Rainbow City Day And Regatta

DATE SET FOR SUNDAY, AUG. 14

Plans for East Jordan's big mid-season "Rainbow City Day" are now well matured and an outstanding program of special events promises to make this one of the north's noteworthy sporting dates.

Co-Chairmen Hollis Drew and Al Sinclair announce that the schedule will include annual Charlevoix-East Jordan Sailing Classic, the annual Jordan River Canoe Derby, the Rainbow City Outboard Sweepstakes, a Rainbow Trout Big Fish Contest and the Dawn Patrol with approximately a hundred visiting planes and airmen participating.

The Rainbow City Outboard Sweepstakes will bring to East Jordan a new event featuring some of the best known racers and boats of the great lakes section. In addition to stock boat and motor classes, a special hydroplane division will add interest and thrills that will be new to this area. Early reports indicate that most of the top performers in the recent Chain-of-Lakes Regatta will be present to defend their honors and compete for the prizes. Among the local drivers who will provide stiff competition for the field will be Glen Malpass who turned in an outstanding performance at Bellaire, winning first place in the Class A Marathon and second position in the Midget Class Marathon.

Rainbow City Day will be held on Sunday, August 14th, and complete details with the various time schedules will appear in later issues of the Herald. In the meantime local contestants are urged to get their entries in to the committee as early as possible.

Eve Porter Hostess at Golf Course

Nine women from East Jordan attended the Ladies Day luncheon at Ye Nynne Olde Hilles Golf Club last Thursday. Eve Porter was hostess for the day. Among those present were Mrs. Irene Reuling, Lydia Acker, Esther Porter, Bea Sinclair, Faye Frank and Leva Cole. Some of the guests played golf and others played bridge.

Nan Boylan is hostess this week.

Workshop In Education at Charlevoix Starts Aug. 15th

Michigan Central College of Education is offering a workshop in Education this August in Charlevoix.

The courses will probably be Education 471-d, giving two hours residence credit, plus four hours of Education 352 or 471, giving a total of six hours residence credit.

The workshop begins August 15, at 10:00 a. m. at the Charlevoix High School, with the classes meeting five days a week for two weeks, leaving five additional meetings to be held sometime between September and November.

The instructors for the class will be Miss Ella O'Neil, elementary critic teacher, and Miss Gladys Griffith, elementary consultant.

Vocational Rehabilitation of Assistance To Two East Jordan Girls

Ruby Gibbard, who graduated the past spring from East Jordan High School, has plans for the future and is going to study home economics at Michigan State College at East Lansing this fall. Last January Ruby was referred to Vocational Rehabilitation to see if some plan could be worked out. It was found that she had a high I. Q. and passed the entrance requirements to enter this institution. Miss Gibbard's attendance at MSC has been made possible through the cooperation of the Vocational Rehabilitation Office at Traverse City.

Laura Alm, a handicapped girl 17 years old, had cancer of the bone in her right knee, during the summer of 1948 the leg was amputated to safeguard her general health. It was necessary that Laura be fitted with an artificial leg which made it necessary for her to learn how to walk again with the assistance of her new appliance.

This spring she graduated with high grades from East Jordan High School, and she has as her vocational objective to be an occupational therapist. She will study towards this goal at Western Michigan College of Education at Kalamazoo in September 1949. Laura's attendance in College has been made possible through the cooperation of the Office of Vocational Rehabilitation in Traverse City.

Square Dancing at Tourist Park This Thursday

There will be square dancing in the log cabin at the East Jordan Tourist Park, Thursday evening this week. An orchestra will play from 8 to 9 o'clock for beginners and dancing for all from 9 to 11 o'clock. This square dancing is sponsored by the Recreation committee of the Community Chest. A hat will be passed to help with expenses.

Had Everything Illegal

Possession of 11 undersized trout was only one of several convictions and other state law violations uncovered in an inspection of a fisherman's car, conservation officer Ernest Derwin of Manistique reports.

Two violators had .22 caliber rifles neither of which were broken down or incased and a loaded pistol in the car. They did not have hunting or fishing licenses, drivers' licenses or permits, nor was there a license plate on the car. Further investigation revealed one of the violators was wanted in Wisconsin on a grand larceny charge.

Past Noble Grand Club Jassmine Rebekah Lodge Install Officers For Year

President — Dorothy Sommerville
Vice-Pres. — Irene Kiser
Rec. Sec. — Irene Wright
Treas. — Helen Bartholomew
Chaplain — Anna Keats
Ass't. Sec. — Alberta Nowland
Past Pres. — Irene Wright
Flower Committee — A. Keats and Alice Sheppard.
Card Committee — Genevieve Stoum and Eleanor Scott.

The Club met with Irene Kiser on July 25. After the regular business, 12 members answered roll call which was a "sharade". Then we had an old fashioned Weiner roast with all the trimmings, on the shore of the dam. Everyone had a grand time.

Graduates From Little Traverse Hospital

Miss Kathleen Sweet, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Merbert Sweet, R. 3 received her nurse's certificate July 20th at graduation exercises held at Little Traverse Hospital, Petoskey.

Miss Sweet received her certificate along with six other women during graduation ceremonies.

The graduates are now eligible to care for chronic and convalescent patients requiring nursing services at home or in an institution; to work in health agencies or allied fields; or to work under the direction of a licensed physician or registered professional nurse.

Local Ladies Attend Homemakers Conference at Lansing

Mrs. Burl Braman, Mrs. Ole Hegerberg, Mrs. Hugh Whiteford, leaders of City Extension Club; Mrs. Hary Sloop, leader of the Live Wire Club and Mrs. Joe Clark, County Extension Chairman. Also Mrs. Oakley Saunders of Ironton, returned from the Homemakers Conference which was held at Michigan State College July 18-22.

The five day meeting attracted approximately 600 women from all over the state.

This conference was held to provide an opportunity for homemakers in Home Demonstration groups to pool their judgment and experience for the progressive improvement of the home and community life and promote extension projects of national and international importance.

Mrs. Clark, who attended the National conference at Tulsa, Oklahoma, gave an excellent report of the conference at the Wednesday afternoon session, which was followed by a panel discussion on World affairs, led by Professor Harrison of the Department of History and Political Science.

Other highlights of the sessions were Governor Williams, Dr. Howard McClusky of University of Michigan, Dr. Maxiam Lowenberg of Mayo Clinic, two evening concerts of music, also square dancing by the members on the campus ground in front of the band shell, under the stars. Led by Bob and Sue Copland, Recreational Instructors of MSC.

Each attendant enrolled in two classes, selecting their subjects which are taught by Professors of the College.

All leaders and Extension Club members of our county are eligible to attend these annual conferences.

Inflation makes us do without a lot of necessities so we can buy the luxuries we can't live without.

Clinic Was Well Attended

AUG. 26 ANOTHER IS TO BE HELD

Sixty-three children attended the pre-school and immunization Clinic sponsored by the Charlevoix County Health Department last week held at the Grade School building and the Latter Day Saint Church. It was very satisfying to have so many mothers bring their children to this clinic. The Health Department makes these clinics possible because they feel that every child should have the chance to grow up to be strong, healthy children.

Dr. Litzenger will hold a clinic in East Jordan the 3rd Tuesday of every month. Aug. 26th he will examine all boys who plan on participating in sports during the coming school year. Coach Devine will give out the time and place later.

Some were unable to bring their children into this pre-school clinic because the cherry picking and the canning factory had just started and because of this Dr. Litzenger will see any pre-school child that is brought into the clinic in August. If you are unable to bring your child to the clinic perhaps you have a relative, friend or older children that could bring him in. Please make a special effort to have your boy or girl examined before he enters school this fall. If he has not seen a dentist within the past six months he should go and have his teeth checked. The date of the August Clinic is the 26th. Remember this date, the time and place will be announced later.

Mrs. Robertson will be on her vacation from July 25th to August 15.

POULTRY GOOD BUY NOW FOR EATING OR FREEZING

One of the best buys at the moment these days is poultry which has the advantage of being adaptable to summer meals and cooking either indoors or out-of-doors.

Cook it in a variety of ways and serve it hot or cold — it will please your family suggests Roberta Hershhey, extension foods specialist at Michigan State College.

If you have a home freezer or locker storage you will want to consider freezing some broilers, roasters and fryers while they are plentiful. Only high quality birds should be used because storage does not improve quality.

Proper killing and bleeding are essential in obtaining the best possible appearance. Dry pick or "slack scald" (125 to 130 degrees Fahrenheit — bird immersed 20 to 60 seconds) the birds to remove the feathers. Remove pin feathers and singe to remove hair-like feathers.

Cool, if possible, overnight at 32 to 34 degrees. If chilling room is not available, draw immediately and rinse in water at room temperature to remove blood and wash in ice water.

