CHARLEVOIX — Sometimes it takes life changing moments to bring people together and in the world of basketball it means rivalries.

On Sunday, July 27, alumni from both Charlevoix and Traverse City St. Francis High Schools put that rivalry on hold and came together in support of Keith Haske, a coach that helped turn each program into something special.

Haske, a former boys and girls coach at Charlevoix and current coach at St. Francis was diagnosed with throat cancer in late May.

The fundraising and cancer awareness event was organized by Haske's former assistant coach and current Rayder girls' basketball coach Liz Shaw. Shaw put together a "Coach Haske Alumni Basketball Fundraiser Event" group page on Facebook, to which there are nearly 650 members.

More than 40 of Haske's former player from the two schools came together to participate in the Team Haske Alumni basketball fundraiser basketball game along with other events. Team Chelsey (named after Haske's daughter) wore white T-shirts in Haske's honor, while Team Barb (for Haske's wife) wore black shirts.

(Grunch) Shaw, she started a facebook page and then called everyone she could think of. It was great to be here on Venetian weekend, everyone came back."

Bryan Hawkins also noted that the event meant alot to him as well. "To have this experience here in this gym with people from all over Michigan to me, it just closes the circle," Hawkins said. "Keith impacted a lot of people, I just hope we can impact him with what we did here."

Former players from both Charlevoix and TC St. Francis who participated in the basketball contest were: (Team Barb): Lance Anderson, Connor Archer, Brad Besko, Spencer Bryan, Weston Bryan, Jacob Carney, Bryce Daly, Ty Haske, Jim Kanine, Keegan LaBlance, Trevor Mays, Collin McDonough, Chris Miller, Thomas Parrish, Jaime Pettis, Noah Phillips, Andrew Plude, Todd Rohrbach, Scott Silberhorn, Connor Sych, Eddie Waldron and Adam Wood.

(Team Chelsey): Nick Clear, Gus Danz, Matt Dennis, Justin Friske, Scott Friske, River Gauthier, Corey Golovich, Jared Hunt, Betsey (Dennis) Jackson, Cliff Jones, Kyle Jones, Tanner Kenny, Ty Lurvey, Ben Myers, Michael Olm, Riley O'Neil, Doug Rieck, Tino Tripicchio, Travis Smith, Brock Yenglin, William Roloff, Drew Wright, Devin Sheehy, Travis Smith, Tino Tripicchio, Drew Wright and Brock Yenglin.

Charlevoix graduate was asked, "Are you happy with the turnout?" He replied, "this was very cool, to see all these people here just for my dad. it brought back a lot of memories to play with people I have not seen in a lot of years."

The basketball event was broadcast live on MHSAA.tv, where those that were unable to attend could view the game, as well as coach Haske was able to watch from Houston, Texas at the MD Anderson Proton Therapy Center where he concluded treatment on Monday.

In addition to the alumni game, (Team Chelsey was victorious over Team Barb, 96-87) the afternoon was filled with lunch, a chance auction, and live music by the Up North Jazz Band.

There were Team Haske Alumni T-shirts and bracelets for sale and a silent auction during halftime in area businesses donated such items as: University of Michigan football tickets, Tigers tickets, golf packages, and Michigan State University autographed items by coaches Tom Izzo, Suzy Merchant and Mark Dantonio.

Former player and assistant coach Adam Wood said, "It was great to be here for Keith, it was important to me to be here, he was my mentor."

Cliff Jones, a 2008 Charlevoix graduate was asked how he learned about the event, "Liz

Vintage Base Ball tourney in Petoskey

PETOSKEY – The rules, uniforms and equipment may be out of the pages of a history book but the action on the field is real. Base ball (spelled with two words in the 1800s) the way it used to be played, the Kilwins Fudge Bucket Classic Vintage Base Ball Tournament, featuring rules, customs and uniforms from the 1860s takes place Saturday, August 2, in Petoskey and the Village of Bay View.

The Petoskey Mossback Vintage Base Ball will host this fourth annual tournament, where pitchers are “hurlers”, catchers are “behinds”, you hit the ball with the “timber” and a run doesn't count until you ring the tally bell. The stakes are high: the winning club takes home a bucket full of world-famous Kilwins Fudge. Matches will take place at the Petoskey Winter Sports Park and Swift Field in Bay View.

Four base ball sides will complete for the much-vaunted Kilwins Fudge Bucket prize. Along with the host club Petoskey Mossbacks will be the Wyandotte Stars, the Kent Base Ball Club of Grand Rapids and last year's champions. The Saginaw Old Gold, will be back to defend the bucket. The Old Gold has also won captured the World Tournament played at Greenfield Village in three of the past four years.

