CHARLEVOIX COUNTY – Much like last season, there was a great deal of anticipation surrounding the start of football season for each of the schools in the Charlevoix County area.

The Charlevoix Rayders and East Jordan Red Devils got off to convincing opening week victories over St. Ignace and TC Christian, respectively, while the Boyne City Ramblers tasted defeat to Maple City Glen Lake, despite out gaining the Lakers by a 2-to-1 margin.

Following week one, the teams all seemed to take on their respective identities as Boyne City rebounded from that loss to reel off seven straight victories and only one more regular season loss to secure a playoff spot where they defeated Elk Rapids in a pre-district contest before falling in the final to Negaunee.

East Jordan started the season 3-0, picking up additional victories over Hillman and Harbor Springs before going on to finish 5-4 overall, a big turnaround over their winless season of 2012 due to the hard work of the coaching staff and athletes.

Charlevoix wouldn't be as fortunate as they would not pick another win the remainder of the season, but the Rayders did show much promise as they went hit for hit with some of the top teams in the Lake Michigan Conference and held leads in many of the games, only to see them slip away late in the contests.

But all that aside, there were a number of very talented area athletes from each squad that stood out as big playmakers in huge situations and those athletes have been selected to the 2013 Charlevoix County News All-Area Football "Dream Team".

Leading the way this season are offensive Player of the Year, Malik Smith from Boyne City, and defensive Player of the Year, Zach Wandrie, also of Boyne City.

Joining Smith on the offensive squad is fellow Ramblers, Corey Redman, Bradley Fouchia and Maceo Vroman. Charlevoix is represented by Sam Hovie, Austin Putman, Andrew Mitchell and Devin Largent, while East Jordan boasts Ben Walton, Noah Bacchus and Dustin Hejka.

The All-Area defensive team consists of Boyne's Wandrie, Jordan Wilmot, Max Cuper, Cole Butler and Luke Sage. The Rayders add Shane Sutherland, Bryan Noirot, Sam Eakes and Luke Klinger. The Red Devils showcase Tim Schut and Oscar Scheier.

Offense

Malik Smith, sophomore, (#28) Boyne City.

Malik, in his second season on the Rambler varsity, tallied 1384 yards this season on 228 attempts for a 6.07 yards per carry average. All of that despite missing a league contest due to an illness that required surgery, following a quick recovery, he was back on the field less than two weeks later and picked right up where he left off.

Smith also scored 12 touchdowns for Boyne and caught two passes for 19 yards. He also chipped in on defense when needed and recorded 22 tackles.

“Malik is an explosive back with great balance and speed,” Rambler coach David Hills said. “It’s his second year on the varsity and he is still just a sophomore.”

Corey Redman, junior, (#16) Boyne City. The 2012 Player of the Year, Redman finished 59-of-114 passing for a 52% completion rate, exceeding the 1000 yard milestone in the process. He also tossed 12 touchdowns to six interceptions.

Corey would tuck it under and run when the situation called for it as he rushed to 123 yards on 19 carries for a 6.47 yards per carry and a score.

Coach Hills noted that Redman is a natural leader with great mechanics and size and has tremendous potential.

Maceo Vroman, junior, (#10) Boyne City. Vroman, another speedy weapon in the Ramblers arsenal, gained 499 yards rushing on 50 attempts for a 9.98 average, and four touchdowns.

Maceo also hauled in 27 passes for 509 yards and six scores for an 18.85 yards per catch average. He also recorded 35 tackles on defense with four fumble recoveries and four picks.

“Very quick and determined,” coach Hills noted. “He is able to get separation and is dangerous in open space.”

Bradley Fouchia, senior, (#2) Boyne City. Another cat-like quick multi-position player, Fouchia kept defenses on their toes with his speed out of the backfield or ability to stretch the defense by lining up split wide.

Bradley rushed 57 times for 472 yards (8.28 yards per carry) and four touchdowns, caught 21 passes for 343 yards and four scores. He also played defense, tallying 43 tackles, one fumble recovery, three interceptions, and a defensive score.

“Brad can do it all,” Hills said. “Very talented receiver and tough running back.”

Sam Hovie, junior, (#20) Charlevoix. The undersized fullback sure didn’t play like his 5’8” 160 pound frame. He attacked the opening (and sometimes there were no openings) with force and speed in leading the Rayder ground game this season.

