FARM WOMEN'S WEEK

Farm women from all over the state of Michigan will gather at the campus at Michigan State College from July 18-22. ### GUERNSEY COW GAVE 100 LBS. OF BUTTERFAT

A Guernsey cow owned by Archie Murphy of East Jordan produced during the month of June 99.7 lbs. of butterfat. She gave 1467 lbs. of milk, which tested 6.8% fat. Mr. Murphy also owned the high herd of cows which produced on the average, including dry cows, 47.5 lbs. of butterfat per cow for the month of June.

Art Nicely & Sons of Boyne City owned the Holstein cow that was second in production with 71.9 lbs. of butterfat. Their herd was also second with an average of 44.3 lbs. of butterfat per cow during the month of June.

Several farmers joined the Antrim-Charlevoix Dairy Herd Improvement Ass'n this past month. They are: Fred Alm, East Jordan; Carl Conant, Central Lake; Bob Straw, Charlevoix. The cost for belonging to this ass'n is very small compared to the benefits that can be realized by having a monthly test on all the cows.

Home of the Brave Now Playing at Center Stage

This week Center Stage '49 is again bringing one of the outstanding plays of recent years to the local public. When Arthur Laurents wrote "Home of the Brave", his idea was to give the people "back home" a picture of what the recent war meant to our boys who were in the Pacific areas. Laurents spent three years there and "Home of the Brave" is not fiction, but rather, the results of his own observations while on duty there.

Home of the Brave is not a play which sends everyone home in smiles but it does present a forceful challenge to every thinking American.

The set for the play is in three sections, the hospital, the jungle and the major's office.

Center stage is presenting the original version of the play, instead of the one which was adopted for the motion picture of the same title.

Next week, Center Stage returns to comedy with the perennial favorite "My Sister, Eileen."

Chain-of-Lakes Regatta-Marathon

TO BE RUN AT BELLAIRE JULY 23-24

Spectators and racers both will get a break at this year's National Chain-of-Lakes Marathon and Regatta to be held in local waters July 23-24.

The start and finish for both the Midget Marathon and the regulation Chain-of-Lakes Marathon will be at the same point. The Midget Marathon will start at the village park Central Lake and finish there, and the Marathon proper will begin at Miley's Lodge on Lake Bellaire and finish there after an 84-mile run over Chain-of-Lakes waters. Last year spectators had to go to Elk Rapids to see the finish.

Although the racers will find the course longer than last year by about 20 miles, they will also be partially relieved of the danger of immediate elimination in the treacherous Grass River between Lake Bellaire and Clam Lake. The Bellaire Boat Club has pulled out deadheads and stumps and marked the river more clearly.

Prize money has been upped, too, as follows: Midget Marathon: 1st—$60, 2nd—$40, 3rd—$30, 4th—$20, 5th—$10. (Three classes — prize scheduled for each class.)

Chain-of-Lakes Marathon: 1st—$125, 2nd—$75, 3rd—$65, 4th—$45, 5th—$25. (Three classes—prize schedule for each class.)

Class A Hydroplanes: 1st—$30, 2nd—$25, 3rd—$15, 4th—$10, 5th—$5. (Three heats—prize schedule per heat.)

Open Class Outboards — Unlimited Racing Class. Same prizes per heat (3 heats) as Class A Hydroplanes.

Lightning Class Sailboat Race — Cup Trophy.

Entries for the races are being received by Scotty Bedell, commodore of the event, Bellaire, and Dick Redfern, secretary, Bellaire.

Saturday, July 23, the Midget Marathon begins at Central Lake at 9:00 a. m. At 2:30 p. m. sailboat races will be held on Lake Bellaire. At 9:00 p. m. a Regatta Ball is scheduled at Fisherman's Paradise, Lake Bellaire.

Sunday's races include the Marathon at 9:00 a. m. from Miley's Lodge, Lake Bellaire; Class A Hydroplane races at 2:30 p. m. in Lake Bellaire, and open class outboard races in Lake Bellaire at 2:50 p. m.

