Traffic Signals Are Dangerous

UNLESS ALL DRIVERS OBEY THEM IMPLICITLY

Harry Simmons, Chief of the East Jordan police department, reminds all motorists of East Jordan that this department is cooperating with the State Highway Department and the Michigan Safety Commission in a program designed to make our highways safer. The campaign continues through the month of August.

This week, Chief Harry Simmons says, stress is being put upon the reason for obeying traffic signals. "This is an all-out drive to save lives, prevent injuries and stop the property damage on our streets and highways," he said.

"Traffic signals are very dangerous," the Chief said, "unless all drivers obey them, because drivers approaching from opposite directions depend upon each other and when one fails to heed a stop light a crash is certain. Stop and go lights, yellow flashing lights, and red flashing lights, are there for driver and pedestrian protection, but do not provide automatic safety. If all drivers and pedestrians obeyed the traffic lights at all times there would be no accidents at intersections."

State Highway Commissioner Charles M. Ziegler says that stop and go signal lights are placed only after careful study determines that safety conditions at an intersection will be definitely improved. He warns that drivers trying to "beat the lights" are the greatest contributors to intersection accidents.

Council Proceedings

A Special Meeting of the Common Council was held Thursday evening, August 9, 1951, at 8:00 p.m. Present: Mayor Sommerville, Alderman Bussler, Taylor, Griffin, Malpass, and Burull. Absent: Alderman Rebec.

Mr. Sarrant, of the H. V. Sattley Company Investment Banker, proposed an ordinance authorizing the sale of Revenue Bonds for the Sewage Disposal project. Since a similar proposal had been voted upon and rejected at the August 6th, Regular Meeting of the Common Council, no action was taken at this meeting.

Mr. Henderson, assistant engineer for the Powers Engineering Company, presented a report discussing the location of the proposed sewage disposal plant.

Thelma M. Hegerberg, City Clerk

Attend School of Banking at U. of W., Madison Coming Fortnight

Howard Darbee and W. G. Boswell, vice president and cashier, respectively of State Bank of East Jordan will leave August 18th for two weeks attendance at the School of Banking, at the University of Wisconsin, Madison. This will be their first year at the School which requires two weeks resident attendance each year for three years to earn the certificate of graduation. Throughout the year between resident sessions students are required to do extension work involving problems in all phases of banking.

The School is sponsored by the Central States Conference, composed of bankers associations in 16 mid-western states. Attendance this year will approximate 650 bankers, ranging from junior officers and department managers to presidents, vice presidents and board chairman of banks from more than 30 states.

The faculty of over 100 instructors consists of bankers who are specialists in their respective fields, practicing attorneys, business executives and members of a number of university and college faculties. The instructors comprise one of the most competent groups of men in their respective professions ever assembled for adult educational purposes.

The present high standards of banking services in communities throughout the country will be enhanced by attendance of local bank officers at this specialized banking school.

Charles Behnke, 63, of East Jordan passed away at Meadowbrook Hospital, Aug 10, 1951. He was born in Dowagiac, Cass County, Mich., on August 8, 1888, one of eight children of Otto and Gertrude (Cook) Behnke.

He is survived by a daughter Mrs. Eva June Gruel of Bay City; a son, Donald, of Lenwood; and granddaughters, Lorraine Esther Behnke, also two sisters, Mrs. Laura Fitzsimons of Battle Creek and Mrs. Pauline Burling of Dowagiac; and several nieces and nephews, as well as many friends in this vicinity in which he has resided for a period of years.

Services were held Sunday, August 12, 1951, from Watson Funeral Home, conducted by Rev. Lorenz Grenber. Burial at Riverside Cemetery, Dowagiac, Mich.

To eliminate some common safety hazards in your home, try using some of the luminescent paint on the edges of steps in a dark stairway, on door knobs, keys and light bulbs. The paint glows in the dim light and will save you time, Michigan extension specialists say.

At Our Tourist Park

Our park is gradually filling back up with people instead of a lot of empty trailers; for awhile there were eight vacant ones. At present we have eighteen trailers, and six tents.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Ryerson, and grandson Bobby left for their home Tuesday at Galinea, Ohio after spending over a week in our park.

At the request of some of the park tenants for some activities, the Odd-Fellows and Rebekah lodges have been sponsoring a games party the last three Tuesday evenings in the recreation building.

We had to say so-long to two more of our trailer couples Wednesday, when Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Peaingill of San Bernardino, Calif. left for Ohio to manage a tomato canning factory for a few weeks, and Mr. and Mrs. Andy Anderson left for their home at Dimondale near Lansing, called there by illness and business.

The park got a good spraying Wednesday when the spray truck came, and went the full length of the park, spraying with D.D.T., wherever germs and disease might collect.

Mr. and Mrs. Austin Lemon, Jr. and children of Grandville spent a few days visiting the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Austin Lemon Sr., of Wyoming Park, Grand Rapids, who are tenting in our park.

Occupying the George Mathews trailer for the past week were his father, F. C. Mathews of Grand Rapids, and the latter's cousin, Mrs. Chas. Holmes, and daughter LaVerne Shepard, both of Cleveland, Ohio. On Thursday Mrs. Mary Snow of Grand Rapids, sister of Mr. Mathews Sr. arrived, and stayed until Saturday when they all left for their respective homes to make way for Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Mathews and children, Marcia and Mark, who are back again for more vacation.

The married couples club, and their families of the Atwood Reformed Church enjoyed their annual picnic in our park on Thursday evening. About seventy gathered in the dining room for the dinner, later in the evening. Mr. Geo. Bettes and his dog entertained the group with his experiences while in the Hudson Bay area.

Some of the folks who have returned to their trailer homes during the past week are: Mr. and Mrs. B. H. Putnam and their grand daughters, Margaret and Carol, of Sparta; Mr. and Mrs. Calvin Scholten and son Gale also of Sparta, and their house guest Miss Donna Miller of Chicago who came to spend two weeks. Mr. Scholten returned to his home Sunday, and Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Pierns of Sparta arrived Sunday.

The annual picnic and meeting of the lower 11th Dist. of the W.C.T.U., was held in the recreation building on Wednesday. Plans for the convention to be held at Bellaire was the main topic of discussion. Members from Petoskey, Bellaire, Mancelona, and East Jordan were represented.

Dr. and Mrs. M. A. Dickey of Kansas City, Mo. left Friday for a trip through upper Michigan and Wis. after spending a week here; Mrs. Harry Slate entertained her guests, Mr. and Mrs. T. Lopp and children, Judith and David of Berkeley, Mich. to a picnic dinner on Friday.

