Summer Camp Big Success

PROMISES TO BE AN ANNUAL AFFAIR FOR THIS REGION

The first summer recreation camp sponsored by the recreation departments of East Jordan, Petoskey, Boyne City and Pellston was a huge success and plans are being made to make it an annual affair. Of the group of 165 who attended, forty were from East Jordan. Acting as Counselors were Mike Corgan, Cliff Buckmaster and Bob Woodruff of Petoskey, Dan Devine and John Downing of East Jordan; Art Gillispie and Norm Davis of Boyne City; and Bernie Wilson of Pellston.

Although the weather was a little cold for swimming the following East Jordan boys were awarded Red Cross certificates for passing beginners swimming test: Bruce Healey, Buck Cihak, Steve Brennan, Bill Farmer, Lee Thomas, Larry Ingalls, Bob Smith and Billy Taylor.

One of the highlights of the week was the nature study and bird hikes taken by boys on Friday under the supervision of Mr. Bull who works with the educational division of the state conservation department.

Although the food may not have been just "the way Ma makes it", many of the boys agreed they had never eaten quite as much. Sponsoring boys this year were: P. T. A., American Legion, Rebecca's, Canning Co., Co-ops, Iron Works, Rotary, Mr. and Mrs. John Porter, and Mr. and Mrs. Harry Watson.

Help To Prevent Infantileparalysis

NAPS AND SHORTER SWIMS ARE POLIO PRECAUTIONS

Every Michigan child should have a compulsory rest period every afternoon and his swimming should be limited to short intervals which will not tire or chill him, the Michigan Department of Health warned today in announcing poliomyelitis precautions for Michigan parents and children.

Accumulated evidence indicates that there is a marked relationship between becoming over-tired or really chilled and the amount of crippling relating from poliomyelitis, Dr. F. S. Leeder, Director of the Division of Disease Control of the Department pointed out.

When there are poliomyelitis cases in a community, a great many children have light cases of the disease with no symptoms or with symptoms no more severe than those of a common cold. These children may become seriously ill and crippling may result if they are allowed to become over-tired or chilled during the first few days of their illness, he explained.

Michigan parents and children should carefully observe all the precautions prescribed by the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis, Dr. Leeder said. They are:

Keep Children with their own friends. Keep them away from people they have not been with right along, especially in close daily living. Many people have polio infection without showing signs of it, they can pass the infection on to others.

Try not to get over-tired by work, hard play or travel. If you already have the polio infection in your body, being very tired may bring on serious polio.

Keep from getting chilled. Don't bathe or swim too long in cold water. Take off wet clothes at once. Chilling can lessen your body's protection against polio.

Keep clean. Wash hands carefully before eating and always after using the toilet. Hands may carry polio infection into the body through the mouth. Also keep food clean and covered.

Watch for early signs of sickness. Polio starts in different ways—with headache, sore throat, upset stomach, sore muscles or fever. Persons coming down with polio may also feel nervous, cross or dizzy. They may have trouble in swallowing or breathing. Often there is a stiff neck or back.

Call your doctor at once. Until he comes, keep the patient quiet and in bed, away from others. Don't let the patient know you are worried. Your doctor will tell you what to do. Usually polio patients are cared for in hospitals, but some with light attacks can be cared for at home.

Dr. Leeder concluded with an encouraging note. "More than half of all people who get the disease recover completely without any Antrim cherry growers will meet at the Milton Town Hall, Saturday evening, July 8, at 8:30. This will be for the purpose of discussing prices, crop and crop management problems.

A goodly number of growers have been attending this year's meetings.

At the last grower's meeting it was decided that basically, the same picking price as 1949, 50 cents per case, would be in order. Crop indications are good but slightly under the 1949 figures for a bumper crop.

Michigan Leads In Traffic Engineering

Traffic Engineering Award Plaque is presented to State Highway Commissioner Charles M. Ziegler by Robert S. Holmes of New Haven, Conn., executive secretary of the Institute of Traffic Engineers; at a testimonial dinner in Statler Hotel, Detroit. Competing against the leading states of the nation, Michigan won first place in traffic engineering.

