FJHS Basketball Squad Treated to Chicken Supper

A bountiful Chicken Supper was served the East Jordan High School Basketball Squad, Coaches and Cheerleaders at Jenny's Lunch (formerly Jan's) last Monday, March 31.

The supper was put on by Mr. and Mrs. Orval Davis, assisted by Mrs. Milly Swafford and Mrs. Juanita Sommerville.

It was reported—the boys—all have good appetites.

The City Extension Club No. 1 will meet with Mrs. Hilda Cook Friday, April 10th at 10:00 a. m. Bring your sack lunch. Household hints for roll call.

Mr. Basil Cummins, Insurance Agent executive, directs the American Cancer Society's 1953 crusade here, it was announced here today. Mr. Cummins will be chairman of the joint fund-raising and educational campaign in Charlevoix County which opens April 1st. The goal for this year is $1400. In 1952 contributors gave a total of $1320.00 in this county. The national figure for 1953 is $18,000,000, or an increase of $2,000,000 over last year's goal. However, a total of nearly $16,000,000 was collected in 1952.

"We hope to be able to contribute our full share towards this goal," Mr. Cummins said. Naturally, we must raise our sights considerably over last year's contributions to do so.

"This can be done either by more gifts or larger donations," the chairman said. "It is my sincere hope that both will ensue."

"The task of directing the drive here, I feel, carries a heavy responsibility. The size of our research program and the extent of service to patients and of our educational activity are governed by funds available. The more money raised, the more lives saved."

"When someone asks you to make your donation a little larger this year, I hope you will think of this. In the meantime there are a great many details to complete before the campaign can be launched, and I will need the help of many people in this community."

"In the near future we will be asking for volunteers to help in the crusade. I know the response will be generous and prompt."

Methodist Church To Hold Special Easter Service

The Methodist Church will have three separate worship periods on Easter. The main worship service will begin at 10:00 a. m. with an Easter Processional. The new class of membership candidates will be received following the Processional. The choir under the direction of Mrs. Adolph Drapeau will sing an Easter Alleluia Anthem preceding the Easter Message of the Pastor, Rev. Robert H. Moore.

At 9:00 o'clock a. m. the Pastor will perform Baptismal Rites for infants and adults, at 9:15 a. m. he will celebrate Easter Holy Communion, which will be concluded by 9:45, so that all present may begin their private devotion and listen to the organ meditations played by Fred Stecker.

East Jordan High School will have a tennis team for the first time in over a decade this spring. Not since the early 1940's have the "Red Devils" competed on the tennis courts.

Although short on experience, the Jordanites will be long on numbers as nineteen hopefuls reported for initial workouts under Coach Max Damoth on Monday afternoon of this week. The following boys make up the present squad:

FARM FACTS from your County

Agricultural Agent
Ed. Rebmam, Co. Agr'l Agent

Orchardists usually get best gains from spring use of nitrogen fertilizers, reminds E. D. Longenecker, Michigan State College extension specialist in soil sciences.

He has asked Ed Rebmam, Charlevoix Co. agr'l agent, to caution orchardmen against wasting fertilizer elements when and where they are not needed. The county agricultural agent, located at Boyne City, has information on which to base additional advice, notes Longenecker. Another good source of advice is the district horticultural agent, Clarence Mullett, at Traverse City, suggests Longenecker.

Lime, phosphorus, potassium and minor elements may not be needed, except for cover crops and sod growth. The money saved can be put into nitrogen.

Mulching of trees on soils subject to drought or in sod will be very beneficial, suggests the MSC soil scientist. Nitrogen rates should be boosted in orchards planted in sod or mulched with sawdust. A 50 to 100 per cent increase is frequently used, but excessive amounts of nitrogen can increase winter injury chances.

The amount of fertilizer depends on growth and production; the over-vigorous plants need less; the poor growing plants need more, plus more pruning and mulching. Spring applications of fertilizer are preferred for nitrogen and fall applications for phosphorus, potassium and lime. Fall nitrogen applications are more successful on apples than on other fruits and better on heavy than light soils.

Fertilize cover crops in orchards, vineyards and small fruits as suggested for a small grain or pasture crop, Longenecker advises. Use no fertilizer in tree holes at planting time, he says.

Ammonium nitrate or equivalent nitrate of soda or sulfate of ammonia is recommended by Longenecker for apples, peaches, cherries, pears, plums, grapes, currant, gooseberries and raspberries.

Here are some specific fruit crop suggestions:
Apples — No fertilizer at planting, except on light soils, and none the first year. Use a fourth to a third of a pound per tree for each year of orchard age up to five to seven pounds.

Peaches — Use 1 to 2 ounces first year trees are planted and a third to a half pound per tree per year until a 2 to 3 1/2 pound rate is reached.

Cherries, pears and plums — Use 1 to 2 ounces first year and then a fourth to a third ounce per tree per year up to 1 1/2 to 3 lbs.

Grapes — Use 1 to 2 ounces first year and then a fourth to a half ounce per vine according to cane vigor.

Currants and gooseberries — Use 2 to 4 ounces per bush or 150 to 250 pounds per acre.