Vacation week ended Saturday for Mr. and Mrs. Morris Atkinson and four children of Flint, when they folded their tent and headed south again.

Saturday visitors at the Meredith home were Mr. Oscar Hutchinson and his brother Wm. Hutchinson of South Bend, Ind., both were former tenants in the park. Mr. and Mrs. James Elzinga of Ellsworth entertained at a picnic dinner for their guests from Lansing, Belding, Lowell and Saginaw.

The largest crowd to date attended the weekly dance in the recreation bldg. Thursday evening. It was even difficult to keep the doorways open at times. During intermission Glenda Maxwell gave an account of her trip to Detroit and Flint as a member of the Cherry Queen's Court. She later favored us with two solos.

A pre-birthday party was held in the dining room Saturday eve., when Mrs. Mable Winston's family came for the occasion, the family consists of her son, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Gay and children, Sheryl and Bobby; a daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Lee Dallin and son, Jimmy of Utica; another daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Donald Clark and children, David, Clinton, Donald, Donna Mary and Anne of East Jordan.

Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Meredith have been enjoying a visit from their son, Russell of Detroit and grandson, Mr. and Mrs. James Meredith Jr. who came Saturday from Great Lakes where he has been stationed in the Navy.

Word has been received that the F.O.E. 301 drill team of Grand Rapids of which Mrs. Kenneth Lemon, one of our summer resorters is a member, took first place at the National convention in Rochester N. Y. this week. Despite the fact the regular piano accompanist was unable to attend at almost the last minute, a substitute was quickly found and went on to help win top honors.

We are sorry that the names of Mr. and Mrs. Victor D. Camp of Marshall, Mich. who spent the week end at the home of their son, Mr. and Mrs. Wm Camp, was omitted in last week's column.

We have many people who are passing by, and happen to stop at our park to rest or eat their lunch, one such couple was Mr. and Mrs. Earl Williams of Ithaca, who spent part of Sunday here, thought the park very nice.

Mr. and Mrs. Seth LaValley entertained their daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Mike Dennis and daughter Evelyn of Flint; dinner was enjoyed in one of the kitchens.

Mr. and Mrs. James Keeler returned to their home at Alma and Fred Griswold to Grand Rapids on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Pangborn and family and Mr. Lewis Hearn of the park and Mrs. Frank Mathers of Boyne City visited in Detroit in the upper peninsula, Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Booth of Midland are occupying one of Shedina's cabins, and visiting the latter's sister, Mrs. Harvey Pangborn and family.

Several loads of gravel have been hauled into the park and put in the places on the roads, this has been appreciated a lot. The park also boast of new garbages, the old ones need to hold the garbage any longer as the bottoms were rotted out.

The East Jordan graduating class of '46 held their first reunion Sunday in the recreation building due to a mix up in dates some were not present. Those to attend were Mr. and Mrs. Glenn (Anna Gibbard) Crane and three children of Charlevoix; Mr. and Mrs. Harold (Eloise) Bunker Lewis, and two children of Big Rapids; Mr. and Mrs. Richard Adair and daughter, of Sanford; Mr. and Mrs. Dick (Mildred Green) Harvey and daughter of Grand Rapids; Mr. and Mrs. Jack Brennan of E.Lansing; Mr. and Mrs. Grey (Elaine Healey) DeForest and daughter of Allegan; Gerta Neilson of Grand Rapids; Genevieve Barnett of Lansing; Mr. and Mrs. Lee Danforth and three children; Mae Moore and son, Mrs. Henry (Marion Shepard) Grutch and two daughters; Donald Fales; Mr. and Mrs. Ray Olson, and daughter; Mr. and Mrs. John (Gloria Shaw) Laisure and Mr. and Mrs. Wm. (Marietta Burbank) Walden, all of East Jordan.

Another gathering was held Sunday in the dining room when the Liskum - Crawford families gathered for their annual reunion. Those Present were: Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Liskum and family, and Mr. and Mrs. Reuben Liskum of Bellaire; Miss Eunice Liskum of Pontiac; Mrs. Azalia Wenderling of Chicago; Mrs. Hildren Gaubatz of Detroit; Mr. and Mrs. Ry Liskum and children, Mr. and Mrs. Marshall Shepard, Mr. and Mrs. Basil Crawford and family, Mr. and Mrs. Russell Crawford and son, Mr. and Mrs. Versal Crawford and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Boyd Crawford and family and Mrs. Nathalie Crawford and daughter Audrey, all of East Jordan.

We are wondering what the hold-up on the construction of the new laundry room is. So far there is a trench and some piles of dirt. Looks like we will have to keep on puddling our laundry out the best way we can.

Callers at the Pangborns recently were, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Wales, formerly of East Jordan and Midland, now of Charlevoix. Mrs. Georgeanne Mathers of Boyne City and Luella Pinney who spent Saturday and Sunday with Janet.

Mr. and Mrs. M. W. Freeman grandson Steve spent a day at Mackinaw City sight seeing.

Mr. and Mrs. Russell Kale, (former E. J. residents) and daughters, Myrna and Sharon of Flint are spending their vacation in the park.

Unity Stressed In V-J Day Talk

Hon. Judge Charles L. Brown of Traverse City stressed the necessity of a more united America, in a talk before nearly sixty veterans of both World Wars at the Legion Hall Tuesday Night.

The responsibility for this unity lies with each of us. Now more than ever before, dissention and misunderstandings could very well be disastrous for the free people of the world, the veterans were told.

Judge Brown, a veteran of 41 years service with the Army during World War II, was the sixth anniversary of V-J Day. The supper was put on by the Legionnaires of World War I for all veterans of World War II.

Oscar Light was the chief cook assisted by about ten "KPs". Harvey Varnum was Master of Ceremonies and Milo Miller of Battle Creek entertained with a few selection on the piano.

Tentative plans have been made for a similar get-together next year.

At their guests the latter's sister and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Bert Cameron of Saginaw.

Mr. and Mrs. Nick VanderPoort and son John of St. Claire Shores are tenting in the park for a few days.

Another camping family is Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Stenbergh and children Mae Ann, Kitty, Sonny, Tom, and Jack of Van Dyke.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Blaising and children Sharon and Billy Sarazan of Rover City, Ind. former park tenants, called at the Schilten trailer Monday.

Guests at the Geo. Bettes home were Walter Marr of Mullett Lake who stopped on his way back to Flint driving his ancient 1909 Buick, after taking part in the Vet-parade. Other guests were Mr. and Mrs. Calvert Wardwell of Lansing who are guests of Mr. and Mrs. S. S. Wardwell and daughters of Eveline Orchards.