Michigan Wins Traffic Plaque

RATES HIGHEST IN NATION FOR TRAFFIC SAFETY ENGINEERING

At a testimonial dinner in the Statler Hotel, Detroit, an June 27, State Highway Commissioner Charles M. Ziegler was presented with a plaque denoting Michigan's leadership in the field of traffic engineering, by Robert S. Holmes, of the Institute of Traffic Engineers of New Haven, Conn.

Michigan won this top honor in competition with the leading states of the nation. California was second in the competition, with New York, Pennsylvania, Ohio and Illinois, runners up. All states competed for the award, which was made on the basis of all engineering functions of the competing state highway departments, including traffic control devices, surveys and studies, intersection design, planning and administration.

In accepting the plaque, Commissioner Ziegler said, "The safety programs of the State Highway Department are state-wide and continuous. Beginning with the selection of the location of a road, all the way through design, construction and control, safety features are the paramount concern. The Department is constantly safety-minded. We are proud to have this recognition come to Michigan."

"Recognizing the importance of adequate signs to the safety of the motorist, the Department is now engaged in re-signing the entire trunkline system in conformity with a uniform national pattern. Signs, signals, flashers, and other traffic control devices and pavement markings provide protection to the highway users by clearly designating danger points such as hills, curves, railroad crossings and road intersections. Grade separations at railroad crossings and intersections of important traffic routes are constructed for safety and to keep the traffic flow moving."

"A program of roadside improvement is carried out at all times. Brush and overhanging tree limbs are removed to assure ample clearance and adequate sight distance. Shoulders are sodded and kept in condition to hold vehicles which leave the road surface. Roadside parking areas and turn-outs are maintained in order that the motorist may rest awhile and continue driving refreshed.

"Winter hazards of snow and ice are quickly removed from highways. Gravel is cleaned away from railroad tracks and every precaution is taken to keep the highways safe.

"The greatly increased traffic and the higher percentage of heavy commercial vehicles in the traffic flow have congested our highways and made wider and heavier road design mandatory, as well as bringing safety factors to the forefront. Expressways, with limited access, have proven the only answer in crowded metropolitan areas.

"We are concentrating on reasonable safety programs considering our inadequate highway revenues. Likewise, the deficiencies of the trunkline system can be eliminated only as fast as revenues are provided. Poor roads, roads not capable of carrying the traffic load, and insufficient grade separations at railroad crossings and heavy traffic intersections, are taking an annual toll in lives and property far in excess of the cost of improving the highways of the State", Ziegler said in conclusion.

The Michigan Good Roads Federation presented Commissioner Ziegler with a scroll commending him and the Department for winning the safety award, for foresight in recognizing the importance of traffic planning, and for assistance given in the engineering analysis of Highway Needs in Michigan.

The Sunday Church School begins at 9:45. The Worship Service begins at 11:00 a. m. We welcome all visitors to our church. The sermon subject will be, "Midnight Christians".

Monday morning, July 10th, we begin our Community Vacation Church School. This school is being sponsored by five of the churches in our community. There will be classes for all children between the ages of 4 and 12 or through the sixth grade in school. The School will meet each morning in the Presbyterian Church, five days a week for two weeks. There will be instruction in Bible music and craft. Each day will begin at 9:00 and close at 11:30. This is a fine venture in co-operation among our churches and a project for our community that will be worthwhile in the life of each boy and girl who attends. We urge all parents to avail themselves in this opportunity for more Christian teachings for their boys and girls.

Methodist Church

Robert Moore, Pastor

Church 10:00; Sunday School 11:15.