Raspberries — Use 5 to 10 lbs. per feet of row or 150 to 300 lbs. They should have 500 to 1,000 per acre.

Strawberries require a different treatment, notes Longenecker. They should have 500 to 1,000 pounds per acre of superphosphate, or 4-16-4, in the spring when preparing soil for planting. They should be side-dressed with 200 pounds of ammonium sulfate per acre two weeks after planting; repeat this process August 1. Side-dress weak beds in spring of fruiting year with 100 pounds per acre, he notes, but he warns that spring applications on vigorous beds have caused serious loss of fruit. Put on 500 to 1,000 pounds of 10-6-4 or 4-16-4 per acre soon after the harvest for the second and third crop. Care is needed in summer applications against burning of leaves. Soils high in organic matter and fertility may need no commercial fertilizer. Soils vary considerably — consult your local agent on lime, phosphorus, potash.

Farmers with a lot of headaches around harvest time might save themselves some trouble if they would start thinking about forced air grain drying — and do something about it now.

This is the word given by Ed Rebmam, Charlevoix county agr'l agent, who points out that farmers can cure a lot of their grain moisture problems with dryers, and with a minimum of cost too.

Boy Scout Board Met

Members of the Scenic Trails Council Executive Board and friends will meet on Monday evening April 13, at the Park Place Hotel in Traverse City for their bi-monthly Board meeting. The meeting is called by Clair Martin of Manistee, Council President to take up emergency business being necessitated by the intensified program of the Council during the coming months.

It is expected that the leadership of the Jamboree Contingent going to California this summer will be present to be introduced to the Board. It is also expected that an official good-by will be extended to A. C. Rehm of Petoskey, District Field Scout Executive who has resigned from professional Scouting to enter private business. Mr. Rehm leaves the employee of the Council on April 1st. Attention to the possible successor to Mr. Rehm will be on the agenda of this meeting.

Also appearing on the program will be Mr. Gary Arnold of Traverse City for the Annual Council meeting to be held on May 4th. A preliminary financial outlook for next year's operation as well as a report on the first six months of the Council fiscal year will be heard.

One of the main topics of the program will be the attention given to the Visual Education Department of the Scenic Trails council and the need for additional supplies and a renovation of existing supplies in the council. The council owns some $3,000 worth of visual education films and equipment which are constantly on the go from troop to troop and being used in the training program. Also on the program will be Mr. Harvey Bays of Traverse City and Harry Watson of East Jordan, Co-Chairman of the Council Jamboree to be staged in East Jordan on May 22, 23 and 24th. Attention to Summer Camp plans, canoe trip plans, etc., also will be gone over at this meeting.

Rebmam said that farmers are faced with the problem every summer of when-to-harvest grain. If it is harvested too early it will have a high moisture content and will not bring good prices. If harvested too late the grain will shatter or go down in the field.

With grain dryers, Rebmam said, farmers can harvest grain plenty early and reduce moisture content mechanically for good market prices.

"To invest in a grain dryer a farmer must have bins that are in good condition, put out an initial investment for equipment and adjust his harvest season to use the dryer to best advantage," Rebmam said. Equipment for a dryer includes a storage bin with air ducts, a fan and a power unit. Many grain bins can be remodeled into a suitable dryer system.

Monday Is Election Day

Monday is election day in East Jordan and the surrounding Townships. In East Jordan voters will be "treated" to six different ballots, the biennial spring ballot, non-partisan ballot, mayor and alderman ballot, supervisor and constable ballot, liquor by the glass ballot and closing a portion of Spring Street ballot.

The office of Mayor being contested for by Tom Bussler and Chris Taylor seems to hold the spotlight for this election.

Taylor is a newcomer to the political field. Bussler has had 22 years experience on the City Council as alderman from the first ward, and much of his effort has been directed towards the operation of the City of East Jordan on a sound financial basis. He has constantly fought to see the taxpayers money spent to the best advantage.

The issue of closing the north 200 feet of Spring Street for building purposes for the East Jordan Iron Works, has met with little opposition. The majority of East Jordan businesses using this portion of the street all say, "If it means more business for East Jordan we're all for it."

Fish Food Experiments

Conservation department fish men are running a series of tests to determine the best and most economical food to use in state fish hatcheries. These dietary experiments are being carried on at Oden, Marquette and Hastings hatcheries. Careful record of weight changes and development of fish are kept as the experiments progress. Ed Grassl, fish biologist, here weighs a tub of fingerling trout being fed a diet of dried food prepared in pellet form.

Monday Is Election Day

Twenty-six track and field athletes reported for opening workouts under Coach Gayle Saxton at the high school Monday afternoon. Lettermen on hand were: Keith Evans, 440 yd. dash; Sam Milstein, dashes, relay and broad jump; James Weisler, mile run and shot put; Warren Frank, pole vault and dashes; Robert Romback, dashes and relay; Richard Freeman, half mile and shot put.

Chief concern to Coach Saxton is the task of shaping up an infield. A large number of boys are battling for infield berths but all are totally inexperienced.

