It's about stepping back in time and stepping up the fun! This weekend's Northern Michigan Antique Flywheelers Show, held on the Flywheelers Club's grounds near Walloon Lake, is an adventure like no other for those of every age and interest.

The 24th annual event will begin this Thursday, July 26, and continue through Sunday the 29th. East Jordan updates street improvements

The city commissioners heard a report from administrator Bob Anderson on the progress of street improvements at their Tuesday, July 19 meeting.

Maple Street:

Sanitary sewer and water lines along both sides of Maple Street from State Street to Fair Road continue to be installed by the contractor. They are now working south of Cooperage toward Fair Road. Water main services are also being installed between Sav-A-Lot and State Street with short temporary water "shut downs" for each residence. These "shut downs" should be for two hours or less.

Team Elmer's is also bore and jacking the sanitary sewer under the flowing stream just north of McKay Street. As such, they have closed this portion of the road. Access to Sav-A-Lot is from Rogers Road for the time being. Every effort is being made to keep Maple Street passable to both customers of Sav-A-Lot and local residents. However, due to the nature of the project, there are very short peri-

Teacher faces more accusations

B. J. Conley

The East Jordan teacher charged with assault and battery of an elementary school student, now faces more accusations as other students come forward with stories of various assaults.

Paula A. Vollbach, 50, an art and drama teacher for many years, has been accused of nearly 20 separate acts of assault of students, going back as far as the past eight years. Her attorney, Mary Beth Kur, filed a motion in the Charlevoix County District Court to exclude the additional charges from the instant case filed by the parents of a 10-year-old student who allege that Vollbach hit the child with a ruler. The prosecutor's office stated that the ods of time when the road is completely blocked.

Community Park has been busy with ball games during this construction project. Every effort has been made to make it easily accessible to visitors. Currently, two entrances and exits have been constructed off of Fair Road into the park. Fair Road is accessible from both Sloop Road and Rogers Road.

The Rogers Road detour remains a viable option for access to the City of East Jordan.

With the recent dry weather, dust from the construction site continues to be an issue for the residents along Maple Street. The construction manager has promised to address this issue by watering the road as much as possible as long as the dry conditions last.

Everyone now knows about the construction project and its necessary delays in getting into and out of the area, however, there are circumstances when individual residents are affected more personally by some of the road closures and water/sewer line "shut downs". The contractor, engineer and city continue to try to keep these residents informed about road closures and water and sewer line "shuts down" by either direct communication or through the use of flyers placed in mailboxes.

Construction in the Michigan Department of Transportation right-of-way is scheduled to be completed by July 29.

As a continued reminder, public information meetings are held every Thursday at 9 a.m. at City Hall. Everyone is invited to attend to voice your questions, comments and concerns.

2nd Street:

A pre-construction conference was held on Thursday July 14, at 10:30 a.m. at City Hall for the 2nd Street reconstruction project. Present at the meeting were representatives from the City including Larry Chew and Anderson, Kevin Makarewicz of C2AE, Denny Jason, Phil Vandermus of Tri County Excavating, Mary Faculak of the Chamber and representatives from the businesses on 2nd Street.

The 2nd Street project consists of the complete reconstruction of 2nd Street along with curbs and gutters running the full length of the project from Mill Street to Esterly Street. In addition, a new concrete sidewalk will be constructed on the west side of the street. Also, the existing 4" diameter water main will be abandoned and replaced with new 8" diameter C-900 water main and a new storm sewer will be placed full length with new manholes and catch basins as necessary. The new storm sewer will connect to the MDOT storm drain along Mill Street (M-32). No sanitary sewer work is required with this project.

Work is scheduled to begin on Monday, July 18 and continue through August 19, with the contractor usually working from 7 a.m. through 5:30 p.m., Monday through Friday.

The street will be entirely blocked to vehicular traffic during this time but every effort to maintain pedestrian access to the affected businesses will be made.

Anderson reported that the city planning commission discussed the zoning for medical marijuana pursuant to the new Michigan Act. Planners considered whether to allow this type of business throughout all zoning districts within the city or to concentrate them in one or two areas. Anderson said that it was agreed that the businesses should be restricted to one or two of the city's zoning district, and that they would not be allowed in any residential district. Most planners said that the Industrial District was the most appropriate zoning or the General Commercial District.

Discussion will be continued and a recommendation sent to the city commissioners.

The city received a $400 grant from the East Jordan Rotary Club for improvements to the community's skate park. The request to the Rotary came from a group of 13-year-olds who approached Rotary and asked for skate park improvements.

EAST JORDAN CHAMBER OF COMMERCE BUSINESS SPOTLIGHT of the MONTH

The Cellular Connection

By Jim Akans

The Cellular Connection, a Verizon Premium Wireless Retailer, has been named the Business Spotlight of the Month by the Ambassadors of the East Jordan Chamber of Commerce.

Locally owned and operated by Justin Micheau, The Wireless Connection (TCC), is located in the Glens Market plaza in East Jordan, and also has locations in Bellaire, Charlevoix and new one coming soon in Petoskey at the Glens Market North Plaza. Micheau, who has over ten years of experience in the cellular communications industry, states the he and his staff are excited to bring their industry experience to the table in helping their customers find the right solution for their communication needs.

"We offer all Verizon wireless products and services," he states. "We bring the latest technology to the community that Verizon has to offer. We believe a huge difference in what we offer is the exceptional level of our customer service. We also keep a local touch in our business, are very involved in this community, and though we have a nationally recognized brand name, we operate as a local business."

Among the many services TCC offers is providing a local place where customers can pay their monthly Verizon bill. Regardless of where customers originally purchased their phones, TCC representatives can provide access to their account for making service changes and can help troubleshoot their devices if they are experiencing service or device concerns.

A service many Verizon customers are signing up for recently is "Home Phone Connect," which allows users to replace their existing land line phone at home, keep the same phone number from that land line, and switch it over to a Verizon wireless line. That line may be added to an existing family plan, or placed on a separate plan, for just $19.99 per month.

"That includes unlimited talking," notes Micheau, "which means no additional long distance charges for calls within the United States. We also have some excellent deals on Smart Phones right now, and have several models of tablets, such as the Blackberry Playbook, Motorola Xoom, and Apple Ipad 2, each with touch screen technology. These are rapidly replacing laptop computers, and include access to the Internet and social media, as well as task related programs such as word processing."

TCC's parent company is the largest Verizon Premium Wireless Retailer, with over 300 locations through United States. That translates into huge buying power, which results in extremely competitive pricing, and a satisfying customer service experience.

"When people come into our stores," Justin Micheau affirms, "they are greeted promptly, offered a refreshment, and our wireless consultants help to make sure that those customer's expectations are met before they leave our store. We are also very focused on supporting the commerce and growth of the East Jordan community, and a key to that is working with and shopping at local businesses. We also support several community organizations and events on a regular basis."

The Cellular Connection is located at 250 South Lake Street, Suite F, (in the Glens Plaza) in East Jordan. They can be reached at (231) 536-0119 or on the web at www.yourwirelesspros.com.

additional accusations by students should be allowed because it is indicative of her actions in this case. A hearing is scheduled for Aug. 18, on that motion.

The other students have accused Vollbach of slapping, pushing, belitting, swearing and yelling. Court documents show that the teacher has been warned by the school before not to use physical force and not to put her hands on students. Several students say she has told them they are "stupid" and a "failure."

The defendants' motion on Aug. 18, is followed by a final pretrial on Aug. 23.