Mossback Coach Matt Berger is encouraging baseball fans to bring a lawn chair and cheer on the clubs. “This tournament get a little bit better each year; it started to draw the best vintage clubs in the state,” he said. “The matches should be real competitive. Three of the four clubs playing – the Mossbacks, Stars and Old Gold – will be at the World Tournament in Greenfield Village on August 9 and that takes nothing away from the guys from Kent. We have played some very good matches with them in the past.”

2015 GMC Canyon Crew Cab SLE midsize pickup truck can easily fit into garage parking. PHOTO © GENERAL MOTORS."

2015 GMC Canyon: Good Things Come in Small Packages

Smaller size and maneuverable solution is all new for pickup customers ability to easily fit in a garage, travel downtown areas of big cities, and navigate crowded parking lots. The all-new 2015 GMC Canyon represents the best of both worlds in this sense."

The growing popularity of smaller vehicles applies to pickups as well, and customers say maneuverability is a top reason for choosing a midsize pickup. The 2015 GMC Canyon delivers the right size vehicle for consumers who are looking for a more agile pickup.

Packed with capability and comfort, the 2015 GMC Canyon is the smaller sibling of the 1500 Sierra full-size pickup, and the 2500 and 3500 Sierra Heavy Duty pickups. The 2015 GMC Canyon short-bed crew cab is 212.7 inches long, 17 inches shorter than a comparable Sierra 1500, making it an easier fit in many parking spots and garages. Canyon's overall width of 74.3 inches is five inches narrower than Sierra and two inches wider than the Terrain compact SUV, providing easier maneuverability around town. Yet the smaller size does not sacrifice functionality or capability.

"An increasing number of customers don't need the full capability of a full-size pickup, yet desire the functionality a pickup offers," said Duncan Aldred, vice president of GMC Sales and Marketing. "These customers appreciate the smaller size of mid-sized pickups, with their

"We engineered the 2015 GMC Canyon to be very capable and functional for mid-size pickup owners," said Anita Burke, vehicle chief engineer for Canyon. "We know customers have varied needs for a pickup in this segment, using their vehicle to commute to work during the week, transport children to school and other activities. But on the weekend, they have a very different set of needs that match their active lifestyles. The 2015 Canyon delivers on all these needs." The 2015 Canyon has a tight turning radius of approximately 41 feet (12.6 meters), making it easier to maneuver when parking or backing into tight spots. And features like electric power steering provide easier maneuverability in tight situations. "With its smaller size and associated nimble nature, Canyon provides pickup capability and exceptional comfort in an efficient and more manageable package," Aldred said. The 2015 GMC Canyon arrives in showrooms this fall.

Real Estate Corner

Question & Answers About Selling Real Estate

Clear the Clutter and Sell Your House

Compliments of Mike Stark, Coldwell Banker Schmidt Realtors East Jordan. (231) 536-7700

SCHMIDT REALTORS

Part 1 of 2

You don't have to be a minimalist when it comes to your decor but if you want to sell your home, your chances improve greatly if you get rid of the clutter.

While curb appeal speaks volumes, once potential buyers enter your house, you want them to be able to picture themselves in it. And they can't do that if your stuff is spilling out all over the place. Clutter is confusion to prospective buyers and that puts you at a disadvantage right away.

If you're living in a cluttered home, you may not be able to see disarray. You see sentimental things, memories of your beloved grandparents, or knick-knacks from a great vacation; the buyer, on the other hand, sees chaos. They can't separate the house from the clutter and in a market where there are more homes than buyers, you need every advantage you can get.

Even if your house is clean, having stuff crammed in every nook and cranny is visually unappealing.

What to do? Well, you don't need to hire a stager, at least not initially, but you should consider renting a storage space and clear everything out.

Make the house neutral. Make it possible for buyers to mentally move their own belongings in.

As with any type of decluttering project, make piles of things you're going to save, things you're going to donate, and things you're going to throw away. Be ruthless. There's a lot of money at stake, after all, especially if you need to sell your house fast.

Call a local charity to pick up your items or drop them off yourself. If you can absolutely, without a doubt have a garage sale or sell items, you can do that as well but it might be best if you can just say goodbye to what you don't need any more and give to a charitable organization. Yard sales take time and organization that you might not have during the selling process.

Keep what you're going to save and store it. You're not getting rid of it, you're just getting it out of sight.

And throw things away. Really. It's time.

Beautiful Gentleman's farm with acreage near Elmira

By Jim Akans

What a wonderful opportunity to own a beautiful, stately "Gentleman's Farm." Set upon approximately 7 acres of gorgeous, gently rolling land, this is in a picture-perfect setting situated near Elmira.
