Red Devils Down Gaylord in Night Game Last Friday

Flora - Premo

Loretta Mae Freeman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Freeman, became the bride of Wayne Flora, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Flora, at eight o'clock Saturday evening, Oct. 25th, in the Methodist Church with Rev. Robert Moore officiating at the double ring ceremony. Guests were members of the immediate families and close friends. Fred Stecker played the traditional wedding music and accompanied Mrs. Alta Drapeau who sang, "O Promise Me" and "I Love You Truly".

Escorted to the altar by her brother, the bride wore a white satin gown with bodice of lace over satin with long sleeves and a full skirt which extended in a train. Her finger tip length veil of pleated net was held in place by a sweetheart halo. She carried a bouquet of white roses and white carnations.

Myrtle Blaha, a friend of the bride, assisted her as maid of honor. She wore a blue taffeta gown and carried a bouquet of white carnations and yellow roses.

Jerry McKenny attended the groom as best man. Richard Freeman served as an usher.

Mrs. Flora, mother of the groom, wore a dark blue dress. Her corsage was of white carnations and red roses.

A reception followed the ceremony at the home of the groom's parents. The bride's parents were unable to attend the ceremony because of illness.

Purebred Dairy Owners to Meet

Purebred dairy cattle breeders and Michigan State College dairy, veterinary and extension specialists will meet Monday and Tuesday, Nov. 10 and 11, at MSC's Kellogg Center. The second annual Dairy Cattle Breeders' Conference will open at 10 a. m. with a welcome by Dr. Earl Weaver, dairy department head.

Monday sessions will cover herd analysis and the breeding programs, with these dairymen on panels: Herd analysis—Elton Smith, Caledonia; Dale Ball, Lansing; Edward Eicker, Elkton; Robert Hatfield, Remus. Breeding—Dale Dean, Ridgeway; Charles Miles, Oxford; O. F. Foster, Clarkston; Wilbur Harris, Grass Lake, and Howard Colby, Romeo. L. O. Gilmore, Ohio dairy research director, will speak at the Monday evening banquet.

On Tuesday, brucellosis control, bloat, acetoneemia, mastitis and other cattle troubles will be covered. Panel members will be Dr. C. F. Huffman, dairy researcher, and Dr. E. A. White, Dr. A. R. Drury and Dr. R. W. Westcott of the MSC School of Veterinary Medicine. The conference will close with a tour of Gilmer Hall, housing the nation's most complete veterinary and bacteriological facilities.

Pomona Grange Meets Nov. 11th

Charlevoix Co. Pomona Grange No. 40 will meet with Marion Center Grange, Nov. 11th. Meeting will call to order at 8:30. Potluck supper after the meeting.

Frances Lenosky Guest of Honor at Bridal Shower

Miss Frances Lenosky was the guest of honor at a bridal shower Monday evening at the home of Mrs. Ed Weldy.

A Negro Mammy made by the hostesses, Mrs. William Stanek and Mrs. Ed Weldy, greeted the guests as they arrived at 8:00 p. m. She was made entirely of gifts for the bride elect. Her back was a long handled sponge mop, the face was a rubber dust pan, and a pair of pillows rounded out her matronly form. Dish towels, measuring cups and many other utensils completed her costume.

Mrs. Rolland Hayes, a cousin of the bride elect, had charge of the entertainment. The twenty guests played bunco.

After Frances dismantled the Mammy, dainty refreshments were served by the hostesses.

October Weather

October, 1952, will go down as one of the driest Octobers in many years, both in Michigan, and various parts of the U. S. Many states have had very serious forest fires, much more destructive than in Michigan. Fires in this state have been mostly brush and grass fires. The fire hazard was so great that the Conservation Dept. considered banning all hunting, as was done in New York. However, the weeds, leaves and grass in this area were not nearly so dry as in counties south.

At East Jordan the precipitation amounted to 84/100 of an inch, which is 2.83 inches short of a 28 year average. The average maximum temperature was 53 degrees and the average minimum was 34.4 for a mean temperature for the month of 43.7 degrees, which is 4.6 degrees lower than average. There were 23 clear days and 8 cloudy or partly cloudy days during the month.

Coach Gayle Saxton's East Jordan High School "Red Devils" turned in their most impressive performance of the season at Gaylord last Friday evening as they downed the powerful "Blue Devils" 16 to 6.

The Jordanites scored early in the first frame after a sustained drive that began on their own 45 yd. line. Keith Evans, Junior quarterback, pulled over from the 3 yd. stripe and Gordon Danforth added the extra point on a dive play and East Jordan led at the end of the first stanza 7 to 0.

The Jordanites threatened to score twice more during the second period but each time a 15 yd. penalty cut them short. At half-time East Jordan still held a 7 to 0 lead.

Not until the waning minutes of the third stanza did the Jordanites score again, and once more it was Evans who hit pay dirt as he knifed over from the 3 yd. stripe. Big Gordon Danforth went over standing up to add the extra point and East Jordan led 14 to 0 with a minute and a half to go in the third quarter. Gaylord took the next kickoff and on a handoff from Karowski, Gene Fleming raced 80 yds. down the side lines to score without a hand being laid on him. Bud Jones failed in his attempt to add the extra point on a try from placement. At the close of the third quarter, the locals still possessed a 14 to 6 lead.

The battling Jordanites added 2 more points for good measure in the final frame as Floyd Detloff and Robert Romback teamed up to toss Jones, Gaylord quarterback, for a 20 yd. loss into his own end zone for a safety.

Much credit for the Jordan victory must go to their terrific defensive play; for linemen Detloff, Romback, Hayden, Shepard, Chanda and Freeman charged fast and hard all evening and never did give the Gaylord offense a chance to get started.

The Jordanites will meet the Harbor Springs "Rams" in a "Dad's Day" game here at the West Side Ball Park tomorrow (Friday) afternoon at 3:00 p. m. winding up the 1952 football season. Harbor Springs has showed increasing strength in its last two game with Charlevoix and Boyne City. Although losing both contests, they were able to score a total of 47 points in the two engagements, 28 against Charlevoix and 19 against Boyne City. Thus the "Red Devils", who are not expected to have the services of Gordon Danforth, Ray Gee or Leon Bartlett really have an afternoon's work cut out for themselves.

Henry Grutsch has returned to his work on the Great Lakes Fisheries after spending several weeks at his home due to the strike.

Auxiliary Com. Christmas Chicken Supper Dec. 10th at the Legion Home

The American Legion Auxiliary Unit 227 will hold their annual Chicken supper to raise funds for the Community Christmas program on Dec. 10th, in the Legion Home. This program could not be carried out if it were not for the generous contributions from the Community Chest, individuals and other organizations in East Jordan. The canned goods, vegetables, fruits, etc. which are collected through the school's drive for this program as well as donations from many of the merchants also help to lessen the cost and are a big factor in this program.

The Auxiliary as in past years will take over the planning and distribution of the boxes, with Peggy Thomas, Community chairman, in charge. It is the goal of the Auxiliary to see that no child in our community is forgotten this Christmas.

Last year 52 boxes including toys, food, clothing and special Christmas treats were distributed helping 32 families at a cost of $253.71. This money represents only the cost of new toys, dolls and food brought. No estimates of food donated could possibly be made.

The Chicken Supper was well attended last year and it is hoped it will be again. This is one way everyone can help this program and also get a fine supper. The Auxiliary is grateful for the fine co-operation they receive from the people of East Jordan as it takes everyone doing their share if this is to be a success.

Many parents still find it hard to provide their children with even the bare necessities let alone the gifts which children expect on Christmas. We must not let these children down. By attending this supper is one way you may help to make some little girl or boy's eyes shine with happiness when they behold a new doll or toy for their very own on Christmas morning.

Freeman - Flora

Miss Janet Flora, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Flora, was united in marriage to Richard Premo, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Premo of Lansing, in the Lansing R. L. D. S. Church on Saturday afternoon at 4:00 p. m. Nov. 1st.

Mr. and Mrs. Pete Premo were their attendants. A reception followed the ceremony at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Pete Premo.

Previous to her marriage the bride was guest of honor at a miscellaneous shower given by Mrs. Donald Bowers and Miss Lorraine Fales at the Bowers home.

Mrs. Elsie Gothro returned home Saturday from Pontiac after a two weeks visit with her daughter, Mrs. Ruth Gothro, and grandson, Don Dixon, and family.

Batterbee - Vellanti

A Nuptial high mass chanted by Rev. Fr. Lee united Miss Jo Ann Batterbee and Nick Vellanti Saturday morning, Sept. 27th, at 9:00 o'clock in the Church of the Resurrection.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Percy Batterbee of 705 Shepard St., Lansing, Mich., formerly of East Jordan, and Mr. and Mrs. Ross Vellanti of 1049 Larch St., Lansing, are parents of the bridegroom.

For the double-ring ceremony, the bride chose a gown of flowing white satin which the bodice was topped with a lace yoke and styled with a bustle back which fanned into a chapel train, a cap of matching white satin studded with pearls held the finger-tip veil of illusion. She carried a fan bouquet of rubium lilies, stephanotis and cascading English Joy and shower of ribbon tied with lover's knots, a bag of rice with a penny tied to the ribbon in the bouquet.

The bride wore pearls, gift of the bridegroom. Attending the bride's maid of honor was Miss Betty Vellanti, a sister of the groom. Her gown was pastel green net. The bridesmaids were Miss Dorothy Batterbee, sister of the bride and Miss Catherine Vellanti, sister of the groom. Their gowns were pastel pink taffeta.

The trio carried fan bouquets of gladioli and mums to match their gowns, with little net hats.

Joseph Vellanti, brother of the groom, served as best man. Jack Perrone and Joseph Barberio, both of Lansing and friends of the groom, served as ushers. A wedding breakfast in the Pagoda followed the ceremony.

A reception was held at night from 8 to 12 p. m. at the Syrian American Hall for 200 guests.

For her daughter's wedding and reception Mrs. Batterbee chose a navy blue dress and hat with eggshell accessories. She wore an orchid corsage.

The mother of the bridegroom also chose a navy blue dress and hat with white accessories and an orchid corsage.

The grandmother of the bride, Mrs. Carrie Burbank, wore an aqua blue dress with white accessories. Her flowers were an orchid corsage.

For travel through northern Michigan on their honeymoon the new Mrs. Vellanti donned a gray wool suit with green accessories. She spiked her ensemble with a corsage of red roses. The out of town guests who came for the wedding and reception were: Mr. and Mrs. William Walden of East Jordan; Mr. and Mrs. Charles Ager and family of Auburn; Mr. and Mrs. Charles Burbank, Mr. and Mrs. Max Graham and daughter, Detroit; Mrs. Tony Awoode of St. Joseph; Mr. and Mrs. Carl Breuke of Perry; and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Perfit and son of Grand Ledge.

Jack Gibbard's Sawmill Burns

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Gibbard of Rt Central Lake were very unfortunate when lightning struck the saw mill on their farm about six o'clock last Sunday morning, November 2. The farm is located about four or five miles east of town.

The Central Lake firemen were called and reported they were fortunate to have the wind blowing away from the other buildings. They extinguished the flames around a 50 gallon drum of gasoline, that was getting uncomfortably warm, and rolled it out of reach of the flames.

It was reported according to the firemen that lightning struck a transformer located near the mill and followed the power line into the one-story frame building destroying the structure. The loss was reported as about $4000. The thunder and lightning storm, a little out of place for November caused power and telephone failure for a short time.

Mr. and Mrs. Loren Hughes of Saginaw were week end guests of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Alex Sinclair and Mr. and Mrs. Russell Hughes.

Don't forget our Community Chest Drive starts today, and it should end in a week. The men solicitors had a kick-off dinner last night and the women met on Thursday morning for breakfast before starting off to canvass the town. If you are prepared to sign the card making a pledge which you can pay quarterly, it will help very much.

Following is a list of agencies you support when you give to this United Fund. 732 of our budget goes for that purpose, and the rest of the $5,000 will be used mostly for East Jordan activities.

For Men and Women in Service — U. S. O., American Relief for Korea, American Social Hygiene Assoc.

Health Agencies — Mich. Heart Association, Arthritis and Rheumatism Foundation, Sister Kenny Polio Foundation, United Cerebral Palsy Assoc., National Association for Mental Health, Mich. Assoc. for Mental Health, National Multiple Sclerosis Society, Leader Dogs for the Blind, American Hearing Society, National Epilepsy League, Jackson Memorial Laboratory for Cancer Research.

Welfare Agencies — National League for Nursing, National Probation and Patrol Assoc., Big Brothers of America, and fourteen other agencies dealing with delinquency, child care, family problems, race relations, travelers aid, recreation and legal problems for those unable to pay a lawyers fee.

Veteran's Potluck Supper Nov. 11 at Legion Home

At the semi-social meeting of the American Legion Auxiliary, Tuesday, Oct. 28, it was decided to cancel the next meeting Nov. 11, in favor of Armistice Day.

The Legion and Auxiliary and their families will observe the 84th Armistice Day of World War I by having a Veteran's Family Night Supper. All veterans and their families are invited. Bring a dish to pass and sandwiches for your own family. Supper to be served at 7 o'clock.

Following the Auxiliary meeting there was a Halloween party with all the members dressed for the occasion. Several games were played which everyone enjoyed. A nice lunch of sandwiches, cake and coffee was served by Reva Walton, Lillian Bennett and Peggy Thomas, helped with the entertainment.

Next meeting will be Tuesday, Nov. 25. As this is Membership Month, Hilda Bathke, Membership Chairmān, will have charge of the entertainment.

799 East Jordan Voters Exercised Their Right Tuesday at the Polls

Adventist Dorcas Society Attended Meeting Oct. 29th

The ladies of the Dorcas society of the Seventh-day Adventist Church of East Jordan attended the all-day Dorcas Federation meeting held at the Petoskey Seventh-day Adventist church, Wednesday, Oct. 29. Guest speakers were Elder Henry F. Brown, Home Missionary Secretary of the General Conference of Seventh-day Adventists, Washington, D. C.; Elder H. K. Halladay, Home Missionary Secretary of the Lake Union Conference of S. D. A.'s, and Elder A. K. Phillips, Home Missionary Secretary of the Michigan Conference of S. D. A.'s, of Lansing.

Elder Brown, in his work having traveled the world around, told of the need of heavy clothing being sent to Germany at this time. The ladies of the East Jordan S. D. A. Church plans to send a shipment in the near future.

Also the ladies of the Dorcas society are opening a Health and Welfare Center, where the needs of people living in this community will be supplied. The Center, at the present, is being conducted at the home of Mrs. Elmer Green. The ladies of the Dorcas Society will make articles of clothing, quilts, etc. to build up the Center's supply. Anyone having clothing you do not need, especially children's clothing, please get in touch with Mrs. Elmer Green. Articles will be cleaned and mended by the Dorcas ladies.

Handicapped To Be Interviewed

"A field agent for the Office of Vocational Rehabilitation will interview vocationally handicapped persons in:

Charlevoix, City Hall, Second Floor, Nov. 12, Wednesday 1:00 to 1:30 p. m.

Boyer City, Post Office, Second Floor, Nov. 13, Thursday, 8:00 to 8:30 a. m.

East Jordan, Town Hall, Nov. 13, Thursday 1:30 to 2:00 p. m.

"Vocationally handicapped persons interested in learning more about the services of the Office of Vocational Rehabilitation can meet at these locations.

"This agency attempts to help locate vocationally handicapped individuals to help themselves get or keep jobs by assisting them with training to learn new skills, artificial appliances, hospitalization or surgery."

Upside Down

In Pittsfield, Mass., after deep study, cops discovered why a motorist's license plates—811.969—did not correspond with the number on his registration papers—696.119: the plates had been screwed on upside down.

She'll Do In Seattle, an advertisement in the Times offered a "good opportunity for an inefficient stenographer to work until we can secure an efficient one."

East Jordan turned out a record vote in Tuesday's election, with 799 voters exercising their right to make this the largest vote cast in years.

Eisenhower led the field with 436 while Stevenson came in second with 313.

The vote by wards is as follows: First Ward: Eisenhower 100, Stevenson 68; Alger 97, Williams 73.

Second Ward: Eisenhower 115; Stevenson 96; Alger 109, Williams 101.

Third Ward: Eisenhower 271; Stevenson 149; Alger 196, Williams 165.

East Jordan went the way the State went on the three amendments: No. 1 "Yes", No. 2 "No", No. 3 "Yes".

