At this meeting conference and district leaders presented plans for the year's program of study and action. The theme of the program was the course of study for the year, "Christ Jesus Himself the Corner Stone". It was presented to the group in twelve numbers. Mrs. Howard Stephens, district president, presided. Mrs. Vernon Vance, district officer from East Jordan gave "Noontide sang 'When I Kneel Down To Pray'", accompanied by Mrs. Howard Moore, who was pianist for the meeting. Summary of United Fund Meeting Held at Boyne City

The second meeting of the new term of the United Health and Welfare Fund was held at the Dilworth Hotel at Boyne City, 8 p. m. on Wednesday, Sept. 7, 1949. Jack Maynard, retired vice-president of the J. C. Penney Co., and campaign chairman for the State for the initial drive of United Fund in Michigan last February, was the principal speaker.

Mr. Maynard highlighted the importance of accepting the budget for the county as presented by the State Headquarters and if the budget was not entirely acceptable make the revisions we feel necessary on a county-wide basis and then follow that budget exactly, furnishing the State Headquarters with a copy of that budget.

It should be kept in mind that the budget is carefully worked out impartially by experts and formulate a base for the more equitable disposition of funds to the various Health and Welfare agencies federated. Any additions which a county feel necessary to the budget, of course, should be added.

Mr. Maynard pointed out the overwhelming success of the initial drive and how many states have their eyes on Michigan and have sent workers into Michigan during the initial drive to observe its function.

Mr. Maynard pointed out that United Fund is actually a Community Chest on a state-wide basis. The people of Michigan are represented by more than 300 directors covering the state at large, made up by representatives from farm bureau, grange, C. I. O., A. F. L., people from management, educational and medical groups.

Mr. Maynard greatly clarified the aims of United Fund to all those present.

Mr. Ray Brown representing C. I. O. leather workers of Boyne City re-affirmed the C. I. O.'s position in backing the United Fund.

It was agreed that the money raised for polio services which was not previously accepted when offered to the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis be offered again with no strings at-

Met Sept. 21st. Forty-five members celebrated the anniversary birthday party.

Two letters of thanks were read from Deanna Derenzy and Martha Lord for their lovely trip to Big Star Lake.

Sister Susie Dye entertained us with colored pictures of the island of Guam. We enjoyed this very much.

AN APPRECIATION

I wish to thank Mr. A. L. Darbee and Mr. Taft and the employees at Eveline Orchards for the nice basket of fruit. Also Rev. Rouse for the trips with his car and those who sent flowers, gifts, and cards while I was in Lockwood hospital.

Milan Greenman 39x1

tached to the county chapter of the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis to help make up the sum they require in their forthcoming emergency drive.

During the meeting it was pointed out that the United Fund will make available, at no charge to the Charlevoix County United Fund and the Chests of Boyne City, East Jordan and Charlevoix, pledge cards, report envelopes, posters, leaflets, red feathers, etc. which contain both the wording "Community Chest and United Fund." Publicity will also be furnished explaining just how much Charlevoix has received direct from state headquarters of participating agencies in taking care of people, the victims of the various diseases represented by agencies of United Fund.

It was brought out at the meeting that the time the workers would spend individually on their separate drives for funds could be devoted to the other services of those agencies.

It was suggested at the meeting that the Chests of Boyne City, East Jordan and Charlevoix, and United Fund drive be coordinated to start October 17, which is the starting time for Community Chest on a national basis and is also when Detroit and Traverse City start their drives. It would enable our drive to take advantage of the national and state-wide publicity.

United Fund will only include in its budget those agencies which have agreed to participate. No money will be raised for polio services other than Sister Kenny; cancer services other than the Jackson Foundation; or for Red Cross, unless those agencies specifically ask to be included.

The county United Fund budget will be split up four ways: 25 percent for each of the three city Chests, and 25 percent to be raised through the townships for the county at large. The budgets will be presented to the three Community Chests when they have their budget meeting.

Opinion In Rhyme Scores Every Time

"They find fault with the editor, They say he should be shot. The news sheets are as peppy As a cemetery lot. The staff shows faulty judgment, The jokes, they say, are stale. On all top floors they holler, On lower floors, they wail. But when the paper's issued (We can say it with a smile) If someone doesn't get one You can hear him yell a mile."

Marriages Bowen — Young

A quiet wedding took place Thursday evening, Sept. 22nd, at 8:00 p. m., in the Methodist parsonage, Mt. Morris, uniting in marriage Miss Ruth Bowen of East Jordan, daughter of Mrs. Floyd Vermillion, and Herschel C. Young, formerly of East Jordan and now with the United States Navy.

Rev. Wesley Dudgeon performed the ceremony. Mrs. Carl Stephenson, of Mt. Morris, served as matron of honor. Ward Robinson, also of Mt. Morris, acted as best man.

Following, a reception was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Stephens, honoring the newlyweds and also the wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Jess Robinson. The new Mr. and Mrs. Young left for Norfolk, Va., where the groom is stationed temporarily.

Umlor — Ager

Susan Umlor, daughter of Peter Umlor, became the bride of Donald Ager, son of Edward Ager, at St. Joseph Church, Sept. 24th. The Very Rev. Joseph J. Malinowski was celebrant of the nuptial Mass at which the double ring ceremony was read.

