East Jordan Red Devils Off To A Good Start

DEFEAT FRANKFORT PANTHERS IN OPENING GAME THERE BY SCORE OF 20-13

The East Jordan Red Devils won a fight to the finish battle over the Frankfort Panthers down there Friday night. The final score was 20-13.

East Jordan got their first touchdown when Keith Vance broke through the line and stole the ball from the Frankfort backfield and ran 45 yards for a touchdown.

Our second touchdown came when Don Cutler ran left end and he also made our extra point, on a line buck.

After the half neither team scored until the fourth quarter when Don Cutler again ran left end. At the end of the game the Red Devils had the ball in Frankfort territory.

Stewart made both Frankfort touchdowns. It was a swell night for the game and there was a big crowd there to help Coaches Devine and Downing really start the boys out right.

Max Sommerville suffered a severely sprained ankle in the early minutes of the game. "Red" Evans moved from center to right half to take his place and did a good job.

Coach Devine could not say when Max would be ready to play again, but the team is hoping he'll be around soon.

East Jordan Lineup:

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Sommerville Celebrate Their 25th Wedding Anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Sommerville were greatly surprised, Saturday evening, Sept. 17, when 41 friends and relatives dropped in to help celebrate their 25th wedding anniversary at their home.

A three-tiered wedding cake and pot luck lunch was served on a table decorated with candles and flowers.

Their greatest surprise was when their daughter, Mrs. Joyce LaFountain and son, Ronald, of Ft. Walton, Fla., arrived.

Out of town guests were: Mr. and Mrs. Howard Sommerville of Boyne City, Bruce Scott and Pauline James of Central Lake, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Sommerville, Jr., and Marilyn Petter, of Ellsworth, Virgil Sommerville and Mr. and Mrs. K. K. LaFountain of Muskegon Hts., Mich., Mrs. Joyce LaFountain and son of Ft. Walton, Fla., and Chas. Scott of Grand Rapids.

Many beautiful gifts were received and a good time enjoyed by all.

A beautiful corsage of roses was given Mrs. Sommerville by their children.

The party was given by Miss Shirley Sommerville and Mrs. Betty Sommerville.

Executive ability is the art of getting credit for all the hard work someone else does.

25 yr. Pins Presented Four Auxiliary Members

Out of twelve original Charter Members of the American Legion Auxiliary, four have been active members for the past 25 years. The American Legion Auxiliary was organized in the fall of 1924.

BOWLING

The Merchant League bowlers took-off on a scoring spree after a poor showing on the opening night, East Jordan and Ellsworth men hitting 17 series over 500 on the second night of the new season. All three of the unbeaten teams suffered at least one loss, as Sommerville's Grocery Team took over the lead with 7 points out of the eight bowled so far this year. Chris Taylor showed the way for the grocers with 544 as they downed Thorsen's Lumber, 3 points to 1. Bill Bennett was tops for the lumber jacks with 495.

The Legion bowlers and Cal's Tavern battled to an even split with the Legion taking the middle game and total pins while Cal's took the first and last games. Joe Wilkins scored 519, high for Cal's, and Cy Dolezel topped the Legion team with 504.

Scoring honors for the night went to the Canning Co. team as they wired games of 885-887-893 together to upset the State Bank Bowlers who had scores good enough to beat anyone except the Cannery. Their scores were 884-805-849 for 2538, to the winners 2645. Greg Boswell led the scoring for the bankers with 569 and Burl Braman took the honors for the Canning Co. with 544 on a 219 finisher.

Two of the weaker teams in the League scored three point upsets as Monarch Finer Foods took last years champs 3 points to 1, and the Recreation topped Hillman's. Ike Rood was tops for Monarch with 571. Jim Lilak led the Saints with 504. Barney Adair had high score for Recreation, and Don

Holly Boy Somewhat Better, But Still In Critical Condition

Harold Holly, 3-year-old son of Floyd Holly, who was taken to Charlevoix hospital, Friday, Sept. 9, after severe injuries received when a truck backed over him, still remains on the critical list, although is slightly improved.

The child was playing among the cars in the parking lot at the Frozen Food Locker Co. on State St., after following his father from home. The driver was backing into the street and did not see the child.

Oddfellows Kill The Old Red Rooster

The Oddfellows finally killed the old Red Rooster and are inviting the Rebekah's and their families to help pick his bones, Saturday evening at 7:30, at the I. O. O. F. Hall. Entertainment and dancing afterwards.

Marriages Sweet - Peck

Miss Kathleen Patricia Sweet, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Sweet of East Jordan, and Floyd William Peck, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ora Peck of Boyne City, exchanged wedding vows, Saturday, Sept. 17, 1949, at the Presbyterian parsonage. The double ring ceremony was performed by the pastor, Rev. Edward O. DeHaven, in the presence of the immediate families of the bride and groom, and the groom's grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Peck of Cadillac.

Vases of mixed fall flowers from a background. The bride wore a pearl grey gaberdine suit with navy blue accessories, her corsage was of white roses and pink mums. Mrs. Leon Stanek, sister of the groom, acted as bridesmaid and wore an aqua suit with dark brown accessories. She wore a corsage of yellow roses and yellow pompons. Basil Sweet, brother of the bride, acted as best man.

Mrs. Herbert Sweet chose a black crepe dress, with black accessories, and wore a corsage of white carnations for her daughter's wedding. Mrs. Ora Peck, mother of the groom, wore a black and white figured dress, with black accessories, and a corsage of white carnations.

Following the ceremony a wedding dinner was served at the home of the grooms parents, at Deer Lake, for the immediate families. The table was centered with a three-tiered wedding cake, topped with a miniature bride and groom, and mixed fall flowers.

A reception and dance was held in the evening at the Deer Lake Grange Hall for 250 guests. Ice cream and cake was served.