The Youth Fellowship group met to clean the yard at the church Monday evening. While the rain prevented them from completing their project it did dampen the spirit of the party which followed. Sandwiches, cake, cookies, potato chips and pop were enjoyed at the home of Margaret Blossie. Mrs. Richard Schroeder, teacher of the group, was present. Howard Yatzek, Gene Schofer, Clemens Bender and Kenneth Shuffett, MYF members of the Clarenceville Methodist Church of Farmington, Mich., were invited to the party. These boys have worshipped in our church but this was their first Fellowship meeting. They had much to offer our groups, inspiration and the real meaning of church fellowship.

The congregation was not quite as large as usual last Sunday when Rev. Robert Moore delivered his first sermon. Members not in attendance missed a fine sermon. We are looking forward to meeting the family next week end. Under Rev. Moore's able leadership our church will continue to progress and grow.

The "arsenal of democracy" for World War II is getting ready for World War III.

While hoping that Russia would not precipitate another world conflagration, Michigan government and civilian leaders are taking a practical viewpoint. IF war does break out, Michigan can expect aerial attack from the enemy for the first time in the Commonwealth's history.

Governor G. Mennen Williams has asked mayors of 45 cities, all over 10,000 population, to appoint civilian defense directors at once. A temporary air raid warning system will be placed into operation by Commissioner Donald Leonard, Michigan State Police.

The governor was assured by Rep. Victor Knox, speaker of the House, that the legislature would convene promptly if, in the opinion of the governor, new legislation was needed to prepare Michigan for any emergency. The legislative is now technically in recess.

At the Soo locks the government closed the locks to visitors as a security precaution, labeled as a "10-day test"

The state police radio network is being alerted for possible emergency use.

In Detroit, where munitions were mass-produced during World War II at victorious volume, steps have been taken to notify the public if Russia attempts a sneak attack by air. Sirens have been silenced on police and fire equipment so that the sound of sirens, at any time, will mean just one thing: WAR! Augmenting the police-fire siren warnings will be the whistles of 140 factories.

Plans to evacuate industrial centers are being rushed, while first aid organization was being pushed to provide doctors, nurses and nurses' aids for bombed areas.

Michigan's big news-of-the-week is the hurried preparation to get under cover from Russian bombing planes if and when war breaks.

If war does not come, the preparations may be regarded as constructive for test training purposes.

If war does come, a lot of people fear that Michigan may be caught unprepared. The big industrial centers and the Soo locks offer ideal targets, and a few bombs, placed accurately, could become miniature "Pearl Harbors" to American security.

At Washington the Congress approved extension of the Draft, empowering the president to draft needed manpower for the armed forces, now 635,000 men short. Michigan's selective service machinery is being kept on a stand-by basis for instant call.

This Thursday (July 6) at Lansing will bring all civilian defense coordinators for a state-wide session.

Detroit's coordinator, Brig. Gen. Clyde E. Dougherty, gave this bit of advice, as publicized in the press:

"All I can say is be calm, don't get hysterical, get under cover, turn off the gas and lights, leave the radio on for advice, and have plenty of water available.

Washington advice is that an outbreak of war would automatically invoke the most drastic restrictions on food, transportation and materials. Prices would be put under ceilings; wages probably frozen.

All of this disturbing preparation is likely, as long as the war clouds are on the horizon, to prompt apprehensive housewives to "play safe" by purchasing a few extra pounds of sugar; families to take that year-planned vacation in the near future and perhaps to order a new automobile, television set, clothes and other commodities which might become scarce articles. Hoarding of this kind will have one inevitable result: An artificial shortage, thus created, will skyrocket prices unnecessarily.

And yet human nature may be expected to function, as it always does.

WEEKLY NEWS ANALYSIS

Russia Offers Cold War 'Terms'; Dewey to Retire From Politics; F. B. I. Arrests Two in Spy Case

(EDITOR'S NOTE: When opinions are expressed in these columns, they are those of Western Newspaper Union's news analysts and not necessarily of this newspaper.)

COLD WAR: New Peace Terms

Observers are speculating over so-called cold war peace terms reportedly acceptable to the Russians which include a demand that the United States cease helping to re-arm western Europe.