Hovie gained a team-high 531 yards rushing on 104 attempts for a 5.1 per carry average and five scores. He had a season long run of 51 yards.

Sam was credited by coach Ron Bindi as being the best Charlevoix back this season and also for his work on the defensive line.

Austin Putman, sophomore, (#6) Charlevoix. Austin was a key target for Rayder receivers this season and when they found him open, he rewarded the team with some big plays.

Putman hauled in 11 passes for 378 yards, (34.4 avg) and three scores with a long of 78 yards. He averaged 47.3 yards per game receiving for Charlevoix.

“Great average on yards per catch,” coach Bindi noted. “No telling what he could end up with if we had adequate protection to throw to him, he is also a good blocker.”

Andrew Mitchell, senior, (#75) Charlevoix.

Devin Largent, junior, (#55) Charlevoix. These Rayder linemen drew tough assignments each Friday night and held their ground in helping pave the way for 2,392 yards in total offense, including 1330 yards rushing on 318 attempts.

Ben Walton, senior, (#40) East Jordan. “Big” Ben as fans, teammates and coaches referred to him, did not go unnoticed by opponents as his 5’11”, 255 pound sculpted frame was in the midst of plays on both sides of the ball.

Walton led the Red Devil rushing attack with 629 yards on 99 carries and bulled his way into the end zone on what seemed to be a nightly basis with seven touchdowns, including a long of 58 yards. Walton also led the EJ defense in tackles.

Noah Bacchus, senior, (#2) East Jordan. The speedy halfback/split end raced all over the turf for the Red Devils, gaining 506 yards on 97 attempts and three scores. He also caught five passes for 77 yards and one TD.

“Noah was a leader on both sides of the ball for us,” Red Devil coach Allan Peterson said.

Dustin Hejka, senior, (#18) East Jordan. Hejka was the EJ offensive leader, managing the clock when needed and distributing the ball to the necessary receivers, handing it off to the backfield or calling his own number and moving the chains for the Red Devils.

Hejka ended up rushing for 431 yards on 74 attempts and seven touchdowns. He finished 16-for-38 passing for 260 yards and four touchdowns, with a long of 53 yards.

Defense

Zach Wandrie, senior, (#62) Boyne City. Wandrie was a leader on both sides of the ball and in the huddle for the Ramblers and when a big play was needed, Zach would step up and make it. Opposing teams would also alter their game plan to run away from his side of the defensive line.

Wandrie recorded 77 tackles on the season, including sacks at key moments and also recovered three fumbles.

“The anchor on both side of the ball on the O-line and D-Line,” Rambler coach Hills said.

Jordan Wilmot, senior, (#7) Boyne City. Jordan, a free safety for Boyne, picked off five passes and recovered a fumble in addition to his 60 tackles.

Wilmot also filled in at quarterback when Redman went down with an injury during the regular season finale and finished with 96 yards rushing on 22 attempts and a score, caught two passes for 33 yards and finished 8-of-22 passing for 146 yards.

“Jordan is reliable and tough; an intelligent player who played multiple positions on offense and lead our defense in interceptions with five,” coach Hills added.

Max Cuper, junior, (#49) Boyne City. A linebacker for the Ramblers, Max recorded 97 tackles, two fumble recoveries and a pair of interceptions.

Cuper also played TE for BC, catching five balls for 32 yards. “Never comes off the field, physical player on both sides of the ball,” Hills noted. “A very disciplined player in and out of season.”

Cole Butler, junior, (#82) Boyne City. Cole played outside linebacker for the Ramblers and ended up making 66 stops and an interception from his position.

Butler also played TE, catching five passes for 105 yards.

“Cole is the ultimate team player who never comes off the field,” coach Hills said. “Great blocker and talented receiver, he plays physical on both sides of the ball.”

Luke Sage, sophomore, (#40) Boyne City. A talented underclassman that led the Ramblers in tackles from the linebacker position with 112. He also had a fumble recovery and a safety for Boyne.

Sage also saw time in the offensive backfield, rushing 44 times for 181 yards and three scores.

Coach Hills noted that Sage is physical and an explosive hitter that makes big plays.

Shane Sutherland, senior (#7) Charlevoix. Shane led the Rayder defense with 103 tackles from his linebacker position, including four sacks. He had a season-high 18 stops against East Jordan.

Sutherland also rushed for 240 yards on offense and three scores for Charlevoix.

