meaning the United States, "should certainly defend her."

sian attack on Japan held a bizarre aspect. With the U.S. as chief occupation force, how could the Soviets launch an attack of the Japanese without, in effect, making war on the United States?

But, General MacArthur evidently held the subject serious enough to comment about it.

"In case of another war, we do not want Japan to fight," MacArthur said. "Japan's role is to be the Switzerland of the Pacific," he explained.

THEN HE MADE a telling point in speculation of a Russian attack on Japan:

"Even if the Soviet government had aggressive intentions toward Japan, Russia would be incapable of carrying them out unless she could secure mastery of the air and either had a far Eastern fleet of her own or possessed the means of neutralizing any action by our fleet."

"Russia could not obtain air predominance," he went on. "On Okinawa I had constructed at the end of the war 25 airfields with the capacity to dispatch B-29's, then our largest bombers, on 3,500 missions a day. The whole of eastern Asia from Singapore to Vladivostok would lie within range of those machines."

HE DID NOT point out that with development of the bombing arm of the air force since the war, even farther distances for bombing purposes could be covered by present-day missile carriers.

Of the function of Japan in the American strategy of defense, MacArthur said:

"We never intended to use Japan as an ally. All we want her to do is remain neutral."

UNIVERSE: No Limits?

Since the first man lifted his head and gazed in puzzled awe at a star-studded sky, mankind has been trying to discover the secrets of the universe.

To that end, the huge, 200-inch Palomar mountain telescope was built and put into operation.

But the telescope's first contribution to the sum of man's knowledge of the universe served only to deepen the mystery.

"Astronomers using it found that there is no outer edge to the universe of stars, and the look they took was twice as far as man has ever looked before."

The astronomers got some pictures of nebulae a billion light-years distant and spaced about a million light-years apart. Each one is a world of stars, like the Milky Way. The star worlds are about uniformly spread up to the previous limits of sight, about a half-billion light years.

THE NEXT STUDY will be to find whether there is any thinning of the celestial families as sight is extended outward.

On a stunning fact the discovery brought home was that there is more than one star for every human being who ever lived. Nearly every star family, or nebulae, contains more than a hundred million individual stars.

Now it is science concurring in the psalm: "The heavens declare the glory of God, and the firmament showeth His handiwork"

Rural Tele-news

THE PARTS OF SPEECH — Western Electric Company, the Bell System's manufacturing division, uses materials from all over the world to make your telephone. The newest-type telephone has 433 parts and is made of 48 different materials. Among them are iron, steel, nickel, copper, tin, lead, zinc, aluminum, chromium, magnesium, gold, silver, platinum, coal, cotton, silk, paper, rubber, wax, shellac, asphalt, clay, talc, mica, leather, wood.

NEW DEFENSE FOR DROP WIRES — That telephone wire running from the telephone pole to your house is called a drop wire. To assure you good service, it must withstand wind, rain, ice, sun and tree branches. Bell Laboratories scientists have developed a new covering for drop wires. It's a synthetic called Neoprene. Costs more, but it's tougher and longer-lasting than previous materials.

FIND OUT YOURSELF BY LONG DISTANCE — If you want to compare prices before you sell your farm produce, or locate repair parts for your farm machinery, do it quickly and easily by Long Distance. Service is getting better all the time. There are fewer delays, quicker connections.

From where I sit... by Joe Marsh

Never Too Late To Learn

Cappy Miller's young son, Squint, is forever coming up with new ideas. Now they're not all world beaters, but Cappy is usually willing to give them a try.

Seems Squint found a new way to clear brush. They take two tractors, about thirty feet apart, and connect them with a heavy chain weighted down on the ground with old iron. First they both go parallel in one direction, then they go back over the same swath in the opposite direction and up comes the brush—roots and all. Worked fine and saved time.

That's why things go so well at the Miller farm. Cappy is open-minded, tolerant of new ideas and new ways of doing. He doesn't think his way is the only way.

From where I sit, a little tolerance will make things go better for all of us. You respect my views and I'll respect yours—whether it's on farming, politics, or choosing between an ice cream soda or a temperate glass of beer.

Joe Marsh

Bring your neighbor if you think he might be interested in this crop.

FLOYD W. IKENS, Sheriff of Charlevoix County, Michigan.