It was an ironic demand because at the same time the Soviet agreed to recognize the Atlantic pact as a legitimate regional defense group under the terms of the United Nations charter.

It is this pact that pledges the western nations to mutual aid.

The Soviet also had three demands on the Far East:

(1) Elimination from the United Nations of the representatives of Generalissimo Chiang Kai Shek's government.

(2) Acceptance by the western powers of the Russian "gold ruble" as the basic currency for China's foreign trade.

(3) Soviet participation in the conclusion of a peace treaty with Japan which would guarantee the latter country what Moscow considers to be "political freedom."

In the European field, the Soviet had four rather vague offers:

(1) Unification of Germany within the framework of the Potsdam agreement.

(2) Neutralization of Germany.

(3) Withdrawal of all occupational forces from Germany.

(4) General reduction of armaments and armies, including the abandonment of conscription.

Observers did not believe the terms would be attractive enough to bring about any settlement of differences between the East and the West. Russia, as usual, wants a great deal but is vague about tangible returns.

DEWEY: Plans to Retire

One of the most spectacular careers in modern American politics has come to a halt, at least temporarily.

Governor Thomas E. Dewey of New York has announced he will retire from politics after 20 years in public life and probably return to private law practice when his second term expires next December 31.

Dewey said in a one-sentence statement which he personally distributed to reporters, "I shall not be a candidate for re-election next fall." He renounced further personal White House ambitions last December.

As expected, his announcement raised a number of questions in the New York state political picture as well as on the national scene.

Dewey, New York's only Republican governor in the past 30 years, added, however, that he would continue an active interest in public affairs. He promised to speak out on "issues affecting the welfare of the state and nation," especially foreign affairs.

He rose to political prominence when he pyramided his fame and methodical efficiency as a racket-busting prosecutor in New York city into two terms as governor and two nominations for President.

He was defeated by President Roosevelt in 1944. In 1948, he lost to President Truman.

The governor said he had made no definite decision as to his plans, but intended to get much rest. He said there was nothing wrong with him physically that a long vacation would not cure. He is just "tired," he added.

HUNGARY: Demands Ransom

The custom of blackmail, ransom and intrigue so often employed by the Nazis in the reign of terror over Europe, has put in a more obvious appearance under the Communists.

Hungary has demanded the ancient crown of St. Stephen as ransom for Robert A. Vogeler, imprisoned American businessman.

According to reports from Europe, Hungarian Communists have offered to swap Vogeler for the 1,000-year-old crown which is the symbol of Magyar royalty.

The crown was taken from Hungary by the Nazis and later found by the American troops in Germany.

CORPORATIONS: Increased Taxes

When the election conscious house and senate began a program of tax cutting after President Truman offered his budget, he warned any reductions must be met with revenue from other sources.

Now, the house ways and means committee, obviously bidding for presidential approval of the excise-tax cut, had voted a $433,000,000 increase in the yearly tax on big corporations.

Admits Spying

David Greenglass, 28, former noncommissioned army officer, has admitted giving Russia information about the atomic bomb. He was the third person arrested in the spy ring since the British scientist Klaus Fuchs was taken into custody.

ESPIONAGE: New Arrests Made

Since British scientist Klaus Fuchs admitted spying for Russia the F.B.I. has been closing the net around associates in the United States who passed along classified atomic information to him.

As a result two new arrests have been made. One of the accused admitted that he passed along atomic secrets from the Los Alamos, N.M., plant in 1945.

He is David Greenglass, a 28-year-old former Communist league leader who explained his act: "I felt it was gross negligence on the part of the United States not to give Russia the information about the atom bomb because she was an ally."

The other accused, Dean Slack, a 44-year-old Syracuse, N.Y., chemist, denied he knew Henry Gold, the first arrested in this country. He added he was not and never had been a Communist.

Both men are held under $100,000 bonds. Meanwhile, a grand jury investigating Amerasia case, which has been much in the headlines recently, cleared the administration's handling of the stolen documents case, but strongly recommended the impeding of a new grand jury to continue the investigation.