The 1953 baseball schedule for the "Red Devils" is as follows; Mon., Apr. 20 — Boyne City, here Thurs., Apr. 23 — Mancelona, here Mon., Apr. 27 — Pellston, here Thurs., Apr. 30 — Boyne City, here Mon., May 4 — Pellston, here Thurs., May 7 — Mancelona, here Mon., May 11 — Gaylord, here Mon., May 18 — Gaylord, here

Jordan River Sportsman's Club

The next meeting of the Sportsman's Club will be held next Wednesday, April 8, at the Legion Hall.

There will be entertainment in the form of movies after the business of selecting new officers for the year.

Due to a conflict of dates, our last meeting was held with only five members present. The problem discussed was: "What can we do to have a more active membership?"

Certainly the city of East Jordan should have men in it who are interested in preserving what remains of what was once a club of active well-informed and conscientious membership.

The drive for new and old members is under way. Let's support the club. Don't forget the date, Wednesday, April, 8th, Legion Hall, at 8:00 p. m.

A-1c Ernest Pinney, 21, Laid to Rest Last Saturday

Funeral services for A-1c Ernest H. Pinney were held at 2:00 p. m., Saturday, March 28, 1953, from the Methodist Church, conducted by Rev. Robt. Moore and Chaplain Sprout of the Wurt Smith Air Force Base at Osceola.

After a lapse of one year, East Jordan High School will again field a baseball team this spring and will compete with Mancelona, Boyne City, Gaylord, and Pellston in conference competition. With but four conference teams competing last spring, Boyne City, Gaylord, and Mancelona finished in a three way tie for the conference title.

Thirty candidates, including three lettermen reported for opening drills under Coach Saxton on Monday of this last week.

Sam Milstein, Keith Evans, and Clinton Clark are the only letter winners that remain from the 1951 conference champions. Evans is slated to handle the major share of the mound duties and when not on the hill will play third base. Clark, an infielder two years ago, is slated to be one of the receivers. Milstein, a lefthander, is the top first base candidate.

Other battery candidates include Alan Sommerville, Robert Romback, and Robert Danforth, pitcher; Larry Chanda and Floyd Cutler, catchers.

Richard Freeman, who saw some service in the outfield two years ago, heads a long list of outfield prospects.

Chief concern to Coach Saxton is the task of shaping up an infield. A large number of boys are battling for infield berths but all are totally inexperienced.

SMALL GAME HUNTERS RETURN LICENSE STUBS

Small game hunters are again asked to return their license stubs to the game division of the conservation department here.

To date this year, only about five percent of small game stubs have been returned; at this date in 1951, hunters had returned about eight percent of license stubs. Game men consider the longer 1952-53 seasons one reason hunters are slow in returning stubs this year.

There are only two ways to handle women but unfortunately nobody knows what they are.

CONSERVATION DEPT. SPRING COUNT OF DEER APRIL 6-25

The spring count of Michigan's deer and grouse by rural mail carriers will start early in April this year, a week earlier than usual because of recent mild weather, the conservation department reports.

More than 450 rural and star route carriers will take part in the count, recording the numbers of deer and grouse seen as they drive their mail routes. A total of 126 carriers will watch upper peninsula back roads; 327 will work northern lower peninsula byways.

The northern lower peninsula count will run April 6-25. Counts in the upper peninsula will be a week later, because of weather, and will run April 13-May 2.

Because of the longer grouse season last fall and the special 3 day any deer season, the counts will have special significance for conservationists. This year's counts also will be used in comparisons with the spring mail carrier counts of 1952.

Last year the mailmen counted for only two weeks. This year's three-week period was arranged to give a better average "carrier-day" result and make the poll correspondingly more accurate.

Cusino wildlife station workers will coordinate the upper peninsula count, and the Houghton Lake experiment station will tie together lower peninsula results.

SOME SMELT RUNS NOW STARTING

The first smelt run, reported last week from the northern lower peninsula, came four days ahead of the 1951-52 average starting date for the first runs, the conservation department reports.

Also, perch were reported running fair to good in the Pine River north of Standish in the Saginaw Bay area, again early for the annual runs.

If the early smelt movement is any indication, the fish may be expected to swarm into northern streams during the first weeks of April.

In the last two years, the first run has started March 30 and the final run ended May 9, depending on stream location.

Fisheries workers expect 1953 to be a record year for smelt, with Great Lakes' populations reported at an all time high.

SEE COLOR PHOTOS of the YOUNG EISENHOWERS

Meet the young Eisenhowers in Sunday's (April 5) issue Detroit Sunday Times. See exclusive The American Weekly with this photos of Major John Eisenhower, his wife Barbara, and their three children. Read why John and Barbara are reluctant to have their children brought up in the White House. Get Sunday's Detroit Times.

Serious problems already facing members of the legislature concerning deficits, new taxes, reapportionment and many lesser questions, leave little time for them to be concerned about Monday's election. Unfortunately, their feelings are reflected by many of their constituents. Except where local matters like bond issues, or races for city positions make hot contests, light balloting is predicted.