“Shane was our leading tackler and captain,” coach Ron Bindi said.

Bryan Noirot, junior, (#21) Charlevoix. Noirot, a cornerback, finished with 40.5 tackles this season for Charlevoix. He also had a sack and an interception.

Bryan rushed for 101 yards on offense as well.

Sam Eakes, senior, (#60) Charlevoix. Eakes, a linebacker, made 49 stops for the Rayders on the season.

Eakes had big games of eight tackles each in the first two contests and finished the season with a 17 tackle performance against the Red Devils.

Luke Klinger, senior, (#12) Charlevoix. The senior defensive back made 16 tackles on the season as teams went away from his side of the field when going to the air.

Klinger also tallied 1013 yards in total offense, and scoring eight touchdowns.

Tim Schut, senior, (#32) East Jordan. Schut was the leader of the Red Devils defense from his middle linebacker position, calling the plays for the team.

He finished with 50 tackles on the season and picked off a pass and returned it 22 yards.

Schut also recorded five tackles for a loss.

Oscar Scheier, senior, (#67) East Jordan. The 6’1” 205 pound defensive linemen (and offensive guard) was the Red Devils most consistent lineman according to coach Allan Peterson.

“Oscar very seldom came off the field,” Peterson added.

In the race for Coach of the Year, this year honors once again go to Boyne City’s David Hills for another outstanding season.

Hills, who returned to the sideline last season after a short layoff, once again led the Ramblers back to the playoffs for the second consecutive year, going 7-2 during the regular season before picking up a pre-district playoff victory in front of the home crowd.

By going 8-3 this season, Hills upped his record at Boyne to 85-31 overall.

The Ramblers, like the other area teams, gave their best effort each and every week, but Hills was able to get his Boyne City team to execute big plays and push their efforts to new levels.

With the loss in the district final to Negaunee, we are sure the Ramblers (which will return a very solid nucleus) are already looking forward to the 2014 football season and with that the preparation begins with conditioning and strength training throughout the offseason.

Congratulations to coach Hills and all of the student-athletes selected to represent their schools and the All-Area “Dream Team.” Student-athletes are nominated by their coaches, based on performance, teamwork and character.

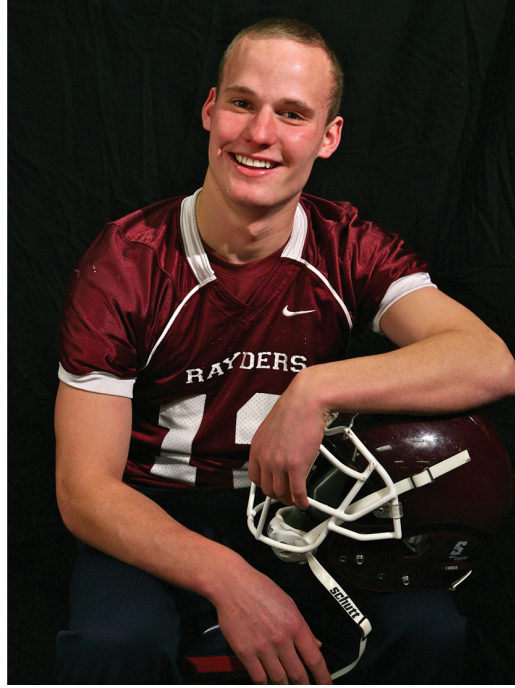

Also, a big “Thank you” to Boyne City Public School for the use of their facilities for the photo shoot.

Real Estate Corner

Do You Have Buyer's Paralysis?

Part 3 of 3

Compliments of Mike Stark, Stark Realty, Inc. (231) 536-7700

Fear of the future

Fear takes the fun out of a lot of things, but there is reasonable fear and unreasonable fear. Unreasonable fears have no basis in reality, so there is little you can do beyond getting professional help for your anxiety. Reasonable fears you can handle on your own with a little common sense.

Fear can be tamed by looking at the worst case scenarios compared to the best case scenarios. So examine the questions that are really bothering you.

What if we can't make our payments? This question can be balanced by a best case. What if we manage our money so well that we can make double payments? So the fear here is manageable - it comes down to how confident you are about managing your money. If you aren't sure of yourself, get help. Ask someone whose money management style you admire for advice on how to manage your money better. Then stick with it.

