Rayders ready for the season to begin

By Chris Fiel

CHARLEVOIX -- After an offseason of strength training and a few mini-camps, the 2015 Charlevoix Rayder football team is ready to take to the gridiron for their opening contest.

The Rayders will open the season in front of the home crowd on August 28 at 7 pm, when they host Elk Rapids. A special ceremony will take place at halftime of the contest, as the new scoreboard will formally be dedicated to commemorate legendary Rayder coach Don Carey, who roamed the Charlevoix sidelines from 1955-1985.

The current man in charge, coach Ron Bindi talked a little bit about how the Rayders have prepared this summer by running mini-camps and attending the Victors Veer Camp in Montrose, where they competed with 14 teams, seven of which qualified for the playoffs last season.

"It was good to go play and get some work done," coach Bindi said. "It brought up our intensity, our participation level wasn't quite where we wanted it, but those that were able to attend, will benefit from it."

In addition to the camps, Bindi said summer workout program drew an average of 15-23 kids per workout, something they have been striving for in the past couple of seasons. One of the things that the Rayders hope to benefit in addition to strength gains, is the ability to stay injury free, or limit the recovery time of those injuries, as some of key contributors last season were lost for long periods.

Coach Bindi also noted that since the preseason has been underway, the team continues to add more and more offensive and defensive plays daily as the team progresses.

"We're improving every day," he said. "The kids are taking good strides, and we continue to fine tune the little things, each and every practice."

From an offensive standpoint, the Rayders don't have one key guy they will look to, but will look to put together a two or three headed monster in the backfield, as they return veterans Ben Boss and Malcolm Williams and they will team with Jared McLean, a junior who was brought up late last season to help shore up the defense.

Brad Klinger and Forrest Noirot are in a friendly competition for the quarterback position, as both are capable of calling plays from under center.

"We are going to have to have guys ready to step up if someone is keying in on a particular guy and trying to take him away," Bindi said. "We feel we have the guys that can do that."

On the defensive side, Charlevoix returns a trio of linebackers in the form of Justin Adkins, Austin Putman and Williams, while linemen Mick Hinkle and Noirot look to slow down opponents running attacks.

"A big plus for us is that the kids have been running the same offense for the last three years, and on both sides of the ball, we have to remember our assignments and execute them," the coach added. "Games are won/lost at the line, if we do our jobs, we should be in position to compete for a win."

The Rayder have set some team goals this season, much like every other team that lines up across from them, to improve on last season, win their respective conference and make the playoffs and look to advance deep into the tournament.

VOLLEYBALL RESULTS

Rayders fall in semis at Pellston

By Chris Fiel

PELLSTON -- The 2015 volleyball season finally got kicked off for the Rayders as they took part in the Pellston Volleyball Invitational on Saturday, August 22.

Charlevoix went 2-2 in pool play; falling in three sets to Central Lake (26-24, 21-25, 12-15), defeating Harbor Light (25-13, 25-23) beating Bay City All Saints (27-25, 25-20) before dropping their last match against Onaway (18-25, 22-25).

In their quarterfinal contest against the host Hornets, the Rayders downed Pellston (27-25, 18-25, 16-14). Advancing to the semifinals, Charlevoix would face Onaway once again, and even though the Rayders would give it everything they had, they would fall in two sets (17-25, 24-26).

"The girls played Onaway very well the second time around in semis and had the lead in the second game from mid game on," Charlevoix coach Audra Randall said. "I was proud of how they played and considering they finished with a third place in our opener was very satisfying for all the girls."

Leading the Rayders on the court was senior Emily Zabowa, as she notched 28 kills, 26 assists, 18 digs, eight aces and three blocks, earning all-tournament team honors for her solid play.

Becca Moon also had a stellar day, chipping in with 14 kills, 19 digs, seven aces, two solo blocks and had 54 serve-receptions. Hannah Zipp added 13 kills, 18 digs and four aces. Also for Charlevoix, Kenzy O'Leary added 17 kills and three blocks, while Beth Veenstra chipped in 14 kills and four blocks.