Under most conditions of storage for home use the halving of the bird, or cutting up in pieces for frying, is more desirable since less space is required for storage. This simplifies the drawing procedure. Remove the head and neck, oil sac and shanks. Cut from the neck to the rear along the backbone. Remove entrails. Broil-

Marriages

Reed — Storing

A quite but pretty wedding took place at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Reed, July 22, at 7 o'clock in the evening, when their daughter, Gloria Joyce, became the bride of Nelson Storing, son of Mrs. Nelson Storing, Sr., and the late Mr. Storing, of Gaylord.

The double ring ceremony was read by Elder Ole Olson. The bride wore an aqua crepe dress with white accessories and a corsage of white carnations. The bride was attended by her sister, Mrs. Ivan Russell, who wore a rose rayon gabardine dress with white accessories and a corsage of pink carnations. The groom was attended by his brother, George Storing.

Mrs. Elmer Reed, mother of the bride, wore a gray crepe dress with black accessories and a corsage of pink gladioli. Mrs. Nelson Storing, mother of the groom, wore a black and gray crepe dress with black accessories and a corsage of pink gladioli.

A reception was held following the ceremony. Wedding cake and ice cream was served to thirty guests. The new Mr. and Mrs. Storing left for a short honeymoon through Southern Michigan.

Out of town guests were Mrs. Nelson Storing, Sr., and daughters, Marian, Jean and Rosetta. Mr. and Mrs. George Storing and children. Mr. and Mrs. George Hoskins, all of Gaylord. Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Reed, Jr., and son of Charlevoix. Mr. and Mrs. Ivan Russell and children of Kalamazoo. Mr. Willis Rockwood of Lansing. Mr. Lewis Brandenburg of Detroit.

HOW'S THE WEATHER?

IT ISN'T THE HEAT IT'S THE HUMIDITY

Wednesday's high of 92° doesn't compare with high temperatures of other sections — but the high humidity convinced you that it was really hot.

The forecast is for slightly cooler for the week end.

The storm of Wednesday evening gave up .62 inches of rain, which was needed — except by the circus which was showing in town.

Company 674 Plan Reunion at Grayling

At a meeting a group of former members of Company 674 Camp Hartwick Pines Civilian Conservation Corps decided to try and have a reunion of all the former members.

A board of directors was set up with Harley Russell acting chairman. The date for the reunion was set for Sept. 24 and 25, Saturday and Sunday.

Arrangements are going forward to have a dance Saturday, Sept. 24th and a picnic dinner and get together at the Hartwick Pines Park for Sunday, the 25th.

It is hoped that former members will contact either Joe Lennert or Larry Galehouse in Grayling to get more information on the reunion.

Marcie Pinney Goes to C. M. College For Summer Months

Mrs. Betty Robertson, R. N., referred Marcia Pinney to Vocational Rehabilitation in the hopes that help would be available for her. Her Doctor recommended that she receive specialized training under Wilbur E. Moore, at Central Michigan College of Education, Mt. Pleasant. With the cooperation of Vocational Rehabilitation it has been possible for her to attend Central Michigan College from the 28th of June to the 4th of August. She will return to East Jordan High School this fall.

Benefit Matinee Given By Center Stage This Friday Afternoon

In addition to the regular performances this week at Center Stage, the area's legitimate summer theatre at East Jordan, there will be a special benefit matinee on Friday, July 29 at 3 p. m., to help add to the building fund of the Charlevoix Community Hospital.

The fund raising benefit performance will be attended by State Highway Commissioner Charles M. Zeigler and members of his official party. Zeigler will be in the area for the dedication of the new bridge at Charlevoix and has expressed his desire to attend the summer theatre. He will be introduced to the audience and the cast by Barney Milstein, President of the Center Stage Ass'n. The Ass'n is composed of a group interested in seeing the professional New York company return to the area each summer.

Dean Davenport, Chairman of the Hospital Fund Raising Committee has announced that Mrs. Betty Robertson, East Jordan's Community Nurse, is General Chairman of arrangements for the benefit matinee. Mrs. Theodore Foster is Charlevoix Chairman and Mrs. Arne Hegerberg, Boyne City Chairman. They are being assisted by other citizens of their respective communities in advance ticket sales for the benefit, which is expected to not only help raise funds for the worthy cause of the Hospital Fund, but also to bring the theatre to many people who have not seen Broadway plays at Center Stage as yet.

The production at the theatre this week is the sparkling comedy "My Sister, Eileen" and the company is presenting the original New York version from which the movie was made. Leading roles are played by Angela Castle, Marilyn Lief and David Coby. Others in the cast include David Stanley, Cyvia Gilbert, Harold Saunders, Pat Ahern, Bernice Loren, Sheila Keddy, David Young and Dolph Attianese, of the professional company. Audiences are also seeing some local talent in the play. Bud Bugai, Brock Peacock and Larry Huckle of East Jordan appear in comedy roles, and their performances are adding much to the general hilarity of "My Sister, Eileen."

Annual Meeting of Creamery

JORDAN VALLEY CO-OP CREAMERY TO MEET MONDAY, AUGUST 1ST

An interesting program featuring an outstanding speaker and consideration of several changes in operating by-laws of the firm, will be the outstanding features of the 18th annual meeting of Jordan Valley Co-operative Creamery in the East Jordan High School auditorium at 8:00 p. m. on Monday, August 1.

The fine speaker who has been engaged is Dr. Tennyson Guyer of Findlay, Ohio, considered one of the finest in the mid-west. He is noted for his rapid-fire oratory and humorous stories, which keep his audiences in almost constant laughter.

The by-law changes of the organization will be explained by Manager Percy Penfold, President G. P. VanderArk, who will preside and by Arthur J. Howland of Michigan State College, who assisted with information of the business in 1931.

Two directors will be selected for three-year terms ending June 30, 1949 and explain it in detail. The report will show the firm churned 1,710,662 pounds of butter during the year.

Other speakers on the evening program will include E. J. Ryger of South Bend, Ind., manager of Midwest Producers' Creameries, Inc., of which Jordan Valley is a member, and C. E. Stone of Lansing, manager of the American Dairy Ass'n of Michigan.

Refreshments will be served during the evening.

Golf Club Offers Instruction To Boys and Girls

Ye Nynne Olde Hilles Golf Club, which originally was the Pine Lake Golf Club, offers free instruction and play on Monday afternoons at one o'clock, at the golf course on the Perry road between Boyne City and Ironton.

This offer is for any boy or girl still in school. It is planned to have a Junior Golf Tournament at the end of the season between East Jordan and Boyne City. This is an unusual opportunity for our young people to learn to play golf.

Boyne City has had a good turnout but, so far, not many East Jordan pupils have taken advantage of this offer. If anyone wishes to learn to play, phone or see Dan Devine. Arrangements will be made for transportation.

Cedar Rest Resort

Mrs. Robert Campbell and Mrs. Joe Murphy of East Jordan were visitors at Cedar Rest, calling on their friends the Spoelstra's.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Williams and Mr. and Mrs. Bob Poulin of Toledo are again at Cedar Rest, taking in the cool breezes of the north and the smell of Cedar and Pine. They will be visiting their friends, Roland and Minnie DesJardins, in East Jordan.

Visiting Mr. and Mrs. John Schmidt of Chicago are John Schmidt of Petoskey and his sister and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Westbrook, of Grant, Mich.

The Dayton crowd staying over at Cedar Rest are Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Weyrich and not mentioned in last week's paper is Mrs. Edna Weyrich, mother of Chas Weyrich, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Wetzel, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. DeMarse, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Frazer, Mr. Bernard Dowd and arriving at Cedar Rest from Dayton to join their friends are Mr. and Mrs. John O. Stutz and baby, Mr. and Mrs. Gale E. Koogler and children, Patty, Lou, Edward and Linda and Mr. and Mrs. John F. Noble.

Mr. and Mrs. Watson Spoelstra and Mr. and Mrs. Kimberly of Detroit are on their second week at Cedar Rest. They have been doing the nice eating places in and around East Jordan and the golf courses, having fun on the beach with wienie roasts and steak suppers. Due to a slight mishap on the beach, Kim was not able to play golf Sunday. Dr. Savory taped his ankle. There will no dancing for awhile, but he can still sing "Down by the Old Mill Stream."

Mr. and Mrs. Casper of Detroit are also staying over for their second week enjoying fishing and relaxation. Visitors at Cedar Rest were Mr. and Mrs. Harold E. Kersey of Dayton, Ohio, who are staying at the Rustan Resort. Mrs. Kersey is the sister of Mrs. Chas. Weyrich also of Dayton.