What if the value of our home goes down in value? Would you feel as fearful if you asked yourself whether your property will go up in value? Property can go up or down, but all property requires maintenance or it surely will deteriorate in value. This can be easily prevented by having enough budgeted or in your reserves to perform scheduled and unscheduled maintenance. Look at the properties surrounding the home you are considering. Are they maintained with pride? Are they being updated? Then your chances are good that the neighborhood and your home will retain its value. Rest assured that there will always be a buyer for an attractive, well-maintained property.

Because it is not a liquid asset, real estate is not as volatile as you think. It goes down slowly and rises comparatively slowly. And home values even when depressed may get a resuscitation after a few years. Your best hedge against the future is to keep your property in desirable condition.

You can't predict the future. The only thing you can do is prepare yourself to handle what may happen.

So money isn't the root of all evil, but it is the root of indecision - at least when you are paralyzed about buying a home. Thinking through the money issues can help you get moving one direction or the other. For some of you, just reading this article will put your jitters to rest. For others, you may realize that a home isn't in the cards for you right now, and that's OK. Wait a few days or weeks if you need to. Use the time to regroup. It is far better for you to work through a few obstacles than to jump into the largest investment of your life without confidence. If you can work through your fears, get your finances in tip top shape and proceed, you'll find buying a home doesn't have to be a paralyzing decision. In fact, it can be one of the most exhilarating things you'll ever do.

If you are worried about cash flow, then making disproportionately large house payments will tarnish the joy of home ownership, unless you can find ways to cut down the other pie pieces. Work to improve your cash flow. Accelerate your credit card pay-offs Don't incur new debt. Re-budget your expenses and eliminate unnecessary expenditures. Make compromises - vow to cut down if you can't cut something out. Be willing to move timelines for meeting your goals. Don't be influenced by others to live beyond your means. Set your sights on an affordable home, and you may find your dream home will appear right before your very eyes.

Ford to reveal all-new Mustang on December 5th

Ford will take the cover off the all-new Mustang Dec. 5, the sixth generation of the iconic pony car that will celebrate 50 years in production next year. To count down to this highly anticipated moment, Ford is teaming up with Facebook and Instagram to showcase what Mustang has meant to its millions of fans the last 50 years and how it continues to inspire people around the world.

"Mustang has come to be much more than just a car for its legions of fans spanning the globe from New Zealand to Iceland and Shanghai to Berlin," said Jim Farley, executive vice president of Ford global marketing, sales and service and Lincoln. "When you experience Mustang, it ignites a sense of optimism and independence that inspires us all."

"Today, we kick off the countdown to the all-new Ford Mustang," added Farley, on hand for an event leading up to the Los Angeles International Auto Show. "With a new design and greater refinement, world-class power and performance plus innovative new technologies, Mustang is ready for the next 50 years."

Ford is counting down to the next chapter in the Mustang story by inviting people to share their photographic stories of inspiration using the #MustangInspires hashtag on Instagram, Facebook and other social media platforms. The tagged photos and videos will appear on <http://www.mustanginspires.com/>.

"Everybody has a Mustang story, and the emergence of social media has helped the Mustang community share and connect these personal moments in not just words, but photography and video," said Farley. "Mustang is the most 'Liked' car of all time on Facebook, with more than 5.5 million fans. There is no better way to build excitement for what's next than by encouraging even more sharing of the Mustang story through these very personal, emotional mediums."

To build even more anticipation for the all-new Mustang, Ford is using Instagram (<http://instagram.com/ford>) to release the first image of the new car, giving fans a tease of what to expect on Dec. 5. Fan-submitted photos will provide inspiration to 15 of the top Instagram video creators from around the world to develop an online short film series.

video each day of the countdown film series, culminating in the worldwide reveal of the all-new Mustang.

"In April 1964, Ford conducted its first-ever simultaneous international product reveal when the original Mustang was unveiled to media in New York and 11 European capitals," said Farley. "Since then, Mustang has become embedded in popular culture, with thousands of appearances in film, television, music and video games – and more than 600 owner clubs around the world."

On Dec. 5, the all-new Ford Mustang will make its debut in six cities on four continents. The reveal events will take place in Dearborn, Mich.; New York; Los Angeles; Barcelona; Shanghai and Sydney.

Ford will spotlight all of the Mustang reveal activities in Europe, Asia, Australia and the United States by sharing photos, videos and stories throughout the day. Fans are invited to follow along at:
