TRACK TEAM GETS POINTS AT CADILLAC REGIONAL MEET

DON WHITEFORD TALLIES 8 1/2 POINT — TIES FOR FIRST

East Jordan's High School track team pick up 9 1/2 points in tough Class C Regional competition at Cadillac Saturday, May 17th.

Captain Don Whiteford, rounding out a brilliant high school athletic career, tallied 8 1/2 points with a tie for first in the high jump and second in the shot put. Bob Thomas, another senior, picked up the additional point, placing third in his heat of the 440 yd. dash.

Whiteford cleared the bar at 5'5" in the high jump and tossed the 12 shot put 45'7". Thomas's time in the 440 was 59.2 seconds.

It marked the third time this spring that Whiteford has broken an existing school record. On April 28th, in a triangular meet at Mancelona, he scaled 5'8 3/4 in. in the high jump to better the school record of 5'8" set by Bob Bennett back in 1936. On May 6th, at Charlevoix, he broke Howard Sommerville's shot put record of an even 43 feet, which had held up for twenty years, with a put of 43' 2 3/4". Saturday's heave of 45'7" thus bettered his own record established less than two weeks ago.

Whiteford will wind up his athletic career in the State Meet here at 45'7" thus bettered his week and Coach Saxton has high hopes that he will become the first East Jordan lad to place in the State meet in the last 14 yrs.

Farm Bureau News

Women's Farm Bureau District Meeting composed of five counties, Charlevoix, Otsego, Cheboygan, Emmett and Antrim met in Gaylord May 6th. Dan E. Reed, Ass't Legislative Counsel, Michigan Farm Bureau, was the main speaker of the day, he gave us some facts to think about. Reapportionment—Farm bureau joins in petition for a constitutional amendment to reapportion the legislature in 1953. This proposal needs everyone's help, not only F. B. members but to everyone in rural areas, towns and cities. About 250,000 signatures will be needed by July 1st. to place the proposal on the ballot for election in November. A State Project that the F.B. Women help is the Sister Kenny Project, which is that of raising money at the rate of $10. per county to give to the Sister Kenny Treatment Center to be used in purchasing equipment for the center. Last year between $500. and $600. was given to the center by the Michigan Farm Bureau Women and that money probably will be used to purchase tubs which are used in the treatment of Infantile Paralysis. This project is continued over from last year. A new project has been added this year and that is Nurse Recruitment. The F.B. Women in the state will raise $300. during the year and give this money to the Michigan Nursing Center Association for use in their recruitment program. Mrs. Marjorie Karke, Director of Women's Activities talked on Nurse Recruitment at the District meeting. Mrs. Thomas Dockery, Kewadin, is District chairman; Mrs. Peter Burns, Ellsworth, is Secretary and Treasurer of West Side of District number 10. Farm Bureau members please read your Michigan Farm News and pass your paper on to a friend who is not a member. Discussion topic for May is "Do We Have Adequate Laws Controlling the Narcotic and Liquor Trades." Attend your Community Group meeting.

Valuable Information Available On Small Business

Management "know-how" is the key to success in any business, and the small business management assistance program of the U. S. Department of Commerce offers a part of this "know-how" by means of booklets and pamphlets to persons interested in establishing new businesses, as well as to those already established. Of particular interest to those considering entering business is the "establishing and operating series" booklets, of which there are some 44 ranging in price from 15c to $1. Herein the problems and opportunities of opening and running a particular type of business are discussed in considerable detail. These booklets contain the latest information from and the experienced judgement of those who have successfully operated such businesses. The Government Printing Office reports sales of over 1,100,000 of these books, covering subjects from "flower shops" to a "trucking business". Lists are available free of charge by contacting the Detroit Field Office.

In order to furnish authoritative information on specific management problems, our "small business aid" series has been developed. Some 500 pamphlets have been written by trained personnel of the Department, Trade Association staffs and representatives of other Federal Agencies. These management pamphlets are free of charge and a list may also be obtained from the Detroit office.

The above information, bibliographical material on various fields, and data on the simplification of useful record keeping systems can be obtained from the U. S. Department of Commerce, 7th Floor, Griswold Building, Detroit 26.

Attention Ladies!

Cakes lined up—each with a number. Judges looking, breaking off pieces, tasting. The winner? Number 4—a cake with a wonderful, glossy chocolate frosting.