Banks Township Pays Off Fire Trucks Allows Credit Card Payments

By Tina Sundelius

At the July session of the Township board meeting, Township Treasurer, Katy Postmus, announced that the fire trucks the board labored to finance are paid in full, a representative of M.C. Planning and Design addressed the board about the benefits of zoning, and a resolution to accept Credit card payments was passed.

In February of this year Banks Township Board of Directors spent hours finding a responsible way to finance two much needed fire trucks and at the July meeting Postmus announced that the trucks are already paid in full. Although the Atwood truck was delivered in April, the Ellsworth truck has not been delivered yet.

"The fire trucks are paid 100% in full, so they better not scratch that second truck," joked Postmus.

The board voted to cash a CD to cover part of the expense and not cut the general budget short. "We didn't lose any principle and forfeited only $90 in interest." by cashing the CD Postmus explained. "We're looking good, we've got money in the bank"

During the public comment portion of the meeting Mary Campbell of M.C. Planning and Design, a community planning firm, discussed the benefits of zoning. Campbell's appearance was requested by Township Supervisor Thomas Mann after a discussion at the May board meeting where fears were voiced that present zoning was causing Ellsworth to not be "business friendly." Campbell reviewed a survey conducted in 2003 that revealed that 53.2% of Banks township residents preferred planned and limited growth.

Campbell stated that "While many people may keep the community and neighbors in mind, with or without zoning: without zoning there is no guarantee of such and there would be no recourse when (someone) opens the adult movie theater and bookstore next door."

Although the planning commission has been very busy lately making changes to zoning ordinances to allow three new businesses to open shop in Banks Township, Campbell explained that, that is how the process works, "It is impossible to foresee all eventualities and predict all future requests of property owners. A zoning ordinance should be a dynamic document that is modified as community's needs and conditions change."

Planning Commission member Jack Costolo added, "I believe for most people the purchase of a home is the largest financial investment of their lives, to me zoning protects their investment."

A petition signed by 34 members of the community asking the board to consider the paving of Lakeshore Drive was received. The board is moving forward on the request by seeking legal council on the possibility and crunching numbers to fit the expense in the road budget. The petition asked that the board designate the road as a Michigan Natural Beauty Road. Norwood Township is working together with Banks to investigate the reality of the proposed paving. "There's a lot of effort and progress going on." said Costolo. The board is hoping the designation would cause the road to become a drawing point and increase traffic.

A resolution was passed to allow the township to receive credit card payments for real and personal property taxes. Postmus is also investigating the prospect of electronic funds transfers for tax collection. The credit card option will be available in September.

First person account of Michigan's pioneer days told in a new book published by area resident.

Footprints in the Sand, a true historical sketch of when Northwest Michigan was inhabited by Indians, Mormons and Fishermen has recently been released to the public! This intriguing story, told in the first person by Stephen Horatio Smith, grandfather of Charlevoix resident Kenneth Staley, has been a long time reaching its audience.

Witness the events of the 1850's as Stephen Horatio Smith shares stories of pioneer days in Michigan's Northwest. From the family's experiences as lighthouse keepers for two northern Lake Michigan lights, encounters with "King" Strang on Beaver Island and Pine River, challenges of obtaining education, skirmishes with the pirating Mormons of Beaver Island, witness of treaty drafting between the Indians and the US Government, carrying out the provisions of the treaty and day-to-day life in the wilderness, Stephen captivates the reader's interest throughout this book.

Footprints in the Sand was written by Stephen H. Smith in 1922. His wish was to have his story told. He was 73 years old at the time of its writing and Kenneth was an infant. The family held the manuscript for about 60 years when Stephen's granddaughter began preparing it for publishing. Audrey Staley Hilliker did vast research to authenticate the details and prepare for publication. She was not able to publish the manuscript and it was again placed in the family's storage. In late 2007, great granddaughter Donna Staley Heeres viewed the manuscript for the first time. She was taken by the writing style and storytelling. She asked permission of her father, Kenneth Staley, to again attempt to prepare the manuscript for publication. He readily agreed. After countless hours of typing, editing, proofreading, verifying facts, she enlisted the help of her friend Linda Postmus to illustrate scenes from the book. Linda carefully researched to assure historical accuracy for all aspects of the illustrations. With manuscript and illustrations in hand, Donna contacted another friend, Laurie Hodgson, to format them for print and prepare the cover design. After many contacts with printers, Donna contracted with Jack Eberhard of Book Concern Printers of Hancock Michigan, to print the book.

The book is now available for purchase in Boyne City at Country Now and Then and Fresh Waters; in East Jordan at Busy Bridge; in Charlevoix at Round Lake Books, Book World, the Historical Society and Central Drugs; in Atwood at Friske's Market; in Ellsworth at The Front Porch Restaurant; in Central Lake at Adam's Madams; in Petoskey at MacLean & Eakin; in Harbor Springs at By the Bay and Between the Covers Bookstore; and in Good Hart at the General Store or by contacting the distributor Donna Staley

Heeres.

For over 50 years, the Redwood Steak House in Lewiston has offered a unique, steak house (and seafood) experience right here in northern Lower Michigan. PHOTO BY DAVE BARAGREY

A tradition of excellence in dining and service at the Redwood Steak House in Lewiston

By Jim Akans

For over 50 years, the Redwood Steak House in Lewiston has offered a unique, steak house (and seafood) experience right here in northern Lower Michigan. From the tantalizing, melt in your mouth flavors of hand carved Porterhouse, New York Strip and Tenderloin steaks and Roast Prime Rib of Beef, to the delicious delicacy of Lobster Tails, King Crab Legs, Jumbo Shrimp that are steamed or hand dipped and deep fried, and tender, flakey Ocean Perch, Fresh Whitefish or Icelandic Cod, the menu at the Redwood Steak House is a virtual roster of delight for northern Michigan residents and visitors to behold.

Redwood Steak House opened their doors back in April of 1958, and other than two short breaks, one the result of a fire and the second during a change of ownership, this extremely popular dining destination has been providing a tradition of excellence in dining and service ever since. The original 48-seat restaurant was built by Bill and Elda Butski, and purchased by brothers Curt and Tommee Render in 1967, who expanded the facility to a seating capacity in the dining room to 130, and added a bar area. In 1980, Rob Chapman, who had been working for the Renders since 1969, purchased the Redwood Steak House and expanded the dining area even further to achieve a seating capacity of 150.

Today, the Redwood Steak House offers not only a first class dining experience; they also feature live entertainment or Karaoke on Friday and Saturday evenings. Regular performers include local musical favorites Sneaky Peat (who will appear on August 12th and 13th and on Labor Day Weekend), and Key West Comedy Magician, Frank Everhart, will perform on Thursday, Sept 1st. "Michigan Man" Mike Ridley also performs at the Redwood Steak House on a regular basis.

Redwood Steak House features daily dining specials that have generated a wave of excitement among area diners. Those included a famous all-u-can-eat Fish Fry on Tuesdays and Fridays, Steamed or Hand Dipped Jumbo Shrimp on Wednesdays, Roast Prime Rib of Beef Au Jus on Thursdays and Saturdays, a Complete Chicken Dinner on Sundays, and Monday's are reserved as "Chef's Choice," with a unique, and delicious selection each week.

"Something we have just added is our Chef's Pasta Corner, which includes our fresh salad bar, on Wednesday's," states Rob Chapman. "Guests select their choice of pasta dish, and then watch as our Chef Dino Cassisi prepares it."