Folks going by Cedar Rest via the water route will see the 18 foot speed boat at anchor. Mr. DeMarse and Mr. Wetzel of Dayton are the builders of this fine boat. Now don't rush folks, they are not taking orders—yet. It sure is a fine boat and took plenty of hard work and hours of their time.

Mr. and Mrs. John Schmidt of Chicago are spending their two weeks vacation at Cedar Rest again this year and are thinking of coming back in September for some of our good bass fishing. They will be visiting friends in the North.

Again in the North at Cedar Rest for relaxation are Mr. and Mrs. Watson Spoelstra of Detroit and their two children. Mr. Spoelstra is with the Detroit News featuring football and television. It will be recalled Mr. and Mrs. Spoelstra were ardent boosters of our Center Stage. We hope to see them here again and again. With the Spoelstra's is Mrs. Murphy also of Detroit.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Miller of Huntington, W. Va., are with us at Cedar Rest for another week of fishing and relaxing. Both Mr. and Mrs. Miller have caught 19-inch bass with a mess of smaller ones also some fine blue gills and perch. They are going home praising the fine town of East Jordan and its people. They are leaving a tentative reservation for next year.

Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Casper of Detroit are with the crowd at Cedar Rest with their son, Raymond, Jr. Mr. Casper is employed at the Apex Broach Co. and is a nephew of Wm. Schroeder of Cedar Rest and East Jordan.

Attend Annual Meet of Rural Letter Carriers Association

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Davis attended the 47th Annual Convention of the Michigan Rural Letter Carriers Association and the 24th Annual meeting of the Ladies Auxiliary at Marquette, July 12-13-14. All meetings for the men were held at the Louis G. Kaufman auditorium.

Among the officers, Mr. Davis was State Chaplain. During the Tuesday morning session Mrs. Davis, State President of the Ladies Auxiliary was introduced and presided at all of the sessions which were held in the First Methodist Church.

At the election of officers Mr. Davis was elected State Treasurer of the M. R. L. C. A. and Mrs. Davis was elected president of the Ladies Auxiliary for the next year.

Glenn D. Kittler, representative of the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis, speaking at the afternoon meeting, Tuesday, of the M. R. L. C. A., told of progress that is being made in research for poliomyelitis. He quoted Dr. Harry M. Weaver, director of research for the Infantile Paralysis foundation, as saying that the "cure for polio is in the foreseeable future." All that is needed now, Kittler said, is for the National Foundation to continue to receive funds for its important program of research.

At the afternoon meeting of the 24th annual convention of the Ladies Auxiliary of the M. R. L. C. A., Kittler presented Mrs. Davis, auxiliary president, with a check for $1,500 to pay the doctor and hospital bills of a fifteen-year-old Charlevoix girl who was hospitalized about three months in Florida this year after contracting polio there. Although the girl was in Florida when she contracted polio, Kittler explained that the county of which the child is a resident assumes the responsibility of the bill.

Mrs. Davis is also Charlevoix County chairman of the polio organization.

Extended Area Telephone Service

EAST JORDAN TO HAVE TOLL-FREE CALLS IN ABOUT TWO MONTHS

Extended area telephone service between East Jordan and two of its neighboring communities will be inaugurated within two months, C. L. Johnson, manager for the Michigan Bell Telephone Company, announced today.

At that time, East Jordan customers will be able to make unlimited, toll-free calls to Boyne City, and Charlevoix. Customers in these two cities may, at the same time also, call East Jordan as often, and talk as long as they wish without paying toll charges.

Until then, however, customers making such inter-city calls will be charged the regular toll rates, Johnson said.

The manager hailed the new extended-area plan as a far-reaching development, pointing out that, "at a single price the user gets a packaged service that permits him to use his telephone to the maximum advantage."

The new service will extend the calling area of customers here beyond the 563 telephones in the East Jordan exchange to include the 2,240 telephones in the combined exchanges of the other two cities as well.

The extended-area plan was proposed by Michigan Bell and approved by the State Public Service Commission last year.