Julia Doskoch recorded 27 digs, 24 serve-receptions and eight aces, Ali Jarema added 24 digs and 27 serve-receptions, Grace Sutherland finished with 53 assists, 22 digs and was 55/56 serving with eight aces.

Nicole Hart added two kills, Kelsey Crandell had eight digs and 18 serve-receptions.

"They worked hard and learned how to work together," coach Randall added. "If we can resolve unforced errors and also trust each other we will have continued learning curves like today."

FOOTBALL PREVIEW

Boyer City looks to write new chapter this season

By Chris Fiel

BOYNE CITY -- The 2015 Rambler football team is not the 2014 team.

Last season's squad was a special group that put it all together and took a school, a community and the rest of Northern Michigan on a ride that won't soon be forgotten as they advanced to the state semifinals.

The four postseason games that the Ramblers participated in has possibly given the Ramblers a head start headed into this season.

"Our early camp has gone well, and I thought we were up and running pretty fast. And that's a product of having a whole extra month of football at the end of last season," Boyne City coach David Hills said. "The younger kids especially (JV members brought up for tournament) added to that group and they got a lot of reps and so I think the result of that is that the kids have a pretty good working knowledge of our offense and defense."

With that being said, coach Hills noted that the team has been able to install things quicker than they typically do, and he also noted that the kids' attitudes have been really good so far.

As far as feeling the pressure of last seasons success, Hills feels no pressure, "I hope the kids don't feel any pressure either, each team writes their own story, and every season is different," he said. "There are certain things that happen throughout the course of the season that are unique to that year and every team is going to have to write their own story."

Hills also said that he is grateful that the program has been able to have success and sustain that success, but hopes there's no pressure on the team as there certainly doesn't need to be.

"We do things a certain way and the end result is translated into success on the field," Hills added. "Our focus is to continue to do the right thing and getting the kids to play the right way that we know they can and the style that were supposed to play."

"The wins and losses are really nice, but it's not really what defines a group of kids. When we go out, there are certain things were trying to do, sometimes the wins happen and sometimes they don't, ultimately what we want is a group that cares about one another, works hard towards a common goal, learns how to be a good teammate, be a good person and be a good human being. Those are the things that matter the most to us. Wins are fantastic, they are fun and great, but ultimately it's an experience."

So far this preseason, Hills said that the team was moving forward as far as what they have put into the playbook. "This week, I feel were finally getting up to our tempo, our pace," he said. "Things progressed fast in terms of installation, our tempo is still not where it needs to be, were a team that prides ourself on playing fast football and were not there yet. But I think finally this week, the kids are finally starting to get there."

He touch on one of the benefits of the Rambler program being that it works around the skills of the Boyne athletes. "Were not going to try to force a system on athletes that it doesn't match with," he said. "Our system on both sides of the ball allows us to have some flexibility and adjust to what type of skills our kids have."

"We've got some talent on both sides of the ball, we've got some good football players on both sides of the ball in a multitude of spots."

The Ramblers schedule on paper looks to be tougher that than of last season and they will be tested right off the bat when they face Mendon, a Class D power that fell to eventual state champion Muskegon Catholic Central in the regional finals last year.

"Our first game is going to be quite a test, we come right out of the gate and play a program like Mendon and you have to be ready," Hills said. "Our schedule is tougher, we lost a couple of rivalry schools in East Jordan and Harbor Springs, but picked up Mendon and Mancelona and I think top to bottom our schedule is tougher."

"Mendon is a school I wanted to play," he added. "If we want to play at that level, we need to play schools at that level. Mendon is the kind of team we wanted and was pleased when they agreed to play us." "Mancelona is also a program that's improved quite a bit over the last five or six year and is a game that is going to be a tough test."

He also noted that the Northern Michigan Football League I conference schedule will more difficult than last season.