The bride was graduated from Little Traverse hospital for practical nursing, July 20, 1949. The groom is employed at the Porter Cherry Farm.

After a short wedding trip to Mackinac Island, Mr. and Mrs. Peck will reside at Mrs. John Rude's cottage on Lake Charlevoix.

Out of town guests were from Flint, Chicago, Mancelona, Kalkaska and Midland.

Clark was tops for Hillman's. In the other match of the evening Brock's Turkey Farm and Ellsworth Electric split points as Brock's took the first two and the Electric boys blew a fuse and took the last game sufficient to win total pins by a wide margin. Les Arndt was tops for the Electric team and Wally Peacock led the Turkey boys with 39 and 487 respectively.

The Ladies League opened their season last Thursday with twelve ladies teams. Four of the matches were decided by four point wins as Central Lake Torch rolled 2157 for high three to down Quality Food. The Bank ladies took Dress and gift shop. Cal's Tavern topped St. Joseph, and Metal Products downed Home Modernizing.

In the other two matches, the Rainbow girls took Art Dry Cleaners 3 points to 1, and the Ladies Am. Legion Auxiliary split with Bachmann's.

Marilyn Swanson and Billie Burnett took the scoring honors for the night. Marilyn topped 182 pins in her last game, and Billie wired games of 186-150-158 together for 472. The N. W. Michigan Traveling League will open it's season Sunday, Sept. 28th, with two teams visiting East Jordan to bowl the Recreation and Norm's Tavern. Schedule to be announced later.

Accident Prev'n School Here

SEPT. 27th. AN INSTRUCTOR TO BE HERE FOR A SIX HOUR COURSE OF INSTRUCTION

During the year 1948, 4,500 Michigan children were killed or injured in traffic accidents. These children were run down and killed or injured either as pedestrians or as bicycle riders. Most of them were hit while crossing between intersections or running out behind parked cars.

In an effort to prevent a repetition of this tragic record during the coming school year, the Michigan State Safety Commission is sponsoring a child safety program for the months of September and October. This Commission is made up of four state departments: State Police, State Highway Department, Department of State, and Department of Public Instruction, with the Governor as honorary chairman, and an advisory committee of 69 members.

Since this program is centered on child safety, the Department of Public Instruction and the schools of Michigan share the major responsibility for its success.

On September 26th and 27th, George C. Ferris has arranged to have Edm. Haapanein, Field Representative from the St. Louis office of the National Red Cross, visit Charlevoix County to conduct classes in accident prevention. We have arranged to have Mr. Haapanein in East Jordan on Tuesday, the 27th. He will conduct a class for the East Jordan teachers that afternoon and evening. His course requires six hours. Persons taking the course are qualified as accident prevention instructors.

Any local industries wishing to send candidates to the school are welcome to do so.

A & P Answers Suit Demanding Its Dissolution

Describing the suit to dissolve the Great Atlantic and Pacific Tea Company as a threat to the welfare and living standards of every American citizen, officials of the company announced that they would oppose it with every legitimate means.

The suit, filed in the Federal Court for the Southern District of New York, asked the court to dispose of the company's manufacturing and processing facilities and to break up the company into smaller chains.

The statement said in full: "This action is a threat to the welfare and living standards of every American citizen. If successful, it will mean less food on every dinner table and fewer dollars in every pay envelope."

"This is not just an effort to destroy A & P but an attack on the entire system of efficient low-cost, low-profit mass distribution which this company pioneered."

"A & P was the first chain store in this country and the methods we developed have been adopted by other grocers, as well as merchants in other lines. There are today literally hundreds of chain stores and voluntary groups of individual merchants operating with the same methods and in the same pattern here under attack."

"If the anti-trust lawyers succeed in destroying A & P, the way will be cleared for the destruction of every other efficient large-scale distributor."

"There is nothing even approaching monopoly here; for as every housewife knows, the retail grocery business is the most competitive in the country and we do only a small part of it. Nor was there ever any charge that we raised prices; for the whole basis of this attack is the fact that we sold good food too cheap."

"There is nothing in our operations, or in any previous decisions involving us, or in the anti-trust laws themselves to justify the dissolution of A & P."

"Obviously, it is the theory of the anti-trust lawyers that the people of America have no right to patronize a company if their patronage will make that company grow; and that any big business must be destroyed simply because it is too big, and even if the public gets hurt in the process."

"This action is just opposite to the purpose of the anti-trust laws, which were meant to increase competition and keep prices down; for if it succeeds, it will serve only to cut down competition and force prices up. The A & P's policy always maintained and kept alive the spirit of competition."

"Frankly, the owners of A & P could make enormous amounts of money by breaking up this com-

Judge E. M. Sharpe Heads Odd Fellows Of Entire World

More than a million and a half members of the Independent Order of Odd Fellows scattered throughout the world now look to the Hon. Edward M. Sharpe of Bay City, Michigan as the titular head of the entire Order following his installation as Sovereign Grand Master at an impressive ceremony Wednesday evening (September 21) during the sessions of the Sovereign Grand Lodge of the world in Sacramento, California.

As Sovereign Grand Master, he is the presiding officer and the chief executive of the Sovereign Grand Lodge which is unique among fraternal orders in that it is the supreme authority over all branches of the fraternity through all the world. Under its jurisdiction, in addition to the many Odd Fellow Lodges are all Rebekah Lodges, Encampments, Cantons of the Patriarchs Militant and their Ladies Auxiliaries, Junior Odd Fellow Lodges and Theta Rho Girls' Clubs. Invested funds of the Order throughout the world total more than a hundred million dollars.