When the service is introduced here, East Jordan's rates will move up to the permanent schedule authorized by the Commission, supplanting the temporary rates in effect since Oct. 16.

In addition to East Jordan, Boyne City customers will have Charlevoix, Petoskey, and Wallowan Lake included in its extended-area plan, and Charlevoix will have Boyne City and Petoskey.

Biggie Munn talks To East Jordan Rotary Club

Coach "Biggie" Munn attended the regular Tuesday noon meeting of the East Jordan Rotary Club and entertained the club members and twelve summer visitors with an informal talk on his work as head football coach at Michigan State College. "Duffy" Dougherty, the State line coach also was present and joined his boss in making the program one of the club's best.

Coach Munn paid tribute to East Jordan's High School Coach Dan Devine, (a native of Minnesota, as is Munn), and said that he was very much impressed by the fine work Coach Devine was doing with our young athletes. He also quoted Sportswriters Alderton and England from the Lansing State Journal as saying "they had never seen a team from a school comparable in size who had as much fight, and at the same time were true sportsmen throughout."

Other highlights of Coach Munn's talk were — State's 9,000 mile trip to the U. of Hawaii last fall and he having to tell his squad of 34 not to drink at hotel water fountains because pineapple juice came out instead — incidentally State won the game by a lopsided score—the 30 million dollar building program just completed at State, a large share of which will be self liquidating. A fine tribute to Pres. John Hannah who, Munn said "was the best college president in the U. S. A. and always had the welfare of the student at heart." State's admission to the big ten with the football schedule starting in 1953 and all other sports in 1950. State finishing 4th offensively in the nation in 1948 . . . his use of all players on the bench in 1948 in six games. State will have a real team this fall and with any sort of a break might take both Notre Dame and Michigan—at least Munn guarantees those teams will know they have been in a ball game. The Carey Bros. from Charlevoix are fine young men and have an excellent chance to become outstanding athletes at State. And, the East Jordan area is a wonderful place to spend a vacation.

Just because somebody's harping all the time doesn't make him an angel.

Right With God

Lesson for July 24, 1949

"GET RIGHT with God" is an expression which has been sometimes used by people. It is most important thing you can do. Think what it means to be wrong with God! That means to be out of harmony with his will, going "across" the grain of reality, as the old Greeks used to say. To be wrong with God means to be a rebel against reality, to have the power of the universe working against you, and so to be headed for sure destruction. Wrong with God, you cannot win. Right with God, you cannot lose. To be right with God means to be in line with the purpose that runs through all things; it means in the simple language of the Bible, to live as a child of God.

Dr. Foreman

Mule or Man?
THERE are two ways in which a man can come into line, so to speak, with God. One is by being whipped into it, and the other is by a free act of will. The poet of the 32nd Psalm begs his readers not to be like mules or colts (Ps. 32:9). These animals can be broken and controlled by their masters. But they do not understand what is going on, and if left to themselves they would never serve. They have to be caught, harnessed and driven. But God does not want to treat human beings like that. Getting right with God is not a business of getting into harness, being beaten into walking on the right road. That is not God's way. He pleads with us through his inspired poet: Be not as mules—be men!

Facing Up to Yourself
THE short good Bible word for being wrong with God is Sin. The very first step toward being right with God is to see yourself as you are. No one ever went to a doctor till he at least suspected he was sick. No one ever went to school of his own accord who thought he knew everything. And no one will come to God who thinks he is as good as he needs to be. When life goes hard with us, when everything about our life seems twisted and rotten, we make all sorts of excuses for ourselves, we lay the blame on our parents or our friends of the social and economic system in which we live (doubtless all these have a share in creating our troubles), but we hate to look at ourselves in the mirror of truth.

This comes first: recognizing our own wrongness, not just weakness but wrongness. When we reach the point where we can say with the Psalmist, "Create in me a clean heart, O God, and renew a right spirit within me," then we are on the right road.

