Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. Harry Dougherty and Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Murray, of East Jordan. The pastor, Rev. Edward O. DeHaven, officiated before an altar decorated with baskets of white peonies in a candlelight ceremony at 8:00 o'clock. About 150 guests were present. Mrs. Alta Drapeau furnished the traditional wedding music at the piano and accompanied Versile Burns of Central Lake as he sang "O Promise Me" and "Because." Ray Dougherty gave his sister in marriage. She was attired in a white satin gown fashioned with a fitted bodice and long fitted sleeves ending with points at the wrists. The full skirt ended with a train and her finger-tipped veil was secured by a tiera of seed pearls. She carried a bridal bouquet of red and white roses with a white ribbon. Mrs. James Graham was her sister's maid of honor. She wore a white net over blue taffeta full floor-length gown with fitted bodice. Her bouquet was of white carnations with a blue ribbon. The bridesmaids, Mrs. Rex Murray and Mrs. Lyle Booth, were also sisters of the bride. Their gowns were similar in design to the maid of honor's. Mrs. Murray's was pink taffeta and she carried pink carnations with a pink ribbon, while Mrs. Booth wore yellow taffeta and carried yellow carnations with yellow ribbon. Attending the bridegroom as best man was LeRoy McDonald, friend of the groom from Detroit; also Rex and Cecil Murray, brothers of the groom. Zell Murray and Henry Dougherty seated the guests. Another sister of the bride, Mrs. Margaret Bailey, who took the mother's place in her absence, wore a navy fitted dress with white accessories. The groom's mother also wore a navy fitted dress with white accessories and both wore corsages of pink carnations. Following the ceremony a wedding reception was held in the South Arm Grange Hall for 150 guests. The bride's table was decorated by a three tier wedding cake topped with a miniature bride and groom and decorated with pink roses. Lighted candles on each side of the cake completed the table decorations. Ice cream, wedding cake and coffee were served. The bride graduated from the East Jordan High School with the Class of '53. The groom graduated from the Central Lake High School with the Class of '47. The young couple left on a wedding trip through Canada after which they will make their home in Detroit where the groom is employed.

The new 76x171 foot addition to the East Jordan Iron Works is well under way, and is expected to be finished in mid-September, according to Ted Malpass, one of the co-owners.

It will be used primarily for pattern storage. Customers often have a casting made and then months or years later come back and request a replacement, or additional parts from the same mold. This makes it imperative to be able to locate a particular pattern immediately, Mr. Malpass says.

Fireproof materials, cement blocks with gypsum roof, are being used in the new building as they have been in most of the rest of the plant, and the patterns are heavily insured, since replacement would be costly. Malpass recalls three or four serious fires, one of which destroyed the foundry in 1905.

Patterns are made of wood, aluminum or iron, depending on the durability required. When stored, the original blueprint may be used for filling, or a picture of the pattern may be taken and filed under a customer's name or number to make location relatively easy.

These patterns are used to make molds into which duplicates are poured. Molds for the core, or inside, of the casting are made from a mixture of sand and oil, while the outside is of a special clay loam, shipped in from Ohio.

Sand is packed into the pattern by rammers that carry 125 pounds of pressure, and a small pneumatic packer for finishing. The molds are then turned out on a board, and poured full of molten metal, iron usually, but the foundry also works in brass.

As the castings are poured, a feeder is left to allow for shrinkage of the casting as the iron cools. This is a hollow left in the molding that is filled with metal which is absorbed as the casting cools and shrinks and any remaining is subsequently filed or cut off the finished product.

When the castings come out of the mold, they go into the shot blast, a closed machine that sprays fine pellets of metal against the casting to scour off the dirt. In charge of cleaning the castings is Tommy Hitchcock, who has been with the company for 30 years, the longest of any employee.

Next step in the process is the finishing machines, where rough spots are taken off, and edges smoothed. After this, the parts may be dipped in asphalt, a rust preventive, or may be shipped directly to the buyer without this step, whichever is requested.