Another favorite specialty item at the Redwood Steak House is "The Steak Tray." Servers bring a tray of sumptuous Porterhouse, New York Strip or Tenderloin steaks for guest to select from, or they can have a steak cut to order.

For over half a century, the staff at the Redwood Steak House has been dedicated to the highest of standards. Freshness is always a top priority, and they prepare their own dressings, soups and sauces from scratch, and even bake their own bread, corn muffins, biscuits and more on a daily basis for their guests.

"I encourage people to take a beautiful drive to Lewiston and visit us," states Rob Chapman. "At the Redwood Steak House, they can select their own steak, or perhaps enjoy some great seafood, and know that our entire staff is committed to making their dining experience a truly enjoyable and memorable one."

The Redwood Steak House is located at the corner of County Roads 489 and 612 in Lewiston. For reservations and additional information, call (989) 786-4600 or visit www.theredwoodsteakhouse.com.

JRAC to Host Chad Pastotnik Retrospective

On Sunday August 7th, the Jordan River Art Center will host the opening exhibition of the Chad Pastotnik Retrospective. Pastotnik has been proprietor of Deep Wood Press, along the Cedar River near Bellaire for the past 20 years. Chad has a BFA in printmaking and focuses on intaglio copper and relief wood engravings. He has also had formal training in bookbinding as well as repair and conservation/restoration techniques.

During this time he has become well known in the United States and Europe for his production of limited edition fine press books. Great attention is paid to tradition and detail. The books contain artwork printed from the original matrices of one or more of the following printmaking processes; intaglio, wood engraving, collographs and linoleum cuts. They are printed on cotton hand made or mold made sheets gathered from all points of the globe. Inks are often hand made from raw ingredients and all aspects of the finished book follow rigorous archival practices to insure that, with care, the books will continue to exist for centuries to come. His books are considered as a fine art form.

Chad has set all type by hand, designing the layout, and printing on vintage presses dating from the 1880s to the 1950s. Two years ago he acquired a Linotype and now often sets book composition using this line-casting machine.

On Sunday August 7th, the Jordan River Art Center will host the opening exhibition of artist, Chad Pastotnik, shown here by the Linotype machine.

Chad won the prestigious Carl Hertzog Award for Excellence in Book Design for his production of "Heart of Darkness" by Joseph Conrad. Since then he has had numerous lecturing and speaking engagements culminating in a keynote address given to the British Printing Society in Manchester England. This book and the award winning medal will be on exhibition as well as most of the 30 some books printed by Deep Wood Press over the years.

He enjoys collaborating with many printmakers and other writers that share a similar call from their respective muses. To name a few: "Killing the Bear" a short story by Judith Minty, a Michigan Poet Laureate and Professor at UC Berkley; "The Intruder" by John Voelker—Robert Traver; and "Winter Walks" by Jerry Dennis, illustrated by Glen Wolff. His work can be found in many private collections as well as many prestigious museums such as the Museum of Modern Art, NY, the Newberry Library, Chethams Library (UK) and the Art Institute of Chicago.

Chad was a former Board member of JRAC and helped with the formation of the Parkside Arts Council. He has taught many workshops on book making and printmaking. He has presented many lectures and during the opening, Sunday August 7, Chad will discuss his work with a talk at 2:30 pm in the JRAC gallery, 301 Main St., East Jordan. Many of the edition books will be for sale. In addition to the books displayed will be many of his prints and even some of his early oil paintings. The exhibit by this prestigious artist should not be missed. All art patrons are invited. The exhibit is open daily, 1— 4 pm through August, 26. For further information call 231-582-6399 or call Chad 231-587-0506.

Celtic Music Comes to Aten Place on July 30th

The Celtic band Legacy will bring their traditional and original Irish music to the Aten Place stage on Saturday, July 30th, at 7:30 p.m. Legacy is a three-piece band comprised of Don Penzien on guitar, bodhran, and whistles, Valerie Plested on fiddle and Brian Hart on vocals.

Fiddler Valerie Plested is one of the finest and most musically expressive young talents to have emerged on the American Irish music scene. She relocated to Mississippi (to earn her MA in Anthropology/Irish Studies) from San Antonio where she was a member Agus and the All Ireland-winning St. James's Gate. Don Penzien's dexterous work on dadgad guitar provides not only the solid, driving rhythms that are a hallmark of Legacy performances, but also perceptive and sensitive accompaniments to songs and airs. Don also contributes bodhran, whistle, and vocals to Legacy arrangements. When not playing music, Don is a medical school professor with a PhD in clinical psychology. In 2002, at age 24, Brian Hart became the first American and youngest person ever to take First Place in the All-Ireland Fleadh ballad singing competition, senior division. This is the band's second performance at Aten Place.

Legacy has drawn the enthusiastic attention of Irish traditional music fanatics all across the South and Southwest. They performs an extensive repertoire of traditional and original Irish music and song. The band draws its core members from the most accomplished Celtic musicians in that region. Legacy is in the top flight of regional bands performing music from the Irish tradition; their loyal following is both well-earned and deserved. Their skill is undeniable, their arrangements are complex and challenging, and their performances are tight and energetic.

Aten Place is located 1/2 mile south of Cherry Hill Road on Old Mackinaw Trail in Boyne Falls. The venue is a ninety-year old oak frame barn with seating for 180, overlooking the Boyne River valley, in the shadow of Boyne Mountain. Tickets are $25 for two and $15 for singles. Tickets go on sale at 6:30 pm the day of the concert, with performances beginning at 7:30 p.m. Advanced tickets and schedule details available by visiting www.atenplace.com. Aten Place is a non-profit endeavor, and no food or beverage is sold on the premises. Many patrons bring snacks and desserts to share at intermission. There is also a covered picnic pavilion for those who wish to come early and enjoy the grounds and peaceful setting.

Art "en Plein-Aire"

The Charlevoix Circle of Arts is pleased to announce the Opening Reception for the upcoming exhibit "Northern Latitudes & Attitudes" on Saturday, July 30 from 6pm-8pm at The Circle, located at 109 Clinton Street in downtown Charlevoix. The public is encouraged to attend; admission is free. The exhibit will feature the work of Charlevoix area artists Emelie Braun, Jan & Mike Coltman, Beverly Eby, Barbara & Gary Eisenberg, Ingeborg Fritz, Margie Guyot, Patricia Immonen, Nancy Kaulins, Diane Mittenthal, Donna Pearlman, Jeannie Putman, Mary Lou Sick and Barbara Steele.

Five years ago, a small group of Charlevoix residents - both year round and summer - decided it would be a lot more fun to pursue together their love of painting landscapes. They began meeting weekly during the warm-weather months to paint the beautiful views and vistas of northern Michigan.

They call themselves the Plein-Aire Artists of Charlevoix, taking from the French tradition of painting "out of doors." According to Barbara Eisenberg, one of the group's founders, "the inspiration of the site and clarity of light thrill the soul and inject energy and poetry onto the canvas."

Participation in their group was, and is, open to everyone. There is no cost, no obligation to join in. Many in the group are accomplished artists, others beginners, and still others are returning to art after years of just being too busy to find time to paint. All levels of experience are welcome and all media (oil, watercolor, acrylic, pastel, sketching).

Their main goal is to have fun, but they have found that the enthusiasm and encouragement of the group inspires each of them to paint more, discover more about creating art, and learn from each other. Their outings take them to locations they would never have experienced otherwise and fosters an appreciation and affection for our area.

They have developed strong friendships and have, through the Plein-Aire group, become more involved in community volunteerism, especially with the Charlevoix Circle of Arts where many of their artists teach classes, act as docents in the Gallery, and participate in and attend events.