A Justice of the Supreme Court of the State of Michigan for the past 16 years, Judge Sharpe's fraternal background is one that pre-eminently qualifies him for the position he now holds. In addition to being an active member of all branches of the Odd Fellowship he is a member of the Elks, all branches of Masonry and is a past District Governor of the Lions Clubs of Michigan. As Grand Master of the Odd Fellows of Michigan in 1935-36 he inaugurated a program of community service for the various lodges of the jurisdiction. Outstanding among service programs adopted by the Order on a statewide level, are the blood donors clubs (pioneered by Michigan Odd Fellows) and the hospital bed program.

Judge Sharpe has served as Grand Representative from Michigan to the Sovereign Grand Lodge since 1937 and has held many important posts in that body. During the past year he has held the position of Deputy Sovereign Grand Master.

Officers and members of the Order throughout the state have journeyed to California to witness Judge Sharpe's installation and are planning a banquet in his honor or there. A dinner and party in his honor are being planned by the entire jurisdiction to be held in Bay City on Saturday evening, October 8.

pany, as the anti-trust lawyers wish, and selling off the parts.

"But we believe this attack is a threat to millions of consumers who rely on us for quality foods at low prices; to hundreds of thousands of farmers who rely on us for fast, low-cost distribution of their products; and to our 110,000 loyal employees."

"There has never been any question in our mind that it is good business and good citizenship to sell good food as cheaply as possible, and we feel that it is our responsibility to our customers, our suppliers and our employees to defend this company and that theory by every legitimate means."

Milk For The Youngsters

HEALTH COMMITTEE SEEING TO IT THAT CHILDREN RECEIVE THIS VITAL FOOD

School is now into its second week, it is no longer something special to come to school. Everyone is back in the old routine, teachers, students, and yes, even parents. They have gotten used to the sudden quietness and we here at school are getting used to the noise, and another year is on its way.

Monday morning, Sept. 19, 1949, the children in the kindergarten and first grade received their first bottle of milk. One hundred and forty children were served by the East Jordan Health Committee. These children will benefit greatly by this milk which they will receive throughout the school year. Milk is one of the best foods children can have. It furnishes calcium for the teeth, protein to build muscles, and many of the necessary vitamins for growth.

Many children have not learned to like milk therefore their bodies are not receiving the necessary calcium needed to build good teeth and strong bones. These children, when they see everyone else in their room drinking their milk, sometimes do not like to be left out so little by little they learn to like and drink milk.

Many of our small children get on the school buses early and ride a considerable distance to school. Some of these children eat very little breakfast and before noon lunch hour arrives they are having hunger pains. The milk they receive at school will help them through the morning. But just because they receive this milk at school is no reason why mother should not insist on Tommy or Johnny eating a good breakfast. This is not to take the place of any child's breakfast. Don't let him talk you out of eating his regular breakfast before he comes to school.

The cost of this program is much more than people realize. One hundred and forty children each bottle of milk costs four cents, multiplied by one hundred and seventy-four school days. Add to this the cost of straws and graham crackers and it will add up to well over a thousand dollars.

Many people are asking where the money is coming from to pay for this program. That is the question East Jordan's Health Committee asked each other when the idea was in discussion. Everyone agreed it was a worthwhile project and every child would benefit by it. The Committee decided if our children needed and would benefit by having the milk then they would raise the money.

This is the manner in which they hope to do it. The parents of each child is asked to pay one dollar per semester, two dollars a year. If they were to pay for all the milk their child will get at school it would amount to nearly seven dollars. This is cheap health insurance for any child. The school will give the Health Committee a contribution to help towards payment. The balance will be raised by the Health Committee.

Several organizations have expressed their desire to help, for which we are very happy. The Committee has no doubt that the money will be raised. It will mean a great deal of work and time for a committee that is small in numbers and big in ideas and ambitions. They have your child's health at heart. Why not give them a helping hand and send in your contribution.

HOLSTEIN COW PRODUCES 76 LBS. OF BUTTERFAT

Elias Sommerville of Central Lake owned the three year old Holstein cow that during the month of August produced 76.4 lbs. of butterfat and 1956 pounds of milk, with a test of 3.9 percent. Karry DeGroot owned the mature cow that was second high with 74.4 pounds of fat. Arthur Nicloy & Sons owned the high herd of cows that averaged 1340 pounds of milk and 42.7 pounds of butterfat for the month of August. Elias Sommerville owned the herd that was second highest with 40.9 lbs. of fat for the month for all cows.

The Charlevoix-Antrim Dairy Herd Improvement Association, according to Fred Weston, Supervisor, tested 33 herds with a total of 361 cows, including 21 dry cows. The average test was 4.03 percent with an average production of 748 pounds of milk and 30.0 pounds of butterfat for the month for all cows.

Best Fishing of Year During The Cooler Weather of Fall

Although the first hunting season is only a few days away, the conservation department points out that sportsmen are missing some of the best fishing of the year if they chuck their fishing gear for the season at the first sign of cooler weather.

Pet equipment and methods of fishing are as varied as the fish in the lake, but the angler will not go wrong if he sticks to those successfully used during the summer, until results prescribe a change.

With cooler weather, regular day fishing is good advice, although some anglers still subscribe to the early morning and late evening formula. Should the usually reliable worm fail to produce, the cricket, crawfish and four-inch chub are worth a try. Veteran fishermen suggest checking the stomach of the first one caught for quick and reliable dope on current fish food preferences.

Those using minnows might try hooking them through the lips for a maximum amount of action. Anglers also might successfully vary their summer routine by fishing for bluegills, bass and pike in more shallow water.

Still choice fishing spots are off points and dropoffs. Keep the noise in the boat to a minimum—dropping the anchor can scare the fish away before the angler even wets his line.

While the trout season now is closed with certain exceptions, angles can continue to take pan fish, black bass, pike and muskies in most waters through March 31.

