FAILING EYESIGHT FORCES RETIREMENT AFTER SIXTY YEARS IN NEWSPAPER BUSINESS

On Saturday, Oct. 11, G. A. Lisk, owner and publisher of the Charlevoix County Herald for 48 years, announced his retirement from active newspaper publishing and the sale of the Charlevoix County Herald plant and the Herald Bldg. to his son and daughter-in-law, Paul E. Lisk and Priscilla S. Lisk.

Owners and publishers of the Central Lake Torch since July 1, 1949, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Lisk will continue to operate the Torch from its Central Lake plant, and will also operate the Charlevoix County Herald at its East Jordan plant.

Before purchasing the Herald, G. A. Lisk was foreman on the Lapeer Clarion at Lapeer, Mich. Hearing that the Herald was for sale in the then booming lumber town of East Jordan, Mr. and Mrs. Lisk moved to East Jordan and on Feb. 11, 1904, purchased the Herald from Roy L. Lorraine, for $500.00. Interesting to note is the inclusion in the bill of sale of one "Taylor Hand Press". This press is in use today as a very efficient proof press and a curio to most visitors.

At that time Roy L. Lorraine was publishing the Herald, his brother Bert Lorraine and father C. L. Lorraine published East Jordan's other newspaper the East Jordan Enterprise. Continuing to operate the Enterprise several years after his father's death, Bert Lorraine finally discontinued publication of the Enterprise in its 39th year on Jan. 30, 1920, and gave the remaining list of paid subscriptions to Mr. Lisk for completion of their unexpired term. Mr. Lorraine then operated a job shop at his home until his death a few years ago.

The Herald, in 1904, was located in the rear of a grocery store operated by Mr. and Mrs. Otis J. Smith. The foundation of this building still stands on the north side of Jan's Restaurant. Mr. Lisk operated the Herald there for about a year and then moved the plant upstairs in the building recently occupied by DeForest's Toggery. On Jan. 24, 1910, Mr. Lisk leased the West room on the main floor of a building then being built by Frank A. Kenyon to house the Post Office, Telephone Office and other businesses. On Sept. 29, 1939, Mr. Lisk purchased the building from Mrs. Kenyon together with all postoffice equipment owned by her.

With the removal of the Michigan Bell Telephone Co. operating from the building early this spring, the Herald is the only remaining business in this building of those that moved in immediately after its erection.

An interesting part of the East Jordan Enterprise's "swan song" in 1920 is the following: "Two newspapers in East Jordan is like having two broody hens covering one nest and you all know good results cannot be obtained from such a combination. Mr. Lisk, we feel sure can and will, give you a better newspaper than has before been possible owing to the divided support."

On Mr. Lisk's arrival in East Jordan, his first job was for the Detroit and Charlevoix R. R., and, as the paper stock on hand in the shop had depleted so low, he had to purchase several writing tablets for stock to print the job on. Such were conditions "Way back when".

In looking over the files of the early Heralds it is surprising to note the number and size of ads in these issues. The most progressive advertisers at that time were the East Jordan Lbr. Co., A. Danto and H. Rosenthal, and it was not uncommon for them to have full page ads week after week. Now-a-days a page is indeed a rarity in the newspapers of this region.

He was employed by the East Jordan Iron Works and the Antrim Iron Co. at Mancelona. In August 1916 he was united in marriage to Nancy Sturgell at East Jordan who preceeded him in death on July 25, 1940. Since then he has resided in Grand Rapids and was employed by Dolor Jarvis.

The East Jordan Red Devils kept their victory string intact Saturday afternoon by soundly beating the Onaway eleven, 33 to 6. This victory was their 16th in a row.

Scoring came in the first, second and last quarters for Coach Gayle Saxton's squad while Onaway scored their lone touchdown in the third on a fumble recovery. Bob Danforth scored the first TD on a plunge from the five yard line after a series of plays that worked the ball almost the distance of the field.

The extra point was blocked. Keith Evans scored the second TD on a pass from Sam Milstein, covering the last 20 yards in the open. He also ran over the extra point. Milstein closed the first half, scoring on a reverse play from the ten-yard line. Bob Romback carried over the extra point to make the count 20 to 0.

Onaway scored in the third after they recovered a fumble on the East Jordan four-yard line but Floyd Detloff and Bob Romback came back in the fourth quarter with a touchdown apiece. Detloff ran over one extra point but fumbled in the end zone. Jim Shepard recovered for the Red Devils to give them a final score of 33 to 6. Saxton used his entire squad.

MILADY'S WARDROBE

After the youngsters are outfitted for school, milady can turn to thoughts of her own wardrobe. It is a coat in the shopping list, Marjorie Eastman of the Michigan State College clothing department urges you to give careful thought to this major investment. Follow general fashion trends, but avoid extremes Miss Eastman advises women who will want to wear a winter coat several seasons. Extreme styles are dated in a short time, she said.

The variety of coat styles this year is so great that you can almost assuredly find one becoming on your figure. There are straight box coats, a revival of tailored chertierfields with velvet collars, fitted coats, sporty polo coats, or the new "tulip" silhouette. The tulip coat, she said, has a low-placed flare rather than fullness that falls from the shoulder line. For dress wear fur trimmed coats are good this year, too. Fabrics for coats perhaps are the biggest news. Textures were never so varied, she said. Look for curled, looped, grainy, rough, fleecy and smooth woolen fabrics in coats. Tweeds are important fashion-wise this season with two-color combinations and kaleidoscope tweeds using many bright colors together. Poodle cloth is with us again this Fall in flatter, less loopy versions.

Miss Eastman urged a woman in search of a new winter coat to consider her present wardrobe. If you wear many suits, a fitted coat will not be so comfortable over suits. If your cloths are generally dressy or tailored, select a coat to blend with them.

It's honey time. Grocers' shelves are stocked with a new crop of the wholesome, natural sweet. Michigan State College specialists report there is an extra big crop this year.

Not only is honey a nutritious, versatile food, it is very important in other ways, say MSC bee specialists. They point out that honey bees pollinate more than 50 farm crops. But unless keepers find a market for their product, the bees will not be available for this vital job of pollination.