R. H. VanPotten of Tawas City and Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Bayles of Durand have concluded their vacations, and returned to their home.

M. and Mrs. B. H. Putman are enjoying a visit of the latter's sister Mrs. Inez Montgomery of Grand Rapids for a week. They also have entertained their daughter Mr. and Mrs. Henry Blauw of Sparta for a week, they left Sunday accompanied by their daughters Margaret and Carol who have been spending the past two weeks with their grandparents.

Mr. and Mrs. R. W. McKeachie of Marshall are occupying one of Shedina's cabins, and visiting the Wm Camps. Their grand-daughter W. Camps. Their grand-daughters are staying with the Camps for a week.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm Camp entertained Mr. Wm Gambill, of Det. Supervisor of Inspectors of the Canning Factory one day this week.

A fish fry is in store for the park tenants as soon as enough fish are caught to go with what we have. A couple very nice catches have been reported recently.

Red Cross Solicits Funds For Kansas City Flood Relief

The Charlevoix county chapter of the American Red Cross is making an appeal for $400 as its quota of the Greater Kansas City Flood Disaster Fund, Frances Martin of Charlevoix, chapter chairman, has announced.

No door-to-door or individual solicitations will be made but the chapter has opened an account at all banks in the county to handle contributions.

The funds raised will go directly to the flood area for disaster relief there.

Contributions may be made to the Greater Kansas City Disaster Relief Fund at the State Bank of East Jordan or to Frances Martin, Charlevoix, chapter chairman.

This Week's Rotary

Eighteen visiting Rotarians made up their attendance at East Jordan Tuesday, from the following towns: Boyne City; Macomb Ill.; Huntington Woods, Mich.; Texarkana, Texas; Dayton, Ohio; Lakehurst, Fla.; Waterford, Conn.; Climax, Mich.; Chicago, Ill.; Washington D. C. All members were pleased to see our Past President Frank Brown, of Lake Hurst with us again. And our ever faithful visitor, Jim Bailey, celebrated his 84 birthday this week, for which occasion a birthday cake had been provided.

One of Rotary's projects is sending a high school boy to Camp Emory, Muskegon, for a four day session of school and recreation under the leadership of prominent social, economic and political leaders. James Malpass attended from this Club this year, and gave an excellent report of events participated in by the boys in camp.

Arnold Dedoes, of Huntington Wood, made a few remarks concerning the exchange of students with Germany, and introduced Miss Ann Meyer, of Bremen, Germany, high school student who will be in Arnold's home this coming winter. Ann was one of two, out of 700 students, chosen from Bremen, and proved to be a most charming speaker. Although having been in this country only about 3 weeks, she has acquired a remarkable vocabulary of the Kings English. She expressed great appreciation for the many pleasant experiences shown her by the people of the U. S. and hope that German students like herself will greatly assist in the rebuilding of Germany's economic and political future. This student exchange program looks very much worth while.

The Rotary meeting of Tuesday the 28th will be at 7 p.m., in the American Legion dining room, at which time Mr. Robert Wilson, of the Goodyear Rubber Co. will be the speaker.

Bill: My friends can't stand to see me so shabbily dressed and broke.

Bill: What do they do about it?

Bill: They turn their heads aside when I go by.

Helping Families Rebuild Is Red Cross' Main Flood Task

A Central Missouri homeowner shows a Red Cross disaster worker how Missouri River flood waters tore out walls inside his home. He and his wife managed to save only a few pieces of bedclothing. Throughout the Kansas, Missouri, Oklahoma and Illinois flood area 425 trained Red Cross disaster workers assisted by hundreds of chapter volunteers are engaged in the Red Cross' biggest part of its disaster job, helping more than 26,000 families back to normal restoring homes, furniture, livelihoods for those without means to help themselves. All help is given outright. Flood relief contributions to local Red Cross chapters will finance this help, now costing almost double the original $5,000,000 Red Cross estimate. This help to individual families is not included in the $25,000,000 authorized by Congress for restoration of public works, essential businesses, etc.

W. G. Boswell Secretary.

South Arm
4-H Club News

At the regular meeting of the South Arm Community 4-H Club two important pieces of business were transacted. The constitution was amended so that members who do not attend 10 out of 12 regular meetings (unless they have a good excuse for absence) may be dropped for the club. The actual dismissing from the club was left to the discretion of the advisory board which is composed of adults.

There is to be a special meeting at the home of Rv Liskum on Sept.
3 at 8:00 o'clock in the evening.
All members are urged to be present to make out their entry blanks for all 4-H articles they plan to exhibit at the county fair.

On August, 13, the Conservation Project group met with their leader, Mrs. Ed Lehrbass at her home.

On Aug. 14 the flower garden group met at the homes of their leader, Mrs. Rv Liskum.

Probably the most active of all project groups is the Dairy Club which meets with Mr. Archie Murphy. That group is going on a hay ride on Aug. 16.

Harry Pearsall, as the recreation leader, has had a very active summer. His soft ball team won the county championship and will play for district honors later in the year.

The square dance demonstration team, also coached by Harry Pearsall, won first place in the "Share the Fun" talent search sponsored by the U. S. Rubber Company. This team placed 4th in the district talent show, just one place below the group which goes to State for the contest there.

4-H AGAIN IN THE LEAD

South Arm Community 4-H Club won district honors in the Model Business Meeting Contest
at Gaylord on August 10.

The Business Meeting Contest is sponsored by the Michigan State Farm Bureau. The purpose of the contest is to promote better parliamentary procedures in the 4-H club meetings. Jack Zoulek, as the president does a very credible piece of work in guiding the club members through motions carried and lost, tabled, amended, business referred to committees and the like. Jack is ably assisted by others in the demonstration: Vice pres. — Roger Stokes, Secretary — Margaret Zoulek, Treasurer — Russell
kum, Song Leader — Nanette
Hart, Reporter — Sandina Lis-Drapeau, Ruth Hart, Margaret
Lord, Martha Lord, and Deanna Lehrbass. In this year's contest, the leader takes an active part, so
Mrs. Clarence Lord, 4-H Community
Leader, assists with the meeting.
The demonstration was coached Mrs. Rv Liskum. The state contest will be held at State College on Aug. 30.

Eveline 4-H

The regular Community meeting of the Eveline Club met Monday evening August 6th. The boys gave a report on the work they have been doing in their tractor maintenance and dairy clubs and we had some discussion on fall projects. The girls showed a great amount of interest in sewing, cooking and fall flower projects.

