Questions and Answers Concerning the Special School Election, August 29

Following are some questions that I have been asked many times concerning the Special School Election.

Question: Why is it necessary to hold a special election?

Answer: To raise on additional mill for operational expenses of our school.

Question: Why is one mill necessary?

Answer: House Bill 407 which became Public Act 212 I E 1951 session of our State Legislature requires a school district to levy at least 5 mills in order to be eligible to participate in State Aid monies. The Charlevoix County Tax Allocation Board at its final meeting in May 1951 allocated 4 mills to the East Jordan School District. We are one mill short.

Question: How much money is involved?

Answer: The East Jordan School last year received $103,000.00 in State Aid. About the same amount should be received this year.

Question: Can the Charlevoix County Tax Allocation Board reconsider and allocate 5 mills to schools?

Answer: No. The Allocation Board made its final allocation in May and adjourned. There is at present no Allocation Board.

Question: What will happen if our school levies only 4 mills?

Answer: The Attorney General has ruled that State Aid money will be withheld. Our school budget will be short some $103,000.00. We would be forced to close about December.

Question: How much will this increase my taxes?

Answer: One dollar on each one thousand dollars of assessed valuation.

Your school is really in a serious situation through circumstances beyond its control. If you want your school to continue remember to vote August 29.

National Home Demonstration Council met at M. S. C. August 13-16.

The National Home Demonstration Council met for the first time in Michigan at the Michigan State College campus, East Lansing, August 13th, for a four day course, featuring national and internationally known speakers.

The housewife and 2,000 of her sisters from 3 states and Puerto Rico met on the campus for the largest national meeting held there this year. Other visitors represented Canada, Holland and Germany.

Two of the largest delegations came from Mississippi with 246 members and Indiana's 350 women chorus which is a small percentage of its nationally known state chorus, made up of Home Extension club women throughout the state.

All the delegates to this convention are housewives who have participated in home economics extension groups organized through the cooperative extension service of the United States department of Agricultural and the land grant colleges in each of the states.

"Democracy — The Torch We Hold" was the theme of this convention, to tell the roll of the home in strengthening the free way of American life.

The Home Extension groups of the Gaylord District which comprises 10 counties was represented by Mrs. J. R. (Lula) Clark of East Jordan, who is the District chairman, and Mrs. Ole Hegerberg of East Jordan, delegate from Charlevoix County.

North Carolina will be host to the 1952 Convention.

West Michigan Deer Season

LICENSES AVAILABLE SEPT. 15 FOR HUNTING DEC 1-5.

Distribution of application cards for the special December western Michigan deer season has started, the conservation department announces. Some 4,000 hunting license agents will have a supply by September 15.

Outline of legal hunting areas and other season information can be secured along with the cards from the local agent. A total of 16,800 permits will be issued, with 15,000 for Leelanau and parts of Benzie, Manistee and Grand Traverse counties. Another 1,000 are for parts of Charlevoix, Antrim and north-eastern Grand Traverse counties, and 800 for part of Allegan county. Hunting period for either sex deer is December 1-5, except for Allegan county where it will an antlerless season December 1-10.

Applicant must secure his regular deer hunting license first and then write on the application card his license number and name and address of his hunting license agent. Last year's cards are not good and such applications will not be considered.

Persons not claiming farm owner, lessee or sharecropper status as well as those who do in Allegan county should send applications to the department at Lansing not later than October 10. Those claiming status in the 15,000-permit area should send cards to department district headquarters at Traverse City and those in the 1,000-permit area, except Grand Traverse county, to district headquarters, Gaylord. Deadline is October 1.

Individual must be regularly domiciled on the farm to claim status. Person with such status does not have to participate in a possible drawing, should the applications exceed the quotas.

Oldest Auxiliary Member Honored on Her 88th Birthday

The American Legion Auxiliary Unit 227 paid special honor to Mrs. Catherine Olson who celebrated her 88th birthday August 14th at the Aux. birthday party following the meeting Thursday August 16, other members also honored were Janet Kotowich, Marie Woodcock, Edna Wilkins, Martha Kamradt and Alice Somerville, each receiving many nice gifts and all were presented with corsages with the exception of Grandma Olson who received two, one for each shoulder. A delicious lunch was served of salad, rolls, relish, cake and coffee. A special birthday cake with 88 candles baked and decorated by Lillian Bennett for Grandma Olson was lit and several pictures were taken of the guest of honor. The table was centered with a lovely birthday cake for all having birthdays in August; the cake was decorated with pink roses and baked by Eldeve Gokee. Bouquets of red roses, garden flowers and tapers completed the table decorations. All arrangements were under the direction of Hilda Bathke and Thelma Lyons both daughters of Mrs. Olson. A fine time was had by all.

Marriages

Kroll — Peck

A very pretty wedding took place Saturday, August 18, at the Methodist Church in East Jordan, between Virginia Helen Kroll, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles F. Kroll and Donald Lee Peck, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ora Peck. The double ring ceremony was read by Rev. Robert E. Motre before and altar baked with bouquets of gladiolus and mixed garden flowers. The bride was given in marriage by her father. She was attired in a nylon Marquessette floor length gown with a high neckline, lace ruffle adorned the bodice with the skirt plain excepting two rows of lace on each side trailing to the floor. The long tapered sleeves had lace ends. Her fingertip veil was held by a heartshaped crown with seed pearls across the top. She carried a bouquet of white gladiolus. Her only jewelry was a string of pearls a gift of the groom.

Margaret Kroll was her sisters maid of honor and wore a gown of pink marquessette with large puffed sleeves and a high neckline. Her headress was of stiff marquessette dotted with rhinestone. Her bouquet was of white gladiolus centered around 4 red roses and the only jewelry was pearls. Bridesmaids were Mrs. Leona Stanek, sister of the groom, and Mrs. Kathleen Peck, sister-in-law of the groom. They wore identical gowns to the maid of honor and were lime green. Their headresses were of stiff marquessette dotted with rhinestone and the bouquets were gladiolus around 4 red roses. The only jewelry was pearls. Best man was Robert Kroll, brother of the bride.

Ushers were Charles W. Stanek, brother-in-law of the groom, and Floyd Peck, brother of the groom. The men all wore black tuxedos. Flower girl was Little Barbara Stanek, niece of the groom. She wore a floor length gown of blue marquessette and carried a colonel bouquet of pink pabena. Her headress was a blue gathered ribbon.

The brides mother wore a silk print dress with white accessories. Both mothers wore a corsage of red roses. A dinner was held at 5:00 at the Farmer's Union hall for about 70 relatives. The Bride's table was centered with a 4 tiered wedding cake and Bride's Doll Maid of Honor Doll, 2 bridesmaids dolls, and a flower girl doll placed around the cake.