The business was started in 1883 by the father and grandfather of Mr. Malpass, and has remained in the family ever since, being operated currently by Ted and Richard, and a nephew, William.

The foundry is as mechanized as possible to prevent manual lifting. A complicated system of overhead tracks carries ladles of hot metal around to the molds. A lift that works on compressed air moves the finished molds around, while finished castings are moved by a small tractor with a carrier mounted on the front. The plant employs 105 men.

Friends and relatives from away who were here to attend the funeral services for Mrs. Daisy Donaldson last week were:—Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Donaldson, Mr. and Mrs. Dick Donaldson, of Charlevoix; Mr. and Mrs. Lyle Donaldson, VanDyke; Mr. Bert Grossett, Tomah, Wis.; Mr. Ray Grossett, Alma; Mr. and Mrs. Lee Donaldson, Mrs. Grandville Medley, Mrs. Sarah Weather, Mancelona; Mrs. Dorothy Cline, St. Louis; Mr. and Mrs. Chester Donaldson, Ellsworth; Mr. and Mrs. M. S. Donaldson, Detroit; Mr. and Mrs. Robert Thorne, Lachine; Mrs. Gladys McKinnon, Gaylord; Charles Donaldson, Scott Field, Ill.; Mr. and Mrs. Norman Whiteford, Mrs. Iva York, Traverse City.

Mrs. Rex Hickox was called to Big Rapids, Wednesday, by the illness of her daughter-in-law, Mrs. Leland Hickox. They have recently located at Big Rapids.

Those attending from Charlevoix County will be accompanied by 4-H Club Agent K. C. Festerling.

Bulow Slams Homerun With Bases Loaded in First Inning for Foundry

The East Jordan Foundry softball team picked up a pair of victories in the Tri-County Softball League the past week by topping Cadillac-Olds of Charlevoix 8 to 7 last Friday evening and by overwhelming the Jordan Cannery 15 to 7 on Monday night of this week.

E. J. Foundry 8 - Cadillac-Olds 7
In the Cadillac-Olds encounter, the local Foundry nine had to overcome a 7 to 0 lead to beat the visiting Charlevoix men. Charlevoix tallied 4 runs in the second frame and three more in the fourth before the "Ironmen" got their offensive going.

Two runs in the fourth and three each in the fifth and sixth innings gave the locals their margin of victory. Wordeski and H. Sommerville formed the winning battery with Davenport and Kranke tolling for the losers.

Gallagher and Golden hit home runs for the losers. Bulow's triple with two on in the fifth was the only extra-base hit by the Foundry nine. E. J. Foundry 15 - E. J. Cannery 7
Homeruns by Wordeski & Bulow proved to be the highlights of the Foundry's victory over the Cannery here on Monday evening this week. The Foundry-men H. Sommerville, Wordeski and W. Saxton formed the winning battery with Annear and Sinclair making up the losing.

Chris Bulow slammed out a homerun with bases loaded in the first inning to put the Foundry nine out in front to stay. Leo Sommerville was the big gun at the plate for the Cannery getting a three times at bat.

On Friday evening of this week the Elsworth Chamber of Commerce nine will meet the E. J. Cannery at the West Side Ball Park at 9:00 P.M. in another Inter-County League game.

The Dropped Gauntlet
 BY ED LEHRBASS

The opinions expressed by Ed Lehrbass in this column are not to be construed necessarily, nor even probably as those of The Herald. They are only those of an experienced and responsible commentator.

It is with difficulty that I set here and give words to a sorrow. We lost a lad up this way that was a man in his bearing.

I saw folks, calm in their misgivings, any one of them willing to give their life's blood. A factory that would shut down to give him that could, a chance to help. No stone left unturned in an effort to sustain that thin thread which we all grasp and call life. All these efforts were made that HE would know we would help. And we can take comfort in the will of the Lord.

