SCHOLARSHIP AWARDED BY STATE BANK OF EAST JORDAN

TO YOUNG MEN AND WOMEN OF THIS AREA

A local boy or girl will be selected to receive a $100.00 scholarship from the State Bank of East Jordan for training in the Agricultural or Home Economics Short Courses at Michigan State College next fall or winter. The local bank is cooperating with Michigan State College and the Michigan Bankers Association in providing this educational opportunity.

The College provides practical training in all phases of farming through the General Agricultural Short Courses. These courses are offered during the fall and winter months when farm work is not quite as rushing. The starting dates for the courses this year are October 27 and January 12, 1953.

Girls also have an opportunity of receiving much practical training in Home Making through a Short Course in Home Economics. This course deals with a concentrated study of the problems of making and keeping a happy home.

The scholarship covers most of the cost of the course. Young men and women who wish to apply for one of these scholarships should see Richard Schroeder, the local Agricultural teacher, Ed Robman, County Agricultural Agent, Mrs. Clare Brown, Home Economics teacher or Robert A. Campbell of the local bank. This year's High School graduates who have not made definite plans for further education should seriously consider this opportunity.

WINNER, SEVENTH NATIONAL TRAFFIC SAFETY POSTER CONTEST

To school kids May means out-of-door play morning, noon and night. It means touch football, run-sheep-run and tag. Because hundreds of youngsters are still killed each spring by running out into the street, Automobile Club of Michigan has placed 10,100 of the above "Play Away from Traffic" posters in the schools of Michigan. The poster was a winner in the Seventh National School Safety Contest sponsored by American Automobile Association and Auto Club.

Boy's State June 19 to 27

LEGION POSTS THROUGHOUT THE STATE SPONSORING SAME

Arriving by bus, train and family car, 1,000 Michigan youth will assemble June 19 on the Michigan State College campus for the 15th annual Wolverine Boys' State sponsored by the American Legion.

Called the mythical 49th state in the Union, the nine-day program is slated to run from June 19 to 27. Each boy will be assigned to one of two fictitious political parties for experience under both the convention and caucus systems.

City and county governments will be set up under a Constitution patterned after Michigan's. After elections are held, all further business will operate on a non-partisan basis.

A "Boy-Governor" will fill various appointive posts with the approval of the "Senate." These posts correspond closely to those of Michigan.

While sponsored by the American Legion, other civic groups are invited to sponsor outstanding high school students through Legion posts at a cost of $35 for the nine-day session.

Opening day activity will be highlighted by addresses from Michigan's Governor Williams, MSC President John Hannah and Department Commander Thomas Roumell.

On Friday, June 20, the boys will hold city elections, followed Saturday by county and state elections. Later in the day they will set up mock governmental organizations.

Dwight H. Rich, president and camp director for Boys' State, has arranged a program which will keep the boys busy from 7 a.m. until 10 p.m., when two buglers will sound taps.

Besides the law classes and practical government lessons throughout the day, MSC officials have arranged clinics in sports to round out the brief education period.

With registrations closing the day the lessons in practical government begins, latest figures released by the ruling body of the annual event, Boys' State, Inc., show that 722 boys have been sponsored by Legion posts throughout the state.

Signal When You Turn

Chief Harry Simmons announced the beginning of the fourth week of the safety campaign against left and right turn violators who are causing accidents.

As indicative of the public interest in the "Signal When You Turn" program the Chief said that he has heard that many motorists have complained that the slogan should have been "Signal Before You Turn". According to the Chief it is important that turn signals be given far enough ahead so that they give advance warning to other motorists and pedestrians. In fact, it is often necessary to give a hand signal before turning into the correct lane prior to making the turn at intersection.

Common courtesy, as well as safety, is involved in making a turn, according to Chief Harry Simmons. "A person who fails to signal before turning left not only produces a hazard but he may hold up the car behind unnecessarily," the Chief said. Another case is where a driver has to wait at a signalized intersection before making his left turn because of oncoming traffic and notices another driver behind also waiting to turn left. In this case it would be common courtesy for the first car to pull up into the intersection a little farther to give the second car room so that they could both complete their turns when a gap in traffic appeared.