Good News To Sport Fishermen

Good news to sport fishermen are the more liberalized fishing regulations which go into effect Sept. 23.

Size limits on pan fish (bluegills, sunfish, perch, rock and calico bass) are removed to allow anglers to keep fish of any length, but not more than the legal limit of 25 in any combination per day or in possession, of which not more than 15 may be bluegills.

The bluegill and sunfish season, also approved by the 1949 legislature, is lengthened by 1 month, to end March 31 instead of Feb. 28.

Other changes which become law Sept. 23:

Reduce the minimum legal length of pike-perch (walleyed pike) from 14 to 13 inches;

Allow pike or pike-perch to be taken at any time from Lake Erie, Detroit river, Lake St. Clair and St. Clair river;

Authorize conservation department director to designate waters where rainbow trout may be taken in Sept., Oct. and Nov.;

Make it unlawful to have in possession on any waters any fish so mutilated that identification and measurements are impossible;

Require marking of minnow traps with metal tag bearing name and address of user;

Require validation of trout stamp by signing name thereon in ink.

"Darling, haven't I always given you my pay-check on the first of every month?"

"Yes, you louse, but you never told me you got paid twice a month."

Can Control Many Weeds With Sprays

Troubled by ragweed, poison ivy, poison sumac, lawn weeds, beach weeds, water weeds, or brush? There's scarcely a place in Michigan that doesn't have at least one of these pests to cope with.

Michigan State College scientists say that highly effective chemical sprays are now available which work wonders in getting rid of these plant pests.

Dr. B. H. Grigsby, MSC weed control specialist, has recently prepared a new circular describing uses of these new chemicals. The circular is titled, "Weed Control In Resort Areas," and is part of the college series designed to aid operators of tourists businesses. However, the new circular is available to all who wish to get rid of weeds.

This circular describes weed killing methods in simple terms. chemicals, equipment, control measures, and precautions needed. Use of 2, 4, 5-T is described as the latest in chemicals to kill brush.

During fall months is an excellent time to spray weeds as they are often growing then and will be in good condition to absorb the killing sprays.

A copy of the publications, circular R-201, "Weed Control In Resort Areas" may be obtained from county agricultural agents' offices or by writing to the Bulletin Office, Department of Public Relations, Michigan State College, East Lansing, Michigan.

LOOKING BACKWARD

SEPTEMBER 18, 1909
Word was received of the death of Dr. Fremont C. Warne, Monday, at Lake Geneva, Wis. For the past three years his health had been failing in spite of the best aid that could be found. Dr. Warne was a pioneer physician of East Jordan, coming here twenty-seven years ago. He sold his drug store to the F. B. Gannett Co two years ago. He was survived by a son, Arthur W., and a daughter, Bessie. Services at the Presbyterian church in charge of Rev. A. D. Grigsby. Music was furnished by Miss Violet Grigsby, organist, and a quartette consisting of Mrs. Rolland Maddock and Miss Stevens, Roy Sherman, and Jack Cuson. Burial services were in charge of the F. & A. M. and carried out after the impressive ritual of the order. The bearers were: Sam Colter, E. J. Crossman, W. P. Squier, Frank Kenyon, W. F. Empey and Carl Strobel.

Genevieve, second child of Mr. and Mrs. Walter French, died at her home Sept. 13th, aged eleven, following an operation for appendicitis. Funeral services were held at the home Wednesday conducted by Rev. A. D. Grigsby. Her companions of the Junior Christian Endeavor attended and sang one of their child hymns.

Miss Jessie Lewis and Charles Malpass were united in marriage Wednesday noon at the home of the bride's parents. Rev. A. D. Grigsby officiated. Miss Lewis has taught in our public schools for several seasons. The groom has for years been affiliated with East Jordan's business interest, having charge of the W. E. Malpass Hdwe. Co. Store.

With the demise of Dr. Warne, two important changes in our business circle were made this week. Druggist Frank B. Gannett was appointed as local agent for the American Express Co. and J. M. Clifford, district superintendent of the Michigan State Telephone Co., was here from Potosky this week and appointed Ben Smatts, of Harbor Springs, local manager. He has been in the telephone business for years, at present being with the company at Harbor Springs.

John LaLonde has opened up a lunch room in the LaLonde building.

Col. J. W. Rogers attended the Grand Traverse Soldier's Reunion at Traverse City this week.

Do You Want Your A&P Put Out Of Business?

Last Thursday in New York, the anti-trust lawyers from Washington filed a suit to put A&P out of business.

They asked the court to order us to get rid of most of our stores and also the manufacturing facilities which supply you with A&P coffee, Ann Page products, Jane Parker baked goods, and other quality items we produce.

This would mean higher food prices for you. It would mean less food on every dinner table and fewer dollars in every pay envelope.

It would mean the end of A&P as you know it.

This poses a basic question for the American people: Do they want to continue to enjoy lower prices and better living? Or do they want to break up A&P and pay higher prices, and have lower living standards?

What do you want?

Why Destroy A&P?

This suit was brought under the anti-trust laws. These are good laws. They were passed about fifty years ago to prevent any company, or any group of companies, from getting a monopoly in a field and then raising prices to the public.

A&P has never done any of these things.

Nobody has ever shown that we have anything even approaching a monopoly of the food business anywhere. As every housewife knows, the retail grocery business is the most competitive in the country and we do only a small part of it.

Nobody has ever said we charged too high prices — just the opposite. This whole attack rises out of the fact that we sell good food too cheap. We would not have had any of this trouble if, instead of lowering prices, we had raised them and pocketed the difference.

Nobody has ever said that our profit rate was too high. During the past five years our net profit, after taxes, has averaged about 1 1/2% on every dollar of sales, which is less than almost any other business you can think of.