4-H Campers Judge Soil

The 4-H campers who were in attendance last week, June 23-26 at the 7th annual 4-H camp, held at the Church of God Camp Grounds received a valuable experience when they participated in a soil judging contest. This contest was sponsored and conducted by the Charlevoix Soil Conservation District. Every camper, a total of 105 participated. The contest was similar to those now popular throughout the nation.

Members judged various characteristics of 3 soil areas and then placed the area in land capability classes and listed the proper land use programs to help maintain the soil in the area involved.

The contest was organized by William Grimm and Doug Gikerson of the Soil Conservation Service. They explained the contest and then accompanied the campers to each area. Papers were corrected and prizes awarded. Prizes were awarded according to age groups. In the boys 10 to 12 yr. group, 1st place was won by Don Beaman, Charlevoix and 2nd place by Thomas Eichler, East Jordan. In the girls 10 to 12 yr. group, 1st went to Sally Graham, East Jordan and 2nd place to Judith Anheer of East Jordan. In the boys 13 and older class, 1st place was won by Bill Boyer, East Jordan and 2nd by Irving Bullmann, East Jordan. Among girls 13 and older, 1st went to Ann Spencer, Boyne City and 2nd to Janice Cunningham, Charlevoix.

At the evening program on Wednesday, June 24, Clayton Healey, Chairman of the C. S. C. D. made brief comments and presented prizes of beach balls, diving goggles and swimming masks. This judging contest, says Mr. Healey, is a part of the C. S. C. D. program of greater services.

This contest was the 1st of its kind in Charlevoix County and the 1st time it has ever been conducted with boys and girls as young as 10 years of age. Urban youngsters were just as enthusiastic as were the rural boys and girls.

Camp opened on Tuesday with registration between 2:00 and 5:00 p.m. Girls were housed in the dormitory while boys slept on bunk beds in the tabernacle.

Meals were planned by Mrs. Emma Reinhold and cooked by Mrs. K. C. Festerling with plenty of help from campers and campers' parents. Mrs. Joe Martineck assisted the cook on Wednesday and Thursday.

Camp delegates were divided into four groups. Counselors were: Irving Bullmann, Rodger Stokes, Sandina Liskum and Margaret Lord, all of East Jordan.

Sports at camp included: softball, horseshoe, ping pong, archery, and volley ball. Other recreation included games of all kinds.

The camp was under the direction of K. C. Festerling, Ed Reiman and Mrs. Emma Reinhold. The facilities were made available again this year by the Church of God Camp Committee.

Clayton Healey supplied a truck to take the members swimming at the Ferry Ave. Dock on Wednesday, and Howard Stephens supplied a tractor and trailer to take the group on Thursday.

PMA Election To Be Held

Community PMA Elections will be held in each of Charlevoix County's nine farm communities July 28, 1953; Chairman of the county PMA committee announced today.

At these elections, farmers in each community will vote for three farmers to serve on the community committee, for a delegate to the county convention to elect the county PMA committee for 1954, and for alternates. Voting will be by mail. In general a farmer is eligible to vote if he is owner, operator, tenant or sharecropper is participating or is carrying out practices in accordance with programs administered by the county PMA committee, is eligible for price support or has a crop insurance contract with the Federal Crop Insurance Corporation.

Chairman Hardy emphasizes that the effectiveness of Agricultural Conservation Program operations and of price support and marketing programs will depend a great deal on the community who voted in at these elections.

Since this program has to do with the protection and improvement of the soil and conservation of water on the farms of Charlevoix county, community committees are in a key position to fight for helps to continual production.

The chairman urges farmers in each community in Charlevoix county to look over the field carefully and make sure farmers are elected who are best qualified and who will have the time to devote to the job.

The Gaunt Reunion is being planned to be held July 5th at Whittings Park.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Ferez of Marshall, Mich., are vacationing at the cabin of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lyle Tuttle, in South Arm for a week.