At 8:00 p.m. a reception was held at the Farmer's Union Hall for about 200 guests. The bride and groom received many lovely gifts. Ice cream and wedding cake were served to all. The bride graduated from Illinois Beauty School in July. The Groom graduated from Roynce City High School in 1950 and is now employed at the Consumers Power Co.

Reunion of The Class of 1926

HOLD TWENTY-FIFTH ANNIVERSARY REUNION

"Tempus fugit" — "Time flies" — that was all the high school Latin members of the East Jordan High School class of 1926 could remember when they assembled at the American Legion Hall, Saturday evening, August 18, for a twenty-fifth anniversary reunion. It had been a long time, but it didn't seem like twenty-five years since they said "Good bye" and walked out of the brick schoolhouse on the hill clutching their diplomas and wondering why they would see each other again.

Saturday evening the American Legion Auxiliary served a turkey dinner and all the trimmings to twenty-two members of the graduating class of '26 and their husbands and wives at a table decorated in rose and silver, the class colors. After the twenty-five rose candles on the four-tier anniversary cake were blown out, Erling Johnson, Vice-president of the class in their senior year, and Fern Gidley Brady, ranking honor student, cut the cake and passed it.

After the table was cleared the group sang the class song, accompanied by Dorothy Webster Clark who wrote the words for the song in 1926. Master of Ceremonies, Ralph Clark, called upon each member of the class to tell briefly what he or she had been doing for twenty-five years. A prize was awarded Mr. and Mrs. Harold Thomas for being parents of the oldest child among the group; another prize went to Mr. and Mrs. Rodney Petrie (Doris Bennett) for being parents of the youngest child among the group.

Marjorie Mackey, Tenfloor wore to the dinner her first party dress, made of navy-blue taffeta, trimmed with self material flowers and pearls. She also carried her party dress, navy-blue, and brought the coat and hat that went with them. All the garments were twenty-nine years old.

Sunday morning the group reassembled to place flowers on the graves of Reva Williams Witte and Lelah Danforth Whitten, the two members of the class who will never join the group again.

At noon, Sunday, the group gathered at the East Jordan Tourist Park for a picnic dinner, with their families. Sixty-two people were present, including two grandchildren, the Harold Thomases and the Bill Bests, each had their grandchild along.

Those from out of town to attend the reunion were: — Mr. and Mrs. Delvin (Bill) Best and two children, Dearborn; Egido DeMaio and two children, Farmington; Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Brady (Fern Gidley), Ann Arbor; Mr. and Mrs. Norman Whiteford (Gladys Halstad), Traverse City; Petriga Hegerberg Sarnowski, Dearborn; Earl Jackson and two children, Mt. Clemens; Mr. and Mrs. Erling Johnson and 2 children, Jackson; Mr. and Mrs. Sam Malone (Dorothy Joynst) and son, Grand Rapids; Mr. and Mrs. Sibley Ten Hoor (Morjorie Mackey) and two children, Grand Rapids; Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Warner (Anna Murphy) and daughter, Charlevoix; Esther Onland Barth, and three children, Omena; Mr. and Mrs. Frank Mathers (Georgianna Pangborn) and four children, Boyne City; Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Ross, Fenton; Mr. and Mrs. Richard Collins, (Sylvia Tousch), Flint; Mr. and Mrs. Carl Wright, Muskegon Heights; Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Clark and four children, Arlington, Virginia.

Those living at East Jordan who attended were Mr. and Mrs. Harold Thomas and three children, Mr. and Mrs. Clem. Kenny and two children, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Shedina with two children; Mr. and Mrs. Rodney Petrie with seven children, Mr. and Mrs. Donald Stokes (Marguerite Rogers) with two children.

Those who were unable to attend because of distance, illness, or inability to leave their work were — Mrs. Lucile Bartlett Pratt, Ontario, Calif; Thomas Brennan, Newberry; Mrs. Ruth Chadsey Eglevsky, St. Louis, Mo.; Mrs. Mary Chew Bair, Vancouver, Wash.; Richard Hipp, Detroit; Herman Leu, Muskegon Heights; Mrs. Eva McBride Brown, Charlevoix; Mrs. Alice Moore Vincent, Flint; Harold Price, Worcester, Mass.; Mrs. Ardith Richardson Hanifen, Bellingham, Wash.; Mrs. Glyde Van Deventer Pagel, Grosse Pointe; Mrs. Helen Colden Gibbeyou, Wayne.

Red Devils Eleven In The Making

FIRST CALL FOR FOOTBALL CANDIDATES AT 9:30 MONDAY MORNING

Coach Gayle Saxton this week issued first call for football candidates to report for opening drills Monday mtrning, August 27th at 9:30 a.m.

Practice sessions will be conducted twice daily until school starts. Drills are scheduled for 9:30 a.m. and 2:30 p.m.

Coach Saxton will be at the high school gymnasium Saturday afternoon August 25th from 1:30 to 4:30 p.m. at which time practice equipment will be issued.

Six of last year's starting eleven are expected to be on hand when workouts get under way Monday morning. They are: Don Whiteford, senior fullback; Keith Evans, sophomore quarterback; Gordon Danforth, junior tackle; and senior linemen, Dan Thomas, Donald Maxwell, and Robert Thomas. Evans played center last fall but is being shifted to the backfield this year.

Six other lettermen will also play an important role in the shaping of the Red Devil eleven. They are: Leon Bartlett, James Weisler, Earl Muma, Orval Nelson, James Shepard, and Lawrence Chanda.

Coaches Gayle Saxton and John Downing will be hard pressed in shaping a new backfield. Graduation took all but one of last fall's starting quartet. Only Don Whiteford remains of last year's ball carriers. Gone will be such boys as Bryan Boring, Max Sommerville, and Ellwin Evans who led the Red Devils through three seasons in a row in which they absorbed but one defeat. Missing also will be lettermen James Milstein, Larry Huckle, Don Danforth, and John Looze and their shoes will be hard to fill.

Fresh fruits should be stored in a cool, dry place. Berries should be spread carefully on trays and stored, but not washed until prepared for the table.

Killed In Car Accident Early Friday Morning

CARLISE SEARS, 42, OF DEARBORN, LOSE LIFE AS CAR LEAVES CURVE

On the morning of Friday 17th, at 3:45 a.m., a 1948 Packard sedan driven by Paul Benevich of Inkster, Mich., with passenger, Carlisle Sears, of Dearborn, failed to make the curve at the intersection of M-66 and M 32 due to excessive speed. The car leaving the road, struck an electric pole, throwing passenger Carlisle Sears out of the car, but he was pinned under the car when it turned over on him. Mr. Sears was badly rushed, with death resulting.

The two men were on their way to Charlevoix to visit Mrs. Sears, wife of Carlisle Sears. The body of Mr. Sears was removed to the Watson Funeral Home and later sent to Hurricane, W. Va., the home of his parents. Mr. Sears was 42 yrs., and employed by the Great Lakes Steel Corp., Detroit. The driver of the car, Paul Benevich, was employed by the Ford Motor Co., Dearborn, and was uninjured.