The American people have shown that they like our low-price policy by coming to our stores to do their shopping. If A&P is big, it is because the American people, by their patronage, have made it big.

Obviously, it is the theory of the anti-trust lawyers that the people have no right to patronize a company, if their patronage will make that company grow; and that any big business must be destroyed simply because it is big, and even if the public gets hurt in the process.

Do You Want Higher Prices?

There is much more involved in this case than the future of A&P. The entire American system of efficient, low-cost, low-profit distribution which we pioneered, will face destruction and the public will suffer.

A&P was the first chain store in this country. For more than ninety years we have tried to build a sound business on the simple formula the founder gave us: "Give the people the most good food you can for their money." Year after year we have tried to do a better job, make our business more efficient, and pass the savings on to the consumer in the form of lower prices.

Our efforts along these lines have led other grocers to keep their costs and profits down.

In the old days before A&P, food that cost the grocer 50¢, often sold as high as $1.00 at retail.

Today, food that costs the grocer 50¢ generally sells to the public at less than 60¢.

The methods we pioneered have been adopted not only by other grocers, but by merchants in other lines. There are today literally hundreds of chain stores, voluntary groups and individual merchants operating with the same methods and in the same pattern here under attack.

If the anti-trust lawyers succeed in destroying A&P, the way will be clear for the destruction of every other efficient large-scale distributor.

Who Will Be Hurt?

There has never been any question in our mind that it is good business and good citizenship to sell good food as cheaply as possible. As Fortune Magazine said about A&P some time ago, "It is firmly attached to the one great principle — the selling of more for less — that has made the desert bloom and the nation wax great."

We sincerely believe that we have helped the American people eat better and live better.

We believe that the hundreds of thousands of farmers and manufacturers who have voluntarily sought our business have profited by our fast, low-cost distribution of their products.

We know that our 110,000 loyal employees enjoy today, as they always have, the highest wages, shortest hours and best working conditions generally prevailing in the retail food industry; and that these men and women have found in A&P good opportunities for security and progress.

We know that thousands of businessmen — the landlords who rent us our stores, the haulers who operate our trucks, the people who supply us with goods and services — have a big stake in our operations.

Obviously, all these people will suffer if this company is put out of business.

What Shall We Do?

We admit that the interests of the owners of A&P are of little importance.

Frankly, they could make an enormous amount of money by breaking up A&P, as the anti-trust lawyers wish, and selling off the parts.

But is this what the American people want? Do they agree with the anti-trust lawyers that our food prices are too low, and that we should be put out of the picture so other grocers can charge more?

Frankly, if this were the case, we would not want to continue in business.

But we seriously doubt that this is the case. Twelve years ago, an effort was made to tax this company and other chain stores out of business. The public rallied to our support. They said they liked our quality foods and our low prices. As a result of their opposition, the tax was defeated.

Now we are faced with this new attack through the courts. We are faced with the heavy costs and all the trouble that lawsuits involve.

But we believe this attack is a threat to millions of consumers who rely on us for quality foods at low prices; to farmers who rely on us for fast, low-cost distribution of their products; and to our loyal employees.

We feel that it is our responsibility to all these people to defend, by every legitimate means, this company and the low-price policy on which it was built.

WEEKLY NEWS ANALYSIS

Truman Plumps for Brannan Plan; Union of European Nations Urged; Publicity Asked in Dollar Parley

(EDITOR'S NOTE: When opinions are expressed in these columns, they are those of Western Newspaper Union's news analysis and not necessarily of this newspaper.)

FARM AID: No "Setups"

Whatever else his critics might say of President Truman, they couldn't charge him with picking any "setups" when he sets out to do battle. The President has a faculty, it seems, for jumping quickest to the defense of measures and proposals that have the least public support.

THIS was the case in the President's latest taking-up-of-arms for controversial causes. He espoused the Brannan plan of farm price supports in a speech at Des Moines. He warned that the nation faces unmanageable and costly crop surpluses, and urged a "modernization" of the farm price support system on the basis of the Brannan production-subsidy program.

This is an issue which promises to be one of the liveliest in the 1950 congressional elections, and if the President was aiming to beat his opponents to the punch on the issue, he had succeeded.

The President's recommendation was made in the face of disagreement among his own congressional leaders as to the best farm price subsidy program to adopt and organized opposition by many farmer groups against the Brannan plan.

MR. TRUMAN called the Brannan plan the most "promising method yet suggested," but left open the possibility that some other system could be substituted.

The Brannan plan is one, briefly, wherein prices on practically every farm commodity would be left to find their own level on the market with the government paying a subsidy to farmers in the form of the difference in price between what farm products brought on the open market and the established parity price.

Opponents of the plan point out that while the consumer might appear to be saving money on cheaper market prices for farm products, he would, in reality, be saving nothing, inasmuch as it would be his money that would be paying for the subsidy to the farmer.

COMMANDER: Some Dispute

Amid charges that he was the candidate of the "kingmakers," and was under the domination of the old line leadership, George N. Craig, 40-year old Indiana attorney was elected commander of the American Legion. He was the first World War II veteran to be chosen for the post.

THE 3,444 delegates to the Legion's Philadelphia national convention gave Craig an overwhelming majority on the first vote. Craig's opponents took the rostrum at nominating time to label him the choice of those they claim always select the organization's national commander.

ELECTION of officers climaxed convention sessions in which the Legion urged continuation of aid to China, adopted a resolution asking the U.S. to curtail "as far as possible" any further immigration at the present time.

HIGHWAYS: Rough Going

Thirty-four of these United States need 20 billion dollars worth of work done on their roads.

This huge highway repair bill, forecast by Senator O'Mahoney (D., Wyo.) was disclosed after a nationwide survey of road needs.

THE PICTURE was not as dark as it seemed. O'Mahoney pointed out the condition will serve as a backlog which "will afford an unmeasured market for business and industry."