Increase In Motels Says AAA Survey

Those who travel or vacation in Michigan this year will find more good motels than ever before. This is the prediction of Charles Daniel, American Automobile Association field reporter who has just begun (June 16) his annual fourth Michigan tourist facility inspection. Daniel will visit and inspect about 1,000 Michigan facilities.

"We have been informed by our largest state affiliate, Automobile Club of Michigan, that Michigan is in the midst of a motel building boom. We believe many new motels, hotels and restaurants will be eligible for listings in the AAA-accommodations directory this season," Daniel said.

There are now over 600 Michigan motels, hotels and eating places in the AAA directory. Nationally, about 10 percent of all listings are dropped each season and replaced by others.

Daniel believes Michigan could profitably support several hundred more good restaurants on its tourist highways. The profit potential of those who run superior restaurants is amazing, he has noted.

Driver Licensing Is Centralized by Law

Centralization of driver licensing authority and a broader law against obscene literature which tends to cause immorality among minors were two of the major bills passed by the Republican Legislature as aids to law enforcement.

The driver license law centralizes in the Secretary of State's office all records pertaining to drivers and eliminates the split authority between the State Police and Secretary of State over those records. It is a move toward safer driving on the highways.

The law on obscene literature covers comic books and other publications which might inspire immoral conduct.

Other legislation important to law enforcement includes:

Tipsters who help catch cigaret tax evaders are eligible for 10 percent rewards to a maximum of $5,000.

Parents of juvenile vandals are liable for civil damages to $300. Penalty invoked for reckless driving on frozen lakes or streams.

Sex criminals are prohibited at conservation prison work camps. Persons sentenced to less than a year term for law violation will go to county jails or the Detroit House of Correction, not state prisons.

Landowners are free from damage suits by trespassing hunters or guests unless dangerous conditions have been concealed.

Farm machinery 186 inches wide permitted on state trunklines by permit.

Violating rules in county parks made punishable as a misdemeanor.

The anti-communist law was strengthened to meet impending court tests.

Motorists may note their blood type on driver licenses.

Veterans or non-profit groups may hold boxing or wrestling shows without paying customary fee.

Non-resident fishing license good for 15 instead of 10 days.

FARM FACTS
 from your County Agricultural Agent

You can protect your wheat from grain insects during storage if you use only when granaries have been thoroughly cleaned and treated with an insecticide before storage.

That's a tip from Ed Reiman, Agent, Charlevoix County Agriculture Agent.

The chemical is a pyrethrum-piperonyl-butoxide de-combination insecticide. It doesn't poison the wheat when instructions are followed on the label, Reiman says. There are various methods of applying the wheat protectant, and detailed descriptions of how to do it are available at County Agent Reiman's office or from the entomology department at Michigan State College.

Extension Entomologist Ray James of M. S. C. says that there are "things still to learn" about wheat protectant. But, he adds, the material has been used successfully in Michigan and other states where it has been tried. He advises that you use care in applying the chemical and be sure it is mixed well with the wheat. He suggests using a little extra chemical on the floor, especially at the edges of the bins and also in the top foot of the piled wheat.

And, he cautions, farmers using the material need to inspect their grain once a month to see whether there are insects in the grain. He says the chemical is not very effective once the insects are found in the grain. When insects are in the grain, he adds, use a fumigant.

Chlordane is the best thing on the market today for the control of crabgrass in your lawn, reminds Ed Reiman, Charlevoix County Agricultural Agent.

B. H. Grigsby, Michigan State College plant physiologist, recommends applying the chlordane about July 1 on established lawns. For the 40 cent concentrate it takes one pint in a gallon of oil-water-white grade of kerosene. If you use the 72 per cent concentrate only a half pint is needed per gallon of kerosene. Both will cover 1,000 square feet of lawn.

