SEASON PREVIEW

2012-13 BOYS VARSITY BASKETBALL

Aggressive play, depth key for Rayders this season

Catt, Hamilton, Russell to lead the way

BY CHRIS FIEL

CHARLEVOIX – In coach Adam Wood's first two seasons as the man in charge, the Rayders have posted a 28-14 record, including a 12-9 campaign last season. This season Charlevoix will return key players and in addition to that, have added some depth to the rotation.

Coach Wood noted that the team has been pushing each other everyday in practice and with the added depth at every position, each practice is intense and filled with great energy as each individual is competing for playing time.

"We have had great energy and intensity everyday and we can't ask for anything more than that at the start of the season, our young guys are adjusting to the speed of the game, but improve everyday," Wood said. "It will be exciting to see what this group can do together."

Returning to the lineup for the Rayders are All-Area selections Tanner Catt and Charlie Hamilton, along with Sawyer Russell.

Catt was a defensive specialist for Charlevoix last season, with the ability to guard anyone and change the game with his presence on the court.

Hamilton brought his "quick-strike" shooting off the bench last season, at 11 points per contest, and with unlimited range and the fearless ability to get to the rim among the giants, he will be counted on to share in the scoring load.

Russell will be looked on to have a break out season and not to be overlooked (which will be difficult to do) is 6'8" junior Zach Hankins, who has improved by leaps and bounds and will continue to get better as the season progresses.

So this season look for a lot of effort, intensity and passion from this group of Rayders, and whoever is called upon will leave every ounce of energy on the floor, each time they take the court.

"We are pleased with the effort of the guys after the first week of practice," coach wood said. "They have shown great energy, intensity and passion in everything they are doing. We love the way they have pushed each other to be better and are holding each other accountable to the standards we have in place. If they continue this trend, I believe we can compete with anyone. It's just a matter of working hard every single day!"

2012-13 GIRLS VARSITY BASKETBALL

New season, new, yet familiar coach

Rayders looking to play uptempo; Carlson, Boss to lead team

BY CHRIS FIEL

CHARLEVOIX – Liz Shaw takes over as the Lady Rayders varsity basketball, after previously coaching at the junior varsity level under then head coach, Kieth Haske, compiling a record of 60-0 in three seasons.

Shaw brings a get after the ball type of defense, that transfers into creating scoring opportunities for her squad.

“Were quick, very athletic, and were going to go hard at teams and force them into turning the ball over,” Shaw said. “We have a good bunch, but not a lot of game experience.”

With that lack of game experience and the “leave it on the floor” hustle that is expected of her players, Shaw said the opportunity for playing time is available, the girls just have to go and take it.

Returning to the Charlevoix line-up from last seasons district finalist, is senior All-Area selection Sydney Carlson. Carlson along with sophomore Madeline Boss are the top two returnees for the Rayders and will be looked at to lead the team.

Shaw also noted that practice up to this point is going good and for a young team, the girls are starting to grasp the new system better each day, and have displayed shining moments in practice that they can build upon.

"It's a work in progress, very exciting so far for both myself and the team," the coach added. "It has been a positive experience."

The coach also said that the team is excited for the season to begin, they are ready to compete at a high level and are having fun in the process by making each other better everyday by competing in practice.

"I think they're on the right track," Shaw said.

Charlevoix played host to Ellsworth in their opener on November 27.