The bride selected a white satin gown designed with a sweetheart neckline and a bustle back; a fingertip veil edged with chantilly lace, held by a pearl studded tiara, and carried a bouquet of white gladioli and pompoms.

Miss Mary Umlor, twin sister of the bride, maid of honor, was attired in a pale green gown, with a corsage of yellow roses and white pompoms. Joe Chanda acted as best man.

Miss Betty Ager, sister of the groom, attired in a yellow gown, wore a corsage of yellow roses and white pompoms, as bridesmaid. Bill Skroeski also attended the groom.

Immediately after the ceremony a wedding breakfast was served at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Lord, sister of the groom. A wedding reception was held at the South Arm Grange Hall. Refreshments were served featuring a wedding cake and ice cream. The couple spent four days at a cottage on Lake Patricia and left for Detroit where the groom is employed.

The bride is a graduate of East Jordan High School. She has been employed in Petoskey as a Bell Telephone operator. Her mother having died at her birth, the bride was raised by Mr. and Mrs. Rocco DeMaio.

The bridegroom, a veteran of eighteen months in the Army, was also graduated from the East Jordan High School.

Name Spray For Chickweed Use

Chickweed in strawberry plantings can be killed by spraying with a new weed control chemical, says R. F. Carlson, Michigan State College horticulturist.

Chickweed often becomes a serious problem in Michigan strawberry plantings, particularly on the lighter soils. Many plantings become completely overrun with the weed.

Chickweed seed germinates in September in Michigan, Carlson states. The plant grows vigorously during fall and winter, producing a seed crop the following spring. Because the weed creeps among strawberry plants, becoming a solid mat both in and between the rows, it is impractical to remove it by hand or mechanical tillage.

Carlson has found that IPC (Isopropylphenolcarbamate) at a rate of 10 to 15 pounds per acre, applied in September, October or early November, will control this weed. IPC is available as a 50 percent wettable powder. Twenty to 25 pounds of the 50 percent material should be mixed with 50 to 100 gallons of water and applied as a spray. The material does not injure the strawberries but effectively kills the chickweed.

East Jordan Community Chest

BOARD OF DIRECTORS HAVE BUDGET OF $4,528.25 TO RAISE

At the September Board of Directors Meeting of the East Jordan Community Chest, Inc., it was voted unanimously to accept the budget of $4,528.25 recommended by the Budget and Admission Committee for the year 1949-50. Our Community Chest is a member of the Red Feather National Community Chests, and our drive will start Oct. 17th, at the time of the National drive.

The money to be raised is to be used as follows: Recreation Program $ 896.00 Health Program 2,400.00 Christmas Fund and Emergencies 500.00 United County Fund 732.25

The United County Fund of $732.25 includes Charlevoix Hospital, Michigan Children's Aid Society, Sister Kenny Foundation, Society for Mental Hygiene, Traveler's Aid, Arthritis and Rheumatism Foundation, Michigan Heart Association, etc.

There will be no attempt made by this United County Fund to raise money for American Cancer Society, National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis, American Red Cross, or any of their services.

This year there will be but one drive. Last year at the time of its organization, the East Jordan Community Chest thought it advisable to have two drives, one in the fall and one in the winter. This was explained in the papers and to all solicitors, but in spite of this a misunderstanding arose. In order to clear the record, there will be one drive this year conducted by the East Jordan Community Chest.

It is understood that the American Cancer Society, National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis, and American Red Cross will conduct drives of their own.

Watch this paper for further details about our coming drive.

Check For Good Herd Additions

Farmers who are buying heifers for dairy replacements this fall should have an eye out for big, growthy, roomy animals that have the ability to produce well.

County agricultural agents and DHIA testers often know where good heifers may be offered for sale.

AN APPRECIATION

Several times during the last three weeks I've heard myself saying, "I didn't know that I had so many friends". To each and every one of you I want to say a hearty Thank You.

Set Michigan Potato Loan Rate For 1949

Loan rate for Michigan potatoes has been set at 70 cents per hundredweight advises Dale Hathaway, Michigan State College marketing specialist.

This was reported as part of the USDA announcement concerning loan rates to producers or dealers on 1949 late-crop Irish potatoes. Loan rates in other states range from 55 to 95 cents. Rates are about 75 percent of the September bulk-at-farm support price.

Loans will be made on U. S. No. 2, one to one and seven-eighths inches minimum diameter, or better quality potatoes. Hathaway points out that the loan program is voluntary, and will not affect eligibility for other price support. The loans can provide ready cash for harvest-time financing, as a supplement to price support.

To get a loan, a producer must be certified as eligible to participate in the potato price support operations. Producers must have planted within acreage goals to get eligibility certificates. Dealer eligibility provides for payment of at least support prices for eligible potatoes purchased from eligible producers.

All loans will be made through County Agricultural Conservation committees in counties where the potatoes are stored. Loans will be available from Sept. 15 to Dec. 15 in Michigan, and will bear interest at 3 percent per year. They will mature on demand, but not later than April 30.

Early Fertilizer Orders Advocated

Thinking ahead is one of the big jobs of farming and anticipating fertilizer needs is one of the most important.