To join, all one needs to do is show up at their weekly sites. For more information, call Emelie Braun at 231-237-9245 or email ronaldbraun@charter.net.

The "Northern Latitudes & Attitudes" exhibit will be on display July 30 through September 5. Please visit the Charlevoix Circle of Arts - the Plein-Aire Artists of Charlevoix are excited about sharing their experience with all.

For information on future exhibits, classes and events, please call the Circle of Arts, 231-547-3554, or go to the Circle of Arts website at www.charlevoixcircle.org.

JRAC Writers' Group Publishes Book

The Jordan River Arts Council Writers' Group has just published a book, "Writings", A Collection of Selected Works by Local Writers and Artists. All participants since its beginning in 2002 were invited to submit their writings. The group started with a workshop by Barbara Garipy whose inspiration encouraged the members to write and write more. The group continues today, meeting monthly every second Tuesday from 7 - 9 pm. Any interested person, whether a JRAC member or not is invited to join the group.

Over 30 persons have participated from the beginning with eleven persons submitting several writings apiece -poetry, essays, short stories, and biographies. Writers included: Shirley Butcher, Diane Cox, Suzanne Dalton, Howard Ellis, Lisa Knauf, Jennifer Lewis, Carol McCarrus, Peggy Midener, Donna Moll, Norma Petrie, and Suzanne Rogers. As an introduction to each members' writings a colored picture of an original work of art with the lady slipper as the subject.

Artist works included are: Babs Young, Nancy Carey, Diane Cox, Caroline Risk, June Storm, Rosie

Evans, Prudence Barber, Christine Brown, and Sylvia Walworth. The lady slipper has been the symbol of the Jordan River Arts Council since its beginning, 22 years ago. The Jordan River's endless, clear flow, and the lovely, fragile, and elusive Lady Slipper, symbolizes for us the treasures hidden here in the valley. The original lady slipper design was created by Pat Tinney and members of the Writers' Group felt that having our artist volunteer paintings, tapestries, and photos would support their continuous flow of writing for the reader's enjoyment.

The book is now on sale at the Art Center, 301 Main St., East Jordan during exhibition showings, the Busy Bridge, Main St., East Jordan, and Adams Madam, Central Lake. For further information contact, Howard Ellis, 231 536 2152 or check the web site: <http://jordanriver-arts.com>.

William Sanderson, 88

William Sanderson, 88, of East Jordan, died Monday, July 25, 2011, at Grandvue Medical Care Facility in East Jordan.

Arrangements are pending at the Penzien Funeral Homes, Inc. in East Jordan.

Steve Kroll

(DEC. 16, 1945 - JUNE 18, 2011)

Steve Kroll was born in Hancock on Dec. 16, 1945, and passed away in Denton, Texas, on June 18, 2011, with his wife, Rebecca Harrison Kroll, and sister, Kay Ellen Kroll, holding vigil at his side.

Despite battling lupus (SLE) since first being diagnosed in 1973, Steve was a vibrant 65. He grew up in Ironton and Charlevoix and graduated from Charlevoix High School with the class of 1964. Steve served his country in the U.S. Army in the mid 1960s and then used the GI Bill to graduate from the University of North Texas in 1978 with a bachelor's degree in music education.

It was the Army that brought Steve to Texas where he met and married Rebecca Harrison on July 25, 1971. Steve and Becky have made Denton their home since 1976 but have spent the hot summer months in Northern Michigan.

Steve is survived by Becky and their Texas family, siblings, Faye Harrison, Kelly Harrison, David Harrison, Steve Harrison, and nieces and nephews, Roy, Heather, Clay, Evalyn, Chris, Jennifer, Nathaniel, Olivia, Joe and Stephanie.

Steve and his mother, Ethel Margaret Kroll of Charlevoix, were simpatico with each other and great friends. When she died six days after Steve did, on June 24, one could not help but believe that there was a grand plan to allow that friendship to continue in heaven as it was on earth.

Steve was a perfectionist in all his endeavors and truly aspired to be great in all that he tried. As a musician, he taught, wrote and performed with a multitude of instruments as well as voice. As a photographer, he excelled as an amateur and later became a professional. He used creative license and always had an eye for that perfect shot. As an artist, he worked on commission projects but preferred to work with a free hand. As a pilot, he built and flew his own ultra-light aircraft and was a member of a glider club in Denton, Texas. As a sailor, he built and sailed his own craft but was at home both in and on the water in any capacity.

Steve cared about his community and his country. As a fervent ecologist and naturalist, he was always willing to live and to lead by example about how to leave a smaller carbon footprint.

A great day for Steve was to be able to write, draw and take a picture, to make music, sail or fly. A perfect day would be doing any of these things with family and friends.

A celebration of Steve's life will take place at 4 p.m. on Saturday, July 30, with a memorial service at the Ironton Congregational Church, with the Rev. Michael Ochs officiating, followed by a gathering of friends and family at Elm Pointe in East Jordan.

Donations in Steve's memory may be mailed to the Lupus Foundation of America, 2000 L Street NW, Suite 710, Washington, D.C. 20036, or online at www.lupus.org.

Thomas Leslie Orlow, 68

Thomas Leslie Orlow of Douglas Lake, Mich., died peacefully surrounded by family on July 21, 2011, in Petoskey, following a major stroke.

He grew up in a bilingual household in Kettering, Ohio, the son of Alfred and Hanna Orlow, who were German immigrants. He attended Howe Military School, received his bachelor's degree from DePauw University and his master's degree in education from Miami University. He was a member of Sigma Alpha Epsilon fraternity.

Tom met his life's love, Linda Garmhausen, at Camp Chick-A-Mi, Linda's mother's private girls' camp near Douglas Lake, where he taught sailing, and she taught horseback riding. They married in 1966 in Sidney, Ohio, and have one daughter, Tammy Orlow. Tom was greatly influenced and inspired (academically and as fellow sailors) by Linda's father, Jack Garmhausen.

Tom was an engineering officer in the Navy where he served for 2 1/2 years. Following his service, he taught social studies at Talawanda High School in Oxford, Ohio, for nearly 30 years. At Talawanda, he founded the Service Learning program and the Sailing Club. In Oxford, he was involved with Miami Ice Hockey, volunteered at the Community Counseling & Crisis Center Hotline, and was a member of the United Methodist Church and the Lions Club.

Tom and Linda retired to Northern Michigan in 1999. Even in retirement, Tom could not stay away from teaching. In Petoskey, he taught social sciences at North Central Michigan College. He was program director for the Lake Charlevoix Mariners sailing school for five years. He took over as program director for the Little Traverse Sailors sailing school in Harbor Springs in 2005. He also taught U.S. Sailing Instructor Training Courses throughout the region. In Northern Michigan, he was a member of US SAILING, Charlevoix Yacht Club, Little Traverse Yacht Club, and was on the board of the Michigan School of Marine Technology.

Throughout his life, Tom was a gifted, passionate teacher, and an avid reader. He also enjoyed rowing, weight lifting, and listening to music. He had a strong desire to pass his love and knowledge of sailing on to others. He particularly enjoyed the thrill and camaraderie of competitive sailing, and raced his boat Northern Light in Chicago Mackinac races, and as many Charlevoix Wednesday night races as possible. Tom has inspired and mentored countless sailors of all ages.

Tom is survived by his wife, Linda; daughter, Tammy, of Hinesburg, Vt.; brother-in-law, John Garmhausen (Debra), of Sidney, Ohio; niece, Caroline, and nephew, Geoffrey.