He declared that everyone is aware of the depreciation of the American road system during and following the war, but added that "few, I am sure, appreciate the tremendous backlog of essential work which has piled up."

As chairman of the congressional joint economic committee, the senator recently sent inquiries to governors and highway authorities in every state to determine their highway construction and repair needs.

HE REPORTED 40 states had responded and that of those, 34 indicate an accumulation of highway deficiencies which would require the expenditure of 20 billion dollars or more.

The information obtained has been turned over to the U.S. bureau of public roads.

'DIVORCEES ANONYMOUS'

Women Organize to Slow US Divorce Rate

Unhappy because they felt that in too many cases they rushed to the divorce courts too soon, a group of Chicago women have formed a group which they hope will have some effect in slowing down the accelerating U.S. divorce rate.

They call their group "Divorcees Anonymous" and their major aim is to salvage other marriages which are headed for divorce.

Tito's Envoy

With Russians reported to be massing troops at his borders, Yugoslavia's Marshal Tito sent Dr. Josa Vilfan (above) as his envoy to lay the Yugoslav-Moscow dispute before the United Nations.

EUROPE: Stronger Ties

At Strasbourg, France, the council of Europe's consultative assembly called for creation of a union of European countries with real power in a limited range over the governments of member nations.

There are many students of world problems who are convinced this procedure is the only one which may eventually do away with war; but being realists, they concede that man has not progressed in selfless thinking to a degree where governments will agree to overall control of any kind or degree.

THUS it appeared the idea broached at Strasbourg was doomed at its inception, but men of goodwill must keep trying, no matter how difficult the task, if world peace is ever to become more than an illusory goal.

It has not been too difficult to get the best minds committed to a problem to see the way to its solution; the obstacle always has been that the individuals to whom the procedure must be entrusted fall in the scope and breadth of the wisdom necessary for solution.

So, when the 12-nation assembly meeting in France voted by an overwhelming show of hands for federal authority for the council of Europe, it was a manifestation of hope and desire, rather than any real accomplishment.

THAT the delegates were on good, solid ground is indicated by this portion of the resolution for federal authority:

"The government should undertake systematic instruction of the great mass of the people, pointing out to them the undeniable advantages of union for Europe and at the same time the dangers inherent in national isolation."

DOLLAR PARLEY: Information, Please

Great Britain took the lead in stripping any secrecy from the progress of the critical conference on England's dollar crisis.

OFFICIAL SOURCES credited Sir Oliver Franks, the British ambassador, with a proposal that detailed daily reports be made in order to keep the American, British and Canadian people advised of developments.

This system of daily briefings has been followed at meeting of the Big Four council of foreign ministers in the past, although top-level international postwar financial conferences have been a bit more secretive.

The publicity problem was among the first which had to be ironed out by the principals in the monetary discussions, as decisions will have a vital bearing on reducing British dollar drain and bolstering her position.

THE PROPOSAL for daily briefings was said to have support from Dean Acheson, U.S. secretary of state, but the attitude of John Snyder, treasury boss, was unknown when the proposal was first broached.

The federal administration already had indicated congressional leaders would be kept informed on the progress of the conference.

The British proposed that officials of the three powers take turn-about in giving the briefings to the press.

CLOAK & DAGGER:

Russian Wise Guy

It was beginning to appear—as pieces of the picture fell together—that Uncle Sam had been played more or less for a sucker by a Russian wise guy who pretended to be won over to the American ideology by the Voice of America broadcasts, and who wanted to come to America and be a United States citizen.

LAST October 9, two Russian air force lieutenants, Anatol Borzov and Peter Pirigov, landed in the U. S. zone of Austria in a stolen Russian bomber. They had had enough of Russia, they said, in effect, and would like to become U.S. citizens.

According to the Soviet Embassy, Borzov suffered a change of heart late in July and begged for "prodigal son" treatment. Meanwhile, U.S. agents had discovered the "change" and Borzov was arrested by U.S. agents and held secretly at Ellis Island. Then he was flown to the U.S. zone of Austria and returned to Russian jurisdiction.

DURING the interim, Pirigov, who says he wants to stay in America, told newsmen that Borzov tried to bribe him with Soviet embassy funds to return to Russia. It was reported that Pirigov had been beaten by Soviet agents.

The one essential element to the chain of events as to whether it proved Borzov a spy was missing. That was confirmation. The U. S. state department would neither confirm nor deny any of the stories being circulated.

IT merely revealed that a U. S. note on the Borzov affair had been delivered to the Soviet embassy.

There is an old, old adage that it is "very easy to believe what one wants to believe." It may have been that sort of wishful thinking that led state department officials to smile benignly on Comrade Borzov's desire to "change" allegiance and become as one with Americans.

'FAIR DEAL':

Author loked

President Truman continued in a fighting mood. He told newsmen he was going to keep Maj. Gen. Harry Vaughan as his military aide—apparently despite anything the current "5 per center" probe might develop.

Then, setting the theme of the 1950 congressional campaign, he lashed out with a slashing attack at his recent pet aversion—"organized selfish interests" which, he asserts, are trying to block his fair deal program with a "scare-word campaign."

HE DECLINED to name the "selfish interests," still campaigned against the 80th ("do nothing" he called it) congress. Evidently, Mr. Truman felt he knew a good thing when he saw it. If he could be elected to the presidency—when few felt he had a chance—by campaigning against the 80th congress, campaigning against it again ought to do good for his side in 1950 ballot tests.

Getting away from the 80th for the moment, he talked about the great mass of the people, pointing out that the Democrat-controlled legislators had made progress with his Fair Deal program in the teeth of "trumped-up slogans" like "statism," "welfare state," "collectivism," and "socialism."