Accident was investigated by Joe Wilkins, City Police officer, East Jordan, along with Sheriff, Floyd Ikens and Deputy Coblenz. Paul Benevich was placed under arrest by Officer Wilkins.

On Tuesday of this week Judge Brown in Circuit Court heard Benevich plead guilty to a charge of negligent homicide. His case was referred to the probation officer for investigation. He will be sentenced later.

At Our Tourist Park

Our park is still pretty full, for the second time this year trailers have had to be parked on the south and east ends of the dining room. There are eighteen trailers and six tents at the present time.

This has really been a busy place the last few days. First part of the week the new black top was being laid on the pavement in front of the park. On Tuesday
eve. another group of volunteers came for the second 'bee' to work on the laundry room job, first to arrive was Don Clark's cement mixer, then the crew consisting of Rex Gibbard, Bill Streeter, Les Hulbert, Harvey Mosher, Don
Saganek, Cliff Brown, Clinton Clark and John Saganek. It has been worked around that more will be approached to lend a hand in order to complete this project.

Wednesday, Rv Liskum, Les Hulbert and Clinton Clark came, and now the blocks are all layed. At present Joe Neme is busy on the plumbing part of it.

It was a happy group that gathered in one of the kitchens for a picnic on Tuesday eve. when Mrs. Pearl McHale and Miss Ethel Crowell entertained. Those present were sister, Mrs. Maude Pites of Aberdeen S. D. and the Misses Mae Stewart of Oshkosh,
Wis.; Olga Wagbo of Chicago; Martha Wagbo of Midland, and Anna Wagbo of East Jordan.

Mr. and Mrs. Mort Athearn of Sparta arrived Tuesday bringing the number of Sparta friends who come to our park to nine. On Friday the Athearns left for Mackinaw City to attend a reunion of the Kilpatrick school, which was in Barry County. This yearly reunion alternates between Lake Odessa and Mackinw
City.

Louis, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Kraemer celebrated his 8th birthday on Wednesday with a party in the park. Those who helped him celebrate were his brother and sister, Richard and Joan, and cousins, Jack Jean and Lucille Kraemer, and Bob Harold, and Mary Lou Murray.

Mr. and Mrs. Dan Edwards returned to their trailer home Sunday after spending a few days in Newago on business.

Another group of senior boys visited our park on Thursday, in making the trip down the Jordan river, one of their canoes overturned throwing boys bedding, sleeping bags into the water.
Luckily the water was not deep,
but the boys said it was awfully cold.

Our promised fish-fry and pot-luck materialized on Wednesday
No one has dared look at a fish evening when we all gathered in the dining hall for the big feed.
since hardly, trout, bass, blue gills, and other kind that happened to be caught were fried and piled high on each table.
Everyone seemed to be fishing that day to add to the others already caught. We always enjoy these park get-togethers so much.

Our park was saddened Saturday morning to hear that Termie, the Siberian Husky dog belonging to Mr. and Mrs. George Bettes had passed away. She had been ill only a short time with a rare disease that seems to be prevalent over the whole country, and is fatal unless doctored in the very first stages. The symptoms are tiredness, and a rising temperature then falling below normal followed by vomiting. Most of East Jordan will remember Ter-mie as a member of the Bettes family who gave us the lecture and pictures a few weeks ago in the recreation hall. She has traveled about 18,000 miles from Key West, Fla., Texas,
N. Y. and two trips to the Hudson Bay area. While in Birmingham, Ala. she appeared on television.
She was taken to Sparta and buried beside her mother, brothers and sisters, in the animal cemetry there.

New trailer folks this week are Mr. and Mrs. M. E. Wager of Sherwood, Ohio who arrived Tuesday from the Mackinaw City park, and Mr. and Mrs. Lester Challis of Milford.

Mr. and Mrs. James Keeler of Alma returned to our park on Monday. Their daughter, Mrs.
Monroy Detrick of Detroit is spending a week with her parents.

While Betty Robertson is on vacation, Jason Snyder is acting as supervisor of the Thursday eve. dances. The park caretakers wish to thank all those who attend for keeping this evening of enjoyment in such a clean, orderly fashion, very few reports have been made of signs showing otherwise. Last week Joan Kinney sang two numbers during intermission, they were 'I'll Sail My Ship Alone' and 'Tumbling, Tumbling Weed'. A few more minutes of intermission were filled when Pee Wee Peck did a fine Al Jolson impersonation of 'April Showers'.

Most of our park was suddenly awakened about 3:30 Friday mtrning when a bad car accident took place in the park's front door yard. A car from Dearborn left the highway, sheared off some electric light poles and turned bottom side up, pinning one of it's occupants beneath it. We feel lucky that the poles kept the car from careening into several tents which would have been in the direct path of it.

Mr. and Mrs. R. W. McKeachie of Marshall returned to their home after a weeks visit with son-in-law and daughter. Mr. and Mrs. Wm Camp, Paula McKeachie returned with her grandparents after visiting her aunt and uncle, the Wm Camps.

Mrs. Marshall Koontz and four children returned to their trailer from their home in Detroit on Saturday. Mr. Koontz will follow in a few days.

Calvin Scholten of Sparta spent the week end with his wife and son Gale. Mrs. Scholten is one of our hay fever sufferers.

Guests at the O. Balyeat trailer Sunday were their son, Mr. and Mrs. Phil Balyeat and daughters
Wendy and Barbara of Traverse
City.

Black berries are reported ripening and now many from the park are out getting their share.
Besides getting the berries, lots of fun is reported along with the work.

Tenting in our park for awhile are Mr. and Mrs. Dan Stumpner and three children, and Mr. and Mrs. Fred Robinson and son, all of Carleton, Mich.

A picnic dinner was held Sunday when Mr. and Mrs. Mearl Lanway of East Jordan entertained their guests Mr. and Mrs. Paul Heaton and daughter Linda of Monroe, Mr. and Mrs. John Bernard of Traverse City and Mr.
Mrs. J. H. Lutes of Traverse City.

Occupying the Alfred Pierson trailer for a week are their daughter and family, Mr. and Mrs.
Heber Sackett and son Alan. Mr.
Heber is connected with the Gerber's baby food company.

The East Jordan Class of '29 enjoyed their reunion in the park Sunday, visiting followed the dinner which was held in the dining hall.

Another gathering took place around the picnic tables when friends and relatives gathered to honor Mr. and Mrs. Al Yeckel of Detroit, those present were:
Mr. and Mrs. G. Pauquet, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Bushert, Mrs.
Anna Keat, Mrs. Rob't Evans Sr.,
Mr. and Mrs. Frank, Mr. and Mrs.
Darus Shaw, Mr. and Mrs. Merritt

Cease Fire Talks Resume in Korea; WSB Advises New Wage Increases

A MINOR DELAY—Negotiations for a cease fire in Korea resumed at Kaesong after Communists leaders pledged to keep the conference town clear of armed troops. Gen. Matthew B. Ridgway broke off negotiations after the Reds violated their pledge to keep Kaesong neutral.