There was a celebration of life on Sunday, July 24, at the Little Traverse Yacht Club in Harbor Springs.

Beauty Tips

By Tania Jain

Beauty is an essence. Looking beautiful means having one of the most comforts of life. The word 'beauty' has a number of synonyms, cute, smart, gorgeous, handsome, and good looking sexy, stylish and after all beautiful.

When we use word beauty or beautiful, it clearly indicates our inclination towards something or object which we like the most. Nature is most beautiful object we see. The word beautiful is a feminine word. When we listen the word beauty or beautiful, we assume a pretty, cool, charming and good-looking face. Boys or men don't need to be beautiful rather they need to be handsome.

No matter either you are a cool pretty girl / woman or a handsome boy / man; you need to be smart, intelligent, and diligent. Your intelligence and diligence all reflect in your personality. And your personality depends on the fact that how you carry yourself and how you associate with the objects or persons around you. Your personality is the integration of your body, mind and soul. The amalgamation of beauty with your mind and soul make you stand out in a crowd.

It means beauty has its place everywhere. It exists in every being. If you don't feel beautiful it may be that you are not taking care of your body, i.e. skin, nails, eyes, hair, etc.

Taking care of your body means taking care of your self and for that you don't need to put extra effort, you don't need to put extra hour of your work schedule. You only need to put in the minimum required attention. You need to regulate your life style, you need to discover the ways of living, and you need to monitor yourself with proper care.

How do you do that?

Here are few tips that make you a noticeable personality in the crowd and your body healthy, sexy and overall beautiful.

1. Drink 8 to 12 glasses of water everyday, having more water means feeling less hungry, consuming less food and hence being fit in shape and always looks energetic.

2. You can drink water in a regular interval of half an hour or so, while in office or traveling long, keep you water bottle with you.

3. Take balanced diet rich in carbohydrates, vitamins, minerals, and good fats.

4. Cut on calories; don't take food that gives high calories and fewer nutrients.

5. Nutrients are necessary to keep you away from sickness and helps in being beautiful

6. Take some beet root, cut into small pieces and grind. Squeeze it and massage your face for 5 minutes with beetroot juice. Wash / shower after 10 minutes with mild soap or gram flour. You will feel relaxed and your face will glow.

7. Mix honey in water, and drink it daily in the morning. This will keep your skin shiny and smooth.

8. Massage your body with milk. Moisturizer in the milk will keep your skin smooth and healthy.

9. Keep room temperature moderate, using humidifiers. This will keep you skin away from dryness.

10. If you take shower too long or a bit long, the dead skin of your body automatically gets removed. Don't rub your body with towel. Be gentle on your skin.

11. If you go out in the sun, your skins will loss its fairness. Take cucumber juice and tomato juice and apply it to your skin, shower after 10 minutes. This will make your skin fair.

12. Take rose petals, and grind them. Mix with cream on the top of milk. Shower after 10 minutes.

So take a little care of your body and stay healthy, handsome, beautiful, smart, and bold.

Hospice of Northwest Michigan Recognized as a We Honor Veterans Partner

It may surprise many people to learn that 25 percent of those who die every year in the U.S. are Veterans. To help provide care and support that reflect the important contributions made by these men and women, Hospice of Northwest Michigan, in partnership with the Health Department of Northwest Michigan, has become a national partner of We Honor Veterans. We Honor Veterans is a pioneering campaign developed by National Hospice and Palliative Care Organization in collaboration with the Department of Veterans Affairs.

As a We Honor Veterans Partner, Hospice of Northwest Michigan will implement ongoing Veteran-centered education for their staff and volunteers to help improve the care they provide to the Veterans they proudly serve. The nation is seeing many of the Veterans who served in World War II and Korea pass away—and the number of deaths of Vietnam Veterans is beginning to rise.

The We Honor Veterans campaign provides tiered recognition to organizations that demonstrate a systematic commitment to improving care for Veterans. "Partners" can assess their ability to serve Veterans and, using resources provided as part of the campaign, integrate best practices for providing end-of-life care to Veterans into their organization. By recognizing the unique needs of our nation's Veterans who are facing a life-limiting illness, Hospice of Northwest Michigan is better able to accompany and guide Veterans and their families toward a more peaceful ending. And in cases where there might be some specific needs related to the Veteran's military service, combat experience or other traumatic events, Hospice of Northwest Michigan will find tools to help support those they are caring for.

"All hospices are serving Veterans, but often aren't aware of that person's service in the armed forces," said Lynda Bockstahler, Director of Home Care & Aging Services for the Health Department. "Through We Honor Veterans, we are taking a giant step forward in serving Veterans at the end of life."

"VA shares a common goal with hospices, and that is to provide the best possible care specifically tailored for Veterans, meeting their goals of care in their preferred setting," she said. "As we focus on working together and uniting our services and skills, We Honor Veterans will channel our combined strengths directly to Veterans - wherever they are receiving care."

The resources of We Honor Veterans focus on respectful inquiry, compassionate listening, and grateful acknowledgment, coupled with Veteran-centric education of health care staff caring for Veterans. To learn more about We Honor Veterans or to support this important work via a secure, online donation, please visit www.wehonorveterans.org.

The Health Department of Northwest Michigan is mandated by the Michigan Public Health Code to promote wellness, prevent disease, provide quality health-care, address health problems of vulnerable populations, and protect the environment for the residents and visitors of Antrim, Charlevoix, Emmet, and Otsego counties. For additional information regarding We Honor Veterans, call Bockstahler at 231-547-6523.

What Can Happen if Varicose Veins Are Left Untreated

By Novi Vein

There are many unpleasant side effects of untreated venous disease, including varicose veins. There are more than 20 million Americans who suffer from venous insufficiency. An estimated 40 percent of women and 25 percent of men will experience the symptoms of varicose veins.

If you suffer from venous disease, you may be experiencing a number of lighter symptoms, including aching leg pain, fatigue and heaviness, swelling, restless legs, night cramps and pruritus (itchy legs). Symptoms may even get worse as the day progresses. Venous disease can be present in the absence of visible varicose or spider veins. It is beneficial for your health to seek specialized, professional assistance at a full-time varicose vein treatment center and follow the advice of the physician after they review your case.

There are many possible consequences of leaving your varicose veins or venous disease untreated, including skin color changes - the affected area may adopt a bruised look with a blue or brown tint near the veins. The area can also become itchy, dry and irritated, and lead to excessive scratching. The unhealthy skin may lead to ulcerations (open sores) as well as excessive bleeding or bruising after minor injuries. Additionally, irritation can build due to the collection of waste products which would normally be removed by the proper blood circulation.

A more advanced condition is deep vein thrombosis, a serious condition which is the result of a blood clot development in one or more of the deep veins in the body. Symptoms include warmth, redness and swelling, often extending above the knee. Patients that are at a higher risk for this condition include those over the age of 60 and those that have undergone recent surgery with a history of prior deep vein thrombosis. Others include prolonged immobility and paralysis, as well as blood clotting disorders, obesity, pregnancy and postpartum.

To avoid advancing into more serious conditions, patients suffering from venous disease should consult a full-time, specialized varicose vein treatment center with board-certified physicians.

Boyne City 9/10 Softball All-Stars heading to Kalamazoo

By Chris Fiel

EAST JORDAN – Was it the heat? Was it big game jitters? Either way, it all worked out in the end, as the Boyne City 9/10 softball All-Stars recovered from a slow start before scoring nine times in the bottom of the fifth inning to earn a 10-3 victory over Gaylord on July 23, and are now headed to Kalamazoo for the Little League State finals the weekend of July 29 thru August 1.