"Hide Thy Face"
THERE are two things we never hear about in the Bible. One is that God never forgave anyone who did not repent, and the other is that he refused to forgive any one who did repent. But repentance is not merely regretting that a wrong was done; still less regretting being caught. Repentance, the kind the Bible describes (as in these Psalms for example), means a complete change of attitude, it means coming over on God's side and seeing sin the way he sees it, seeing life the way he sees it.

God's forgiveness is not of the grudging, remembering, reminding kind. But condoning and forgiving are still a world apart. Condoning means saying in effect, It is all right, it makes no difference, you can go on sinning for all I care. Some human "forgiveness" may be like that, but not God's. His forgiveness is based on real repentance, and the aim of it is to save the sinner from his sin.

Plenteous in Mercy
THE Psalmists saw clearly what kind of God we have. He is not like the holder of a mortgage waiting till the first time some payment is deferred gives him a chance to pounce down and evict his tenant. We are not criminals against whom God is a prosecuting attorney, trying to pile up evidence against us. "If thou shouldest mark iniquities, who shall stand?" We are children, lost and wandering children, rebellious and disobedient children, but still children; and God holds open the door of mercy.

Homemakers' Corner

by Home Economics Specialists Michigan State College

If your cooking problem is finding recipes for two people or just thinking of new ways of fixing basic foods these suggestions from Pearl Jackson will give your menus some added zip.

Miss Jackson, who has worked with planning meals for the women's dormitories at Michigan State College for some time, first suggests some possibilities for a simple vanilla pudding recipe.

With a double recipe you can make four different desserts. A pineapple pie to serve guests, too, can be made by using 2 1/2 cups of the pudding with 1 cup drained crushed pineapple. Use 1/2 cup to make a Boston cream pie on another day.

For a third dessert mix 3 tablespoons cream or milk with three-fourths cup of the pudding and add either sliced bananas or orange sections. Top with plain or toasted coconut. Use 1/4 cup of cream filling blended with 2 tablespoons cream to make a sauce for a dessert of gelatin cubes or whipped gelatin.

A recipe for plain yellow cake offers a basis for a variety of cup cakes. A recipe which yields 2 layers will make 18 to 20 cup cakes or one layer and 8 cup cakes. For chocolate cakes use 1/2 cup batter plus 1/2 sq. melted chocolate and one-sixteenth teaspoon soda.

For other variations add 2 tablespoons chopped and drained maraschino cherries to 6 tablespoons batter or add 2 tablespoons chopped nuts to 6 tablespoons batter.

Or try pouring 1/2 cup of the batter in custard cups with 1 tablespoon crushed pineapple, 1 teaspoon brown sugar and 1/2 teaspoon butter in the bottom of the cups.

WEEKLY NEWS ANALYSIS

New Taft-Hartley Battle Looms; Solons Ridicule Recession Idea; Dictator Feared in Defense Plan

(EDITOR'S NOTE: When opinions are expressed in these columns, they are those of Western Newspaper Union's news analysts and not necessarily of this newspaper.)

TAFT-HARTLEY:

Another Try
The administration hadn't given up, despite a humiliating setback in the senate by Taft-Hartley law supporters. It was reported that President Truman's congressional aides were planning another try at repealing the measure, but had reached no decision.

THIS CAME to light after House Speaker Sam Rayburn concluded a conference with the President. The decision on a new repealer effort was to await further conferences with labor committee members in both houses.

While the persistence of the administration might be commendable, the wisdom in any further effort toward a Taft-Hartley repealer was doubtful. A majority of top leaders had conceded there was little hope of getting the bill changed at this session of congress, and all, including administration leaders, were willing to make the question an issue in the 1950 congressional elections.

THE RESULT of the vote on changing the Taft-Hartley labor law was confusing to the average observer of the political scene. If labor had played as important a part as it was conceded in the election of President Truman—and with congressional elections next year—how could so many senators have found the courage to fly into the face of what might seem certain defeat?

On the other hand, if labor's role in politics is as negligible as others claim, why was the administration pressing so hard for the Taft-Hartley repealer. One thing appeared certain: There were many congressmen sufficiently unimpressed with labor's political importance that they didn't mind going contrary to labor's wishes on the Taft-Hartley issue.