Apparently a minor delay in the deadlocked talks, Ridgway's action nevertheless was a firm reminder that the United Nations expected the Communists to abide by previous agreements. It was also a pointed hint that the UN means business and that peace can only be achieved by honor on both sides.

There still has been no announcement of any progress over the question of a demilitarized zone across Korea, which has deadlocked the negotiations for days. The Reds insist that the line shall be centered on the 38th parallel. The allies want it along defensible positions, south of the parallel in the west but north of the old political boundary in the center and east.

AN ISSUE FOR '52—The new price control law, signed reluctantly by President Truman, will be one of the big political issues in the 1952 presidential campaign as sure as "God made little green apples," as the cracker barrel philosopher would say.

The fact was evident by the President's blast that the nation's families cannot have protection against inflation until "congress repairs the damage done by this new act." He added, with a grimace of tone that startled many reporters, that the measure was "the worst I ever had to sign."

The Republican and southern Dixiecrat coalition that had refused the President the powers he desired in the bill, continued to maintain it was a good measure if it was properly administered.

WAGE INCREASE PROPOSED—With the recommendation of the wage stabilization board that cost of living wage increases be allowed for all workers, it appears the administration will allow such increases at once. President Truman hinted as he signed the new price control law that the government would allow reasonable adjustments in wages to fit cost-of-living increases.

The new regulation would affect workers who are paid by the hour, or are represented by unions, in three general classes: (1) Those who had cost of living provisions in force prior to Jan. 26, 1951, the wage freeze date; (2) those employers and unions who now want to include such clauses in contracts; and (3) those who want to relate wage rates to the cost of living but who do not want an escalator clause in their contracts.

It is estimated that living costs have increased approximately 11 per cent above January, 1950.

THE WEST POINT STORY—The announcement that 90 West Point cadets have been dismissed from the academy for cheating on examinations caused considerable talk across the nation last week. The scandal, breaking of the academy's honor system that dates from 1817, wrecked the army's powerful gridiron team and was the largest mass dismissal since the military academy was founded in 1802.

Maj. Gen. Frederick A. Irving, the academy's superintendent, acknowledged that the action taken was "stern and uncompromising." But he added: "After weighing all factors most carefully, I, and the responsible heads of the army, are convinced that there could be no compromise solution that would preserve the vital honor system of West Point, which is the very heart of the academy."

FOOD PRICES—Home towners throughout the nation welcomed the bureau of agricultural economics' report that plentiful supplies probably will keep food prices from going much higher this year. But most home towners, remembering the past 12 months of rising prices, accepted the statement with reservations.

Since July of 1950 retail food prices have increased approximately 13 per cent. For the whole of 1951 they probably will average at least 10 per cent higher than in 1950.

The bureau said livestock and crop-production prospects indicate that food supplies available during the latter half of this year will be somewhat larger than a year earlier. The bureau also reported beef-cattle prices at times may drop below ceilings during the heavy marketing season this fall. However, a strong consumer demand for meat may prevent any substantial decline in prices.

The bureau said future increases in prices probably would be limited largely to revised price ceilings under the new defense production act. The new law relaxes limitations on margins for processing and marketing food and other products. As a result, some widening of farm-to-retail price spreads may occur.

FUNDS FOR DEFENSE—The powerful house appropriations committee chopped $1,542,008,500 off the administration's requested military budget, but the total for defense still is a record in the peacetime history of this country—$56,082,405,890.

This amount does not include what the country will spend on Korean War replacements and troops in Japan and Germany.

The bill would allot $20,125,574,665 to the army; $15,552,143,225 to the navy, and $19,854,128,000 to the air force.

The committee said a huge outlay is needed "to create sufficient power to prevent disaster in the event war is forced upon us. At the same time the group criticized the defense department's "glaring and wasteful mistakes" in military purchases, "ill-advised buying" of civilian goods, and wasteful use of manpower.

POLIO FUND—The Sister Kenney Foundation will open its annual campaign for funds with which to continue treatment of polio and research in the causes of the disease on August 20. The campaign will continue until September 20.

Sister Elizabeth Kenney, who directs the foundation, is the Australian nurse who came to the United States several years ago and since then attained considerable success in the treatment of infantile paralysis.

Narcotic 'Salesmen' Picked Up
The round-up of narcotic violators continues by federal agents with the arrest of "Waxey Gordon" Weston (left), Arthur Repola (second from left), and Kass and Ben Kass. Their combined bail totaled $500,000.

DERENSE BONDS

Little Savers Buy More Than Investors

The folks in the home towns of the nation who save a few dollars a week are buying the most defense bonds, according to the treasury.

During the first five months of 1951, the treasury sold 11 per cent more $25 and $50 bonds than during the like five months last year. During the same period, however, sales of the giant-sized $1,000 bonds (this were 39 per cent under last year.

A treasury spokesman said "investors" are not buying defense bonds, but instead are putting their money into things like real estate and stocks—which are supposed to go up in value as inflation grows.

As a result, the treasury department will start a fall "national defense" bond drive in an effort to stimulate the sales of little bonds even more.

MICHIGAN MIRROR

Top Michigan Republicans who attended the annual picnic of Oakland County's Republican women, Young Republicans and Lincoln Clubs, heard a scathing rebuke of a "stagnant party" from Recorder's Judge W. McKay Skillman.

"The papers are full of the Fair Deal appearances of Gov. Williams and Democratic Senator Moody," Skillman said, "but who is heard in opposition?"

"Continuance of a subservient, docile, anemic and 'me-too' Republican Party can result only in a one-party system of government, and that would end our liberties as we know them."

Skillman said he spoke freely now because he was not and would not be a candidate for partisan political office.

In Skillman's audience were State Chairman Owen J. Cleary; National Committee woman Rae Hooker, of Mt. Pleasant; Auditor General John B. Martin, Jr., Republican candidate for the Senate; Treasurer D. Hale Brake; Highway Commissioner Charles M. Ziegler, and United States Rep. George A. Donero, Royal Oak.

Michigan's National Guard is at camp—at a cost of some $2,000,000. The expense of keeping our citizen army trained and up-to-date on modern warfare runs $18.41 per day during the two week stay for each of the nearly 7,000 guardsman in field training.

Maj. Gen. Ralph A. Loveland, guard commander, told the men, "get the most out of your training activities—it's taxpayers' money that pays for all this—"

Michigan's taxes, always are news the joint legislative committee considering the state's muddled taxation system and mounting deficit (a predicted $75,000,000 by June, 1955) has asked for suggestions from a citizen advisory committee. The citizen committee requests more information.