WEEKLY NEWS ANALYSIS

Atlantic Pact Called War-Breeder; Truman Decries Economic 'Gloom'; Committee Slashes Funds for ERP

(EDITOR'S NOTE: When opinions are expressed in these columns, they are those of Western Newspaper Union's news analysis and not necessarily of this newspaper.)

TOKYO ROSE TRIAL FIGURES . . . These figures gave the trial of Tokyo Rose, accused of treason, a new angle when Mark L. Streeter (left) declared that Shigetugu Tsunetsuki (shown at right) was guilty of war atrocities. Tsunetsuki, a prosecution witness, assertedly commanded a prison camp on the outskirts of Tokyo where Streeter was a prisoner.

PEACE PACT:

Avenue to War?
As he did in the Taft-Hartley repeal fight, Sen. Robert Taft (R., Ohio) would lead the opposition to senate ratification of the Atlantic pact. That is the treaty in which America joins its western allies in an agreement that an attack on any signatory is an attack upon all—and that a signatory nation may take any reprisal steps it deems fit.

IN HIS SPEECH to the senate, Taft declared the pact was "inextricably linked" to the rearming of Europe, insisted this would lead to an armament race and pointed out that "armament races lead to war."

Thus did a highly effective senator most coherently raise the question of whether the pact really means peace or war. Taft was not without support in his conception of the pact's potentialities. Five senators jumped to their feet to applaud his remarks, and some 12 or 15 senators were applauding at the end.

This was construed by some observers as indicating the extent of the opposition.

Taft was not wholly against the pact, despite his ringing denunciation. He asserted that, even now, he would be willing to change his mind if a reservation could be incorporated into ratification making plain that the treaty did not bind America to furnish arms.

Said Taft: "There is no question that the arms program and the treaty were negotiated together. There is no question in my mind that foreign nations which signed the treaty regarded the providing of arms as an essential part of it . . . if we ratify the pact and fail to furnish the military aid, I believe we will at once be accused of repudiation, and the pact will be completely discredited."

ERP FUNDS:

Slash Voted
There appeared to be a change of sentiment regarding aid to Marshall plan countries. The senate appropriations committee had voted to slash 10 per cent from second-year funds asked for the activity.

The committee also tied up 50 million dollars of what was left in order to cut Spain in on the European recovery program should the administration see fit. The program would get something more than 3.75 billions. President Truman had asked approximately 4.20 billions. A committee member disclosed that one group within the membership had attempted to chop 19 per cent off the requested appropriation.

Chairman McKeller (D., Tenn.) estimated that the committee cut approximately 749 million dollars from President Truman's budget estimates for actual appropriations in foreign spending, which includes other programs besides the Marshall plan.

The sum voted for the Marshall plan would be spread over the 12 months ending June 30, 1950. This was nearly 210 million more than the house had voted—but the house bill would have permitted expenditure of the fund in 10½ months if necessary.

A committee aide explained to Washington newsmen that unless the loan is made to Spain, the withheld 50 million dollars could not be used for any other purpose.

RENT CONTROLS

Average 9,300 Units Being Freed Daily

According to recent dispatches out of Washington, rental dwellings have been coming off the control list at an average rate of 9,300 a day since the new rent law went into operation on April first.

Rent officials said, however, that few of the decontrol actions had affected any large metropolitan areas, and that some 14 million units still remained under the con-

Wrong Job?

You may be happy in your work and pleased with your occupational niche, but the fellow at the desk or machine next to you may not be.

It is the opinion of Robert C. Woellner, Chicago university professor, that at least half of all adults definitely are misplaced, or could have been better placed if modern vocational methods had been available during their formative years.

Woellner attributes much of the present social unrest, high divorce rate, and high incidence of mental illness in the United States to the many unfortunate occupational choices of its workers.

U.S. ECONOMY:

Truman Concedes

While there was some measure of contradiction in concept, President Truman, in his message to congress on the economic state of the nation had conceded that recession forces were alive.

However, in a neat bit of linguistic maneuvering, he declared the current situation one in which the national economy was in orderly retreat from a serious inflation. At the same time, however paradoxical the warning might seem, he declared that there could be no "greater economic folly" than an attempt to balance the federal budget in a "declining national economy."

He highlighted the contradiction by adding that such a move would only aggravate the recession forces against which his new policy was directed.

OF CHIEF INTEREST in his report was his abandonment of an earlier plan to demand four billion dollars in additional taxes. He lightly dismissed this former policy with the statement: "No major increase in taxes should be undertaken at this time." Instead, he proposed liberalization of allowances for past losses in computing income taxes and increasing estate and gift taxes.

The President's obvious reversal of policy was held to be little less pronounced than the findings of his council of economic advisors on whose report the President's message was based. They found that since January the forces threatening stability had become predominantly deflationary and that the weakening of markets had become general.

KRUG:

A Denial

Drew Pearson was in hot water again. Generally accused of partial responsibility in the suicidal death of former defense secretary James Forrestal, the newspaper and radio columnist had reported the U. S. interior secretary Krug was very ill with "athlete's heart."

In a letter to Pearson, Krug's physician, Dr. R. Layman Sexton, asserted Krug is completely well and able to do twice the work of the average person.

Wherever one stood on the propriety of Pearson's discussion of the health of top government officials, it would be remembered that several of his reports on the condition of Forrestal's health—originally denied by the navy—were later admitted.

REUTHER:

Still on Top

With red-thatched, fiery Walter Reuther still at the helm, the United Auto Workers union, numbering some million members, could be expected to hold firm in any demands made for wage increases or social benefits.

BRUSHING aside token opposition from UAW's left wing elements, Reuther was elected to a third term as UAW president by a top-heavy majority.

The voting which reelected Reuther was a new triumph for the right-wing forces in the union which catapulted him into office in 1946 and rewarded him with control of the other international offices and the board at the 1947 convention. His new term will expire in April, 1951.

UAW DELEGATES moved into the election of top officers after hearing Leon Keyserling, of President Truman's council of economic advisers, tell them that "as a general proposition the kind of wage policy which will help maintain full employment in this country, and which will maintain our economy on stable levels is one which adds to consumer purchasing power from year to year—because we have the capacity to produce more goods from year to year.

The auto workers union's big fight was with Ford motor company which, in opposing proposed wage rates, offered to peg wages at present levels for a given period, regardless of what cost-of-living developments brought about.

FORD contended the cost of living has gone down and there was no justification for pay raises, basing the argument on the UAW contract which called for pay hikes as the cost-of-living increased. Reuther opposed that line of reasoning, contending that the union's economists have proved, by a survey, that most industries can afford wage increases now.

MONOPOLY:

Clark Agitated

While President Truman was delighting business generally with his abandonment of any tax-increase proposals, U. S. Attorney General Tom Clark was agitated over the growth of "big" business and urging curbs on "concentration of economic power."

CLARK APPEARED very much disturbed by the situation and let go both barrels in his shots at big business as he testified in a congressional investigation into monopolistic practices.

He termed business monopoly an "economic blackjack" and urged that the federal government get busy doing something about it. He told a house judiciary subcommittee that most people were victims of three erroneous assumptions. He listed them as:

1. Assumption that competition continues to thrive as long as there are at least two or three or four in the field.

2. Assumption that the bigger the producer the better the quality of the goods and the cheaper the price to the public.

3. Assumption that companies become big because they deserve to be big—in other words, that they outdistance their competitors because they do a better job, render a greater service, or furnish better goods.

CLARK DECLARED he did not share any of these assumptions.

Continuing his testimony before the committee, he said:

"The fundamental issue is whether the economy of this country is to remain free and competitive, or whether it is to be subjected to private regimentation through monopoly control."

Under Fire

As an aftermath of the involved legal proceedings in the trial of Alger Hiss on a perjury charge growing out of spy investigations, Presiding Judge Samuel H. Kaufman, shown here, is under congressional fire. The senator was reported considering a probe of the conduct of the trial.

BIG STEEL:

Strike Pledged

There was trouble looming in big steel. CIO President Philip Murray had declared after fruitless government-called peace talks that a half-million steelworkers would be called out on strike at an early date.

After conferences with federal conciliation director Cyrus S. Ching, the CIO chieftain reported a "complete deadlock." The situation was critical.

"Bet you can't do this in your house!"

Mary: "Sit on the floor? Heavens no—why, Frank and I'd be swept away by the drafts! How did you ever get it so warm and cozy in here?"

Jane: "We had a Lennox Heating System installed! The Lennox man surveyed our house to find out which Lennox unit was best for our needs—and then he put it in and connected it up with Lennox controls."

Mary: "And presto—no more cold floors and drafts!"

Jane: "Yes—and no more temperature variations in our rooms. It's the grandest thing that ever happened to us!"

Mary: "Wait'll I tell Frank about this! We're going to see the Lennox man right away!"