RECESSION:

Ho, Ho, Ho!

With unemployment figures standing at the highest peak in 11 years, and many nationwide organizations and national leaders casting about for a bulwark against economic hazards, congressional leaders were laughing at the idea the nation might be edging into a depression.

THEY had just conferred with President Truman and upon emerging from the conference ridiculed the notion that all might not be as rosy as possible with the nation's economic picture.

If the lawmakers were out on a limb, they were way out, for House Speaker Rayburn and the senate Democratic leader, Scott Lucas, minced no words in expressing their optimism.

"WITH 58 million people employed in industry and 30 million farmers with money to pay for whatever they need, I'll be—if I, see how you can call it a recession," Rayburn declared.

Said Lucas: "If it is, it's the most prosperous one we've ever experienced."

MEANWHILE, it was said President Truman was preparing a special economic message for delivery to congress. It was expected to carry recommendations for dealing with declining prices and the unemployment situation.

Out of all this came repetition of the additional-taxes proposal. Asked about that, Rayburn said it had yet to be determined. He did not make it clear whether he meant President Truman is reconsidering his plea for four billion dollars in additional taxes a year, or whether the matter is still up in the air in congress.

NEW HOMES:

More Cash

Buyers planning to finance homes through FHA-insured mortgages may have to make larger down payments from now on.

THE federal housing administration had cautioned its underwriters to consider declining construction costs when appraising houses for insured loans.

The result, the agency said, would be lower mortgages on many new homes. If the builder fails to cut his selling price in line with lower costs, the down payment will be higher.

THE decline in building costs and materials have been noted since late last year, the underwriters were told. Most materials are plentiful, it was said, and production rates of workers in many sections have improved.

MUNICIPAL INCOME

Property Tax Declines as Revenue Source

American cities were facing an unpleasant fact—general property taxation as a source of revenue was proving inadequate to meet municipal needs.

The International City Managers' association reported the finding after a survey of municipal-revenue sources. Data was gathered from census returns and from reporting members.

Newlyweds.

DEFENSE:

Dictator Feared

In nearly all discussions concerning unification of the nation's armed services, one thing stood out—many congressmen feared the possibility of a "military dictator" if framers of a unification bill weren't careful.

THIS feeling was put into words by Georgia's Representative Vinson who proposed several amendments to the pending bill, declaring that he wanted to make sure no military dictator ever arises in the United States. Vinson, a Democrat, is chairman of the house armed services committee.

The amendments he proposed would take the armed forces out from beyond the recently enacted government reorganization law, and put them beyond a shuffling by President Truman; put a civilian chairman over the joint chiefs of staff, a body which includes the highest officers of the army, navy and air force, and fix the membership of the national security council by law, requiring that other members be subject to approval by the senate.

THESE AMENDMENTS were proposed to a unification bill which already has passed the senate. The measure is one which would increase the direct authority of the secretary of defense over the armed forces.

Louis Johnson, who holds that post, has told the house committee he needs that authority to make the 1947 unification act work. He pledged to save over a billion dollars a year in operation of the military services if the bill were passed, and a civilian manager put in charge.

INTELLECT:

Women's Best?

If two Indiana university professors are to be believed, then the male of the species must face an unpleasant fact—namely, that girls (or women) can reason better than boys (or men).

THE professorial gentlemen claimed, and cited figures for proof, that the female is the superior of the male in the reasoning department, and this despite ten million jokes, books, philosophical discourses and general experience to the contrary.

The professors say unequivocally that given a set of circumstances, the lassies can come up with more logical answers than boys can do. These gentlemen are Dr. William H. Fox and Prof. Nicholas A. Fattu of the research division of Indiana university's school of education.

They made the tests in two high schools, one in a city of 11,000 in north central Indiana, and the other in a consolidated rural school near Indianapolis.

TO USE the professors' own words in the report: "Scores on the interpretation of date test, seeking to establish their relationship to measures of achievement, personality and interest, found no differentiation . . . but there was a clear cut advantage for girls in both schools in ability to reason, to see relationships, to make comparisons and to suspend judgment until pertinent facts are collected."