"Honey Flavor Harmonies", a booklet put out by Michigan State College extension service, lists many recipes using the sweet, amber fluid. For instance, the Bulletin—available free of charge at your county extension office—gives directions for using honey instead of sugar in baking. And honey with vegetables and fruits, as sandwich fillings and in ice creams and confections is also suggested.

With simple adjustments, honey can be used in almost any recipe calling for sugar. It is as sweet as sugar and has the advantage of keeping baked products moist. Keep the honey you buy in a dry place, but not in the refrigerator. If it is too thick it can be quickly thinned by placing the honey container in a pan of warm water, MSC home economists advise.

Try this for a breakfast variation—drizzle honey in grapefruit halves and let stand 15 or 20 minutes before serving. Or, broil the honeyed grapefruit until lightly browned on top and heated through.

If you want to stay young, associate with young people. If you want to feel your age, try to keep up with them.

Michigan apples cost only about three-fourths as much for edible tissue as do these from the Pacific Northwest.

From where I sit... by Joe Marsh

Our Town Wouldn't Take a "Back Seat"

Well, the "battle of the buses" has been settled! Our town is again friendly with Balesville.

Everything started when buses began going through our town with a big sign on them saying SHOP IN BALESVILLE. The bus line is owned in Balesville and operates over here on a franchise.

Windy Taylor was all for putting up barricades—he kept calling up the police and the bus company. Finally Judge Cunningham invited the Balesville Chamber of Commerce to meet with ours at Andy's Garden Tavern.

Over a good meal and glass of beer we all reached a compromise without any trouble. Those signs now read SHOP HERE IN TOWN. Everyone's happy.

From where I sit, it shows how problems disappear once both sides get together and try to work things out. Naturally we're all a little different. Some like soda pop, for instance, and some like beer. So what? We all have to ride along through life together. Why not make it a pleasant trip?

Second Grade — Agnes Johnston

During our discussion periods, we have been talking about the many signs of fall. We are making a collection of fruit, vegetables, leaves, nuts and other things to put on one of our library tables. They tell us fall is here.

We have a "Bring and Tell" day every week. Several children brought things to tell about. Peter Zoulek brought a peanut plant; Donald Bowerman brought a deserted bird's nest and branch of thorn apples; Carol Bowerman and Marlynn Hughes brought some unusual looking gourds and Patsy Murphy brought some broom corn.

We have a new October calendar in our room. We marked off important dates that we want to remember during the month. We found that Reva Hart, Peter Zoulek, Thomas Breaker, Jerry Cihak and Michael Bennett have October birthdays.

We think waxing leaves is fun. Thursday we all waxed one leaf each.

Mrs. Robertson came to our room Friday and gave us a talk

THINGS YOU SHOULD KNOW ABOUT CANCER

Dr. Charles Cameron, medical and scientific director of the American Cancer Society, Inc., gives answers to 50 common questions about cancer of vital interest to everybody. Read "Answers to Cancer", in this Sunday's (October 19) issue of the great Color Gravure American Weekly, exclusively with The Detroit Sunday Times.

George Washington was branded a "hyena" — Lincoln, a "traitor" — FDR, a "dying cripple" — and now both Eisenhower and Stevenson are being viciously attacked by their opponents. In The American Weekly, with Sunday's Herald-American, read H. V. Kaltenborn's shocking report on mud-slinging. Don't miss "The Big Smear" — Sunday's Chicago Herald-American.

Michigan Mirror

An old Ozark preacher once attributed the amazing success of his sermons to the manner in which he delivered them.

"Just Ah tells the congregation what Ah is gonna tell'em."
"Then Ah tells 'em."
"Then Ah tells 'em what Ah tol' 'em."

On that basis, that it takes more than one telling to clarify a situation as confusing as the one facing Michigan voters on constitutional amendment proposals, leaders throughout the state are "telling" the voters what they told 'em.

Business and professional organizations and farm groups throughout out-State Michigan are repeating this theme in the closing weeks of the campaign:

Proposal No. 2 would place control of both houses of the Legislature in the hands of 25% of the voters.

That's a broad and alarming statement. To people outside the Wayne-Macomb-Oakland area that prospect becomes more alarming when they are reminded, again and again, that 25% of Michigan's voters represents a bloc which is apparently well under control of CIO labor bosses.

It hasn't been until recently that such domination of both the Senate and the House was possible.

In 1900, for instance, it took 24 counties to account for 51% of the state population. These represented both industrial and agricultural sections from Detroit factories to Thumb farms to Ionia shops.

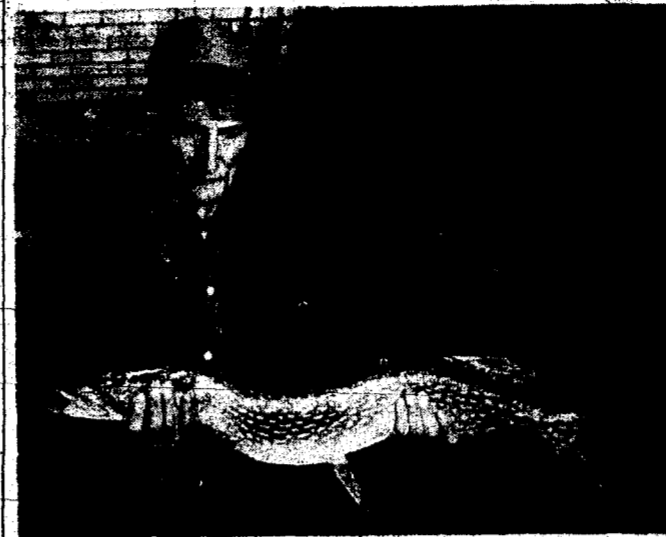

The House of Representatives, elected on a population basis, could therefore never become lopsided in reflecting the welfare of a small segment of Michigan. The Senate, based on area, made representation even more thoroughly reflective of the whole state.

Under two state constitutions—those adopted in 1835 and in 1850—the plan worked satisfactorily. Under the present, 1908, constitution there have been rumblings of dissatisfaction. Because, by constitutional provision, senatorial districts have to be redrawn in every year ending in 3, labor bosses see the November election as an excellent way to prepare for reapportionment next year, '53.

