Rugged regional awaits Charlevoix

By Andy Sneddon

CHARLEVOIX - It isn't how you start, but how you finish.

The Charlevoix High School girls basketball team proved that axiom last week when it knocked off Elk Rapids, 66-61, in a Class C district championship game.

It was Charlevoix's first district title since 2006 and the Rayders advanced to the regional at Sanford Meridian where it was scheduled to play McBain, 19-2, in a semifinal game on Tuesday.

Beaverton and Lincoln Alcona comprise the other half of the regional bracket. The championship game is set for Thursday.

The Rayders, 13-9, lost their two regular-season meetings to the Elks, 52-41 and 66-49.

But Friday's game was a different story as Charlevoix's full-court pressure negated a decided Elk Rapids size advantage.

"I felt like we have gotten better all year," second-year Charlevoix coach Liz Shaw said. "The press really relies on all five teammates working together, and I think the more they understood that the better they got throughout the season.

"It's a tribute to the girls working hard all season and never settling for mediocrity. They always wanted to strive to get better and better."

Madeline Boss scored 18 points and grabbed 10 rebounds to lead Charlevoix, While Gabby Gray added 12 points and nine assists, and Kourtney Putman finished with 11 points and seven rebounds.

Charlevoix jumped out to an early 17-4 lead, but by halftime, was up just one, 28-27. Elk Rapids seized a slim lead early in the third quarter, but the Rayders managed to maintain their composure and then snuff out the Elks, who finished 14-8.

"We just did a great job on defense in the backcourt," Shaw said. "I felt like if (Elk Rapids) got the ball in the block, they'd score. Our game plan was to emphasize the press and not let the ball get down in the block.

"We had tremendous ball pressure and I think our press really got to them after a while and caused a lot of turnovers."

The Rayders also got eight points apiece from Ellie Way and Olivia Storm, and seven from Alexis Tribfelner. Kelsey Engstrom led the defensive charge with three steals.

Putman and Storm came off the bench to give the Rayders a spark in the second half, Shaw said.

"They did a great job," she said. "I think together they had 15 points in the second half. Those are big numbers when you're coming off the bench."

Bridget Hintz scored 23 points and Rachel Hintz added 20 for the Elks.

"I'm just really honored to even be (at the regional)," Shaw said. "It's a great step for our program and it's someplace we want to strive to get to every year.

"That's how programs are built and state championships are won. That's where my vision is as a program, to keep getting to that next level, to keep taking steps."

Boyne Falls 59, Central Lake 43

ELLSWORTH — March Madness has officially begun and the Loggers took their first step in what they hope to be a long journey as they defeated Central Lake 59-43 in a Class D district quarterfinal at the Ellsworth High School gymnasium on March 3.

In the process, the Loggers improved to 18-1 and will face Gaylord St. Mary on Wednesday, March 5, results will not be available at press time.

Boyne Falls also saw another milestone reached on the night as sophomore center, Marcus Matelski eclipsed the 1000 career point mark, by netting 28 points in the contest. The total does not include those points Matelski scored during his eighth grade season on the varsity.

The Loggers led at the quarter breaks 14-11, 32-17 and 46-30.

George "Clay" Whitley added 13 points, while Andrew Campbell chipped in with eight for the Loggers.

In the first game, host Ellsworth beat Alba 63-48 to advance to face Bellaire on March 5 as well.

GIRLS CLASS C DISTRICTS

Lady Red Devils defeat Mancy, fall to Rayders

By Chris Fiel

Charlevoix 63, East Jordan 49

CHARLEVOIX — The Charlevoix Lady Rayders continued to play strong basketball as they were able to cool off a "hot" shooting East Jordan Red Devils team 63-49 on February 26 in advancing to the Class C district final.

Gabby Gray led the Rayders three Rayders in double figures with 17 points, while Madeline Boss added 14 and Olivia Storm had 11.

"Charlevoix played very intense and played really good defense," East Jordan coach Steve Hines said. "We turned it over too many times but they had a lot to do with that."

The Rayders led at the quarter breaks 16-9, 33-16 and 48-31.