This was at the Women's Club last night. Then Duke Thomas stepped up—his cake was Number 4! Seems his missus was laid up, so Duke took over—and won! Here's Duke's prize-winning frosting recipe:
Melt 3 squares unsweetened chocolate in double boiler. Remove from heat, add 1 1/2 cups sifted confectioner's sugar and 3/4 the hot water and blend. Add 3 egg yolks, one at a time, beating well after each.

The Servicemen's Letter

Hi Fellows:
Not a great deal of changes to report this week. This letter will be as short this week as it was long last week.
Fort Riley, Kansas seems to be favored with the majority of our new men at present. I have here the address of three new men who arrived at Riley just recently to take their basic. One other man that I know of is there but I don't have his address as yet.
Pvt. Roger R. Benson suddenly started writing letters to his folks from Riley about a month ago. His address is: Pvt. Roger R. Benson, RA 16 400 801, Co L, 87th Inf Regt, 10th Inf Div, Fort Riley, Kansas.
Donald Danforth, Leo Danforth, and Bill Snyder left here for Detroit for their examinations on March 25th and up to today I had no word from any of them. However, today Don Danforth's address showed up and he too is at Riley. His address is: Pvt. Donald W. Danforth, RA 16 405 481, Co C, 86th Inf Regt, 10th Inf Div, Fort Riley, Kansas.
I didn't know that Earl Hart had left for the service until this last week but here is his address. Another Riley man, Pvt. Earl F. Hart, RA 16 408 767, Co L, 87th Regt, 10th Div, Fort Riley, Kansas.
That makes a total of eight men from here who are now in Riley. Two old timers (comparatively) who have settled there after serving their hitch over in Korea are Claude Grandall and Ellery Inman. Claude is with the 5021 ASU out at the Station Hospital. Let's hope that none of you men in Riley see Claude in a business way. Ellery is with the 10th QM Co of the 10th Inf Div, there at Riley. A friend in the QM is always good to know in this mans army. Three other men who have been in Riley for a short time are Dale Lavanway and Delwin and Darwin Morris. They, all three, are in Co. D, 86th Inf Regt, 10th Inf Div.
Have you men got together yet? If not, then why not do so soon. You younger men probably will not know Claude and Ellery but it won't take long to get acquainted. They have been in longer than you and may be able to give you some good pointers. How about it?
Raymond Romback, who has a line and letting us know what kind of course they are giving been in the hospital at Camp Breckinridge for some time is out at last and back with another airborne outfit. His new address is: Pvt. Raymond R. Romback, US 55 248 362, Co H, 516th Abn Inf Regt, Camp Breckinridge, Kentucky. What are they doing to you, Ray? Shoving you out of a plane? How about dropping me you now.

Bud Cummins returned this past week to duty aboard the USS Minos at Little Creek, Virginia. I guess Bud made full use of his leave. His dad said that Bud wasn't around home much of the time. Seems he's got a girl somewhere around here.
Bob Anderson is still in evidence. He's giving that Ford V8 a rough time these days and nights. I don't blame him a bit, however. That furlough will pass so quickly that he will think his pockets have been picked when he finds it's time to start back to San Diego.
Ed Streeter was down visiting Larry and Bob Farmer in Scott AFB this past week end. Ed says the boys there are getting a wonderful schooling in radio. They talk away over his head in technical terms about radio, he says. They go to school for 6 hours a day and have plenty of time for cleaning up before, during and after duty hours. They have no KP for the first six weeks of school. But Larry got hooked for a little special detail while waiting for his course to start. He pointed out to Ed a fence that he painted and some other odd details that he got pulled in on. I've noticed that Bob Farmer has had about three changes of address since he got to Scott. The reason is that whenever they finish one course, instead of moving the study equipment to the men, they move the men to a different study point, new barracks and all.
It sure has been nice during the days this past week. Tonight it is quite warm and has promise of a good day again tomorrow. The water is still high. The brown trout are hitting up in the head of the lake above the road. That really can be called the head of the lake now. There's nothing but water all the way from the road and bridge south to the woods. Water and more water. You know, some day I'm gonna knock off and go fishin'. No kiddin'.
So Long,
"Jake" Snyder

MacArthur has come and gone leaving a ripple of approval. The legislature has convened, causing a wave of dissent. It still can't get along with our governor.
The General in his famous style of delivery spoke softly and struck sharply at Communism and Socialism in Michigan.
In Detroit he blasted the "inroads made by collectivism" and said we need a "high level of statesmanship dedicated to the common purpose of advancing a liberal and unexploited labor movement and industrial economy sufficiently free from government control to maintain a reasonable profit potential."
"We must resist," he said, "the spendthrift policies of government which may bring us to the brink of economic chaos and are forcing upon us an irresponsible economy apparently to avoid the political impact of a return to the long-range protection of frugality and reason."
"They (labor) must establish strong bulwarks against the pressures upon the free labor movement by Communism, whose initial objective upon ascendancy to political power has ever been the workers' enslavement," the powerful speaker said.
The general's words are no longer news. But this thought is worthy of consideration—the general, despite his untimely suspension, has not been wrong yet.