The legislative group states: The tax structure is full of inequities—either more money is needed, the present money must be better distributed or state spending must be reduced.

County fairs are experiencing a banner year. A general 10 percent increase in attendance over last year is the average reports by fair officials.

Work on the new state office building is going ahead on schedule. Houses on the block-square plot West of the Capitol building are being raised and the site prepared for digging. What will be housed in the new building? The only sure bet is that the Highway and Conservation departments and Civil Service Commission will win berths in the modern structure.

Conservation Department experts predict a record-breaking number of fishermen this year. They expect dealer sales returns to exceed the 1,056,060 resident and non-resident permits sold last year.

Permits to hunt deer in the special December seasons are being distributed to license dealers. Those intending to hunt deer of either sex December 1-5 in the Northeastern cherry country or antlerless deer Dec. 1-10 in Allegan county must hold a permit in addition to the regular license.

An above average yield per acre for all Michigan field crops has been predicted by the federal-state crop reporting service. Yield for hay and potatoes may be the highest on record.

These are 40,000 Federal employees in Michigan. Divided by 83, it works out to nearly 500 Federal employees per county. What on earth can they find to do?

Polio the crippler is with us again—or yet. According to health department officials this looks like an "average year" as no epidemics have been reported. They said 416 cases have been reported in the state thus far. There were 300 cases in the same period last year; 687 in 1949. The 1950 total was 2,029 cases.

MILDEW IN THE MAKING
These muggy, warm summer days give the molds that cause mildew a chance to "really get going" in cloths, shoes, paper and wood, warns Olevia Meyer, Michigan State College extension specialist.

Mildew discolors objects, leaves a musty odor and causes decay. The molds that cause mildew are always present in the air—all they need to grow are dampness and warmth.

First step in preventing mildew is to remove moisture. Open doors and windows to your closets only when the air outside is cooler and drier than the air inside. A cool night is good time to freshen the air in the entire house and especially the cloths closets.

Electric fans are helpful in circulating the warm, damp air out. A small electric light burning in closet is sufficient to dry the air and a fan may be used for circulation.

One of the chemicals available for absorbing moisture is calcium chloride. If a musty odor persists it may be removed by sprinkling chloride of lime in the areas, such as on the basement floor.

A few simple rules will help you prevent mildew growth on clothing and other household articles. Never allow damp or wet articles to lie around. Stretch out and dry all moist or wet, soiled clothing and unioned dampened garments. Sprinkle only enough pieces for one day's ironing. Give leather articles a coat of wax before storing—and wax the soles too.

Warning to wives and wives to be; In The American Weekly, the great color magazine distributed with Sunday's Chicago Herald-American, read "Foolish, Frustrated Wives" a dramatic warning to wives who think that marriage has spoiled their chance for a career. Don't miss this eye-opening story Sunday in The Chicago Herald-American's great color magazine!

Closely woven fabrics are best for slip covers because they give greater protection against dust, hold their shape better, wear longer and stiffer more easily than do loosely woven material.

BEER
AMERICA'S BEVERAGE OF MODERATION

The American Way

The words "Michigan" and "fishing" are practically synonymous at this time of the year. And after a day's fishing, it's the "American Way" to enjoy a glass of cool, refreshing Michigan brewed beer.

For beer belongs... to pleasant living, to good fellowship, to sensible moderation. And our right to enjoy it, this too, belongs... to our own American heritage of personal freedom. Beer Belongs... Enjoy It.

Bradley Gets Riled

GEN. OMAR BRADLEY, who doesn't get riled easily, was pretty sore when he heard how one of his own army spokesmen had blurted out to a press conference the name of an airborne division which had been transferred from Korea to Japan.

The incident took place in a press conference at which the army was explaining how Chinese Communists had built up their strength in North Korea while we had weakened ours. What happened was that General Ridgway had cabled Washington for permission to transfer the airborne division in question to northern Japan because of the fact that the Russians had two airborne divisions poised on the island of Sakhalin, threatening northern Japan. While the two Russian divisions have only enough airplanes between them to move one division at a time, Ridgway wanted to be on guard against a surprise airborne attack on Japan.

Washington accordingly gave permission to transfer the American airborne division back to Japan. Such a troop movement is highly secret. But the Pentagon briefing officer, anxious to prove that the Chinese have used the truce talks to build up their strength, blurted out the movement of this particular division to a roomful of newsmen to which foreign correspondents are admitted.

When General Bradley heard of this, he tried to call army chief of staff, Gen. Joe Collins, but couldn't reach him. So he summoned assistant chief of staff Maj. Gen. C. L. Bolte and ordered a full investigation of who pulled the boner.

Eisenhower Says No

Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower has quietly passed the word to his GOP boosters that he is not interested in the Republican nomination—if isolationists control the party. In addition, he let it be known that he is upset by the timid and hesitant policy of internationally-minded Republicans and the way they let bitter attacks on him go unheeded.

One close friend who returned from Paris recently put it this way: "If the Republicans want Ike merely to haul out the party and win an election, they're badly mistaken. That would be like putting a million dollar jockey on a two dollar horse."

"The general is not the least bit interested in running for President just to accommodate a candidate for sheriff. Those who say they want the so badly are going to have to do a lot more than say, 'he's a fine fellow and will win the election for us.' They'll have to work and fight to make the Republican party the kind of place where the general would feel at home."

Eisenhower's close friends agree that this issue will largely decide whether he consents to run—and on which party. They claim Eisenhower is disturbed by four factors:

1. The prospect that as the GOP nominee he might help elect an isolationist Republican Congress which would then proceed to dump the military and economic aid program which he has been spearheading.
2. The lack of a hard-hitting, effective international-minded GOP bloc in congress, as existed when Sen. Arthur Vandenberg was active. The last attempt to organize the internationalists among senate Republicans was in January, 1949, when Sen. Henry Cabot Lodge, Jr., called a meeting. This rump group met only once.

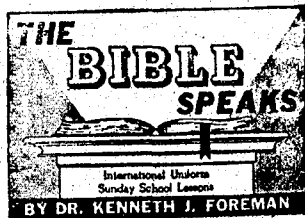

Taft Tightens Grip

The way the Taft-isolationist wing has grabbed control of the GOP party machinery. Ab Hermann, the national committee's executive director, boasted to senate secretaries the other night: "We're building a sound organization precinct by precinct, so we won't have to ride to victory on the coattails of a strong and popular figure." The Taft crowd are in charge of the Chicago convention machinery and determined to prevent an Eisenhower gallery demonstration.

4. The noisy attacks on the general from both the Chicago Tribune and the Gerald L. K. Smith brand of hate mongers. The mails are being flooded with vile diatribes against the general, while his GOP friends sit on the sidelines.