Paige Poindexter led the Red Devils (9-13) with 13 points and five rebounds, while Miranda Burks added 12 and Lindsay Schroeder finished with 10 points and nine boards.

"We beat them in the second half, but that halftime deficit was just too much to overcome," Hines added.

East Jordan 70, Mancelona 46

CHARLEVOIX — Tori Goodrich found her mark early and often for the Lady Red Devils as she led East Jordan with 27 points, six rebounds and four assists to a Class C district quarterfinal victory over Mancelona on February 24 at the Charlevoix High School gym.

Goodrich, a senior, nailed nine triples in the contest, setting a new East Jordan school record in the process.

"She was on fire," Red Devil coach Steve Hines said. "She not only shot the ball well, she played a complete game, re-bouncing and distributing the ball."

East Jordan led at the quarter breaks 15-7, 36-13, and 59-29.

Paige Poindexter chipped in with 17 points and six rebounds and Lindsay Schroeder added 12 points and seven boards for the Red Devils, which improved to 9-12 overall on the season.

"It was certainly a nice way to start the tournament," Hines noted. "A good sound all-around game."

The Lady Ironmen were led by Eileene Naniseni with 16 points and Tyra Oetting added 10 points.

Lady Ramblers ousted by Elk Rapids 61-47

By Chris Fiel

Elk Rapids 61, Boyne City 47

CHARLEVOIX — It was a tall task for the Lady Ramblers, and by tall, the Lady Elks start a pair of 6-foot sisters in the form of Bridget and Rachel Hintz and the duo did a majority of the damage against Boyne City as they combined for 43 points in leading Elk Rapids to a 61-47 Class C district win on February 24.

With the loss, Boyne closes out a 7-14 campaign.

"We got off to a slow start, we had good looks but got down early," Boyne City coach Kevin Fitzpatrick said. "The girls never quit, we beat them in the second half, but never had an answer for Bridget or any of their bigs."

The Elks used a 15-4 opening quarter to set the tone and added to it in the second to open up a 35-18 lead going into the break. Boyne City would outscore the Elks 29-26 over the final 16 minutes but it came a little late.

"They (Elk Rapids) did a much better job against our pressure this time, and when did create opportunities, we missed shots that we normally make that would have kept the game close," Fitzpatrick added.

Rainy McCune would finish with a team-high 22 points, while Mallory Karaszewski added nine for the Ramblers.

CLASS C BOYS DISTRICT RESULTS AT MANCELONA

Ramblers, Rayders advance to semifinals

By Chris Fiel

Boyne City 64, Elk Rapids 44

MANCELONA — The Boyne City boys basketball team took charge over the final 16 minutes of their Class C district quarter-final contest with Elk Rapids and in doing so, pulled away for a 64-44 win on March 3.

“Great defensive effort. Really happy with how loose we played,” Boyne City coach Nick Redman said. “We did a great job of pushing the ball in transition and then when it wasn’t there playing disciplined half court offense.”

After a back and forth first quarter which saw both teams take multiple possession leads, the two squads would finish the quarter knotted at 16-all after Rambler junior Corey Redman connected on a layup and free throw after being fouled on a drive with 1.4 seconds left in the period.

The second quarter started much different than the first as they pace seemed to slow a bit before the Ramblers took off on a 7-0 run with just about half of the quarter remaining and would close out the half with a 30-24 lead.

Boyne would come out of the break and got back to doing what they do well as they built a 40-30 lead with 2:26 left in the third and would close out the quarter up 45-32.

The Ramblers would continue to put the ball in the hoop over the final eight minutes as they used multiple runs to take leads of 17, 18 and ultimately 20 points as the contest neared the end.

“This was a big win, a great start,” Redman added.

Leading Boyne City, 19-1, was Corey Redman with 17 points, six boards, three assists and three steals, while Ryan Carson added 15 points and seven rebounds. Maceo Vroman chipped in with 10 points and three assists and Bradley Fouchia finished with 10 points.

For Elk Rapids, Adam Trautman had 13 points and Cole Walker added 10.

Charlevoix 60, Mancelona 49

MANCELONA — Welcome Back!