Two Month Accident Prevention Campaign Program
Chief Harry Simmons today announced that the City of East Jordan has joined forces with the State Safety Commission in conducting a two month's intensive accident prevention program aimed at reducing traffic mishaps caused by excessive speed.
According to Chief Harry Simmons almost half of the fatal accidents are traceable to speeding too fast for conditions. For this reason law enforcement agencies throughout the state are giving - over the speed limit - driving special attention to all types of speed violations.
In commenting on speeding as the number one killer the Chief said, "Speed is the thing that gets you into trouble faster than your brakes and steering wheel can get you out. When the traffic emergency develops you simply can't stop or dodge in time."
Posters are being displayed throughout the state advising motorists to CHECK YOUR SPEED. These official words of warning will serve as a continual reminder that traffic officials are determined to hold the line against the rising death curve - up 20 percent during the first four months of this year.
In conclusion Chief Harry Simmons called upon all motorists to cooperate with the police. "Giving you a ticket for speeding is no fun - as any officer will tell you, but it's a lot more pleasant for him than calling an ambulance," the Chief added.
A youngster was saying his bedtime prayers in a low voice. "I can't hear you, dear," pronounced his mother.
"I wasn't talking to you," was the firm reply.
A father came in from work and found his 5-year-old daughter in tears. "What's the matter, baby?" "Oh," sniffed the youngster, "all day I've been having trouble with your wife."

The Commission of Agriculture has set a public hearing for July 6, at 1:30 p.m., in the chamber of the House of Representatives in the Capitol Building, Lansing, Michigan. Charles Figy, Director of Agriculture said the hearing was for the purpose of receiving testimony on proposed amendments to Department of Agriculture Regulation No. 403, commonly known as the Fortified Milk Regulation. Proposed amendments to the regulation concern the addition of vitamins, minerals and non-fat milk solids to milk and skimmed milk.

A 1952 amendment to the law provides for adding additional vitamins, plus minerals and non-fat milk solids to milk and skimmed milk. The amounts of these vitamins, minerals and non-fat milk solids to be added must be approved by regulation of the Department. Present regulations and laws permit the addition of vitamin D to milk and the addition of vitamins A and D and non-fat milk solids to skimmed milk.

Director Figy stated that all persons interested will be permitted to introduce such written or oral testimony as they may desire.

Portrait of a Young Lady

Each year about this time, conservation department field crews are busy at Cusino wildlife experiment station in the upper peninsula, catching, tagging and weighing newly-born fawns for study. This youngster was one of a large number of fawns "bagged" in the department's mile-square enclosure at the station. The fawns will be watched carefully as they develop in the natural conditions of the enclosure, to provide more information for Michigan's important deer management program.

Tourist Park News

Ellsworth

Hi Fellas:
Good news for you this week — "Jake" is home. He's flat on his back and will be for a few more weeks but I'm sure familiar surroundings look good to him and will help his recovery.
There is a slight change in A. J. George Walker's address, 301st BMWG, 301st PMS, Box 164, Barksdale A. F. B., Shreveport, La.
Bob Stanek is now in the 4th Plt and his address should have read F. A. Bn. Instead of K. A. Bn. He's still at Fort Knox but hasn't seen Al Chanda yet.

Congratulations, Pfc. Fred Looze. Fred writes, "This is a great place over here. I wish they would give it back to the Koreans. I guess I haven't got it too bad compared to some of the fellows. I'm in Hq. Co. as you know by my address. I really don't do much at all except draw maps and make duplicates of papers. It is real interesting work and I like it very much. Just hope I can keep it. There are quite a few fellows that would like to be up here in my place."
"We have to go about 3/4 of a mile to chow but we usually can catch a ride in a jeep. The chow is good, too. We get three "hots" a day while up on the lines they have "C" rations for dinner.
"We are about 28 miles from Seoul and about 7 miles from Pam Moun Jon. It's very quiet right now; I guess it's because it's too wet. The rain started 3 days ago and is still going on. This must be the start of the rainy season which is supposed to last about 3 months. Our banker doesn't leak much so maybe we'll make out okay.
"Well, Friday the 26th will make me one month here in Korea. It doesn't seem that long. I just hope the rest of the months go as fast. I was really surprised at the way rank comes over here. They made me Pfc. one week after I hit the Co.—that's what I am anyway and some of the fellows have been here 9 months and still haven't made it yet. I'm not kidding but I don't know how they work it.