Washington Pipeline

The senate investigating committee is checking on officials who drive around in government automobiles with no identification painted on the sides. This is against the law. Senators suspect that some officials are using government automobiles for their own personal driving. . . . The house armed services committee plans to follow up the senate report on military housing with another sharp blast in the very near future.

Are You a Citizen?

Lesson for August 26, 1951

LET'S come down home. The official title of this week's lesson is "The Christian's Responsibility in Public Life." That is a big thing, a wide circle; but the center of the circle is you, my friend, and right around you is the community in which you live.

Dr. Foreman: What kind of town is it? Not how big, but how good. It doesn't have to be a town at all. It may be a section of open country, a few miles of farms, ranches or woodland. But it is some kind of community. In New York state the Citizen's Council prepared the following set of questions which can be used to help you rate your community. After each set of these questions write down either 10 for good, 5 for fair, or 0 for poor.

Rate Your Town

"1. Education: Does your community make modern education available to every child, youth and adult? Are its schools uncrowded, properly equipped, and in good physical condition? Are the teachers highly qualified and well paid?"
"2. Housing and Planning: Is every family decently housed? Is there continual planning for improvement of highways and other community essentials? Are parking, transportation problems under control?"

"3. Religion: Is full opportunity for religious expression offered to every individual in your community? Are your churches strong and well supported?"

"4. Equality of Opportunity: Do people of different races, religions, nationalities have full chance for employment and taking part in community life? Are dangerous tensions kept at a minimum by avoidance of discrimination and injustices?"

"5. Economic Development: Are good jobs available? Do labor, industry, agriculture and government work together to insure the sound economic growth of your community?"

"6. Cultural Opportunities: Are your citizens' lives strengthened by ample opportunity to enjoy music, art, and dramatics? Does your community have a professionally administered library service which benefits people of all ages? Do your newspapers and radio carefully review the affairs of the community?"

"7. Recreation: Are there enough supervised playgrounds and facilities for outdoor activities? Does your community offer full opportunity to take part in arts and crafts, in photography, and in other hobbies?"

"8. Health and Welfare: Are medical care and hospitalization readily available? Is provision made for underprivileged children, the aged, and the handicapped? Can families in trouble secure the help they need?"

"9. Government: Do capable citizens seek public office? Are your officials concerned above all with community betterment? Does controversy stem from honest differences of opinion and not from squabbles over privilege?"

"10. Community Organization: Is there any organization (community forum or the like) representative of the whole community, working for the advancement of all? Do your citizens have opportunity to learn about and take part in their local affairs? Is there an organized community-wide discussion program?"

It's Up to You

NOW add the scores you have put down for each of the ten groups of questions. A total of 100 is fine; 50, fair.

But now look over those questions again. Is there anything you could do, personally, about each of those things? If so, have you done it? Have you done as much as you could? Have you ever tried to get other people interested?

You can make another score sheet and head it: How I Rate as a Citizen. Then grade yourself under each of those ten heads, 10 for doing all you can, 5 for doing a little something, 0 for nothing at all. If you are a Christian, be especially strict with yourself.

If you were out of it, would your community miss you as much as you miss salt when some one forgets to put it on the potatoes? If you left your community, would it seem a bit darker there after you were gone?

Easy Victory

A decrepit horse was being offered to the highest bidder. An old farmer watched as a young man in riding breeches bid for the animal. When the sale was completed he turned to the young fellow.

"Tell me," he said, "what on earth are you going to do with that nag?"

"Oh," replied the cocky young sportsman, "I'm going to race him."

The farmer took a second look at the animal. "Well, you'll win," he said.

Gerahwin Needed No Lessons

Although George Gerahwin made a fortune from his songs, he always felt that he had much to learn musically. On one occasion, when he was introduced to Igor Stravinsky, he begged the latter to teach him composition.

"How much did you say you earned last year?" asked the Russian composer.

"$100,000," said Gerahwin. "I think you had better teach me composition!"

He Moveth Fast

A gentle Quaker heard a strange noise in his house at night. He found a burglar busy at work. In plain sight of the visitor he walked quietly with his gun to the doorway and said:

"Friend, I would do thee no harm for the world and all that is in it, but thou standest where I am about to shoot."

The burglar didn't linger.

WILLING TO COMPROMISE

Solomon has attested to the strangeness of a man's ways with a maid, but the way of a maid being courted has always been a mystery to a man. A girl dismissed her sweetheart with the statement that she could not think of marrying him until he had a few thousand dollars.

A few months later she met him and asked him how much he had saved up.

"Thirty-five dollars," was the reply.

"Well," she said with a blush, "I guess that's near enough."

He Remembered

The Editor of The Wapalosa Register (guaranteed circulation 1,008) came home to dinner in rare good humor.

"Remember old Skinfitter Rose on the Main Turnpike who hasn't paid up his subscription in nine years?" he called to his wife. "Danged if he didn't traipse in this morning and cancel it!"

SHAME ON YOU, HARRY

A spinster was shocked at the language used by workmen repairing a telephone line near her home, so she wrote the company. The foreman was requested immediately to make a report of what had happened.

The report read as follows: "Me and Spike were on this job. I was up the pole and let the hot lead fall on Spike—right down his neck. Spike looked up at me and said: 'Really, Harry, you must be more careful.'"

Storage Space

A hotel manager received this letter: "Have you suitable accommodations where I can put up with my wife?"

BREIN DONE

It was the tyro fisherman's first day with rod and reel and in the excitement of catching his first fish—a puppy little perch—he kept on reeling it in until his jaws were pressed against the tip of the rod.

"What do I do now? What do I do?" he asked his guide in desperation.

"All you got to do now, neighbor," exclaimed the old-timer, "is climb up the rod and choke him to death."

Close To Home

A GI from Oklahoma, narrates Steve Cochran, was engaged in hand-to-hand combat with a Jap As they thrashed about in a jungle, the GI gasped, "Where you hail from, mister?"

The Jap answered, "Yokohama. Holy smoke," said the GI. "What are we fightin' fo'? Ah'm from Tulsa."

Public Invited To Attend State 4-H Club Show

About 2,000 representatives of the state's nearly 60,00 4-H Club members will vie for top honors at the 36th annual State 4-H Club Show, according to A. G. Kettunen, state 4-H Club leader.

The state 4-H show will be held at Michigan State College August 28 to 31. "Top 4-H Club members of the state will be exhibiting their work for the year. There will be many interesting events for the public," Kettunen said, and admission is free.

New events scheduled for the program this year include play-offs for the state softball championship and a home talent festival, with top acts from district eliminations trying for top billing and national contest consideration.

Nearly 1,500 head of top-quality livestock, thousands of home economics projects, as well as handicraft, electrical, crops, flower, conservation and vegetable exhibits will be judged during the event.

About $20,000 in awards will be distributed to winners during the state 4-H show, the only one of its kind in the country held on a college campus and not at a fairgrounds.