"I think our conference is tougher, we played a lot of schools last year that had a lot of sophomores and juniors and some programs had first year coaches, top to bottom it's tougher." "We've changed a couple of opponents and it's changed the competitiveness and our league, through its natural cycles is kind of in an uptick, we're going to run into some tougher teams this year because of it."

Boyer City opens play on August 27 at 7pm when they host Mendon at Earl Brotherston Field. The Rambler JV will also play on the same date, as they face off against the Mendon JV at 4:30pm

FISHING

Record for quillback broken again

NEWAYGO COUNTY -- The Michigan Department of Natural Resources recently confirmed yet another new state-record fish, again for quillback carpsucker. This marks the fifth state-record fish caught in 2015 -- although two of those records have been for quillback carpsucker on the same body of water.

Blake Wilson, the angler who recently broke the state record for quillback, poses with his prized catch along with his daughter, Brylee. (COURTESY OF DNR)

The state record for this species was broken by a fish caught by Blake Wilson of Lake Ann, Michigan, on Hardy Dam Pond in Newaygo County Thursday, July 16, at 11:42 p.m. Wilson was bowfishing. The fish weighed 9.42 pounds and measured 25 inches.

The record was verified by Heather Hettinger, a DNR fisheries biologist out of Traverse City.

The previous state-record quillback carpsucker was caught by Garrett Reid of Nashville, Michigan -- also on Hardy Dam Pond -- Saturday, June 20. That fish weighed 8.52 pounds and measured 24 inches.

"This is another example of the unique fishing opportunities we have in Michigan -- particularly in the northern Lower Peninsula," said Scott Heintzelman, the DNR's Central Lake Michigan Management Unit manager. "More and more people are enjoying the sport of bowfishing and this water body's quillback population, but Hardy Dam Pond also produces really nice panfish, walleye, bass, pike and other species."

The DNR reminds anglers who bowfish to properly dispose of all specimens they harvest.

State records are recognized by weight only. To qualify for a state record, fish must exceed the current listed state-record weight and identification must be verified by a DNR fisheries biologist.

To view a current list of Michigan state fish records, visit michigan.gov/fishing.

Northern Michigan Outdoors

Say "Yes" to Yellow-Bellies

By Patrick Bevier

Growing up a stone's throw from Lake Erie's Brest Bay made me a yellow perch devotee. Yellow, or Lake Perch, are one of Michigan's most highly sought after game fish and are particularly pleasing to the palette as any piscivorous human will attest.

Anglers target yellow perch in every month of the year with spring and fall being very productive seasons when the fish are found in large schools in relatively shallow water. Likewise, a "jumbo" perch or two can make any ice fisherman's day a banner one. But, during these sweltering summer months several northern Michigan locations and techniques can pay dividends as well.

A lake that has long been known as a perch panacea is Burt Lake in Cheboygan County. Favorite areas of the lake that are easily accessible and hold a plethora of perch include Maple Bay on the western side of the lake and the area near the mouth of the Crooked River. According to owner Dave Stepanovicz of

Undoubtedly, the best bait for perch are small minnows as illustrated by this Crooked Lake yellow-belly. (PHOTO PATRICK BEVIER)

Young's Bait and Party Store in Alanson (231-548-5286) perch fishing can be excellent on Burt. Another water body that we've done very well on is Higgins Lake in Roscommon County. During summer months schools of perch on Higgins will be located near the Sunken Island or along the drop-off in 30-50 feet of water.

A lovely place to visit, and sting a few perch, is the Les Cheneaux Islands area of Lake Huron off of the eastern Upper Peninsula towns of Hessel and Cedarville. More specifically the Moscoe Channel and Hessel Bay were reporting excellent perch fishing this week. It's noteworthy that the once fabled perch fishery in the area is rebounding now that the cormorant populations have been greatly reduced.

Freshwater Fishing Hall of Fame member, Mark Martin, also lists Lake Mitchell in Cadillac and Lake Missaukee in Lake City as good bets for yellow-bellies.

