Boyer City 7, Harbor Springs 4 (championship game)

BOYNE CITY — The Boyne City baseball team continued their solid play as of late by winning the Division III district title on their home field over Harbor Springs in the championship contest on May 31.

The Ramblers advanced to the final with an 11-6 victory over Elk Rapids in the semifinal contest in the second game of the day.

In the championship game, Tanner Kruzel took the mound and picked up the win, tossing six innings of six hit ball, allowing four runs, while walking five and fanning seven. Derek Willis came on in the seventh to pick up the save, allowing one hit before striking out the side.

The Rambler offense was paced by Jeff Miller, who finished the game 3-for-3 and an RBI, while Dalton Gardner knocked in a pair of runs as well on two hits.

Also for Boyne, Jordan Fair, Cody Milbrandt, Maceo Vroman, Willis, Kruzel, Max Cuper and Spencer Binkley each added one hit, with Fair, Milbrandt and Vroman all picking up RBIs.

The Ramblers scored all seven of their runs in the first inning.

Boyer City 11, Elk Rapids 6 (semifinal)

BOYNE CITY — In the semifinal win over Elk Rapids, Boyne would send Willis to the hill and the sophomore would deliver, allowing five hits, two walks and fanning seven. Miller would pitch in relief for the Ramblers.

At the plate, Willis would help his own cause with two base knocks and three runs batted in, while Gardner and Milbrandt added two hits each, with Milbrandt added an RBI and Miller picked up a pair of RBIs on one hit.

Boyer City 5, Charlevoix 1 (pre district)

BOYNE CITY — The Ramblers jumped out to a 3-1 first inning lead and never looked back as they kept the always dangerous Charlevoix offense off balance in winning their pre district contest, 5-1 on May 27.

Tanner Kruzel earned the win for Boyne City, allowing one run on a three hits, walked five and struck out nine.

Charlevoix ace, Nate Moon took the loss, allowing five runs (three earned) on five hits, four walks and struck out seven.

At the plate for the Rayders, Noah Certa doubled, while Moon and Luke Klinger each added one hit.

"It was a tough end to the season for us," Charlevoix coach Allen Telgenhof said. "We just couldn't break through against (Tanner) Kruzel and we made some uncharacteristic errors to give them some insurance runs."

Charlevoix finished the season 24-9, as five seniors played their last game, including Shane Sutherland who was a four year starter and Luke Klinger, who started three. J.J. Bottomley, Logan Eckhardt and Andrew Mitchell are the other three. Some Rayder notes: Noah Certa finished the season with a school record 39 runs scored, breaking his own record of 38 from last year. Will Telgenhof had 47 hits, one short of the school record. The Rayders batted .349 on the season, just shy of the season record of .354. Charlevoix also set new school records for runs with 294 runs, 71 doubles and 176 stolen bases.

Harbor Springs 3, East Jordan 2 (pre district)

BOYNE CITY — The Red Devils

fell in a heartbreaker 3-2, to Harbor Springs in a pre district contest on May 27.

East Jordan got on the board first, scoring solo runs in the second and fourth innings, for a 2-0 lead, only to see the Rams tie the game in the bottom half of the inning.

Harbor then pushed across the go ahead run in the sixth inning on a fielder's choice.

Colin Petrie went the distance for EJ, allowing three hits, walking one and struck out five.

Noah Raymond, Tucker Alward, Herschell Sutton and Oscar

Scheier had singles for the Red Devils.

"This was an absolutely great ballgame exemplifying how good the Lake Michigan Conference competition really is," said East Jordan coach Tom Reid Jr. "Petrie pitched his tail off and the whole team played phenomenal team defense. We had two guys on in the seventh and couldn't get the runs across. This loss is a hard pill to swallow. The kids played great but just didn't get the win to show for it."

Rayders reign over Elks in Soccer district final

By Chris Fiel

Charlevoix 2, Elk Rapids 1

CHARLEVOIX — For the second time in as many years, Elizabeth Way seems to find her own way to deliver.

The sophomore midfielder took a pass from Katie Kitley inside the 18 with 2:46 remaining in the second half and maneuvered her way around the Elk Rapids defense before netting what would turn out to be the game winner over the Elks on May 31.

Charlevoix would score first, just five minutes into the contest as sophomore forward, Kelsey Engstrom found freshman forward Julia Doskoch in front of the Elks goal for an early 1-0 lead that would stay that way until the second half.

In the second half the Elks were awarded a penalty kick on a foul in the box during an Elk Rapids corner kick. Elk Megan Henige was able to complete the penalty kick to knot the score at 1-1 and it would stay like that until Kitley found Way late in the contest.