"The paper is coming through alright now and it sure seems good to read it again. I was thinking it wouldn't catch up with me for a while yet.
"It's just about chow time so maybe I hadn't better miss it. I still like to eat so I say so long for this time. Good luck to all."
Don Cutler left Monday to report to this address: — Camp Kilmer Pers. Cen. Ord., New Brunswick, N. J.
Both "Jake" and I look forward to hearing from you fellows just as much as you look forward to the paper. To know where you are, what you are doing and seeing. Let us know once in a while.
So Long Men,
Betty Jo Strehl.

It has seemed like home-coming week here in the Tourist Park, as six of our "old timers" came rolling in (the trailers we mean of course.) We are always happy to see the new ones, but it sure seems good to have the ones come back year after year; each one is a link in a great big chain, and we miss one of the links if it is not there.
We are doubly happy to welcome back Mr. and Mrs. Dan Edwards of Newago, Mich., and Bradenton, Fla. The reason is because they are both in poor health, Mrs. Edwards especially is not well. They were accompanied here by their son and family, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Edwards and son, Richard, of Newago.
Another couple who started coming to the park 20 years ago are Mr. and Mrs. Bert Putman of Sparta, who came Thursday. This year they brought their two granddaughters, Margaret and Carol Blauw also of Sparta, with them.
Another couple who have been coming for a good many years are the Austin Lemons, from Grand Rapids. Welcome back.
Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Lemon and daughter, Ruby, are all set for the summer here, too. Kenneth had to return to his home in Grandville, but Mrs. Lemon and Ruby remain for the season.
"For just a week this year," says the Mark Stroebels, who came in Friday with their daughter, Marcia, and son, Martin, from Dearborn. We wish it were more than a week.
Mr. Emil Hegerberg and son, Bob, of Bath, Mich., are back in the park again this summer and visiting his brother, Mr. and Mrs. Ole Hegerberg. Mrs. Hegerberg is not with her family this time as she is on an extended educational tour through the west to the coast with a group of teachers from Central Teachers College.
We are happy to have Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Stoudt and son, Romeo, in the park. They are from Lansing. Mr. Stoudt is a fire inspector for State Mutual Insurance Co. They entertained the former's mother, Mrs. Bernice Stoudt of Carson City, and friend, Rev. Blem, of Pompeii on Saturday.
Mr. and Mrs. Robt. Beck with daughter, Patsy, and son, Bobby, of Ashley, arrived Sunday. Mr. Beck is with the road construction Co. working in this area.
Lester Lemon of Grand Rapids is spending his vacation with his grandparents, the Austin Lemons. Week end guests of Mr. and Mrs. John Horman were their son, Mr. and Mrs. Ron Horman of Alma, their daughter, Sheila Horman, and friend, Bill Hurley, also of Alma. While here they made several sight-seeing trips around this lovely country. Other guests of the senior Hormans were Mr. and Mrs. Alan Hathaway of Central Lake, who called Sunday.
Len Box of Lansing and Jerry Chumbley of Lansing and Calif., spent the week end at Houghton Lake.
Mr. and Mrs. Keith Winkle with little sons, David and Jerry, spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Bill Loomis of Alden.
Mr. Ralph Augustine left Saturday for Indiana. He is connected with the Road Construction Co. A reception was held in the dining hall by friends and relatives, Sunday, to honor the newly married couple, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Shaw of East Jordan.
Mr. and Mrs. Ward Robinson and son, Ronnie, of Mt. Morris, spent the week end with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Walker and family and Mr. and Mrs. Jess Robinson.
The weather has been ideal for picnics and many people have been enjoying them, too. On Saturday Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Payne and four children of Washington, Mich., and Mr. and Mrs. George Rebec and four children of East Jordan enjoyed their dinner on the out door tables.
Saturday evening Mrs. Cliff Heller and Mrs. Ann LaValley were hostesses to their pinocle club. They enjoyed a lovely pot luck supper on the dining room porch. Cards were played inside later. Besides the hostesses, those attending were the Geo. Bulows, Chas. Strehls, Wm. Shepards, Charles Shepards, Fred Vogels, Ole Hegerbergs, Merle Thompsons, Mrs. Edith Simmons, Mrs. Mable Winstone and Barney Milstein.
Mrs. Harry Detloff of Flint is spending a week with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Louis Reno, and also visiting her son, Floyd.
Saturday evening "Mother" Hattie Bratt brought her family to the park for a co-operative picnic dinner. Besides Mrs. Bratt of Ellsworth, were her son, Mr. and Mrs. Dan Bratt and family of Gull Lake; her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Smith of Kalamazoo; and another daughter, Mr. and Mrs. John Kooyer and family of Ellsworth.
A group of relatives gathered in one of the kitchens to help