Lake Michigan and her sister great lakes are slaughtering our beaches.
The rising waters of the lakes have caused millions of dollars in damage and pushed real estate values along the shore line down to nothing.
In 1946 the waters on the western shore of Lake Michigan gouged out a few expensive basements—but those were the expensive basements. The water receded and the entire state sat back and waited for the 20-year cycle to set in, but it didn't.
In 1952, new records were set for the total destruction. Entire tourist areas are being wiped out and the beachline along the west coast virtually has vanished.
The situation has reached the point where it has caught the ear of our August congress—which is doing little.
The St. Lawrence Seaway got (or has so far) short shrift, although it hasn't been shelved yet. Assistance to the owners of beach property has been dignified by offering them loans through the RFC.
But mostly Congress is waiting for the cycle to turn the pounding waves back to the low water level they have maintained the last few years.
And don't think the waters haven't turned Frankenstein on the state. Blue lake Michigan, which for so many years has pulled tourists from all over the nation, has turned on the resorters who have been exploiting it.
Poetic justice, perhaps, but the tourist business in Michigan still ranks with the automobile industry and farming and Michigan can't afford to lose the revenue it brings in.
With the water level at a new high Lake Michigan and Lake Superior are hammering at the doorsteps of cottages and pulling mile upon mile of beach back into the waters.
Sailors on the lake complain that even their largest navigational checkpoints are vanishing under the bubbling onslaught.
Will the waters recede, next year? They must. They can go no farther without inundating the entire peninsula. At least the entire state hopes so.

Donald C. Leonard, former state police commissioner has decided to take a whack at the gubernatorial chair.
While speculation ran rife as to what his political aspirations were, the political observers in the state were whacked back on their heels with the degree to which he aspired.
Few if any expected the successful police official to put his sights on such a difficult target.
He enters the field against such seasoned campaigners as Fred M. Alger, Jr., secretary of the state; Bill Vandenberg, lieutenant-governor now, and Eugene Keyes, Doctor-Dentist-lawyer who plays in politics because "he has a fever."
Present hopes seem to center around the fact that he will take a passel of votes away from

Michigan State College extension specialists are busy getting ready for the fifth round of Grass Days in six counties of lower peninsula. These field days are designed to promote more and better grassland farming in Michigan by demonstrating the kind of good practices that help get the most from the use of grass on the farm.
Dick Bell, farm crops specialist at the college, chairman of the Grass Day committee, says grassland farming doesn't mean turning the entire farm over to grass and legumes but rather getting the right balance into the regular rotation.
Bell says grass and legumes hold the key to increased meat and milk production in the United States. He backs up that statement with four big reasons: First, a pasture, grass and legumes provide the main raw material for beef, dairy, mutton and wool. Second, grasslands hold the possibility of converting much unimproved land into highly productive crops. Third, many acres of cropland will produce more total digestible nutrients per acre when planted to grass than when corn and other feed grains are grown. It also gives greater returns for an hour of labor. And the last reason is that grasslands are needed in rotations to maintain top production of other crops in the rotation.
Ed. Rebman, county agricultural agent, advises Charlevoix County farmers to attend the grass day program. The date and place is Monday, June 23, Emmet county — Kenneth Bare farm, southwest of Petoskey. Bring the entire family and enjoy the program.

Farmers were asked to be on the lookout for symptoms of rabies this week by Ed. Rebman, county agricultural agent.
He said that dogs, cattle and cats have rabies most frequently. Dr. Glen Reed, Michigan State College extension veterinarian, told Rebman that no cases of the disease in humans have been reported during the past 7 years.
But Dr. Reed said that the state health laboratory got reports of 100 cases of rabies in animals in the state in 1951, 260 cases in 1950 and 177 cases in 1949. Many farm animals are susceptible to the disease.