"I was pleased with how fast we were to the ball tonight. We were able to maintain possession through a great deal of the game," Charlevoix coach Pete Scholten said. "I was so proud that we didn't panic after the penalty kick. As a team we kept our composure and found a way to win. After such a cold rainy spring its difficult to play in the heat that we had today. Our girls really gave it all they had and they were rewarded."

Keeper Gloria Greene finished with 10 saves on goal as the Rayders improved to 19-5-1 on the season and will have played in their regional semifinal match against Leland on June 3, after we have went to press. Results in next weeks paper.

Lady Red Devils fall in season finale

By Chris Fiel

East Jordan 2-1, Central Lake 6-5

EAST JORDAN — The Lady Red Devils fell 6-2, 5-1 to Central Lake in their season finale on May 29.

In the opener, both teams were able to put a run on the board in the first inning, only to see the Lady Trojans add another five to that in the third inning. East Jordan was able to score another run in the fifth for the final score of the contest.

Senior Tori Goodrich took the pitching loss, allowing five hits, while striking out four and walking none.

At the plate for EJ, Lindsey Graham finished with two hits, while Stephanie Buckholz, Tori Goodrich and Haley Goodrich all added a single each.

"It was fun to wrap up our season at home without the pressure of the state tournament," East Jordan coach Meg Kitson said. "My senior pitchers, (Tommie Outman and Tori Goodrich) pitched great today in their Red Devil finale. Kayly Zimmer and Lindsey Graham had good days too."

In the nightcap, Outman took the loss, allowing seven hits, walking four and striking out six.

Offensively for the Red Devils, Tori Goodrich had two hits and Lindsay Schroeder tripled as EJ wrapped up their 9-20 season.

BOYNE CITY — Back to Back.

Coming off last seasons surprise district championship and returning a majority of their starting line-up, this years Boyne City Rambler softball team wasn't about to surprise anyone.

Fresh off becoming the co-champions of the Lake Michigan Conference a week earlier, the Ramblers were set to defend their district title. Following a 16-1 pre-district win over Charlevoix on May 27, the Ramblers advanced to the semifinals against Elk Rapids on May 31, where they would ultimately go on to win 17-3. In the final against Mancelona, Boyne got on top early and played solid behind the pitching of Emma Shumaker as they earned their title 9-2.

In the championship game against Mancelona, Boyne would strike first, putting up four runs on the board in the top of the first and held that lead until fourth, when the Lady Ironmen found a way to push across a pair of runs of their own, only to watch the defending champions roar back with a five run sixth inning and put the game away.

Shumaker earned her second win of the day, going the distance, allowing two runs on six hits, while striking out six and walking none.

At the plate, Emma Vondra led the 11-hit Rambler attack with two, including a two-run double in the sixth inning. Paige Hornbeck and Jordan Weiss also added two hits, while Hannah Hoth doubled and Shumaker, Rainy McCune, Celena Brzezinski and Katelyn Banner all added one hit.

In the semifinal contest against Elk Rapids, Boyne City jumped out to an 11-0 cushion by the second inning, the Ramblers would add a solo run in the fourth and five more in the fifth. The Elks were able to score three unearned runs, one in the third and two in the fifth, before BC was able to put them away in the five inning contest.

Shumaker was the winning pitcher, allowing five hits, with one walk, and fanning eight.

The 15-hit Boyne City offensive display was led by Hoth with three hits, including a home run and double. Shumaker helped her own cause with three hits of her own.

Also for the Ramblers, Hornbeck and Banner each doubled and singled, while Emma Vondra tripled, McCune, Lauren Richards, Brzezinski and Brooke Fouchia all added one hit apiece.

Boyne City advances to the Division III regional at Traverse City St. Francis against Tawas at 10 am on June 7.

COMSTOCK PARK — The Charlevoix County area of Northern Michigan was well represented at the MHSAA Division III track and field state finals at Comstock Park High School on May 31.

Leading the charge for the area athletes were Charlevoix's Amber Way and Boyne City's Kylie Hicks, both of which captured individual state titles in their respective events.

Way won the 3200 meter run for the second consecutive season, besting her previous meet record time by more than 13 seconds as she finished this years race in a 10 minutes, 35.33 seconds.

Amber also finished third in the 1600M run, in a time of 5:07.15 and ran a leg on Charlevoix's second place 3200M relay team with Caroline Boss, Madeline Boss and Cora Taylor, in a time of 9:34.57, a new school record.