The club members themselves will live in college housing areas and will see a bit of the inside of college life. College staff members, extension specialists and state 4-H Club leaders turn out in masse to help coordinate and run the mammoth show, listing more than 500 separate classes.

Highlights of Tuesday's program include judging the Chicken of Tomorrow, food preservation, school lunch, family living and similar classes and the sheep shearing contest.

Wednesday's schedule includes dairy, livestock, and crops judging, and plowing, public speaking, judging and demonstration contests. The evening program will feature music by the Branch County 4-H Club band, special numbers by professional entertainers from the WLS Barn Dance, presentation of 4-H achievement Winners and awarding of special honors.

More demonstration contests, and activities will highlight the Thursday program. Thursday evening the 4-Hers and state show visitors will see presentations to outstanding 4-H Club leaders finalist in the 4-H Club talent festival, and presentation of dress revue girls and other 4-H winners.

Horse, dairy cattle, sheep and hog judging will continue Friday. A clothing judging and dairy showmanship contest will climax the annual event which ends Friday afternoon.

Moss Pink

Moss Pink is a modest little plant, but a hardy one. On dry, sandy, or rocky soil, where most flowers would wither and die, it flourishes and spreads.

Growing in colonies, Moss Pink blankets the ground with a trailing mat of green. Reaching upward from the stems bearing thin, pointed leaves, shaped like needles. At the ends of the stems are clusters of pink, white, or purple flowers each with five petals. The plants cling close to the ground, never rising more than six inches in height.

Moss Pink
©National Wildlife Federation

When a mass of Moss Pink is in bloom, from April to June, it looks like a bright carpet covering the earth. Later in the season, after the blossoms are gone, the stems and leaves stay green.

According to the National Wildlife Federation, Moss Pink is found in the northeastern fourth of the United States. Although it may grow as far north as Ontario and as far south as Florida, it thrives chiefly in the region bounded by New York, North Carolina, Tennessee and Michigan. A native American plant, it is a member of the phlox family. When growing wild, it anchors down the soil and keeps beating rains from washing away the dirt. If it were not for the thick mats of Moss Pink, many a hill or slope would be furrowed with gullies.

The plant also does well in flower beds and rock gardens, says the National Wildlife Federation. It comes in a dozen or more varieties which are easily grown. Like its wild cousin, Moss Pink in gardens forms bright patches of color in the spring.

Leaves Poison Cattle

A Michigan State College extension veterinarian today warned farmers that wilted wild cherry leaves are poisonous to cattle.

Dr. Glen Reed says that they often contain large amounts of hydrocyanic acid. Symptoms of poisoning include rapid, shallow breathing, a fast heart rate and staggering gait. Affected cattle go down and may die in as little as 20 minutes.

Call the local veterinarian if cattle are poisoned, Dr. Reed advises farmers, but it's better to keep them away from the leaves in the first place.

The Servicemen's Letter

Hi Fellas:

Glen Persons sends his best regards to all his friends in the service and back home. He wrote to his mother on August 10 and asked her to tell me that he was at that time in Suda Bay, Crete, anchored near the NSS SB, Roberts on which Ralph Hott is stationed and he planned to look him up in the near future. From Crete, Glen is expecting to go to Malta for operations, then on to Oran, Africa, and then to Gibraltar where he will be relieved. From there he plans on going to South America before returning to the States. Glenn was on duty on a picket boat at this writing and said it was very hot there. I'm glad the papers are getting through to you OK, Glen.

Clifford Schultz writes and gives a new address. It is: Clifford F. Schultz, FAUSN Engineering School E-1 Division, Class No 452A, US Naval Receiving Station, San Diego 36, Calif. He's still near the same city but is now going to a Class A Engineering school for fourteen weeks. He writes that it hasn't rained for four months there and is pretty hot for him. Guess good old Michigan weather is the best, eh Cliff? You asked if there were anyone from here near you. There are four others from East Jordan in California at this time. I don't know how close these will be to you here they are. Frances Lenosky is a nurse in the 78th Med Group, Sta Hosp, Hamilton AFB, Pfc John Kersner is in the 1st Motor Veh Sq at George AFB. Donald Olson is in Stu 3777, Ft 11A at Cal Aero Tech Inst, Glendale. Charles Strehl is in the US Marine Corps, MTACS, USMCAS, at El Toro, Santa Anna. I hope one or more of these are near you so you can get together and have a good chat. Incidentally, if you get near Strehl's you might get a good meal as his wife is out there and she's a good cook.

The Army seems to be putting Miles Prevo through the places lately. However, he took time enough off to write me and give me his new address. I certainly know how tired you can get. Miles. Those Non-coms sure know how to get the work out of a fellow. He writes that his new address is Pvt Miles A. Prevo, US 55 020 987, 304 Ord HM Co, Camp McCoy, Wisconsin. In Camp McCoy they are getting the last of their training before going overseas. They expect to go in about a month. Well, Miles, if it is Korea that you hit you will be glad of all that training when you get there. Then is when you will be glad you are fit.

Bob Nemesek — down in Camp Gordon. I found out about Herbert Howard from Boyne City. It seems that we are too late. He was in Camp Gordon but just this past week he was home on leave and from here he went to Fort Monmouth, New Jersey.

Braman — Dixon — Cummins — and Loomis down in Norfolk. Did you get to see Jim Nachazel while he was there. This is kind of late (rather) but I just received word that on August 3rd Jim left Norfolk on a one-month cruise to US and Caribbean ports. The cruise is part of the Navy's annual summer training program for reserve officer candidates. Jim is on the USS EA Green (DD-711) and is sailing with four other ships of the Atlantic Fleet, including the Mighty Mo. They will visit New York, Colon, Panama, and Guantanamo Bay, Cuba.

Here's a letter from Dale Gee in rainy, foggy old England. He writes, "It is a Saturday afternoon and raining steady and has been all day. I thought it was a good time to drop you a few lines to thank you for the work you are doing. — As far as I know now we will be coming home in December sometime. I sure hope we make it for Christmas. Lawrence Wright and his wife come to visit us once in a while and I see him quite often at the PX. If you know of anyone else over this way from home, tell them to look me up. That is a standing invitation to anyone from home. (Dates with the 19th AACS Sq in England). He writes further, "Our Squadron Softball team had a record of 7 wins and 3 losses in league play. In July 7th we played them 7 to 4. We played at Bootle which is near Liverpool and the Mayor and Mayoress and also the American Consulate General and his wife were there. Before the game we were introduced to them and we signed two softballs for them. After the game they had a banquet for us. All of us fellows had a wonderful time and also did we even sign autographs for the young people around here. We were busy from the time the game ended until we went home." That's a good way to create good will, Dale. You boys keep it up.

I've got the names here of a couple of three fellows that I haven't heard from as yet and I'd like to get a letter from them. Joe Hammond on the USS Aucilla have you caught any whales off that tin fish as yet? Chuck Gothro over in Germany — is he paper coming through all OK and are you still sorting letters as you once were? Niles Hill in Fort Worden, Washington — I know know your new bride is out there but if you can't get free to write, how about having her write me a Postal Card?