In Charlevoix County, according to Pete Bulow, County Clerk, only 21 precincts out of 25 had reported by Thursday noon. These 21 precincts, with an unofficial total of 5696 votes, gave Alger 3682 and Williams 2004. The presidential figures were, as yet, unobtainable as the county board of canvassers were in session.

County Clerk Bulow reports this election has been the slowest to have the precinct returns in to him for many years.

Potter with 3817 votes, led Moody in the County with 1744 votes.

The East Jordan Election Board did not finish their count until 10 o'clock Wednesday morning.

Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Wright were up from Grand Rapids Sunday and Monday to visit their brothers-in-law and sisters, Mr. and Mrs. Merle Thompson and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Newmann.

GUARD YOUR GLADIOLI BULBS

Your gladiolus bulbs may not be as safe over the winter as you think—even though they are in safe storage—comes the warning from Ed Rebman, county agricultural agent. Some little fellows called thrips can raise hob with gladioli any time you fail to control the pesky insects.

Thrips suck the juice out of gladiolus plants and bulbs, you garden lovers are warned by Ray L. Janes, MSC extension specialist in entomology. The results may be that your bulbs will not germinate, he cautions, when you plant them in the spring. If they do sprout in your garden and grow, you have the added risk that they may not blossom, he continues like a wet blanket.

But Janes has good news for you, also. You can treat those bulbs when you dig them up this fall and fool the thrips. If you go right after them at harvest time they'll leave your bulbs alone this winter and be no trouble in the spring, according to the specialist.

Dig your bulbs and then clean them good. Then, treat the clean bulbs with a 5 percent DDT dust; the thrips will hate Janes for tipping you off. Put two to four tablespoonsful of the DDT dust in a sack for each bushel of bulbs is his advice. Then put the bulbs in the sack and shake it—just like you would to put powdered sugar on your doughnuts. The thrips will not find such treated bulbs tasty, Janes assures you.

CORN PICKER OPERATORS GUARD AGAINST ACCIDENTS

Corn picker operators can take their choice between playing safe and helping swell the accident statistics, offers Ed Rebman, county agricultural agent. Casualties can result in barns, in fields or on highways, he warns, and during adjustments as well as in operation.

An estimated more than half million mechanical pickers will be used in the 1952 corn harvest and the National Safety Council expects accidents to be both gory and costly, he advises. Accidents can be held to a minimum, he contends, with careful operations and following of rules:

Condition and adjust pickers to the crop. Handle them skillfully in the field. Study the instruction manual and familiarize yourself with equipment before starting operations. Every field stop for repairs, adjustments or unplugging increases costs of operation; everytime you leave the tractor seat you increase need to guard against accidents.

Shut off the power before oiling or working on equipment and keep all shields in place. Wear close fitting cloths that are warm and comfortable and avoid "extra thumb" gloves—they are dangerous. Watch out for falls and step sure climbing on or off. Don't carry extra riders or dismount while in motion. Beware of fires and be ready if an accident does happen. A first aid kit is a good idea.

On the highway, carry a red flag up high so motorist can see it. Use white lights in front and red in the rear at night. Obey all traffic rules.

Size Of Crop Income Make Apples Prices

Two items influence three-fourths of the price changes in apples from month to month a study by L. L. Boger, Michigan State College agricultural economist reveals.

These are: 1. size of the crop, and 2. income of people in the United States.

These relationships, together with a knowledge of the historical pattern of monthly apple prices, should help growers decide whether to store their apples or sell at harvest time.

As Michigan farmers are in the harvest of the 1952 crop they are anxiously awaiting an analysis of these two points.

Boger's study shows that on the basis of his formula, recommendations to a grower would have been to sell apples at harvest in ten years and store for later sale in 13 years. In that 23 year period, his advice would have been sound in all but two years—1935 and 1947.

The long-time price trend of apples shows that a 10 percent increase in the size of the crop from one year to another results in an average drop of 8.8 percent in the Michigan farm price for the product.

In a recent publication by the Michigan Agricultural Experiment Station, "When Should Apples Be Sold?" the economist discusses these points. The publication, Special Bulletin 381, is available from the county extension offices or from the Bulletin Office, Department of Information Services, Michigan State College, East Lansing.

Secondary Deer Food

To prevent scenes like this—deer stripping reachable jack pine browse and then slowly losing out to starvation—is the conservation department objective in liberalizing the hunting of deer this fall. Either sex deer can be taken the last three days (Nov. 28-30) of the regular buck season (Nov. 15-30) in the northern lower peninsula. Whitetail prefer ground hemlock, white cedar, hard maple and yellow birch. With these species heavily browsed out, deer turn to jack pine and even less nutritional browse. Spruce, shown on right, is inedible.

Homemakers' Corner
 by
 Home Economics Specialists
 Michigan State College

Agricultural economists at the Michigan State College are singing on a sour note when it comes to food costs. They say that food costs are high, but they may go higher. But you don't have to sing the blues with them if you buy wisely.

And a note of hope comes when the economists predict that meat prices in 1953 will probably be about the same as this year. The U. S. Department of Agriculture reports meat production is on the increase with slightly more beef than pork recorded.

Canned fruits and vegetables are likely to stay about the same in price, too. The pack this summer and fall was slightly lower than last year, but carry-over stocks will keep prices on an even keel.

The MSC economists predict advancing prices for canned and frozen fruit juices, however. Supplies are low, they say. Homemakers may expect fresh citrus fruits, oranges in particular, to stay at the 1952 price average because a good citrus crop is reported.

Applying these economics to your own pocketbook and table means you should spend your food dollar with care. Watch reports for plentiful, less-expensive foods in your market. For instance, the U. S. D. A. reports that in Michigan the best buys are Michigan carrots, cauliflower, most apples, squash and western lettuce.

Moderate-priced items in your market now are Michigan celery, most greens, topped beets, snap beans, Honeydew melons, onions, peppers, potatoes, rutabagas, sweet potatoes, tomatoes and bananas.

Up until June 15, 1952, the United States gave $495,092,048 for Korean relief and economic aid. Other UN members together put up only $2,594,933.

Shearing faces of lambs helps them find the feed through reminds Graydon Blank, livestock specialist at Michigan State College.

Lowest milk output in 10 years was in 1951 and the trend is down. This looks to Michigan State College dairy specialists like a field for expansion.

Before the Air Force can buy anything, forty different people have to approve in writing. Imagine what this means in terms of added cost and red tape.

Money put into research means the development of new techniques of diagnosis, new methods of treatment, new drugs, and the refinement of present drugs. All these developments come back to your community, your family doctor. And they may mean the difference between sickness and health, pain and happiness to you or a member of your family.

The money you put into research now may save your life tomorrow. A large portion of the money raised in United campaigns goes into research projects—heart research, arthritis research, multiple sclerosis research and research in many other health fields.

3. Silas Farmer pays a visit to his Physician

'53 Outlook in Farming is Good

Farmers will have a good year if they watch their costs and strive for "full production" in 1953, is the optimistic annual outlook of Michigan State College agricultural economists.

Demand for farm products—with exception of exports—will continue strong during 1953 with consumer dollars in good supply, report the economists. This may be followed by a slight business and farm recession, probably in 1954. Farm prices in 1953 will depend on the crop volume. A nationwide bumper crop will drop farm prices where government supports are not effective. A short crop would add to inflation. Costs of farm operations will continue to rise and should be watched closely, caution the economists. Increased wages of industrial workers and costs of services will add to the rising farm costs. Marketing charges will continue to take a larger share of the consumer's food dollar, leaving less for the farmer. The farm share, which has been about 50 cents, dropped to 48 cents the past year. Farm prices generally will remain around the 100 percent of parity level, according to the M. S. C. outlook. Net farm incomes will be about the same as in 1952. It will buy less because of higher prices of consumer goods. Dollar shortages in foreign countries may hurt exports, especially foreign agricultural sales; foreign nations will give priority to buying industrial equipment and military goods. No new tax increases are anticipated by the economists but stretched out defense work will put more money in the consumer's pocket and boost prices. Any downturn in 1953 will be offset by an earlier price rise.

A dairy cow is the most efficient food-producer on any farm.

WINNER, EIGHTH NATIONAL TRAFFIC SAFETY POSTER CONTEST

By dinnertime in November streetlights are turned on. But children, used to long summer days, are still playing outside or going to visit friends. Motorists, traveling on quiet roads and streets, have difficulty in seeing even with their headlights. For this reason, Automobile Club of Michigan urges parents to dress children in something white, making them easier to see and thus safer. And to make sure the children know this rule, Auto Club sent 10,500 full-size copies of this poster to elementary schools in Michigan for bulletin board use during November.

More than 600,000 veterans failed to file to collect the dividend due them on their National Service Life Insurance which was declared in 1948. Up to last month, four years later, the Veterans Administration had done nothing about it.

National Apple Week is a good time to remember Michigan apples.

A few weeks ago Army's technical services asked permission to destroy a mountain of files dating back to 1940. The request was granted but with the condition "that copies be made of everything to be destroyed."

CABBAGE POLL

Vandalia — Every election predictor has his own methods. Eighty year old Farmer Frank Kretzel does it with cabbages and concludes: "Stevenson and Alger are in."

Deadly serious, like his father before him who started with the Tilton-Hayes campaign, Kretzel explained he raises four cabbages each election year to predict the presidential and gubernatorial races.

A lifelong Democrat, he said he selects four equal-appearing vegetables in July and transplants them into a separate plot in his backyard, where he tends them "with impartiality."

"Never been wrong," he said, "and the one labeled Stevenson is ahead by a leaf. Alger is rounding out better than Williams."

He warned, however, that "if Stevenson should get a case of mildew or start to wilt, he's finished. It's happened before in a close race."

"You can see," he said "Williams is skippy. He's been going down hill for a couple of weeks. Alger is bigger and has more leaves."

NEW MOTOR OIL! SUPER TOUGH!

Sunoco H.D. Dynalube

CLEANS

BETTER

Higher Detergency! Cleans 6 times better than ordinary motor oils!

Inferior motor oil builds up gummy deposits of varnish like this on the valves, piston rings and hydraulic valve lifters, making them stick and bind. As a result, engines "run hot," wear faster and burn extra gasoline and oil.

Heavy-Duty Dynalube, with 6 times the detergent action of ordinary motor oil, dissolves harmful deposits, keeps them in suspension until your next oil change. (For maximum protection, change every 1000 miles.)

DAYS OF MAGIC

Late October and the first ten days in November are days of magic in Michigan Outdoors. The riot of color—reds, greens, yellows—blend to a golden hue in a farewell to a waning season... a golden welcome to sportsmen seeking Michigan at its best! You like to fish? You like to hunt? You're a "shooter-bug" with still or movie camera? Michigan is waiting for you!

Fisherman's Dream

Fall days on many of our lakes and streams present a fisherman's dream come true. The first frost whets the appetites of sleepy northern pike. Black bass move into shoal waters in chase of minnows. Big, fat blue gills rise to the surface, ready to strike at tiny flies. Great Lakes perch develop whopping appetites. The ten and twelve inch variety lose their summer timidity and cautiously avidly take the bait along the entire coastline of Lake Huron—and along most of Lake Michigan, too!

Far up in Lake Superior, sport trolling for lake trout brings in the big ones, but there are few to enjoy the thrills. And in many a major Michigan river the fall run of steelhead, or lake-run rainbow trout is in full swing. In the past year 7 out of 10 national prize winners in the rainbow trout division came from a single Michigan stream—the Manistee!

Steelhead Waters

Too few guides are available who know the favorite haunts of the big rainbows in the Manistee below Tippee Dam. Veterans who have studied the river may be counted on the fingers of one hand—and their services are booked consistently far into November. They'll produce another bunch of prize winners this year—fifteen, sixteen, yes, seventeen pound steelhead who spend the greater part of their lives in the deep, cold waters of Lake Michigan, returning each spring to spawn in the Manistee River, and each fall in obedience to a mysterious urge that beckons them back to the swift currents and eddies of this beautiful river. But there are other steelhead waters readily available. The famed Au Sable from Foote Dam down to Osceola, the Betsy down from Homestead Dam, and the Platte below U.S. 31, just to mention a few. Above the Straits there are steelhead waters with heavy runs of big fish—some topping 20 pounds—virtually unexplored.

Bird Hunters' Paradise

Tempting the sportsman away from lakes and streams is our early opening of the partridge and duck season—plus the lure of bow hunting for deer. Yes, this is the year of indecision. Where shall we go? Which shall we do to make the most of Michigan Outdoors in the fall? Take your choice! You'll make no mistake on either path!

FIGHT FOR FREEDOM

It seems probable that any of the free peoples of the world who want to maintain their independence will have to fight for it.

A husband and wife were in sharp disagreement over what suit he should purchase. Finally, the wife relented and said:

"Well, go ahead and please yourself. After all, you're the one who will wear it."

In a meek voice the man replied, "Well, dear, I did figure that I'd probably be wearing the coat and vest anyway."

Fire Destroys Home at Chestonia

The home of Mr. and Mrs. Jim Barnes and their seven children burned to the ground Tuesday morning. The house is located at Chestonia near the store and was formerly used for Fyans Auto Parts.

The East Jordan Fire Dept. was called but as the fire had gained such headway, nothing could be done but prevent the fire from spreading in the dry grass.

Location of this house was the scene of a stubborn muck fire several years ago that took Conservation Dept. men and equipment several days to extinguish. Luckily this was prevented from recurring.

The Barnes lost all of their possessions in the fire. They were fortunate that only Mrs. Barnes and the youngest child were home at the time, the blaze being one that gained headway rapidly before discovery.

Gas and Weight Tax Money is Distributed

Net receipts of the State Motor Vehicle Highway Fund for the third quarter of the calendar year 1952 amounted to $23,355,021.27 and this money is now being distributed to the State Highway Department, the counties and the cities of the state as provided for in Act 51, Section 12, of the Public Acts of 1951, Highway Commissioner Charles M. Ziegler announces.

Under the 1951 act, which revised the methods of distributing weight and tax monies, the State receives 44 per cent of the money from the Motor Vehicle Highway Fund, the counties received 19 per cent and the cities and incorporated villages receive 17 per cent. A considerable portion of the State's share is spent on roads in city areas.

Under the distribution formula provided for by the State Highway Department will receive as its share of the third quarter funds the sum of $10,276,209.36; the counties will receive $8,641,357.87 and the cities will receive $4,437,454.04.

The Motor Vehicle Highway Fund money collected during the third quarter came from the following sources:

State Gasoline Tax	$21,577,958.11
Diesel Fuel Tax	199,358.62
Weight tax, resident	1,660,762.51
Weight tax, non-resident	30,701.97
Miscellaneous fees	826,082.48
Total collections	$24,294,836.69
Less collection costs	939,842.42
Net total coll.	$23,355,021.27

Payments to the cities and incorporated villages from the Motor Vehicle Highway Fund receipts during the last two quarters of 1951 and the first quarter of 1952 were based on estimated mileages of city streets as records showing exact mileages were not available. During the first quarter of this year, exact mileages were determined and it was found a number of cities and incorporated villages had less mileage of streets than had been assumed and so these cities had been overpaid. Hence, starting with the Second Quarter payments, deductions were made to correct the overpayments. The deductions are being continued and as a result, a total of $20,213.83 was deducted from 16 communities in making the Third Quarter payments. The cities and the amounts deducted are: Allen, $188.05; Bear Lake, $490.94; Bloomfield Hills, $2,916.18; Carson City, $735.27; Freesoil, $629.36; Greenville, $5,684.44; Hesperia, $751.87; Lake Odessa, $2,049.24; Lake Orion, $1,413.79; City of Mackinac Island, $972.42; Maybee, $364.91; Pierson, $46.00; Plainwell, $1,144.87; Riverview, $1,067.14; South Range, $708.41; and Spring Lake, $1,150.93. Deducting the $20,213.82 from the full amount of the cities' share leaves a balance of $4,417,141.22 being paid to the counties at this time.

In the case of nine of these, the deductions represent final repayment of the amounts overpaid them, but seven of the communities still have the following amounts to repay through deductions from future allotments from the Motor Vehicle Funds: Bear Lake, $367.55; Bloomfield Hills, $3,587.41; Freesoil, $1,044.16; Lake Odessa, $488.85; City of Mackinac Island, $201.92; Maybee, $120.68; and South Range, $1,353.55, a total of $7,164.12.

The sum of $250,000 also is being deducted from the counties' share of the Second Quarter Motor Vehicle Fund collections as a part payment of the $5,000,000 loan advanced by the Highway Department under Act 50 of the 1948 legislature, which was a measure to help the counties during the serious financial situation they were in prior to enactment of the gas tax increase in 1951. That act provided that the counties would return the money to the Highway Department at the rate of $250,000 a quarter if gas or weight taxes should ever be increased. The present deduction is the fifth payment on the loan, leaving $3,750,000 still to be paid back by the counties.

The deduction of this $250,000 to be applied on the counties loan

Friday afternoon we had a good time at our Halloween and dress-up party. It was fun to parade down town so our parents and friends could see us in our costumes. Linda Healey who dressed as Little Bo Peep, Jerry Cihak who dressed as a Hobo, and Donald Bowerman who dressed as Little Black Sambo, won the prizes from our room. We want to thank Mrs. Drapeau for being our judge. We want the Rotary Club to know that we enjoyed the cider and doughnuts. We also wish to thank the mothers who furnished other refreshments for our party. The children who were on the committee for our Halloween party were: Nancy Steuer, Ella Mae Tousey, Louise Walton, Linda Somerville, Harry Howard, Dale Cutler, Tommy Breakey, Michael Bennett, David Griffin, Peter Zoulek, Reva Hart and Marjorie Pinney.

We are having mother help us fill in our interest inventory of the things we like to do.

Tuesday new room helpers were chosen.

Monday afternoon we helped Tommy Breakey celebrate his seventh birthday. Tommy's mother treated us to candy and apples. Thursday, Michael Bennett celebrated his seventh birthday. Michael's mother treated us to candy. We enjoyed making birthday cards for Tommy and Michael.

Wrong to Compare Child With Others

Avoid comparing a child with another member of the family or with other children in the neighborhood or classroom, Willard Olson, dean of the University of Michigan School of Education, advises parents and teachers.

The "common-sense" teacher or parent is tolerant of wide differences in children, takes each child where he is and helps him "to grow" without the damaging effects of constant-comparisons with others.

Dean Olson warns that a child becomes confused and unhappy when the emotional ties between himself and his parents or teachers are spoiled by harsh criticism or nagging. "This unfortunate state of affairs can be particularly damaging to the slow-growing child, and it may result in seclusiveness, submissiveness (too-goodness), or in angry outbursts against people and things in the environment."

The wise teacher regards discipline as a problem of growth from dependence to independence, gives children practice and releases control as rapidly as children can assume it, he explains.

Dean Olson points out that sometimes complications arise. "For example, if a child who has received an austere type of discipline at home meets a highly permissive environment in the school, his parents may question the change and cause him to become confused and anxious.

"Of course, just the opposite situation occurs in schools which apply harsher methods of discipline. Here, if a child has lived in an atmosphere of freedom in the home, he will be frustrated by the change and he may become temporarily rebellious in protest.

"Unfortunately, schools themselves are not consistent in their outlooks on discipline," Dean Olson says. "Some retain the formal punishment-and-reward system of past centuries, and some are beginning to use the children's own interests and skills as their chief disciplining agencies."

Following are the amounts the various counties, cities and incorporated villages will receive from the Third Quarter Motor Vehicle Highway Fund collections:

Antrim	$42,013.80
Charlevoix	44,682.26

Mr. and Mrs. John Jansen celebrated their 35th wedding anniversary Saturday night in the parlor of the Christian Reformed Church. The children surprised them with the party, Mr. and Mrs. Fred VanStedum, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Jansen and Wilfred Jansen.

There was a short program and group singing and refreshments were served. A five tier wedding cake was served. On the cake it read Congratulations on our 35th wedding anniversary. They received many beautiful gifts.

Those present were Mrs. Wilma Cooper, Mr. and Mrs. George Drenth, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Cooper, Mr. and Mrs. G. P. Vander-ark, Mr. John Drenth, Rev. and Mrs. Broeve, Mr. and Mrs. Fred VanStedum and children, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Jansen and Wilfred Jansen all of Ellsworth.

Out of town guests were Mr. and Mrs. George Vischer of Newaygo, Mr. and Mrs. Hubert Larbore, Mrs. Rose Balnton, Mr. and Mrs. Gerrit Bergsma of Grand Rapids, Mr. and Mrs. Herman Drenth of East Jordan and Mr. and Mrs. Pete Timmer of Charlevoix.

Fourth Grade — Jean Strichl

Friday was an exciting day in our fourth grade. The room was filled with witches, ghosts, tigers, skeletons and other weird visitors that visit on Halloween. For our Halloween party the boys and girls divided into committees. Decorations chairman, Judy Gokee; refreshments, Suzy Stinchcomb; clean-up, Connie Bennett; and entertainment, Peter Knudsen. The most original costumes were Stanley Bennett and Sharon Pinney. The prettiest were Connie Bennett and Donald Skop. Games and refreshments were enjoyed by all. We wish to thank all our friends for helping us to have such a nice party. Mrs. Scott visited our room.

Gerald Muma has moved to Charlevoix. We are going to miss him in our room. We hope he will like his new school.

We are all looking forward to voting in our room on Tuesday, Nov. 4. Some boys and girls from Mrs. Larsen's sixth grade came to our room and gave speeches on their candidates. They were very good and we wish to thank them.

In Geography we are studying about the early explorers of our continent. So far we have studied about Christopher Columbus, Magellan, John Cabot, Jacques Cartier and Samuel de Champlain.

Some of the boys and girls have made some very interesting posters for Book Week.

We are playing a new game at School. It is called "Kepping the Turkey". The turkey visits the row that is the quietest and does the best work for the day. David Halladay's row was the first to win the turkey.

Fourth Grade — Grace Galmore

Hallowe'en was a very happy time in our room, partly because we made so many things ourselves to wear or carry in the parade. Harold Murray, Ronald Sulak and Duane Raymond each made a giraffe with the help of their parents

Some of the boys and girls have made some very interesting posters for Book Week.

We are playing a new game at School. It is called "Kepping the Turkey". The turkey visits the row that is the quietest and does the best work for the day. David Halladay's row was the first to win the turkey.

Wrong to Compare Child With Others

Avoid comparing a child with another member of the family or with other children in the neighborhood or classroom, Willard Olson, dean of the University of Michigan School of Education, advises parents and teachers.

The "common-sense" teacher or parent is tolerant of wide differences in children, takes each child where he is and helps him "to grow" without the damaging effects of constant-comparisons with others.

Dean Olson warns that a child becomes confused and unhappy when the emotional ties between himself and his parents or teachers are spoiled by harsh criticism or nagging. "This unfortunate state of affairs can be particularly damaging to the slow-growing child, and it may result in seclusiveness, submissiveness (too-goodness), or in angry outbursts against people and things in the environment."

The wise teacher regards discipline as a problem of growth from dependence to independence, gives children practice and releases control as rapidly as children can assume it, he explains.

Dean Olson points out that sometimes complications arise. "For example, if a child who has received an austere type of discipline at home meets a highly permissive environment in the school, his parents may question the change and cause him to become confused and anxious.

"Of course, just the opposite situation occurs in schools which apply harsher methods of discipline. Here, if a child has lived in an atmosphere of freedom in the home, he will be frustrated by the change and he may become temporarily rebellious in protest.

"Unfortunately, schools themselves are not consistent in their outlooks on discipline," Dean Olson says. "Some retain the formal punishment-and-reward system of past centuries, and some are beginning to use the children's own interests and skills as their chief disciplining agencies."

Mr. and Mrs. John Jansen celebrated their 35th wedding anniversary Saturday night in the parlor of the Christian Reformed Church. The children surprised them with the party, Mr. and Mrs. Fred VanStedum, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Jansen and Wilfred Jansen.

There was a short program and group singing and refreshments were served. A five tier wedding cake was served. On the cake it read Congratulations on our 35th wedding anniversary. They received many beautiful gifts.

Those present were Mrs. Wilma Cooper, Mr. and Mrs. George Drenth, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Cooper, Mr. and Mrs. G. P. Vander-ark, Mr. John Drenth, Rev. and Mrs. Broeve, Mr. and Mrs. Fred VanStedum and children, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Jansen and Wilfred Jansen all of Ellsworth.

and some of the other boys. Other children made masks, caps and wands with colored streamers. The most fun was the painting which we did here at school. Marching down town was also a lot of fun. We enjoyed the lunch the Rotarians served and wish to thank them and also the parents who furnished extra eats—pop corn, apples and candy.

We have been talking about writing stories which we have made up ourselves. This is one which Harold Murray wrote:

A DOG FOR BILLY
Billy wanted a dog for his birthday. His father said he would not get it. And his mother said she would not get it. He asked his uncle Bob and he said, "You will have to work for me."

Billy worked for his uncle Bob for six weeks. He made six dollars and bought his own dog.

Fifth Grade — Elizabeth Mosher

We enjoyed our Hallowe'en party very much. Many thanks to the Rotarians for their treat.

To date we have written 219 letters to state capitals for literature on the states. We have received many replies and more are coming daily. The material will help us when we study the states. It makes them seem more real. Some boys and girls will have nice individual collections.

We are going to register today and vote tomorrow in Mrs. Larsen's room. We have instruction ballots on our bulletin boards. We have a map of the United States ready with the numbers of electoral votes for each state marked on it. We are going to color the states red if they go Republican and blue if they go Democratic.

We are still working on our multiplication tables.

Fifth Grade — Sadie Liskum

We have been reviewing arithmetic facts which we studied other years. All but 8 of us know the 100 addition facts perfectly. 14 of us still must work to know all the subtraction facts. Monday we were tested in multiplication, and only Larry Gee and Bob Bulow were perfect.

We enjoy our weekly trip to the school library. Mr. Wade has added many grade school books to the library and we are making good use of them.

Last week we used resist painting to make our pictures for our October reading record.

Each of us is making a booklet about the Pilgrims. We combine English, penmanship and reading to make the book, and we may draw pictures to illustrate it.

In social science we have finished the New England states and are working on the Middle Atlantic group.

Sixth Grade — Alma Larsen

We had a very nice Hallowe'en party last Friday. We wish to thank the Rotary for their generous serving of cider and doughnuts.

We have our room decorated with Hallowe'en designs. Our bulletin board shows Columbus's three ships, the Nina, Pinta, and Santa Maria.

A great deal of interest has been shown in our room concerning the coming election. A Democratic chairman, Anita Petrie, and a Republican chairman, Janet DeHaven were chosen. We had speeches today by several children representing both political parties for Mrs. Mosher's room. We had a parade with banners we had made.

Allen Shepard and Paul Bowen are making a voting booth. We are inviting Mrs. Mosher's room to come in to vote.

We listened to Judy Malpass and Floyd Detloff give their speeches over the loud speaker system last Thursday. Floyd spoke for Stevenson and Judy for Eisenhower.

We invited Mrs. Mosher's room in to hear our speeches on Monday.

We have sample instruction ballots on our bulletin board.

In our parade the majority of children were on Eisenhower's side.

We also have a new poster cautioning us to "Be Alert for Wacky Walkers."

Fifteen from our room journeyed by bus to Petoskey to see the New York players present "Snow White and the Seven Dwarfs." We enjoyed it very much.

Mrs. Larsen has just finished reading to us a very humorous book called "Herbert Again" by Hazel Wilson.

Michigan Mirror

Michigan is still catching its breath today after the excitement of Tuesday's election.

Now comes a period when the crestfallen experts explain why their predictions were wrong, why the vote went the way it did. Other experts, who were more fortunate on their sooth-saying, will devote equal time and energy to explaining their success.

The public will be looking back on Tuesday's nationwide drama—but the winners in the great poll are looking ahead to January.

The public has been overfed on political-speechmaking with the drums being thumped late into Monday night. John Q. and his Missus are glad to give their eardrums a rest for a while.

The politicians are equally happy for a period of rostrum silence. The defeated ones are licking their wounds and are in no mood for public speaking. The victorious ones have a lot of planning to do before taking over their elective offices next year.

Even newspapermen want a change of pace.

It's good to give newsprint-and-ink emphasis to the prospects for deer season instead of the Gallup poll. It's refreshing to concentrate on the Wolverines and the Spartans instead of the Dems and the GOPs.

So this column today is a breather, a compendium of miscellaneous Michiganiana absolutely guaranteed not to have any vital bearing upon the destiny of our nation.

Keeweenaw County, Michigan's northernmost area, had a total of only 70 sales tax returns filed for August this year. Wayne County, down in the opposite corner of the state, had 38,145.

Lowest number of returns filed by a lower Peninsula County was the 123 out of Kalkaska. All told, 117,339 retailers paid sales tax in August for a total of $19,295 million.

If you found it confusing to choose between Proposals 2 and 3 in the polling booth, Tuesday, just hang on to your hats.

Things will be much more confounding if and when Michigan has a Constitutional convention.

Governmental theory is, at best, never a simple issue. It's bad enough when administered in a dose as small as we took Tuesday. When a whole Constitution is up for debate—there will be plenty a Michiganander who'll seriously consider giving the two peninsulas back to the Chippewas.

The "Frankenmuth Plan" is spreading farther and farther from the town that chicken dinners made famous.

The plan sets up a game sanctuary in every section of Frankenmuth Township.

Farmers voluntarily post certain suitable areas of their farms, and forego the right to hunt on that part of their own property.

The result is that hunting pressure is relieved on a local basis and game and birds are not driven far out of the area. Local conservation clubs police the plan with pressure of public opinion the only penalty. "In the past five years there hasn't been a single violation," says Clyde Elrich, a veteran sportsman, conservationist and originator of the plan.

Have you checked your bank balance lately, Dad? Michigan retailers predict that the Christmas shopping season will start earlier than ever this year.

"We have to start our promotions in self defense," says an up-state merchant. "The big mail-order houses get their holiday catalogues out earlier every year and we have to protect our local business."

Remember not so many years ago when FDR moved up Thanksgiving so that the Yuletide shopping season could be a week longer?

Michigan ski-lift proprietors report that what used to be an off-season—Summer—has proved not so "off". They offered lift rides to warm-weather tourists who got an invigorating ride and a chance to see scenery they'd miss if they stuck to the highway. Skiing and winter sports are expected to bring almost $25 million into Michigan cash registers this season. There will be over a quarter million ski enthusiasts visiting the state.

With the proposed Straits of Mackinac Bridge so close to reality that announcement of the actual start of construction is expected any week, Michigan will have another tourist attraction that should lure visitors from all over the country.

Michigan's younger cooks are already trying new recipes for cherry pies. Formal announcement of the annual state cherry pie baking contest isn't necessary to stir interest in this event which annually draws more and more young women between the ages of 15 and 20. Prizes this year will be more valuable than ever before.

Want to rent a farm? Average cash rental in Michigan is $3.97 per acre.

So says the U. S. Bureau of the Census. The average rented farm is 73.8 acres and a total of 3,876 million Michigan acres are being rented.

A national columnist who pun-dits on the proper use of words now says residents of this state are properly known as Michiganians. So far at least most Wolverines call themselves Michigan-ers although Michiganites is becoming a more common term.

High school driver training programs pay off. Students trained in Michigan schools have a driving record at least four times better than those who learned to pilot the family chariot by trial and error.

Familiar headlines you can expect to see often before the Legislature convenes in January:

"FINANCIAL PROBLEMS PLAGUE LANSING"

Editors could save their printers' time by storing that type; it is the same before every legislative session.

Local governments, too, have their fiscal dilemmas. So watch for more action along the lines the City of Saginaw followed last year.

There an income-profits tax was passed that levied 1 percent on all payrolls in the city. One object was to tax the "daylight citizen", the person who lives in the suburbs, works in the city and gets all the benefits of municipal services without paying for them.

The tax was voided on a technicality of the ballot by the State Supreme Court.

Other cities, watching the case intently, can be expected to benefit from Saginaw's error as they lay plans for similar taxes.

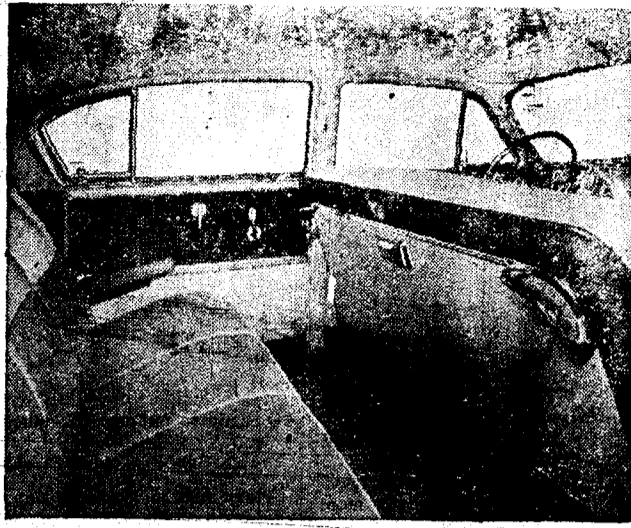

Michigan State College short courses are popular with young farmers.

More manure is returned to the farm from the loose housing barn than from the stanchion barn, according to Michigan State College specialists.

Lack of lime is still the chief cause of legume seeding failures report Michigan State College soil scientists.

In January, 1950, the ECA sent millions of dollars to France to buy wheat. But later the same year France sold $2,500,000 of wheat to Holland.

1953 CHRYSLERS HAVE BEAUTIFUL INTERIORS

Shown is the rear passenger compartment of the 1953 Chrysler New Yorker DeLuxe sedan which, like the whole Chrysler line, features completely new interiors in a wide choice of new colors, fabrics and vinyls with matching garnish moldings and carpets. Four two-tone upholstery combinations are available in the New Yorker DeLuxe.

"Be Alert For Wacky Walkers"

Chief of Police Harry Simmons today announced that East Jordan is cooperating on the fall Pedestrian Protection program sponsored by the State Safety Commission, the Michigan Association of Chiefs of Police, the Michigan Sheriffs' Association, of Chiefs of Police, the Michigan

Sheriffs' Association, the Automobile Club of Michigan and many other organizations interested in safety.

According to Chief of Police, Harry Simmons, the official slogan for the safety campaign will be "Be Alert For Wacky Walkers". This points out that in at least half of the pedestrian accidents the pedestrian was more at fault than the motorist.

"By calling to the attention of Motorists the amusing antics of Wacky Walkers which are dangerous it is hoped that fewer pedestrians will be hit", the Chief of Police said.

In the fall of the year it gets dark earlier and more pedestrians are harder to see as people walk and drive to work and back. The special hazard is that the man on foot is hard to see and he doesn't know it.

In conclusion the Chief of Police said, "The privilege of owning a driver license is a serious thing. It carries with it the special responsibility of watching out for pedestrians. Any motorist who runs down a man on foot raises the question as to whether the motorist was a safe enough driver to have been given a driver's license."

The fellow who is willing to take one step at a time is the man who eventually reaches the top.

If you think you're going to be happy and prosperous by sitting back and letting the government take care of you—take a look at the American Indians!

PLANNING DEFINED

Planning has been defined as putting off until tomorrow what you have no intention of doing today.

WHERE WILL IT END?

Never before have Michigan fields and forests seen such invasions of hunters. Never before have our lakes and streams been so whipped with the cast of fishing lines. Each year brings a big jump in the sale of fishing and hunting licenses. Where will it end, and what effect will it have on fishing and hunting in Michigan Outdoors?

The answer, according to the experts, is less fish and game per person, while the total take remains about the same. This, however, presents a few problems in game and fish management. Naturally you might expect that 100 fishermen on a given lake will take twice as many fish as 50, providing their abilities are about equal, and the supply of fish remains adequate.

Supply Unstable

Eventually, however, the harvest will level off to a point where each of the anglers will have to be content with a smaller catch, because the supply is definitely not inexhaustible. The same will be true in the hunting field, and it is possible that before too many moons have passed we will have to take stock of the situation and reduce our bag limits on some fish and game. There's certainly no cause for

New Horizons

The process of making a living in modern America is a hectic one, draining energy at a high rate from the average man. If he's a sportsman he's discovered relief from the pressures of everyday life in his contact with the outdoors. He knows that a day on his favorite lake, or afield with dog and gun, erases the worries that beset him—strengthens him to do a better job in life. New horizons appear. New appreciations of nature at work belittle the petty annoyances of the workaday world.

No man ever spent a day fishing or hunting but what he was the better for it. And the killing of fish or game has little or nothing to do with this effect. So, in the years to come if we face the possibility of fewer fish in the creel—maybe one pheasant a day instead of two for the hunter, it isn't going to hurt most of us. We'll still have all of Michigan Outdoors—and there's plenty of that to go around!

FARM FACTS from your County Agricultural Agent

Ed. Rebmam, Co. Agr'l Agent

Now is the time for farm woodlot owners to make practical plans to harvest timber crops from their woodlots, points out county agricultural agent Ed Rebmam.

Farmers owning mature woodlots should cut an amount of timber each year about equal to the annual growth within the woods, advises Rebmam. Income from logs and harvesting of material for farm building use can add considerably to farm property.

Lester E. Bell, extension forester at Michigan State College, points out that the proper and wise management of a woodlot insures continuous production over the years.

The county agricultural agents in Michigan stand ready to aid farmers and other land owners in developing proper cutting practices on their woodlands, says Agent Rebmam. If the owner has mature hardwood trees, some form of selective cutting may be a desirable practice. If the trees are of the swamp species such as balsam, spruce or cedar, it may be necessary to clear out certain areas to avoid danger of wind throw, he cautions.

Science and research in forest practice by MSC specialists indicate different cutting practices are desirable for different forest types, Bell has advised Agent Rebmam. If anyone has a forest cutting problem, Rebmam invites him to consult on it. The county agent can point out ways and means to proceed in the harvest.

Mountain Goat

The mountain goat is living proof that American sportsmen are good sports, says the National Wildlife Federation. This likable Old Man of the Mountain is a relatively easy target for modern high powered rifles with telescopic sights, yet there are nearly as many today as there were in early times. Modern hunters want hard-to-get trophies. Furthermore, outdoorsmen and mountaineers have developed a great admiration for the courage of the white goat. It never runs from sudden danger, but trots off with solemn dignity. Its bearing, white hair and chin whiskers command respect. It is not pugnacious, but will fight for a mate, and stand its ground to the death when need be to defend itself or its young. With dagger-like horns it has held its own against a pack of wolves, hunting dogs or even the ferocious grizzly bear. Mountain-goats are comparatively abundant in British Columbia, and their territory extends south into Washington, Idaho, Montana and north through the Yukon into Alaska. They dwell by choice high above timberline in a bleak land of scant vegetation, cutting winds, and the most dramatic scenery in our Hemisphere. Even in mid-winter they are loath to descend as other animals do to the valleys where food and shelter are plentiful. They survive on lichens, moss and alpine growth that can be uncovered among the wind-swept rocks. A thick coat of perpetually white wool, like fine cashmere is protection against the bitterest weather. White reflects the heat of summer sun and is camouflage during the long snow season. The nanny and billy goat look alike, both have horns about nine inches long. Although those of the female are more slender, the world's record head with 12 1/2 inch horns is that of a nanny. Early explorers often referred to the mountain goat as a small white buffalo and the resemblance is considerable. Like the bison its shoulders are high, head low, neck short and there is a beard of long hairs on the chin. But it is not a buffalo. In fact, it is not a goat. The neck of a true goat is rather long and head held high. Scientists tell us it actually is a goat-like antelope, like the chamois of Asia, having no close relatives in America. The goat stands 3 1/2 feet at the shoulder and weights up to 276 pounds. It mates in the fall and is probably monogamous. The kid, born six months after breeding, also is all white. It is only 18 1/2 inches tall, can stand 10 minutes after birth, jumps in 30 minutes and at one month is an able climber. Stories of harrowing climbs of the mountain goat are legion. It can outdo the cougar and even the nimble mountain sheep. Hunters tell of watching in rapt admiration as a goat, like a human fly on a skyscraper, works its way across what appears a sheer cliff. The men held their fire. Congratulations, says the National Wildlife Federation, to the sportsmanlike hunters who have spared this stout-hearted Old Man of the Mountains.

U. S. No. 2 are perfect apples with no color requirements while U. S. Utility grade has defects that do not speed up decay. Utility grade is often called "orchard run".

Beef cattle will use low-value roughage better than other livestock.

The Atomic Energy Commission is one of the top spendthrifts. It has been paying $35 for stray dogs and $3.50 for stray cats for use in tests. It could have gotten them free from city pounds.

Pheasant meat is similar to chicken except it is dryer; therefore, most chicken recipes are suitable for preparing pheasant. Cooking pheasant in a covered roaster aids in retaining moisture.

Sean MacEntee, Irish minister of Finance, reported $123,000,000 in Marshall Plan money was spent in Ireland with little to show for it. Some of it went for saxophones, popcorn machines and costume jewelry, he said.

Make a treat for your family breakfast—drizzle honey on cut grapefruit and let stand 15 or 20 minutes before serving. Broil the grapefruit halves under a gas or electric broiler unit until lightly browned for a dinner dessert, suggest Michigan State College home economists.

Air-Sac Disease New in Poultry

Charlevoix county broiler raisers should keep their eyes open for air-sac disease, a new poultry menace that is moving into the Midwest from the East, warns Ed Rebman, county agricultural agent.

Losses in the East were so heavy among broiler growers that five state agricultural experiment stations in the East have joined with the U. S. Department of Agriculture to conduct research. Rebman understands that work is being concentrated now where losses were heaviest.

So far there has not been any serious trouble in Michigan, advises Henrik J. Stafseth, head of the Michigan State College bacteriology department. First an Eastern problem in 1950, air-sac disease may rival Newcastle disease, a big threat about five years ago.

Good general sanitary practices are recommended by Stafseth against the disease, about which little is known so far. Strict flock insolation, keeping visitors out and separating hens and pullets all help. Symptoms are watery eyes, nasal discharge and gasping. Losses come from deaths but more from reduced gains in weight and poor carcasses, broiler raisers report.

Amble over to Bob's Restaurant Tuesday for lunch and noticed a new sign "Left Ham Sandwich, 40¢... Right Ham Sandwich, 30¢." "Why the sign, Bob?" I asked. "Don't tell me you believe hogs scratch more with their right leg than with their left—so's the left ham is more tender?" "No," he says. "I don't take any stock in it. But, some people have ordered those 'left' sandwiches. When I explain to them that there's nothing to that fable, that the sign is just a business-getter, and I've only one price, they enjoy a regular, old fashioned, plain ham sandwich all the more!"

From where I sit, stories like "right" hams being tougher than "left" ones are with us because some people get ideas into their head and hang onto them for dear life. It's like those who think an adult like myself hasn't the right to a glass of beer with my supper. I say let's keep our opinions free from being "sandwiched-in" by misinformation.

The Servicemens' LETTER

Hi Fellas:
John Vallance was in the office today. He just arrived from Germany last Saturday, Nov. 1st. It took him nine days by steamship from Bremerhaven to New York and they laid over 24 hours in England on the way. John is sure looking rugged and healthy. He says that he is sure glad to be out of the Service and a civilian again. He has no definite plans as yet other than doing a little hunting.

Another man is on his way home from Germany after having served his hitch over there. Ralph Scott writes, "It is about time I checked in and let you know that I am still alive. You can discontinue my paper for I am on my way home to the ZF. My hitch is up and thank God it is. I leave here the 6th of November which will be just exactly one year to the day. I have seen only one EJ man over here. He is Miles Prevo, who is with the 504th Ord HM Co. about 87 miles from here. Well, Jake, I think I will say So Long for now and I'll be up to see you all."

Joe Hammond is home on leave from the USS Aucilla—and what do you know—he's wearing a FEZ. You know—one of those Turkish top knots. There's one thing for sure. It doesn't make Joe look a bit smaller. It gives him a gigantic, foreign look. You know, like something out of Aladdin's Lamp. (Don't get mad at me now, Joe, it's all in fun.)

We are temporarily discontinuing Brock Peacock's paper this week as Brock is on his way to the East via Camp Kilmer. He's not sure of his destination as yet but it may be Austria. Brock is on leave now until Nov. 9th. He has 14 months more in the service then he will be a happy civilian again.

My apologies to Dean McPherson. He has been A/2C for some time now.

Guy Vallance is another of the Navy men to make his 3rd Class rating. He is MM-3 now.

Ed Drapeau and Forest Muma. Do you know what became of Walt Moblo. His papers are being returned from Amarillo marked unclaimed.

Here is a letter from Jim Pollitt up on the front lines over in Korea. "Hi Jake—it is about time I got a few lines off to you. I am with the 75th FA over here in Korea but for the last two weeks I have been up on the front lines with an outfit called the 2nd Rocket. They have Rockets and also 105 Howitzers. We were helping them while they were up fixing on White Horse Hill. We were hit just about every night we were up there. They were hitting us with 76 Mortars. But everything is OK now as we are back with our own outfit. I am a gunner on a 155 and it is about the best job in the gun section. Do you have Jim Russell's address yet and if and when you do get it will you put it in the paper so on one of my days off I can get over and see him.

"There isn't much to write about over here. We haven't been doing much except for the last two weeks that we were up front. Then we fired for four days and three nights without any sleep. Some of us got about 6 hours sleep during that time. That is about all we have done.

"Someone just called fire mission so I better get out there and give them a hand."

Thanks for the letter, Jim. Russell's address is: Btry "C", 158 FA Bn, APO 86. Pollitt's address is Btry "C", 75th FA Bn, APO 301. You men are both up on the front lines but I do not know your positions. I hope you can get together.

The Air Mail men have the edge in news this week. Here's a letter from Bob Mosher over in England. "Just a few lines to let you know I'm still getting my paper and enjoying it. Since my last letter to you I got a stripe—but for all the blood I lost wiping it on I know for sure I'll never be a tailor.

"I've been on Temporary Duty with the 804th Engineers at Greenham Common Air Base. It's about 30 miles from Brize, Norton. There are five of us down here trying to keep their equipment going so they won't have to transport it back to Brize for repairs. We have been here since the 22nd of August and are being relieved on the 1st of Nov. so I'll be back with the boys soon. We are staying in squad tents. They're not too bad as they have oil heat.

"It's been raining for three weeks and they say it will all winter. I sure wish my FRIENDS and NEIGHBORS were here to enjoy this "Smashing" English weather. Ha, Ha.

"It sure seems good to be on the last year. I haven't seen Ken as yet as I've been kept quite busy here. Maybe we will be on the same boat going home as we came in together so we should get out the same. I hope. D-Day, Sept. 3, 1953. Hot Dog!!"

Thanks for the letter, Bob, and congrats on that bloody stripe.

Attention all you men contemplating a trip through Camp Stoneman, California, and Yokohama, Japan. We have a cook from EJ in the Port reception group in Yokohama. His address is: Pvt. James McLaughlin, RA 16 404 087, 489th Hq Co, 2nd T Major Port, c/o PM, San Francisco, Calif. Jim says to tell all you men that when you get in Yokohama to look him up and he'll guarantee you a steak. Hot off the griddle.

Here's a man who may be able to take Jim up on that offer. Pvt. Merle J. Wilson, US 55 272 236, Prov Co, 1953, APO 613, c/o PM, San Francisco, Calif., is on his way over that direction. Jack left EJ on September 30th and has just reported a mailing address. He must be getting pretty close to Japan right now.

After disappearing for a couple of weeks Claude Randall has written from Grand Rapids, Mich., and informs us that he has re-enlisted for three more years as of Oct. 13th. He was at Fort Custer for 5 days and now is off on 14 days furlough. He is going over to Germany on his return to duty and hopes to see his brother, Gerald, over there.

A note from the Fleet Home Town News Center at Great Lakes, Ill., dated Oct. 17, 1952, informs us that: "William J. Schlicka, fireman, USN is serving aboard the cargo ship USS Altair, operating with the Atlantic Fleet Service Force, out of her home port, Norfolk, Virginia. The Altair, one of the Navy's newer converted cargo type vessels, was commissioned in January at Baltimore, Maryland." You men down at Norfolk, keep an eye out for the USS Altair. You'll find 311 in "E" Division.

Over on the other Ocean Bob Anderson is heading for the States from Hawaii just about now. Here's what he writes, "It's been a long time but here I am with a few lines to let you know I'm still alive and kicking. I've been keeping pretty good track of the boys through the paper and they sure are getting around. Sounds like all the guys from home are in the service, including Bill, whom I thought would wait for the draft to catch him.

"We have been here two months now and finally completed our yard period. While in the yards they have given our ship a complete overhaul and things sure run a lot smoother. Of course there are still a few items to be ironed out but that won't take very long.

