Scrappy Red Devils looking to shake up tough Lake Michigan Conference

Core group of seniors lead squad

By Chris Fiel

EAST JORDAN – Coming into the season, veteran coach of 17 years, including the last six in East Jordan, Darrin Weber knew that his team would face tough challenges each and every night they take the court.

The Red Devils finished the 2010-11 season with a 9-12 record and went to work this offseason as they attended many summer camps.

“We had a pretty good summer as we attended camps at both Central Michigan University and Gaylord.” Coach Weber said. “We also saw a lot of quality competition in the Petoskey summer league.”

Coach Weber welcomed back a good solid group of eight seniors as well as adding five underclassmen to the roster this season.

Of those eight seniors, Dustin Mellios, John Richards, Austen Mellios, Marcus Wingate and Wyatt Werner will look to shoulder much of the load this season and lead the newcomers.

Also those that will be looked at to contribute will be sophomores Noah Bacchus and Isaiah Sladick.

“Were not very tall, but we have quickness,” Weber noted. “We have a couple of guys 6’1” – 6’2” and another that is 6’4”.”

The Red Devils will count on their quickness and scrappy play to harass opponents each and every time they take the court. Also, the East Jordan squad is expected to share the responsibilities of scoring, rebounding and distributing the ball.

The Red Devils finished the 2010-11 season with a 9-12 record and went to work this offseason as they attended many summer camps.

“We don’t have a top guy this season, but we have a lot of quality players that can get the job done,” the coach said. “Whoever has the hot hand on any occasion, we will look to them offensively while playing good team defense.”

So far this season, the Red Devils stand 1-3 at the Holiday break. They opened up with a 64-30 win over Mancelona Ironmen behind a balanced attack of 16 points apiece from Austen Mellios and Richards, along with 11 from sophomore sensation Noah Bacchus.

Norsemen with 15 points and 12 boards, while against the Elks, Austen Mellios and Richards each dropped in nine points and Wingate added eight.

“We played well defensively as we held Luke Morrison to seven points in the contest.” Noted Weber. “Even though he reached the 1000 career point milestone in the third quarter.”

In the game against the Rams, East Jordan got off to a slow start before playing even ball with Harbor the entire second half.

Dustin Mellios led the team with 21 in the contest.

Another bright spot for the Red Devils is the progress of the youth programs, with this year’s 7th and 8th grade teams having enjoyed very successful seasons.

2011-12 GIRLS VARSITY BASKETBALL

Lady Red Devils off to solid start this season

Experienced group of veterans to lead team

Returning Senior Grace Howes of East Jordan goes for the block against Charlevoix in a January 2011 game.

By Chris Fiel

EAST JORDAN – Led by a large group of seniors, coach Steve Hines Lady Red Devils stand at 4-2 coming off the holiday break, as they sandwiched a pair of wins around a pair of losses.

The veteran coach of 10 plus seasons will look to that group to work hard each time they take the court.

“We have a lot of experience, the girls have great attitudes and there is some good team chemistry,” Hines said. “This group works extremely hard and we will use that to our advantage.”

The Red Devils finished the 2010-11 season with an 8-13 record, and look to be off to a solid start to this season.

Leading the team this season will be junior point guard

Valerie Peters along with seniors Grace Howes, Emily Crick and Paige Roberts.

Peters is on her third season and from early indications, looks to have improved her overall game. Howes is a constant threat inside, as is Roberts.

“We expect a strong conference again this season,” Hines noted. “But with our senior leadership, I look for us to step it up and play hard.”

In the opener against Central Lake, Peters paced the team with 18 points, while Howes turned in a solid performance with 12 points, nine rebounds and seven steals, and Bacchus added 12 in a 56-42 victory.

Game two saw the Lady Red Devils come away with a 63-37 victory over Buckley as Bacchus dropped in 20, Howes added 16, 10 boards and seven steals and Peters 11 points.

In a 42-30 loss to Gaylord, Howes led the way with 10 points, against Elk Rapids, Peters scored 11 in the 60-31 loss.

Just before the Holiday break in back to back games, the Lady Red Devils earned a hard fought 45-42 victory behind 21 points from Howes, and in their 62-27 win over Lake City, Peters scored 18 and Bacchus added 10.

Look for these ladies to continue to play competitive ball, putting up good numbers and playing as a team in the always tough Lake Michigan Conference.