From the Herald Files of Forty, Thirty and Twenty Years Ago
Compiled by Mrs. Ida Kinsey

JULY 17, 1909

Dr. F. C. Warne this week sold his physician's outfit, consisting of office furniture, instruments and library to Dr. Robert A. Risk of Pellston, where he has practiced for the past five years. He is a cousin of Dr. Rayercraft of Petoskey.

The residence of Mrs. Larsen on the State road was badly burned by fire Tuesday morning. Mrs. Larsen was sleeping in the house and the neighbors had some difficulty in awakening her. This was the first time the new water-works tank pressure and the new "Bowen's Addition" extension have been used in case of fire, and they proved adequate.

The East Jordan Lumber Co's Shingle Mill was struck by lightning during the storm early Thursday morning causing a fire alarm to be turned in. Prompt action made the loss small.

At a regular meeting of the Council the president appointed Henry Winters at City Engineer, to serve without pay except when service is rendered. Applications for cement walks were granted to C. C. Mack, Frank Phillips, Ed Price, Eugene Adams, B. E. Waterman and Robert Price. Moved and supported that president and clerk be authorized to draw an order for $133.00 in favor Mrs. Elizabeth Moore as settlement in full for claim for damages filed June 12, 1909.

Alvin Freeman was badly injured while making a coupling at the E. J. & S. round house Monday night. He was employed as hostler and two of the locomotives were being taken to the water tank. In the darkness he attempted to couple the locomotives and was caught between the two. His back and hips were badly crushed. Drs. Dicken and Sweet were summoned and the injured man was removed to his boarding place on State St. At present he is improving nicely.

JULY 18, 1919

Mr. and Mrs. Mortimer Orvis who have been visiting at the farm home of the former's sister, Mrs. Boyd Hipp, returned to Flint Tuesday.

Sgt. John Emmet, who has been visiting at the home of his sister, Mrs. Bert Gothro, left Monday for Detroit.

Lawrence and Ed LaLonde left Monday for Detroit where they have employment.

Mrs. H. Lamerson returned to Mancelona, Monday, after a visit at the home of her son, Vernon Richardson.

Miss Dorothy Severance returned home Wednesday from Petoskey hospital where she underwent an operation for appendicitis.

Mr. and Mrs. Donald Hott and daughter who have been visiting relatives here, returned to their home in Muskegon Thursday.

Miss Emma Nachazel is home this week from Detroit for a visit with her parents. Mr. and Mrs. Anthony Nachazel.

Mrs. G. A. Lisk and son, Paul, left Thursday for a visit with relatives at Rochester, Imjay City and other points.

Miss Hazel Kile and Mrs. Bernice Sanford are here from Muskegon for a visit with their mother, Mrs. A. Kile.

Mr. and Mrs. Jess Stanek went to Petoskey Monday. Mr. Stanek has employment there at a garage.

James Gidley, Will Kenny, Bert Gothro and Chas. McNamara were at Roger City, Wednesday.

The first annual meeting of the East Jordan Co-operative Ass'n was held at the Armory in this City last Saturday evening. Over two-hundred representative farmers and producers of this territory were in attendance and the spirit of cooperation and good will was a predominant feature of the evening. Officers of the ass'n made most gratifying reports of the year's work. At a subsequent meeting of the Directors, the following officers were elected: President, James E. Secord; Vice-President, Stephen Shepard; Sec'y-Treas., S. E. Rogers. At the meeting it was decided to increase the membership fee to $20. This to take effect on August 1st.

JULY 19, 1929

Consolidation presents great opportunity. Nine districts have signed petitions to vote on the question. Ass't Supt. of Public Instruction, B. J. Ford, endorses Consolidation. He said "The proposed consolidation unit of East Jordan and vicinity offers an unusual opportunity to the rural districts that are to be included in the proposal unit."

F. R. Bulow was appointed last Saturday by Judge Parm C. Gilbert of Traverse City, to fill the unexpired term of Geo. A. Roderick, former

How do you like the layout of your A&P store?

Planning a super market is like putting together a jigsaw puzzle. All departments—dairy, produce, meat, baked good, coffee, groceries—must be fitted together in a way that will assure you of convenient, efficient shopping.

We try to avoid narrow or cluttered aisles, dark corners, hard-to-reach shelves and jammed up check-out stands.

Are we succeeding in your A&P? Can you locate foods you want easily? Is there good light and ample room for comfortable shopping?

If not, please let us know. We will appreciate any suggestions you may have that will help make your A&P a better place to shop.

omical housing. Housing, is an item which offers an opportunity for money saving. The cost of housing a dairy cow has averaged about $10 per year in recent years. This includes repairs, depreciation, and an interest charge on the investment. The figure obtained from a study carried on the Detroit Milk Shed, is conservative, since very few barns have been built in recent years and repairs have been kept at a minimum. The inventory values of about $3,500 or slightly over $200 barns on the farm studied averaged invested per cow.

New barns are costing from $400 to $600 per animal for the conventional stanchion barn. Pen-type milking parlor barns are often being constructed for less through the use of new building techniques.

Some of the same new techniques which apply to the construction of pen-type barns can be adapted for stanchion barns. While a barn should be sturdy enough to stand weather and normal use farmers should investigate the opportunities of using different construction methods or materials when building new or remodeling old barns. Money saved will mean just that much less debt the cows must pay off.

BOWLING LESSON

Two coeds were at a bowling alley near the campus. "I never bowled before. Tell me what I'm supposed to do," said coed No. 1. "Just be careful not to knock all the pins down with the first ball," replied No. 2, "because then you get cheated out of the second throw."

Home on the Range
 Friend husband, reading the vacation folder aloud to his wife in the kitchen—The hotel overlooks a large range. "That's enough, dear," came the command from the kitchen, "I don't have to go away and pay money to see a range."

Spelling Technique
 "How do you spell 'imbecile'?" asked the teacher. "I-m-m-u-b-u-s-s-u-l," spelled Johnny. "The dictionary," corrected the teacher, "spells it 'i-m-be-ci-le.'" "Yeah," replied Johnny, "but you asked me how I spelled it."

Planned Education
 Said a friend to a school teacher: "I'm so glad you are planning to continue your education at the university this summer. Are you working for your M. S. degree." Replied the teacher: "Yes, officially for an M.S., and unofficially for a M.R.S."

ADMIRATION

"What did father say when you asked him for my hand?" "Oh," replied Augustus, "he—did his best to be pleasant. He said there was something about me that he really admired." "Did he say that?" "Yes; my impudence."

Right Line for Clothes

What kind of line is best for hanging up the wash? A stationary rust-proof wire gives excellent service. Wire line should be cleaned occasionally by wiping with a cloth dipped in kerosene; then it is wiped dry. A rope line should be stretched between hooks so it's easy to take down between washings. Wash it in the machine when soiled. Any line should be wiped with a clean damp cloth before using. For best results you want a line that's taut, easy to reach, and if possible, long enough to dry all clothes at the same time. About six feet is a good height for line used by a woman of average height.

Formal Address

IT WAS a formal banquet, and the hands of the clock crept round toward midnight as celebrity after celebrity sought to be entertaining. "Mr. Blank will now give us his address; which will, I am sure, be a pleasure for all of us," said the toastmaster. Mr. Blank rose, with his watch in his hand, put it up, and then said pointedly: "My address is 29 Clifton street, New York City. I wish you all a very hearty good-night!" And departed to catch his train.

Batter Up!
 It was a bright fall day, and Eddie was looking out the classroom window longingly. The geography teacher wanted to get his attention. "Eddie, where's Cleveland?" she asked. "Cleveland's in New York today," came the prompt answer, "and Bob Feller's pitching."

READY TO PLEASE

Bob handed in his composition with a long list of dots and dashes at the end. English Prof.—What is the meaning of these marks? Bob—They're punctuation marks, and you can put them in to suit yourself.

Daytime Visit
 An old southern planter was discussing the hereafter with one of his servants. "Sam," he said, "if you die first I want you to come back and tell me what it's like over there. If I die first I'll come back and tell you what it's like." "Dat suits me, massa," replied the old Negro, "but if you dies first, Ah wants you to promise dat you'll come back in de daytime."

BEE-FUDDLED

An irate visitor darted angrily up to the beekeeper and complained: "One of your bees stung me, and I want you to do something about it." The beekeeper answered soothingly: "Certainly, madam. Just show me which bee it was and I'll have it punished."

PRICE OF STEALING

Husband—If a man steals, no matter what, he will live to regret it. Wife (cooly)—You used to steal kisses from me before we were married. Husband—Well...?

Salt Talk

Two fishermen named Smith, living near each other, had met with misfortune, one having lost his wife, the other, his boat. A visitor called by mistake on the man who had lost his boat, thinking he was the widower. "Good morning, Mr. Smith," she said. "I'm sorry to hear of your loss." "Oh, it don't much matter. She wasn't up to much," Smith replied. "Dear me!" exclaimed the visitor. "Ay, she were a rickety old crock. I was always in danger of my life with her. Indeed, I offered her to my mate only last week, but he wouldn't have her. I've had my eye on another for some time past."