Michigan State College soils specialist says that planning your order and taking delivery as soon as possible saves time and trouble. If your truck fertilizer to your own farm, you'll avoid long lines that sometimes occur in peak seasons.

BOWLING

Bowling in the Traveling League started Sunday, Sept. 25th, with the Recreation travelers and Norm's Tavern playing host to Evert Merchants and Big Rapids Merchants. The Recreation won 5 points, taking three from Big Rapids and splitting with Evert. Norm's Tavern got away to a good start taking all four points from Evert but were cooled off by Big Rapids as they uncorked a strike spree and topped 2783 pins to take all four points from Norm's.

Cal's ladies continue their winning ways taking Art Cleaners, Charlevoix, 4 points to bring their total to 8 points and put them in the unbeaten class, the only team in all the Leagues to boast that record. Betty Jo Strehl wired games of 502, tops for the League, while Datha Peacock has high single with 179. In the other matches for the night Rainbow Bar took three points from Central Lake Torch; the Auxiliary topped Metal Products, Mancelona, 3 to 1; Dress and Gift Shop scored a 3 point win over Home Modernizing; Quality Food downed St. Joseph 3 to 1; and the State Bank and Bachmann's, Central Lake, split 2 points each.

Scoring in the Men's League still hit a fast pace as 16 men topped the 500 mark. Top match for the night saw Cal's Tavern take 3 points from Somerville's and go into first place one point ahead of Somerville's. Both Gene Teichman and Dick Hamerski had 545 for the winners and Spin Cihak 537 for the losers. The Recreation and American Legion bowled three evenly played games with three points going to the Recreation by narrow margins. Barney Adair was high for the Recreation with 566, and Cy Dolezel had tops for the Legion on 557. So close were the scores between Monarch Finer Foods and Thorsen's that after the Monarch team had left thinking they had beaten 3 to 1, it was discovered the points were reversed. Frank Ingalls was high for Monarch and Andy Anderson and Ed Nemecek tied for top honors for Thorsen's. In the other matches for the night the Canning Co., Ellsworth Electric, and State Bank took three points from Brock's Turkey Farm, Hillman's Insurance, and St. Joseph respectively. Burl Braman was tops for the Canner's with 531, Greg Boswell led the Bankers with 546, Rev. J. J. Malinowski and Jim Lilak had 511 a piece for the Saints, Young Brock Peacock led the Turkey growers with 484, while Don Clark and Earl Denny were tops for Hillman's and Ellsworth Electric with 505 and 501.

Hog Cholera

Of all farm livestock diseases, hog cholera is one of the most serious when it gets started, reports Dr. Lee Davison, Acting State Veterinarian, Michigan Department of Agriculture. It continues to break out occasionally in Michigan. Last week two cases of hog cholera were located, one in Oakland County and one in Berrien County.

Dr. Davison cautions farmers buying hogs for feed lots and corn fields to be careful in their selection of hogs and also careful in their vaccination program, if they vaccinate. As much as possible hogs should be selected from farm to farm, and should be carefully watched so that any time a sick hog is discovered, the veterinarian may be called to eliminate the possibility of cholera. Do not guess and do not wait, warns Dr. Davison, but call your veterinarian as a few days may mean the difference between saving and losing an entire ewine herd.

DEFEAT HARBOR SPRINGS THERE BY SCORE OF 21-0

Playing good, hard football Friday afternoon, East Jordan defeated Harbor Springs 21-0.

Superior blocking and tackling proved to be the big difference between the two teams, as the Red Devils scored once in the first quarter and twice in the third. Reserves played a large portion of the last quarter.

After an exchange of kicks, East Jordan moved from their own 35 yard line to score without giving up the ball. Don Cutler went off tackle for 3 yards and then right around right end for the extra point.

In the third quarter, "Red" Evans intercepted a Harbor pass on the 40 yard line and ran it to the Harbor nine. Two plays later, Joe Hammond went over for the score. Evans made the extra point. Another alert interception paved the way for the last score. Again Hammond plunged over and Evans made the extra point.

Creditable performances were again turned in by all the boys. Outstanding again was the blocking, tackling and signal calling of 145 pound Bryan Boring.

East Jordan was penalized 5 yards and Harbor Springs 35.

Our Sunday School begins promptly at 9:45 a. m. Our Sunday School is being reorganized and with the fine staff of teachers we have we are sure that every boy and girl who attends will profit greatly from this school. We had a splendid increase in our attendance this last Sunday, but we feel sure that there are still more who should be present. Let's all be there next Sunday morning.

Our Church Worship Service begins at 11:00 a. m. This coming Sunday, Oct. 2, is known throughout the church as World-Wide Communion Sunday. On this day throughout the world, Protestants join in their common witness to their faith in the Lordship of Jesus Christ. In our sad and desperate world, divided by man's devices, we need to gather about the table of our Lord and pledge anew our total allegiance to Him. If there are those who desire to unite with the church, or who desire to have the sacrament of Baptism administered to infants at this service, please confer with your pastor at your earliest convenience. The sermon subject will be, "One Common Faith".

The Westminster Youth Fellowship meets at 6:30 p. m. We had a very fine group together last Sunday evening and we are sure that we shall enjoy our fellowship this year together. All young people from the 7th grade and up are included in this group. Come along WYFers.