In conclusion the Chief said, "Signal When You Turn" really means Signal Before You Turn." Please cooperate with our department and the Michigan State Safety Commission.

Concert Campaign To Begin Monday, May 19

Final details for the membership campaign of the Northern Michigan Community Concert Association to be held beginning Monday, May 19th are completed, according to Arthur M. Hinkley, president of the Association.

Mrs. Allan McCune, Membership Chairman of the Association and Mrs. Ralph Dean Dinner Chairman of the Association, are making a last-minute checkup of all preparations for attendance at the dinner meeting to be held Monday evening, May 19th, to insure that the drive will be the same success that was experienced last year.

Mrs. Ralph Dean has made 100 reservations for the dinner and said today that she is expecting 100 per cent attendance. The dinner will also be attended by Mrs. Marion L. Ross of Battle Creek, representative of Community Concert Service, who will address the meeting and be present for the entire week to assist in the campaign.

Making Memorial Poppies Aids Disabled Veterans

With Poppy Day rapidly approaching, disabled veterans of both world wars in veterans hospitals throughout the nation are working to complete the thirty million poppies which Americans will wear on that day, Mrs. Edna Wilkins, Poppy Chairman of Rebec-Sweet 227 Unit of the American Legion Auxiliary, reported today.

Poppy Day will be generally observed on May 24, the Saturday before Memorial Day. Mrs. Wilkins estimated that approximately ten thousand disabled veterans unable to perform other work have been given employment by the American Legion Auxiliary in its poppy program this year. The majority have worked in their beds, wheel chairs or hobby shops in hospitals of the Veterans Administration, although many have been employed at special poppy workrooms maintained by the Auxiliary in several states. With more than 1,500 Korean War veterans now in veterans hospitals, it is probable that some of the poppies this year have been made by men disabled in that conflict, as well as by World War veterans, Mrs. Wilkins said.

"To men who have been confined to the hospitals for months or even years, the work is a godsend," she explained. "It fills the long, monotonous hospital hours with an interesting activity, keeping hands and minds busy and turning thoughts away from self. The experience of being able to do something useful again sometimes changes the veterans whole attitude. Some apparently hopeless cases have been started on the road to recovery by making poppies."

The materials are supplied by the Auxiliary, and the veterans are paid regularly out of Auxiliary funds. Everyone who wears a poppy on Poppy Day helps these veterans while honoring their fallen comrades.

All money raised by this poppy sale is used to aid local veterans and their families with the exception of contributions to rehabilitation projects carried on by the Auxiliary.

In loving memory of our dear daughter, Irene, who departed this life eight years ago, May 12, 1944.

Sadly missed by her father and mother.

We Reached Our Quota

EAST JORDAN CONTRIBUTES $1000 TOWARD RED CROSS FUND

The Charlevoix county Red Cross fund campaign topped its original goal of $3,350. H. W. Patrick of Boyne City, fund campaign chairman, has announced. However, after the original quota assigned, the county was asked to raise an additional $260 following the tornadoes in the south and the floods in the mid-west. This brought the 1952 quota to $3,610.

To date $3,465 has been raised in the county. The most recent contribution was $40 raised on Beaver Island where Archie LaFreniere was chairman.

East Jordan reached its quota of $1000, Ole Olson, local chairman reported last week.

Contributions throughout the county follow: Boyne City, $1243. Mrs. Hazel Friez, chairman; East Jordan, $1,000. Ole Olson, chairman; Charlevoix, $955. Mrs. Charles Bellinger, chairman; Wallon Lake, $121. Mrs. Frank Burns, chairman; Boyne Falls, $56. Mrs. Leo Jablinski, chairman; Ironton, $50. Mrs. Ross Alexander, chairman; Beaver Island, $40. Archie LaFreniere, chairman.

Anyone still wishing to contribute, may do so by leaving his donation with his local chairman or the local bank.

East Jordan Community Chest To Elect Directors

Predict Good Year For Potato Growers

"Chances for another good year for Michigan potato growers are good," M. E. Cravens, Jr., Michigan State College agricultural economist, says.

On March 1, growers of the state reported that they intended to plant 10 percent fewer acres than in 1951. Even with yields equal to the highest on record the intended acreages would not be enough to cause a ruinously low price.