When it comes to what these banded bandits will bite on the three best baits are small minnows, small minnows, and small minnows. Indeed, feeding studies have shown that the vast majority of an adult perch's diet consists of smaller fish. Therefore, if you are targeting them it helps immensely to have a bucket full of lively "perch minnows." These are often immature versions of the "blue" minnows anglers use for walleye and pike. If you have the gear and time, however, the best bet is to catch minnows right from the lake you're fishing. Oftentimes, bigger perch will not bite readily on non-endemic minnow species. I remember being out fished 10-to-1 on Drummond Island by a young man using resident bait versus my store bought offerings.

Try a bottom hugging perch spreader rig that comes with 2 to 3 separate hooks for the possibility of a double or triple header. Alpena-made Lorie Rigs feature a fly on each hook and can be deadly (989-595-2121). I also like to go light and slowly drift a lively minnow through weed bed pockets and grasses with 2 pound test and a small split shot to get it near bottom.

Perch are schooling fish that often travel with their size and year class. Therefore, if you catch several small ones try a different spot and you might happen across a jambalaya of jumbos!

There's a plethora of popular perch restaurants in northern Michigan. I've enjoyed reasonably priced perch dinners at Dead Bear Brewery in Grayling (989-745-6289), Freshwater Grill in Petoskey (231-487-1655), and The Railside Bar and Grill in tiny Elmira west of Gaylord (231-546-3248). Wherever you catch them, or consume them, these "yellow-bellies" are certainly something to say, "Yes" to!

Red Devils looking to move forward

By Chris Fiel

EAST JORDAN -- The numbers are down, but not the attitude and team spirit.

The 2015 East Jordan Red Devils will run out a smaller team than in the past, as just 21 students so far have come out for the grind of the first couple of weeks of the much anticipated fall football season.

The low numbers though, don't phase the athletes or the coaching staff.

"We'd like to have more numbers, but that seems to be about the size of most area teams," East Jordan coach Allan Peterson said.

Since the preseason has been underway, the coaching staff and athletes have been hard at work.

"Practice is going well so far this season," coach Peterson added. "We're pushing the kids pretty hard and they're responding, so I'd say its going pretty good."

The Red Devils will once again run their double wing offense, but don't be surprised if you see them take to the air and open it up either.

"We did try to open it up sometimes last year, but not very much," Peterson noted. "We're going to do that much more this year, get some kids in the open field and let teams chase us, as we have some good four-man front on defense, forcing their opponents into the grasp of their linebackers. Those clogging up the middle of the defense will be McCoy, Ryan LaVanway, James Brown, in addition to many others that will be given the opportunity to earn a spot and shine there for the Red Devils.

"We expect to move the program forward this season," Peterson said. "We expect to win our share of games and compete with everyone. We have athletes and will do what we have to, to get the ball in the hands of those that need it."

EJ will open up their season on the road on August 27 when they visit Inland Lakes at 7 pm for a contest against the Bulldogs.

East Jordan will look to Ryan Graham to be one of the offensive leaders.

"He's got the speed, as he's shown on the track," Peterson said. "We just got to get him to put that on the field. We have to get him some openings and let him run."

In addition to Graham, Jorel McCoy played guard last season and is a really good leader. Another key factor will be Colin Shepard will be the signal caller this season under center for the Red Devils, and coach Peterson will look to utilize his athleticism to lead the team.

"He's young, a great athlete and very coachable," Peterson added. "We really like him, and look for good things."

Jake Skrocki and Trey Peterson are other threats for the Red Devils.

"Jake is dynamite in a small package, he's not very big, but it seems he catches everything," coach Peterson said. "He's a gamer and a playmaker, and has great football smarts."

"Trey really has been shining on defense from his safety spot," the coach said.