Egg-sperience
 Shipper—Those are rather small eggs, aren't they? Grocer—Give 'em a chance, lady—they were laid only yesterday.

It's Not for Him!

A MINISTER advertised for a handy man, so when on the next morning a neat young man rang the doorbell, he immediately started to interview the youth. "Can you fire the furnace and have breakfast on the table by 7 every morning?" asked the minister.

The young man thought he could. "Can you polish all the silver, wash the dishes and keep the house and grounds neat and tidy?" the minister continued. "Wait a minute, Reverend!" protested the young man. "I want to get married, sure. But, if it's going to be anything like that, you can count me out right now!"

List Custom Rates For Silo Filling

Custom work these days is concerned with a large amount of silo filling by field chopping equipment and stationary silo filling equipment. To find the most common charges for this work, B. R. Bookhout and R. W. Christian, Michigan State College agricultural economists, queried a group of Michigan farmers about prices charged.

The custom rates for filling silo with field chopping equipment were mostly on an hourly basis, varying with the amount of equipment furnished by the custom operator. When the field chopper and blower, one tractor and two wagons were furnished, the usual charge was $8 per hour. Addition of another tractor, wagon, and an extra man brought the usual charge to $10 per hour. Farmers furnishing trucks and drivers for hauling charged $10 to $12 per hour.

Some farmers with field choppers reported separate charges for the equipment used in the field and the equipment at the silo. Usual rates were $6.50 per hour for the field work and $1 to $2 per foot of silage depending on silo diameter.

Common rates for cutting corn with a binder with or without bundle loader was $3.50 per hour. With a bundle loader it was $5 per hour.

Custom rates for filling silo with stationary equipment was reported commonly as $4 per hour. On the basis of height of silage in the silo, farmers charged 75 cents per foot in 10 foot silos and $1 per foot for 12 or 14 foot silos.

GOOD PACKING MEANS MORE PLEASANT TRIP

If you're taking a trip this summer, you'll want to be sure your clothes are suitable and that they'll look good throughout the trip.

Florance Rann, extension clothing specialist at Michigan State College, says it's always wise to find out as much as possible about the place you are going. A travel agency, newspaper, or magazine will inform you about the temperature in various parts of the country.

The clothes you pack in the going away bag depend on your destination and the activities you will enjoy when you arrive. If you are to be on the go all the time with infrequent stops, reduce your laundering by taking knit rayon or quick drying nylon underthings that can be rinsed out and worn without ironing. To avoid musing a carefully packed bag when you undress at night on the train, it's wise to put all your necessary toilet articles, gown and robe, in a flat soft fabric case which can be made yourself. Place this at the top of your suitcase. They may also be carried in an overnight case.

If the bag must be opened frequently and you have one or two very special dresses that you wish to keep fresh and unwrinkled, follow this plan:

Fold them with care, packing tissue paper between the layers to keep them from wrinkling. They may be pinned so they won't slip. Place them in a heavy sheet of paper and pin it so it makes a neat package. This package can be put on top of the other clothes and laid aside when some garment is to be taken from the case. Air it an hour or so before it is needed and it will stay fresh and unsmudged.

Shipbuilder Hunts Petrified Remains of Noah's Ark in Turkey

ANNAPOLIS, MD.—Fred Avery, a model shipbuilder, is going to eastern Turkey to hunt for Noah's Ark. He wants to make a model of it.

Avery fashions ship models for the United States Naval academy here and is known unofficially as commander of the academy museum's "fleet." But building navy ships in miniature has begun to pall.

Avery wants to make an authentic model of the most famous ship of all—the one that Noah built.

Avery has his passport ready and plans to leave on an expedition which he says "has been planned, secretly for more than three years."

The explorers will head for Mt. Ararat, where the Ark is supposed to have come to rest after the Great Flood.

Avery says the backers of the expedition have "good reasons" to believe they have discovered the petrified remains of the Biblical ship atop the 16,915-foot mountain.

The adventurers hope to reach eastern Turkey where snow and ice cover Mt. Ararat most of the year.

Avery is reluctant to discuss the expedition except to say:

"There have been a number of reports that there is something up there. It could be Noah's Ark, preserved under the ice and snow all these years and suddenly exposed by an upheaval in the earth.

"Or for all I know, it could be a house on top of a mountain."

But if it is the famous ship, Avery hopes to be on hand to fashion the first authentic model of Noah's Ark.

Rabbits Lead Golfers Astray in Australia

SYDNEY, AUSTRALIA.—Out in Goondiwindi golfers are mad at the millions of rabbits in the district. It's not that they eat the greens, burrow in the fairways or steal the balls. They merely lead the caddies away from the course.

The trouble revolves around the high prices of rabbit carcasses and skins. Local caddies now go rabbiting. Schoolboys make up to $52 a week from rabbits in their spare time. Clever rabbiters are making three times that amount.

Goondiwindi is the center of a sheep raising district in southwestern Queensland.

Bank Needs President; Gets One Through Want Ad in Paper

HOUSTON, TEX.—The Texas bank which advertised for a president in the "help wanted" column has found its man.

Henry Franks Jr. will take over as president of the First State bank of Texas City. For 20 years Franks has been an employee of the South Texas Commercial National Bank of Houston.

"The girl who took my ad laughed," said Dee Walker, board chairman of the Texas City bank, "but the 50 replies I received proved she was wrong."

Walker said the ad brought replies from at least one junior executive of every Houston bank and from as far as Oklahoma and Missouri.

The ad read: "Wanted—Bank president. Opening for president of 2½-million-dollar bank, located within 50 miles of Houston in Texas, in city with population of 25,000."

City Dwellers Have Less Chance to See 'Real' Mule

AKRON, OHIO.—The chances that a city dweller will ever get to see a mule "in person" are rapidly diminishing.

B. F. Goodrich company reports that in 1921 one out of six urbanites could expect at some time during his lifetime to come across a "real" mule. But today, the firm said, only one out of 17 can look forward to the same experience.

The company based its findings on reports of "mule and human populations" and the travel habits of city people. More persons are driving out to the "country," it noted, but when they get there, they are more likely to see rubber-tired tractors than a mule. In fact, there are now less than one-half as many mules and horses as there were in 1921 and 11 times as many tractors.

Unusual Layout Eases House Shortage for Married Couple

LIMA, N. Y.—Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Nataline solved their housing problem by going underground.

Faced with high construction costs, the Natalines decided to build just the basement of their future home. Today, they are living in an attractive, well-designed basement which cost them less than $3,500.

The home consists of a large living room with brick fireplace, bedroom, kitchen, pantry, furnace room, bath and garage. Nataline solved the labor problem by doing most of the work himself.

In five weeks, the Natalines expect to build the main floor. The basement will be converted into a recreation room, a bar, a laundry and a fruit closet.

R. W. Allen Rites Held Friday, July 22nd

Robert W. Allen, 65, millionaire founder of the Allen-A Hosiery and Woolen Mills and a resident of Elm Point, Lake Charlevoix, for 10 years, died shortly after noon Wednesday, July 20th, in Little Traverse hospital.

Private funeral services were held Friday, July 22.

Mr. Allen was born in Kenosha, Wis., Oct. 8, 1883, the son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Chas. W. Allen. He is survived by his widow, Mrs. Augustine F. Allen.

Mr. Allen maintained a residence on Fifth Avenue in New York City and his own north of East Jordan on Lake Charlevoix. He also was the owner of the Birchwood Farms near Charlevoix.

He had maintained a year around home near East Jordan, the former John Porter cottage, for the last four or five years. He is said to have first come to this area before the last war when he docked his yacht, the Wanderer, at Charlevoix. He subsequently established his home near East Jordan and bought the Birchwood farm between Charlevoix and Petoskey. For several years he raised beef cattle but later sold out and maintained the farm along the lake shore as a game refuge.

Six Feet Under

TWO Englishmen were sitting in adjoining easy chairs in the cloistered quiet of their club. One looked up from his paper and murmured:

"I say, old man—terribly sorry to hear about your wife."

"Eh? What's that?" asked the other, looking up from his own copy of the paper.

"I said," explained the first, "I was sorry to read that they buried your wife yesterday."

"Yes, of course," said the other, preparing to return to his reading. Then he added as an afterthought: "Had to, you know. Dead."

Party Invitation

A young son came home with an invitation to a birthday party, to be given for the son of one of the town's leading families. Since it carried an R. S. V. P., his mother sent a note of acceptance immediately.

Sonny attended the party. Later mother asked him for the envelope in which the invitation had been mailed so she could paste it in his souvenir scrapbook for him.

"Oh, I didn't get any envelope I just traded a marble for the invitation!" Sonny nonchalantly replied.

Blockhead

Like many another celebrity, temperamental actor Richard Mansfield was no hero to his valet. One night, before going to the theater he rang for his servant. When the latter did not respond promptly to the call, the actor became irritated.

"Where is that blockhead of mine," he cried.

"Just where it always has been," said his valet, appearing in the doorway, "on your shoulders."

Farm Magic

Out of curiosity a farmer had grown a crop of flax, and had a tablecloth made out of the linen. Sometime later he bragged about it to a woman guest at dinner. "I grew this tablecloth myself."

"Did you really?" she exclaimed. "How did you manage it?" It was plain that she had no idea as to how tablecloths come into being. The farmer lowered his voice, mysteriously. "If you promise to keep the secret, I'll tell you."

The guest promised.

"Well," proceeded the farmer, "I planted a napkin."

BIG CITY LIFE

A farmer in the big city was accosted by a masked man, who said: "Hand over your money or I'll blow your brains out."

The farmer answered: "Blow away. You can live in this town without brains but not without money."

Pretty Please

The brave man who decided to build a house had a woe-begone expression on his face as he watched the inexperienced crew slowly working on the future dream house. He went over to the foreman, clutched him by the collar and pleaded: "When I hired you last week you told me how good you and your crew were. Please tell it to me all over again—I'm getting discouraged."

Hangin' Around

Molly and her boy friend, Billy, were sitting on the porch one night when Billy popped the question. When Molly refused, he said, "If you don't marry me, I'll hang myself in your front yard."

Susan, five, who had been listening, popped up very quickly, "You can't do that. You know Daddy doesn't like you hanging around."

How's business in Michigan?

Industrial employment is off 6 percent as a state average, according to the Michigan Unemployment Compensation Commission and the state employment service.

This figure was for July 1. The national average was 6.5 per cent. There are mid-July signs that the situation is improving somewhat.

At a capitol conference on Michigan economic trends, Gov. G. Mennen Williams reported that Muskegon was the top critical industrial center with unemployment running 23 per cent. Providence, Rhode Island, was first in the Nation as a distress city; Muskegon, a war boom town was second.

Mining operations are lagging in the Upper Peninsula with a result that the northern peninsula has a jobless rating of 18.5 per cent. All copper mines of Calumet & Hecla are closed. Jackson has reported 15 percent of its regularly employed workers to be idle; Port Huron, 13 percent; Benton Harbor, 11 percent, and Grand Rapids, 10 percent.

It is interesting to note that the state's total of employed citizens, despite the current deflation in industry, is pretty much the same today as it was one year ago. GI college students and high school graduates have entered the summer employment field, making up the difference.

How's the tourist business? Reflecting the general business downturn, tourist patronage is reported to be less than one year ago. The Upper Peninsula Development Bureau, sparked by enterprising George E. Bishop, reports that a spot check shows business at "some resorts" to be off as much as 20 to 30 per cent. There's always an exception, of course. Biency Park's aggressive promotion by Ed Drier has boomed patronage for a 48 percent increase during the first half of 1949. Reservations are 30 days' ahead of last year.

Merchants cannot complain unduly, either. Retail trade (corrected for prices) on a national scale has dipped only a trifling 1 percent below its 1948 peak. Sales are down only 4 percent otherwise.

The sag in consumer income was off only 2 percent in April. More people are buying Opportunity (government) E bonds.

Maurice Eveland, banking commissioner, reports that the 357 state banks are bulging with savings. Deposits are three times as large as they were six years ago. "Banks are 71 percent liquid," said Eveland.

Compared with pre-war conditions, Michigan's buying power today is tremendous. Business is awaiting the resourceful, enterprising businessman who can deliver what people want at prices they are willing to pay.

A tipping citizen can walk into any state liquor store and buy all the Scotch whiskey he can pay for. Wine sales are now 19 per cent of total volume, whereas in 1941 they were only 1 percent. Lower priced commodities are in demand. Mail order catalogs all reflect this economic change.

Governor Williams has indicated he is shaping up a program, perhaps along the line of President Truman's "Fair Deal," for the legislature to consider.

Public housing is expected to receive attention. New federal legislation calls for construction of 810,000 low-rent public housing units over the next six years. The government will pay subsidies . . . "contributions" to cover the difference between actual rents and rates on a cost basis. Farmers may get up to 33-year loans (4% maximum interest) to finance construction of buildings. Even non-supporting farms are eligible to get "contribution" up to $500 to cover minor repairs and improvements.

Senator Arthur H. Vanderburg, Michigan's senior statesman at Washington, is to be brought into closer relationship with the Republican party. That is one goal of Arthur E. Summerfield of Flint, newly appointed chairman of the party's "strategy committee". It is Summerfield's belief that Gov. Thos. E. Dewey might have been elected president if there had been agreement among party leaders on conduct of his campaign. A New York public relations firm is blamed for the Dewey pre-election strategy to avoid fighting issues and preach "national harmony" since Republican victory was "in the bag".

Sault Ste. Marie — Security fences are back in place at the St. Mary's fall canal.

At the close of World War II the army engineers removed the tall steel barriers. Troops left Fort Brady. The government announced it was abandoning the post established in 1823.

When Hitler's Nazis were threatening to invade England and then processed by Greenland toward this continent, American workers feverishly constructed landing fields near the Soo. Anti-aircraft troops moved freely on both sides of the American-Canadian international boundary.

In 1949, four years after V-J Day, Washington military officials changed their minds. The steel gate is back, ready for instant use. Tourists continue to inspect the locks freely as before. Thousands of visitors daily witness the passage of long ore boats in almost endless procession, day and night.

Fort Brady, recently abandoned, may be restored in 1950 to active status. The government has agreed to permit the state to use the barracks during 1949 as a state hospital. But in 1950 — well, that is another matter.

The Soo is verily a town built by canal locks.

One hundred years ago it was a village of only 500 souls, mostly French and Indians and their half-breed kin. In history this spot at the junction of Lake Superior and the St. Mary's river pre-dates the Revolutionary war by more than a century. The Jesuits built a mission here in 1668. Father Marquette conducted services in a small chapel surrounded by a log stockade fort.

In 1797 the British constructed a bateau canal and lock, with a nine-foot lift, on the Canadian side. American troops destroyed it in 1814. The British still maintained a fort on Drummond Island in 1815. Incidentally the ruins of this last British outpost on American soil may still be seen. The fort cemetery is nearby. The fort and cemetery are unmarked and forgotten.

As a notice that the Soo was an American frontier, army troops built Fort Brady in 1823. The reign of the British and French here then came to an end.

One hundred years ago the portage of goods around the St. Mary's river fall was the Soo's leading industry. In fact when the State of Michigan decided in 1889 to build a canal and lock the inhabitants were highly resentful. The canal threatened to end their livelihood, the carrying of freight around the falls.

The centennial of the Soo's first canal locks, now one of the leading tourist attractions of Michigan, is to be celebrated in 1955. The state legislature had recognized the event, and a bill is now before Congress to assure federal participation.

Every Michigan child is told in school how the Soo canal carries more freight traffic in a year than all other canals in the world. The great Panama canal is a piker by comparison, although equally vital to our security.

The military strategic importance of the Soo locks was doubly recognized by the United States government during World War II when a huge ore-loading railroad terminal was rushed to near completion at Escanaba. This project swallowed up many millions of war bond money. It reflected the jittery fears of Washington strategists as to what might happen if the Soo canal locks were bombed out of usefulness by raiding Germans.

Today, as midwest tourists again inspect the canal locks, they do so in the shadow of war-time security fences. Fort Brady will probably be reactivated before 1955 when the Centennial is held. This northernly Michigan city remains a key economic artery of our nation in peace as in war.

God Can Be Trusted

Lesson for July 31, 1949

EVEN if you do nothing else with this lesson, it will be a good thing to learn by heart some of the Psalms of Trust which have been selected for your study this week. They are far too rich to be treated in one column.

Who Can Trust in God?

(PSALM 34:16-22.) Not every one has a right to trust in God. Those who do not believe in him, do not love him, work against him, try to break down and corrupt those who do believe in him — these need expect nothing at his hand. But there are three classes of persons who are encouraged to put their trust in God. One is the "contrite," the repentant, those who sincerely wish to be cut free from their sins—these can surely trust in God for forgiveness. One who cannot trust God for forgiveness has no right to trust him for anything else. Then the "righteous," as the Psalmist calls them, have a right to trust in God.

Dr. Foreman

If that word means only the perfectly and altogether good people, it would leave all of us out. But in the light of the Bible as a whole, the righteous are those whose dominant desire is to love and serve God.