COPY OF RESOLUTION

"WHEREAS the Court House of this County was constructed many years ago and has more than served its purpose, and WHEREAS said building is of such design and construction as to make it impracticable to attempt to remodel same, and WHEREAS said building has been repeatedly condemned by the Fire Marshal of this State as unsafe and a fire hazard, and there exists a very real danger of the valuable and important records of this county being destroyed by fire because of inadequate vaults and storage space and at a loss to the public of many thousands of dollars, and WHEREAS it is deemed essential that provision be made for the setting aside of a fund, at interest, each year, for the construction of a new County BUILDING as soon as building conditions make the same practicable, and in such manner that the financing of a new building will not increase taxes, if possible, and to meet any situation that might arise:

NOW THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED, that a tax of two (2) mills on assessed valuation of the County of Charlevoix, Michigan, be levied each year, for a period of three (3) years, and that a tax of one (1) mill on the assessed valuation of said county be levied each year for a period of seven (7) years next following thereafter, for the purpose of creating a sinking fund to be used for the construction of a new county court house, the proposition of levying such tax to create a sinking fund to be submitted to the electors of said county and approved by a majority of those voting thereon at the annual spring election for the year 1949, in accordance with the provisions of Act No. 14 of the Public Act of the State of Michigan for the year of 1926 (Extra Session), as amended." (Adopted by the Board of Supervisors at the January, 1949, Session thereof).

How Much Are These Books Worth to You?

They are the 15 key record books in the office of the Register of Deeds. One of them alone, it was recently estimated, would cost $2200 to replace. Yet they are stored in plain steel cabinets because of lack of vault room.

But to you, Mr. Taxpayer, they are worth a lot more than 15 times $2200.

Without these books, and several hundred others that are stored in unsafe old vaults, the title of your home, your estate records, your tax records — all could be questioned. You might easily have to go to court to protect your rights if these books were lost.

It is to end this danger to your pocketbook that the county needs a new county building.

At the April 4 election you will vote on a proposition for a sinking fund for the eventual construction of such a building. All this fund will do is make it legal for the county to start saving money for such a badly needed building.

This Sinking Fund Means NO NEW TAXES—It Will SAVE YOU MONEY

Good Baby Chicks Pay Most Profit

Those who feel that "baby chick bargains" pay off even though more of them die when young are probably very wrong. At least figures gained by Howard C. Zindel, Michigan State college poultry specialist, shows a definite relation between baby chick mortality and laying flock mortality.

Poultry flock owners that lost 10 percent of their chicks up to 24 weeks of age had 7 percent of their hens die off after pullets were placed in the laying house. On the other hand, flock owners with 20 percent or more mortality in baby chicks up to time hens are put into the laying house suffered a 28 percent loss after hens started laying.

"There's a direct relation to the health of baby chicks and the health of the laying flocks these same chicks make-up. That's why it's so important to buy good healthy chicks and keep down the loss with good management," the poultry specialist emphasized.

He reminded, too, that early chicks mean early laying pullets and that eggs produced before Nov. normally bring the highest prices.

Leadership School
Lesson for March 20, 1949

IT TAKES more than a call of God to be a Christian leader. It takes study, it takes work. The call is necessary, of course, but it is not all. Jesus set the church an example here as always. He called his Twelve; but he was not so foolish as to think that just because he had called them they were all ready to go out and take the lead. Jesus put them through what may be called the first Leadership Training School in the history of the Christian church.

Who Was Enrolled?

THE TWELVE Apostles were the training class. Not all Jesus' disciples were equal to it; perhaps some of them actually did not have the time. But these Twelve had already been set off from the others, not because they were better men, but in order to do more direct service in Christ's name. There was nothing formal about Jesus' training school.

It met wherever he was at the time—in a house, or by the roadside, or on a hill-top. There were no set hours, no textbooks, credits or diplomas.

Jesus kept it going to the very end, for even after the Resurrection, as Luke tells us (in Acts 1) he was still teaching his Twelve.

What Did They Study?

THERE WAS no printed circular, no bulletin, no prospectus or catalogue. All the "courses" amounted to just one thing: learning to do what Jesus was doing. To this day, that is the aim of all Christian training. Mark and Luke mention at least four things Jesus' training-school students learned from him: preaching, healing the sick, feeding the hungry, and praying. It would not be quite true to say that part of what they learned was spiritual and part practical, for there is nothing more practical than praying as Jesus taught it, and Jesus never ministered to people's physical needs without touching their spirits too.

Many a person now in some hospital for the insane need not have gone there if he had had the help that a well-trained minister can give.

Ministers today are not taught how to perform miracles like the feeding of the 5,000; but knowing that people's physical well-being has a great deal to do with their spiritual welfare, the alert young Christian minister of today will be keenly interested in Christian social action.