Charlevoix had a little (well, not really little) surprise for Mancelona when they squared off in a Class C district quarter-final on March 3.

Rayder senior center, 6-10 Zach Hankins, who signed last fall with Ferris State University, saw his first action of the season and he did not disappoint as he led Charlevoix with a 21 point effort.

The teams played to an 11-11 first quarter and once again kept things even as they were knotted at 25-all at intermission, but a big run by the Rayders in the third would give them the breathing room they were looking for as they took a 43-32 lead into the final eight minutes of regulation.

Charlevoix, 7-14, would also get 18 points from Austin Putman and another 14 from Nate Moon.

With the win, the Rayders faced East Jordan on Wednesday, March 5 after we went to press.

Mancelona was led by Brandon Dingman with 20 points.

REGULAR SEASON ACTION

Ramblers close regular season 18-1 with win over Trojans

By Chris Fiel

Boyne City 60, Cedarville 37

BOYNE CITY — It didn’t take long for the Ramblers to get back on track after dropping their first contest of the season earlier in the week to Petoskey.

Boyne (ranked No. 2 in Class C) got a career-high 19 points from Maceo Vroman and 12 from Cole Butler as the Ramblers downed No. 5 Class D ranked Cedarville in convincing fashion, 60-37 on February 27.

“Really happy with how the guys responded after the loss on Tuesday,” Rambler coach Nick Redman said. “Nice to see them play loose and with enthusiasm. We did an outstanding job defensively to hold Cedarville to 37 points.”

The Ramblers jumped out to an early 7-0 lead, and before the Trojans knew it, Boyne was up 11-2 and finished the quarter ahead 20-8 thanks to Butler, who scored all 12 of his points in the opening eight minutes.

Boyne kept up the strong defensive effort, which turned into good looks on the offensive end in the second as they built their lead to 35-19 at halftime and carried a 45-30 cushion into the fourth quarter.

Ryan Carson would add nine points, and Corey Redman finished with nine boards and four assists.

Petoskey 41, Boyne City 33

PETOSKEY — Boyne City saw their quest for a perfect regular season come to an end as the Petoskey Northmen edged the Ramblers 41-33 on February 25.

In a game that usually helps both teams prepare for a strong tournament run, the Ramblers got exactly what they needed.

“Not disappointed about the loss just in the fact that we didn’t execute well. Unforced turnovers hurt us,” Boyne City coach Nick Redman said. “They did a good job posting up on our guards late in the game. Good end of season game for us to learn from and help us get better.”

Petoskey would take advantage of the Rambler miscues as they built a 12-2 opening quarter lead. However, the Ramblers would put together a much better second quarter and would finally take the lead 21-20 on a Cole Butler triple from the

In the third, neither teams could get much offense going, but Petoskey managed just a little more as they carried a 28-25 edge into the final eight minutes of play.

The fourth quarter didn’t fare much better for the Ramblers as they were unable to find the bottom of the net until nearly three minutes remained in the contest.

Corey Redman had 13 points to lead the Rambler, while Ryan Carson and Butler added six points apiece and Maceo Vroman chipped in with five points.

Petoskey was led by Aron Lee with 13 points.

Loggers close regular season with huge win over Red Devils

By Chris Fiel

Andrew Stevens floats in game winner

Boyer Falls 49, East Jordan 48

EAST JORDAN — Logger junior Andrew Stevens floated in a running six footer with just over three seconds left in the game to lift Boyer Falls to a 49-48 non-conference boys basketball victory over East Jordan on February 28.

“This was a good measuring stick game for us, a good quality game against a strong opponent,” Logger coach Tim Smith said. “I appreciate East Jordan playing us, we have a ton of respect for them, not everyone will take on playing us, we look forward to the match-up every year.”

With both teams enjoying strong seasons, those in attendance expected to be treated to a well played contest and that's exactly what they got.

The early part of the contest saw the two teams trying to feel each other out, and with their grind it out half court offense, the Loggers were able to take an early 8-4 lead just under five and a half minutes into the game, before the Red Devils would hit from deep to cut it to 8-7 just seconds later.