The United Promotion Committee of the Petoskey Presbytery has called a meeting on "Planned Education" to be held in this Church Tuesday evening, Oct. 4, at 7:30 p. m. Planned Education is something brand new in our church and is a great step forward. This meeting is concerned with the officers of the church, Elders, Trustees and representatives from the Womens' Organization. Since the program encompasses the entire church it is vital that these people be present for this meeting.

The Trustees will meet Thursday evening, Oct. 6th for their regular monthly business meeting in the Manse at 7:30 p. m.

Because more people rely on newspapers for information than on other media, Michigan governors hold press conferences twice a day.

The governor discusses problems of state government with reporters. The daily newspaper, in a matter of hours, carries on these developments.

Wages of Michigan grape growers were aired recently at a conference called by Governor G. Mennen Williams and covered by the press. Oddy enough, grape growers apparently boycotted the meeting, as none of them showed up. How to dispose of the 1949 grape crop was announced as the theme. Testimony was given to the effect that growers were demanding $100 a ton, whereas the Welch Grape Juice Company, leading processor, was willing to pay $75. Miles Nelson, state department of agriculture, said the 1949 crop was normal, no surplus existed, and the quality was not up to par. He also told this writer that California grape growers were getting $25 a ton.

Clarence Bolander, information chief of the agriculture department, said that 26 percent of Michigan's grape crop was usually sold as fresh fruit; 6 percent was purchased by housewives for jelly and jam; and the remainder was sold to processors for grape juice or wine.

A Detroit produce man reported the modern housewife shuns the chore of making jelly, preferring ready-made products from the corner grocery. He said the new generation apparently had new ideas, and that applied to Detroit's Italian section, too.

Surplus crops present the biggest headache to growers. That's where the state of Michigan comes into the picture for inspection, marketing and advertising. You will have an opportunity to enjoy Michigan apples this fall, winter and spring at attractive prices. As for grapes, the growers apparently patched up their difficulties, and all is well. At least, we hope so.

Parents, if you want to know about an encouraging report on how physicians are saving thousands of infants each year from the often fatal danger of diarrhea, see "BOON TO BABIES", an important medical report in The American Weekly, celebrated magazine with this Sunday's (October 2) issue of Detroit Sunday Times.

How do they compare in real comfort... in headroom, legroom, armroom? How do they compare in engineering quality and in new mechanical features? How do they compare in performance and ease-of-driving?

This year thousands of motorists have asked these questions. They have compared cars in all price ranges. And as a result they have chosen De Soto as the car that gives them the most enjoyment and the most real value for the money. Make the comparison yourself. Why Do They Want to Put A&P Out of Business?

The answer is to be found in the formal complaint "they" have filed with the court. By "they" we mean, of course, the anti-trust lawyers from Washington who are out to destroy A&P.

They say . . . and these are the anti-trust lawyers' own words . . . that we "have regularly undersold competing retailers."

To this charge we plead guilty:

We confess that for the past 90 years we have constantly stepped up the efficiency of our operations in order to give our customers more and more good food for their money.

The American people have seen nothing wrong in this. By their ever-increasing patronage for 90 years they have shown that they like this low-price policy.

Apparently the people still see nothing wrong in this today. All during the past week — since the anti-trust lawyers made their charges — we have been deluged with phone calls and letters from men and women in all walks of life who want us to know they are opposed to this effort to put A&P out of business.

An enormous number of customers are telling our store managers and clerks that they want to continue to enjoy our low prices for quality foods.

Farmers and other suppliers are asking what they can do to preserve this efficient outlet for their products.

Our 110,000 employees are asking us to protect their jobs and pensions.

Labor leaders are wiring us their opposition to this threat to labor's living standards.

If all these people will be hurt, why then do the anti-trust lawyers want to put A&P out of business?

Low Prices Don't Hurt Anyone

The anti-trust lawyers say because we are able to sell food cheaper than other grocers, we make it impossible for those grocers to compete with us.

If this were true, we should have all the food business in the United States by this time.

Just the opposite is true. In 1933 we had 11.6 per cent of the nation's food business. Now, according to the anti-trust lawyers, our share has decreased to 6.4 per cent in 1948. Anyone can see we have nothing even approaching a monopoly.

As a matter of fact, there are about 30,000 more individual grocers in business today than there were ten years ago.

There are about 275 more food chains in business today than there were ten years ago.

In other words, we have more competitors in the food field and do a smaller share of the nation's food business than before.

Where is this alleged destruction of other grocers? Where is there any evidence of their inability to compete with us?

Do You Want Higher Prices?

As anyone can see, the only purpose that would be served by putting A&P out of business would be to raise food prices.

Who would this benefit?

We were the first merchants to set the pattern for low-cost, low-profit distribution. Our example and our competition has led other grocers to keep their prices down.

Remove A&P from the picture and food prices are bound to go up.

Remove A&P from the picture and the way will be cleared for the destruction of every other efficient large-scale distributor.

Is this what the American people want?

Is this in the public interest?

WEEKLY NEWS ANALYSIS

U.S. Crops at Near-Record Pea Lewis Hints at Coal Mine Strike; Steel Industry Resists Wage Hike

(EDITOR'S NOTE: When opinions are expressed in these columns, they are those of Western Newspaper Union's news analysts and not necessarily of this newspaper.)