How Did They Learn?

THE TWELVE learned by doing. It is the only way you learn anything of a practical nature. Memorizing a textbook, memorizing rules, is not learning. You have learned how to do a thing only when you can do it. Of course you have to see it done, first. A boy on the farm learns to be a farmer by watching his father and helping him, more than from school courses in agriculture, useful as they are. There is nothing to take the place of apprenticeship under one who knows. So Jesus' Twelve watched him, listened to him, helped him, before they were trusted on their own.

Will It Still Work?

THE METHODS Jesus taught are just as effective today as they ever were. Not all churches nowadays follow his line to the letter; in fact, most churches do not. But the basic principles which Jesus drilled into his first traveling representatives are still good. One is faith.

Missionaries in the 20th Century are required to take a great deal more equipment with them to their fields than one pair of shoes, one cane and an empty purse. Yet who can deny that any missionary of any church in China or in Korea today, must live by faith from day to day?

Another of Jesus' principles was direct contact. People are not won to Christ chiefly by sermons from pulpits, but by in-the-home contacts. Ministers know this, missionaries know it; Sunday school teachers ought to know it too. Getting acquainted with your boys and girls at their homes, and being a friend to them there, is what will give your Sunday teaching its greatest force and success.

MICHIGAN PUBLIC SERVICE CO.
A Tax-Paying Citizen Wherever We Serve

A possible end to the steady increase in Michigan sales tax collections may be indicated by a recent report from the revenue department. For the first time since the end of the war a slump has been noted. Feb. collections on Jan. business show a 1.4 per cent drop from the corresponding period a year ago. Cigarette tax collections, however, are up 3 per cent.

A proposal to give cities the right to levy excise taxes is again before the Senate. Introduced by Senators Bates and Schuch, the bill would permit cities to levy taxes up to 20 per cent of their assessed valuations. There would be an amendment to require a vote of the people before a tax could be levied. Bates says that he wants to give cities a new source of revenue "so that they won't have to come begging to the legislature for handouts." Opponents contend that cities could levy excise taxes under present laws simply by amending their charters.

In two and a half weeks the spring election will be held. Although there was much talk in the legislature, it was finally decided not to submit any proposals for amending the constitution. The people will choose a superintendent of public instruction, state highway commissioner, two supreme court justices, two regents of the University of Michigan, two members of the board of agr'l and a member of the state board of education plus various county, township and school board officials. The election is considered important by Republicans and Democrats because both the superintendent of public instruction and the highway commissioner automatically become members of the Administrative Board that helps run the state when the legislature is not in session.

Local governments may not get the public notice given the state and nation when their taxes go up, but collectively they were no sluggards last year. The State Board of Assessors reports that county, municipal, school and other local Michigan taxes rose 15.78 per cent over 1947. Levies totaled $286.2 million or $39 million over the previous year. Average tax rate was $29.15 per $1,000 property valuation, an increase of 6.48 per cent.

The Hoover Commission (technically known as the Commission on Organization of the Executive Branch of the Government) says that reorganization of federal agr'l practices could save the country as much as $82 million. One suggestion is that the Agr'l Department take greater advantage of "the established and effective State organizations" to avoid duplication of national and State effort at local levels.

In another report, the Hoover Commission suggested Uncle Sam's record keeping system be modernized. They found, for example, that federal records at present occupy 18,500,000 cubic feet of space — the equivalent of six Pentagon buildings. Citing another example of federal waste, the Commission points out that fully half of the three million purchase orders issued every year average less than $10 while the cost of processing a purchasing transaction is greatly in excess of $10.

In Howell they have a new and pleasant twist on enforcing their over-time parking laws. Instead of giving guilty motorists tickets, the policeman puts another nickel in the meter and leaves a note asking the driver to send a dime to the Howell police department. The ten cents covers the nickel, three-cent postage stamp and two cents worth of envelope and printing.

Oakland County Citizens League conducted an interesting poll of its members. Most significant discovery was that 97 per cent would favor the appointment of a Michigan study group similar to the Hoover Commission to help the state find its way out of present financial and administrative difficulties. Other results were that 82 per cent believe the state should cut state services to live within its income, 33 per cent favor a gas tax increase and 84.6 per cent believe that no new taxes are necessary.

One of the arguments being used against Gov. Williams' proposal to levy a four per cent corporate income tax is that it will drive Michigan industry out of the state. The Department of Economic Development is now preparing a study which may have an important bearing on this question. Data furnished by power companies is being used to determine why industries have come to the state and left it since 1939.