They noted that Wayne, Macomb, Oakland and Genesee counties now have 51.6% of the state's 6,371 million population. They are also well aware that tightly-controlled unions can swing those four counties.

Thus, by scrapping the Federal ideal of representation in the lower house by population and in the upper house by area the labor

Ernie Barnes Has Fished Lake Charlevoix 64 Years

Ernie Barnes remembers fishing the Jordan River for the first time 64 years ago when he was a lad of 13. And, says Ernie, he's been fishing it and Lake Charlevoix almost every year since.

Recently, while trolling for steelhead on a windy day on the lakeside of the bridge at East Jordan, Barnes felt a mighty tug on his line: "I knew it was a big-un", he said. "After about 20 minutes I could see I needed help — the wind was carrying the boat out into the lake, so I yelled for a fellow to come on" over from shore. Wasn't a steelhead, but a pretty good pike. Weighed him at 10 lbs., and he was 36 inches long."

The following day Barnes landed another pike, weighing 11 pounds, without any help. "Wind wasn't blowing today", he explained.

The 77 year old fishing enthusiast has never left Michigan since he came here with his parents by covered wagon, at 6 months of age. Born in Old Wine, Iowa, then known as "Brush Creek", Barnes says he has been to Detroit and the Soo where he's "looked across to Canada."

The father of seven children, six still living, Ernie Barnes proudly boasts of 37 grandchildren and 25 great grandchildren. And says he: "They all live in Michigan too!" — Cut courtesy Petoskey Evening News.

SOAK DIRT OUT OF BLANKETS. DON'T AGITATE

Save yourself and your blankets this fall when you do household laundry. Mrs. Alice Thorpe of Michigan State College home management department recommends the new soaking method developed at Ohio State University. Essence of this new method is — don't agitate the soil out of blanket, soak it out. To begin with, use a synthetic detergent and operate the machine long enough to dissolve the detergent in luke warm water. Put in the blanket and soak 15 to 20 minutes without operating the machine at all. While it is soaking, turn the blanket by hand once or twice.

For the rinsing process, remove the soapy water and allow to soak four or five minutes in clear tepid water. Repeat, so the blanket gets two rinsings and during each one turn the blanket twice by hand.

After the last rinse, stretch the blanket to original size and dry, Mrs. Thorpe instructs. When the blanket is dry there is still more important work to be done. Brush it well with a stiff bristle brush to raise the nap. The Ohio experiments prove that you can stretch a blanket as much as 10 inches by brushing vigorously with a stiff brush.

If you have an automatic dryer, Mrs. Thorpe advises putting in about four pounds of dry towels with the blanket and leaving for 15 minutes. Remove the blanket while it is still moist and finish drying in the air, then brush it just as if it had been dried on the line.

Conservation Dept. Employees To Operate Checking Station

Conservation department employees will operate a network of eight primary and six secondary checking stations at strategic road points in the northern lower peninsula to collect hunting and deer information during the coming firearm deer season.

Also department personnel will use 17 equipment stations in the region as reporting stations for hunters, though biologists will not be on hand at these points to age deer.

Location of primary check points is at present only tentative; final approval on their locations must come from state departments of highway and police because of safety aspects involved.

But temporarily at least, the department plans stations at Muskegon on US-31, south of Brohman on M-37, south of Morley on US-131, south of Remus on M-66, south of Mt. Pleasant on US-27, at Sanford on US-10 and south of Standish on US-23. And as usual, game specialists will check deer and hunters on the Straits docks at Mackinaw City.

Secondary stations will be located at the five district headquarters buildings in Baldwin, Traverse City, Gaylord, Mio and Gladwin and at sub-district headquarters in Roscommon.

Information sought by the department includes hunter numbers, age and general physical condition of deer killed and hunter success.

Member Appointed To Legion Statewide Committee

East Jordan has contributed a Legionnaire to the "Progressive Program" staff of American Legion Department Commander Eugene N. Houck in Lansing, October 3-4-5 when the executive committee approved the list of 1952-53 office holders at the annual Fall Conference.

Franklin Stucker has been re-appointed to the Child Welfare and Guidance Committee.

All members will take office with the avowed purpose of carrying out the Legion program of preparing America for an eventual war by keeping up our armed strength and by fighting internal subversive forces.

Houck expressed great personal satisfaction in being able to appoint such capable men to responsible positions within the organization.

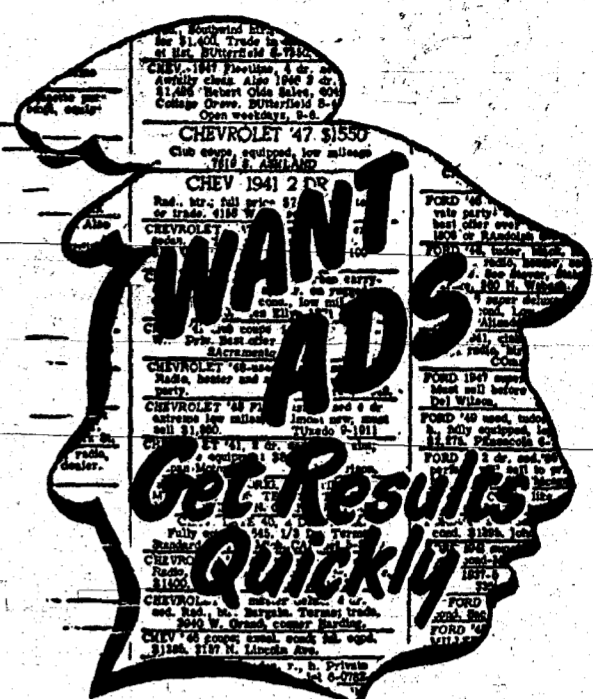

"It's not often a taste commander has had such a wealth of experience from which to draw in order to carry out a progressive program based on community service and national security," Houck declared in making his appointments.

Mrs. Elsie Taylor left Wednesday to visit relatives and friends in Detroit.

Mrs. Anthony Kenny is visiting her son and daughters and families in Muskegon this week.

The Servicemen's LETTER

Hi Fellas:

Word has just been received here in EJ that Gerald Olson and Leo Dipinski are on their way to Camp Chaffee, Arkansas. I'll probably have their address for you next week.