"About the only time I have been going on liberty is on weekends when we have a little time to relax without thinking about the ship. We have been going swimming, fishing, playing ball and many other things. I'm glad it's over though because I'm plenty ready for the states and the good times I had before we came here. This may be a nice place but it's not for me. All the places a guy would like to go cost so darn much a common person just hasn't a chance. I've taken a few pictures of this place and as far as I care that is as good a memory as I want of it.

"We are due to head for the States next week sometime so you can discontinue the AM service which has been a great service while over here. We are supposed to get in Diego around the tenth and the time just can't go fast enough for me. Say "Hello" to all the boys for me. Take it easy and I'll drop you a few more lines when we reach the states."

That's good news you are headed for the states, Bob. Sounds as though you may be home for Christmas. Say, Dave Wade, as you probably know by now, wasn't long in El Toro. He is at present at home here and will be heading Nevada way soon for some preparatory training prior to shipping overseas. However, Don Olson and Joe Chanda, who are at present home on leave, are due to head for Camp Stoneman on or around the 13th of November and they told me today that they were planning on looking you up in Diego. I see you've got that EN3 tacked to your name now. Must be you made your 3rd.

Speaking of Don Olson and Joe Chanda—Don thinks he is due to go out to the place you just came from—Hawaii. Joe is quite sure that he will end up in Japan. He is an MP and he has heard that they are not using many MPs in Korea.

Dick Misner will probably wonder how I found out but I've got a note here that says that Dick is getting married to a Miss Dorothy Joan Mergestik on Nov. 16th at 4 o'clock. The marriage is to take place in the Catholic Chapel on Mitchell Air Force Base, Long Island, New York. Here's wishing you lots of happiness, Dick.

We now have a foursome down at Lackland AFB in Texas. A/B they take in the after duty sprints together quite often. Dale is the newcomer in Lackland. His address is: A/B Dale A. Bolser, AF-SN 16 426-659, 3708 Trng Sqd, Flt 1154, Lackland AFB, Texas.

Here's a little old saying that they passed on to me when I was in the Army that seemed quite appropriate at that time. How does it fit you new recruits now? It goes like this—and has reference to conduct around Army camps—
If it moves—Salute it!
If it doesn't move—Pick it up!
If you can't pick it up—Paint it!

Do you ever feel like that men? Or is it really a new Army?
Last but not least for tonight is the following letter from Carl Young, who is now on his way home from ETO. "Many pardons for not writing at the time I sent the change of address, but my family affairs have me pretty busy. Getting married 2 more times and all, you know. I bet that I'm the only East Jordan man that has gotten married 8 times and every time to the same woman! My wife is German and a wonderful housekeeper. Her cooking is something a man dreams about. No kidding, Jake, she is really a wonderful person. We are coming to the states and you can stop the paper until further notice after the end of October. I have really enjoyed the paper very much and my wife joins me in expressing our thanks to the Community Service Club of EJ for their contribution in keeping our morale to the highest. I read that brother Herschel has taken to movie taking. Well, he is not alone there in the Young brothers. I myself own two movie cameras plus a Kodak with flash and a German 35mm. My best is a Revere B63 that is a honey. Magazine load and a triple lens mounting turret.

"I hope to be in EJ for deer hunting season and if I return to the states by plane, as I expect to, I will have plenty of opportunity to try my German Mauser rifle on a deer in EJ vicinity and still have time to stop in at the Postoffice and shoot the bull with you. I also expect to travel with my photo album in my car to show off my pictures of my travels. So, if a traveling salesman selling insurance for Mutual of Omaha walks into the Postoffice and asks for Jason Snyder, that will probably be me.

"I am glad that brother Hersh has taken up photography because it is a wonderful hobby. My wife and I have many delightful hours looking at our pictures and we are expecting to be able to take pictures of the little one which is coming in March.

"Well, Jake, I can only say that I have enjoyed to the limit my 42 months spent over here. I acquired many wonderful friends and relatives and I hope to return for a visit someday. Well, Jake, 1300 hours and MRU Roster to get out yet today. By the way, I talked to Murray Nelson on the phone while in Germany last week but didn't get time to see him."

That was a fine letter from Carl and we will all be looking forward to seeing him.

So Long,
"Jake" Snyder

A double attraction was held Saturday evening when Barney Adair brought his top bowlers—both men and women—to meet two E. J. teams.

The E. J. men rolled 2668 for total pins and Potoskey—2475. Spin Cihak had high series with 580 for E. J. and H. Meyers had 523 for Potoskey.

The E. J. Ladies came through to win total pins after losing the first and second games—so both Potoskey teams went home defeated. Betty Jo Strehl was high for the home team with 502 and Min Burns, Potoskey, had 508.

Improve Game Habitat

Success of the conservation department-developed scalping machine in forest planting cues game men to test its practicality for wildlife habitat work in state game areas. The rugged scalper, which rips aside sod at spaced intervals instead of creating conventional long planting furrows, is shown getting a trial at the Rose Lake wildlife experiment station near Lansing. Planting of pine and shrub mixture will follow.

The hunter's greatest danger is his own gun or the guns of members of his party. All 10 victims in fatal small game hunting accidents last year shot themselves or were shot by members of their own party. Of the 13 deer season fatalities, eight either killed themselves or were killed by members of their own party.

Flora - Premo

Loretta Mae Freeman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Freeman, became the bride of Wayne Flora, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Flora, at eight o'clock Saturday evening, Oct. 25th, in the Methodist Church with Rev. Robert Moore officiating at the double ring ceremony. Guests were members of the immediate families and close friends. Fred Stecker played the traditional wedding music and accompanied Mrs. Alta Drapeau who sang, "O Promise Me" and "I Love You Truly".

Escorted to the altar by her brother, the bride wore a white satin gown with bodice of lace over satin with long sleeves and a full skirt which extended in a train. Her finger tip length veil of pleated net was held in place by a sweetheart halo. She carried a bouquet of white roses and white carnations.

Myrtle Blaha, a friend of the bride, assisted her as maid of honor. She wore a blue taffeta gown and carried a bouquet of white carnations and yellow roses.

Jerry McKenny attended the groom as best man. Richard Freeman served as an usher.

Mrs. Flora, mother of the groom, wore a dark blue dress. Her corsage was of white carnations and red roses.

A reception followed the ceremony at the home of the groom's parents. The bride's parents were unable to attend the ceremony because of illness.

Purebred Dairy Owners to Meet

Purebred dairy cattle breeders and Michigan State College dairy, veterinary and extension specialists will meet Monday and Tuesday, Nov. 10 and 11, at MSC's Kellogg Center. The second annual Dairy Cattle Breeders' Conference will open at 10 a. m. with a welcome by Dr. Earl Weaver, dairy department head.

Monday sessions will cover herd analysis and the breeding programs, with these dairymen on panels: Herd analysis—Elton Smith, Caledonia; Dale Ball, Lansing; Edward Eicker, Elkton; Robert Hatfield, Remus. Breeding—Dale Dean, Ridgeway; Charles Miles, Oxford; O. F. Foster, Clarkston; Wilbur Harris, Grass Lake, and Howard Colby, Romeo. L. O. Gilmore, Ohio dairy research director, will speak at the Monday evening banquet.

On Tuesday, brucellosis control, bloot, acetoneemia, mastitis and other cattle troubles will be covered. Panel members will be Dr. C. F. Huffman, dairy researcher, and Dr. E. A. White, Dr. A. R. Drury and Dr. R. W. Westcott of the MSC School of Veterinary Medicine. The conference will close with a tour of Gilman Hall, housing the nation's most complete veterinary and bacteriological facilities.

Not until the waning minutes of the third stanza did the Jordanites score again, and once more it was Evans who hit pay dirt as he knifed over from the 3 yd. stripe. Big Gordon Danforth went over standing up to add the extra point and East Jordan led 14 to 0 with a minute and a half to go in the third quarter. Gaylord took the next kickoff and on a handoff from Karowski, Gene Fleming raced 80 yds. down the side lines to score without a hand being laid on him. Bud Jones failed in his attempt to add the extra point on a try from placement. At the close of the third quarter, the locals still possessed a 14 to 6 lead.

The battling Jordanites added 2 more points for good measure in the final frame as Floyd Detloff and Robert Romback teamed up to toss Jones, Gaylord quarterback, for a 20 yd. loss into his own end zone for a safety. Much credit for the Jordan victory must go to their terrific defensive play, for linemen Detloff, Romback, Hayden, Shepard, Chanda and Freeman charged fast and hard all evening and never did give the Gaylord offense a chance to get started.

The Jordanites will meet the Harbor Springs "Rams" in a "Pud's Day" game here at the West Side Ball Park tomorrow (Friday) afternoon at 3:00 p. m. winding up the 1952 football season. Harbor Springs has showed increasing strength in its last two games with Charlevoix and Boyne City. Although losing both contests, they were able to score a total of 47 points in the two engagements, 28 against Charlevoix and 19 against Boyne City. Thus the "Red Devils", who are not expected to have the services of Gordon Danforth, Ray Gee or Leon Bartlett really have an afternoon's work cut out for themselves.

Henry Grutsch has returned to his work on the Great Lakes Ferries after spending several weeks at his home due to the strike.

Santa's Workshop Needs Old Toys for Com. Christmas

Frances Lenosky Guest of Honor at Bridal Shower

The American Legion Auxiliary is asking for old toys that can be used in the Christmas boxes. Maybe your child has some doll or toy that has lost their interest, is in need of new paint, or some other little repair that may make it as good as new and will give many hours of enjoyment to some other child. Jig-saw puzzles and comic books that are suitable for children and are in good condition also are in demand. These things may be brought to the Community Service room in the basement of the City Building on Wednesday or Friday afternoons between 1:30 and 4:00, or see Peggy Thomas, Community Service chairman; Florence Stucker, Jr. Activities chairman, or any Auxiliary member and they will see they are taken care of.

The Junior Auxiliary of Unit 227 will repair these toys as their contribution to the Community Christmas program, with the help of the boys of the Legion.

Mrs. Rolland Hayes, a cousin of the bride elect, had charge of the entertainment. The twenty guests played buncle.

After Frances dismantled the Mammy, dainty refreshments were served by the hostesses.

October Weather

October, 1952, will go down as one of the driest Octobers in many years, both in Michigan, and various parts of the U. S. Many states have had very serious forest fires, much more destructive than in Michigan. Fires in this state have been mostly brush and grass fires. The fire hazard was so great that the Conservation Dept. considered banning all hunting, as was done in New York. However, the weeds, leaves and grass in this area were not nearly so dry as in counties south.

At East Jordan the precipitation amounted to 84/100 of an inch, which is 2.88 inches short of a 25 year average. The average maximum temperature was 53 degrees and the average minimum was 34.4 for a mean temperature for the month of 43.7 degrees, which is 4.6 degrees lower than average. There were 23 clear days and 8 cloudy or partly cloudy days during the month.

Auxiliary Com. Christmas Chicken Supper Dec. 10th at the Legion Home

The American Legion Auxiliary Unit 227 will hold their annual Chicken supper to raise funds for the Community Christmas program on Dec. 10th, in the Legion Home. This program could not be carried out if it were not for the generous contributions from the Community Chest, individuals and other organizations in East Jordan. The canned goods, vegetables, fruits, etc. which are collected through the school's drive for this program as well as donations from many of the merchants also help to lessen the cost and are a big factor in this program. The Auxiliary as in past years will take over the planning and distribution of the boxes, with Peggy Thomas, Community chairman, in charge. It is the goal of the Auxiliary to see that no child in our community is forgotten this Christmas. Last year 52 boxes including toys, food, clothing and special Christmas treats were distributed

Coach Gayle Saxton's East Jordan High School "Red Devils" turned in their most impressive performance of the season at Gaylord last Friday evening as they downed the powerful "Blue Devils" 16 to 6.

The Jordanites scored early in the first frame after a sustained drive that began on their own 45 yd. line. Keith Evans, Junior quarterback, pulled over from the 3 yd. stripe and Gordon Danforth added the extra point on a dive play and East Jordan led at the end of the first stanza 7 to 0.

The Jordanites threatened to score twice more during the second period but each time a 15 yd. penalty cut them short. At half-time East Jordan still held a 7 to 0 lead.

Batterbee - Vellanti

A Nuptial high mass chanted by Rev. Fr. Lee united Miss Jo Ann Batterbee and Nick Vellanti Saturday morning, Sept. 27th, at 9:00 o'clock in the Church of the Resurrection.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Percy Batterbee of 705 Shepard St., Lansing, Mich., formerly of East Jordan, and Mr. and Mrs. Ross Vellanti of 1049 Larch St., Lansing, are parents of the bridegroom.

For the double-ring ceremony, the bride chose a gown of flowing white satin which the bodice was topped with a lace yoke and styled to go in the third quarter. Gaylord took the next kickoff and on a handoff from Karowski, Gene Fleming raced 80 yds. down the side lines to score without a hand being laid on him. Bud Jones failed in his attempt to add the extra point on a try from placement. At the close of the third quarter, the locals still possessed a 14 to 6 lead.

the groom, served as ushers. A wedding breakfast in the Pagoda followed the ceremony.

A reception was held at night from 8 to 12 p. m. at the Syrian American Hall for 200 guests.

For her daughter's wedding and reception Mrs. Batterbee chose a navy blue dress and hat with eggshell accessories. She wore an orchid corsage.

The mother of the bridegroom also chose a navy blue dress and hat with white accessories and an orchid corsage.

The grandmother of the bride, Mrs. Carrie Burbank, wore an aqua blue dress with white accessories. Her flowers were an orchid corsage.

For travel through northern Michigan on their honeymoon the new Mrs. Vellanti donned a gray wool suit with green accessories. She spiked her ensemble with a corsage of red roses.

The out of town guests who came for the wedding and reception were: Mr. and Mrs. William Walden of East Jordan; Mr. and Mrs. Charles Ager and family of Auburn; Mr. and Mrs. Charles Burbank, Mr. and Mrs. Max Graham and daughter, Detroit; Mrs. Tony Awoody of St. Joseph; Mr. and Mrs. Carl Brenke of Perry; and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Perffitt and son of Grand Ledge.

Jack Gibbard's Sawmill Burns

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Gibbard of R1 Central Lake were very unfortunate when lightning struck the saw mill on their farm about six o'clock last Sunday morning, November 2. The farm is located about four or five miles east of town.

The Central Lake firemen were called and reported they were fortunate to have the wind blowing away from the other buildings. They extinguished the flames around a 50 gallon drum of gasoline, that was getting uncomfortably warm and rolled it out of reach of the flames.

It was reported according to the firemen that lightning struck a transformer located near the mill and followed the power line into the one-story frame building destroying the structure. The loss was reported as about $4000.

The thunder and lightning storm, a little out of place for November caused power and telephone failure for a short time.

Mr. and Mrs. Loren Hughes of Saginaw were week end guests of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Alex Sinclair and Mr. and Mrs. Russell Hughes.

Adventist Dorcas Society Attended Meeting Oct. 29th

The ladies of the Dorcas society of the Seventh-day Adventist Church of East Jordan attended the all-day Dorcas Federation meeting held at the Petoskey Seventh-day Adventist church, Wednesday, Oct. 29. Guest speakers were Elder Henry F. Brown, Home Missionary Secretary of the General Conference of Seventh-day Adventists, Washington, D. C.; Elder H. K. Halladay, Home Missionary Secretary of the Lake Union Conference of S. D. A.'s and Elder A. K. Phillips, Home Missionary Secretary of the Michigan Conference of S. D. A.'s, of Lansing.

Elder Brown, in his work having traveled the world around, told of the need of heavy clothing being sent to Germany at this time. The ladies of the East Jordan S. D. A. Church plans to send a shipment in the near future.

Also, the ladies of the Dorcas society are opening a Health and Welfare Center, where the needs of people living in this community will be supplied. The Center, at the present, is being conducted at the home of Mrs. Elmer Green. The ladies of the Dorcas Society will make articles of clothing, quilts, etc. to build up the Center's supply. Anyone having clothing you do not need, especially children's clothing, please get in touch with Mrs. Elmer Green. Articles will be cleaned and mended by the Dorcas ladies.

Freeman - Flora

Miss Janet Flora, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Flora, was united in marriage to Richard Premo, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Premo of Lansing, in the Lansing R. L. D. S. Church on Saturday afternoon at 4:00 p. m. Nov. 1st.

Mr. and Mrs. Pete Premo were their attendants. A reception followed the ceremony at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Pete Premo.

Previous to her marriage the bride was guest of honor at a miscellaneous shower given by Mrs. Donald Bowers and Miss Lorraine Tales at the Bowers home.

Mrs. Elsie Gothro returned home Saturday from Pontiac after a two weeks visit with her daughter, Mrs. Ruth Gothro, and grandson, Don Dixon, and family.

Don't forget our Community Chest Drive starts today and it should end in a week. The men solicitors had a kick-off dinner last night and the women met on Thursday morning for breakfast before starting off to canvass the town. If you are prepared to sign the card making a pledge which you can pay quarterly, it will help very much.

Following is a list of agencies you support when you give to this United Fund. 732 of our budget goes for that purpose, and the rest of the $5,000 will be used mostly for East Jordan activities.

For Men and Women in Service — U. S. O., American Relief for Korea, American Social Hygiene Assoc.

Health agencies — Mich. Heart Association, Arthur H. and Ruthann Foundation, Sister Kenny Polio Foundation, United Cerebral Palsy Assoc., National Association for Mental Health, Mich. Assoc. for Mental Health, National Multiple Sclerosis Society, Leader Dogs for the Blind, American Hearing Society, National Epilepsy League, Jackson Memorial Laboratory for Cancer Research.

Welfare Agencies — National League for Nursing, National Probation and Patrol Assoc., Big Brothers of America, and fourteen other agencies dealing with delinquency, child care, family problems, race relations, travelers aid, recreation and legal problems for those unable to pay a lawyers fee.

Veteran's Potluck Supper Nov. 11 at Legion Home

At the semi-social meeting of the American Legion Auxiliary, Tuesday, Oct. 28, it was decided to cancel the next meeting Nov. 11, in favor of Armistice Day.

The Legion and Auxiliary and their families will observe the 34th Armistice Day of World War I by having a Veteran's Family Night Supper. All veterans and their families are invited. Bring a dish to pass and sandwiches for your own family. Supper to be served at 7 o'clock.

Following the Auxiliary meeting there was a Halloween party with all the members dressed for the occasion. Several games were played which everyone enjoyed. A nice lunch of sandwiches, cake and coffee was served by Reva Walton, Lillian Bennett and Peggy Thomas, helped with the entertainment.

Next meeting will be Tuesday, Nov. 25. As this is Membership Month, Hilda Bathke, Membership Chairman, will have charge of the entertainment.

GUARD YOUR GLADIOLI BULBS
Your gladioli bulbs may not be as safe over the winter as you think—even though they are in safe storage—comes the warning from Ed Rebman, county agricultural agent. Some little fellows called thrips can raise hob with gladioli any time you fail to control the pesky insects.

Thrips suck the juice out of gladioli plants and bulbs, you garden lovers are warned by Ray L. James, MSC extension specialist in entomology. The results may be that your bulbs will not germinate, he cautions, when you plant them in the spring. If they do sprout in your garden and grow, you have the added risk that they may not blossom, he continues like a wet blanket.

But James has good news for you, also. You can treat those bulbs when you dig them up this fall and fool the thrips. If you go right after them at harvest time they'll leave your bulbs alone this winter and be no trouble in the spring, according to the specialist.

Dig your bulbs and then clean them good. Then, treat thriplean bulbs with a 5 percent DDT dust; the thrips will hate James for tipping you off. Put two to four tablespoonsful of the DDT dust in a sack for each bushel of bulbs is his advice. Then put the bulbs in the sack and shake it—just like you would to put powdered sugar on your doughnuts. The thrips will not find such treated bulbs tasty, James assures you.

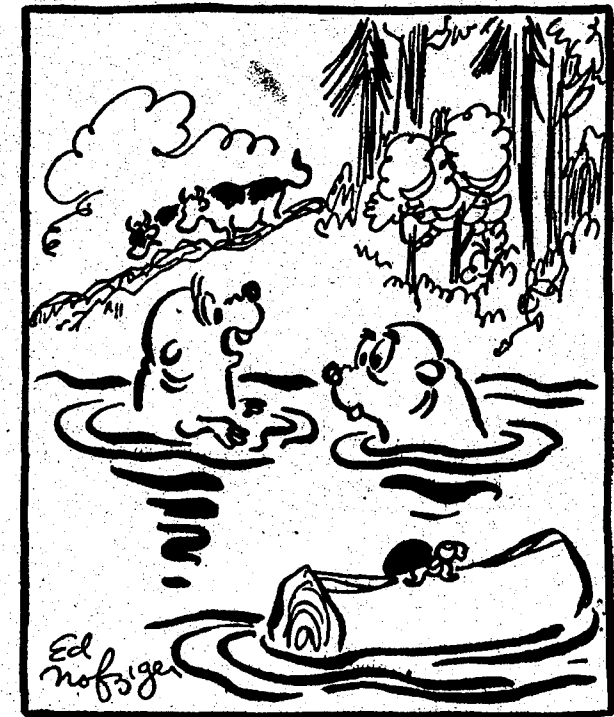

Don't wait until too late—digging time is the time to DD-Trip the thrips, he urges.

CORN PICKER OPERATORS GUARD AGAINST ACCIDENTS

Corn picker operators can take their choice between playing safe and helping swell the accident statistics, offers Ed Rebman, county agricultural agent. Casualties can result in barns, in fields or on highways, he warns, and during adjustments as well as in operation.

An estimated more than half million mechanical pickers will be used in the 1952 corn harvest and the National Safety Council expects accidents to be both gory and costly, he advises. Accidents can be held to a minimum, he contends, with careful operations and following of rules:

White-tails prefer ground hemlock, white cedar, hard maple and yellow birch. With these species heavily browsed out, deer turn to jack pine and even less nutritional browse. Home Economics Specialist
Michigan State College

Agricultural economists at the Michigan State College are singing on a sour note when it comes to food costs. They say that food costs are high, but they may go higher. But you don't have to sing the blues with them if you buy wisely.

And a note of hope comes when the economists predict that meat prices in 1953 will probably be about the same as this year. The U. S. Department of Agriculture reports meat production is on the increase with slightly more beef than pork recorded.

Canned fruits and vegetables are likely to stay about the same in price, too. The pack this summer and fall was slightly lower than last year, but carry-over stocks will keep prices on an even keel.

The MSC economists predict advancing prices for canned and frozen fruit juices, however. Supplies are low, they say. Homemakers may expect fresh citrus fruits, oranges in particular, to stay at the 1952 price average because a good citrus crop is reported.

Applying these economics to your own pocketbook and table means you should spend your food dollar with care. Watch reports for plentiful, less-expensive foods in your market. For instance, the U. S. D. A. reports that in Michigan the best buys are Michigan carrots, cauliflower, most apples, squash and western lettuce.

Moderate-priced items in your market now are Michigan celery, most greens, topped beets, snap beans, Honeydew melons, onions, peppers, potatoes, rutabagas, sweet potatoes, tomatoes and bananas.

Up until June 15, 1952, the United States gave $495,092,048 for Korean relief and economic aid. Other UN members together put up only $2,594,938.

'53 Outlook in Farming is Good

Farmers will have a good year if they watch their costs and strive for "full production" in 1953, is the optimistic annual outlook of Michigan State College agricultural economists.

Demand for farm products—with exception of exports—will continue strong during 1953 with consumer dollars in good supply, report the economists. This may be followed by a slight business and farm recession, probably in 1954. Farm prices in 1953 will depend on the crop volume. A nationwide bumper crop will drop farm prices where government supports are not effective. A short crop would add to inflation.

Costs of farm operations will continue to rise and should be watched closely, caution the economists. Increased wages of industrial workers and costs of services will add to the rising farm costs. Marketing charges will continue to take a larger share of the consumer's food dollar, leaving less for the farmer. The farm share, which has been about 50 cents, dropped to 48 cents the past year.

Farm prices generally will remain around the 100 percent of parity level, according to the M. S. C. outlook. Net farm incomes will be about the same as in 1952. It will buy less because of higher prices of consumer goods.

Dollar shortages in foreign countries may hurt exports, especially foreign agricultural sales; foreign nations will give priority to buying industrial equipment and military goods.

No new tax increases are anticipated by the economists but stretched out defense work will put more money in the consumer's pocket and boost prices. Any downturn in 1953 will be offset by an earlier price rise.

A dairy cow is the most efficient food-producer on any farm.

WINNER, EIGHTH NATIONAL TRAFFIC SAFETY POSTER CONTEST

By dinnertime in November streetlights are turned on. But children, used to long summer days, are still playing outside or going to visit friends. Motorists, traveling on quiet roads and streets, have difficulty in seeing even with the short range of their headlights. For this reason, Automobile Club of Michigan urges parents to dress children in something white, making them easier to see and thus safer. And to make sure the children know this rule, Auto Club sent 10,500 full-size copies of this poster to elementary schools in Michigan for bulletin board use during November.

More than 600,000 veterans failed to file to collect the dividend due them on their National Service Life Insurance which was declared in 1948. Up to last month, four years later, the Veterans Administration had done nothing about it.

National Apple Week is a good time to remember Michigan apples.

A few weeks ago Army's technical services asked permission to destroy a mountain of files dating back to 1940. The request was granted but with the condition "that copies be made of everything to be destroyed."

At 4 p.m. Tuesday 420 electors had voted, which was more than 70 per cent of voters registered, according to Tracy E. Boss, Banks township clerk. Arthur Ruis, 82, had the unusual distinction of voting in his 16th presidential election.

CABBAGE POLL

Vandalia — Every election predictor has his own methods. Eighty year old Farmer Frank Kretzer does it with cabbages and concludes: "Stevenson and Alger are in."

Deadly serious, like his father before him who started with the Tilton-Hayes campaign, Kretzer explained he raises four cabbages each election year to predict the presidential and gubernatorial races.

A lifelong Democrat, he said he selects four equal-appearing vegetables in July and transplants them ### into a separate plot in his backyard, where he tends them "with impartiality."

"Never been wrong," he said, "and the one labeled Stevenson is ahead by a leaf. Alger is rounding out better than Williams."

He warned, however, that "if Stevenson should get a case of mildew or start to wilt, he's finished. It's happened before in a close race."

"You can see," he said "Williams is skippy. He's been going down hill for a couple of weeks. Alger is bigger and has more leaves."

DAYS OF MAGIC

Late October and the first ten days in November are days of magic in Michigan Outdoors. The riot of color—reds, greens, yellows—blend to a golden hue in a farewell to a waning season . . . a golden welcome to sportsmen seeking Michigan at its best! You like to fish? You like to hunt? You're a "shooter-bug" with still or movie camera? Michigan is waiting for you!

Fisherman's Dream

Fall days on many of our lakes and streams present a fisherman's dream come true. The first frost whets the appetites of sleepy northern pike. Black bass move into shoal waters in chase of minnows. Big, fat blue gills rise to the surface, ready to strike at tiny flies. Great Lakes perch develop whopping appetites. The ten and twelve inch variety lose their summer timidity and caution—avidly take the bait along the entire coastline of Lake Huron—and along most of Lake Michigan, too!

Far up in Lake Superior, sport trolling for lake trout brings in the big ones, but there are few to enjoy the thrills. And in many a major Michigan river the fall run of steelhead, or lake-run rainbow trout is in full swing. In the past year 7 out of 10 national prize winners in the rainbow trout division came from a single Michigan stream—the Manistee!

Steelhead Waters

Too few guides are available who know the favorite haunts of the big rainbows in the Manistee below Tippee Dam. Veterans who have studied the river may be counted on the fingers of one hand—and their services are booked consistently far into November. They'll produce another bunch of prize winners this year—fifteen, sixteen, yes, seventeen pound steelhead who spend the greater part of their lives in the deep, cold waters of Lake Michigan, returning each spring to spawn in the Manistee River, and each fall in obedience to a mysterious urge that beckons them back to the swift currents and eddies of this beautiful river. But there are other steelhead waters readily available. The famed Au Sable from Foote Dam down to Oscoda, the Betsy down from Homestead Dam, and the Platte below U.S. 31, just to mention a few. Above the Straits there are steelhead waters with heavy runs of big fish—some topping 20 pounds—virtually unexplored.

Bird Hunters' Paradise

Tempting the sportsman away from lakes and streams is our early opening of the partridge and duck season—plus the lure of bow hunting for deer. Yes, this is the year of indecision. Where shall we go? Which shall we do to make the most of Michigan Outdoors in the fall? Take your choice! You'll make no mistake on either path!

NEW MOTOR OIL! SUPER TOUGH!

Sunoco H.D. Dynalube

CLEANS BETTER

Higher Detergency! Cleans 6 times better than ordinary motor oils!

Inferior motor oil builds up gummy deposits of varnish like this on the valves, piston rings and hydraulic valve lifters, making them stick and bind. As a result, engines "run hot," wear faster and burn extra gasoline and oil.

Heavy-Duty Dynalube, with 6 times the detergent action of ordinary motor oil, dissolves harmful deposits, keeps them in suspension until your next oil change. (For maximum protection, change every 1000 miles.)

HEAVY-DUTY DYNALUBE is tested and certified for Long Mileage!

FIGHT FOR FREEDOM

Fire Destroys Home at Chestonia

The home of Mr. and Mrs. Jim Barnes and their seven children burned to the ground Tuesday morning. The house is located at Chestonia near the store and was formerly used for Fyans Auto Parts.

The East Jordan Fire Dept. was called but as the fire had gained such headway, nothing could be done but prevent the fire from spreading in the dry grass.

Location of this house was the scene of a stubborn muck fire several years ago that took Conservation Dept. men and equipment several days to extinguish. Luckily this was prevented from recurring.

The Barnes lost all of their possessions in the fire. They were fortunate that only Mrs. Barnes and the youngest child were home at the time, the blaze being one that gained headway rapidly before discovery.

Gas and Weight Tax Money is Distributed

Net receipts of the State Motor Vehicle Highway Fund for the third quarter of the calendar year 1952 amounted to $23,355,021.27 and this money is now being distributed to the State Highway Department, the counties and the cities of the state as provided for in Act 51, Section 12, of the Public Acts of 1951, Highway Commissioner Charles M. Ziegler announces.

Under the 1951 act, which revised the methods of distributing weight and tax monies, the State receives 44 per cent of the money from the Motor Vehicle Highway Fund, the counties received 19 per cent and the cities and incorporated villages receive 17 per cent. A considerable portion of the State's share is spent on roads in city areas.

Under the distribution formula provided for by the State Highway Department will receive as its share of the third quarter funds the sum of $10,276,209.36; the counties will receive $8,641,357.87 and the cities will receive $4,437,454.04.

The Motor Vehicle Highway Fund money collected during the third quarter came from the following sources:

State Gasoline Tax $21,577,958.11
Diesel Fuel Tax ..... 199,358.02
Weight tax, resident 1,660,762.51
Weight tax, non-resident 30,701.97
Miscellaneous fees ..... 826,082.48
Total collections ..... $24,234,836.69
Less collection costs ..... 939,842.42
Net total coll. .... $23,355,021.27

Payments to the cities and incorporated villages from the Motor Vehicle Highway Fund receipts during the last two quarters of 1951 and the first quarter of 1952 were based on estimated mileages of city streets as records showing exact mileages were not available.

During the first quarter of this year, exact mileages were determined and it was found a number of cities and incorporated villages had less mileage of streets than had been assumed and so these cities had been overpaid. Hence, starting with the Second Quarter payments, deductions were made to correct the overpayments. The deductions are being continued and as a result, a total of $20,213.83 was donated from 16 communities in making the Third Quarter payments. The cities and the amounts deducted are: Allen, $188.05; Bear Lake, $490.94; Bloomfield Hills, $2,916.18; Carson City, $735.27; Freesoil, $629.36; Greenville, $5,684.44; Hesperia, $761.87; Lake Odessa, $2,049.24; Lake Orion, $1,413.79; City of Mackinac Island, $972.42; Maybee, $364.91; Pierson, $46.00; Plainwell, $1,144.87; Riverview, $1,067.14; South Range, $708.41; and Spring Lake, $1,150.93. Deducting the $20,213.82 from the full amount of the cities' share leaves a balance of $4,417,141.22 being paid to the counties at this time.

In the case of nine of these, the deductions represent final repayment of the amounts overpaid them, but seven of the communities still have the following amounts to repay through deductions from future allotments from the Motor Vehicle Funds: Bear Lake, $387.55; Bloomfield Hills, $3,587.41; Freesoil, $1,044.16; Lake Odessa, $488.85; City of Mackinac Island, $201.92; Maybee, $120.68; and South Range, $1,353.55, a total of $7,164.12.

The sum of $250,000 also is being deducted from the counties' share of the Second Quarter Motor Vehicle Fund collections as a part payment of the $5,000,000 loan advanced by the Highway Department under Act 50 of the 1948 legislature, which was a measure to help the counties during the serious financial situation they were in prior to enactment of the gas tax increase in 1951. That act provided that the counties would return the money to the Highway Department at the rate of $250,000 a quarter if gas or weight taxes should ever be increased. The present deduction is the fifth payment on the loan, leaving $3,750,000 still to be paid back by the counties.

The deduction of this $250,000 to be applied on the counties loan

Kindergarten — Helen Witte

Leon brought a pumpkin and we made a Jack O'Lantern.

We went for a walk down town and saw the electric light men putting up new lights. We noticed how careful they were to tie the ladders so they wouldn't slip. They used their safety belts. We think their slogan must be "Safety First".

The oats we planted are two inches high. We were surprised to see how fast they grew.

Second Grade — Agnes Johnston

Friday afternoon we had a good time at our Halloween and dress-up party. It was fun to parade down town so our parents and friends could see us in our costumes. Linda Healey who dressed as Little Bo Peep, Jerry Cihak who dressed as a Hobo, and Donald Bowerman who dressed as Little Black Sambo, won the prizes from our room. We want to thank Mrs. Drapeau for being our judge. We want the Rotary Club to know that we enjoyed the cider and doughnuts. We also wish to thank the mothers who furnished other refreshments for our party. The children who were on the committee for our Halloween party were: Nancy Steuer, Ella Mae Tomley, Louise Walton, Linda Somerville, Harry Howard, Dale Cutler, Tommy Breakey, Michael Bennett, David Griffin, Peter Zoulek, Reva Hart and Marjann Pinney.

We are having mother help us fill in our interest inventory of the things we like to do.

Tuesday new room helpers were chosen.

Monday afternoon we helped Tommy Breakey celebrate his seventh birthday. Tommy's mother treated us to candy and apples. Thursday, Michael Bennett celebrated his seventh birthday. Michael's mother treated us to candy.

We enjoyed making birthday cards for Tommy and Michael. Sharyn Sinclair is sharing with us her new November Jack and Jill magazine.

We have taken down all of our October decorations and we are now ready to put up November's.

Fourth Grade — Jean Strehl

Friday was an exciting day in our fourth grade. The room was filled with witches, ghosts, tigers, skeletons and other weird visitors that visit on Halloween. For our Halloween party the boys and girls divided into committees. Decorations chairman, Judy Gokee; refreshments, Suzy Stinchcomb; clean-up, Connie Bennett; and entertainment, Peter Knudsen. The most original costumes were Stanley Bennett and Sharon Pinney. The prettiest were Connie Bennett and Donald Skop. Games and refreshments were enjoyed by all. We wish to thank all our friends for helping us to have such a nice party. Mrs. Scott visited our room.

Gerald Muma has moved to Charlevoix. We are going to miss him in our room. We hope he will like his new school.

We are all looking forward to voting in our room on Tuesday, Nov. 4. Some boys and girls from Mrs. Larsen's sixth grade came to our room and gave speeches on their candidates. They were very good and we wish to thank them.

In Geography we are studying about the early explorers of our continent. So far we have studied about Christopher Columbus, Magellan, John Cabot, Jacques Cartier and Samuel de Champlain.

Some of the boys and girls have made some very interesting posters for Book Week.

We are playing a new game at School. It is called "Keeping the Turkey". The turkey visits the room that is the quietest and does the best work for the day. David Halladay's row was the first to win the turkey.

Fourth Grade — Grace Gaimore

Hallowe'en was a very happy time in our room, partly because we made so many things ourselves to wear or carry in the parade. Harold Murray, Ronald Sulak and Duane Raymond each made a giraffe with the help of their parents

Mr. and Mrs. John Jansen celebrated their 35th wedding anniversary Saturday night in the parlor of the Christian Reformed Church. The children surprised them with the party, Mr. and Mrs. Fred VanStedum, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Jansen and Wilfred Jansen.

There was a short program and group singing and refreshments were served. A five tier wedding cake was served. On the cake it read Congratulations on our 35th wedding anniversary. They received many beautiful gifts.

Those present were Mrs. Wilma Cooper, Mr. and Mrs. George Drenth, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Cooper, Mr. and Mrs. G. P. Vander Ark, Mr. John Drenth, Rev. and Mrs. Beeve, Mr. and Mrs. Fred VanStedum and children, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Jansen and Wilfred Jansen all of Ellsworth.

Out of town guests were Mr. and Mrs. George Vischer of Newaygo, Mr. and Mrs. Hubert Larbone, Mrs. Rose Balnton, Mr. and Mrs. Gerrit Bergsma of Grand Rapids, Mr. and Mrs. Herman Drenth of East Jordan and Mr. and Mrs. Pote Timmer of Charlevoix.

and some of the other boys. Other children made masks, caps and wands with colored streamers. The most fun was the painting which we did here at school. Marching down town was also a lot of fun. We enjoyed the lunch the Rotarians served and wish to thank them and also the parents who furnished extra eats—pop corn, apples and candy.

We have been talking about writing stories which we have made up ourselves. This is one which Harold Murray wrote:

A DOG FOR BILLY

Billy wanted a dog for his birthday. His father said he would not get it. And his mother said she would not get it. He asked his uncle Bob and he said, "You will have to work for me."

Billy worked for his uncle Bob for six weeks. He made six dollars and bought his own dog.

Fifth Grade — Elizabeth Mosher

We enjoyed our Hallowe'en party very much. Many thanks to the Rotarians for their treat.

To date we have written 219 letters to state capitals for literature on the states. We have received many replies and more are coming daily. The material will help us when we study the states. It makes them seem more real. Some boys and girls will have nice individual collections.

We are going to register today and vote tomorrow in Mrs. Larsen's room. We have instruction ballots on our bulletin boards. We have a map of the United States ready with the numbers of electoral votes for each state marked on it. We are going to color the states red if they go Republican and blue if they go Democratic.

We are still working on our multiplication tables.

Fifth Grade — Sadie Liskum

We have been reviewing arithmetic facts which we studied other years. All but 8 of us know the 100 addition facts perfectly. 14 of us still must work to know all the subtraction facts. Monday we were tested in multiplication, and only Larry Gee and Bob Bulow were perfect.

We enjoy our weekly trip to the school library. Mr. Wade has added many grade school books to the library and we are making good use of them.

Michigan is still catching its breath today after the excitement of Tuesday's election.

Now comes a period when the crestfallen experts explain why their predictions were wrong, why the vote went the way it did. Other experts, who were more fortunate on their sooth-saying, will devote equal time and energy to explaining their success.

The public will be looking back on Tuesday's nationwide drama—but the winners in the great poll are looking ahead to January.

The public has been overfed on political speechmaking with the drums being thumped late into Monday night. John Q. and his Missus are glad to give their ears a rest for a while.

The politicians are equally happy for a period of rostrum silence. The defeated ones are licking their wounds and are in no mood for public speaking. The victorious ones have a lot of planning to do before taking over their elective offices next year.

Even newspapermen want a change of pace.

It's good to give newsprint and ink emphasis to the prospects for deer season instead of the Gallup poll. It's refreshing to concentrate on the Wolverines and the Spartans instead of the Dems and the GOPs.

So this column today is a breather, a compendium of miscellaneous Michiganiana absolutely guaranteed not to have any vital bearing upon the destiny of our nation.

Keeweenaw County, Michigan's northernmost area, had a total of only 70 sales tax returns filed for August this year. Wayne County, down in the opposite corner of the state, had 38,145.

Lowest number of returns filed by a lower Peninsula County was the 123 out of Kalkaska.

All told, 117,339 retailers paid sales tax in August for a total of $19,295 million.

If you found it confusing to choose between Proposals 2 and 3 in the polling booth, Tuesday, just hang on to your hats.

Things will be much more confusing if and when Michigan has a Constitutional convention.

Governmental theory is, at best, never a simple issue. It's bad enough when administered in a dose as small as we took Tuesday. When a whole Constitution is up for debate—there will be plenty a Michigander who'll seriously consider giving the two peninsulas back to the Chippewas.

The "Frankenmuth Plan" is spreading farther and farther from the town that chicken dinners made famous.

The plan sets up a game sanctuary in every section of Frankenmuth Township.

Farmers voluntarily post certain suitable areas of their farms and forego the right to hunt on that part of their own property.

The result is that hunting pressure is relieved on a local basis and game and birds are not driven far out of the area. Local conservation clubs police the plan with pressure of public opinion the only penalty. "In the past five years there hasn't been a single violation," says Clyde E. Rich, a veteran sportsman, conservationist and originator of the plan.

Have you checked your bank balance lately, Dad? Michigan retailers predict that the Christmas shopping season will start earlier than ever this year.

"We have to start our promotions in self defense," says an up-state merchant. "The big mail-order houses get their holiday catalogues out earlier every year and we have to protect our local business."

Remember not so many years ago when FDR moved up Thanksgiving so that the Yuletide shopping season could be a week longer?

Michigan ski-lift proprietors report that what used to be an off-season—Summer—has proved not so "off". They offered lift rides to warm-weather tourists who got an invigorating ride and a chance to see scenery they'd miss if they stuck to the highway. Skiing and Winter sports are expected to bring almost $25 million into Michigan cash registers this season. There will be over a quarter million ski enthusiasts visiting the state.

With the proposed Straits of Mackinac Bridge so close to reality that announcement of the actual start of construction is expected any week, Michigan will have another tourist attraction that should lure visitors from all over the country.

Michigan's younger cooks are already trying new recipes for cherry pies. Formal announcement of the annual state cherry pie baking contest isn't necessary to stir interest in this event which annually draws more and more young women between the ages of 15 and 20. Prizes this year will be more valuable than ever before.

"Want to rent a farm? Average cash rental in Michigan is $3.97 per acre.

So says the U. S. Bureau of the Census. The average rented farm is 73.8 acres and a total of 3,876 million Michigan acres are being rented.

A national columnist who pun-dits on the proper use of words now says residents of this state are properly known as Michiganians. So far at least most Wolverines call themselves Michiganders although Michiganites is becoming a more common term.

High school driver training programs pay off. Students trained in Michigan schools have a driving record at least four times better than those who learned to pilot the family chariot by trial and error.

Familiar headlines you can expect to see often before the Legislature convenes in January:

"FINANCIAL PROBLEMS PLAGUE LANSING"
Editors could save their printers' time by storing that type; it is the same before every legislative session.

Local governments, too, have their fiscal dilemmas. So watch for more action along the lines the City of Saginaw followed last year.

There an income-profits tax was passed that levied 1 percent on all payrolls in the city. One object was to tax the "daylight citizen", the person who lives in the suburbs, works in the city and gets all the benefits of municipal services without paying for them.

The tax was voided on a technicality of the ballot by the State Supreme Court.

Other cities, watching the case intently, can be expected to benefit from Saginaw's error as they lay plans for similar taxes.

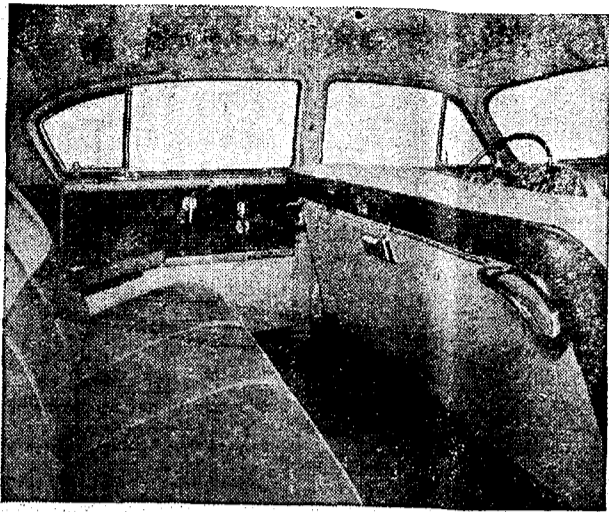

Michigan State College short courses are popular with young farmers.

More manure is returned to the farm from the loose housing barn than from the stanchion barn, according to Michigan State College specialists.

Lack of lime is still the chief cause of legume seeding failures report Michigan State College soil scientists.

In January, 1950, the ECA sent millions of dollars to France to buy wheat. But later the same year France sold $2,500,000 of wheat to Holland.

Shown is the rear passenger compartment of the 1953 Chrysler DeLuxe sedan which, like the whole Chrysler line, features completely new interiors in a wide choice of new colors, fabrics and vinyls with matching garnish moldings and carpets. Four two-tone upholstery combinations are available in the New Yorker DeLuxe.

In conclusion the Chief of Police said, "The privilege of owning a driver license is a serious thing. It carries with it the special responsibility of watching out for pedestrians. Any motorist who runs down a man on foot raises the question as to whether the motorist was a safe enough driver to have been given a driver's license."

The fellow who is willing to take one step at a time is the man who eventually reaches the top.

If you think you're going to be happy and prosperous by sitting back and letting the government take care of you—take a look at the American Indians!

PLANNING DEFINED

Planning has been defined as putting off until tomorrow what you have no intention of doing today.

WHERE WILL IT END?

Never before have Michigan fields and forests seen such invasions of hunters. Never before have our lakes and streams been so whipped with the cast of fishing lines. Each year brings a big jump in the sale of fishing and hunting licenses. Where will it end, and what effect will it have on fishing and hunting in Michigan Outdoors?

The answer, according to the experts, is less fish and game per person, while the total take remains about the same. This, however, presents a few problems in game and fish management. Naturally you might expect that 100 fishermen on a given lake will take twice as many fish as 50, providing their abilities are about equal, and the supply of fish remains adequate.

Supply Unstable

Eventually, however, the harvest will level off to a point where each of the anglers will have to be content with a smaller catch, because the supply is definitely not inexhaustible. The same will be true in the hunting field, and it is possible that before too many moons have passed we will have to take stock of the situation and reduce our bag limits on some fish and game. There's certainly no cause for alarm, nor should there be any great regret among true sportsmen when and if this happens. In the final analysis the meat we bring home is far less important than the wholesome, healthful experience of finding relaxation in Michigan Outdoors.

New Horizons

The process of making a living in modern America is a hectic one, draining energy at a high rate from the average man. If he's a sportsman he's discovered relief from the pressures of everyday life in his contact with the outdoors. He knows that a day on his favorite lake, or afield with dog and gun, erases the worries that beset him—strengthens him to do a better job in life. New horizons appear. New appreciations of nature at work belittle the petty annoyances of the workaday world.

No man ever spent a day fishing or hunting but what he was the better for it. And the killing of fish or game has little or nothing to do with this effect. So, in the years to come if we face the possibility of fewer fish in the creel—maybe one pheasant a day instead of two for the hunter, it isn't going to hurt most of us. We'll still have all of Michigan Outdoors—and there's plenty of that to go around!

FARM FACTS from your County Agricultural Agent

Ed. Rebman, Co. Agr'l Agent

Now is the time for farm woodlot owners to make practical plans to harvest timber crops from their woodlots, points out county agricultural agent Ed Rebman.

Farmers owning mature woodlots should cut an amount of timber each year about equal to the annual growth within the woods, advises Rebman. Income from logs and harvesting of material for farm building use can add considerably to farm property.

Lester E. Bell, extension forester at Michigan State College, points out that the proper and wise management of a woodlot insures continuous production over the years.

The county agricultural agents in Michigan stand ready to aid farmers and other land owners in developing proper cutting practices on their woodlands, says Agent Rebman. If the owner has mature hardwood trees, some form of selective cutting may be a desirable practice. If the trees are of the swamp species such as balsam, spruce or cedar, it may be necessary to clear out certain areas to avoid danger of wind throw, he cautions.

Science and research in forest practice by MSC specialists indicate different cutting practices are desirable for different forest types, Bell has advised Agent Rebman. If anyone has a forest cutting problem, Rebman invites him to consult on it. The county agent can point out ways and means to proceed in the harvest.

Mountain Goat

The mountain goat is living proof that American sportsmen are good sports, says the National Wildlife Federation. This Mable Old Man of the Mountain is a relatively easy target for modern high powered rifles with telescopic sights, yet there are nearly as many today as there were in early times. Modern hunters want hard-to-get trophies. Furthermore, outdoorsmen and mountaineers have developed a great admiration for the courage of the white goat. It never runs from sudden danger, but trots off with solemn dignity. Its bearing, white hair and chin whiskers command respect. It is not pugnacious, but will fight for a mate, and stand its ground to the death when need be to defend itself or its young. With dagger-like horns it has held its own against a pack of wolves, hunting dogs or even the ferocious grizzly bear. Mountain goats are comparatively abundant in British Columbia, and their territory extends south into Washington, Idaho, Montana, and north through the Yukon into Alaska. They dwell by choice high above timberline in a bleak land of scant vegetation, cutting winds, and the most dramatic scenery in our Hemisphere. Even in mid-winter they are loath to descend as other animals do to the valleys where food and shelter are plentiful. They survive on lichens, moss and alpine growth that can be uncovered among the wind-swept rocks. A thick coat of perpetually white wool, like fine cashmere is protection against the bitterest weather. White reflects the heat of summer sun and is camouflage during the long snow season. The nanny and billy goat look alike, both have horns about nine inches long. Although those of the female are more slender, the world's record head with 12 1/2 inch horns is that of a nanny. Early explorers often referred to the mountain goat as a small white buffalo and the resemblance is considerable. Like the bison its shoulders are high, head low, neck short and there is a beard of long hairs on the chin. But it is not a buffalo. In fact, it is not a goat. The neck of a true goat is rather long and head held high. Scientists tell us it actually is a goat-like antelope, like the chamois of Asia, having no close relatives in America. The goat stands 3 1/2 feet at the shoulder and weights up to 276 pounds. It mates in the fall and is probably monogamous. The kid, born six months after breeding, also is all white. It is only 13 1/2 inches tall, can stand 10 minutes after birth, jumps in 30 minutes and at one month is an able climber. Stories of harrowing climbs of the mountain goat are legion. It can outdo the cougar and even the nimble mountain sheep. Hunters tell of watching in rapt admiration as a goat, like a human fly on a skyscraper, works its way across what appears a sheer cliff. The men held their fire. Congratulations, says the National Wildlife Federation, to the sportsmanlike hunters who have spared this stout-hearted Old Man of the Mountains.

Air-Sac Disease New in Poultry

Charlevoix county broiler raisers should keep their eyes open for air-sac disease, a new poultry menace that is moving into the Midwest from the East, warns Ed Rebman, county agricultural agent.

Losses in the East were so heavy among broiler growers that five state agricultural experiment stations in the East have joined with the U. S. Department of Agriculture to conduct research. Rebman understands that work is being concentrated now where losses were heaviest.

So far there has not been any serious trouble in Michigan, advises Henrik J. Stafseth, head of the Michigan State College bacteriology department. First an Eastern problem in 1950, air-sac disease may rival Newcastle disease, a big threat about five years ago.

Good general sanitary practices are recommended by Stafseth against the disease, about which little is known so far. Strict flock insolation, keeping visitors out and separating hens and pullets all help. Symptoms are watery eyes, nasal discharge and gasping. Losses come from deaths but more from reduced gains in weight and poor carcasses, broiler raisers report.

Agent Rebman cautions broiler men to be careful in their marketing to prevent spread of the disease by crates, trucks and workers.

Amble over to Bob's Restaurant Tuesday for lunch and noticed a new sign "Left Ham Sandwich, 40¢... Right Ham Sandwich, 30¢." "Why the sign, Bob?" I asked. "Don't tell me you believe hogs scratch more with their right leg than with their left—so's the left ham is more tender?" "No," he says. "I don't take any stock in it. But, some people have ordered those 'left' sandwiches. When I explain to them that there's nothing to that fable, that the sign is just a business-getter, and I've only one price, they enjoy a regular, old fashioned, plain ham sandwich all the more!" From where I sit, stories like "left" ones are with us because some people get ideas into their head and hang onto them for dear life. It's like those who think an adult like myself hasn't the right to a glass of beer with my supper. I say let's keep our opinions free from being "sandwiched-in" by misinformation.

The Servicemens' LETTER

Hi Fellas:
John Vallance was in the office today. He just arrived from Germany last Saturday, Nov. 1st. It took him nine days by steamship from Bremerhaven to New York and they laid over 24 hours in England on the way. John is sure looking rugged and healthy. He says that he is sure glad to be out of the Service and a civilian again. He has no definite plans as yet other than doing a little hunting.

Another man is on his way home from Germany after having served his hitch over there. Ralph Scott writes, "It is about time I checked in and let you know that I am still alive. You can discontinue my paper for I am on my way home to the ZI. My hitch is up and thank God it is. I leave here the 6th of November which will be just exactly one year to the day. I have seen only one EJ man over here. He is Miles Prevost, who is with the 504th Ord Hq Co. about 87 miles from here. Well, Jake, I think I will say So Long for now and I'll be up to see you all."

Joe Hammond is home on leave from the USS Aucilla—and what do you know—he's wearing a FEZ. You know—one of those Turkish top knots. There's one thing for sure. It doesn't make Joe look a bit smaller. It gives him a gigantic, foreign look. You know, like something out of Aladdin's Lamp. (Don't get mad at me now, Joe, it's all in fun.)

We are temporarily discontinuing Brock Peacock's paper this week as Brock is on his way to the East via Camp Kilmer. He's not sure of his destination as yet but it may be Austria. Brock is on leave now until Nov. 9th. He has 14 months more in the service then he will be a happy civilian again.

My apologies to Dean McPherson. He has been A/2C for some time now.

Guy Vallance is another of the Navy men to make his 3rd Class rating. He is MM-3 now.

Ed Drapeau and Forest Muma. Do you know what became of Walt Moblo. His papers are being returned from Amarillo marked unclaimed.

Here is a letter from Jim Pollitt up on the front lines over in Korea. "Hi Jake—it is about time I got a few lines off to you. I am with the 75th FA over here in Korea but for the last two weeks I have been up on the front lines with an outfit called the 2nd Rocket. They have Rockets and also 105 Howitzers. We were helping them while they were up firing on White Horse Hill. We were hit just about every night we were up there. They were hitting us with 76 Mortars. But everything is OK now as we are back with our own outfit. I am a gunner on a 155 and it is about the best job in the gun section. Do you have Jim Rusnell's address yet and if when you do get it will you put it in the paper so on one of my days off I can get over and see him."

"There isn't much to write about over here. We haven't been doing much except for the last two weeks that we were up front. Then we fired for four days and three nights without any sleep. Some of us got about 6 hours sleep during that time. That is about all we have done."

"Someone just called fire mission so I better get out there and give them a hand."

Thanks for the letter, Jim. Rusnell's address is: Btry "C", 158 FA Bn, APO 86. Pollitt's address is Btry "C", 75th FA Bn, APO 801. You men are both up on the front lines but I do not know your positions. I hope you can get together.

The Air Mail men have the edge in news this week. Here's a letter from Bob Mosher over in England. "Just a few lines to let you know I'm still getting my paper and enjoying it. Since my last letter to you I got a stripe—but for all the blood I lost sewing it on I know for sure I'll never be a tailor."

"I've been on Temporary Duty with the 804th Engineers at Greenham Common Air Base. It's about 30 miles from Brize, Norton. There are five of us down here trying to keep their equipment going so they won't have to transport it back to Brize for repairs. We have been here since the 22nd of August and are being relieved on the 1st of Nov. so I'll be back with the boys soon. We are staying in squad tents. They're not too bad as they have oil heat."

"It's been raining for three weeks and they say it will all winter. I sure wish my FRIENDS and NEIGHBORS were here to enjoy this "Smashing" English weather. Ha, Ha."

"It sure seems good to be on the last year. I haven't seen Ken as yet as I've been kept quite busy here. Maybe we will be on the same boat going home as we came in together so we should get out the same, I hope. D-Day, Sept. 3, 1953. Hot Dog!"

Thanks for the letter, Bob, and congrats on that bloody stripe.

Attention all you men contemplating a trip through Camp Stoneman, California, and Yokohama, Japan. We have a cook from EJ in the Port reception group in Yokohama. His address is: Pvt. James McLaughlin, RA 16 404 087, 489th Hq Co, 2nd T Major Port, c/o PM, San Francisco, Calif. Jim says to tell all you men that when you get in Yokohama to look him up and he'll guarantee you a steak. Hot off the griddle.

Here's a man who may be able to take Jim up on that offer. Pvt. Merle J. Wilson, US 55 272 236, Prov Co, 1958, APO 613, c/o PM, San Francisco, Calif., is on his way over that direction. Jack left EJ on September 30th and has just reported a mailing address. He must be getting pretty close to Japan right now.

After disappearing for a couple of weeks Claude Crandall has written from Grand Rapids, Mich., and informs us that he has re-enlisted for three more years as of Oct. 13th. He was at Fort Custer for 5 days and now is off on 14 days furlough. He is going over to Germany on his return to duty and hopes to see his brother, Gerald, over there.

A note from the Fleet Home Town News Center at Great Lakes, Ill., dated Oct. 17, 1952, informs us that: "William J. Schliska, fireman, USN is serving aboard the cargo ship USS Altair, operating with the Atlantic Fleet Service Force, out of her home port, Norfolk, Virginia. The Altair, one of the Navy's newer converted cargo type vessels, was commissioned in January at Baltimore, Maryland." You men down at Norfolk, keep an eye out for the USS Altair. You'll find Bill in "E" Division.

Over on the other Ocean Bob Anderson is heading for the States from Hawaii just about now. Here's what he writes, "It's been a long time but here I am with a few lines to let you know I'm still alive and kicking. I've been keeping pretty good track of the boys through the paper and they sure are getting around. Sounds like all the guys from home are in the service, including Bill, whom I thought would wait for the draft to catch him.

"We have been here two months now and finally completed our yard period. While in the yards they have given our ship a complete overhaul and things sure run a lot smoother. Of course there are still a few items to be ironed out but that won't take very long."

"About the only time I have been going on liberty is on weekends when we have a little time to relax without thinking about the ship. We have been going swimming, fishing, playing ball and many other things. I'm glad it's over though because I'm plenty ready for the states and the good times I had before we came here. This may be a nice place but it's not for me. All the places a guy would like to go cost so darn much a common person just hasn't a chance. I've taken a few pictures of this place and as far as I care that is as good a memory as I want of it."

"We are due to head for the States next week sometime so you can discontinue the AM service which has been a great service while over here. We are supposed to get in Diego around the tenth and the time just can't go fast enough for me. Say "Hello" to all the boys for me. Take it easy and I'll drop you a few more lines when we reach the states."

That's good news you are headed for the states, Bob. Sounds as though you may be home for Christmas. Say, Dave Wade, as you probably know by now, wasn't long in El Toro. He is at present at home here and will be heading Nevada way soon for some preparatory training prior to shipping overseas. However, Don Olson and Joe Chanda, who are at present home on leave, are due to head for Camp Stoneman on or around the 13th of November and they told me today that they were planning on looking you up in Diego. I see you've got that EN3 tacked to your name now. Must be you made your 3rd.

Speaking of Don Olson and Joe Chanda—Don thinks he is due to go out to the place you just came from—Hawaii. Joe is quite sure that he will end up in Japan. He is an MP and he has heard that they are not using many MPs in Korea.

Dick Misner will probably wonder how I found out but I've got a note here that says that Dick is getting married to a Miss Dorothy Joan Mergestik on Nov. 18th at 4 o'clock. The marriage is to take place in the Catholic Chapel on Mitchel Air Force Base, Long Island, New York. Here's wishing you lots of happiness, Dick.

We now have a foursome down at Lackland AFB in Texas. A/B

they take in the after duty sights together quite often. Dale is the newcomer in Lackland. His address is: A/B Dale A. Bolser, AF-SN 16 426 659, 3708 Trng Sqd, Flt 1154, Lackland AFB, Texas.

Here's a little old saying that they passed on to me when I was in the Army that seemed quite appropriate at that time. How does it fit you new recruits now? It goes like this—and has reference to conduct around Army camps—
If it moves—Salute it!
If it doesn't move—Pick it up!
If you can't pick it up—Paint it!

Do you ever feel like that men? Or is it really a new Army?

Last but not least for tonight is the following letter from Carl Young, who is now on his way home from ETO. "Many pardons for not writing at the time I sent the change of address, but my family affairs have me pretty busy. Getting married 2 more times and all, you know. I bet that I'm the only East Jordan man that has gotten married 3 times and every time to the same woman! My wife is German and a wonderful housekeeper. Her cooking is something a man dreams about. No kidding, Jake, she is really a wonderful person. We are coming to the states and you can stop the paper until further notice after the end of October. I have really enjoyed the paper very much and my wife joins me in expressing our thanks to the Community Service Club of EJ for their contribution in keeping our morale to the highest. I read that brother Herschel has taken to movie taking. Well, he is not alone there in the Young brothers. I myself own two movie cameras plus a Kodak with flash and a German 35mm. My best is a Revere B63 that is a honey. Magazine load and a triple lens mounting turret."

"I hope to be in EJ for deer hunting season and if I return to the states by plane, as I expect to, I will have plenty of opportunity to try my German Mauser rifle on a deer in EJ vicinity and still have time to stop in at the Postoffice and shoot the bull with you. I also expect to travel with my photo album in my car to show off my pictures of my travels. So, if a traveling salesman selling insurance for Mutual of Omaha walks into the Postoffice and asks for Jason Snyder, that will probably be me."

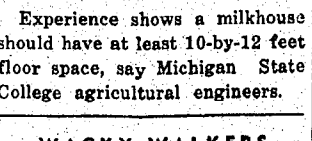

"I am glad that brother Hersh has taken up photography because it is a wonderful hobby. My wife and I have many delightful hours looking at our pictures and we are expecting to be able to take pictures of the little one which is coming in March."

"Well, Jake, I can only say that I have enjoyed to the limit my 42 months spent over here. I acquired many wonderful friends and relatives and I hope to return for a visit someday. Well, Jake, 1300 hours and MRU Roster to get out yet today. By the way, I talked to Murray Nelson on the phone while in Germany last week but didn't get time to see him."

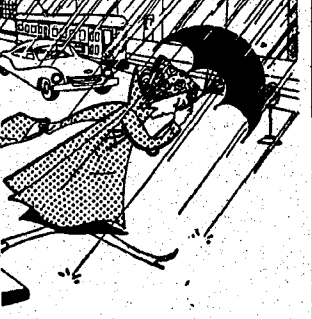

That was a fine letter from Carl and we will all be looking forward to seeing him.

So Long,
"Jake" Snyder

A double attraction was held Saturday evening when Barney Adair brought his top bowlers—both men and women—to meet two E. J. teams.

The E. J. men rolled 2668 for total pins and Potosky 2475. Spin Cihak had high series with 580 for E. J. and H. Meyers had 523 for Potosky.

The E. J. Ladies came through to win total pins after losing the first and second games—so both Potosky teams went home defeated. Betty Jo Strehl was high for the home team with 502 and Min Burns, Potosky, had 509.

Improve Game Habitat

Success of the conservation department-developed scalping machine in forest planting cues game areas to test its practicality for wildlife habitat work in state game areas. The rugged scalper, which rips aside sod at spaced intervals instead of creating conventional long planting furrows, is shown getting a trial at the Rose Lake wildlife experiment station near Lansing. Planting of pine and shrub mixture will follow.

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to express our sincere thanks for all the kindnesses extended to us at the time of the death of our son and brother. We especially wish to thank the pallbearers, Rev. Cornett, the Ladies Auxiliary, the LaCroix's, and all who have sent cards, letters, and the beautiful flowers.

Hunter Is Usually Victim of Own Gun Or One in His Party

The hunter's greatest danger is his own gun or the guns of members of his party. All 10 victims in fatal small game hunting accidents last year shot themselves or were shot by members of their own party. Of the 13 deer season fatalities, eight either killed themselves or were killed by members of their own party.

RUMMAGE SALE

Once a month a Rummage Sale will be held at the Seventh-day Adventist Church. In November it will be held Wednesday the 19th and Thursday, the 20th. The proceeds of these sales will go toward the fund being raised to build a room at the back of the church to house the Health & Welfare Center. adv 45-1
