Varsity Football

SEASON PREVIEW

Low on numbers, loaded with positive attitude and work ethic

BY CHRIS FIEL

EAST JORDAN – The East Jordan Red Devils will suit up only 17 football players when they take the field for the first snap this season, but those 17 young men bring with them a tough work ethic and a great attitude.

“Well, we don't have a lot of kids out this season, but their attitude is great, its a breath of fresh air,” veteran coach Allan Peterson said. “I'm proud of these guys and how hard they have been working.”

Some of the top returnees and early surprises for the Red Devils will be senior, Zack Shepard, an athlete who has come along way since his football days began. Junior Ben Walton, is regarded and an outstanding athlete and super player, and Weston Swanson a junior that came into the preseason with some added foot speed and has been a pleasant surprise.

“We have a positive outlook on the season,” Peter-

son added. “Were pretty optimistic about things and we look to surprise a few people and do well.” “We will be doing some new things offensively this year and look to gain confidence in the process.”

Other East Jordan seniors on the roster are: Joe Manville, Alex Moses, Josh Johnston, Dillon Sweet and Jack Holbrook. While other veteran returnees expected to play key roles are juniors Noah Bacchus and Tim Schutt.

SEASON PREVIEW

Lady Red Devils take to the court

BY CHRIS FIEL

EAST JORDAN – Coach Anne Crick will look to third year starter and senior Valerie Peters to lead the Lady Red Devils on the court this year.

The standout three sport athlete is one of the areas top hitters and will resume her position as strong side hitter for East Jordan this fall. Peters led the team last season as a junior in kills, digs and serving.

Seniors Angela Watkins, McKenna Steltzner and Stevie Bartig return to the line-up, Watkins will return to her middle hitter position, Bartig will move over to the setter position and Steltzner will be filling the libero position for the Red Devils. Fellow senior Allie Sutton will also contribute.

Also on the team are juniors; Mariah Holm, Lindsey Graham and Paige Poindexter, along with sophomores Kristen Malpass and Katie Spence.

“The girls have worked hard this summer attending team camp and multiple scrimmages,” coach Crick said. “We are looking forward to the season.”

SEASON PREVIEW

Girls look to challenge for LMC, boys down on numbers, not on talent

BY CHRIS FIEL

EAST JORDAN – The Red Devils return two very talented runners in the form of junior Josh Wojan on the boys team and sophomore sensation Kayla Keane on the girls.

“We look for Josh to be one of the top runners in the area and he will be hard to beat.” Red Devil coach Rick Hawley said. “Our girls team is doing well and will be led by Kayla.”

“Donvee and Gabe should be very competitive for us in league, and Teddy looks good as a young runner.” the coach added.

The girls squad is comprised of senior Casey Keane, juniors, Holley Carson, Tess McNitt, Ellen Brandell and Tori Goodrich. All four juniors are third year runners, with Goodrich transferring from Ellsworth.

Another high note for the girls team is freshmen Brittanie Moses.

“I see a very competitive runner in Brittanie,” Hawley added. “I believe she will be a big asset to our girls team.