Their service is imperfect, their love is far from perfect, and no man is without sin. But if you can say with Peter, "Lord, thou knowest that I love thee," then you have a right to trust in God. Also the broken-hearted can safely trust in him. Whoever else may break your heart, God will not. He is the great Mender of hearts. For the little sorrows there may be lesser comforters; but the real heart-breakers only God can cure.

Why Trust God?

PSALM 37 gives one answer: The opposite of trust is worry, and worry never did any good at all. Worry eats into the mind, casts no light, gives no strength, solves no problems, worry makes any trouble worse. Then the writer of Psalm 30 gives another reason for trust: he had tried it. If trust in God were simply a doctrine of theology or a theory of preachers, not many people would take it seriously.

Trust is really passed on by a kind of contagion from heart to heart. If there are not more people who know what trust means, it is because those who have known have kept it too much to themselves.

It would be a wonderful stimulus to most churches to have a little "cell" of people who would really agree to trust God every day.

When to Trust in God

One of Dicken's famous characters used to make a great point of being cheerful under the most uncheerful circumstances. Anybody can be jolly when everything is lovely, he said. There's no credit in not worrying when there's nothing to worry about. Although the writers of the Bible, one and all, trusted in God, not one had an easy life. Read Psalm 46, for example; it gives a picture of a world much like ours of today, shaken to its foundations, torn by wars, a desolate, discouraged world. If it made sense to trust only under bright skies, religion would have perished long ago.

For What Shall We Trust God?

NO ONE PSALM puts the whole truth in one nutshell. If you read Psalm 91, for example, by itself, it would seem to prove that if you trust in God you will never die a violent death, nor an early one; but too many saints (and indeed our Lord himself) had died early and violent deaths, for us to take Psalm 91 in that way. Trusting in God does not mean he will give us long life. It means he will give us strength to match our days.

It does mean he will give us all we need. It does not mean we shall be shielded from troubles. It does mean he will save us from troubles greater than we can bear. It does not mean that in this life we shall be wholly free from burdens or from pain; it does mean we shall have strength in our souls (Ps. 138:3).

Which is the greater thing—to be a weakling wearied by a straw's weight, or to be one of God's athletes, able to bear the worst the world can pile on?

LOOKING BACKWARD

From the Herald Files of Forty, Thirty and Twenty Years Ago

Compiled by Mrs. Ida Kinsey

JULY 10, 1909

The new 200,000 gallon water tank recently constructed on the hill north of town has been put into commission and is giving good pressure. The new trunkline from the pumping station to the tank is practically completed and workmen are now busy with the West Side Extension.

Special meeting of Council July 1st. Present: Trustees D. E. Goodman, M. A. Lenieux, H. Curkendall, H. Price, A. E. Cross; Clerk C. Hudson. Moved and supported that the water committee be instructed to purchase 20 water meters of various sizes and to install same in hotels, factories and other places where people are found to be wasting water. Carried. Moved and supported that the Village Attorney be instructed to draft an ordinance regulating the speed of automobiles at six miles an hour on the business streets, and ten miles per hour on residence streets. Carried. Moved and supported that the Village erect two drinking fountains and one watering trough. Carried.

Mrs. M. Freiberg, with daughter, Miss Martha, leaves today for an extended visit with friends at Big Rapids, Battle Creek and South Haven.

Dr. F. P. Ramsey was at Delta, Ohio, last week, called there by the serious illness of his father.

Prof. S. P. Stewart, who has been visiting his mother, Mrs. Jas. Howey, left Thursday on his return trip to the Philippine Islands. It will require six weeks traveling to reach his school in the city of Cebu.

A recent copy of the Seattle (Wash.) Intelligencer contained one of Rev. Lamports poems. Mr. Lamport can now say that his poems have been published from ocean to ocean and gulf to lakes.

Harry Simmons is laid up with blood poisoning in his foot, result of an injury received while in swimming. His position as baker at Pepin's has been filled by John Mills of Kalamazoo.

Tailor A. W. Freiberg leaves today for Chicago where he looks up the fall styles and takes a short post graduate course in the Croonborg Sartorial Academy.

Mrs. J. A. Caulder is here from Moosejaw, Sask., N. W. T., guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Harrington.

Att'y D. H. Fitch has installed his law office over Phillip's Barber Shop and has added a phone.

JULY 11, 1919

East Jordan's new Public Library was informally opened to the public Friday afternoon and evening of this week. The building was erected at a cost of about $10,000. It is of brick and tile and both exterior and interior are modern in every respect. Clark and Rogers were the building contractors, and the Reid-Graff Plumbing Co. contractors for plumbing, heating and wiring. During the past month the Librarian, Mrs. O. E. Sunstedt, and Mrs. Alice Wing, of the State Library Commission, have been busy placing the books in their order, classifying them, and putting the library on a working basis. The citizens of East Jordan may well feel proud of their new Public Library.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Graff received a telegram Tuesday announcing the arrival of their son, Guy, at Hoboken from overseas service. He returned on the Str. George Washington.

Henry Clark and son, Donald, Harold Price, Geo. Pringle and Henry Scholls left Tuesday by auto for Flint and other points.

Leonard Barber of Rapid City was guest of Miss Flora McPherson latter part of last week.

Vernon Barnett and Miss Marvel Chorpeneing were married at the home of the bride's parents in Wilson Twp, July 9.

Mrs. Geo. Hubbell and children of Saginaw are visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Kimball.

Lewis Ellis left Monday for Grand Rapids where he has employment.

A picnic of the Ruhlring, Colter, G. L. Sherman and Whittington families was held at the Whittington cottage at Monroe Creek the Fourth.

Mr. and Mrs. Kiley Bader and children returned to their home at Wilwin, Thursday, after a visit at the home of the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Carr.

JULY 12, 1929

Mr. Greenbaum says East Jordan's possibilities are unlimited. His talk lasted over an hour, was without question the best address ever given by any one in East Jordan along the lines of Community building. He came here at the invitation of East Jordan Business Men's Club and prior to the address a supper was served at the Auditorium by the Methodist Ladies Aid. The East Jordan High School Orchestra furnished music for the occasion.

Clyde W. Hipp, well-known business man of this city, and Miss Myrtle Holland were united in marriage June 30 at Traverse City.

At the annual school meeting for East Jordan Public Schools the following officers were re-elected—Dr. C. H. Pray, Dr. G. W. Bechtold and A. L. Darbee.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Barber, a son, July 5th.

Pete LaLonde, Harry Simmons and Matt Swafford of East Jordan Fire

Department attended the State Firemen's Ass'n at Sault Ste. Marie this week.

Mrs. Jos. LaValley of Pontiac was guest of Mrs. Harry Simmons and other friends over the week end.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Brinkman and Miss Marcella Miller of Pontiac, were here the past week visiting at the Kenny homes.

Mr. and Mrs. Reo Bockes of Lansing were here first of the week for a visit with his sister, Mrs. Archie Quick and family.

The household goods of F. M. Shaw were shipped to Grand Rapids, Tuesday, where Mr. Shaw is now located.

Geo. Ruhlring returned to his home in Flint Monday, after spending several days here with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. M. Ruhlring.

Mrs. L. C. Monroe and children of Muskegon are here visiting friends and relatives. Mr. Monroe was here over the Fourth.

Mr. and Mrs. Zell Miles and children returned to their home in Lansing Sunday after a visit with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Miles, and other relatives.

Do You Believe In Americanism?

or

Do You Believe In Communism?

Who Wants To Be A Communist?

Communist Party Reveals Its Potential Treachery

It is now on record that the communist party in America is pledged to potential treason against the United States.

The statement issued at communist headquarters declaring that American communists would support Russia in a war against the United States, was bold and defiant. It can no longer leave any doubt in the minds of Americans that it is time the most stringent measures were taken to root out the evil of communism in America.

No longer can the policies of the communist party be strained to permit recognition of it as a legitimate party entitled to occupy the same ground as the republican and democratic parties because its leaders have confessed treasonable intent.

Communism is a self-declared enemy of democracy and the constitution of the United States provides no sanction for such enemies seeking to overthrow this government by force and violence.

Strain, twist or pervert the meaning of the constitution as they may try, the sympathizers with communism, left-wing "liberals" fellow travelers and outright communists cannot find protection in the constitution for traitors.

No one can be blind to the threats to our future security from communists. Therefore, it is important that we all should stand together to make a solid front, our enemies seek to split us, because they know that is the way to reduce strength to weakness.

We must continually build stronger forces in America, if our freedom under the constitution and bill of rights is maintained against the forces of communism, here at home if we wish to maintain our way of life, individual freedom and true Americanism. America is no place for static minds or communists.