THE PRESIDENT said the people will not be disturbed by such "scare words" dreamed up by a "lot of paid agitators, promoters and publicity experts who make a fat living by frightening the people in the high-income groups about forward-looking legislation and by organizing campaigns against it."

Cold-Water Suit

Looking like a swizzle-stick in a giant-also highball, Melvyn M. Maki is shown demonstrating the navy's new submergence suit which will enable its wearer to spend as many as three hours in freezing water.

NEW LOOK:

Next, the Male

The American male would be smart to move cautiously, for fashion designers have launched a movement to give men's clothes a "new look" every five years.

"The men's apparel industry is in bad shape," was the dim view of the situation expressed by Myron Kahn, executive director of national fashion previews of men's apparel, incorporated. He complained of no changes.

WHY THE MISSOURI PACIFIC RAILROAD STRIKE?

Over twenty years ago, the Congress of the United States passed the Railway Labor Act. It was hailed by union leaders as a model for the settlement of labor disputes.

efficiently or economically if the leaders of the unions ignore agreements or laws.

Provisions of the Law which are Disregarded

There are five ways under the Railway Labor Act to settle disputes over the meaning of contracts:

- 1—Decision by National Railroad Adjustment Board.
- 2—Decision by System Adjustment Board for the specific railroad.
- 3—Decision by arbitration.
- 4—Decision by neutral referees.
- 5—Decision by courts.

The Missouri Pacific Railroad has been and is entirely willing to have these disputes settled in accordance with the requirements of the Railway Labor Act. Regardless of this fact, the union leaders have shut down that railroad.

Innocent Bystanders Suffer Losses and Hardships

There are about 5,000 engineers, firemen, conductors and trainmen on the Missouri Pacific. They are known as "operating" employees, and are the most highly paid of all employees on the nation's railroads, but their strike action has resulted in the loss of work to 22,500 other employees of the Missouri Pacific. In addition, they have imposed great inconvenience and hardship upon the public and the communities served by that railroad.

The Railway Labor Act was designed to protect the public against just such interruptions of commerce.

If these men will not comply with the provisions of the law for the settlement of such disputes, then all thinking Americans must face the question, "What is the next step?"

President Truman's Board Condemns Strike

There is an established legal method for handling disputes involving existing written contracts—just as there is such a method of settling any contract dispute which you may have in your daily life.

The President of the United States appointed a Fact Finding Board to investigate and adjust the Missouri Pacific dispute. This Board reported, in part, as follows:

"... It is with a deep sense of regret that we are obliged to report the failure of our mission. It seems inconceivable to us that a coercive strike should occur on one of the nation's major transportation systems, with all of the losses and hardships that would follow, in view of the fact that the Railway Labor Act provides an orderly, efficient and complete remedy for the fair and just settlement of the matters in dispute. Grievances of the character here under discussion are so numerous and of such frequent occurrence on all railroads that the general adoption of the policy pursued by the organizations in this case would soon result in the complete nullification of the Railway Labor Act..."

Obviously the railroads cannot be run

THE LEADERS of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers, Brotherhood of Locomotive Firemen and Enginemen, Order of Railway Conductors, and the Brotherhood of Railroad Trainmen on the Missouri Pacific Railroad have refused to avail themselves of the peaceful means provided by this Act for settling their disputes. They insist that they be the sole umpire of their own disputes over the meaning of contracts.

There is no Need for Strikes

With all of the available methods for the interpretation of contracts, there is no need for a strike or even a threat of a strike, but the leaders of these railroad unions have ignored the ordinary procedures established by law and insist upon imposing their own interpretations of their contracts by means of a strike.

The wheels have stopped rolling on the Missouri Pacific. They may stop rolling on other railroads at any time. Recently the Wabash Railroad was forced to discontinue operation for several days under similar circumstances.

What are These Strikes About?

These strikes and strike threats are not about wage rates or hours. They result from disputes over the meaning of existing contracts. They cover claims for a full day's pay for less than a day's work, or for payments for services performed by others who were fully paid for the work done.

No special session of the state legislature will be called by Governor G. Mennen Williams this fall.

Such is the interpretation that the "Michigan Mirror" deduces from an exchange of letters between the governor and State Treasurer D. Hale Brake, Auditor General Muriel K. Aten and Controller Robert F. Steadman over a 1950 deficit.

An additional observation might be made: The problem of state finances, caused directly by diversion of 78 per cent of sales tax revenues to public schools and cities and townships, will await the 1950 session of the state legislature.

Here is the record, and you can judge for yourself.

Last May the governor intimated he would call legislators into special session to consider new taxes. Legislators had declined to adopt a levy on corporation profits. A proposed increase in the state gasoline tax had been pigeon-holed in committee. Controller Steadman, who heads the department of administration, said that legislative appropriations were approximately $50,000,000 higher than the state's anticipated tax revenues.

The legislature's attitude, as represented by G. O. P. leaders, was this: Wait and see. Many Michigan taxpayers are not convinced new taxes are necessary.

To bring the matter to a head, Governor Williams recently sent a letter to the state treasurer, auditor general and controller. He asked for advice: "What are you going to do in 1950 "when" the deficit develops?"

The controller replied that he would certify whether disbursements were proper in the light of legislative appropriations. The auditor general said he would issue warrants only if cash was on hand. The state treasurer's reply was along these lines: "If a deficit develops, the treasurer was willing to delay payment of some bills, to utilize certain funds other than trust funds, and to use even earmarked funds temporarily. He said it might be possible to reduce liquor inventory of the state liquor control commission—a step taken by Governor Frank Murphy in 1938 when a similar deficit existed.

Brake suggested that the governor try "economy", rather than more state spending, and thus reduce any treasury deficit.