Symptoms of the disease include a change in behavior caused by the effect of the disease on the brain. Gentle animals may become restless and excitable. Friendly dogs may become snappy and snappy dogs may become friendly. Tone of the dog's bark may change and dogs may wander.
In the dumb form of the disease, a paralysis may develop. The animal may stagger, drop its jaw, be unable to swallow and become extremely hungry and thirsty.
Rebman said that the disease could be practically eliminated if all dogs were controlled. Pets should be controlled and not allowed to stray. Stray dogs should be reported if there's a word set-up in the community for their control. Keep your pets away from stray dogs.
Vaccination of dogs will help reduce the disease if done on a wide basis, and will reduce the chance that your dog will become infected.

Trout Released By Conservation Dept.

Conservation department fishery crews now have released 320,000 legal-size trout and 870,000 sub-legal and fingerling sizes in suitable trout waters.
How many of the seven-inch or larger stocked trout have been caught by early season fishermen is open to speculation.
Further stocking is underway and will continue at times throughout wild trout reproduction, and to provide some future rod targets.
Legal-size fish released so far include: 121,000 brook, 120,000 rainbow, 70,000 and 8,000 lake trout. Nearly two-thirds of the total went into northern lower peninsula streams and a few lakes; larger plantings now are in progress in the upper peninsula.

If the lines of your farmhouse are low and horizontal, plant low, rounded foundation plantings for best effect.

Do We Remember?

God and a soldier all people adore
In time of war and not before;
And when war is over and all things are righted,
God is neglected and an old soldier slighted.
—Anonymous.

The other day I received a letter from a friend in Pusan, Korea, that has been causing me to lose a lot of sleep ever since. He had just returned to his quarters after watching a group of wounded and disabled American veterans being sent back to hospitals in Japan and to the United States.
"I wonder if you people back home really appreciate what these boys have sacrificed in order that you can live a normal, peaceful life," he wrote. "All of these casualties are young men—some merely teen-agers. They came from a comfortable home, just like yours. They were born with the expectation of living out a natural life in good surroundings. They didn't hesitate to go half way around the world to fight for decency and democratic ideals in a stinking hell-hole. And now they are coming back to you—but not as they left."
"Some are blind. Others have an arm or a leg gone. Still others have injuries less serious but nevertheless of a permanent nature. Every last of a permanent nature. Every last of them staked his life for the blessings of freedom. I wonder if you are going to let them come home to the forgotten men, shunted to the side of the highway of life, to rot away in oblivion?"
Perhaps the reason I haven't been sleeping any too well since receiving that letter, is because I have a gnawing feeling in my heart that you and I take these disabled American veterans too much for granted. Of course we know a war is going on. Aren't taxes sky high? Naturally we keep up with the Korean conflict in a hazy sort of way. Let's see now. How many casualties have we suffered so far? A quick check of the record reveals that to date more than 103 thousand Americans have been killed or wounded in Korea.
A HUNDRED THOUSAND!! You know what that means? It means that if every American soldier that received battle wounds in the Korean conflict was suddenly dropped into Macon, Ga., there wouldn't be room left in our town for a single, solitary civilian. The number of disabled American veterans would outnumber us by several thousand! Add to this staggering number the men who were disabled in the World Wars and you would have a city, entirely populated by veterans receiving combat disabilities, larger than Atlanta.
Many thousands of these men are members of an organization very aptly called Disabled American Veterans. I still contend that DAV more properly means "Distinguished and Valiant" and heartily concur with General Douglas MacArthur's words: "Membership in no group in the world carries greater honor than in the Disabled American Veterans."
The disabled veteran today faces many problems. Living costs have risen 17 per cent since the outbreak of the Korean war, yet disabled veterans are receiving less compensation than they did 50 years ago! The 1950 average monthly payments per veteran was $34.06 as compared with $85.00 in 1900.
The DAV advocates the freezing of medical personnel within the Veterans Administration as well as legislation providing for a five-year federal aid program in medical education to increase the number of doctors, dentists and nurses for VA hospitals. They also would like to see the 1,600 hospital beds amputated last year returned in order to adequately take care of the Korean wounded now streaming back to the states.
A recent DAV survey revealed that at least 500 million work hours annually can be made available to ease the current shortage of labor in the industry by utilizing an estimated 250,000 disabled veterans, now unemployed. And today a disabled veteran rated as less than 50 per cent erant receives no consideration for compensation if he is married and has a family.
The DAV believes that since many of these men and their dependents are suffering financial hardships and that they should be granted compensation allowances based on the number of dependents involved.
All of these projects are worthy of vigorous support by you and me. This business of sending billions of dollars to the far ends of the earth to help suffering humanity is a noble and Christian gesture but I'll sleep a lot better when I know that our government has adequately and properly taken care of the fellows who got their bodies mutilated and torn to keep me and mine free and safe. FIRST!