East Jordan will run multiple variations of a

Automotive Review

2016 Chevy Colorado Special Models Dressed to Impress

On the street or on the trail, the 2016 Chevrolet Colorado's Midnight Edition and Z71 Trail Boss bring bolder choices to customers looking to make a visual statement with their truck. The special editions roll into Chevrolet dealerships this fall, with distinctly tailored appearances that blend custom design cues with Colorado's popular options and accessories. The Midnight Edition evokes the aesthetic of an urban tuner vehicle, while the Z71 Trail Boss is designed for terrain where the pavement ends.

"These are aggressive editions of one of the country's hottest-selling truck, demonstrating the personalization that's possible with Chevrolet accessories, whether it's for the street, trail or both," said Tony Johnson, Colorado marketing manager. "As the Colorado continues to win over new customers, the new Midnight Edition and Z71 Trail Boss give them more choices and build on segment-leading capabilities and efficiency."

Echoing the blacked-out design theme introduced on the popular Silverado Midnight Edition, the 2016 Colorado Midnight Edition casts an imposing stance. Offered exclusively in black, additional exterior details such as the grille, the bowtie emblem and the 18-inch aluminum wheels are also finished in black. Additional content includes a spray-on bedliner and soft, folding tonneau cover – both in black, of course – and Chevrolet-logo sill plates.

The Colorado Midnight Edition is available on LT models with the extended and crew cab bodies, in 2WD or 4WD, and with the 2.5L and 3.6L engines. It will also be available with the all-new 2.8L Duramax turbo-diesel engine. Pricing will be announced later.

The 2016 Colorado Z71 Trail Boss builds on the capability of Chevrolet's Z71 off-road truck suspension package with more aggressive tires and off-road-inspired appearance enhancements.

An all-new sport bar with LED trail lighting makes the new edition of the Trail Boss instantly identifiable. It's complemented by black-finished 17-inch aluminum wheels matched with aggressive Goodyear Wrangler DuraTec® 265/65R17 all-terrain tires, bold fender flares and tubular assist steps. It also features a black bowtie grille emblem and a spray-on bedliner, and a set of all-weather floor mats inside the truck.

The Colorado Z71 Trail Boss is available on Z71 models with the extended and crew cab bodies, and in 2WD or 4WD. Like the Midnight Edition, it will also be available with the 2.5L and 3.6L engines, as well as the 2.8L Duramax diesel. Pricing will be announced later.

Colorado sales tallied 41,575 for the first six months of 2015, expanding the midsize truck market and driving new truck customers to Chevrolet – particularly in areas such as California and Texas, traditional hotspots for import brands. Colorado's sales for the first half of the year have outpaced Nissan Frontier by nearly 20 percent.

Colorado, the 2015 Motor Trend Truck of the Year and Cars.com's Best Pickup Truck of 2015, offers the most horsepower and best highway efficiency in the segment, as well as the highest available trailering rating – 7,000 pounds (V-6 models when properly equipped) – and higher payload rating – 1,590 pounds (V-6 models when properly equipped).

Steps to get your lawn ready for fall

Part 3 of 3

5. Fill in bald spots

Autumn is also a great time of year to fix any bare, bald spots in your lawn. The quickest, easiest way to do this is with an all-in-one lawn-repair mixture. Sold at most garden shops and home centers, this ready-to-use mixture contains grass seed, a special quick-starter lawn fertilizer and organic mulch.

Use a garden rake to scratch loose the soil at the bald spot in your lawn. Then spread a thick layer of the lawn repair mixture over the area. Lightly compact the mixture, then water thoroughly, and continue to water every other day for two weeks.

6. Control the weeds

If broadleaf weeds such as dandelions have taken over your lawn, now's the time to fight back. Weeds, like most plants, are in the energy-absorbing mode during the fall. They're drinking in everything that comes their way, including weed-killers. Apply an herbicide now, and the weeds won't return in the spring.

Read the package label before use. Most herbicide manufacturers recommend applying the weed-killer in early to mid autumn, when daytime temperatures are consistently above 60 degrees.
