Lady Ramblers look to compete and challenge in tough LMC

By Chris Fiel

BOYNE CITY -- The Lady Ramblers will look to build upon the foundations that have been put in place over the last couple of seasons and compete for a Lake Michigan Conference title.

"We've got a good mix of juniors and seniors, with a lot of parts and pieces," Rambler coach Kevin Fitzpatrick said. "The girls are working hard and we feel we have enough parts to be competitive."

Returning for Boyne this season is Rainy McCune, Jenny Selissen, Taylor Baker, Mallory Karaszewski, Heather Nichols and Courtney Weldon.

The Rambler program has seen increased numbers at all levels of play and will once again have JV and freshmen teams will good numbers.

Fitzpatrick knows the pre-holiday stretch will help determine what the team needs to work on going forward.

"We need to play hard for the next couple of weeks and see what happens," the coach said. "I think the league will be competitive, there will be no off nights for anyone."

Boyne will look to play at a up-tempo pace while rotating players in and out on a regular basis, and applying some pressure defense.

"There is a good mix of post and perimeter players," he noted. "We've had a slow start with the success of the volleyball program and drama, but we like where we're headed."

The Ramblers will open with a couple of non-conference games against Gaylord St. Mary and Suttons Bay before they meet up with Cedarville and Pine River.

Boyne Falls

Loggers looking to hang first Conference banner this season

By Chris Fiel

BOYNE FALLS -- The Lady Loggers come off a successful 2012-13 season that saw them challenge for the Northern Lakes Conference title, only to be edged out by Mackinaw City.

This season, with a cast of returning veterans, we look for the Loggers to be near the very top once again and possibly earn their first league title.

Boyne Falls returns leading scorer, senior Emily Matelski, who led them at a 17 plus points per game clip, while also dishing out nearly seven assists, grabbing over six boards and four steals per contest.

Another top returnee is junior Reagan Pedigo. In her sophomore season, Reagan nearly averaged a double-double, dropping 12 ppg, and 9.7 rebounds, while blocking 2.4 shots per game and according to coach Lyndel Sage, she has improved her game during the offseason and looks to be an even bigger threat for the Loggers on both ends of the court.

Senior Calsey Matelski also returns and bring with her a 10 point, eight rebound average from last year, and will look to give the Loggers a third scoring option and on any given night can lead the team in any category.

"We have a good combination of high and low players this season," coach Sage said. "It'll be hard for the defenses to key on just one player this year."

The Logger supporting cast of Kathryn Miller, Kendra Berreth, Kurstin Wilson, Char Bears and Hailey Matelski will all be counted on to contribute as well.

"We've got pretty good numbers this year for our varsity team," Sage said, "We're not quite where we want to be headed into the season opener from a conditioning standpoint, but we'll get there and look to compete for a league championship."

Rayders eye turnaround under second-year coach Liz Shaw

Two starters back as Charlevoix looks to improve on 5-16 mark

By Andy Sneddon

CHARLEVOIX – The axiom holds that a team makes its largest strides between its season-opener and its second game.

The same may also be said of a program.

Liz Shaw enters her second year at the helm of the Charlevoix High School girls basketball team, and the Rayders appear poised to improve on several fronts after a 5-16 finish in 2012-13.

“I just feel like we’re leaps and bounds ahead of where we were starting last year,” said Shaw, who has more than 15 years of varsity coaching experience under her belt in basketball, volleyball and softball. “We need to continue to develop our abilities into opportunities. I think that’s going to come. There really is tremendous potential. They work really hard in practice every day, and so many good things can happen with that attitude and that atmosphere. I think we can move from the back of the back (in the Lake Michigan Conference) to the top of the pack.”

The Rayders have a solid foundation on which to build in returning starters Gabby Gray and center Madeline Boss. Gray is the point guard, while Boss led the Rayders in both scoring (12.4 points per game) and rebounding a year ago, when Charlevoix started 3-2 but lost 10 of its final 11 games and finished tied for sixth (4-10) in the league.

Boss, a junior, may be one of the area’s top players. Her size makes her a threat in the post, but she is also among the quickest players – and top outside shooters — on Shaw’s roster.

“Her weapons are multi-dimensional,” Shaw said. “She can shoot the 3. We should get scoring from a number of players. We can look up for a lot of different people to step up in that (scoring) category. That’s exciting for our team.”

Senior guard Maggie Hamilton also returns as do juniors Kourtney Putman and Elizabeth Way, along with sophomore Kelsey Engstrom. Juniors Olivia Storm and Leah Davis join the varsity after spending last season the junior varsity, and junior transfer Alexis Tribfelner will also contribute. Jacie LaBlance, a senior who hasn’t played in the program since her freshman season, rounds out the roster.