Hicks, a senior, running in her fourth-straight Division III state finals, won the 300 meter hurdles in a school record time of 44.59 seconds.

"Kylie is only the second track girl in Boyne City history to be a State Champion, as Katie Martin was State Champion in the Pole Vault in 2004," Boyne City coach Andy Place said. "Kylie's time was so fast that she broke her own school record by over a half second. It was also the fourth fastest time in the state in all high school divisions this year."

Hicks also placed second in a close, five hundredths of a second close, in the 100M High Hurdles, in a time of 15.13, Frankenmuth's Sydney Bronner won the race in 15.08.

Also for the Rayder girls, Caroline Boss finished 11th in the 800M and was part of the 1600M relay team that finished 12th, with Taylor, Madeline Boss and Kourtney Putman.

Madeline Boss placed 12th in the high jump at a height of four foot, nine inches.

Boyne City's Sidney McLeod placed 17th in the pole vault at 8-6, a new personal record.

"As she hopped off the mat with a new personal record and a big smile, we knew we were going to have a great day," Rambler coach Place added.

The Rayder girls finished fifth in the state with 24 points, while the Ramblers were eighth.

Boyne City's Corey Redman was tied for ninth in high jump, 6-2, a new personal best; while the Ramblers 1600 relay team of, Logan Sulak, Redman, Kory Skop and Conner Mills, was 18th, 3:35.68, dropping three seconds off their previous best finish.

Champions of Character awards banquet Monday

By Amanda Monthei

A local organization aimed at defeating the “win-at-any-cost” model of coaching and sports participation is again presenting its Champions of Character award winners for the 2014 school year.

Beyond the Scoreboard is a non-profit organization that has existed since 2004, which is dedicated to teaching and emphasizing a positive and beneficial character over winning. The organization is the coordinator of the Champions Banquet, which will take place on Monday, June 9.

“The purpose of this banquet is to honor students, coaches, parents, and referees for having the attributes that the organization believes in: trustworthiness, leadership, and citizenship,” Beyond the Scoreboard committee member Carolyn Murphy said.

The organization created the banquet as a means to celebrate positive character traits and sportsmanship in both youth and high school sports programs. Of the 22 nominated individuals and groups this year, 10 have been chosen to receive a Champion of Character award.

Winners of the awards include high school athletes Abbie Grace Welch and Duane Vizina, who are each multisport athletes exhibiting respect, responsibility, fairness and citizenship, among other notable character traits. Welch attended Pellston High School while Vizina just graduated from Inland Lakes High School. Youth athlete Allison Hoffman, of Petoskey St. Xavier’s basketball and volleyball teams, is also an award winner, while the Petoskey U15 Lakers Soccer team took the Team of Character award for 2014.

Other winners include East Jordan High School basketball and tennis coach Bill Chase, Petoskey Middle School wrestling coach Paul Vining, official Justin Matzka, Boyne City teacher and East Jordan fan Tony Cutler and youth sports leader Matt Walton, for his work with the East Jordan Pop Warner team. Parents Jon and Merribeth Thompson of Northern Michigan Christian Academy will also receive a Champion of Character award.

“Parents are really important as far as making sure their kids are good sports,” Murphy said. “The parents are really an integral part in sportsmanship just like parents are an integral part in making sure their child goes to school and gets a good education. You can only do so much as a teacher or coach, so you have to have parental support.”

Murphy added that youth sports leaders are included for nominations and awards because of the important role they play in both getting youth interested in sports and teaching them to value positive behavior as athletes and people.

A lifetime achievement award — the winner of which hasn’t yet been announced — will also be awarded to an individual who has pursued positive character in youth and interscholastic sports over a lifetime.

Perhaps the most notable aspect of the Beyond the Scoreboard banquet will be this year’s keynote speaker, Dave Hannah. Dave is most distinguished through his extensive humanitarian work. As the founding member of Athletics in Action, Dave has spoken to over two million high school students in assemblies and speeches across the country. Additionally, he single-handedly created Lift Up America, an aid organization that partnered with Tyson Foods to deliver high-protein foods to over 400,000 families at various events.

“Dave Hannah has attributes that run parallel to what our organization believes in,” Murphy said. “They interviewed several people to be the guest speaker and they liked him the best. I’m looking forward to hearing him speak.”

Hannah will not be the only speaker at the event, however. Former Olympian Darcie Shrapova — who now practices medicine at Little Traverse Primary Care will also be featured.