It is the contention of Controller Steadman that the treasury deficit will rapidly develop in March, 1950. During February and March the state must divert substantial sums of sales tax revenue to schools, cities and townships. These payments are expected to drain the general fund of its remaining cash.

Thus, history will repeat itself. Eleven years ago the late Frank Murphy was governor. The 1937 session of the legislature had left the state budget $18 millions in the red. By the end of the first fiscal year (June 30, 1937-38) the actual deficit was $9,000,000—about half of what had been anticipated.

The state had met all payrolls on time. The treasurer had merely borrowed from other funds. Unemployment was high in 1938, due to a recession. Governor Murphy called the legislature into special session to appropriate more money for welfare aid. A sum of $10,000,000 was authorized—in the face of an existing deficit. No new taxes were levied.

Frank Fitzgerald campaigned for economy in state government. He assailed a $9,420,000 increase in the state payroll during the Murphy administration. The CIO sit-down strike had evoked strong public resentment. Fitzgerald capitalized on this, too. Murphy lost the election and later was sent by President Roosevelt to the Philippines and then to the United States Supreme Court.

If the state government could meet payrolls in 1938 with red ink on its books, it seems logical to us that it can do so in 1950.

Why then all this letter writing in September, 1949?

President Truman said he opened the 1950 political campaign with his Labor Day speeches at Pittsburgh and Des Moines. The same might be said about Governor Williams' letters.

The Michigan gubernatorial campaign is already underway.

Who is to blame for the big, bad deficit at Lansing? Not the voters who want 78 per cent of state sales tax revenue for schools, cities and townships. No, no! The "villain" will be—take

The School Bell . . .

SECOND and THIRD GRADES— Adeline Bowerman

The boys and girls in our room were happy to learn that they were in the same group, the same room, and with the same teacher as last year. Three children did not return to our school but in their places we have Sue Ann Dye from Guam in second grade, and Mary Carol Hastie from Indian River and Janet DeHaven from Hesperia in our third grade, so our enrollment remains the same.

We found that with a three months vacation we forgot some of our school work so we are refreshing in our minds, reading skills, number facts, writing and spelling practices.

Our social studies project for this Fall will center around a study of Indian Life. We will gain in knowledge something of the personal characteristics of various tribes of Indians, their food, shelter, clothing, music, games and sports and their contribution to society. In a "fun way" we will develop skills in reading numbers, spelling, languages, art, and music. Through this activity we hope to increase interest in gathering materials from various sources, stress developing the habit of reading for information and help individuals develop ability to contribute to class activities.

THIRD GRADE — Mrs. Hughes
We have an enrollment of thirty-five pupils in our room. Two of these are new to this school. Robert Barnes came from Cleveland and Jack Collins from Escanaba.

We are all finding our new third grade spelling book hard. Mrs. Hughes helps us every day but we still need help from home besides.

We all like Health class, probably because we can color, cut-out and draw to help us learn more about keeping well.

We are all looking forward to a very fine year together.

FOURTH GRADE — Mrs. Snyder

We have 35 in our room this year. Seventeen girls and eighteen boys. All of us went to school here last year except one. Our new boy is Norman Barnes who came to East Jordan from Mentor-on-the-Lake, Ohio. He lives at Eveline Orchards Resort. We are glad to have him with us.

We are having a lot of fun in school. We are working hard too. Seventeen people got all spelling words right the first week. We learned about the oceans and the continents. Now we are reading about the Vikings and Christopher Columbus. Some of us are drawing pictures of their ships.

GRACE GALMORE — Fourth Grade

Our enrollment is now 34. Neil Misner was sick the first week but came Monday of this week.

We are finding it very interesting to learn about the world. We have been studying about how a map is made and we looked at many different ones.

In our history books we read the story of the Vikings and then made some ships as near like them as we could.

Only one child in the room had heard the story of "Little Mossback Amelia" so Mrs. Galmore is reading it to us.

FIFTH GRADE — Sadie Liskum

Our room is off to a good start with 41 children enrolled. Attendance is good and almost everyone is beginning to work hard.

We like combining geography and history into social science. We are starting with the Southeast because in Virginia was our first permanent English Colony. By moving along up the coast we shall be studying New England and the Pilgrims in time for Thanksgiving.

Eash child is making a notebook for social science and much work is being done to find material. To have places for storing books, magazines, and papers, the children are making library shelves of orange crates. The girls have been fine about bringing crates. Hurry up, boys, or the girls will get to do the painting too.

FIFTH GRADE —
Elizabeth Phaseler

In this room we have a membership of 39.—Todd Reuling.

We are reviewing addition and subtraction in arithmetic. I am pretty good in arithmetic and so are the other children.—Gerald Carney.

We are beginning a 4-H Conservation project. We are collecting fall flowers and leaves.—Carol Klooster.

We are making geography notebooks. We are learning about latitude, longitude, the zones, how the earth revolves around the sun and on its axis. Also about the different kinds of maps.—Larry Woodcock.

We have a library corner. Some children are drawing pictures for it.—Karen Bradshaw.

I am the store keeper. We just started today and we have 20c already. We sell paper, pencils and notebooks.—Jack Ingalls.

We have organized a citizenship club in our room after learning how to do it in our English class. Raymond Walker is president, Karen Bradshaw is vice-president, and Carol Klooster is secretary.—Alma Moore.

SIXTH GRADE — Alma Larsen

We have 37 children in our room. We had our club meeting today and elected the following officers: President, Martha Galmore; Vice-President, Ruth Ann Krotochiv; Secretary-Treasurer, Eddie Reuling.

Deanna Lehrbass celebrated her 11th birthday, Sept. 19.

We are studying about the British Isles in Social Studies. We are having many reports about Life in Castles, The Northmen, The Sea Rovers, Stories of King Alfred.

We are going to keep a scrap book of our work.