While Boss and Gray are proven commodities, the remainder of the starting lineup and playing rotation will work itself out as Charlevoix makes its way through the season. The Rayders open on Monday, Dec. 9, with a non-league game at Bellaire, then take on Gaylord the following night in their home opener. The conference opener is Dec. 17 at home against Elk Rapids.

Overall, Shaw said, she expects to put a team on the floor that is much improved over last season, when several of her current players experienced the inevitable growing pains of a young team.

“They’re smarter, they’re stronger and they can make better decisions,” she said. “And we’ve got good chemistry.”

East Jordan

Lady Red Devils taking on a new look this year

By Chris Fiel

EAST JORDAN -- The Lady Red Devils will take on a new look this season as they only return one starter from a year ago.

The lone returnee is senior Paige Poindexter, as she finished second on the team in scoring with over eight points per game and was the team’s leading rebounder at over seven per night.

“We have decent size and this is a smart group of players,” veteran coach Steve Hines said. “Everyone seems to have different strengths and great attitudes, so it should be an interesting season. I think the league will be more competitive this year and we’re looking forward to a good season.”

Also back for the Red Devils are Holly Carson who will be out of action until after the Christmas break due to injury.

“We will be inexperienced, but appear to have a little more depth,” Hines said. “This will be the first time in four years that we will have someone other than Val Peters at the point, which will be different.”

Juniors Tiffany Pollaski and Kayla Keane are expected to be providing the minutes at the point, while Tori Goodrich has earned a starting spot and has really stepped up her game according to Hines.

Ellen Brandell looks to give another season of strong play in the post, while junior Lindsay Schroeder will put her hard work ethic to any challenge that presents itself.

Grace Robbins, Collette Tuck, Tess McNitt, Miranda Burks along with foreign exchange student Michelle Tshmajer round out the roster.

Ellsworth

Lady Lancers looking to capitalize on natural ability

By Chris Fiel

ELLSWORTH -- Coach Brenda Stevens returns to the helm for the Lady Lancers and knows the team has some big shoes to fill with the graduation of two of the Northern Lakes Conference premier players in Kari Steenwyk and Tara Essenberg, but knows the team is up for the challenge.

Coach Stevens knows the team is working hard towards their goals of playing more aggressive this year and is working hard at a man-to-man defense and full court pressure.

"We're hoping to do compete and do well in the conference," Stevens noted. "We have good leaders but overall have limited varsity experience."

Senior returnees are Ashley Drenth, Crissa Karavas and Taryn Rozma, while Kaitlyn Lambert looks to return following a season ending injury last year.

Also back for Ellsworth is junior Amanda Veenstra, while up from last years JV are Katelyn Sowers, Elissa Wallace, Megan Drenth and Sydney Sunelius.

"What we lack in experience, we make up in size," Stevens noted as the Lancers boast players ranging from 5-11 to 6-1, and will 11 players on the roster, depth shouldn't be an issue.

Ellsworth has strengthened their non-conference schedule, playing the likes of Central Lake, Bellaire and Mancelona.

"We look for the Northern Lakes to be tough," the coach said. "Mackinaw City, Boyne Falls and Harbor Light will be tough and possibly Wolverine."

Question & Answers About Selling Real Estate

Perk up Your Home Without Spending a Fortune

Compliments of Mike Stark, Stark Realty, Inc. (231) 536-7700

You don't have to decorate a home with expensive decorating items, rather decorate with little creative things that reflect your personality and taste. Decorating a home is all about being creative. So put your creative hat on and let your creativeness fly, you will love it! These little ideas can certainly ignite the passion in your heart and help kick-start your creative side.

Paint Brighter - A little brightness is always needed, when you want to decorate your home! Don't adopt the neutral one paint approach; rather paint little things to the brightest hues to bring that touch of life. So pick up your paint spray and do it with love.

Family Photos also do the magic - Instead of buying expensive wall hangings, print some cool family photos and get them ready in simple wooden frames. You can hang them all around the corridor for a royal look.

Say it with Nature - Nature is the best thing, when it comes decorating your home frugally. So bring in some shade loving plants and nurture them in beautiful self-painted cases. You can also use pebbles, rocks and shells around them to create a beautiful look indoors.

Mirrors on the Wall - So what if your home is a little small, you can create a wide spacious effect by using mirrors. Yes, mirrors are great to make your home look spacious. So use mirrors all around your home.

Sweet Little Things - Vases look charming, with or without flowers, and the best vases that you can place are your antique perfume bottles! Why go to market to spend dollars on vases. Just grab those empty perfume bottles, you've been hiding in drawers for years and use them.

Pretty Fabrics & Frills - Frills are the best thing to give your home a soft and romantic effect. So use lots of soft pillows with frills. Buy bed sheets in soft colors and frills to create an effeminate look.