It was decided at this meeting to have a hot dog roast at North Beach Friday evening August 17th. The different work committees were chosen, and in all it was well planned so we are looking forward to a good time.

We plan to have a display at the county fair.

Monday evening, August 13th, Mr. Festerling met with the tractor maintenance group. As always when Mr. Festerling takes over, the lesson was well presented and we learned a lot.

Hoping to see all the members and any prospective 4-H club members from the Eveline community at our regular monthly meeting Monday evening, Sept.
10th at Marie Neilson's.

Oregon Showdown
OREGON MAY be the show down state where General Eisenhower finally makes up his mind whether "to run or not to run" and on what ticket.

The situation in Oregon was outlined to Ike's political chief-of-staff, Sen. Jim Duff of Pennsylvania, the other day by Robert Letts Jones, publisher of the Salem, Ore., Capital Journal. Jones pointed out that Oregon has a primary ruling whereby any person can be entered in the race by a petition of 1,000 signatures—whether the candidate wants his name entered or not.

This Eisenhower's name could be entered in the Oregon presidential primary by 1,000 of his friends, entirely without his consent, and as a means of testing out his political strength.

The Oregon primary has another interesting angle, Jones explained to Senator Duff. The state attorney general has ruled that no candidate can run unless his party affiliation is known, thus Eisenhower would be forced, at that time, to be stamped either as a Republican or a Democrat.

Since the Oregon primary is May 16 and since all names have to be filed ninety days in advance, the showdown for Eisenhower would be sometime in February.

Note—It's a good bet that Ike's friends—and he has a lot in the northwest—will toss his hat into the ring through the Oregon primary.

Dressy General
When this column told how Gen. Emil C. Kiel, commander of the air force in the Caribbean, had sent his plane all the way from Ecuador to Panama to get his dinner jacket for a dinner given him by the Ecuadorian defense minister, the U.S. air force queried Kiel, wanting to know if the "Pearson story" was accurate.

Gen. Kiel replied that he had sent a plane back from Ecuador to Panama, but that he had not sent it to bring back his dinner jacket.

However, officials of the defense department pressed him further, finally got an admission that though the plane had not brought back the general's dinner jacket, it had brought back his "full dress uniform."

Propaganda Hurts
Reports from behind the iron curtain indicate that one reason for the seizure of AP correspondent William Oatis by Czechoslovakia was that American propaganda through the Voice of America and Radio Free Europe is hurting.

When the Communies want to get something out of the U.S.A., their crudest but most successful technique is to seize an American citizen, and hold him as a hostage until we come across with the ransom money.

The reported ransom money in Czechoslovakia is to curtail the Voice of America and Radio Free Europe, both really hurting the Communist government. In fact, the Voice of America has had the Czech government in a state of jitters.

Before Foreign Minister Clementis was purged, the voice made a categorical prediction that he and eight other top Czechs would be arrested. For weeks, the voice pounded home this prediction, giving the exact names of the prospective victims. The Czechs listened but were skeptical.

Then suddenly Clementis was arrested. With him were arrested four of the eight others the Voice of America had named. All Czechoslovakia seethed at the news. The accuracy of the Voice of America and its listening audience has doubled. More than ever, Czechs are tuning in on the voice to see who will be purged next.

Note—Despite the state department's remarkable propaganda job, the budget of the Voice of America and other propaganda projects has been slashed to ribbons. Congressmen who have been doing the slashing have been invited to come to the state department briefing room and get the story—much of it confidential—of what the department is doing. However, only two or three have bothered to get acquainted with the activities of the agency whose work they pass upon.

MacArthur Report
President Truman is pressing Democratic senators to write a report on the MacArthur investigation. They had planned to forget about a report, because they feared a majority would not agree to blasting MacArthur. However, the President believes Chairman Dick Russell of Georgia is honest enough to accept the evidence, which most observers consider to have been clearly and overwhelmingly against MacArthur.

Evidence
The visiting pastor at the state prison approached a timid looking inmate and asked him how he came to be confined in such a place.

"Well," said the prisoner, "they claimed I stole a ring. I had a good case and my lawyer worked hard to get me off, but they sentenced me just the same." "My poor fellow. How unfortunate," exclaimed the pastor, puzzled by the seeming injustice. "But tell me, how did it happen to you?" "Oh, it was quite an accident," explained the prisoner. "Everything would have been all right if they hadn't found the ring in my pocket."

One At A Time
The man who rows a boat does not have the time to rock it.

NOT SO TOUGH
The conductor of a famous Philadelphia orchestra accepted with equanimity the announcement that his first violinist was giving solos on the radio, endorsing cigarettes and playing for weddings and funerals. But when he also heard that the violinist was opening a string of music schools throughout the state, he grew concerned and summoned the man for a conference.

"I like a man with ambition and initiative," he declared, "but it seems to me you're carrying things a bit far. When do you sleep?" The violinist looked him straight in the eye and answered, "During your rehearsals, Maestro."

GOOD ARITHMETIC
Two drivers, from neighboring (and rival) states were having a bull session . . . each bragging about his own state. One of them, more wordy than the other, was getting the best of the argument.

The Korean campaign has revived stories of fantastic poker games in rest areas, with GI's risking a whole month's salary on a single hand.

Typical is the tale of the Missouri farm hand who professed to know nothing of the game. His buddies saw a chance for some easy pickings and enthusiastically urged him to participate.

He lost moderately and unexpectantly for some time. Then came the big hand of the evening.

One after another, the players raised the limit. The Missourian stayed each time. Finally came the showdown.

Player No. 1 had an ace-high straight. No. 2 had a heart flush. No. 3 triumphantly produced a king-high full house, and was about to rake in the pot when the boy from Missouri said quietly, "One minute, mister. I ain't quite sure, but I think I got you beat with these two pairs of sevens."

STOP SIGN
The passenger train had stopped at one of those cross-overs where an interlocking tower stood. The conductor courteously answered as many questions about the delay as he could but they finally got the better of his patience.

The Doctor
By Helen Janney

3-Minute Fiction

LINDDALE had two doctors . . . two doctors about as different in every way as any two men could be. Doc Boggs was old, in his eighties, and he shouldn't have been practicing at all. He was cross and ill tempered and he often got his patients and their prescriptions all mixed up.

Doctor Willis, on the other hand was just pushing thirty. He was alert, dependable and pleasant to deal with. The woman, especially, were most enthusiastic about him.

"Why," Mrs. Preston said, "when I called him for my Willie when he had the measles, he worked like a trooper. When Willie didn't do so well at first he actually cried. A doctor. What do you think of that?"