To which many a male will counter: Too bad they seem to lose those faculties when they grow up.

CORN:

Reaching Up

" . . . And the corn is as high as an elephant's eye . . ."

Those lines from a hit tune from the musical "Oklahoma!" give an indication of the jubilation in the corn country when the stalks are high, and more than a hint of the crop's importance.

THE federal government also is acutely conscious of the importance of the corn crop to the nation's economy—so when it was reported that this year's corn crop was reaching for the skies, there was general rejoicing.

It is traditional with the men who grow corn that if the stalks are "knee high by the Fourth of July" an excellent crop is in prospect. But this year, if that adage were true the abundance of the crop would be amazing. For by July Fourth, the corn stood not just "knee high," but almost shoulder high. From all sections of the major corn belt—extending from Ohio westward to Nebraska—the word was the same: the corn crop was off to an excellent start.

GRAIN experts considered it possible that last year's fabulous crop of three billion, 650 million bushels might be topped by the 1949 crop. Last year's crop had much to do with cracking the postwar agricultural price inflation and is believed by many to have played a key part in keeping Thomas E. Dewey out of the White House.

While prospects were considered splendid, the cautious were knocking on wood for two reasons. These were that Iowa and Illinois both have extensive corn-borer infestation, and subsoil moisture was deficient in some areas, making the crop more dependent than usual on good rains in July and August.

TOKYO ROSE:

Sitting Pretty

Whatever had been her effect in bringing death to American GIs in the South Pacific, there was to be no death penalty for Mrs. Iva D'Aquino—known to the world as Tokyo Rose.

SHE was on trial in San Francisco on a charge of treason because the government of the United States contends she broadcasted to the Japanese in the "hope to demoralize and discourage allied military men and to impair the ability of the United States to wage war against its enemies."

In a manner of speaking, Tokyo Rose was sitting pretty. The government prosecutors said they would not ask for the death penalty, so all the woman faced was imprisonment and fine or possibly both.

A newspaper story of her arraignment said she wore a "tailored gray mixed plaid suit with gilded buttons. Her freshly-shampooed hair was topped with a gold beret. She sat demurely at her attorney's elbow as if she were his secretary."

ALL throughout the war there were mixed claims about her influence on GI morale. Many service men declared they "got a kick out of her broadcasts—chiefly for laughs," while others blamed her for widespread demoralization among the Allied personnel.

In view of the Judy Coplon conviction on a charge of treason in connection with the Russian government, things might go hard with Tokyo Rose in the length-of-term department; but with the specter of death removed as punishment for a crime for which death might well have been expected, the blow couldn't be too severe.

Heave-Ho!

Julian Wilson, Cleveland newspaper photographer, is almost in the news as often as he photographs it. Here he is getting the old heave-ho from the Cleveland ball park after dispute with umpires Art Passarella and Eddie Rommel about how far he should venture onto the field.

NEW PARTY:

Target: Poverty

Like an item from the past was an announcement from Columbus, Ohio, that the Townsend clubs had decided to establish a new political party in the United States. Not too long ago the nation's press was full of stories of the Townsend movement—a drive by Dr. Francis E. Townsend and his followers to obtain a nice pension for everyone over 60 years of age. It drew many followers and was a political factor

HARD-WORKING WIRES—Helping to bring telephone service to more farm families is the application of "carrier" equipment to rural telephone lines. This special equipment, used for years on Long Distance lines, enables several conversations to travel along the same pair of wires at the same time and without interfering with each other. Recent developments indicate that, under suitable conditions, extra rural circuits also can be provided in this manner.

RADIO BY TELEPHONE—Radio networks are really networks of special telephone circuits linking groups of radio stations. A program originating in one station is sent out by telephone wires to other stations. From there it is broadcast to you by radio. Thus the telephone system helps make possible one of today's most important sources of news, information and entertainment on the farm.