"With yields equal to or less than those of last year there is the probability of prices equal to or better than those for the 1951 crop." Cravens warned that this does not mean that all Michigan potato growers will make money in 1952.

Among limiting factors is low production. He said that farmers who got an average of 180 bushels or less per acre did not make much money on potatoes in 1951, and they aren't likely to do so in 1952.

"With costs even higher than in 1951, some growers may try to cut costs by spraying less," Cravens said. He warned that such cost-cutting procedures will prove unwise if they seriously affect yields.

He summarized by saying that "for the grower who can expect to get yields well above the state average, 1952 looks like a good year to expand potato acreage."

Fires Continue Through Michigan's Forests and Farmlands

Fire continues to chew through Michigan forests and farmlands with the conservation department reporting 171 more blazes gutting nearly 1,000 acres.

This brings the spring season's total to 603 fires and over 4,180 acres damage, nearly matching the entire loss in 1951 of 4,495 acres by 669 fires.

Brush burners, persons starting land-clearing fires which got out of control and fishermen, share the blame.

With little rain to relieve the high hazard conditions, the department is continuing to suspend issuance of burning permits in the northern lower peninsula.

It's better to die boosting than to live rusting.

Report Michigan Contributions To 4-H Club Center

Michigan 4-H'ers are well on their way toward doing more than their prescribed share in establishing a National 4-H Club Center in Washington, D. C.

To date $6,240.45 has been sent to the national office. That sum is made up of contributions from individual 4-H Club members and Extension staff members throughout the state. The goal is $6,000 from 4-H Club members—with only $221.45 missing and more than five counties yet to be heard from. Staff members contributed $462.

A. G. Kettunen, state 4-H Club leader, is sure members will go well over the top. Already 50 Michigan counties have contributed 100% and 23 counties went over their quota. Only five failed to make their goal.

The national goal for funds to build the 4-H Home near the nation's capital is $225,000, figured on a basis of ten cents from every 4-H Club member and a dollar from Extension staff members, Kettunen said.

The School Bell...

How would you like to accidentally run into a little child with your car and cripple him for life? Things like this can be prevented if you stay off the road behind the school.

Second Grade Mrs. Bowerman We have been very interested in our Science period and have had some very fine specimens for study. We watched various kinds of shrubs and fruit tree branches from the bare branches to the bud, flower and leaf stages. We have had several kinds of wild flowers to study and learn to identify. We have learned the importance of not picking too many of each kind from one area.

We have had frog eggs, poll? wogs a crappie fish, a painted terrapin turtle and a large crawfish for our study.

Our bird study has been very interesting. We have been fortunate on our Tuesday afternoon walks to see and observe closely several kinds of birds. We watched a pair of Evening Grosbeak for some time and were close enough to see definite markings. We learned that these birds are not common in this part of the country.

We are planning to entertain our mothers this Friday afternoon at a Mother's Day Party. A parent-teachers discussion will be held during the recess period.

Fifth Grade - Mrs. Mosher We have nearly completed our bird books. Monday we went for a hike to see what birds we could find, to see how many of nature's colors we could list, and to try sketching trees with pencils and charcoal.

We have been making graphs for arithmetic. We learned about three kinds of graphs.

Robert Healey brought some tadpoles to school. They don't look much like frogs yet.

We are making comic geographies of South America. The funny pictures we make will help us to remember some facts we should know.

The world is full of willing people, some willing to work, the rest willing to let'em. "Pop why do they call man a worm?" "Because some chicken always gets him."

High Water Havoc High water is playing havoc with fish and wildlife throughout Michigan. The constantly rising, underground water table is causing lakes, rivers and streams to maintain extraordinarily high levels which may be expected to continue far into the summer, and the effect on fish, game and you, Mr. Sportsman, is far-reaching!

Fishing Holes Move Your favorite trout pools may have moved a few hundred feet or they may have disappeared altogether. Spring freshets don't have too much effect on the contour of river bottoms, but when flood stages continue for any length of time, as they're doing now in Michigan, there'll be some changes made! Silt, sand and gravel move like straws in a hurricane when high water hits. The old fishing holes you've known for years fill up. New channels are cut, especially near a bend in the stream. Bank erosion takes place destroying those hot-weather hiding places for trout. And, worst of all in trout streams, some of the larvae of flies, clinging to stones along the bottom and waiting to hatch later in the season, may be washed away and destroyed. This obviously can have a profound effect on fish food.