SUPERCHILIOUS SWINE UNIMPRESSED BY GI—Nominated for honors as swineedom's most snooty member, this porker at Okayama, Japan, is entirely unimpressed as Pfc. Joe McClelland, Modesto, Calif., uses an aspirator to capture disease-bearing mosquitoes in a house at Okayama. The GI's not-too-happy look is probably inspired by the realization that a hog with such a supercilious appearance might quickly instill an inferiority complex in any human being who gazed too long.

U.S. CROPS: Near Record

Marshall plan countries, nations everywhere sharing in the largesse of Uncle Sam, would rejoice at the news that the 1949 U. S. crop forecast indicated a near-record volume. So rosy was the picture that experts held that this year's farm production would almost approximate 1948's record output.

REPORTING this, the U. S. department of agriculture said that if the crop did not top all records, it certainly would be second only to last year's figures. Since the growing season for most crops was practically over, there was little likelihood in any change in the crop forecast.

Corn, especially, was abundant, with this crop almost certain to result in some sort of controls on surpluses. The prediction for the corn crop was 3.5 billion bushels, only 3.5 per cent below last year's record, but 27 per cent above average. The new figure was only about 13 million bushels less than the forecast of a month ago.

It was believed that a corn crop of this size was virtually certain to lead the government to invoke production controls on the 1950 crop in a move to prevent accumulation of a burdensome surplus. As a consequence, corn from this year's crop is expected to move into government hands under price-support programs to join the more than 400 million bushels remaining there from the 1948 crop.

NO OFFICIAL decision on corn was likely, however, until after the October crop estimate.

The agriculture department's wheat crop estimate of nearly 1.25 billion bushels was virtually unchanged from a month previous. This would make it the fourth largest wheat crop on record. Also among the relatively large crops were rice, tree nuts, soybeans, grapes, cotton, flaxseed, sorghum grain, dried beans, sugar cane and cherries.

RELIGION: 15 Priests Held

Charging the church with using an underground communications network, the Communist government in Czechoslovakia arrested 15 priests in an effort, it said, to smash the organization.

THERE were indications that despite the arrests, the system was still working because it was needed by the church to maintain contact between its priests and their bishops.

As a point in proof of the continued operation of the system, it was pointed out that parish priests still are sending in declarations to the government that they would rather go to jail than obey a new church-control bill which the Communists proposed to enact.

PRIESTS who have been sending in these declarations say they will never accept appointment from anyone except their freely-acting church superiors.

The church has demanded that the government call off its war against the clergy if it wants to enter into any new negotiations for an agreement as to the role of church and state in the governmental setup.

PRESENT FARM AID DEFENDED

Aitken Claims Wheat, Cotton Profs High

According to Senator Aitken (R., Vt.), present farm aid law provides for high price props for wheat and cotton and he declared that anyone who contends otherwise is guilty of misrepresentation.

The senator was defending the flexible farm-support law he helped write in the preceding congress and which bears his name. Barring new farm-aid legislation, the Ait-

Relax, Follows

All was serene, at least for the moment, between the American army and the American air force. The army apologized and thus ended a "battle" crisis growing out of the army's challenge of an air force claim that a mythical "enemy" armored force had been wiped out in war games in Germany.

The air force general in command, after the army blast at his claims, had threatened to pick up his planes and go home from the maneuvers.

Then the army admitted the air force was right, with the commanding general apologizing for the inability of his ground-forces umpire to assess properly the sudden strikes by the air force.

COAL:

Lewis Sputters

In the North, trees were showing the first sparks of autumnal color. In the West, snow already had fallen in one state. Fall was in the air and the crisp sharpness, the thinning sunlight all indicated the time was right.

And as is his wont, John L. Lewis knew it. The United Mine Workers' chief was threatening coal strike—and at a time when the threat would be most effective.

BUT AS USUAL, his threat was based apparently upon the highest ideals. There was no question of higher wages or shorter working hours. Instead, Lewis charged that southern coal operators had bled the union's welfare fund white by withholding payments.

Lewis did not mention the word "strike," but he said a continuation of the default in payments might cause "reactions deterrent to the constructive progress of the industry."

However, everybody on the sidelines in Washington construed that statement to hold a strike threat. The National Coal association advised its members that Lewis' language was a "direct threat" and added:

"No mention is made of the fact that there is no contract and no agreement to pay. . . ."

STEEL:

4th Round Unsure

Unless the situation changed drastically, there would be no fourth-round wage increase for the nation's steelworkers. Almost on the eve of the strike call, the CIO-United Steelworkers union gave up its fight for a wage hike, and called off the strike.

THE million-member union accepted both President Truman's recommendation for an extension of the strike truce and recommendations of a presidential fact-finding board aimed at solving the steel-wage dispute.

Philip Murray, union boss, told the President in a telegram that he gave up the wage increase demand "with profound regret," but agreed to the board's recommendations "in the interest of concluding a prompt settlement."

Six of the nation's major steel producers accepted the truce extension request, but no company had given an answer on the board's formula.

FINANCE:

Advice to British

If the British got nothing else out of the Washington conference on the island's financial crisis, they had received a lot of advice.