Don Trojanek walked in this afternoon. He is home on leave before being shipped to Austria. He is to report to Camp Kilmer for shipment on October 27th. More about him later.

Johnny Kershner checked in from Geiger Field, Washington, and authenticated that rumor about his getting married. I wrote the story up for the Marriages column. Think I could get to be a Society Editor eh?

Don Dixon just made PFC, whatever that is. Is that, that 3rd Class rating you spoke of last week? It's terrible to have been in the Army and to be so dumb about Navy titles.

Leo Danforth, still in Camp Gordon, Georgia, reports a slight change of address to Company 20, TSESS, Det TSU 9600.

David G. Vallance, age 17, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Vallance of Route 2, East Jordan, Michigan is completing his AF basic airmen indoctrination course at Lackland Air Force Base. Lackland is situated near San Antonio and is the world's largest Air Force Base. It is the site of Air Force basic training for men and women. His basic training is preparing him for entrance into Air Force technical training and for assignment in specialized work.

Here's the address of a man we've been completely neglecting, through no fault of our own. Pvt John Bussing, RA 16 428 573, Co D, 81st Med Tk Bn, CCB, 5th Armored Div., Camp Chaffee, Arkansas went into the service on September 18th and last week was the first that we heard of him. He is in his basic training now but wants to qualify for an Engineering course if possible.

Richard Sommerville and Robert Graham, if you are still there be sure and hunt Johnny up and give him a big welcome. Bob is in Btry B, 58th. AAA, AW

Bn and Dick is in Co. D, 8th Hvy Tk Bn. That's for your info — John.

Here's an address for Raymond Rombak who by the sound of his address is over West making hay against the 'Heathen Chinese. Pvt. Raymond R. Rombak, US 55 248 362, Co "M", 8th Cav Regt, APO 201, C/O P.M. San Francisco, Calif.

John Vallance will be on his way home very soon. We've got orders to discontinue his paper this week.

Dave Wade made it to El Toro and wrote us thusly: "Guess I'd better check in and get that good old East Jordan news once again. After spending eighteen wonderful days home I drove out here in my old filly. Sure is nice to put my feet in a Marine base once again, and away from a Navy Technical training school."

"I'm in a Marine Transport Squadron known as VMR 253. We have those flying boxcars that are known to carry troops around and about. In fact right now we have an Air Lift on. We are working around the clock. Of course "Boot" Wade pulled night shift.

"Say Jake, when I first arrived in E. J. and checked in with you I mentioned I saw Jessie Ranney at Memphis but I guess you forgot it. He's down in dear old NATTC studying Aircraft Mechanics and is doing quite well for himself.

"Southern California is fine and liberty is nothing but good. La A., Hollywood, Santa Ana, Long Beach, and Mexico are within range of a week end."

Dave's address is: Pfc David S. Wade, 122 81 74, VMR 253, Mag 25, MCAS, El Toro, Santa Ana, California.

Cliff Cutler, looking healthy and strong, was in the PO last week and informed me that he has now been discharged and is home from the Army for good.

Jack Bennett, who was discharged from Fort Custer on September 25th, is now working at the Pontiac Mills in Frankfort, Michigan.

Here's a letter from Everett Vermillion which, he informs me, may be his last while he is in the service. It's time to get down and write while I have time off. We've been working day and night. It sure is getting cold here, with a lot of rain. I look for snow before long.

"Well Jake, it won't be long now until I'll be out of the Army. I'll be out on November 8th and this month sure is going by slow. Every day seems like months. It doesn't look like I'll be back to E. J. for awhile. You see, I'm going to make my home in Colorado Springs, Colorado. It's a beautiful state. Also I'll be going to school there. So you see it will be quite some time before I'll be able to get up there.

"At this time I would like to thank the people of E. J. for sending the paper to me while I was in the service. It has been wonderful for me to set down and read it, even when I get homesick I'll take out the paper and it seems to put me closer to home. It gives one a lift when it's needed."

Thanks for the letter, Everett, and good luck to you in school.

Jim Raymond wrote from Lackland AFB and jacked me up about not getting his paper. The truth is, Jim, we had your address mixed up. You have been on the list right along but your paper has been going to Squad 3703 instead of 3707. I think we straightened that out last week so you should have received one paper before this one. Jim says, "There are two guys from E.J. here. They are Bill Anderson and Dave Vallance. Dave just lives across the street from me but Bill is about 8 or 9 blocks from me. Dave and I went over and hunted Bill up and we had a good time talking about old times in E.J. Bill was here three weeks before we knew it."

Don Olson reappeared from the limbo of lost soldiers and walked in on his dad last week and made himself at home around here just like an old timer. Don is home on leave until the 15th of this month and then goes back to the same address in the same camp. He is teaching instrument maintenance to other airboys. This is a part of an electronics course for the Air Force Men. Don's address will be: A/2c Donald L. Olson, AF 16 355 435, 56th Tech Trng Sqd, Chanute Field, Illinois.

Say, here's something else I just came across. Johnny Kershner is now A/1C. Congratulations, John.

Jim Meredith has left Newport, R.I. and is on his way to Key West, Florida. Do you suppose that is Navy winter resort now? Sounds good anyway. Jim has just made his 3rd Class too — effective October 15th. You Navy men down around there watch out for the USS Formoe.

Roger Benson wrote his mother that he is being transferred from Fort Riley to Aberdeen, Maryland on November 4th. He's to attend A.O.C. there at the Aberdeen Proving Grounds. Sounds like a wonderful opportunity, Roger. Go to it.

Bob Anderson is another Navy boy who made his 3rd on October 16th. He is still in Pearl Harbor but writes that he cannot get out of there too soon to suit him. He does not like Hawaii and hopes to come home soon.

We received word that Bud Cummings was on his way home for a 15 day leave. Haven't seen him yet, though. And he just lives two doors down from me. Do you suppose he got delayed somewhere enroute?

Fred Burbank is due in home port next Thursday, Oct. 23rd. This weeks paper is the last one to go out Air Mail to Arthur Bowen over in Korea. His mother got word that he would have time to get just one more letter from her before leaving for the States. A good trip, Art.

No poetry this week men. But we do have something different. Paul had told me that he would attempt to put in a picture or two of the servicemen now and then. We appreciate his effort and hope it will continue. We know it costs him money, but — after all — doesn't it dress up this page a lot?