“She was a 1992 Olympic silver medalist and the first female athlete to go to the Olympics in two sports; speed skating and cycling,” Murphy said.

The banquet will begin at 6 p.m. on Monday, June 9, and will take place at the Emmet County Fairground Community Building. Tickets for the event are $20, and can be purchased by calling Murphy at (231) 347-2500.

Kids learn about hatching salmon

Popular 'Salmon in the Classroom' program hooks kids on making discoveries about the natural world

Every year more than 15,000 Michigan youngsters are involved in hatching Chinook salmon eggs (supplied by Department of Natural Resources’ fish hatcheries) and feeding and caring for the fry until they are old enough, in the spring, to be released into local rivers — hopefully to return in four years to spawn.

Salmon in the Classroom is the DNR’s most popular education program.

“Our research shows that students engaged in this program show significant gains in a variety of subjects,” said Kevin Frailey, the education services manager at the DNR.

“Rather than someone coming into the classroom and talking for an hour, these kids are involved with live creatures from the fall until the spring,” Frailey said. “The kids learn about biology, chemistry, ecology and stewardship. Tests show they know a lot more about fish and the Great Lakes after the program than they did before.

“The two biggest motivating factors are a dedicated teacher and a committed community,” Frailey continued. “The equipment — a tank and a chiller — costs about $1,000 to $1,500 and many of the programs are sponsored by local conservation clubs or other community groups.”

The program, begun by a DNR fisheries biologist as something of a lark in the mid-1990s, is now in some 230 schools, engaging students from upper elementary through high school. Some schools have hundreds of students involved in the program, others a mere handful.

The students at Whitefish Township Community School in Paradise recently released the 88 salmon they raised (from about 200 eggs) this year into the Tahquamenon River at Tahquamenon Falls State Park in Chippewa County.

“The program teaches the life cycle of salmon, from the egg to the smolt,” said science teacher Matt Carter, who had the school’s entire student body (34 students, K-12) on hand for the release. “One of the goals is to stress conservation, the importance of keeping our fish population healthy for the environment and recreation.

“The students worked every day to take care of the salmon. They checked the water quality — looked at the amounts of nitrates and chlorine and ammonia in the water — they checked the pH and scrubbed the tank to make sure there wasn’t too much algae. As long as this program is available, we’ll continue to do this.”

The salmon release, from the bus ride to the park to letting the smolts go, took only a couple of hours, but it turned into a day-long field trip when park interpreter Theresa Neal gave the youngsters an extra job — helping stock trout in the Tahquamenon River below the upper falls.

The river is accessible by a 116-step staircase from the walking path to the water. And there’s only one way to get the 4,000 brown trout from the fish truck to the river — by buckets. So the youngsters formed a bucket brigade, passing the trout — 10 to 20 at a time, in 5-gallon buckets — down the steps to the river.

The DNR has stocked trout in the river here since the 1950s, said Cory Kovacs, the DNR fisheries biologist at Newberry.

“It offers fly fishermen something unique in the Upper Peninsula,” Kovacs said. “It’s remote — there’s not a lot of access — and it’s pretty comparable to the fishing out West in terms of the aesthetics.”

The fishery is becoming increasingly popular with kayakers and canoeists, Kovacs said, and a postcard survey of anglers showed a high rate of satisfaction with the angling experience.

“We don’t get a lot of reports, but the reports we get are positive,” he said.

The idea of enlisting the youngsters’ help came to Neal in a flash when she saw how difficult it was for the DNR crew — including Fisheries Division personnel and park staffers — to get the job done.

“We’re always trying to do new things with the school and we thought this would be a good excuse for a field trip,” said Neal, who started the student bucket brigade in 2008. “They learn a little bit about the DNR, our hatcheries and the fish.

“It’s a good community event, too,” she continued. “We always like to get the community involved whenever we can. It has been a big hit; we get a dozen or so people from the community who don’t necessarily have kids in school. A lot of retired folks come to Paradise to live, so it’s a good way to introduce them to the park and what we do.”

Leo Culbert, a retiree from Hillsdale County, said he heard about the fish planting at the senior center, came to see it, and wound up in the bucket brigade.

“I think it’s neat,” he said. “I’ll fish for them. I think it’s real nice for the school to come out and help.”

Between the salmon release and the bucket brigade, John Prescott, the principal/superintendent of Whitefish Township Community School, grilled hot dogs and brats for the students and staff.

“This is a fun, highly educational experience,” he said. “They get to see the ecosystem. But it’s a riot to get them out here to release the trout and then, later on, one of them might catch one.”