Spawning Habits Changed Persistent high water in lakes will bring about drastic changes in spawning areas for pike, bass, bluegills and many other species. Pike, in particular, will spawn in drainage ditches and swamp lands tributary to lakes—areas that might have been high and dry a year ago. This year's record-breaking smelt run made it possible to dip practically anywhere along the shores of the Great Lakes because the silvery little fellows found countless new spawning grounds in hundreds of brand new drainage outlets created by flood waters. One Saturday night recently it was said that on U.S. 23 between Omer and Tawas—a stretch of a good 20 miles—cars were parked in a continuous line on both sides of the highway, while their owners caught smelt along the entire Lake Huron shore. Almost 10,000 people dipped in the Tawas area alone on a single night! The take-home payoff for dippers will reach an all-time record this spring.

Feeding Grounds Move Look for bass, wall-eyes and bluegills in different parts of the lake this year. While weed-beds remain at the same old stand, minnows will move closer to the new, flood-created shore for the protection of short, thick grassy beds. In the late evening and early morning hours this will be the happy hunting ground for their enemies. And there, Mr. and Mrs. Michigan Fisherman, you'll find the big ones that get away, but never too far to talk about forevermore!

Out of all the newspaper and magazine columns I read, the ones I enjoy most are those that pack in a whole lot of facts—unrelated facts, but each one an interesting bit of information in itself. These columns go something like this: "Did you know that humpback whales are addicted to snoring? That bees have been bred with red, brown, and buff-color eyes? Did you know that lead can be converted to gold—at a cost of $1,000,000 an ounce? That a 555-pound fat girl went on a diet and lost 401 pounds in 12 months? That a chrysanthemum has been developed that smells like a violet?" From where I sit, maybe I'm a kind of "Johnny-one-note." My own columns always seem to revolve around one idea—a plea for us to make sure we respect the other fellow's rights—like the right to vote for your own choice or the right to enjoy a glass of beer now and then. I may not be in style, but I believe my one fact is worth repeating—and remembering!

High water is playing havoc with fish and wildlife throughout Michigan. The constantly rising, underground water table is causing lakes, rivers and streams to maintain extraordinarily high levels which may be expected to continue far into the summer, and the effect on fish, game and you, Mr. Sportsman, is far-reaching!

Fishing Holes Move Your favorite trout pools may have moved a few hundred feet or they may have disappeared altogether. Spring freshets don't have too much effect on the contour of river bottoms, but when flood stages continue for any length of time, as they're doing now in Michigan, there'll be some changes made! Silt, sand and gravel move like straws in a hurricane when high water hits. The old fishing holes you've known for years fill up. New channels are cut, especially near a bend in the stream. Bank erosion takes place destroying those hot-weather hiding places for trout. And, worst of all in trout streams, some of the larvae of flies, clinging to stones along the bottom and waiting to hatch later in the season, may be washed away and destroyed. This obviously can have a profound effect on fish food.

Spawning Habits Changed Persistent high water in lakes will bring about drastic changes in spawning areas for pike, bass, bluegills and many other species. Pike, in particular, will spawn in drainage ditches and swamp lands tributary to lakes—areas that might have been high and dry a year ago. This year's record-breaking smelt run made it possible to dip practically anywhere along the shores of the Great Lakes because the silvery little fellows found countless new spawning grounds in hundreds of brand new drainage outlets created by flood waters. One Saturday night recently it was said that on U.S. 23 between Omer and Tawas—a stretch of a good 20 miles—cars were parked in a continuous line on both sides of the highway, while their owners caught smelt along the entire Lake Huron shore. Almost 10,000 people dipped in the Tawas area alone on a single night! The take-home payoff for dippers will reach an all-time record this spring.

Feeding Grounds Move Look for bass, wall-eyes and bluegills in different parts of the lake this year. While weed-beds remain at the same old stand, minnows will move closer to the new, flood-created shore for the protection of short, thick grassy beds. In the late evening and early morning hours this will be the happy hunting ground for their enemies. And there, Mr. and Mrs. Michigan Fisherman, you'll find the big ones that get away, but never too far to talk about forevermore!