Boyer Falls would then end the quarter on a 5-0 run to take a 13-7 lead on a Clay Whitley triple and an Andrew Stevens putback.

“We played smart basketball, no real bad turnovers and took care of the ball pretty good,” coach Smith noted.

Things would get scary for the Loggers early in the second quarter as senior guard Brendan Matelski came down hard on his right wrist, elbow and side going up for a rebound and would have to be removed from the game.

However he would re-enter a few minutes later, not knowing at the time he had suffered a broken wrist.

Boyer Falls would hold leads of seven and eight points throughout most of the quarter as they would take a 27-20 lead into the half.

The third quarter would open with the Red Devils throwing an errant pass and turning it over on their first possession and the Loggers would respond with Marcus Matelski scoring on a baseline turnaround jumper to give BF their largest lead of the night at 29-20.

East Jordan would respond with free throws from Donny Cutler and a basket by Jordan Weber to pull within 29-26 with 4:50 remaining in the quarter.

Boyer Falls would then go on 8-4 run to end the third, taking a 37-30 lead into the final eight minutes of regulation.

The Red Devils would then show everyone in attendance why they are never out of a contest as they opened up the fourth with a 5-0 run on a three pointer by Noah Bacchus and a basket by Cutler off a steal to close the game to 37-35 just under a minute into the quarter.

The teams would then trade baskets over the next three minutes before Cutler would score on an up and under move to knot the score at 39-all with 3:57 left to play.

Marcus Matelski would then connect on a pair of charity tosses for the Loggers and Bacchus would respond with a shot in the lane for the Red Devils to keep pace at the 3:20 mark.

Following a Logger miss, the Red Devils would take their first lead of the game on a Cutler drive and foul, making it 44-41 with 2:23 to go in the game.

Marcus Matelski would pull BF back to within one point following a Logger timeout. East Jordan would then miss and following another BF timeout, the Loggers would go to Matelski again and he would respond with the go ahead basket at about the one minute mark.

Weber would then give EJ the lead, 46-45 on a three foot shot, only to see Matelski fouled on the next Logger possession and calmly put both freebies through for a 47-46 BF lead with 29.6 remaining.

Cutler would then respond for the Red Devils, driving right, scoring and drawing the foul with 15.9 left in the game. He was unable to convert the charity toss, and with the Loggers grabbing the rebound, BF would call timeout.

Running the clock down on their final possession, Boyer Falls looked to get the ball to Marcus Matelski, but a bobble by the Loggers would see the Red Devils gamble for possession and Brendan Matelski would find a cutting Stevens near the elbow and he would take it in lane and float up what would turn out to be the game winner with 3.9 seconds to go as East Jordan was unable to get off a shot as time expired.

“It was a nice win, a costly win for us, (with Brendan Matelski breaking his wrist)” Smith added. “Brendan is our leader, now we just have to find a way to go on without him. We're still good enough to do some special things heading into districts, we just have to find a different way to do it.”

Red Devils drop close contest to Saints

By Chris Fiel

St. Ignace 74, East Jordan 72

EAST JORDAN — When you're on, you're on.

That happened to be the case for Jordan Weber against St. Ignace as the sophomore hit eight triples en route to 36 points, but it wasn't enough as the Red Devils fell to the Saints 74-72 in a non-conference matchup on February 27.

The loss dropped the Red Devils to 15-3 on the season.

The Saints jumped out early to a 17-11 lead and would have to withstand a strong Red Devil second quarter, but still managed to take a 33-32 lead into the intermission.

The two teams would play pretty evenly in the third as St. Ignace would extend their lead to 58-55 heading into the fourth, but the Red Devils were unable to overcome the early deficit and ran out of time.

Noah Bacchus would add 11 points for the Red Devils, while Isaiah Sladek chipped in with 10.

The Saints were led by Gage Kreski with 25 points and Cole Thompson finished with 17.

WRESTLING

Another historic achievement for Boyne's Connor Mills

Senior finishes sixth at 152 pounds in Division IV state finals

By Andy Sneddon

AUBURN HILLS – Another historic first for Boyne City High School wrestler Connor Mills.