Intense attention is being paid the election, however, by Charles M. Ziegler, who is a candidate for another term as Road Commissioner. The campaign for this position showed activity when his Democratic opponent, Eugene I. VanAntwerp, charged that Mr. Ziegler, "through failure to take full advantage of matching federal aid, lost Michigan $9 million in road building funds."

Mr. Ziegler lost no time in securing a letter from the Bureau of Public Roads stating that Michigan's Road Commission had utilized every penny of federal money. It ended with the sentence, "Michigan's record of taking up federal aid allotments has been most excellent."

Future state elections will be directly affected by reapportionment provisions that are finally approved. Senators and representatives approach the problem with the same attitude most people feel while awaiting a visit to the dentist. They know it must be done; that it will cause some discomfort, that in the long run, it's all for the

for the best. But they can't be anxious about it either.

Michigan voters approved a measure last fall which requires the legislature to rearrange its system of electing members to conform nearly to the population distribution in the state. If the legislature fails to take this action the law specifies that the Board of Canvassers, which consists of the secretary of state, the treasurer and the state land office commissioner, shall draw the redistricting lines.

A swing in power from rural to city legislators will follow the reapportionment. A change in the status quo is often disturbing but when rural lawmakers must arrange for the transfer of majority to city areas, it's like sending a boy for a switch to beat him.

The new setup will provide additional members for three Detroit area counties in the house, while the Upper Peninsula, northern half of the lower peninsula and the city of Saginaw will lose one each. Little can be done about the increases; the wrestling matches concern how the areas losing a representative shall be realigned.

Parts of the districts Kenneth O. Trucks (R. Baldwin) and Harry B. Werner (R. Leroy) might be merged as would the areas represented by Einer E. Erlandsen (D. Escanaba) and John F. Wood (R. Mantistigue). Those men would face each other to see which would remain. Rep. Clarence F. Graebner and Thomas M. Burns, both Saginaw Republicans, also may battle for the one seat left to the city.

Wayne County, would gain 11, from 27 to 38 representatives; Oakland and Macomb each gain one, raising their total to five and three. Other counties having more than one representative are: Kent, 5; Genesee 4; Ingham 3; Berrien Calhoun, Jackson, Kalamazoo, Saginaw, Muskegon and Washtenaw, two each.

Total number of representatives is 110; of senators, 34, increased from 32. Six urban counties can control

Char. Co. Republican Women's Club Met At Walloon Lake

The Charlevoix County Republican Women's Club attended a luncheon at the Women's Guild Home, Walloon Lake, Saturday, with 60 members and guests present. Each member brought a High School girl as a guest.

The meeting was directed by President Mrs. Wanda Hill. The principal speakers were Atty. Louis Berry of Cheboygan, and Arthur K. Rouse of Boyne City.

The house with 58 votes. They are Wayne, Oakland, Macomb, Kent, Washtenaw and Genesee. Wayne, alone, with its 38 votes could prevent immediate effect of any measure, since a two-thirds vote of the chamber would be 74. Rural lawmakers could stop immediate effect but not prevent passage ultimate passage of a bill.

No tax decision during this session, is the guess of some legislators. Further, there is a growing suspicion that Governor Williams' corporate income tax which is being pushed hard by Walter L. Nill (D Muskegon) may slip into law if the Republicans can't get together on a tax program. And so far they haven't. If the legislature should fail to come up with a solution, Gov. Williams would then be forced to call them back for special session. It is then that his bill might become law. There are indications, say observers, that once the election is over, the house will pass both the corporate income tax and House Leader Wade Van Valkenberg's (R Kalamazoo) business profits tax. The senate, faced with both of these measures, can make the decision to accept the Democratic or Republican sponsored bill. If senators cannot agree, the special session may come about.

Michigan has more railroads than any of 11 leading foreign countries. Figures show that 6,954 miles of railroads in the state keep 38,900 workmen busy earning $124 million. Taxes paid by the state's railroads, contribute more to education than any other state industry — enough into the state's primary school fund each year to equal the cost of a year for 117, 234 of the state's children.

Legion Auxiliary Honor Winning Membership-team

The American Legion Auxiliary Unit No. 227 held a pot luck supper in honor of the winning membership team at the Legion Home, Tuesday, March 24.

The attendance was not too large but everyone had a fine meal which was served buffet style. Following the supper, Lillian Bennett, the captain of the winning team lead a grand march around the hall, with Mary Lou Breakney, the co-captain of the losing team as her escort. Lillian was seated on a throne and crowned the winner, a cape of blue and gold was placed on her shoulders, she was told she must wear her regal robe for the rest of the evening. After the crowning ceremony games were played and a spelling bee held, much to the embarrassment of many of the girls at the simple words that stumped them. Everyone had a very enjoyable evening and agreed that we should have more such doings.

Next Auxiliary meeting will be Tuesday, April 14. If you have not already turned in your Mother's Day Hankie, be sure and do it at once as these Hankies must be in by April 15 if they are to reach the hospitals in time.

Looking Backward...