Out of all the newspaper and magazine columns I read, the ones I enjoy most are those that pack in a whole lot of facts—unrelated facts, but each one an interesting bit of information in itself. These columns go something like this: "Did you know that humpback whales are addicted to snoring? That bees have been bred with red, brown, and buff-color eyes? Did you know that lead can be converted to gold—at a cost of $1,000,000 an ounce? That a 555-pound fat girl went on a diet and lost 401 pounds in 12 months? That a chrysanthemum has been developed that smells like a violet?" From where I sit, maybe I'm a kind of "Johnny-one-note." My own columns always seem to revolve around one idea—a plea for us to make sure we respect the other fellow's rights—like the right to vote for your own choice or the right to enjoy a glass of beer now and then. I may not be in style, but I believe my one fact is worth repeating—and remembering!

The Servicemen's Letter

Hi Fellas:
The Southland is not the only place that is getting the heat this year. We've been enjoying a small heat wave and dry spell around here for the past two weeks. Homeowners have been out vigorously spraying their lawns to keep them from drying up. The roads out in the country have been practically bouncing and blowing away. But last night we had a good rain. It is threatening again tonight and we may have another bucket from heaven before morning. You should see the grass green up after this rain. The tulips along the south side of my house are away up and a lot of them are in full bloom. I'm afraid they won't be much good for Decoration Day.

A letter from England informs us that Bob Mosher, an Army man, is now on duty at an Air Base there. He writes, "Here I am all settled down for awhile, I hope. After I finished school at Fort Belvoir I got ten days leave with orders to report to Camp Kilmer, New Jersey. After three weeks processing I shipped on the 7th, aboard the George E. Goethals. Nine days later we docked at Southampton, England. I have been attached to the Air Force — they call it "Scarwar". I am stationed at Brize Norton Air Base. It is about 22 miles from Oxford. I'm in an engineer company working in the equipment repair shop. Time sure goes fast but it can't go fast enough for me."

"My new address is: Pvt. Robert D. Mosher, US 55 187 692, 620th Eng Avn Maint Co., APO 147, c/o RM, New York, N.Y. It sure is beautiful country over here. I plan on seeing all of it I can."

That's right, Bob. England is beautiful in Spring. Get off the main drag, though. Seek out some of those back road villages if you want to taste of quiet and beauty.

Ken Richards writes from Fort Leonard Wood, and tells us to discontinue his paper temporarily as he is getting his orders to move quite soon now. He writes that it sure has been hot down there this past week, around 85 degrees. His company basketball team won a couple of tournaments. Guess Ken hasn't lost his eye for that hoop.

Clifford Schultz has a new address out in San Diego. He's at the same Naval Base but in a new outfit. Here it is: Clifford F. Schultz EN-3, 420 80 14, USS L.C.U. 776, US Naval Amphib Base, San Diego 55, California. That L.C.U. means what, Cliff? Landing Craft?

Vale Keller has finished his basic at Lackland and now has an Alabama address. Away down in Mobile. It is: A/3c Vale Keller, 1703 Air Traffic Sqdn, 1703 Air Transport Group, Brookley AFB Mobile, Alabama. Write and tell us what all that address means, Vale.

Bernard Pearce has been changed to another Battery in the same training battalion. His having to come home for his father's funeral put him behind about three weeks in his training period. He should be able to coast for about a week of that three weeks—he is taking over. I hope it doesn't spoil your chances for OCS though.

Here's Jim Ruskell's address. You remember that last week I wrote that he was in Camp Chaffee with Jim Pollitt. They are in the same company but in different barracks. No doubt that is due to the difference in the first letter of their last names. I know when I took basic they arranged us according to the alphabet. For their convenience — not for ours. Jim's address is: Pvt James N. Ruskell, Co C, 81st Med Tank Bn, 5th Armored Div, Camp Chaffee, Arkansas.

Here's a letter from the Public Information Office of Camp Desert Rock, Las Vegas, Nevada concerning Niles Hill. It reads, "Pfc Niles K. Hill is a member of the 369th Engineer Amphibious Support Regiment which currently is supporting the Army combat troops engaged in atomic warfare maneuvers at this huge testing center. Assigned to the shore battalion, Pfc Hill has aided the Army in the establishment of its newest training camp. The installation was activated last December.