Boyne City pitcher Katie Hoth tossed another no-hit gem, striking out 11 batters and walking six in six innings of work. Hoth has not allowed a hit in four contests, and has recorded 55 strikeouts in 22 innings on the mound.

Gaylord got things started in the first inning, scoring one after a walk and a few passed balls. They added single runs in both the second and third inning, and didn't threaten to score again until the sixth, where two runners reached via walk.

Catcher Olivia Looze gunned down a would be base stealer at second base, and threw out another at the plate, when she hustled to a passed ball and flipped it to Hoth who was covering and applied the tag.

The Boyne City offense took a while to get untracked as they were only able to push across a solo run in the bottom of the second, despite some hard hit balls that were right at the Gaylord defenders.

The fifth inning was where the Boyne squad took advantage of their patience and discipline at the plate, drawing 10 walks and delivering two well placed hits.

Leading the offense was Hoth, Charleena Crozier, and Kelsey Hubbard with one hit each. Three Gaylord pitchers combined to walk 15 boyne batters, making it tough to find a good pitch to connect with.

Crossing the plate for the winners was Makhaylee Fiel with two runs, while Hoth, Hubbard, Looze, Charleena Crozier, Kimberly Crozier, Carrie Butka, Hailey Fogo and Naomi Johnson each scored once.

TAWAS – Coming out of pool-play with a 4-0 record, Boyne City advanced to the District semi-finals and took on an always tough West Branch team on July 20.

Behind the strong arm and solid bat of Katie Hoth, Boyne delivered some key hits and executed some very fundamentally sound bunting strategies and came away with a 14-4 win in five innings to advance to the District 8 final.

Hoth was again untouchable in the circle, as she pitched her third no-hit game of the tournament, fanning 14 batters and walking seven.

She was also a machine at the plate, hitting a booming triple along with a single, Makhaylee Fiel punched out two singles, Olivia Looze tripled, Charleena Crozier singled, and Carrie Butka and Kimberly Crozier both reached on bunt singles. Hailey Fogo also executed two outstanding sacrifice bunts to score a teammate and move runners up on separate occasions.

West Branch scored solo runs in the first, third, fourth and fifth innings, while Boyne City scored once in the first, five in the second, four in the third, one in the fourth and three in the fifth.

The big second inning for Boyne got started with a Makhaylee Fiel single, followed by Carrie Butka reaching on a well placed bunt and after a strikeout, Charleena Crozier and Kimberly Crozier each delivered singles before Katie Hoth smacked a base clearing triple.

Scoring runs for Boyne; Hoth with three, Butka, Kimberly Crozier and Fiel two each, while Charleena Crozier, Fogo, Looze, Naomi Johnson, and Josephine Smith each scored once.

All Good things must come to an end

District 8 Big League team bows out

By Chris Fiel

WYOMING, MI – The District 8 Little League Big League (16-18) baseball team saw its tournament run end with a 11-1 loss to eventual regional champion District 9 out of Grand Rapids, MI on July 20, and were welcomed home around 6 p.m. with a police escort.

In that contest against host District 9, District 8 saw things get off to a rocky start as starting pitcher Caleb Roberts (Boyer City) hit a batter and walked another with two outs before giving up a three run triple. He got out of the inning by striking out the next batter.

Jordan Harasewicz (East Jordan) took to the mound to start the second inning, before being replaced by Riley Zigila (Grayling) later in the inning.

Zigila gave only one earned run throughout the state and regional tournaments, despite throwing over 100 pitches.

Aaron Peck (East Jordan) came on in the fourth inning, allowing three hits and tossing a respectable final innings. District 9 took advantage of the hits along with a walk and an error and scored four times over the final three innings.

The only score for District 8 came after a hit batter followed by a walk and an RBI single by Wes Petrie (East Jordan) giving District 9 a 11-1 victory and eliminating District 8 from the regional tournament.

The District 8 team was the only team in the regional tournament that did not have a week off after the State tournament.

“After playing a very grueling six games in seven days with 95 degree sustained temperatures, my boys were whooped.” District 8 coach Kevin LaVany said. “We needed a week between tournaments to be rested enough to be able to compete at this next level, I am very proud of them for battling as well as they did given the temperatures and our schedule.”

In the opening contest against Indiana, District 8 got off to a fast start in the first inning as Kolbi Shumaker (Boyer City) doubled and scored on a RBI single from Jensen Aubry (Grayling). Aubry moved up on a Mike Evans (Boyer City) single and scored on a Gage Burt (Boyer City) RBI single.

After that, it appeared that District 8 ran out of gas and did not score again.

Aubry started and after allowing a walk and a couple of base hits, had to be replaced due to pitching regulations. Shumaker came on to get the final two Indiana batters to pop out.

Shumaker worked a very efficient 1 1/3 innings, allowing no runs before being replaced by Riley Zigila. Zigila got the final out of the inning and cruised to a 1-2-3 third inning through the heart of the Indiana batting order.

Indiana was able to score a few more runs off middle relievers and after four innings of play the score was Indiana 10, D-8 Michigan 2. Indiana added another run in the top of the seventh, resulting in the final score of the day, 11-2.

Successful Week for Mancy Crush as they Lift Record to 21-3

The Crush won two games from the Traverse City Rockets by forfeit on July 20th when the Rockets were unable to field a team for the scheduled Great Lakes League double header. On July 22 and 23 the Crush traveled to Alpena to participate in the Alpena Summer Cats Invitational. In their opener, the Crush lost to the Sandlot from Gaylord 7-3. Mancelona committed seven errors and collected only 6 hits in the loss that snapped the Crush's win streak at 12 games. Nick Lockman was charged with the loss despite surrendering only one earned run on eight hits.

In their second game of the tournament the Crush scored 2 runs in the bottom of the 8th inning to beat the Petoskey Royals 3-2. Each team scored one run in the opening inning and that would be the end of the scoring until the 8th inning. Playing by International tie breaker rules in extra innings the Royals opened the eighth with a runner on second base. Hunter Stinger's sacrifice bunt advanced the runner to third base with one out and Kevin Thompson would put Petoskey up 2-1 with a sacrifice fly, but the Royals would not score again. The Crush opened the bottom of the eighth with Brandon Washburn on second base and Kyle Coggins at the plate. Coggins bunted and was safe at first when the Royals tried to prevent Washburn from reaching third base and were unsuccessful. Dustin Derrer lined a single up the middle to score Washburn and advance Coggins to third base with no outs. The Royals intentionally walked Josh Tyrer to load the bases and then Travis Schuba ended the game with a walk off single to give the Crush an exciting 3-2 win. Derrer had 3 hits, with Tyrer and Lockman adding 2 hits each to pace the Crush offense. Schuba pitched all eight innings and was the winner after allowing only 2 runs on 3 hits while striking out 8 Royal hitters.

On Saturday the Crush needed a win over the host team Alpena Summer Cats to advance to the championship game for a rematch with the Sandlot who finished pool play with a 3-0 record. The Crush trailed 3-2 in the bottom of the seventh inning with two outs and runners on first and second base before Lockman hit a laser over the 365 foot sign in straight away center field to give the Crush a dramatic 5-3 win over Alpena. Lockman and Tyrer each had 2 hits for the Crush offense, and Derrer was the winning pitcher after he came on in relief and surrendered only 1 run on 4 hits in 5 2/3 innings of work.