APRIL 5, 1913

East Jordan sustained one of the heaviest property losses in years Thursday morning when the store building and general merchandise stock belonging to Fred E. Boosinger was completely destroyed by fire, and the brick wall of the Empey Block adjoining caved in, destroying a large amount of valuable furniture. After the building had collapsed, a couple of walls were left standing and the firemen proceeded to over throw them to prevent accidents, the wall adjoining evidently weakening the Empey wall, which partially caved in throwing brick and mortar over a portion of the most valuable stock of furniture and exposing the store to the smoke and water. Empey Bros. loss will amount to at least $1,000; insured. The Odd Fellows, who had their lodge rooms over Boosinger's Store sustained considerable loss in lodge equipment, etc., which was uninsured. Mr. Boosinger had about $23,000 worth of merchandise in stock, and building which he owned, was valued at $5,000. Both of these were totally destroyed. On the insurance of $4,500 and the stock is partially covered. Mr. Boosinger has been in business in our city for over a quarter of a century and it is safe to assume that the man who invented "Quality First of All, Our Motto" will again be in the merchandising business in our city in the not distant future.

Farmers Cautioned About Buying Untagged Seed

Charles A. Stahl, State Seed Analyst, Michigan Department of Agriculture, reports seed inspection shows that many weed seeds may be disseminated in the state by buying untagged and untagged farm seeds. He states, according to Michigan Seed Law, Act 314 of P. A. 1923 as amended, that the analysis tag on each package must show the commonly accepted names of the seed, approximate percentage by weight of other agricultural seeds than those required to be named on the label, and the name of each kind of seeds of the secondary noxious weeds if present in excess of the specified amount in the Seed Law. All tags on seed offered for sale must also show the approximate percentage of germination and date tested and cannot be more than nine months old. If it is the seed of red clover, alfalfa, soy bean or field corn, the tag must show, too, the state where grown and the name and address of the person who labeled the seed or who sells or offers the seed for sale.

No seed may be sold if it contains any primary noxious weed seeds, namely, Quack grass, Canada Thistle, Bindweed, Perennial Sow Thistle, White Top, Russian Knapweed, and Leafy Spurge.

The state seed law provides for the State Seed Laboratory so that farmers and seedsmen may get their seed tested. Farmers wishing to have official tests made of their seeds should send their samples to the Seed Division, Michigan Department of Agriculture, Lewis Cass Building, Lansing, as soon as possible in order to meet spring planting deadline. The Seed Division, Bureau of Agriculture, still has its laboratory at the Quonset Village at Michigan State College.

MARCH 30, 1923

Northern Michigan was again visited this week by a blockading snow storm accompanied by the coldest weather in recent history. Sunday night the mercury dropped to twenty below zero in East Jordan. Late Tuesday afternoon a heavy wind and snow storm came out of the north-west and by Wednesday morning the railroads in Northern Michigan, already badly hemmed in with high banks were completely blockaded. The East Jordan Southern Railroad has had little difficulty in keeping their lines to Bellaire open but all three trunk lines north, the P. M., M. C., and G. R. and I. R. R. were completely snowed in Wednesday. The East Jordan branch of the M. C. R. R. has been among those badly blockaded, the last train over that system being run two weeks ago. Efforts were made to open the line and had succeeded in getting their snowplow two miles this side of Alba when snow plow and locomotives were piled up in a bad wreck. Roads from East Jordan to Charlevoix and Boyne City are passable for sleighs, although in pretty bad condition. Among those storm-bound here, Wednesday, were several traveling men, and the Alma College Glee Club who were forced to cancel their Petoskey date for that evening.

Mrs. Phobe Wolverton, aged 80 years, passed away at her home in Echo township, Wednesday, March 28th.

About thirty friends tendered Mr. and Mrs. Jos. G. Ekstrom a pleasant surprise party at their home on Main St. Monday evening. The occasion was Mr. and Mrs. Ekstrom's twenty-first wedding Anniversary, and the guests left a valuable souvenir of the occasion.

MARCH 31, 1933.

While enroute to Gaylord last Friday forenoon, an auto driven by John Woodcock skidded near Elmira, striking a load of logs and seriously injuring the occupants consisting of Mr. Woodcock, Mrs. Ben Smatts, Miss Lila Danforth and Mrs. Frank Shepard. They were taken to the Gaylord hospital where Mrs. Smatts remained unconscious for some time. Later x-rays were taken and it was found that in addition to several minor injuries, Mrs. Smatts had suffered several ribs being torn from her vertebra. At present she is in the hospital there and is reported convalescing. Mr. Woodcock and Mrs. Shepard were the least injured, returned home after the accident. Miss Danforth suffered a fractured collar bone and returned to her home here first of the week.

Howard and Harold Gay of Mantion have been visiting at the home of their sister, Mrs. Vesta Cihak.

Mrs. John Lutz of Mancelona passed away March 24; at Ann Arbor. Mrs. Lutz was formerly Miss Genevieve Senecal and for some time conducted a store of ladies furnishings on State St. in East Jordan.

BY ED LEHRBASS

The opinions expressed by Ed Lehrbass in this column are not to be construed necessarily, nor even probably as those of The Herald. They are only those of an experienced and responsible commentator.