Also in connection with the case, Emmanuel S. Larsen, himself arrested and fined in the 1945 case that hinged on the theft of hundreds of diplomatic and military papers, told a senate investigating committee he regarded former navy lieutenant Andrew Roth as "a Communist, and the principal conspirator" in the stolen-documents case.

Government officials indicated that the arrest of Slack and Greenglass was only the beginning in the battle to break up what may possibly be one of the greatest spy rings in the history of this country.

COMMUNISTS: Defeat by Ballot

Political observers were pleased with the outcome of the state election returns in the Ruhr section of Western Germany. They felt it was a defeat of the Communists by the ballot.

In the British zone the voters picked a 215-seat parliament and voted on a proposed state constitution. The returns indicated Communist strength had tumbled to a postwar low when they received only 5 per cent of the valid ballots, compared with 14 per cent in the election three years ago.

The workers, however, favored the proposed state constitution with its socialization clause:

"Large factories of the basic industries and undertakings which, because of their monopolistic position have special significance, shall be transferred to common ownership."

The specific industries were not named in the draft.

Western observers felt the elections justifiable in that they would:

1. Give the new nationalist parties, which were not even in the arena in the federal elections last August, a chance to show their muscle.

2. Tell whether communism is gaining in Western Germany.

3. Test the popularity of the West German Federal Government's policies.

Rent Control

The house and senate committees considering rent control have agreed upon a six-month extension of federal controls and another six months in communities which want them.

Although both branches of congress must approve the measure, there seemed little doubt that they would do so.

Observers said the bill will be on the President's desk before June 30.

BULLETIN ON GRASSES AND LEGUMES

To back up all this talk on grassland farming, Michigan State College has just published a bulletin entitled, "Grasses and Legumes on Michigan Farms." A committee headed by E. B. Hill of the agricultural economics department, assisted by Carter Harrison of farm crops and Jim Hays of dairy was assigned the job of putting together all the available information on the subject. The bulletin is the result of the committee's work.

A section has been devoted to recommended varieties and their adaption on different soil types and in different parts of the state. Another section is concerned with proper management of grass and legume crops on the farm. There is a pasture calendar to show when different types of pasture are most likely to produce and the carrying capacity of each type.

As you might expect, a good amount is devoted to the subject of grass silage for plenty of farmers are asking questions about it. The bulletin contains a summary of the extensive study conducted by Byron Bookhout and Karl Vary of the agr'l economics department. Their study was made by contacting farmers who have had actual experience in putting up grass silage so the information is practical.

Those farmers interested in producing grass and legume seed will find a section of information on that. There's also space given to the soil conservation and soil building qualities of grass and a section on the utilization of hay and pasture by all kinds of livestock.

If you're interested in having a copy of the bulletin, it's available from Ed. Rehman, county agent, by writing to his office at Boyne City. Ask for it by the name, "Grasses and Legumes on Michigan Farms."

God's Greatest

Lesson for July 9, 1950

A GREAT man cannot always be seen at close range. His contemporaries may not know what to make of him. Current celebrities outshine him, his enemies cry him down, circumstances hide his true greatness. You have to stand off from him, perhaps several centuries away, before you can see his true height. Great men are like tall mountains; within a few miles of them, the traveler cannot see them for the masses of smaller ridges and peaks that hide the distant view. Only far out on the plain can we see the great peak towering into the blue.

Dr. Foreman

Not Much Chance
MOSES was such a man. At many times in his life, if you had been there, you would have thought he had very little chance to live, much less to succeed. Suppose you had seen him in the first three months of his life? He was born under a death sentence; his parents were breaking the law of the land by keeping him alive at all. Then later if you had seen him in his sea-going bassinet among the reeds in the river, you might have thought: Will the contraption float? Even if a princess finds the baby, won't she know what he is and send him straight off to be killed? Or years later, when Moses was a sort of pampered stepson of the palace, what promise was in him? Pharaoh's court was full always of proud young fellows spoiling for a fight. Moses might have looked to you just like another useless aristocrat. And then when Moses was out in the wilds, tending another man's sheep, married to an ignorant back-country lass who never understood him in the least; would you have put much faith in that discouraged old ranch-hand?

God's Man
BUT don't judge a man by what his contemporaries say. We know now, we have known for centuries, that Moses was one of God's greatest and best. Consider what the world owes to that one man. Of all his services, let us note three in particular. For one thing, we trace the Ten Commandments back to him. Not that he was the first to call stealing or adultery or greediness wicked; men have known as much since early times. But we do associate the Ten Commandments with Moses' name. He preached and taught that religion is ethical; that is, right living is tied in with and tied up to right religion.

Faith and life flow into and support each other. Some religions declare that if a man pleases God that is all that matters; he can ride his neighbors as he pleases. Other religions (or substitutes for religion) say that if a man treats other men right he can let God go. Not so Moses; not so the Jews nor the Christians!

Moses was also the man through whom God revealed some of the most important truths we know about God. Moses taught his people, and through them teaches us, of a spiritual God, not like anything "in heaven above or the earth beneath or in the waters under the earth." God has "no manner of form." God is pure spirit, without a body like men or like anything. To this day men find that hard to take in; but it is an important truth for any one who wants to think truly about God and to find him.

Moses and Christ
A BOVE all, there would have been no Christianity if Moses had never lived, or if he had failed. If the children of Israel had done what they wanted to do, slink back to Egypt and slavery, the whole great history of the Old Testament would have been unwritten. Poets and prophets would have died unborn.

But he would have had to make a start somewhere else besides with the Hebrew people, and the whole history of religion would have been different. There would have been no New Testament without the Old Testament.

Even Jesus of Nazareth either would not have been at all, or would have been entirely different, if it had not been for the whole background of the Hebrew story, in which Moses played such a leading part. If the world owes a debt to Christianity (and what a debt!), it owes also a tribute to Moses.

East Jordan Tourist Park

Last week when we mentioned new equipment that had arrived we failed to mention a new game—that is, it is new here. The game of quoits or horse-shoes, will be set up at one end of the shuffleboard. The new tennis net has also arrived.

On Saturday a pot luck picnic reunion was held when fifteen members and their families, out of a class of twenty-three, of the Mancelona High School class of 1940. The weather was cool so they set their tables out doors in the sun.

A very happy surprise was held for Miss Marjorie Keller honoring her 16th birthday, when her mother, Mrs. Lyle Keller, and sister, Mrs. Daphne Kowalske, entertained for her in the park dining room. The guests were the Misses Bethany Whiteford, Ruth Sloop, Connie Swafford, Darlene Albin, Reta Cook and the guest of honor. Games and shuffleboard furnished the entertainment. Ice cream and cake served as refreshments.

Even though the sky was heavy with rain and the weather cold, it did not keep crowds from holding several get-togethers Sunday.

There were not enough buildings to accommodate all who wished to come and some had to find other places to gather. Among the groups were the Hawley-Livingston reunion. It is a yearly affair held in the park. Guests present were from Detroit, Flint, Clio, Gaylord, Drayton Plains, East Tawas, Kendallville, Ind., and East Jordan.

In the recreation building the following families gathered for a pot luck picnic dinner on Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Drenth and family, South Carolina; Mr. and Mrs. Milt Richardson and family, Norwood; Mr. and Mrs. Edward Wilson and family and Don Gifford, Flint; Miss Ruth Wilson, Grand Rapids; Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Graham, Mr. and Mrs. Merle Thompson, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Wilson and family, and Mr. and Mrs. Denzil Wilson and son, Glenn, of East Jordan.

The Scott, Bradshaw and Whiteford families gathered in the dining room for their co-operative dinner. Harold Scott and son, Norman, of Jackson, and Mr. and Mrs. Warren Bennett of Flint were out of town guests. There were twenty-three present.