That's all for this week fellows. "Jake" Snyder

Cooperative Will Serve 16 Counties

TEXARKANA, Ark.—The Ouachita telephone cooperative to serve the rural peoples of 16 southwest Arkansas was organized in Texarkana recently.

The REA, farm bureau, vocational agricultural organization and other agencies sponsored the telephone project. A committee from these agencies will operate and present their figures with applications to the Arkansas public service commission for a federal loan with which to finance the system for a short time.

The counties proposed for the cooperative are Columbia, Miller, Little River, Nevada, Howard, Pope, Scott, Yell, Logan, Clark, Sebastian, Montgomery, Pike, Hempstead, Lafayette and Sevier.

Major TV Expansion Plan Would Benefit Thousands of Towns

BRIDGEPORT, Conn. — An experimental television station in a small building near this city may hold the key to opening up television service to thousands of small towns and farm areas now out of range of video stations.

The transmitter station was set up over a year ago by the Radio Corporation of America and the National Broadcasting Company to explore a whole new radio frequency range. RCA and NBC engineers wanted to find out if the "ultra-high frequency" band would be practical for television broadcasting service.

At present all television stations in America broadcast on lower frequencies. But television channels, like radio channels, can become crowded. If two stations on the same frequency are too close together, one interferes with the other.

In 1948, the federal communications commission "froze" construction of new television stations. As a result, many small communities that would have liked to establish television stations were unable to do so.

"It was clear to us at RCA that if television were to be made a truly nationwide service, new television channels would have to be found," said Dr. C. B. Jolliffe, head of RCA laboratories. "That was why we stepped in and set up the station here."

"This pioneering station proves beyond doubt that UHF television is a practical means for extending television service to communities which are now without it," Dr. Jolliffe said.

Present television sets, Dr. Jolliffe added, can be easily adapted to receive programs in these new channels with a small, reasonably priced converter.

For the millions of prospective new television set owners, RCA has announced it will build sets to receive these channels.

Dr. Jolliffe explained that a recent proposal by FCC to open up the UHF band, and expand the present channels, would provide for 2,000 additional television stations in the nation. There are now only 107.

"When these 2,000 stations become a reality," Dr. Jolliffe said, "television will become a part of the daily life of thousands of home towns."

Mysterious Illness Kills 1,000 Hogs in Henderson

HENDERSON, Ky.—Farmers in the Henderson area have lost more than 1,000 hogs from a disease which veterinarians so far have been unable to identify definitely.

One veterinarian said the disease has appeared in so many different forms its identification has been impossible. He added that he believes the disease is erysipelas, but said it resembles cholera, and could be a virus of hog cholera.

The unidentified disease has been found in the Henderson area during the summer for the past several years, and each year the number of swine affected has increased. Over 150 herds have been treated so far this summer.

The disease erysipelas, which the sickness most closely resembles, is caused by a germ. A serum has been perfected for use against the germ, but its cost practically prohibits its use, veterinarians report.

Record Crowd Attends Lompoc's Flower Show

The visitors arrived by private car, buses and airplanes to see what is claimed to be the most remarkable flower display in the United States.

In keeping with custom, sponsors of the show kept admission prices for the show at a minimum "break even" level to encourage the largest attendance possible.

Great fields of sweet peas, callendulas, stock and poppies were in bloom for the show.

The Lompoc area is widely known throughout the country for its commercial seed production.

USE OF CHEMICALS FOR BRUSH CONTROL

Two chemicals — 2,4-D and 2,4,5-T — may provide the answer to many farm brush clearing problems, according to Ed Reberman, county agricultural agent.

He said that they are helpful for many places on the average farm both for clearing and preventing sprouting from stumps and brush sprouts.

In more or less open pastures, head-high brush may be killed with either of the two chemicals or a mixture of two. Reberman pointed out that this job doesn't take much time and the bigger job of cleaning can wait until farm work slackens up. "It's important to kill the brush as early as possible so it won't rob the grass of moisture and food," he explained.

Fence rows have been sprayed successfully for years to control brush and weeds. When it comes to ditch banks, R. L. Maddex, extension agricultural engineer at Michigan State College recommends cutting the brush by hand when it's green and use the chemical on the stubs to stop further growth.

He says that although the chemical spray can be used for controlling brush in ditches and waterways, the dead brush can be a nuisance and reduce the channel capacity of the waterway if left there. That is why he recommends cutting by hand.

Chemical brush control has its place in clearing forest lands too. Maddex says that August is a good time to get into second grown and grown over lands that are to be cleared. He recommends, however, brushing by hand or bulldozer as far as possible. Then use 2,4-D or 2,4,5-T in the late fall or winter months to stop the stumps from growing again. The basal or stump treatment in late fall or winter also relieves worry from spray drift.

This plan works especially well where the whole piece of land is to be cleared over a 4 or 5-year period. The chemicals prevent the part cleared from starting up again. Spraying leaves to kill trees should be done in the spring and summer months.

Maddex said authorities don't believe it is economical to spray large areas of wooded or heavy second growth material before brushing. Sprayed area still have to be cleared by hand and the cost of the chemical can run high.

WATCH OUT FOR BLUE COMB:

Poultrymen of Charlevoix county today were warned by county agricultural agent Ed Reberman, to be on the lookout for bluecomb disease.

He said that Howard Dunne, poultry pathologist at Michigan State College, has reported that the disease is increasing.

Reberman said that bluecomb may strike either turkeys or chickens that are 5 to 7 months old. Losses average 5 per cent but range up to 50 per cent of the flock.

Here are the symptoms. Acutely affected birds will have a fever, their comb and wattles will appear blue-purple in color, they will have diarrhea and skin on their legs will shrivel. Chronic bluecomb may affect birds for 2 to 3 months. Egg production may drop temporarily and birds may go into a molt.

Veterinarians still aren't sure what causes bluecomb disease, Reberman said but supplying plenty of shade, ventilation and cool water may help prevent outbreaks.

If you suspect bluecomb, he suggested taking some live, typically affected birds to your local veterinarian or a diagnostic laboratory for examination.

Now's The Time To Cull Loafers

Now is the time to lay it on the line for the birds that lay down on the job instead of laying eggs.

That's a lot of laying but Carl G. Card, head of Michigan State College's department of poultry husbandry, says that August is the time to spot the loafers in the laying house and take out the poor-doing pullets before housing them.

Pullets with physical deformities and those that lack thrift or are weak should be taken off the debit side of the budget and sent to market. Most important is selecting pullets for the laying flock are pigmentation, plumage and body size.

The loafers among older hens in the laying house may just as well go to market along with the culled pullets, Card said. This is a good time to spot them and a good time to sell them, too.