"The 369th Regiment maintains the camp as a base of operations for the entire fourth phase of Exercise Desert Rock. The tactical training provided soldiers in the maneuvers marks the most extensive use of atomic weapons with combat troops in military history.

"Units of the 82nd Airborne Division, the 31st and the 47th Infantry Divisions, and the 11th Armored Cavalry Regiment already have participated, along with the 369th, in the giant exercise."

Pfc Hill entered the service February 2, 1951 and took basic training at Fort Worden, Washington.

"Another new man among the armor is Jim McLaughlin. His address is: Pvt. James McLaughlin, RA 16 404 087, Btry C, 281st AFA Bn, 6th Armored Div. Fort Leonard Wood, Missouri. How about you men down at Wood looking Jim up, whether you know him or not, and making him welcome down there.

Larry Streeter called his folks from Scott AFB the other day. I don't have his address as yet but will probably have it for you next week.

Don Bramer is due to leave the Canal Zone again. Let's see — that's today — May 6th. He is enroute to Cuba, Costa Rica, and Mexico. If any of you men down there who might see the USS Recovery in port you'll find Don in the 1st Division.

Some time ago I wrote you that Bob Anderson had left Japan for Hong Kong and then for return to the States. His mother informed me today that Bob had just called from San Francisco and would be home tomorrow — Tuesday the 6th. I'll bet that plane can't travel fast enough for Bob.

That's not too much but that's all for tonight.

So Long men,
"Jake" Snyder

The best way to save daylight is to use it.

Non-partisan government at Lansing is functioning as usual this spring — vetoes from the governor, accusations from legislative leaders, more unbalanced budget, more confusion and almost daily political fireworks.

When the voters of Michigan chose Republicans to fill seven out of eight state administrative offices and to dominate the state legislature, they also pick Democrat G. Mennen Williams by a slim margin to serve as Governor. The pattern is familiar by now.

Every year Democrat Williams has voiced hope that the Republican legislature will try to cooperate.

And every year it's like putting two cats in a croker sack. They just tear each other to pieces. It's an almost untenable situation. The result?

We are now faced with an unbalanced budget. The legislature after hearing and tossing, came up with its $333 million budget for the coming year, some $32 million more than the present income will produce. Then the lawmakers presented tax bills which would bring in an estimated $32 million.

The governor, who has been futiley kicking the wall for a 4 percent corporation tax for three years, vetoed the Higgins used car tax bill which would have poured $12 million into the empty coffers. This tax should have put a 3 percent tax on used cars and cut off $3 million now diverted to schools.

Governor says it is unfair. Legislature smirks at Williams' corporation tax, his FEPC bill, his additional welfare proposals and they're unfair.

And no one wins.

Speaker of the House, Victor A. Knox (R-Sault Ste Marie) as quoted before in this column says: "The legislature has had no help at all from the governor in meeting the crisis. He wants to spend and spend—because he thinks it is smart campaigning to promise the people more and more. Never does he tell people that they must pay for the cost of state government—he tries to make them believe they are getting something for nothing."

The governor replies in kind, saying, "The G.O.P. program is based upon the recovery of funds now being returned to local units of governments and more consumer taxes." And he says he'll veto any tax bills following those lines.

And by gum he has.

Republican say the governor has sold out to the C.I.O.

Governor says Republicans are backed by "big business."

Then the affair at Jackson blew up like a tin can on the Fourth of July.

Republicans say Williams caused the state to reach the nadir of public respect by being so wishy-washy with the rioters. Governor Frank Murphy took the same attitude with the C.I.O. sit-down strikers at Flint back in 1937. Lives were saved, he said.

Governor says he was protecting the kidnapped guards.

This could go on for days.

Just what is the answer? Outside of an election, there apparently isn't any. The two camps right now are sitting around the council fires plotting-war strategy—and they will continue to do so until there is a new governor or a Democratic legislature. Non-partisan government is a sorry mess.

Salary and wage costs to some 25,500 state employees and officials hit $103,614, 469 in the last 15 months. In the same period of the first Williams administration there were $85,431,465 and 10 years ago the total was barely $42 million.