So Long.

Passes From Father to Son

FAILING EYESIGHT FORCES RETIREMENT AFTER SIXTY YEARS IN NEWSPAPER BUSINESS

On Saturday, Oct. 11, G. A. Lisk, owner and publisher of the Charlevoix County Herald for 48 years, announced his retirement from active newspaper publishing and the sale of the Charlevoix County Herald plant and the Herald Bldg. to his son and daughter-in-law, Paul E. Lisk and Priscilla S. Lisk.

Owners and publishers of the Central Lake Torch since July 1, 1949, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Lisk will continue to operate the Torch from its Central Lake plant, and will also operate the Charlevoix County Herald at its East Jordan plant.

Before purchasing the Herald, G. A. Lisk was foreman on the Lapeer Clarion at Lapeer, Mich. Hearing that the Herald was for sale in the then booming lumber town of East Jordan, Mr. and Mrs. Lisk moved to East Jordan and on Feb. 11, 1904, purchased the Herald from Roy L. Lorraine, for $500.00. Interesting to note is the inclusion in the bill of sale of one "Taylor Hand Press". This press is in use today as a very efficient proof press and a curio to most visitors.

At that time Roy L. Lorraine was publishing the Herald, his brother Bert Lorraine and father G. L. Lorraine published East Jordan's other newspaper the East Jordan Enterprise. Continuing to operate the Enterprise several years after his father's death, Bert Lorraine finally discontinued publication of the Enterprise in its 39th year on Jan. 30, 1920, and gave the remaining list of paid subscriptions to Mr. Lisk for completion of their unexpired term. Mr. Lorraine then operated a job shop at his home until his death a few years ago.

The Herald, in 1904, was located in the rear of a grocery store operated by Mr. and Mrs. Otis J. Smith. The foundation of this building still stands on the north side of Jan's Restaurant. Mr. Lisk operated the Herald there for about a year and then moved the plant upstairs in the building recently occupied by DeForest's Toggery. On Jan. 24, 1910, Mr. Lisk leased the West room on the main floor of a building then being built by Frank A. Kenyon to house the Post Office, Telephone Office and other businesses. On Sept. 29, 1939, Mr. Lisk purchased the building from Mrs. Kenyon together with all postoffice equipment owned by her.

With the removal of the Michigan Bell Telephone Co. operating from the building early this spring, the Herald is the only remaining business in this building of those that moved in immediately after its erection.

An interesting part of the East Jordan Enterprise's "swan song" in 1920 is the following: "Two newspapers in East Jordan is like having two broody hens covering one nest and you all know good results cannot be obtained from such a combination. Mr. Lisk, we feel sure can and will, give you a better newspaper than has before been possible owing to the divided support."

On Mr. Lisk's arrival in East Jordan, his first job was for the Detroit and Charlevoix R. R., and, as the paper stock on hand in the shop had depleted so low, he had to purchase several writing tablets for stock to print the job on. Such were conditions "Way back when".

In looking over the files of the early Herald it is surprising to note the number and size of ads in these issues. The most progressive advertisers at that time were the East Jordan Lbr. Co., A. Danto and H. Rosenthal, and it was not uncommon for them to have full page ads week after week. Now-a-days a page is indeed a rarity in the newspapers of this region.

Such were conditions "Way back when".

MILADY'S WARDROBE

After the youngsters are outfitted for school, milady can turn to thoughts of her own wardrobe. It is a coat in the shopping list, Marjorie Eastman of the Michigan State College clothing department urges you to give careful thought to this major investment. Follow general fashion trends, but avoid extremes. Miss Eastman advises women who will want to wear a winter coat several seasons. Extreme styles are dated in a short time, she said. The variety of coat styles this year is so great that you can almost assuredly find one becoming on your figure. There are straight-box coats, a revival of tailored chertersfields with velvet collars, fitted coats, sporty polo coats, or the new "tulip" silhouette. The tulip coat, she said, has a low-placed flare rather than fullness that falls from the shoulder line. For dress wear fur trimmed coats are good this year, too. Fabrics for coats perhaps are the biggest news. Textures were never so varied, she said. Look for curled, looped, grainy, rough, fleecy and smooth woolen fabrics in coats. Tweeds are important fashion-wise this season with two-color combinations and kaleidoscope tweeds using many bright colors together. Poodle cloth is with us again this fall in flatter, less loopy versions. Miss Eastman urged a woman in search of a new winter coat to consider her present wardrobe. If you wear many suits, a fitted coat will not be so comfortable over suits. If your cloths are generally dressy or tailored, select a coat to blend with them.

It's honey time. Grocers' shelves are stocked with a new crop of the wholesome, natural sweet. Michigan State College specialists report there is an extra big crop this year.

Not only is honey a nutritious, versatile food, it is very important in other ways, say MSC bee specialists. They point out that honey bees pollinate more than 50 farm crops. But unless keepers find a market for their product, the bees will not be available for this vital job of pollination.

"Honey Flavor Harmonies", a booklet put out by Michigan State College extension service, lists many recipes using the sweet, amber fluid. For instance, the Bulletin—available free of charge at your county extension office—gives directions for using honey instead of sugar in baking. And honey with vegetables and fruits, as sandwich fillings and in ice creams and confections is also suggested.

With simple adjustments, honey can be used in almost any recipe calling for sugar. It is as sweet as sugar and has the advantage of keeping baked products moist. Keep the honey you buy in a dry place, but not in the refrigerator. If it is too thick it can be quickly thinned by placing the honey container in a pan of warm water, MSC home economists advise.

Try this for a breakfast variation—drizzle honey in grapefruit halves and let stand 15 or 20 minutes before serving. Or, brush the honeyed grapefruit until lightly browned on top and heated through.

If you want to stay young, associate with young people. If you want to feel your age, try to keep up with them.

Michigan apples cost only about three-fourths as much for edible tissue as do these from the Pacific Northwest.

From where I sit... by Joe Marsh

Our Town Wouldn't Take a "Back Seat"

Well, the "battle of the buses" has been settled! Our town is again friendly with Balesville. Everything started when buses began going through our town with a big sign on them saying SHOP IN BALESVILLE. The bus line is owned in Balesville and operates over here on a franchise. Windy Taylor was all for putting up barricades—he kept calling up the police and the bus company. Finally Judge Cunningham invited the Balesville Chamber of Commerce to meet with ours at Andy's Garden Tavern.