ONE LITTLE CALL—The telephone rings. It's your tractor dealer calling to say that axle won't be ready today after all, and a needless trip to town is saved. Almost every call saves you time and trouble, helps you get so much more done—order supplies, make appointments, or talk to a neighbor. For the small price you pay for telephone service, you get a lot of value.

Our $13,500,000 postwar rural construction program means more and better rural telephone service.

Food Poisoning In Picnic Baskets

HEALTH DEPARTMENT WARNS PUBLIC TO BE CAREFUL

Outbreaks of food poisoning are traced each year to Michigan picnic baskets, the Michigan Department of Health warned today. Three C's — Carefulness of selection and preparation; Cleanliness of person, kitchen utensils and ingredients; and Coldness of ingredients through storage, stages of preparation and until eaten — may save you and your family from food poisoning, the Department said.

Don't get the mistaken ideas that food, once cooked, will remain safe for hours; that pre-cooked or cured meat will stay safe without refrigeration; that spoiled food always tastes or smells bad, it added.

These are the foods which require special care: All pre-cooked and cooked meats, poultry, fish and eggs, salad dressings and cream-filled pastries. Still others requiring care are: gelatin preparations, baked beans, gravies and puddings.

These foods must be kept cold— 50 degrees or below from the time they are prepared until they are eaten. They cannot be kept safely at room temperature, or in the ordinary picnic basket.

Food poisoning is caused by the growth in food of germs (staphylococci) usually found in the nose and throat of people with bad colds, and in pimples, boils, carbuncles and infected fingers.

These germs may reach food from the air, from sore or dirty hands, unclean towels, dishes, utensils, sandwich and meat boards and meat grinders or from flies, mice and roaches.

In warm weather, these germs multiply and produce poison so fast that food kept even an hour without proper refrigeration may be dangerous, even though it is refrigerated later. Usually heating up such food is not sufficient to destroy the bacteria and the poison they produce.

Food poisoning usually takes effect within one to six hours after contaminated food is eaten. Vomiting and diarrhea occur. Not all people eating contaminated food become ill but food poisoning can be fatal.

The ingredients of the picnic lunch especially, should be kept clean and cold during preparation, should be refrigerated until transformed to an insulated container or packed in ice for transportation. There are insulated containers on the market and putting potato salad, baked beans and sandwich fillings in clean, closed jars and then packing them in a box of cracked ice, thoroughly insulated with newspaper wrappings, is an inexpensive recommended procedure. Keep the refrigerated picnic foods covered and in the shade until eaten.

Mrs. Stuart Ballow and daughter, Janet, of Flint are visiting the former's uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Sloan. Mr. Ballow spent the week end with his family.

Mr. and Mrs. E. Kopkau and two sons were Sunday guests of the former's sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Leo Weise, at the cottage on Walloon Lake.

Louis Cihak of Buffalo, N. Y., is here for a visit with his sons, Marvin and Louis, and sister, Mrs. Roy Hulbert, as well as renewing former acquaintances.

RECIPE OF THE WEEK

by Mary Lee Taylor

Coconut Icebox Pie
Broadcast: July 23, 1949

16 large graham crackers
1/4 cup soft butter or margarine
1/4 cup sugar plus 2 tablespoons cornstarch
1/4 teaspoon salt
1 cup Pet Milk
1 cup boiling water
3 eggs, separated
1 teaspoon vanilla
1/2 cup shredded coconut

Grease deep 9-in. pie pan. Roll crackers into crumbs. Mix butter into crumbs and 1/4 cup sugar. Press mixture firmly on bottom and sides of pan. Bake in moderately hot oven (400° F.), 10 min.; cool. Reduce oven to slow (325° F.). While crust bakes, mix 1/4 cup sugar with cornstarch and salt. Stir in mixture of milk and boiling water. KLONDIKE PARAGON AVERY

Local Farmers are Improving Dairy Herds

Many farmers in the locality are improving their dairy herds through superior breeding received from the Boyne City Artificial Breeding Ass'n and the Antrim-Charlevoix Artificial Breeding Ass'n. One of the outstanding bulls used by members of these associations is the Guernsey bull named Klondike Paragon Avery. This bull is a proven bull with a number of daughters making 9085 lbs of milk with 4.5% test and 413 lbs of fat. This bull is ten years old and was originally bred in North Carolina before coming to Michigan. Some of the local farmers who now have calves from this excellent bull are: Ralph Klooster, Carl Hawkins, Clayton Healey, Kenneth Leckrone, Carl Stevens, and A. V. Hurd. Many other farmers in Charlevoix and Antrim counties also have calves or are expecting to have calves from this proven sire.