Mills finished sixth in the 152-pound class last weekend in the Michigan High School Athletic Association Division IV State Finals at The Palace of Auburn Hills.

Mills, a senior, is the first Boyne wrestler to earn a medal at the Finals, and it came weeks after he became the first Rambler to win individual district and regional championships.

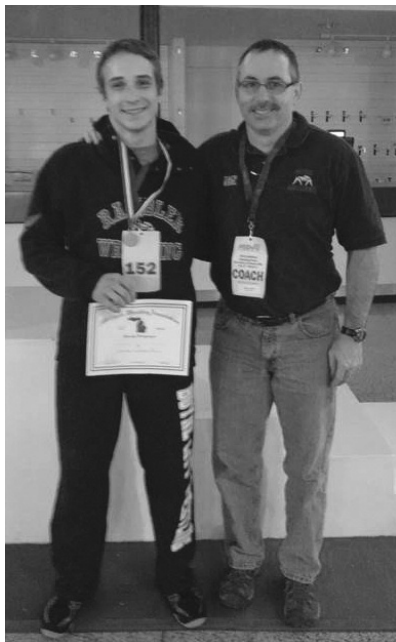

He finished 2-3 in the state tournament, winning his first two bouts to reach the semifinal round.

“He lost to the fifth-place kid, the second-place kid and the third-place kid,” Boyne coach Don Nohel said. “And he wrestled with all of those guys. It was great competition for him, a great experience for him.”

“It's a testament to Conner. He's a kid with some talent and he works hard at it. He was given the opportunity to develop his talents and to do some pretty cool stuff. I'm extremely happy for him and his family.”

Mills, who was ranked fifth at 152 in Division IV by Michigan Grappler, opened the tournament with a 5-1 win over Calvin Payne of Concord, then downed seventh-ranked Andy Waterman of Constantine, 7-1, to reach the semifinals.

He lost to third-ranked Ali Rashad of Highland Park-Detroit Renaissance, 6-3. In the wrestlebacks, Mills dropped a 20-4 technical fall to top-ranked Austin Hughes of Saginaw Nouvel, and fell to sixth-ranked Chris O'Donnell of Lawton, 3-0, in the fifth-place match. Mills, whose season was shortened by injury, finished 23-7. Kyle Johnson of Hudson defeated Rashad, 5-4, in the title match.

Johnson, who was ranked fourth, opened with a 13-1 major decision victory over Charlevoix senior Jake Novotny. Novotny was then eliminated by Jukoada Sexton of Bronson, 3-2. Novotny finished 47-9.

Charlevoix's Sam Hovie finished 1-2 at 160 in the tournament. Hovie, who was ranked ninth, opened with an 8-2 loss to third-ranked Billy Abbott of Vassar.

Hovie rebounded to beat Josiah Rabine of New Haven on a pin in 4:57 before falling, 3-2, to Brian Sumbar of Hudson. Hovie, a junior, finished 48-7.

Buick Encore Wraps Successful First Full Year of Sales

Closing its first full year, the Encore became the Buick lineup's fifth model and second crossover, ringing up sales success in one of the industry's fastest-growing segments.

Entering the small SUV and small luxury SUV segment in the U.S. at the end of last January, the Encore helped boost sales in a rapidly expanding market that just last year alone, grew by 52 percent from 2012.

"Right out of the gate, demand for the Encore was high," said Tony DiSalle, vice president of Buick marketing. "It accounted for most of the segment's growth last year and that's because it offers the right safety, technology, and features in the right-sized vehicle for many customers."

As one of the first luxury crossovers of its size, Encore's U.S. retail sales reached 31,046 units during its first full year of sales. Globally, the Encore sold 97,311 vehicles in calendar year 2013, helping Buick set its global sales record of 1,032,056 last year.

"The small SUV segment looks like the next hot spot in the new-car market," said Karl Brauer, senior analyst for Kelley Blue Book. "The combination of functionality and fuel efficiency offered by models like the Buick Encore makes them a compelling value equation for consumers. We're seeing rising research activity in these models from users of KBB.com, and we expect sales to grow in the coming months and years."