"I know," Mrs. Scott agreed. "He cried over my Martha, too. We both cried. He's sweet, I just love him." You see, at first Doc Boggs was the only physician in town. People

For a while he dated this one and that, playing no favorite. called him just because he was there. If they wanted somebody else they'd have to get a man in Bloomdale, thirty miles away. So everybody was mighty glad when young Doctor Willis came to Linddale to see about locating there.

The business men and the farmers gave him a lot of encouragement. The young married women who were expecting babies welcomed him. In fact, the only person who opposed him in any way was old Doc Boggs.

"It's a one doctor town," he said when young Doc went to call on him. "We don't need or want another one here."

Doctor Willis came just the same and set up his practice on Elm Street. He was single so he fixed himself bachelor's quarters in the upstairs over his house. Old Mrs. South who used to do for Doc Boggs, went over to the young doc's now, which made old doc madder than ever.

IT SEEMED strange the way a young doc took on when Doc Boggs finally passed on. Not many even shed a tear at the funeral.

But young doctor Willis sat there crying openly. It made everybody think even more of him than they did before, for they knew that the old man had absolutely refused to cooperate with the younger one and that he lost no opportunity to run him down to his patients.

"What a wonderful husband Doctor Willis would make," was the thought in the minds of more than one mother of a marriageable aged daughter.

The girls themselves busied about with parties and dances. There was open rivalry for his attention.

For a while he dated this one and that, playing no favorites. One summer after he'd been away on his vacation he came back with a wife, a girl from his old home town in Ohio.

Jan, that was her name, had such a nice way with her that she soon made friends. When people kept saying over and over that her husband was the sweetest, most tender hearted man in the whole world, she sometimes looked a bit surprised. Sure, she thought he was great. That was one reason she married him, but nevertheless she felt a bit puzzled at times.

GIVES POINTERS FOR FREEZING OR CANNING PEACHES
Frozen or canned peaches are welcome treat during snowfall time and now is the time to take advantage of the plentiful supply of fresh, Michigan grown fruit to stock up.

Roberta Hershey, foods extension specialist at Michigan State College, has some ideas on how to store the fruit to preserve its best color and taste. She recommends the hot pack method for canning because they're less likely to turn brown.

Simplest way to remove the peelings from peaches is to dip them in boiling water, then quickly in cold water. Then just rub off the peelings. Cut in half and remove pits. Dropping them into water with 2 tablespoons each of salt and vinegar per gallon will help prevent darkening.

For canning, the peaches should be heated through in hot sirup. If the fruit is very juicy you may heat it with sugar, adding no liquid. Pack hot fruit to one-half inch of the top of the jar. Cover with boiling liquid up to the one-half inch mark.

Complete the job by processing in a boiling water bath for 20 minutes with the water well over the tops of the jars.

Rapid preparation for the freezer is essential to prevent browning. After peeling and removing pits cut each half into four to six pieces. Pack quickly into containers, leaving as little headspace as possible. They should be covered with sirup made of equal parts of sugar and water and contained ascorbic acid.

Common Redpoll

The Common Redpoll is a small bird, but a hardy one. He spends his summers in Canada and his winters in the northern United States. He may go as far south as Virginia, Alabama, Kansas, Colorado, and Northern California. But he is more likely to stay up where the snow is deeper and the temperature falls lower.

Though the ground is buried under a white blanket, the Redpoll manages to get seeds for food. His favorites are the seeds of alder and birch trees. When he finds some, he clings to a branch and picks open the seed coverings. As the seeds pop-out and drop to the ground, he flies down to collect his harvest.

Common Redpoll

All around him are other Redpolls, busy at the same task. They like to stay in flocks, whether they are traveling or settled down for the season. They also enjoy the company of goldfinches, and the two kinds of birds often fly together.

The best way to identify the flying Redpolls, says the National Wildlife Federation, is to listen for their call. They seem to be saying, "Chut, chut, chut, chut." The sound may remind you of the muffled noise which comes from small pebbles being rattled between cupped hands.

At other times the Redpoll cries, "Pi-ree, pi-ree, pi-ree-Tier, tier." It is a sweeter call than his flight sounds, and there is a touch of sadness to it as he sings from a tree top.

In every other way, though, Common Redpolls are gay, active birds. They chatter both in the air and while they eat, and they seldom sit still for long. They aren't easily frightened, either. When something startles them, they may whirl into the air for a short flight. But they quickly settle down as though nothing had happened.

The flock is a colorful sight, because the birds all wear red caps. Under the throats are patches of black. The upper parts of their bodies are streaked with brown and gray. The male Redpolls also have streaks of pink underneath but the females do not. This is the one mark by which you can tell them apart. Both the males and the females are about 5 1/2 inches long.

In winter and summer, the Redpolls live in groves of birches, clumps of willows and alders, or in old weed fields and pastures. They may put their nests at almost any height, but usually they build in the low branches of a willow or birch. If a tree isn't handy, they may use a clump of thick grass for a nesting place.

To start their nest, the Redpoll parents collect small twigs for a foundation. With the twigs they mix grass, moss and other soft materials. The final lining is made of down, fur, and feathers. In this snug spot are laid five or six small, blue-green eggs which are spotted with reddish-brown.

Both the baby birds and the parents eat insects while they are in Canada. As the days get shorter and the winter turns cold, they fly down to the United States, where they can feed on seeds for the winter.

Cedar Rest Resort

A surprise visit was paid by Mr. and Mrs. William Pryle of Pittsburgh, home of Band Rickey and Ralph Kine. They reported plenty of fish taken in and there were some who believed them.

An old speedboater who has returned to his old watering ground in Bill DeMorse, that Dayton doughnut who has swelled the population of Bill Schroeder's shanties. Riding the water skies are Bob Sprout, Dede DeMorse, who soon is to be a blushing bride. Sue DeMorse, Miss America of 1956; Don McIntosh, the tall, dark and handsome young fellow from Dayton, Ohio. Another adventurous soul is George Wetzel, also of Dayton, who foats through the air with the greatest of ease. Mabel, his beauteous wife, is a powerboat widow.

"Fishing News" Snogging 54 rock bass were Rudy Burd and his little lady, from Flint, Mich., and proud of it. The other leading anglers are Don Zimmerman and his two boys, Donnie and Chuck, plus A. E. Kimberly, the poor man's Izack Walton.

The most persistent fishermen are Kimmy Kimberly and Jon Spoelston. They count not the hours but the fish. The foremost mermaids are Ann Schroeder, Miss American of 1914, and Ann Spoelston, Miss America of 1954.

Golfer of the season is Kim Kimberly of Birmingham, Mich., who kills more snakes at Ye Olde Holle Nynne Golfe course than anyone in history. His caddie is Rosecold Pitzer, whose private plane is all by itself in the East Jordan airport. Quite a flyboy.

The man with the broadest beam is Bill Schroeder, king of all surveys! His petite wife, Ann, must be the resort's best cook. Baseball is thriving at the Schroeder Park. The dads and the sons played one game that went 1 1/3 innings with the score, 11 to 10. Kimmy Kimberly drove in the winning run with two out and two on.

An air arrival was Mrs. Myrtle DeMorse, who flew from Dayton, Ohio, with her son, Bob, and a high executive in the Frigidaire Corp. She and Bob are having a superb time.

The resort's Marco Polo is Don Zimmerman of Detroit. He and his wife, Peg, along with sons Donnie and Chuck, have taken almost daily side trips to beauty spots not far distant. Guests at the Zimmerman's were Mr. and Mrs. George Roniva of Detroit.

Mr. and Mrs. William Mott of Huntington, W. Va., and Mr. and Mrs. Evans also of Huntington are busy fishermen. Like all other anglers, they are taking in long strings this summer.

The Servicemen's Letter

Hi Fellas:
I guess it's the same in this game as in most others. It's either a feast or a famine. Remember how I was despairing a couple weeks ago because I didn't have any letters or changes of address to write about? Well, this week I've got plenty and some to boot. However, don't let me discourage anyone from writing to me. I sure like to get your letters and I'm sure encouraged by the responses I'm getting to this letter.

Rod Gibbard writes, "Prodded by your recent remark in the paper, I had better get busy and let you in on the latest happenings down this way. At present, I'm in the 9th week of a 12-week course here at Fort Harrison, Indiana, and will be mighty glad to see the end of it. As of the third week in August my address will be changed to: SFC R. H. Gibbard, Quarters 605-A, Fort Sheridan, Ill. By then my family will be back from their vacationing near Petoskey and we will be real busy for awhile getting the kids started in school again. I've been stationed in Fort Sheridan for 2 years now and am hoping to keep it up. I work in the Post Finance Office at Fort Sheridan in case any of the fellows run low on money while down that way. (Now that's a real nice offer Rod)

Ray Morford's address has been changed to Sgt Raymond S. Morford, RA 36188425, Co. C, 42 Eng Const Bn, APO 949 c/o PM, Seattle, Washington. While you were writing, Ray, I wish you had taken space to inform me of where you were and what interesting things were happening out there. I'd like to see another letter from you.

Jim Meredith and Gale Murphy were in the post office this past week. Jim is home on a 10-day furlough (plus 4 days travel time) and when that time is up he leaves for San Diego. Let's see that will be on August 24th. He said he would be slated for destroyer escort duty when he arrives there. Gale is home on a 9-day leave between duties. He just finished school in AA Ordnance at Aberdeen Proving Grounds and is being assigned to a new outfit. His new address will be Pvt Gale Murphy, US 55 096 269 510 Ord Maint Det, Aberdeen Proving Grounds, Maryland. His new outfit is a 13-man Ordnance Maintenance Detachment working on Anti-Aircraft weapons. They are due to start a 10 week unit training course upon his return to the Grounds. After that he thought he might go to school again.

Dale Gees mother informs me that Dale is on the move. He is moving to the base at present and expects to be home here in December of this year.

William Schiliska writes from Pensacola and says, "Right now it is so darn hot outside that there isn't a single person on the street. The temperature is about 105 and we haven't had a breeze in two weeks. The N.A.S. in my address means Naval Air Station and the main object of this base is to train Naval Cadets for flying. There is also a Photographers school here. I'm in the fire house down here and my job is to drive and operate the aerial ladder truck. You should see some of the fish I've been pulling in down here. Anything under 5 lbs we throw back. I've been doing a little bit of deep-sea fishing the last few weeks and I've really seen some big ones. The salt water trout are as big as our Muskies back home and they put up a fight like a shark. (I envy you that fishing Bill)

My apologies to Ralph - Hott for getting his rating and division wrong but in spite of my errors I gather that he has been receiving the paper. He writes, "I'm stationed on a destroyer and it is attached to the 6th fleet at present. We have been on maneuver and fleet operations for most of the time. We spent 2 months operating in the Northern European area and took time to visit ports in England, Ireland, Wales, Germany and Belgium. In the "Med" we have been to Gibraltar, Tangiers, France, Italy, Greece, Sicily, Malta and now are in Crete. Sometime this fall we expect to head for home and then I will get thirty days leave, which won't be hard to take. I am sticking for the rate of fire controlman. This type of work deals a lot with electricity, electronics, and mechanics. We maintain, repair, and operate the equipment that fires the guns and fuses out such things as target speed, target angle, fuse setting, etc. I like it swell and I don't know of any other kind of work I would rather be in except being a civilian. This next January the Navy is sending me to Fire Control Technician School in Washington, D. C. for a year. I'll really have to knuckle down when I get there."

Claude Vermillion, who has had the tough luck to have to be in the Gaylord TB Sanatorium, is thinking of his brother Everett and has sent me his new address this week. It is: Pfc Everett Vermillion, 47th AAA Brig, Hq & Hq Btry, Camp Stewart, Georgia. I'd be glad to have a letter from you, Everett.

I got a letter this past week from Bob Nemecek who is in Camp Gordon, Georgia. He writes: "Hi Jake, have been going to write you long ago but you know how us Servicemen are, we like to receive letters but hate to write them. I am going to radio operators school. That is, the learning of the international Morse Code. That's all those dots and dashes and stuff. We have to get up to 25 words per minute receiving and also 20 wpm sending with a key. It is a pretty rough course and we have it 9 hours a day. You know, they say that a radio operator is 15% crazy. Well, if he isn't then he will be when he finishes. The weather here runs about 105 to 108 degrees in the daytime and then cools off to about 80 at night. If you ask me they can give this country back to whoever they got it from."

Bob, you asked about a Herbert Howard of Boyne City. I don't know the man myself but I'll see if I can find out about him for you.

Here's another new address. 2nd Lt. Thomas Leu, ARDC Indoc School, Gen Del, area B, Wright - Patterson AFB, Dayton, Ohio. Tom just arrived at the base and as there were no quarters available he is living at present in College Dormitory there. Drop me a line, Tom, and let me know what you are up against there.

Well, it's crowding midnight and I've got the change of addresses' to type out yet so guess I'll call it quits for this time. See you all next week. "Jake" Snyder

Christians and Law

Lesson for August 19, 1951

AMERICANS are not noted for their respect for law. Sometimes big business is the reason. In a certain southern state there are two countries through which run some main highways. But tourists are well advised to stay away from there, because the roads have been pounded into a mass of potholes by overloaded coal trucks operating at high speeds and often on the wrong side of the road. Now the state has laws against overloading trucks; it has laws against speeding. There is an honest state police department. But although various arrests have been made, the head of the police department reports that in those two counties they never yet have been able to secure a single conviction in the courts. Why?

Dr. Foreman

Who is to blame? SOMETIMES politics is to blame. That is to say, a man wants to get, or to hold, office, so eagerly that he will ignore or defy the law in order to keep his little place in the sun. There is another county where a policeman shot a law-breaker resisting arrest and attempting to shoot the officer. The county judge tried to make three successive grand juries indict the policeman, but after looking into the facts they all refused. Here was the interesting spectacle of a judge on the bench (elected there) trying to make the law work against itself, trying to force a grand jury to indict an innocent man. The thing was, the policeman was from out of the county, but the man he killed, being a bootlegger, had many friends who were also friends of the judge.

We Get What We Deserve

BUT we can't blame big business, or mean politics, for the lawlessness of America. If individuals respected the law, if every man respected the law just as he wants others to respect it, we could handle business and we could get rid of dishonest politicians.

An official high in federal circles, who had had plenty of opportunity to observe, remarked last spring, speaking of controls, that every one wants the other man controlled, everybody wants to control somebody else, but nobody wants to be controlled.

That's just the trouble. We can make all the laws we please, but so long as we are the kind of people who will not respect a law if it cramps our own style, then we need not be surprised at the sort of thing a senate crime committee digs up.

No Government is Perfect

MANY of us try to excuse ourselves by saying that the government is inefficient or even crooked, and that the laws are unfair. Christians, certainly, can see very easily the failings of both government and law. But Christians ought to be the very persons to set the example of respect for law and government.

Consider the New Testament. Hardly a single Christian mentioned in that book had the least thing to do with making the laws of those times. The government was from the top down, the exact opposite of democracy. None of the early Christians could vote or hold office.

The government, whether in Palestine or in Rome, was in non-Christian hands. The laws lacked a good deal of being wholly just and fair. Nevertheless, Jesus and Paul and Peter, all of whom suffered from the laws of their times, urged men to pay tribute (taxes) to Caesar, to support the magistrates, to obey the laws. Even a selfish, money-hungry and often cruel government like that of Rome deserved support.

Jesus and Paul alike remind us that we rely on government for protection; that government, in spite of all exceptions, is on the side of good men, not against them.

If we had no government we should miss it and want it. St. Peter, writing to Christians who were actually being persecuted by the government, urged them nevertheless to be loyal to the authorities. There may come times—indeed, human nature being what it is, such times are bound to come—when a government proves so corrupt and unjust that it deserves to fall; but even then the way out is not the way of lawlessness. Reforms come best from the law-abiding not the law-defying.

FARM INCOME Wright County Farm Income Hits 18 Million

CLARION, Iowa—The community of Clarion, population 3,000, took another look at the preliminary report on the 1950 census of agriculture and quickly revalued the importance of agriculture to the community.

The report revealed the value of farm products in Wright county rose from $15,620,000 in 1942 to $18,287,000 in 1949.

The report also shows that 57 farms in the county had income of more than $45,000 for the previous year. There were 48 which ran between $10,000 and $25,000; 795 were in the $5-$10,000 class and 243 reported incomes between $2,500 and $5,000.

Farms Number Same There has been very little change in the number of farms in the county during the 1940-50 period. There were 1,983 in 1950, as compared to 1,977 in 1945 and 1,987 in 1940.

Average size of these farms is 182.6 acres, compared to 184.7 in '45 and 180.5 ten years ago. When land values are considered, the ratio of change is much more appreciable. The average value of land and buildings in 1945 was $27,113 or $148.81 per acre. In 1950 the average farm value had zoomed to $42,883 or $217.72 per acre.

Value of all farm products showed a very considerable increase in the five-year period. Wright county farm products sold in 1949 for $18,287,000; in 1944 the aggregate value was approximately $15,620,000.

Whether the explanation was better times or mainly the post-war availability of automotive equipment, there was a large increase in the number of farm trucks and tractors in the years between 1945 and 1950. In the earlier year, Wright county farmers owned 444 trucks and 2,329 tractors; in 1950 the numbers had increased to 644 and 2,888.

Yield Per Acre Drops

An interesting contrast in yield is provided by the corn and oats crops of 1944 and 1949. In 1949, 147,614 acres were planted to corn—or slightly over 2,600 more than in '44. But the 1944 yield exceeded that of '49 by over 1,900,000 bushels! No doubt the "big blow" in the autumn of '49, plus some borer damage, accounted for the drop in average yield per acre from over 53 bushels to slightly under 41.

Oats yields in the two years were just the reverse, although the discrepancy was not so great. In 1949, a total of 2,655,000 bushels were produced on about 61,700 acres; five years earlier, only 2,387,000 bushels were produced on 68,000 acres. The '49 yield averaged over 43 bushels per acre, while that of '44 was slightly under 40.

That modern conveniences are part and parcel of the 1950 Wright county farm was plainly evidenced by the census report. Of the 1,983 farms, telephones are possessed by 1,688; electricity 1,838; electric water pumps 1,426; electric washing machines 1,756; corn-pickers 1,109; grain combines 856.

Annual Muskie Race Is Won by Wisconsin Town

HAYWARD, Wis.—The town of Hayward (population 1500), striving to prove its assumed title of muskie city of the world, took a big gamble recently, but won out.

Striving to get the jump on other communities, the town sent its mayor and muskie queen to Madison to present the governor with the first muskie caught when the season opened. The delegation arrived in Madison before the season opened.

Back at home an airplane stood by to transport the first fish to the state capital as soon as it was caught.

The season opened but the mayor and muskie queen received no word that a fish had been caught. They waited. They paced the floor. Then came a telegram from Hayward that a fish had been caught. It was flown to Madison. The mayor and muskie queen rushed to the airport to greet the fish and then to the governor.

The presented the first fish of the season to the governor and Hayward takes the title of muskie city of the world.

Flash Flood Takes Four Lives in Kansas Town

HAYS, Kan.—City Patrolmen Clarence Werth and Eddie Staab were credited with saving many lives recently when a flash flood swept down on the town's 8,500 population.