Over a good meal and glass of beer we all reached a compromise without any trouble. Those signs now read SHOP HERE IN TOWN. Everyone's happy. From where I sit, it shows how problems disappear once both sides get together and try to work things out. Naturally we're all a little different. Some like soda pop, for instance, and some like beer. So what? We all have to ride along through life together. Why not make it a pleasant trip?

Shirley Crawford's mother and little brother Rex visited our room on Shirley's birthday, bringing candy suckers to pass around. Luella Thompson has gone to New York with her parents for a couple weeks vacation. Jack Barnes from Muskegon entered our school on Monday. We now have 33 in our room.

Our little turtle dug a hole in the mud where he sleeps most of the time. Our tree toad is still hopping around.

Some of us are reading in the second pre-primer and have already learned many words.

Second Grade — Agnes Johnston
During our discussion periods, we have been talking about the many signs of fall. We are making a collection of fruit, vegetables, leaves, nuts and other things to put on one of our library tables. They tell us fall is here.

We have a "Bring and Tell" day every week. Several children brought things to tell about. Peter Zoulek brought a peanut plant; Donald Bowerman brought a deserted bird's nest and branch of thorn apples; Carol Bowerman and Marilyn Hughes brought some unusual looking gourds and Patsy Murphy brought some broom corn.

We have a new October calendar in our room. We marked off important dates that we want to remember during the month. We found that Reva Hart, Peter Zoulek, Thomas Breakley, Jerry Cihak and Michael Bennett have October birthdays.

We think waxing leaves is fun. Thursday we all waxed one leaf each. Mrs. Robertson came to our room Friday and gave us a talk on health. She showed us what we should eat for breakfast. After her talk we all went to her office to be weighed.

Betsy Bell's grandmother from New York visited our room Monday morning. We were pleased to have her come and see us at work.

Third Grade — Adeline Bowerman
Several classmates and friends of Ward Cole helped him celebrate his ninth birthday with a lovely party at his home.

We are learning two choral readings, "Signs of Halloween" and "Sounds in October."

We are making a panel frieze to illustrate various things pertaining to Pioneer life. This week we are working on their ways of transportation, learning to locate on the map their three main routes of travel. We are learning such geographical terms as Great Lakes, Ohio River, Appalachian Mountains, Cumberland Gap and Great Plains.

Glen Pinney brought a large jar of poliwogs to school on Monday.

Third Grade — Marie Hughes
Our room has 39 boys and girls. They have been very happy making a collection of leaves, seeds, and rocks. We have watched a caterpillar making a cocoon. We have found that many of our animal friends hibernate for the winter. All of us have enjoyed the many colors of the Fall leaves.

We have become food minded. We try to eat some of each of the seven basic foods every day so that we will have healthy bodies. We are learning to use the new spelling workbooks.

Fourth Grade — Jean Strehl
Last week the boys and girls in our room observed "Fire Safety Week." Several reports were given on the ways we might help prevent fires.

In Geography we are working on maps. We are putting the continents and oceans on the map of our world. We saw a movie "Southern Highlanders" which helped us to see the land formations we have been studying.

The children have decorated our room with many colorful leaves. We have started a study of leaves. "Autumn Leaves" and "Come Little Leaves" are the poems we are learning this week. Monday we read stories of Columbus and how he discovered America.

Ernie Barnes Has Fished Lake Charlevoix 64 Years

Ernie Barnes remembers fishing the Jordan River for the first time 64 years ago when he was a lad of 13. And, says Ernie, he's been fishing it and Lake Charlevoix almost every year since.

Recently, while trolling for steelhead on a windy day on the lakeside of the bridge at East Jordan, Barnes felt a mighty tug on his line: "I knew it was a big-un," he said. "After about 20 minutes I could see I needed help — the wind was carrying the boat out into the lake, so I yelled for a fellow to come on over from shore. Wasn't a steelhead, but a pretty good pike. Weighed him at 10 lbs., and he was 36 inches long."

The following day Barnes landed another pike, weighing 11 pounds, without any help. "Wind wasn't blowing today," he explained.

The 77 year old fishing enthusiast has never left Michigan since he came here with his parents by covered wagon, at 6 months of age. Born in Old Wine, Iowa, then known as "Brush Creek", Barnes says he has been to Detroit and the Soo where he's "looked across to Canada".

The father of seven children, six still living, Ernie Barnes proudly boasts of 37 grandchildren and 25 great grandchildren. And says he: "They all live in Michigan he!" — Cut courtesy Petoskey Evening News.

Michigan Mirror

An old Ozark preacher once attributed the amazing success of his sermons to the manner in which he delivered them.

"Fust Ah tells the congregation what Ah is gonna tell'em."

"Then Ah tells 'em."

"Then Ah tells 'em what Ah tol' 'em."

On that basis, that it takes more than one telling to clarify a situation as confusing as the one facing Michigan voters on constitutional amendment proposals, leaders throughout the state are "telling" the voters what they told 'em."

Business and professional organizations and farm groups throughout out-state Michigan are repeating this theme in the closing weeks of the campaign: Proposal No. 2 would place control of both houses of the Legislature in the hands of 26% of the voters."

That's a broad and alarming statement. To people outside the Wayne-Macomb-Oakland area that prospect becomes more alarming when they are reminded, again and again, that 26% of Michigan's voters represents a bloc which is apparently well under control of CIO labor bosses.

It hasn't been until recently that such domination of both the Senate and the House was possible.

In 1900, for instance, it took 24 counties to account for 51% of the state population. These represented both industrial and agricultural sections from Detroit factories to Thumb farms to Ionia shops.

The House of Representatives, elected on a population basis, could therefore never become lopsided in reflecting the welfare of a small segment of Michigan.

The Senate, based on area, made representation even more thoroughly reflective of the whole state.

Under two state constitutions — those adopted in 1835 and in 1850 — the plan worked satisfactorily. Under the present, 1908, constitution there have been rumblings of dissatisfaction. Because, by constitutional provision, senatorial districts have to be redrawn in every year ending in 3, labor bosses see the November election as an excellent way to prepare for reappointment next year, '53.