In the Championship game the Crush tightened up their defense in the rematch with the Sandlot and they jumped out to a 7-0 lead after 3 1/2 innings before the game was interrupted by a 20 minute weather delay. After the game resumed the Crush bats cooled off, but their defense and the pitching off Schuba carried them to a 7-2 victory. Dustin Allen, Zach Bontrager, Lockman, and Coggins each had two hits for the Crush. Schuba allowed the Sandlot 2 runs on 5 hits, while the Crush defense was flawless in the title game, committing no errors. The Crush record is now 21-3 and they close the season on July 27 when they host the Petoskey Royals at 4:00 pm at Mancelona High School.

DNR News DNR sets date for sporting swine

State legislature to work on regulatory program for hunting and breeding facilities between now and October

LANSING -- Department of Natural Resources Director Rodney Stokes has drafted a new order that lists sporting swine as an invasive species effective Oct. 8, 2011. Acting on a request from Governor Rick Snyder, the purpose of the extension is to give the Legislature needed time to pass legislation that would create a rigorous regulatory program for sporting swine hunting and breeding facilities in Michigan. Sporting swine are a mix of Eurasian or Russian boars or swine that are bred and used for hunting purposes.

The original order listing sporting swine as an invasive species was signed by former DNR Director Rebecca Humphries in December and post-dated for July 8 at the request of incoming legislative leaders to give the Legislature the opportunity in 2011 to regulate sporting swine hunting and breeding facilities. The House of Representatives passed legislation earlier this month, and this extension will give the state Senate the opportunity to act on the bills.

Stokes said work on implementing the invasive species order will continue on schedule, with facility notification and visits starting in mid-July. He said active enforcement of the invasive species order would start April 1, 2012, if the Legislature does not act before then.

The DNR acted to list sporting swine as an invasive species to help stop the spread of feral swine and the disease risk they pose to humans, domestic pigs and wildlife as well as their potential for extensive agricultural and ecosystem damage. The state is working with the U.S. Department of Agriculture to eradicate feral swine. Legislation was also passed last year allowing anyone with a hunting license to shoot feral swine.

For more information on feral swine in Michigan, go to www.michigan.gov/feralswine.

DAVE Says

Is downsizing the answer?

Dave Ramsey

Dear Dave,
My wife and I are about to have our first child. She'd like to stay home with the baby after it's born, so we'll be losing about half our income. We've looked at our budget, and we can stay in the house but things would be very tight. I'll make $42,000 this year, with a potential bonus of $23,000 at the end of the year. Our house payment is $1,550 a month. Do you think we should downsize to a smaller home and live more comfortably?
Mike

Dear Mike,
I hate it when people have to leave their homes. It can be a hurtful thing to the heart and spirit.
If you had $65,000 as a steady income the house payment wouldn't be a big deal. But you can't count on a potential bonus, and from your guaranteed income, more than half your take-home pay will be wrapped up in a house payment. You'd probably have to take a part-time job, or save any bonus you get to subsidize your income just to have a realistic chance of making ends meet.

I'm all for mom staying home with the kids - especially a little baby - whenever possible. But when it comes right down to it, Mike, you and your wife have to decide if it's worth the part-time work and budget hassles to stay where you are.

Moving is no fun, especially when it's something you're forced to do. But you don't want to be a slave to your house payment either!

—Dave

Refinance questions

Dear Dave,
We're thinking about refinancing our home, and will be talking to a loan officer next week. What kinds of things do I need to know so we can protect ourselves in the deal?
John

Dear John,
It's not really a big deal. You'll get a Truth in Lending Sheet and an Estimated Settlement Sheet. You might want a little more detail, so ask them to give you a sample settlement sheet based on the size of your loan.
Watch out for points and origination fees. These are nothing but pre-paid interest. You might get a little lower interest rate if you pay them, but the break-even point is between seven and 12 years to get your money back. Since the average mortgage is refinanced every 5.6 years, paying points and origination fees is not a good deal.

And don't worry if the loan officer tells you this isn't normal. They'll just have to work a little harder to do it!
—Dave

Broker diversity?

Dear Dave,
Is it a good idea not only to diversify among various mutual funds, but also among different companies that sell mutual funds?
Brian

Dear Brian,
There's no need to do that. Find one good broker you're comfortable with, and who has the heart of a teacher. You want to know what's going on with your money, and finding someone who can explain it well and help you understand the details is a must!
Just make sure your broker is not directly connected to the mutual fund. You don't want someone with a vested interest. What you're looking for here is someone who can objectively connect you to a good mutual fund with a solid five- to 10-year track record.

Volunteers Needed for Day of Caring

In honor of the National Day of Service and Remembrance on September 11, hundreds of volunteers will join together on Thursday, September 15 in an effort to make our community a better place to live.

The 8th annual Day of Caring matches teams of volunteers from businesses, schools, faith communities, community groups, families and individuals with non-profit organizations in Charlevoix and Emmet Counties that could use a hand in completing some necessary projects.

Volunteer registration is now open for Day of Caring projects. All projects are posted online through Char-Em United Way so volunteers can choose preference for projects based on their availability, team size, and skills.

To register, volunteers should log onto Volunteer Connections, Char-Em United Way's "virtual volunteer center." All projects will be filled on a first come first serve basis. Volunteers should consider group size and availability when choosing a project. Char-Em United Way will be unable to match volunteer teams with a chosen project if there are conflicts with time availability or group size.

Volunteer teams will complete various tasks for non-profit organizations, schools, and government agencies as well as home maintenance for senior individuals. Projects might incorporate painting a hallway, building shelves, organizing a pantry, weeding a garden and much more.

To register as a volunteer for Day of Caring visit www.charemunitedway.org and click on "Volunteer". Then follow the link to our Volunteer Connections website and do a search using the key words "Day of Caring". Choose the project that best fits your skills, time availability, and group size then click on "I'm interested in this opportunity" to send Char-Em United Way an e-mail. You will then receive a response e-mail to set up the details.

For more information contact Char-Em United Way at info@charemunitedway.org or 231-487-1006.

FOCUS ON THE FAMILY

with Jim Daly & Juli Slattery

Dr. Juli Slattery

In wake of infidelity, wife must learn to trust again

Q: My husband had an affair and we're now in counseling trying to work things out. How do I ever really know if he will do it again?

Juli: First, I applaud you for your efforts to restore your marriage in the aftermath of your husband's infidelity. A breach of trust that deep is so difficult to recover from that many couples are not willing to do the rebuilding effort.

To answer your question, you cannot know for certain that he'll never be unfaithful again. Choosing to love another person always involves an act of faith, hoping for what we cannot be certain about. However, no marriage can be based on "blind faith." In a marriage relationship, you and your husband owe it to each other to demonstrate a commitment to fidelity. This is particularly true as he has been unfaithful in the past.

Working with your counselor, you and your husband need to build safeguards or "hedges" around your marriage to protect against another affair. For example, do you have access to each other's cell phones and email accounts? Obviously, you could go overboard checking up on your husband, feeding an atmosphere of distrust and even paranoia. But in the wake of an affair, it is reasonable for you to expect a greater level of accountability in order to rebuild trust.

Another critical element of preventing another affair is understanding how the first one occurred. In many cases, affairs happen because there are cracks in the marriage. Sometimes spouses drift apart and stop communicating. Or they have unresolved issues related to finances, sex or parenting. An individual might even have emotional problems, like past sexual abuse or bipolar disorder, that lead to an increased likelihood of infidelity. None of these things excuse an affair, of course. Work with your counselor to identify what made your marriage open to the affair initially. Then come up with practical ways to strengthen those weak areas.