But the legislature promises that by the end of the fiscal year there will be from 800 to 1,000 fewer state employees.

The agricultural departments warns that Michigan may face another invasion from forest tent caterpillars this year. Last year more than 800,000 acres were stripped by the pest. Could be worse this year. Mostly the upper peninsula suffered, although some of the caterpillars appeared around Grand Rapids and Battle Creek.

Success to be proud of was not earned by acts that needed lengthy explanations.

MAY 4, 1912
On and after the 15th day of May, 1912, the barbers of East Jordan will charge a fee of Five Cents for neck shaves — H. A. Kimball, Otis Smith, Frank Phillips, M. Tyner.

A charge took place in the management of local telephone exchange, Friday, when A. W. Clark of Petoskey became active manager. F. H. Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Porter went to Chicago Wednesday to be present at a consultation of physicians called on behalf of Frank Porter who arrived there last Friday from Florida.

One more industry has been added to East Jordan's many and varied. Williams Bros of Detroit on Thursday telegraphed president W. P. MAY 5, 1922
An automobile slipped off the Ironton ferry into the channel, last Sunday, carrying the five occupants with it and all escaped drowning. Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Bashaw with their two daughters, Anna and Ellen and Mrs. Bashaws' father, Andrew Berg were out for a drive. They decided to cross the ferry at Ironton. Mrs. Bashaw was driving their heavy Overland and after getting the car onto the ferry, shut off the gas and applied the brakes for some reason the brakes failed to respond and the car continued to creep ahead. The guard chain on the ferry was not in position and the car toppled over into the 18-foot deep channel. The escape of all five occupants from drowning borders on the miraculous.

Fred Vogel, Sr., 69, a well-known farmer residing four miles north of East Jordan died Sunday, April 30. Surviving are the wife and the following sons and daughters Edward Vogel, Mrs. Ben Reid, William Vogel, Fred Vogel and Miss Agnes Vogel. In running logs through the saw a log threw him against the saw and his right foot was severed above the ankle. He is at present at the Commercial house in charge of a physician and nurse.

Alex Larson was found dead in the woods on his farm near Deer Lake Tuesday afternoon. He had been suffering from a carbuncle for some time and it is thought this broke inside, causing his sudden death. Mr. Larson was a former well known resident of East Jordan, working at the East Jordan Iron Furnace. He leaves a wife and three children.

Walter F. Woodcock left Tuesday for Lansing where he has a position with the Olds Motor Works.

DRESS UP YOUR WINDOWS WITH PLANTS
Why not arrange to bring the outdoors inside this summer? Give heavy draperies and hangings a vacation for a season and dress up your windows with plants.

Elinor E. Roth, of the Michigan State College department of textiles, clothing and related arts, is not suggesting a bare window graced by a lone plant on the window sill. No indeed—she urges unusual treatment of both plants and windows in order to spruce up home decoration for the summer season.

An idea especially good for picture or bay windows is to frame the whole window with a climbing plant. It will take a surprisingly short time to get ivy or philodendron all the way around. Use inconspicuous string or wire trellises to lead the plant in the proper direction, Miss Roth advises.

For a drapery-like effect, try using wall brackets pots on the sides of the window. The plants should be vine-type so they will grow gracefully downward. Miss Roth thinks that brackets placed quite close together will give the most striking effect because the vines will make a continuous line at the side of the window.

Careful use of plants on window shelves makes striking treatment for curtainless summer living. The specialist suggests putting the shelves—probably made of glass—at structural points, that is, along natural divisions in the window.

Interesting containers can be used for an inside flower garden on window sill. Try using a long bread basket, for instance, or a miniature window box made for the purpose.

Canoe Races from Walloon Lake to Petoskey, May 17th

Two 18-mile canoe races on the Bear River, from Walloon Lake to Petoskey, where the river empties into Little Traverse Bay, have been scheduled for May 17.

First of the contests will be open to all entries, with a $100 cash award to the winner and other awards of $50, $25, $15 and $10. In the second race high school pupils will compete, with trophies going to the winners. Awards to the pupils will conform with Michigan scholastic regulations. In a similar race last year, the winning canoeists negotiated the course in 2 hours, 28 minutes. The races will start at Walloon Lake at 1 p.m.