It Still Runs

A NOTED European lecturer, having delivered his speech, retired to a nearby bar with a couple of reporters. In the course of his conversation, he began boasting about his intricate and expensive Swiss watch, which never lost a minute and chimed all the hours. "That's nothing compared to American watches," a reporter interrupted. "I dropped my dollar watch into the East river last year, and it's been running ever since." "What!" said the startled lecturer. "The same watch?" "No," said the reporter, "the East river."

PRACTICAL ADVICE

In grammar class the teacher wrote on the blackboard: "I didn't have no fun at the seaside." Then she asked a pupil: "Ronald, how should I correct that?" "Get a boy friend," he replied.

"An Apple a Day . . ." A young doctor had set up practice in a small community and business was not flourishing as he had hoped. He was sitting in his office reading one afternoon when his hired girl came to the door and said: "Them boys is a-swipin' the green apples off that tree in the back yard again, Doctor. Should I drive 'em away?" The young doctor walked over to the window, considered a moment, and leveling his eyes at the servant, replied: "No."

COURTROOM STATIC

The quarrel was trivial and the judge asked impatiently, "Couldn't you men have settled this argument out of court?" The defendant spoke up quickly, "Yes, Your Honor. That's just what we were doing when the police interfered."

Request for More

A small boy was taking part in a local concert. He was only six years old and recited so well that he was encored. "Well, Harry, and how did you get on?" asked the proud father, when he returned home. "Why, I thought I had done it all right," replied Harry, "but they made me do it over."

Travel Note

"My wife flew over to Europe to visit some relatives," said the soap salesman. "Saved a lot of time, going by air," nodded the buyer. "I don't know about that," replied the husband. "She had to sit in her hotel three days waiting for some one to come and take her six miles out in the country."

HE CAME FIRST

The nurse beckoned to one of a group of expectant fathers, and announced, "You have a fine son." Immediately another man rushed up and complained, "What's the idea? I was here before he was."

'Don't Mention It'

The tiny boy had been taken for an automobile ride by a friend of the family. On his return his mother said to him, "Did you thank Mr. Banks for taking you for a ride?" There was no reply. The mother repeated her question, but still there was no answer. "Jimmie," she said, "did you hear me? Did you thank Mr. Banks for taking you for a ride?" "Yes," whispered Jimmie, "but he told me not to mention it."

WILSON . . .

Bill Nulph is taking care of the Bob Ecker hay crop.

Ed Henning of Chicago spent the week end at the Wolters home. With haying about over we could use a nice shower of rain for the late crops.

Mrs. Karl Kolker entertained her sisters from Charlevoix one day last week.

Aug Knop is busy with his cherry crop and expects to finish by Wednesday of this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Herman Schultz of Muskegon are spending a few days with his father, Ernest Schultz.

Mrs. Edith Nowland and Mrs. Nancy LaLonde started work at the East Jordan Canning Factory last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Armand Mayrand entertained their daughter, Pearl and family, from Midland, Mich., last week.

Albert Knop and children of Muskegon spent the week end with his brothers, Aug and Carl Knop and families.

A nice crowd and a good time was had by all who attended the Farmers' Union dance at Deer Lake Grange Hall last Friday night.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Behling spent last week end at Breckenridge where Mrs. Behling's family were all together for their family reunion.

Mr. and Mrs. Norman Kuck and family of Brooklands, Mich., are spending two weeks visiting at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank H. Behling.

Mr. and Mrs. Rudy Stolfa and two children, Lois and Phillip, of Brookfield, Ill., are spending two weeks visiting friends and relatives here. Mrs. Stolfa was formerly Matilda Knop.

Henry Eggersdorf arrived home with his son-in-law, Joe Bravi, last Saturday from Chicago. Mr. Eggersdorf who has been a Chicago Surface Line Operator for 32 years has resigned his position and will remain on his farm and try his skill at farming.

The Wilson Lutheran Ladies Aid which met with Mrs. Harold Goebel second Thursday of this month was well attended. Two new members, Mrs. Jean Korhase and Mrs. Alma Korhase were taken in as new members, and Ruth Nowland and Jean Korhase were elected to serve on a picnic committee to be held soon. A pot luck lunch was enjoyed. The next meeting will be held with Mrs. Ruth Nowland.

Mrs. Edith Nowland entertained about ten of her lady friends at an afternoon luncheon two weeks ago.

MICHIGAN Motoring

The graceful deer which are so plentiful have long been a major tourist attraction in Michigan . . . and a source of constant interest for Michigan citizens as well. You'll see them along the highways in upper Michigan . . . along the side road in almost any county in the state. And many people will go "deer hunting" this summer with cameras . . . driving slowly through the side roads near Kalkaska—where there's a chance to see a bear, too . . . or through the great State forest areas in both the Lower and Upper Peninsulas.

This type of "deer hunting" is a fascinating pastime . . . but for drivers it can be a time of danger as well. If you are driving, remember to keep your eye on the road.

STOP!—if you wish to look. Be on a constant look-out for the animal who may leap in front of your auto, causing your car to over-turn and injure yourself and your family. This could happen to you—it did to a family driving near Cannonsburg, Michigan, just a few weeks ago.

Whenever you drive this summer through the woods, near the beautiful Michigan lakes . . . on the highway or in the city . . . remember constant alertness may save your life. Enjoy your summer vacation by making it a safe one with careful, cautious safe driving . . . Play safe—every minute you're behind the wheel!

FAMOUS LAST WORDS !

Cotton, Host to Insects

Cotton probably leads all the cultivated crops in attracting a great variety of insect enemies. The plant is usually attractive to insects and thousands occur on every acre. Some are beneficial; others innocuous; but more than 100 species attack the cotton crop in one way or another, including some of the most destructive pests of agriculture. The roll includes the boll weevil, bollworm, cotton leaf worm, pink bollworm, cotton flea hopper, tarnished plant bug, rapid plant bug, cotton aphid conchuela, southern green stinkbug, cotton leaf perforator, yellow-striped armyworm, fall armyworm, beet armyworm, red spider mite, grasshoppers, crickets, wireworms, and thrips.

Diluted Syncopation

BILL consulted his physician for a general rundown condition. The doctor told him he was suffering from alcoholism. He told the doctor he wouldn't dare tell his wife that and asked for some big word to tell her that would obscure the meaning. The doctor refused to give him another name. On his way home, Bill tried to think of a big word to tell his wife. He passed a music store and saw the word "syncopation" in the window. That would do it; he would tell her that he had a mild case of "syncopation."

High Cost of Living

"How do you budget your expenses?" the clerk asked a Negro applying for a loan. "Well, suh," the applicant replied, "ah 'lows 40 puhsent fo' eatin', 30 puhsent fo' rent, 20 puhsent fo' clothes, 10 puhsent fo' savin's, and 20 puhsent fo' insuh-dentals." "But that adds up to 120 per cent," the clerk said. "That's impossible." The applicant sighed. "Brothah, is you tellin' me!"

Jonah's Revenge

Whale steak was on the menu and there was no particular run on it, so the waiter was surprised when a diner demanded a double portion. "You're fond of whale steak, sir?" the waiter asked. "Well," the diner explained, "I've been waiting for this opportunity for a long time. My name's Jonah."

Pat on the Back

The story is told of how George Gershwin, seeking to attain a formal music education, had enrolled in a course in harmony given by a celebrated musician. During the progress of the course Gershwin showed the instructor a composition he had written sometime before he entered the class. The teacher studied it for a moment and then beamed his approval, and said: "You have already learned a great deal here."

Height Conscious

Three young men were boasting of their height. "Look at me," said Tom. "I'm six feet two and a half in my stockinged feet." "All right," put in Dick. "I'm six feet five and three-quarters with my hat on." "And I can heat the lot of you," added Harry. "I'm seven feet eight—with my umbrella up."

Rest in Peace!

A landlady was scolding her husband for not fixing their bedroom ceiling. She chided: "Why, I'm actually scared to go to bed at night for fear that loose plaster will fall on me and I'll never wake up!" Her husband, carefully filling his pipe, drawled: "Guess you'd better say your prayers then. That'd be easier on me than fixin' the ceiling."

For The Ladies: A Diet That Really Works

We went out visiting the other night and the ladies were talking away about weight-reducing diets. One of them had a special "15-day Hollywood diet" guaranteed to slim her down fifteen pounds' worth. Another was living on bananas and skim milk!

trust any of those get-thin-quick diets. Simply cut down on desserts, bread, butter, sweets and fats—but when you do, even do your cutting down moderately."

I might have known the missus would get the bug, too, and sure enough the other day she asks me, "Joe, what kind of a diet do you think I ought to go on?"

From where I sit, moderation is the watchword. Moderation with food, with smoking or with the enjoyment of a friendly glass of temperate beer or ale. Actually, moderation adds to the enjoyment of just about anything.