Q: My son is playing Little League baseball this summer, and it's great -- except for the other parents. They're caustic and rude to one another, to the umpire, and even to the kids on the opposing team. Should I take my son out of this toxic environment?

Jim: Summer baseball is one of the greatest joys a boy can experience, and it would be a shame if you had to deprive him of that, especially as the result of someone else's bad behavior!

Nevertheless, I know what you're talking about. My biological father was all but absent from my life, but one day he actually did show up at one of my Little League games. There was only one problem -- he was drunk. While the other parents cheered for their kids, my dad was loud and obnoxious. His speech was slurred. He cursed the umpire. He screamed and made an utter spectacle of himself. I was humiliated and embarrassed.

But as you know from firsthand experience, more and more parents are behaving this way at sporting events even when they're perfectly sober! They may have good intentions. They may think they're encouraging their kids. But if they're being rude, disrespectful or belligerent, they're doing more harm than good. And they're setting a horrible example for every child on the field.

Rather than taking your son out of Little League, you might encourage him to just persevere -- to practice good sportsmanship and take the high ground even when the adults are acting like bullies. Your own calm demeanor in this setting will make a huge impact on him. It's certainly sad that Little League can't be a simple, fun experience for everyone. But at least you can redeem the time by turning it into a character-building experience.

Question & Answers About Selling Real Estate

The Best Times to Downsize Your Home

By Mike Stark,
Stark Realty, Inc.
(231) 536-7700

Although downsizing a home isn't for everyone, sometimes it's a wise option. It can save you space, time and most importantly—money. There are several situations when downsizing can be a wise choice.

While being between jobs is part of life, the duration between them can be quite challenging. Unfortunately, we still have bills while we're searching for a new gig. That includes mortgage payments and utility bills. Although there's no crystal ball to be 100% certain, be realistic about how soon you'll likely find a new job. If that will likely happen later rather than sooner, then you should probably consider searching for a smaller home.

Parents should also prepare for the day that their children are ready to start working towards their own home-ownership. That situation will likely happen a few decades before you consider retiring and downsizing your home. So you'll need to determine if you should downsize when your children have moved out of your home permanently. One option is to use the newly vacant rooms for functions such as storage rooms, guest rooms, exercise rooms, and so on. If you're still concerned about the added cost of maintaining a bigger house, then you should probably consider downsizing as an option.

Next, you simply might not feel comfortable in a bigger house. Sometimes living in a certain house can give us a sixth sense that makes us uneasy. You simply might feel uncomfortable living in a large home. If that's true, then you should probably consider downsizing.

A somewhat obvious yet noteworthy issue is that larger homes are more difficult to maintain than smaller ones are. You simply not have the effort, time, or money to maintain your current home properly. If it's a problem, then you should certainly consider downsizing to a smaller home. Spending less time maintaining your home will not only be cheaper and easier, but it will free up time for you to do the most important stuff in life—such as pastimes. Even if you absolutely, positively adore your home, maintaining it could cause unwanted headaches.

Retirement is certainly one of the most frequent reasons for downsizing from a larger home. Even though more seniors are working today than in the past, the cost of living and other factors are making it difficult for them to pay their bills. After working for about four decades, you've earned the right to enjoy your retirement. One way to ensure that you do is by moving to a smaller home.

Unfortunately, the cost of maintaining your home can be quite expensive. Obviously, your mortgage is the most significant cost that you'll need to deal with. You should also consider the cost of the utilities. Do the math to learn how much money you could save by owning a smaller home. You might determine that it would be more practical to reduce the costs of living in your current home. That could include using fewer utilities, making the house more energy-efficient, and so on. Sometimes prevention is indeed better than a cure.

The above scenarios are certainly ones that would justify downsizing to a smaller home.

A beautifully renovated log home offers spectacular Deer Lake views

By Jim Akans

Gazing out from the nearly 3,000 square feet of decking wrapping around this beautifully renovated Boyne City log home, the panoramic view of the northern Michigan landscape literally stretches out for miles. The gorgeous vista embraces a carpet of hardwood and pine forest, rolling countryside, and the crystal blue waters of nearby Deer Lake. Like this home and property, the extensive raised deck is an extraordinary location and setting.

That location is just a few miles outside of Boyne City, another exceptional northern Lower Michigan destination that offers an amazing array of dining, shopping, entertainment and recreational opportunities, including a public beach and boating access to Lake Charlevoix. Yet this home and property, which includes over eight acres of Mother Nature's scenic wildlife splendor, provides a welcome retreat to a wonderful environment of serenity and privacy. This is truly the best of all worlds.

The home offers approximately 2,700 square feet of finished living area, including 1,700 square feet on the main two levels and an additional 1,000 square feet in the finished walk out lower level. There are three generously sized bedrooms and three full baths, and a huge family room area in the lower level that offers all kinds of versatility depending on the new homeowners needs.

Highlights of the main level include a stunningly beautiful kitchen space with hickory cabinetry, sleek black appliances, and tongue and groove wood ceiling with recessed lighting. The warmth of hardwood flooring extends through the kitchen, dining and main living room areas, the latter of which feature an open two-story cathedral ceiling and extensive window array framing the exquisite outdoor views.

In addition to the meticulous detailing this home has received during a recent renovation, it also has undergone some mechanical updating, such as a new boiler system. This is a terrific turnkey opportunity for the homebuyer seeking a place to move into and immediately begin to enjoy.

The list price for this fantastic log home on over eight acres is $209,900. For those interested in additional land, there are an additional 10 acres of property available for $49,900.

Northern Michigan Antique Flywheelers Show

will enjoy watching or participating in the daily Kids Pedal Tractor Pull, or getting up close to a variety of animals at the on-site petting zoo, and there are plenty of spots to find delicious meals, snack and beverages right on the Flywheelers Club grounds. Those include the Pavilion Kitchen, Pie Shack, Ice Cream Booth, Kids Korner, and the Pig and Beef.

Let's not forget the live music. Each day, musical performers of every musical genre will take to the stage and perform throughout the afternoon and evening. During the weekend, bands and solo artists such as Country Traveler, Gene Warner's Second Time Around, Horton Creek, Kelly Shively, Chris Dominic, the Maple Sugar Band and Cascade Hollow will have folks of all ages and music tastes tapping their feet and bop-pin' their heads.

Best of all, the annual Northern Michigan Flywheelers Show is a value priced family event. Daily admission is just $5 per person, and that includes parking! There are also camp sites available, both rustic and those with electrical hook-ups, priced from just $25 for all four nights, so bring the RV or camper and stay the whole weekend.

A full schedule of events is presented elsewhere in this edition. For additional information, visit www.walloonlakeflywheelers.net.

parades, and 4-wheel drive "Mud Run" event to cap things off on Sunday afternoon, August 7th.

And don't forget to bring your appetite because the food, oh the food, has got to be the reason Polka dancing is designed to burn away so many calories. The Polka Tent is definitely the center of the action at the Polish Festival, open Thursday from 6 pm until 12:30 am, Friday and Saturday from 10 am until 1 am, and Sunday from noon until 11 pm with live music playing and dancers dancing during most of those hours.

Adult beverages are served along with the great food under the tent. There is a nightly cover charge at the Polka Tent, and those wishing to enter must be at least 21 years of age with a valid I.D.

The 37th Annual Boyne Falls Polish Festival is a fantastic way to spend a summer weekend in the beautiful Michigan north!