That they were not too prone to take it was evidenced by British comment in the homeland and hints by Washington newsmen that the British monetary delegation was peeved at the way U. S. treasury chief John Snyder was bossing the show.

WITH bland disregard for the fact, British comment in London was to the effect that Uncle Sam was playing England for a sucker. On the other hand, there was much criticism in the U. S. that the British had nothing but their own yen for the labor government to blame for their financial plight.

In the midst of the clamor, one thing appeared to be distinct; The major forces in U. S. agencies which might help the British were agreed that devaluation of currency was the immediate answer to Europe's financial problems. Snyder believes that, and he has been backed up by the opinion of the World Bank and Monetary Fund.

EUGENE BLACK, American president of the 48-nation World Bank, summed it up neatly. He said:

"I do not underestimate either the complexities or the far-reaching consequences of such action (devaluation), but I fail to see how it can be avoided."

SECURITY:

Cost Rising

An increase in the cost of social security to about 15 billion dollars by 1960, and possibly more than 30 billion by the year 2000, would be the net effect to American taxpayers if congress would pass the pending proposals to expand our present system.

THIS ESTIMATE was made by the Research Council for Economic Security, a Chicago organization, in a study entitled Estimated Cost of Social Security Expansion. Cost estimates are based upon the estimated population and mortality rates for future years. No allowances for variations in wage or price levels has been made.

The expanded program, all of which has been given consideration in the 81st congress, consists of four parts:

1. Increase in old age and survivors insurance benefits and coverage.
 2. The introduction of a new concept in federal social insurance, namely, compensation for temporary and permanent disability.
 3. An expansion in federal public assistance payments.
 4. Adoption of a national compulsory insurance system.
- "THE COST in terms of taxable payrolls," the council points out, "ranges from 9.7 per cent to 11.4 per cent in 1960, depending upon low-cost or high-cost estimate. For the year 2000, the estimate ranges from 13.3 per cent to 18.8 per cent of taxable payrolls."

WORLD SERIES:

Video at Movies

Everything, someone has observed, happens in Brooklyn. What was slated to happen in Brooklyn this fall would engage the interest of every baseball fan in the nation.

FOR, at a Brooklyn theater, all the World Series baseball games were to be shown, via television, on the theater's movie screen.

True, it was an experimental project for which the theater-owner reportedly paid $10,000; but other theaters had shown some interest in the plan, and it had the endorsement of A. B. "Happy" Chandler, baseball's high commissioner.

Tapped as Envoy

Robert D. Murphy, career diplomat and former political adviser to Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower, was nominated for post of U. S. ambassador to Belgium. He would succeed Admiral Alan G. Kirk, who is now U. S. ambassador to Russia.

PARTY LINE:

On the Farm

Communist officials, including three representatives from Moscow, held an organization and policy-making meeting at Beacon, N. Y.

That's the story that fell into the hands of the senate judiciary subcommittee on immigration. It reportedly came from one Maurice Malkin, Brooklyn, a self-acknowledged former Communist official in this country.

Marriages

Stephen — Robinson

Before a beautiful setting of palms and candle-light, a lovely wedding was solemnized Saturday evening, Sept. 24th, in the South Flint Tabernacle, when Miss Wilma Stephen, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Stephen of Gaines, became the bride of Bruce Robinson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jess Robinson, of Mt. Morris. Rev. Albert Abbey performed the double ring ceremony.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, was attired in white sharkskin with long train, and finger-tip veil held in place by a coronet of seed pearls, her bouquet was of white roses and carnations, centered with an iris corsage.

Miss Jackie Dufore of Flint, formerly of East Jordan, attended as maid of honor. Mrs. Reuben Spencer of Flint, sister of the bride, and Mrs. Carl Stephen of Mt. Morris, sister of the groom, were bridesmaids. They wore identical gowns and matching hats of orchid, pale green and yellow respectively, and carried matching bouquets.

The groom was attended by his brother, Ward Robinson of Mt. Morris. Ushers were Carl Stephen of Mt. Morris, Gerald Stephen of Gaines, and Jr. usher was LaVern Stephen, all brothers of the bride.

The bride's mother was gowned in black crepe and wore a corsage of pink and white roses and carnations. The groom's mother wore navy blue with matching accessories, and a corsage of red and white roses and carnations.

Larry Johnson sang "Always", accompanied by Miss Mary Curtis on the Hammond organ. Following the ceremony a reception for approximately one hundred guests was served in the church parlors. Guests attending were from Toledo, Ohio; Detroit, Ferndale, West Branch, Caro, Mt. Morris, Gaines and Flint.

For going away the bride chose a bright red suit with brown accessories.

The newly-weds will make their home at 229 Mary St., Flint, Mich.

Parks — Felton

The Pickeral Lake Cottage of Dr. and Mrs. Wm. H. Parks was the scene of a picturesque wedding when their daughter, Miss Jane Hollestry Parks, became the bride of H. Sibley Felton, son of Mr. and Mrs. John G. Felton, of LaCrosse, Wis., on Monday afternoon.

Against an effective fireplace background of cedar, yellow dahlias were the only color accent introduced into an otherwise all white arrangement of gladioli, dahlias and many lighted candles, before which the service was read by Rev. E. P. Linnell, pastor of the First Presbyterian church.