Noticing the rapid rise of the swollen stream after a cloudburst, the officers sped through the sleeping city, arousing citizens with their patrol-car siren minutes before a wall of water raged through the town.

Most of the population reached safety. However, eight persons drowned and 3,300 were made homeless for a short time. Damage was estimated at more than $1,000,000.

FAT STOCK SALE AND SCRAMBLE SEPTEMBER 6.

The first fat stock sale to be held at the Charlevoix County Fair will be held on Thursday September 6 in the afternoon according to Ed Rebman, county agricultural agent and secretary-treasurer of the fair. Twenty animals will be offered for sale at that time. These animals have been on full feed by their owners since the first of the year.

The above calves have been sponsored for these boys by various groups and organizations. The three boys at Boyne City who are raising calves are Edward Hunt, Larry LeCroix and Harvey Crozier. These calves are sponsored by the Boyne City Rotary Club. The three boys who are raising calves at East Jordan are Jim Shepard, Lester Howard and Harry Behling. These calves are sponsored by the East Jordan Rotary Club.

The Charlevoix Kiwanis Club have sponsored three calves for boys at Charlevoix. The boys who are raising calves there are Dick Smith, Robert Jooliffe and William Allison. At Ellsworth the Ellsworth Farm Store is sponsoring a calf for John Devries, the Ellsworth Coop Company has sponsored a calf for Bob Ferral and the Ellsworth Hardware a calf for Ted Spoelman.

In addition, the East Jordan Bank, the two Charlevoix Banks and the Boyne City Bank have sponsored calves for the following people, Joe Smith and David Smith of East Jordan, Jim Essenberg, Ellsworth, August Knop, Boyne City; Ken Shepard, East Jordan; Victor Oosterbaan, Ellsworth; Jack Zoulek and Ray Adkins, East Jordan.

The committee on this year's sale and scramble would like to have other names of boys who are interested in both the calf scramble and a pig scramble. The committee names are as follows, Charles Murphy and Archie Murphy of East Jordan, Clyde Warner and Clarence Meggison of Charlevoix, Claude Pearsall, Boyne City; Lonnie Adkins, East Jordan and Glen Bush, Ellsworth. Any young person interested in this program please contact one of the above men.

Let's SAMPLE AND TEST SOIL NOW

Many alfalfa and clover seedlings fall each year because fertilizers, lime or marl, ordered for April or early May delivery, cannot be obtained in advance of spring seedings.

So the farmer takes a chance, make the seeding without the proper food and more often than not loses in the gamble. As a result, the farmer is not only short of good quality roughage the following year, but finds his whole rotation scheme upset. E. D. Longnecker, extension soil scientist at Michigan State College said today.

He advised checking the condition now of fields that are to be seeded to alfalfa or clover next spring. Farmers complying with the PMA program may request their PMA chairman to have a committee call and assist in the collection of samples. This service is available in many of the counties. Or the farmer may collect his own samples.

Each sample should represent the general situation in the field or a considerable portion of a field. Each sample should be a composition of several samples taken 30 to 50 feet apart, and should represent the entire plow layer, not be taken entirely from the surface or from the bottom of the furrow slice.

Clean equipment should be used in taking soil samples and clean containers used in storing and transporting samples. If you are in doubt as to where the soil testing service can be obtained, ask Ed Rebman, county agricultural agent. Usually a reasonable charge is made to cover the cost of the services.

What's this I hear about Platformed Gasoline?

What Will Platforming Do For My Car?

Suppose you step into your car and instantly notice a remarkable improvement in performance—quicker starting—faster pickup—no ping at any speed.

That would be a short description of Platformed gasoline. Here's a process so new, so radically different, so amazing in its results, that it promises to blaze a completely new trail in refining processes.

As a leader in providing the newest, most advanced improvements in gasoline, Mid-West Refineries, Inc., has installed a $1,000,000 Platforming unit at its refinery in Alma, Michigan—one of the first in the country. This unit produces the most improved and advanced quality of gasoline science can devise. Because Platforming is so new you undoubtedly have several questions about it which we have answered as it affects the operation of your car.

Platformed Gasoline is completely NEW kind of motor fuel, produced by Mid-West Refineries, Inc. through a completely new process that effects an amazing improvement in the performance of your car.

Q. WHAT IS PLATFORMING?
A. Platforming is a radically new process for refining gasoline which employs precious, expensive PLATINUM as the catalyst to completely rearrange the molecular structure of the motor fuel. It is the newest, most advanced refining method in operation today.

Q. Does PLATFORMED gasoline eliminate knock?
A. In properly tuned motors, road tests have shown that it is almost impossible to get a knock from cars using Platformed gasoline.

Q. What do you mean by higher road octane over laboratory rating?
A. Experience has shown that FOR THE FIRST TIME the octan of Platformed gasoline under actual driving conditions actually EXCEEDS its official laboratory rating.

Q. Is PLATFORMED gasoline actually superior to other gasoline?
A. Yes. It is the most balanced, most powerful gasoline of its kind being produced by any method so far developed.

Q. What are the advantages of PLATFORMING in low and high speed driving?
A. In LOW SPEED driving—Smoother idling, faster acceleration; in HIGH SPEED driving—faster pickup, smoother performance at sustained high speeds.

Q. Is a change to PLATFORMED gasoline immediately noticeable in the performance of a car?
A. Yes, instantly in most cars. The first thing you notice is a smoother, more powerful running motor that doesn't knock with sudden acceleration or an up-hill climb.

Q. I understand most gasolines today satisfy 60% of present day automobiles. What percentage does PLATFORMED gasoline satisfy?
A. The better balance of gasoline qualities in Platforming plus high anti-knock and higher octanes fully satisfies the requirements of 100% of today's engines.

Q. What are the features which make PLATFORMED gasoline superior to other gasolines?
A. 1. High anti-knock quality—motor ping is eliminated.
2. Low sulphur content and non-corroding. Reduces engine wear.
3. High octane content. Means more power and faster pickup.
4. High road rating. Gives extremely high performance under actual driving conditions. Less shifting of gears.

Q. Does PLATFORMED Gasoline give me more mile per gallon?
A. Yes. Most drivers will get more mileage per gallon. Because motors using Platformed gasoline perform more efficiently without knocking they naturally use less gasoline per mile.

Q. Does PLATFORMED Gasoline give me more mile per gallon?
A. Yes. Most drivers will get more mileage per gallon. Because motors using Platformed gasoline perform more efficiently without knocking they naturally use less gasoline per mile.