Zachary Ferguson, a ninth-grader who took on a leadership role in the bucket brigade, said he thoroughly enjoys the experience.

“I like it,” he said. “I know a lot of people catch brown trout out of this river. I’m planning on coming back and fishing for them this summer.”

2015 F-150 most patented truck in Ford history –

new innovations bolster next-generation light-duty pickup

From its tailgate step to the LED spotlights found on the side mirrors, the next-generation 2015 Ford F-150's new features and technologies make it the most patented truck in company history.

"The all-new F-150 is loaded with innovation," said Alana Strager, Ford program analyst charged with tracking new innovations for the 2015 truck. "Ford engineers filed more than 100 new patents for technologies on this truck as they have worked to redefine the light-duty pickup for the next generation."

Patents and patent applications abound for state-of-the-art technologies covering new features and breakthroughs that will benefit customers of the all-new 2015 F-150. The scope of these innovations includes every part of the truck – body, exterior, interior, chassis, design, electrical and engine – as well as its manufacturing processes.

Examples of Ford's state-of-the-art technologies on the new 2015 F-150 include segment-exclusive LED spotlights found on the side mirrors, innovative remote tailgate release and smart trailer tow features that make towing easier.

- Innovative LED side-mirror spotlights allow customers to illuminate the side of the vehicle for tasks from setting up a campsite to changing a tire

- Remote tailgate release automatically lowers the tailgate with the push of a button on the key fob – a first for a pickup truck

- Ford's pioneering tailgate step has been completely reengineered so it fully integrates into the tailgate, making it virtually invisible when not in use. The tailgate drops down into position in one easy motion. The grab handle is now housed inside the tailgate, which keeps the inner surface of the tailgate uniformly flat

- BoxLink™ cargo management system includes lockable, die-cast aluminum tie-down cleats, and provides a unique interface to the box for improved flexibility and organization, as well as additional locations for tie-downs. Available segment-first cargo ramps can be stowed on the sides of the pickup box via the BoxLink system and mounted quickly on the tailgate to enable easy loading of ATVs, motorcycles or mowers

Other smart features never offered before on a Ford pickup include 360-degree camera view, integrated loading ramps stowed in the pickup bed, 400-watt power outlets inside the cab and LED headlights.

Mounted on an exceptionally strong and well-proven high-strength steel frame, the all-new Ford F-150 incorporates the latest high-strength, military-grade, aluminum alloys to form the body and cargo box. The aluminum is heat-treated using a proprietary method developed by Ford engineers that nearly doubles the strength of the metal.

Ford is first in the auto industry to use this methodology. Additionally, Ford engineers have filed patent applications for spot welding methods, adhesives and hydroforming this first-of-its-kind truck.

"Ford is teaching the world how to build a next-generation truck, and the more than 100 patents filed by the F-150 team for technologies on the 2015 truck further proves these Ford engineers and designers lead the automotive industry in innovation," said Strager.

Question & Answers About Selling Real Estate

What Homeowners' Insurance Discounts Are You Missing?

Compliments of Mike Stark, Coldwell Banker Schmidt Realtors East Jordan. (231) 536-7700

SCHMIDT REALTORS

Part 1 of 2

Homeowners insurance isn't a topic that most people like to think about except as the funny/scary 'Mayhem' ads for Allstate. For first-time homebuyers the prospect of adding home insurance to the other long list of costs can seem daunting. Yet homeowners' insurance isn't just required for your mortgage, it's an important part of a plan to keep you and your home safe.

Generally homeowners' insurance covers damage from fire, most storms (some insurance does not include flood damage), theft, and more. It can also protect you in case someone is injured in your home. It is a wise investment in your financial safety.

Luckily there are some ways you can improve your home that not only may boost resale value, but can also knock a little off your homeowners' insurance rates. Trusted Choice conducted a national survey in 2011 and found that over 34% of respondents did not know about all the homeowners insurance discounts available to them. Below are a few key areas to focus on.

1) Home Security—

Those who live in a gated community may be entitled to a discount. Gated communities tend to have lower rates of theft, vandalism, and other crimes. Having a security system in place can pare as much as 15 percent off your policy depending on the provider. Dead-bolt locks can also be a discount for some providers.

2) Fire Safety—The installation of smoke detectors and carbon monoxide detectors isn't just necessary protection for your family, it's also something insurance underwriters smile upon. Also for fire protection, a sprinkler system, heat detectors, fire escapes and plenty of fire extinguishers are also important. And keep those flammable substances outside the home at a cool temperature to avoid overheating and fire risk.