A program of traditional wedding music, played by Mrs. L. G. Balch, included the "Bridal Course" from "Lohengrin" by Richard Wagner, and recessional by Mendelssohn.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore an antique ivory gown of slipper satin, accented by a low shoulder yoke of French illusion. Beautiful in its simplicity, it was further distinguished by a fitted bodice topped by a softly draped portrait neckline, long sleeves pointed over the wrists and a hooped skirt extending into a short circular train. From a Juliet cap of illusion and banded satin, her veil cascaded to finger-tip length on the sides and to the length of her gown in back. She carried a white bridal bouquet of asters and pompons. As her sister's junior bridesmaid and only attendant, Miss Mary Parks wore a moss green velvet floor length gown and carried a bouquet of bronze and yellow pompons and ivy.

William H. Parks, brother of the bride, assisted as best man.

A garden reception for 60 guests immediately followed the ceremony. The predominantly all white setting was further carried out with gladioli and candles at the reception table, where the bridegroom's sister Mrs. H. Corbryn Rooks, of LaCrosse, Wis., presided over the coffee service. The flower garlanded tiered wedding cake was served at a separate table by Mrs. Chas. Garthe of Traverse City.

When the couple left on a two week's Canadian wedding trip, Mrs. Felton was wearing a forest green worsted suit with a matching tweed top coat and brown accessories. They will make their home in Lansing, where Mr. Felton is associated with the J. C. Penny Co.

Mrs. Felton is a graduate of Stephen's College and received her B. A. degree this year from the University of Michigan. Mr. Felton was graduated from the School of Business Administration at Harvard University after having served for three years as an ensign in the United States Navy.

Dr. and Mrs. G. W. Bechtold and Mr. and Mrs. Howard P. Porter attended the wedding.

Suggests Modern Furniture For The Practical Buyer

If you are thinking of buying furniture, here are some practical suggestions from Dorothy Washburn, home furnishings authority at Mich. State College. She suggests a few considerations before you buy since furniture is a long time investment.

Are you going to buy furniture to suit your family's needs or are you going to buy the long accepted furniture pieces? Flexibility is the keynote of modern furnishings. Rooms can serve several purposes if furnished accordingly.

Make a list of the present and future needs of your family. Then select the pieces that best fit those needs. In many cases you will find the right piece will serve several purposes. Modern furniture is the most flexible and is second to eighteenth century furniture in popularity. Furniture sales people say that it is the conservative couples who are furnishing their homes for the second time that buy that period furniture.

Michigan has some of the most recognized furniture designers in the United States designing modern furniture. They are working on moderate priced furniture and the next few years will produce much more well-designed modern furniture.

Even conservative furniture companies are beginning to look at modern design for it is suited to our age and way of living.

Labels Needed For Wool Goods

New developments in the manufacture of woollens are adding to their service, but as consumers we need to know what they are if they are to be useful to us.

Questions about shrinkage, washing, color fastness, and moth proofing we can answer only by reading the labels. Florence Rann, extension specialist in clothing at Michigan State College, believes that we need definite statements on woollens as we have on cotton labels.

Labels should tell whether the fabric is permanently shrunken, whether it will not shrink more than one or two percent, or whether it will begin to shrink after six or eight washings.

According to recent news we are assured that these questions will be answered by at least one company. The same company which developed the sanforizing process for cottons has now announced a similar shrinkage control process for wool called "sanforlan". This company states that wool garments bearing the trademark, "sanforlan" will not shrink out of fit.

This process is being used on sweaters, hosiery, sport shirts, robes, slacks, skirts, mittens, infant's and children's wear and yard goods. Soon you will see it on many other wool items also.

Other characteristics we would like described on the label are whether the fabric is moth-resistant and for how long and whether it is colorfast to light, perspiration and cracking.

Place Refrigerator For Top Service

Before your new refrigerator is moved in, consider where it should stand to give you top service. The labor saving value and efficiency may be largely lost if a refrigerator is poorly placed.

You can save yourself steps, advises Lucille Ketchum, home management extension specialist at Michigan State College, by placing it near a food preparation center not too far from the sink. If this is impossible, a small table nearby and a tray for carrying will help in putting away and getting out perishables.

Keep your refrigerator in the open with at least 2 1/2 inches of air space between the back of your refrigerator and the wall. If your box must be recessed, 3 to 4 inches at the back and sides is better and 8 to 12 inches at the top. Air circulation carries away the heat from the motor.

Avoid extremes of heat and cold. Although modern refrigerators are well-insulated, extra heat makes them run overtime as you will have noticed on a hot summer day. You won't want to duplicate summer heat by placing your refrigerator next to your range or a radiator or hot air register or in the sunlight.

On the other hand, an unheated back porch during winter months is a poor spot for the refrigerator because the extreme cold is hard on its mechanism. Be sure the floor is level. This is a point that may be overlooked but is as important for good operation as air circulation and moderate temperature.

The School Bell...

FIRST GRADE — Marguerite Stokes

There are thirty-four students in our room. We like to read and write in first grade. We have a nice sunny room. We have nice books. We are good helpers. We have good milk and cracker every morning at 9:30. We played "The Three Bears" and "Little Black Sambo".