One of the individual kitchens accommodated the "class of '40" committee and their families, after their picnic dinner plans were made for the class reunion to be held in the recreation building here on Sept. 2nd and 3rd.

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Porter left Friday for their home in West Branch after a few days visit with his son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Jess Robinson, in their trailer home.

Several tents have been set up over the holidays to house vacationers. Among them are Mr. and Mrs. Bruce O'DeLod of Mullikin, Mich.; Mr. H. VanGement, Fred Griswald and Mr. and Mrs. Harry Wisner, all of Grand Rapids.

For the second time this summer the Harold Whiteford family of Flint are tenting in the park. Mr. Whiteford plans to return to his work this week but Mrs. Whiteford and son, Gary, will stay on for a longer vacation.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Schmitzer and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Tanner and sons of Birch Run are vacationing here over the holiday.

Alan Robinson and Mrs. Ward Robinson and son, Ronnie, of Mt. Morris, arrived Saturday. Alan will return Wednesday, but Mrs. W. Robinson and son plan to remain for a week's visit with her folks, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Walker, and Jess Robinsons.

Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Lemon and daughter, Ruby, of Grandville are spending a few days in the park. They have to leave for home this week, but are planning a longer stay later in the summer.

Callers at the Meredith home were Orden Kellar of Battle Creek, and son, Russell Meredith of Detroit, who came to be with his family over the holiday.

Mr. and Mrs. Clayton Donnelly and Harry Wetzel of Sturgis are vacationing for an indefinite time in the park.

Several home town folks and some out of town and out of state, too, have stopped to enjoy the picnic tables, shuffleboards and a few the beach and water.

One of the largest gatherings so far this summer took place on Sunday when the McMillan family reunion was held with a co-operative dinner. Guests from out of town came from Ekerman and Strong, Mich., in the Upper Peninsula, Lansing, Detroit, Dearborn, Central Lake and Grayling. 92 sat down to dinner at this family gathering.

Mrs. Luella Ruff sister of Mrs. J. Meredith, who makes her home with Mr. and Mrs. Meredith, celebrated her 83rd birthday anniversary on the 4th of July.

Monday evening a group from Ellsworth gathered in the recreation room for a weiner roast, the occasion was to honor 3 couples who were celebrating wedding anniversaries. The honored guests were:

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Klooster and family, 22 years wed; Mr. and Mrs. Casey DeYoung, 16 years; Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Kammeraad of Holland, 10 years. Guests from out of town were Mr. and Mrs. Ted Bergsma of Zeeland, Mich.

The park was rather quiet this 4th of July, compared to last year when the county celebration was held here, but several picnics were held and the shuffleboard was kept busy all day. Among the gatherings were the Torga families of Ellsworth who brought their picnic dinner. Janet Torga of Grand Rapids was a guest.

A pot luck dinner in the dining room brought together Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Marshall and family of Lucasville, Ohio; Rev. and Mrs. Albert Marshall and family and Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert Stark and daughter, Mildred, of Green River; Mr. and Mrs. Neumann and family, Mr. and Mrs. Raleigh Russell and family and Ruth Sloop, all of East Jordan. During the afternoon Glenn Neumann treated the guests to plane rides, that is most of them, some would rather keep one foot on the ground—and did.

Mr. and Mrs. Martin Kadrovich of Midland are spending part of the summer in our park in their trailer home. Mrs. Kadrovich is the former Virginia Kale of East Jordan.

Mr. and Mrs. Hollis Parker and son of Grand Rapids are spending another summer vacation in our North Country.

The Leslie Sheridan family and Lewis Chak family enjoyed their 4th of July dinner in the park and a few of the brave ones went swimming.

Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Jackson of Sunfield, Mich., have a tent set up and doing quite a lot of fishing out in the lake.

Mr. and Mrs. Olaf Olson of Muskegon are spending a few days at one of the Vance cabins and visiting relatives and friends around the city.

We have been besieged with catus flies the last few days and nights. They have sure moved in on us by the millions.