They noted that Wayne, Macomb, Oakland and Genesee counties now have 51.6% of the state's 6,371 million population. They are also well aware that tightly-controlled unions can swing those four counties.

Thus, by scrapping the Federal ideal of representation in the lower house by population and in the upper house by area the labor bosses would obtain the same hail-brother reception in the Legislature they now enjoy from the Governor's office.

If the CIO Plan 2 were in effect, there would be no reason for two houses in the Legislature, say outstate opponents. The reason we have two houses in Washington and in most states is to give equitable representation to areas whose interests are vital to the general welfare but whose population would make them important minorities on a per-population basis alone.

Farmers, especially, are gravely concerned and, though the Michigan and local Farm Bureaus, are fighting to defeat the CIO plan.

In 1900, 60.7% of the state's inhabitants lived in rural areas, today, 64.3% live in urban areas, incorporated places of 2,500 or more.

Part of the shift was the emergence of industry as the biggest economic factor in the state. Part was due to mechanization of farm work so that fewer and fewer farmers could feed more and more city cousins.

There are four methods of determining representation. Population only, the plan the CIO sponsors, which is used by five states; Voting participation, with representation determined by turnouts at the polls, which is not used by any state; Functional representation, with occupational or economic interest groupings determining legislative makeup, which is used only by Arizona; and geographical only, a plan used nowhere in the United States.

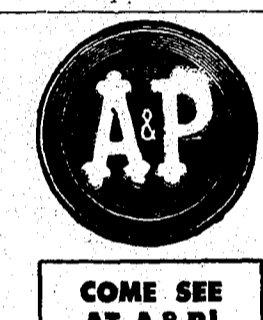

Thirty-three of the 47 states which have two houses use a combination, a different base for each house. This is the present Michigan set-up which is threatened by the CIO attack.

Amendment No. 3 maintains the current system, has the House chosen by population and the Senate by areas. The only difference between Plan No. 3 and the present plan is minor. It would raise the House from 100 to 107 Representatives and provide 34 instead of 32 Senators.

So, the outstate battle-cry is "No on No. 2; Yes on No. 3." Privately, some leaders would be very content if both questions were defeated. "It's better to carry the slight handicap of the present system than to have the whole state under the thumb of Walter Reuther," they philosophize.

With two strong groups fighting over two questions on the ballot, it's good for the peace of mind of the average voter to know that everyone agrees on Question No. 1.

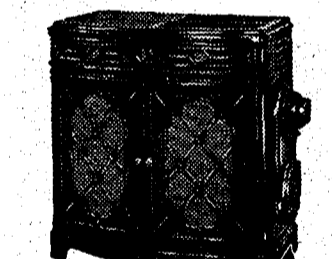

Without any recorded dissent, all parties are agreed that passage of No. 1 will strengthen the law in its fight against narcotic mab-

SOAK DIRT OUT OF BLANKETS. DON'T AGITATE
Save yourself and your blankets this fall when you do household laundry. Mrs. Alice Thorpe of Michigan State College home management department recommends the new soaking method developed at Ohio State University.

Essence of this new method is — don't agitate the soil out of blanket, soak it out. To begin with, use a synthetic detergent and operate the machine long enough to dissolve the detergent in luke warm water. Put in the blanket and soak 15 to 20 minutes without operating the machine at all. While it is soaking, turn the blanket by hand once or twice.

For the rinsing process, remove the soapy water and allow to soak four or five minutes in clear tepid water. Repeat, so the blanket gets two rinsings and during each one turn the blanket twice by hand.

After the last rinse, stretch the blanket to original size and dry, Mrs. Thorpe instructs. "When the blanket is dry there is still more important work to be done. Brush it well with a stiff bristle brush to raise the nap. The Ohio experiments prove that you can stretch a blanket as much as 10 inches by brushing vigorously with a stiff brush.

If you have an automatic dryer, Mrs. Thorpe advises putting in about four pounds of dry towels with the blanket and leaving for 15 minutes. Remove the blanket while it is still moist and finish drying in the air, then brush it just as if it had been dried on the line.

Charley Dennis, Jr., of Plymouth spent the week end with his family and other relatives.

Conservation Dept. Employees To Operate Checking Station

Conservation department employees will operate a network of eight primary and six secondary checking stations at strategic road points in the northern lower peninsula to collect hunting and deer information during the coming firearm deer season.

Also department personnel will use 17 equipment stations in the region as reporting stations for hunters, though biologists will not be on hand at these points to age deer.

Location of primary check points is at present only tentative; final approval on their locations must come from state departments of highway and police because of safety aspects involved.

But temporarily at least, the department plans stations at Muskegon on US-31, south of Brohman on M-37, south of Morley on US-131, south of Remus on M-66, south of Mt. Pleasant on US-27, at Sanford on US-10 and south of Standish on US-23. And as usual, game specialists will check deer and hunters on the Straits docks at Mackinaw City.

Secondary stations will be located at the five district headquarters buildings in Baldwin, Traverse City, Gaylord, Mio and Gladwin and at sub-district headquarters in Roscommon. Information sought by the department includes hunter numbers, age and general physical condition of deer killed and hunter success.

The Servicemen's LETTER

Hi Fellas:

Word has just been received here in E.J. that Gerald Olson and Leo Dipzinski are on their way to Camp Chaffee, Arkansas. I'll probably have their address for you next week.

Don Trojanek walked in this afternoon. He is home on leave before being shipped to Austria. He is to report to Camp Kilmer for shipment on October 27th. More about him later.

Johnny Kershner checked in from Geiger Field, Washington and authenticated that rumor about his getting married. I wrote the story up for the Marriages column. Think I could get to be a Society Editor eh?

Don Dixon just made FP3, whatever that is. Is that, that 3rd Class rating you spoke of last week? It's terrible to have been in the Army and to be so dumb about Navy titles.

Leo Danforth, still in Camp Gordon, Georgia, reports a slight change of address to Company 20, TSESS, Det TSU 9600.