Thank you Mrs. Ingalls. I feel very humble at your compliment. But one as myself needs be on the outside looking in. Then a pat on the back or a commentary on the doings of folks on the inside can best be done.

Lake frontage for sale. 'Round that large expanse of water on my east forty. That wet stuff that can't drain anywhere 'cause the county don't provide drainage.

Word comes to me by the round about route; Sam Rogers is quoted as saying that the County doesn't have too much money to spend on roads. My aside to Sam; Sam old boy, "We in Charlevoix County know that there never has been a lot of money to spend on roads. It is the inefficient manner in which it is spent that everyone is griping about." If an honest effort toward engineering and efficiency were done there could be so much improvement. But I guess our county engineer must be working hand in hand with that College designing bumps in roads to govern the speed of autos. Our method is, we've still got the bumps of horse and buggy days. And we grade the roads for horse and buggy traffic. I dare anyone to spend a few hours in Antrim county and count the road commission trucks at work. Then spend the same amount of time in Charlevoix County and note the difference. Also note the condition of the roads when you cross the county line, stressing the quality and efficiency of the engineering of the work done.

McDaniels' old boy. That's a grand job. No doubt you'll say the whole group had a hand in getting things started. Thank them all for me. And I'm ready with a pledge whenever the person designated can get to it.

Note to Howard Porter and Bob Campbell. My apologies sirs; Word continually came to me by that circuitous route, you boys didn't want things to happen. And now we blossom out with a business possibility. As has been said before there is only one direction and that's forward.

We're born to a life of observing laws, rules and regulations. I don't think this country is too bad off, 'cause we'll all fight for what it stands. Therefore, the chastisement meted out by our Mr. Wade, to the seventeen Spring fever fans is approved. Remember you folks, we all get Spring fever but with it we must all still observe the laws, rules and regulations by which we are governed.

How many of our home folk have stopped to appreciate the lights of our town as you come in from M66? To anyone that traveled a little, coming into a town at night is an awe that never fully escapes. Flew in and out of New York at night this past year and the lights at night are my ever mindful wonder.

That guy Bill Stanek hasn't enough hours in a day to do all the work he cuts out for himself. And don't you just know that the Co-op is a very progressive BIG business.

That slip of paper with the name of the next mayor of East Jordan on it is still among the missing. And is my forecaster in a dither? He can't remember what he told me. I have to find that slip.

I'll bet the next mayor of East Jordan, whoever he is will — see that no one is fired because of their desire to do their job well. See that Spring Street is paved down by the Iron Works, if the folks don't vote it to be closed. Also he'll help get Earl Clark put back in business as our efficient one man Chamber of Commerce. Also he'll help with the organization of a town committee with the single purpose of getting the Community Center back in condition for the people to use. That interested folks may hold town hall meetings, where everyone can have their chance to say what they want.

If that town hall project produces one meeting without someone wanting to say something, that's the meeting which will have as a singer yours truly while the folks square dance.

Dear Editor:

There comes a time in a man's life when he feels an urge to stand up and give voice to things which he deems contrary to best interest. It is an urge to resist to the dictates of one or a few, who because they have heard no concert-ed opposition, believe that everything they do in office has the stamp of public approval.

Since the local Board of Review did not see fit to publish the results of its four day meeting we may assume: First, nothing happened—that everyone was just tickled pink at his tax assessment and had no complaint to make; Second, the deep, dark secrets are kept behind closed doors; Third, the Board didn't want to publish anything for fear of antagonizing. The policy of "Let sleeping dogs lie."

I attended one of the meetings; came away unsatisfied; came away with a few ideas which I would like to present here for those of you readers who are disgruntled by the unfairness and the obvious inequality and partiality of your tax assessment.

Do you know what the basis of tax assessment is—what your taxes have been based on for the past 37 years?

1. Location. Perhaps you think the location of your house, farm, building, etc. is terrible. You may look at the back side of unpainted buildings, face torn-up pavement or look at some dilapidated home that the owner left because he couldn't keep up the taxes.

But along comes the tax assessor—he thinks you have the most wonderfully located home in the county. So you pay your taxes on what he thinks. Have you ever been consulted on what makes a good location? I dared suggest that at the meeting and received a look and an explosion that almost melted the rims of my glasses. But who am I to judge what makes a location great to me?

2. Extent of property. Where it extends from or where it extends to or where it is or whether it is good for raising houses, crops or quack-grass, makes no difference. I can't argue too much on that because I just own the property.

3. Style of architecture. When our friend, Mr. Bashaw, told me that I spent a moment of silence waiting for my composure to return. Style of architecture—paying a tax on style is like paying a tax on the changing fashions of a feminine wardrobe.

Is your house comfy? Does the roof leak? Do you have cardboard on the walls to keep out the heat? Does smoke get in your eyes? Does the furnace blow up? Do the squirrels wake you at night? Do you have to dodge the holes in the floor?

So—we pay for "style of architecture. Actually now, isn't style a rather unsteady basis for the levying of taxes?

Those of you who are planning construction in the near future should very carefully check the style tax tables before choosing location and atmosphere.