PRUNING DEMONSTRATIONS SCHEDULED

A series of Tree Pruning Demonstrations have been scheduled for Antrim County by Walter G. Kirkpatrick, County Agr'l Agent.

The schedule calls for the first demonstration to be held on Thursday, March 24, 10:00 a. m. at Ivan Hubbell's orchard on US 31, South of Elk Rapids. That afternoon the second demonstration will be held at 2:00 p. m. at the John Boals orchard, three miles North of Kewadin. The following Monday, March 28 another demonstration will be held at the orchards of Andrews and Blakely, just east of Alden beginning at 10:00 a. m. In the afternoon the second demonstration will be held at the orchards of Francis Nemecek and Chas. Stankin in Jordan Twp. at 2:00 p. m. that afternoon.

That evening a Cherry Growers meeting, particularly around the towns of Ellsworth, Central Lake and East Jordan, will be held at the High School in East Jordan beginning at 8:00 p. m. Charlevoix County Growers are also being invited to this meeting.

The following day, March 29, another Pruning Demonstration will be held at 10:00 a. m. at the orchard of Home Waring, 1 1/2 miles north of Kewadin and in the afternoon at the orchard of Alfred Hickin on the West side of Torch Lake and toward the South end of Milton Twp.

Mr. Carl Hemstreet, District Horticultural Agent, will be present to conduct the demonstrations. All orchardists are urged to attend one of these demonstrations that is most convenient in location and time to him.

FEWER JOBS:

For White Collars

There are many fewer "white collar" job openings than a year ago in most U. S. cities, but high grade personnel is still in demand. The volume of job-seekers, particularly men, is up all the way from ten per cent to as much as 300 per cent, but a heavy majority of the applicants are below-standard material and there is little market for them.

This is the tenor of reports from 106 private employment agencies in 42 principal cities from coast to coast, surveyed by the family economics bureau of Northwestern National Life Insurance company.

THE "WEEDING OUT" process is now on in full swing, agency executives report, as employers prune down working forces to eliminate the lazy, the inefficient, the chronic absentees and the chronically tardy "who don't realize that the wartime gravy-train has tumbled to a stop and the era of competition is back."

The biggest drop has occurred in jobs for untrained and junior office help, particularly male, the survey finds. But there is still a nationwide demand for salesmen and sales promotion personnel, and, in most cities, for accountants and other technically trained men.

MOST AGENCIES report that salaries are the same or slightly better than last year for experienced or trained personnel, but that employment requirements are stiffer. Employers interview more candidates per job, and check their qualifications much more thoroughly.

The great majority of employers dealt with are uncertain as to the future, agencies report, but optimists slightly outnumber pessimists. Most employers feel that pre-war competition is here again, and with it the immediate necessity of trimming costs and sharpening efficiency at every possible corner. The prevailing attitude is that good business can be had by means of increased efforts. If pending legislation does not turn out too unfavorably, many concerns are reported as marking time on their future programs until they can see how the new tax program and labor law shape up.

Answers Critics

Former Gov. Mon C. Wallgren, Washington, nominated by President Truman to head the national security resources board, denies critics' charges at committee hearing. He was accused of being "soft toward communism." He branded the charges "ridiculous and silly."

WAR TALK:

Little Ease-up

There was little ease-up in the talk of possible war.

War rumors were still flying, the latest reporting that the Russians had strengthened their garrisons along the Soviet-Norwegian border. A "well-informed" Finnish source was credited with the report.

The informant said the Russian troops had come from the Murmansk area. While not estimating the number involved, he said the troop movements had been observed and apparently were in connection with the stand taken by Norway on the north Atlantic defense treaty.

THE INFORMANT said there were no indications of similar troop movements along the Finnish border.

Norway and Russia now have a short common frontier in the far north. The frontier was established when the Petsamo region of Finland was ceded to the Soviet union under terms of the Russo-Finnish peace treaty.

The Soviet union recently proposed to Norway that both nations sign a non-aggression pact. Norway has made it clear she will not enter into such a treaty. Instead, Norway appeared disposed to cast its fortunes with countries in the proposed north Atlantic treaty—The United States, Canada, Britain, France, the Netherlands, Luxembourg and Belgium.

SLOWDOWN:

Banned By Court

The supreme court has upheld a Wisconsin ban on the slowdown as a union tactic in a dispute with management.

By a 5-4 vote, it sustained a state law which prohibits any concerted efforts by workers to interfere with production except by going on strike.

The specific action involved was a series of unannounced work stoppages.