David G. Vallance, age 17, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Vallance of Route 2, East Jordan, Michigan is completing his AF basic airman indoctrination course at Lackland Air Force Base. Lackland is situated near San Antonio and is the world's largest Air Force Base. It is the site of Air Force basic training for men and women. His basic training is preparing him for entrance into Air Force technical training and for assignment in specialized work.

Here's the address of a man we've been completely neglecting, through no fault of our own. Pvt John Bussing, RA 16 426 573, Co D, 81st Med Tk Bn, CCB, 5th Armored Div., Camp Chaffee, Arkansas went into the service on September 18th and last week was the first that we heard of him. He is in his basic training now but wants to qualify for an Engineering course if possible.

Richard Sommerville and Robert Graham, if you are still there be sure and hunt Johnny up and give him a big welcome. Bob is in Btry B, 58th. AAA, AW

Bn and Dick is in Co. D, 8th Hvy Tk Bn. That's for your info — John.

Here's an address for Raymond Rombach who by the sound of his address is over West making hay against the Heathen Chinese. Pvt. Raymond R. Rombach, US 55 248 862, Co "M", 8th Cav Regt, APO 201, C/O PM, San Francisco, Calif.

John Vallance will be on his way home very soon. We've got orders to discontinue his paper this week.

Dave Wade made it to El Toro and wrote us thusly: "Guess I'd better check in and get that good old East Jordan news once again. After spending eighteen wonderful days home I drove out here in my old flivver. Sure is nice to put my feet in a Marine base once again, and away from a Navy Technical training school."

Im in a Marine Transport Squadron known as VMR 253. We have those flying boxcars that are known to carry troops around and about. In fact right now we have an Air Lift on. We are working around the clock. Of course "Boot" Wade pulled night shift.

Say Jake, when I first arrived in E. J. and checked in with you I mentioned I saw Jessie Ranney at Memphis but I guess you forgot it. He's down in dear old NATTC studying Aircraft Mechanics and is doing quite well for himself.

"Southern California is fine and liberty is nothing but good. La A., Hollywood, Santa Ana, Long Beach, and Mexico are within range of a week end."

Dave's address is: Pfc David S. Wade, 122 81 74, VMR 253, Mag 25, MCAS, El Toro, Santa Ana, California.

Cliff Cutler, looking healthy and strong, was in the PO last week and informed me that he has now been discharged and is home from the Army for good.

Jack Bennett, who was discharged from Fort Custer on September 25th, is now working at the Pontiac Mills in Frankfort, Michigan.

Here's a letter from Everett Vermillion which, he informs me, may be his last while he is in the service. It's time to get down and write while I have time off. We've been working day and night. It sure is getting cold here, with a lot of rain. I look for snow before long.

"Well Jake, it won't be long now until I'll be out of the Army. I'll be out on November 8th and this month sure is going by slow. Every day seems like months. It doesn't look like I'll be back to E. J. for awhile. You see, I'm going to make my home in Colorado Springs, Colorado. It's a beautiful state. Also I'll be going to school there. So you see it will be quite some time before I'll be able to get up there.

"At this time I would like to thank the people of E. J. for sending the paper to me while I was in the service. It has been wonderful for me to set down and read it, even when I get homesick I'll take out the paper and it seems to put me closer to home. It gives one a lift when it's needed."

Thanks for the letter, Everett, and good luck to you in school.

Jim Raymond wrote from Lackland AFB and jacked me up about not getting his paper. The truth is, Jim, we had your address mixed up. You have been on the list right along but your paper has been going to Squad 3703 instead of 3707. I think we straightened that out last week so you should have received one paper before this one. Jim says, "There are two guys from E.J. here. They are Bill Anderson and Dave Vallance. Dave just lives across the street from me but Bill is about 8 or 9 blocks from me. Dave and I went over and hunted Bill up and we had a good time talking about old times in E.J. Bill was here three weeks before we knew it."

Don Olson reappeared from the limbo of lost soldiers and walked in on his dad last week and made himself at home around here just like an old timer. Don is home on leave until the 15th of this month and then goes back to the same address in the same camp. He is teaching instrument maintenance to other airboys. This is a part of an electronics course for the Air Force Men. Dons' address will be: A/2c Donald L. Olson, AF 16 355 435, 56th Tech Trng Sqd, Chanute Field, Illinois.

Say, here's something else I just came across. Johnny Kershner is now A/1C. Congratulations, John.

Jim Meredith has left Newport, R.I. and is on his way to Key West, Florida. Do you suppose that is Navy winter resort now? Sounds good anyway. Jim has just made his 3rd Class too — effective October 15th. You Navy men down around there watch out for the USS Formose.

Roger Benson wrote his mother that he is being transferred from Fort Riley to Aberdeen, Maryland on November 4th. He's to attend A.O.C. there at the Aberdeen Proving Grounds. Sounds like a wonderful opportunity, Roger. Go to it.

Bob Anderson is another Navy boy who made his 3rd on October 16th. He is still in Pearl Harbor but writes that he cannot get out of there too soon to suit him. He does not like Hawaii and hopes to come home soon.

We received word that Bud Cummings was on his way home for a 15 day leave. Haven't seen him yet, though. And he just lives two doors down from me. Do you suppose he got delayed somewhere enroute?

Fred Burbank is due in home port next Thursday, Oct. 23rd. This weeks paper is the last one to go out Air Mail to Arthur Bowen over in Korea. His mother got word that he would have time to get just one more letter from her before leaving for the States. A good trip, Art.

No poetry this week men. But we do have something different. Paul had told me that he would attempt to put in a picture or two of the servicemen now and then. We appreciate his effort and hope it will continue. We know it costs him money, but — after all — doesn't it dress up this page a lot?

So Long,
"Jake" Snyder

Ebenezer School October Meeting

The October meeting of the Ebenezer school was held Monday evening at the Atwood Christian Reformed Church.

The first numbers on the program were two songs by the audience with Karen Potts as accompanist. After scripture reading and prayer by the president, Dick Oosterbaan, came a song by four girls Peggy Doctor, Lorraine Essenberg, Marilyn Sitsema and Marcia Ritzema who sang "We'll Understand Bye and Bye." Karen Potts accompanied the girls. Next was an instrumental duet on the piano and organ "Love Lifted Me" by Peggy Doctor and Marilyn Sitsema.