SECOND GRADE — Cora Seiler

There are thirty-two enrolled in our room. We are divided into three Reading Groups. In a spelling contest last week Carolyn McWatters, Lyndell Ingalls and Julie Hubble were the winners. Raymond Prebble, Carolyn McWatters, Larry Gee and Frances Scott were absent on account of illness. We had a contest Friday afternoon. We played ring-toss. Sharon Rowland was captain of the winning team.

SECOND GRADE — Agnes M. Johnston

We have 32 children in our room this year. We like our room in the new building. During our language periods together we are talking about the ways we can be safe while at school. Many worthwhile pictures have been brought to school by the children which show how to cross the streets and show safety in general.

Mrs. Seiler sent us a very beautiful bouquet of flowers for our room. We wrote her a thank-you note and Lorna Kent delivered it. Jolly Jingo is a new character in our Weekly Readers this year. He is a clown. He has a magic nose which tells us when we can cross the street. This week he told us how we could help keep our school room bright and cheerful. We are wondering what he'll tell us next week.

We thank James Gidley, Shirley McClanathan and Billy Malpass for the flowers. They helped make our room cheerful. Dale Cosier had a birthday last week. He was seven years old. The song Mrs. Drapeau is teaching us is about September. We like to sing the part that tells us what colors the leaves are on the trees.

SECOND AND THIRD GRADES — Adeline Bowerman

On Wednesday afternoon of last week we made our first field trip by hiking to the Sportsman's Park. On the way we looked for signs of Fall and observed different kinds of weeds and nature's way of spreading their seeds. We looked for feathers for our Indian headbands but did not find many. We are grateful to Mrs. Martinek and Mrs. Ogden for their assistance.

The following day the third graders wrote original stories about the trip. Mary Carol Hastie wrote the following:

A Trip to the Sportsman's Park Yesterday we walked to the Sportsman's Park. We saw a swan that couldn't swim because the turtles ate its foot when it was little. We found some shells and a few feathers too. Monday morning Jane Campau told about her trip to Brown City over the week end. Agnes Zoulek reported on a trip she had to Cross Village.

Each Monday morning we choose new officers for the week. This week our student teacher is Mary Carol Hastie; safety girl, Sue Ann Dye; safety boy, Jerry Bennett; flowers, Kay Kamradt; blackboards, Bruce Ogden; floors, Harold Hart, and librarian, Agnes Zoulek. Our study of Indian Life is becoming more interesting each day. Nearly every child has made some contribution to the project if nothing more than a gunny sack for the tepee. After studying about the foot rule and yard stick in number class we measured the poles and constructed a tepee in our room. The girls sewed the sacks together for the covering. We were surprised to find that could set comfortably in the tepee for reading class. Several lovely canoes were brought in so we found it necessary to build a lake near the tepee. It is surrounded by a pine forest. Our collection of Indian things is growing each day with arrow heads, axes, birch bark, beads, dolls, baskets, dishes made by the Navajos, a totem pole, pictures and a real buckskin. A home project for the last week end was to find the names of Michigan towns which got their names from the Indians. It is gratifying that so many parents are spending the time with their children helping them find new information.

FOURTH GRADE — Grace Galmore

Now that Fall is here the leaves are turning red, yellow and brown.—Glendora Cihak. I went on a trip to Detroit. I saw a roller coaster and a skating rink.—Diane Taylor. We have some little baby goats and they are only three weeks old.—Mary Ann Martinek. There is a gas shovel by our school. They are going to make a school bus garage. We will be glad when they get done. We drew a picture of it. It is black and orange.—Suzanne Seaman. The gas shovel is digging a hole for the hose. My father is helping.—Joel Evans. We made a fruit basket and some sun flowers for our bulletin board.—Rhea Zitka. We are going to have assembly soon. We know two poems that we are going to say.—Judy Shedina.

FIFTH GRADE — Elizabeth Dhaseleer

We are writing to schools in other states to find out how they live there.—Margaret Gifford. We are studying about coal in Geography. We are using several

When she settled on her homestead near the Richardson Hill it is said there was not a practicing physician this side of Traverse City, nor a minister of her faith (Methodist). Being a skillful nurse she often trudged along her lonely way through the woods at night guided by the flickering light of a torch, seeking the homes of the distressed. It is said she organized the first Sunday School at Deer Lake. Funeral services at the Methodist church, conducted by Rev. W. W. Lamport. Burial at Boyne City.

From where I sit... by Joe Marsh
A Big Boost For Smitty!
Stepped into Smith's Department Store the other noon and saw the strangest thing. "Sis" Davis was coming up the stairs from the basement with a bundle of wash. "Is Smitty taking in washing these days?" I asked. "Not quite," she says. "He's just put in a new automatic washing machine, so the girls who work here can get their laundry done while they're eating lunch. Means more time to relax at night and on weekends." I thought what a swell boss Smitty must be. Human relations between the boss and employees have certainly taken a big step forward during my lifetime. From where I sit, people seem to be doing a better job of seeing our neighbor's viewpoint these days. Though his ideas and tastes may not be ours, we can understand his preference for a certain breakfast cereal, a favorite movie star, or for a temperate glass of beer or ale. That's the way it should be in a free country.