Anyone interested in securing more information relative to improved breeding through these proven sires should contact either Ed Rebman, County Agr'l Agent; Charles King, Inseminator Manager at Boyne City; Bud Best and Dick Wieland, Inseminator Managers at Ellsworth. Information can also be secured from the board of directors of the two associations. The board of directors of the Boyne City association is composed of the following men: Clayton Healey, Carl Stevens, Harry Smith, Peter Winnick, Bob Reidel, Cadet DeNise and A. V. Hurd.

The board of directors of the Antrim association is composed of the following men: John Wieland, Clarence VanderArk, Dan Triplett, Clyde Warner, Paul Doctor, Victor Crandall, and Harold Thomas.

Cherry picking in full swing. Pickers not making as much per day as other years because of lower price per lug.

I was reading reports on deer hunting and if those who are not in favor of doe season had all their hard summers work eaten up by deer and had to spend hundreds of dollars to replace the damage done they would certainly be in favor of it. I for one like to see deer but don't like to work all summer for nothing.

The Star 4-H Club will have a Cake Walk at the Star School House, Saturday, July 23 at 8:30 p. m.

4-H Club Food Prep. and Canning met at the Hayden home and Calf Club at Palimeters.

Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Robertson of Greenville were week end guests of the former's brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Robertson.

Mr. and Mrs. Gale Richardson of Lake City spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Gaunt, Sr.

Mrs. Ralph Gaunt and seven children of Bridgeport arrived at the Gaunt farm Sunday evening to help harvest their cherry crop and do some fishing.

Edwin Phillips arrived at his home, The Rustan, for a week of visiting with his family and fishing.

SUMMER SCHOOL

Annual summer school for the State's county agricultural agent will held at Camp Shaw in the Upper Peninsula at Chatham from July 18 through 22 with agent Ed Rebman in attendance.

Each year the agents, assistant agents, and male extension specialists from Michigan State College meet for sessions dealing with current agricultural developments.

Plans this year call for special attention to the farm price squeeze and how agricultural workers can aid farmers in meeting it's challenge. Agr'l policy will also be considered.

The Chatham conference will be held at Camp Shaw adjoining the Upper Peninsula Experiment Station.

Headline speakers at the session will be P. V. Keper of the Federal Extension Service, U. S. Department of Agriculture, and T. K. Cowden, recently appointed head of the Michigan State College agricultural economics department.

C. V. Ballard, head of the Cooperative Extension Service for Michigan will open the conference on Monday, July 18, at 7 p. m.

HARVEST WHEAT AT PROPER TIME

All farmers should be very anxious to harvest their wheat at the proper moisture content. For safe storage the moisture content should be 14 percent or less. It reaches this point a week to ten days after the grain can scarcely be dented with the thumb nail.

The dry salt test will help, to a certain point in testing for moisture. Take a wax cardboard container such as an ice cream container, a half pint size or smaller is suitable. Thrash out enough grain to half fill the container. Place the grain in the container and add one-third teaspoon full of dry table salt. Cover the container and shake for a couple of minutes. Empty the grain and salt on to a smooth, dry surface. If the salt particles are separate the grain is near the right moisture content for storage. If the salt particles are clumped together there is still too much moisture in the grain.

This grain should be stored in an insect free grainery to prevent damage. A good method is to treat your grain bins with DDT at least two weeks before any grain is put in. Information on treating these grain bins can be had from your County Extension Office.

Ed Rebman, County Agr'l Agent.