I have heard it said many times (and I leave it up to you to decide correctly or incorrectly) that you are taxed on your ability to pay. The tremendous inequality of similar property in the block which holds most interest for me ranges from below one thousand dollars to three thousand dollars. One of my concerns is that soon after I purchased my castle on Fourth St. my assessment rose close to one thousand dollars.

Perhaps many of you have the same problem. If so, I hope you have enjoyed this and know that you are not alone with your problems.

Dear Editor:

Government for the people by the people. How great the insight of our forefathers was to set up this great system of government. What power we have. If only "every" American would rally up to "his" duty. They didn't say, we'll have a group of men run everything, no, they left the job up to you and I.

The people must come up in force and work, support and demand American ideas, our churches, schools and government from our City Hall to Washington, D. C. These are the points that put the demands and burdens on us and they need the support of everyone to take the bugs out of them.

Yes, it's high time the freedom loving people give their best that is in them.

I'd like to start a campaign that no American home would be complete until there was a flag pole in the front yard and Old Glory flying high "everyday".

No American can raise that flag every morning without a feeling of deep compassion for the language it speaks. It can talk louder than any words we can write.

Yes, we need a great unashamed revival of Patriotism.

Just think of the men and women that carry Old Glory for us "today", and then think of the men that are falling for Her, we, here, can walk down streets of standing beauty, over beautiful roads (yes, even bumpy roads are beautiful when they are not like the ones in Korea.)

Yes, roads that can lead you all over this beautiful land where trees, flowers and crops grow in abundance, where children laugh, where even the poor can feel rich.

For they can still worship God in freedom.

Yes, the time is going by fast. We must take our stand and get rid of the old idea of, "Oh what's the use" or "What can I do" and "Let Joe do it".

Just think of the wonderful chance you had to live in this age, "Your God-given Life". Are you doing your share, your job that's yours to do? Remember there's not another you.

Your public duty can't be measured in dollars and cents, like this for instance: We go to the polls every 1 to 4 years electing our "voice" or public servants, then we leave them "high and dry". We think they become some sort of "miracle men". But this is where the pressure of the people needs to back him up instead of crossing him up.

My husband has been Alderman for eight years, never in that time has a letter come that I know of as a complaint or a request for anything. Very seldom does your servant ever hear the word "thank you" or a slap on the back or praise for some good service he helped to bring into reality.

Think of the responsibility they take upon themselves to fight our battles, pay our bills, planning and working to make our town orderly.

Give these people encouragement and they'll work twice as hard for us.

Yes, we have problems and troubles, but let's get our complaints in the hands of the authorities.

Everybody talks and fusses about things to everyone who can do nothing. I'll bet if 3,000 requests were mailed to our Road Commission, Charlevoix county would figure out some way to smooth the bumps out of the roads if they had to have the grader on the road day and night. I'll bet this man can count all the complaints he's had to his face on one hand.

Then our representatives in our

State and Capitol begin to wonder if there are any people back home. They have to beg us to write. See what I mean?

When in heaven's name are we ever going to wake up to the vast power we already have. When we are in meetings, civic groups, your clubs or businesses, speak up. The good idea you keep to yourself might have a chance to better the whole world.

Yes, I know it's hard to keep up on our duty, but while we become careless, the enemy in our ranks work at a feverish pace to break our necks.

Sincerely, Maxine Griffin

Our business has expanded steadily in recent years. We would like to continue to enlarge our facilities here in our home town. In order to meet the growing demands of our customers we should erect a new building. We need more manufacturing area, more pattern storage. Proper plant layout shows that the logical place for this would be the area between the two present plants where Spring Street now runs.

This issue will come before you in the general election, April 6th. We ask you affirmative vote on the proposal. More business is good for East Jordan. We want to bring more business here. You can help.

The Servicemen's LETTER

Hi Fellas:
I missed reporting on a man who left for the service two weeks ago. He is Pvt. Michael T. Brennan, Co M, 145th Inf Regt, 37th Inf Div, Camp Polk, La. Mike was caught in a draft and the first thing he knew he was down in Polk on the mean end of the barracks corporal. How's he treating you, Mike? When it gets good and hot out on that red clay just think of all the ice in the lake up here.

Don Brownell has written home that he is receiving the paper in due time down at Camp Rucker, Alabama. He has a slight change of address. It is now Co H, 136th Inf Regt, 47th Inf Div, Box 24.

Two brothers, Carl and Glen Young were here on March 24th. Carl has been discharged and he and his wife and child are now living in Muskegon. Carl is an insurance salesman for a Mutual Company from Omaha. Carl says that his wife really likes it in this country, her everlasting amazement being the very freedom we enjoy here. She couldn't understand at first why they didn't have to check in at the police station every time they wanted to go from one city to another.

Glen has been home on a short leave prior to being shipped overseas. He's going to Germany to fill out for Carl. Glen was due in Camp Kilmer on April 5th. Alice will not go with him just yet but it is possible that she may be able to join him over there later.

Congratulations to Jim Pollitt on that second stripe. Conditions up on the line over there don't seem to be too good just now. Jim reports that the weather has been very wet and they have been having a hard time keeping the water out of their bunker. The one they live in is starting to cave in. Jim's outfit has three new tracks but he didn't get one. He still has to drive the old track. He says that is how he made Cpl. so fast, because he had to be one in order to drive the track. They are sending a gun up front every day but Jim hasn't had to go as yet for the reason that his old track isn't in any shape to go. Sounds like you better stick to that old track, Jim.

Wayne Pearce writes from Korea: "Hi Jake, Guess it is about time I dropped you a line. Got 2 copies of the paper today and sure was glad to get them."

"There's not much to say but still will try. It's been snowing off and on the last few days. It melts and gets more muddier."

"I was a wife man on the line for about two weeks then was sent back to Bn forward to cook. Am setting now in the kitchen writing this under electric lights. I go to a movie almost every night. The movie bunker is right next to the kitchen. Got it pretty nice here for the place it is except for an incoming round every once in a while."

"Best tell you where I am located—in the Kymwhy Valley, Near Jane Russell and Sniper Ridge. Well, best get out of here and go hit my bunk. Cpl. Wayne Pearce, Co A, 461 Inf Bn, (Hvy Mort), APO 301, c/o PM, San Francisco, California."

Lyle Peck has finished his schooling at Eta Jima and is now awaiting further assignment. His new address is: Pvt. Lyle Peck, 40th Rep Co, 40th Inf Div, APO 6, c/o PM, San Francisco, California.

Roger Benson did not get his paper for a few weeks but here's a letter from him: "The paper came today so I guess everything is back to normal. I got six papers all in the same day last week so it must have been some tie-up in the mail."

"I read in one of those papers where Mike Brennan and Harry Webster got their call and in today's paper I see where Harry wound up in Camp Chaffee."

"We have around five weeks left to go and finish April 25. At present we are studying Ordnance Supply and Automotive. This week we start a couple of miscellaneous subjects, Ammunition supply and small arms repair. We got a swell group of boys left now. Twenty-four in all, that's our platoon. In the Second Platoon there is 27 men. When we started this class 18 weeks ago we had 90 men, 3 platoons, 30 men in each. Out of the original 30 men in our platoon we have 16 left, the rest of the 24 men are fellows who have been set back from other classes and boys from the third platoon which they consolidated into the first platoon. On April 7 we have a board which is rumored will get around three of the boys. The men who are left after this board will more than likely make it. OJC Roger Benson, Co A, Ord OCS, Class 100 TOS, Aberdeen Proving Grounds, Md."

Roger asked for Mike Brennan's and Bob Cutler's addresses. Mike's is at the head of this letter, but Bob's is: Pfc Robert Cutler, Co K, 5th R. C. T., APO 301, c/o PM, San Francisco, California.

Congratulations are in order from all of us to Oogie Woodcock. He is the proud papa of a big son, born March 18th. Name, Thomas John.

Glen Murray's papers and mail have been coming back for some time now. He finally arrived home with the news that he would be here on furlough until April 20th when he is to report back to Fort Custer. He expects to be discharged on May 6th.

Bob Graham has joined Roger Benson at Aberdeen Proving Grounds. Bob writes: "Guess it's about time I wrote you a few lines. I've been in the Army about nine months now and haven't done so much as write you a short note."

"I surely have seen a lot of country since I left EJ back in June 1952. They keep a guy moving around. So far I haven't run into anyone from home. Most of the men seem to be from the South. They haven't got any good men from the North yet."

"I was reading the paper tonight and was quite surprised to see that Roger Benson is on the same post that I am. Before I go any farther I better tell you that I am at the Aberdeen Proving Grounds now. I am going to school here. I just started an eight-week course in small arms repair. I don't know much about the school as I just started today but from what little information I could gather today I think it will prove to be very interesting course. When I complete this course I will go back to my outfit and be the Battery Armorer there."

"This outfit I am in is made up of everything. There are National Guards, Marines, Reserves, and last but not least the Army, all left to go and finish school together. There are three other men from Fort Bragg here but they are all from different outfits."

"Well, guess I had better quit for now and get this in the mail. Pvt Robert C. Graham, Co D, 1st Tech Tng Bn, ORTC, Aberdeen Proving Grounds, Maryland."

Bob asked for Dick Sommerville's address so here it is: Pvt Richard Sommerville, 45th Inf Div, APO 81, c/o PM, San Francisco, Calif.

Last Saturday, the 28th, this community witnessed a sobering ceremony which brought home to us once again that this is a first class war that we are in. Ernest Pinney's body arrived here on Thursday and the Military Funeral was held on Saturday. The firing squad and color bearers were men from the Air Force Base at Empire, Michigan. They conducted a very good ceremony and all maneuvers were performed with splendid accuracy. The pallbearers were East Jordan veterans, most of them from this Korean War. The funeral procession was one of the largest we have witnessed since the arrival of the World War II casualties. Let's hope and pray to God that this scene will not be repeated in this town many more times before this present World crisis is settled.

So Long, "Jake" Snyder