Creative Handmade crafts - Believe me, there is nothing more powerfully appealing than handmade crafts. If you have that artist eye, you can create creative hand crafts, if not, use the internet and books to spice you up with ideas. You can use cute little button on cushions. Grab large pieces of checkered or polka dot clothes to create cute handcrafted items.

Sparkle it up with Candles - Candles are the best thing to decorate your home. You can reserve a special shelf for candles and fill it up with different colored candles for a tranquil soothing environment.

Be yourself - Well, decorating a home is all about you and how you do it! Just don't copy other's ideas, instead get inspiration and also add sparks of your own personal taste to decorate your home frugally.

Exceptional Boyne City ranch home on large double lot

By Jim Akans

There's plenty of room to garden, play or even putting up a new outbuilding as this exceptional Boyne City ranch style home sits on a large double lot, and yet it is located within walking distance to the excellent dining, shopping and recreational opportunities in downtown Boyne.

This three-bedroom home has also undergone several updates, including the kitchen and bath. The approximately 1,100 square foot floor plan features a beautiful main living area with wood flooring and tongue and groove ceiling, a spacious kitchen and adjoining dining area that are both stylish and functional, and a large, covered front porch provides an ideal spot for sitting back and enjoying the surroundings.

Pet owners will appreciate a fenced section of the rear yard that adjoins the back of the home. Located at 404 Trent Street in Boyne City, this exceptional ranch home on a large double lot is listed at just $106,900.

Beginning early next year, when the new 2014 Jeep Wrangler Willys Wheeler Edition arrives in Jeep showrooms, customers can connect with the original Jeep vehicle's rugged and purely functional capability. PHOTO COPYRIGHT CHRYSLER GROUP LLC.

New 2014 Jeep® Wrangler Willys Wheeler Edition: A Classic Throwback With Modern Capability

The roots of America's love affair with Jeep® can be traced to World War II, as the one-of-a-kind vehicle dutifully served the U.S. military with its durability and ruggedness. The affinity for Jeep gained traction as the first civilian Jeep ("CJ") vehicles – the Willys-Overland CJ-2A – reached the public in 1945. The CJ-2A, and successor CJ-3A, was immortalized for its go-anywhere capability and strictly functional amenities.

Beginning early next year, when the new 2014 Jeep Wrangler Willys Wheeler Edition arrives in Jeep showrooms, customers can connect with the original Jeep vehicle's rugged and purely functional capability. The latest Wrangler special edition makes its debut at the 2013 Los Angeles International Auto Show.

"The new Jeep Wrangler Willys Wheeler Edition is a Jeep purist's dream, delivering a Jeep vehicle that harkens back to the original, classic CJs of the 1940s," said Mike Manley, President and CEO – Jeep Brand, Chrysler Group LLC. "This new Jeep vehicle delivers pure functionality and rugged capability in a unique package that recognizes the origins of the brand."

Based on the Wrangler Sport model, the Willys Wheeler Edition features upgraded hardware, including a Dana 44 rear axle with Trac-Lok® limited-slip rear differential and 3.73 gears, BF Goodrich KM Mud Terrain LT255/75R17 tires, rock rails and a new Jeep Trail Rated Kit that includes a D-Ring, tow strap and gloves in a Jeep-branded bag. This works with the Jeep Command-Trac 4x4 part-time, two-speed transfer case with a 2.72:1 low-range gear ratio to give the Jeep Wrangler Willys Wheeler Edition its improved off-road chops.

Special exterior design cues include a gloss black grille with black Jeep badge, gloss black front and rear bumper appliques, historic satin black "4 Wheel Drive" rear tailgate decal and "Willys" hood decals and unique high-gloss black 17-inch aluminum wheels. The Willys Wheeler Edition comes standard with a Sunrider soft top and deep-tint sunscreen rear windows. A premium Sunrider soft top and black-splatter Freedom Top are available.

Willys Wheeler Editions feature the Connectivity Group with SiriusXM satellite radio, and Sport S-based models have the Power Convenience Group and Premium Tire Pressure Monitoring System as standard. Jeep Wrangler's iconic half doors are an option.

The 2014 Jeep Wrangler Willys Wheeler Edition features the award winning 3.6-liter Pentastar V-6 engine that produces 285 horsepower and 260 ft.-lbs. of torque. It is available with a standard six-speed manual or an available five-speed automatic transmission, and delivers up to 21 miles per gallon on the highway.

Available in any Jeep Wrangler color, the Willys Wheeler Edition has a Manufacturer's Suggested Retail price (MSRP) of $25,795 for two-door models and $29,595 for Unlimited (four-door) models. The 2014 Jeep Wrangler and Jeep Wrangler Unlimited are built at the Toledo Supplier Park in Toledo, Ohio.