Mrs. Ted Essenberg of Ellsworth celebrate her birthday. Besides the honoree, others attending were her daughter, Vonda, the Lou Essenbergs and children, Jim, Lorraine and Billy, all of Ellsworth; and the Peter Potts' and children, Karen, Carl, Elaine, Shirley and Milton, of Atwood.
Friday evening another family gathered in the dining room for a co-operative dinner. Those attending were—Jake Drenth, Mrs. Garrett Drenth and daughter, Marilyn; Mr. and Mrs. Pete Drenth and five children, Mr. and Mrs. Miner Klooster and son, Jerry; Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Drenth, Mr. and Mrs. John Drenth, Mary and Greta Drenth and Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Drenth and two daughters, all of Ellsworth.
Members and friends of the Methodist Church enjoyed a wonderful co-operative dinner, Sunday, in the recreation building. Approximately ninety people attended and enjoyed the fellowship together.
In one of the kitchens Mr. and Mrs. Walter Chellis of Ellsworth and Mrs. Gordon Ranney of Petoskey had their Sunday dinner.
We are happy to hear the dances are to be started again soon. Many people have been inquiring as to the date, now we know.
Monday morning a group consisting of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Gorman and daughter, Marilyn, of Muskegon Heights, and Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Strudwick of Charlevoix drove in the park and had a late breakfast in one of the kitchens. They had high praises for the park and the city for operating such a lovely place for tourists to stop and rest.
Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Smidt and two daughters of Flint spent a couple of days in the park. The parents returned to their home, but the girls remained with their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. C. Malpass.
The park was quite lively Monday afternoon when the recreation program got under way with Gayle Saxton in charge.
Mr. and Mrs. Edward Eiler drove to Harbor Springs Sunday. While there they attended church services at the Gospel Chapel.
Mr. and Mrs. Fred Kuerbitz, daughter, Carol, and son, Tommy, stopped over this week and set up their tent for a couple of days in the park. They were on their way home to Hazel Park from a vacation spent in the Upper Peninsula.
Mr. and Mrs. Carl Stephens and son, David, of Flint, arrived Tuesday evening for a visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jess Robinson.
The first co-operative dinner for the tenants of the park was held Tuesday evening in the dining room. The night was a nasty, rainy one, but most everyone turned out for a lovely meal and fine time. Ruby Lemon brought her accordion and entertained with several numbers, also accompanied Marcia Stroebel with a solo. We hope to have many more of these get-togethers before the season is over.