Encore's early entry to these segments is significant. Combined, the segments are expected to more than double in sales between now and 2018.

The Encore earned an Insurance Institute for Highway Safety 2013 Top Safety Pick and 5-star Overall Vehicle Score for safety from the National Highway Traffic Safety Administration. It also ranked highest in the Sub-Compact CUV segment in the 2013 J.D. Power Initial Quality StudySM and among others, was named the winner of Kelley Blue Book's 2014 5-Year Cost to Own awards in the Luxury Compact SUV/Crossover category.

Encore customers cite good fuel economy, high quality and exterior design as the top reasons for purchase, with one in two buyers coming from a non-General Motors brand.

Real Estate Corner

Question & Answers About Selling Real Estate

Energy Saving Tips: Heat Preservation

Most homeowners aren't aware that there are dozens of ways their homes are leaking air. Air leaks can drastically affect the home's heating and cooling system, forcing it to run more often than it would if these leaks were plugged. By not addressing and repairing these leaks, you can realistically expect to pay higher utility bills all year long.

But why shell out the money if you don't have to? As you'll see, these problems are so easy to fix that any do-it-yourselfer can finish the job over the course of a weekend. In this article, we'll point out several ways your home might be leaking air and how to fix them so you can preserve the heat this winter.

Tools and Materials

- Measuring tape
- Utility knife
- Duct tape
- Foam insulation strips
- Silicone caulk
- Spray foam insulation
- Water heater blanket insulation
- Fiberglass pipe wrap
- Electrical outlet insulators
- Pipe sleeve insulation
- Foil-backed bubble wrap

Safety Tip

Some of these jobs may place you in dusty or dirty areas of the home or in areas where you will come into contact with fiberglass insulation. Always wear eye goggles, a quality air mask and work gloves when in these areas. Also, if you are working with fiberglass insulation, wearing long pants and a long-sleeved shirt is recommended.

Step 1: Seal Outlet Boxes on Outside Walls

Receptacle and switch boxes that are installed on outside walls have gaps which allow the heat in your home to pass right through. Remove the cover plates and slip a pre-cut electrical outlet foam insulator over the receptacle or switch and then re-install the cover plate. This will help seal the box off and prevent air from escaping.

For even greater heat-loss prevention, fill in the hole where the wires enter the outlet box with silicone caulk before installing the insulator.

Step 2: Insulate Ventilation Ducts

If you have ventilation ducts in your attic, they may be leaking air which will cause them to form condensation. To prevent this, wrap the ventilation ducts with thin batts of fiberglass insulation.

Step 3: Check Windows for Drafts

Leaky windows are perhaps the most common culprit in the fight for heat preservation. Check your windows for any drafty spots. If you find your windows are drafty, remove the casing and fill in all of the gaps with pieces of fiberglass insulation. For very thin gaps, push the insulation in the gap using a paint stirrer or some other thin, long tool.

Step 4: Check the Pipes

Check your plumbing and gas lines for gaps, especially where they are run through walls. Take a can of spray foam insulation and fill in these gaps. Be careful you don't over-spray an area, however; as this insulation expands tremendously.

Step 5: Insulate the Water Heater

If your water heater sits in a colder part of the house, like the basement, the surrounding chilly air could be sucking the heat out of the tank. To maximize the tank's heat preservation, you should install a water heater insulation blanket over it. Follow the manufacturer's instructions when installing the blanket kit in order to ensure the best results.

Step 6: Wrap Exposed Pipes

Copper plumbing pipes can freeze easily in the winter and sweat notoriously in the summer. To help prevent this, wrap every inch of exposed pipe with either pre-formed foam pipe sleeves or pipe wrap insulation. Secure the insulation with duct tape to prevent it from falling off.

Step 7: Seal and Wrap Duct-work

If you have exposed duct-work in your basement or attic, wrap the ducts with paper-backed insulation or foil-backed bubble wrap. Use spray foam insulation to seal around the ducts wherever they pass through ceilings, walls and the roof.
